DAVIS also appreciated the fact that, while in Los Angeles, he had the opportunity to talk with the local leader of the Muslim group. He said that this private meeting had been arranged by a leading Los Angeles Communist functionary. During this private meeting, DAVIS was able to discuss the role of the Muslims and of the CP in the Negro community. DAVIS stated that while the Muslims arrive at incorrect conclusions, their statement of the problems of the Negro people is correct. He said that this, fundamentally, is recognition of the fact that the Negro people in the United States present a special problem which cannot be resolved by any general resolution of the class struggle. He said the problems of the Negro people must be resolved by special attention and special working methods. He mentioned that this, originally, was the position of the CP, in the 1920's but that the Party lately has failed to recognize this special character. He added that, since the Party gave up the concept of self-determination, a position largely held by the Muslims, the Party has not replaced that concept with a more forceful position.

He desired to pose the question as to what the image of the Party is to the Negro people as well as whether or not the Party is a militant fighting organization as regards the struggle for Negro rights. This is a serious problem and he personally feels that the concept of the CP in the Negro community today is not that of a fighting militant Party. KW

The Party should put out a pamphlet on the question of peaceful coexistence which pamphlet should go into the whole question of the relationship of the national movement of the Negro people in the struggle for peace. KW

An informal discussion of CP functionaries was held in Philadelphia, Pennsylvania, on February 9, 1963, at 1345 West Susquehanna Avenue. On the night of February 25, 1963, BENJAMIN DAVIS met with members of the Moranda Smith Section, Southern California District CP in Los Angeles, California. At this meeting, he led a discussion on a number of questions, among which were questions concerning the image of the CP in the Negro community, whether the Negro people come to the CP with problems, whether the CP has improved its position since the 17th National Convention, and whether the CP can say that the Negro people see the Party as the most militant in the fight for Negro rights. DAVIS said that the CP national office needs answers to these questions which can be supplied only by Party workers in the field. KW

During the discussion which followed these questions, there was a general agreement that the CP image in the Negro community at the present time is weak, that in recent years the Negro liberation movement has moved forward but that the CP, because of prosecution, has become so intent on security that it has slipped away from being actively involved in the struggles of the Negro people.

At a meeting of leading CP functionaries held at CP Headquarters, New York City, on January 11, 1963, CLAUDE LIGHTFOOT gave the initial report and his remarks included the following:

In his opinion, one of the necessary things for a major breakthrough in connection with the struggle against Jim Crow is the need for a realignment in the Democratic Party. There should be a more independent posture on the part of the Negro masses in the Democratic Party. In addition, to achieve their independence, the working class must play a certain role. "We have to work our policy for the mass movement and be leaders of the united front."

BENJAMIN DAVIS commented on LIGHTFOOT's talk and said that LIGHTFOOT had made a distinction between the NALC and the trade union movement. He said they could not abandon the NALC, that their job is to increase the effectiveness of the NALC in combatting discrimination in trade unions. He commented that it is unfortunate that they did not have a comrade assigned to the Negro labor movement and recommended for consideration, the assigning of CLAUDE LIGHTFOOT to the whole question of the NALC and the Negro labor alliance, but especially the NALC. He recognized that this decision would have to be made by the Party's National Board.

On February 11, 1963, a meeting of leading functionaries of the CPUSA was held at CP Headquarters, New York City. JACK STACHEL presented a talk on the subject, "The Growing Militance and Successful Struggles of the Negro People". STACHEL's remarks included the following: &W

The Negro people will no longer accept any substitute for their full citizenship and equality; they will not accept tokenism or gradualism. Negroes realize the inter-relationship of their struggle and the struggle of all Americans for peace, democracy and social progress. &W

Trade unions have not succeeded in obtaining a program of equal rights for Negroes. A joint struggle of Negroes and labor within the trade unions themselves and in Congress for equal rights for Negro people everywhere will help defeat new anti-labor legislation now being proposed. This is why the CP supports all proposals by the NALC, the NAACP and other Negro people's organizations for using every and all methods, including existing laws, to compel all institutions, including trade unions, to grant full and equal rights to Negro workers. "We consider the above policy as a principal guide for all Communists and we hope it will become the guide for all trade unionists". &W

STACHEL's draft was discussed and STACHEL proposed that a committee consisting of himself, JAMES JACKSON, IRVING POTASH and WILLIAM PATTERSON edit the draft. This committee was approved. &W

On March 13, 1963, a meeting of the National Board and invited guests of the CPUSA, was held in CP Headquarters, New York City. At this meeting WILLIAM PATTERSON reported on the President's message to Congress which he said dealt with certain phases of the civil rights question, notably, the Negro vote, the Negro's right to education and the Negro's right to jobs. PATTERSON's additional comments included the following: XW

He regards the President's invoking the aid of the National Labor Relations Board on behalf of equal rights as a very important point which should be analyzed by the CPUSA, with extreme care. The Administration has failed to have the Justice Department act to implement the Supreme Court decision dealing with education for Negroes. The Administration must take positive steps to remedy the great disproportion of unemployment among Negroes. There must be the "sharpest criticism" of the President for his failure of the use of powers he possesses to end Jim Crow. XW

The breakthrough in Birmingham by Negro citizens is an historic, social, political and economic achievement. The struggle in the South is unifying the working class and opening the South for unionization. The end of Jim Crow in Birmingham undermines the foundations of the ultra-right Republican - Dixiecrat coalition in Congress. KW

The leadership of the movement in Birmingham has used the right tactics, but such tactics can continue only if white Americans fully realize that the Negro struggle is also their fight and support it fully. In addition, the Federal government must use its Constitutional authority to guarantee the rights of Negro citizens. An all people's mobilization is needed and united fronts should be formed in every community to act in defense of democracy. KW

The end of racism in the South would eliminate one of the two main sources of ideological contamination of the people. With proper mobilization, especially of trade unions and churches in the North, a death blow can be dealt to segregation in the North and South. It is both a task and an opportunity for "our Party". KW

Within the trade union movement, there is an improvement in the understanding of the cardinal nature of Negro labor unity. There is a growing understanding of the need for a Negro-labor coalition. Trade unions must get into the struggle of the Negro citizens in the South and North. A national conference of all labor should be called now to place the trade union movement squarely behind the Negro citizens' struggle.

At the session of May 23, 1963, which was held at the Fifth Avenue Hotel, New York City, BENJAMIN DAVIS presented a main report on the Negro question. During this report, he made the following comments: KW

The Communists are still affected by "routinism" while the face of America is being changed by the struggle of the Negroes. They should support the demonstrations taking place in Birmingham, should demand action against Governor WALLACE, Police Commissioner CONNOR and other ultra-right racists and should work in the broad movement of the Negro people. KW

They should have a program of immediate and long-range demands which call for the decisions of the Supreme Court being implemented and should demand that the Supreme Court rule all ordinances protecting segregation as unconstitutional. KW

"Our thesis" should be that there is a new stage in the struggle for democracy in the Negro and people's movements in the United States, that there is a revolutionary situation and, even though they cannot find all the Leninist reasoning for this situation, they will attempt to show that it is so. KW

The Negro people are on the offensive and "we" must continue to help keep this going even though "we" consider it a peaceful revolution. KW

The civil rights revolution is the number one problem in the nation and the Party has a big role to play in it. It is the only organization that sees beyond today and can point to the future. There is a need to rebuild the Party in the South and they have to get more young people to go there. There is still a Party in the South even if the organization seems to be weak. KW

They must have a long-range perspective and need a National Party Conference on Negro work. KW

With respect to the Muslims, (The Nation of Islam) present struggle presents an opportunity for the Party to "cut them down to size". The Party cannot have ideological coexistence with the Muslims because it does not agree with the idea of separate equal rights. GUS HALL, in summing up the three day NEC meeting, on May 22, 1963, stated that, on the question of the Party giving leadership to the mass movement, the task is to seize the main link at the present time, which is the Negro struggle for equality. He said that the Party knows and understands, because of Marxism-Leninism, the significance of seizing the main link and why the struggle will affect everything in this country. He added that they must mobilize their full resources to end Jim Crow, must win over the white workers and neutralize the Southern workers. ~~X~~ W

His additional remarks included the following: XW

A revolutionary situation exists in this country today, not one in which there will be a civil war, but a revolutionary situation in which it is now possible to have a transformation of the status of the Negro people in capitalist cities. The Party must consider it as such, act accordingly, and do whatever is necessary to bring this situation to a democratic solution. A victory has been obtained in Birmingham and the Negro people want this victory cemented. The Party has the duty to encourage Negroes in every possible way and to support Negro leaders' demands that State Troopers be withdrawn and replaced by Federal troops. XW

The Party cannot have any peaceful coexistence with the Muslims who are against Negro-White unity. "I am for working with them wherever it will advance Negro unity. I will even work with their leaders on some given, restricted program. At a meeting of the Communist Party (CP) of Illinois State Board on July 2, 1963, in Chicago, Illinois, BEN DAVIS gave an estimate of the NAACP Convention as well as his impressions of the general struggle for Negro freedom. His remarks relating to the Convention included the following: KW

The Convention, in progress, is reflecting the great upsurge in the Negro movement. ROY WILKINS has committed the NAACP to a continuation of mass demonstrations. What is new in the Negro movement is that a solid unity has developed on the method for achieving mass, direct demonstrative action. The Convention reflects the goal of a unified approach on the part of all Negro organizations. KW

Nowhere in the Convention, thus far, has anyone come up with an analysis of the problems and the direction for the Negro movement that points clearly to the main enemy and how to develop struggles to overcome them. Unemployment, for example, is a mass problem. The Party should call for a mass solution to the problem which includes continued demonstrations against Jim Crow and ideologically answering questions as to where the jobs are to come from. KW

A meeting of the Steering Committee of the Illinois CP, active in NAACP matters, was held on July 3,1963, in Chicago, Illinois, at which BEN DAVIS spoke, discussing problems much in the same way as he had at the Illinois State Board meeting on July 2, 1963. In addition, he indicated that he would like to see the following resolutions pushed at the Convention: KW

The Convention generally was successful and constructive. Communists must be the unifying force in the integration struggle and "We must concentrate on moving our Party and the left force to develop more consciously a division or segment of the Negro movement at the grass roots level of the NAACP branches". HALL, during his speech, commented on the Negro question in general and the current Negro struggles and upsurge of the Negro people which are making possible the unity of the Negro and white working class, thereby removing a barrier to the further expansion of democracy and socialism. His remarks on these topics were spaced throughout his talk and included the following: &W

The role of the Party is appreciated in the Negro movement because it is a force which does not take sides among Negro factions, but rather attempts to keep splits from occurring among Negro organizations. &W

The Party must not forget that economics is the central issue of the Negro struggle. The unity of Negro organizations must first be solved and then the unity of Negro and white, followed by the unity of the Negro movement with the labor movement. The economic question will be the unifying factor which the ruling class will try to use to split the Negro and white. &W

With respect to the "miracle of Birmingham", a democratic revolution of the people is taking place and henceforth, this Negro movement will affect every election in the country. These are no miracles only processes. These new developments are strengthening democracy and socialism and weakening the ruling class. In order for Communists to adjust to these new developments, the Party must assess things with precision. The strategy and tactics of the Party must stem, not from fantasy, but from facts. &W

The economic features of the struggle against Jim Crow are the dominant ones. Therefore, the Party should indicate to the masses how the economics of the country are tied to the struggle for Negro rights.

The Party should:

1. Struggle for the unity of the movement and for the continuation of direct mass action.

2. Fight to isolate the Muslims (Nation of Islam) liberation movement.

3. Agitate for a time table in the struggle.

4. Fight to increase the participation of the Negro working class in this struggle.

5. Help, in local areas, to involve masses in local action against Jim Crow.

6. Bring the issue of peace to the Negro movement.

The country faces a serious crisis as a result of the Negro struggle. The Party has not as yet organized itself and does not understand the nature of this crisis. It should seek out more definitive answers to the perspectives of the movement. The Party should issue a statement on the character of the crisis and how it sees a way out.

On July 27, 1963, a CP caucus meeting, relative to work in the NALC, was held in New York City. At this meeting, JIM TORMEY commented that the NALC represents Negro workers and that the CP places major importance on the NALC. He said that in the past, the CP has been lax in Negro work and will correct this situation.

The most important contribution which the CPUSA can make to the Negro struggle is to bring about the development of a response from organized labor. He was certain that a response from the organized labor movement is necessary "for the fulfillment of the Negro people's revolution". KW

A manifesto of about 200 words characterizing the historic development of the Negro people's movement should be published. A full day should be devoted to developing policy and attitudes on some of the big questions in the Negro movement. "It just isn't possible that everything else in America is shaken up and our Party goes on in the same way". KW

At this same meeting, ELIZABETH GURLEY FLYNN stated that, in the struggle for the rights of the Negro people, the CPUSA, has a glorious history and the Party should publicize a review of this history showing that the CPUSA, in fact, started the movement. She noted that the Party has always fought for the abolition of segregation and was in fact fighting for this when no one else was even thinking about it. KW

At a meeting of the CP of Illinois State Board on July 2, 1963, in Chicago, Illinois, BEN DAVIS gave his impressions of the general struggle for Negro freedom. His remarks included the following: KW

The Party has concentrated too much on what is happening within the Negro movement. What it should do is begin concentrating on how to organize white support for the movement. The Party should begin writing on what this movement means to white Americans. KW

TORMEY commented that his main job in the Party now is NALC work and that from 60 to 70 percent of his time is spent on this work. He said that both he and AGNES WILLIS are "State" Board members whose main job is the CP caucus in the NALC. XW

At a meeting of leading functionaries at CP Headquarters, New York City, on June 26, 1963, ELIZABETH GURLEY FLYNN stated that there was a need for a Negro Commission in the CP in order to understand the problems of Negroes. She said that "We" only have a few Negro CP members and are in danger of being accused of white chauvinism. She added that a Negro Commission "could take on the Muslims in the name of the Party". This letter contains the following: XW

"We want to urge that meetings and discussions of the enclosed article be held in your district. It is a major statement bearing on our policy in reference to the unfolding Negro freedom struggle. JAMES JACKSON, in his article in the July 7, 1963, issue of "The Worker", captioned "A Fighting People Forging New Unity", comments on the growing unity among the organizations taking part in the Negro freedom movement. He states that resistance from racist reactionaries becomes more violent as progress is made, but that the main danger to the movement is the alliance of racist Dixiecrats and ultra-right Northern Republicans. The monopolists in the country also fear Negro progress in integration because they realize victory in the struggle would create the base for unity of action of Negroes and whites in the struggle against them.

On August 14, 1963, PHIL BART advised that he was in the process of working on a "draft" which is concerned with the Negro question and which he had discussed with BEN DAVIS. He said that the idea was to call a national conference of Negro workers, and that a month prior to the conference, they would have documents prepared for discussion and a basic one would make clear the Party's line and direction in this field. He said they would present a two front program which would be; (a) "Our" contribution and approach to the entire struggle of jobs and civil rights; (b) A crash program of spreading the Party among the Negro people which would recognize that they are not doing any mass recruiting now. He said that this crash program would include the following: KW

1. That they immediately train 25 young people to be involved in leadership on a national and district level.

2. That the Party become a movement in the South as well as in the North. KW

3. That consideration be given to forming an organization in Negro communities based on discussion and experience.

BART indicated that they may not be able to do this immediately, but that it may be possible to get a Socialist Club organized and to encourage every other form of organization along these lines. He said the conference must be held this year and that they needed months to prepare a document to discuss it. He added that the whole movement will participate and that it is even possible the document could be made public. He said they must shock the Party into realizing that this is not a normal situation. The ruling class can be expected to encourage and promote friction among the forces fighting for integration.

Leaders of the Negro movement should not be intimidated by anti-Communism. It has no place in the Negro movement and "can only foster divisionism in the ranks of the movement".

JACKSON also attacks the Muslim organization and MALCOLM X in particular as being disruptive to the movement, describing them as leeches on the Negro movement. He also attacks ROBERT WILLIAMS as playing into the hands of segregationists.

The sources made available a letter dated July 25, 1963, addressed "To All Districts" and signed "Comradely Yours, Organization Dept". The letter states: KW

"In connection with the Negro people's movement, we recommend that you consider the following literature, especially considering the important events during the coming weeks. We are listing some important material valuable to our movement and some of it useful for wider circulation."

This letter lists the fact that "Freedomways" had published an excellent Summer issue dealing with Harlem, that a collection of articles by JAMES JACKSON, which had appeared in "The Worker", had been published under the title of "Three Brave Men" with a selling price of 15 cents, and that "a basic article" by BEN DAVIS would be published in the August, 1963, issue of "Political Affairs".

The letter urged that extensive circulation be given to "Freedomways" and the collection of articles by JACKSON and that the districts prepare for the circulation and discussion of DAVIS's article.

Source advised that on September 16, 1963, a telegram to President JOHN F. KENNEDY, The White House, over the signature of GUS HALL, was dispatched by the Communist Party, United States of America (CPUSA).

The text of this telegram is as follows:

"Brutal murder of 6 Negro children yesterday in Birmingham demands immediate action and Federal troops to protect lives of American citizens against lawless insurrection, terror, and calls for the arrest of Wallace and others responsible for murder and bombings. Federal authorities must take power of government away from such bloody hands. Failure to act vigorously in this crisis will not be tolerated by justice loving Americans. You can no longer ignore the growing popular demands for arrest of Wallace and those who incite racist violence and defiance of United States Constitution. Action must be taken to dissolve the Ku Klux Klan, the White Citizens Councils, the American Nazi Party, the National States Rights Party, and all racist terrorists. We demand executive orders and a complete program of Federal action to smash the resistance of segregationists in Alabama, Louisiana, Mississippi, and elsewhere in the south, for the full establishment of constitutional liberties immediately to all Negro Americans and the establishment of new genuinely democratic government in these states in accord with the United States Constitution. Nothing short of these minimum measures will constitute adequate response by you to the challenge of the Birmingham bombing outrages. You, President Kennedy, are held personally responsible for the lives and property of American citizens against racists terror under your authority under the constitution.

A meeting of leading functionaries of the CP, USA, was held at CP Headquarters, New York City, on September 16, 1963.

JAMES JACKSON reviewed the racial situation in Birmingham, Alabama, and announced that "The Worker" would carry a lead editorial on the first page demanding that Governor WALLACE of Alabama be brought to justice; demanding that the President establish federal occupational authority throughout Alabama; demanding a roundup of the membership of the American Nationalist Party, the White Citizens Councils, and the Ku Klux Klan; and demanding the immediate discharge of J. EDGAR HOOVER, Director of the FBI, and a complete reorganization of the FBI.

The Ku Klux Klan has been designated pursuant to Executive Order 10450.

WILLIAM PATTERSON said that, immediately after hearing of the bombing in Birmingham, he reached a number of people in the Harlem area of New York City, and raised the question of sending telegrams and holding some kind of demonstration.

PATTERSON said that, while he thought JACKSON's statement concerning the FBI was correct, he would like to see a special article devoted to the FBI and "its complete failure over the years" in relation to racial matters in the United States.

ROBERT THOMPSON stated the CPUSA should try to bring about effective, immediate action by the New York City Committee on Racial Equality. He said there should be some kind of major action in New York City, either in the nature of a mass meeting or a march and the Party should undertake a campaign in New York and nationally to influence public opinion in this situation.

IRVING POTASH said it is not enough to throw responsibility on Governor WALLACE of Alabama, but it must be stated in clear terms that the Federal Government also has a certain responsibility for what is happening in Alabama. XW

POTASH noted that President KENNEDY is scheduled to appear before the United Nations and suggested it might be advisable to set up delegations to submit petitions and demands "even before he gets to the UN," thereby precipitating a possible demonstration at the UN. XW

POTASH also suggested the possibility of taking the proposed statement for "The Worker" and reading it publicly at some federal office, "possibly at Foley Square" in order "to dramatize our feelings in this matter." XW

BEN DAVIS commented, "I feel bitterly disappointed and bitterly dissatisfied with the response of our Party". He said the Negro movement has now reached the stage which requires a sharpening up of "our attack on the Kennedy administration." DAVIS urged greater activity on the part of the CPUSA stating, "I am of the opinion that unless our Party finds a way, symbolically or personally, or in some other way, to integrate itself in some public manner, if not in its own name, then through some organization in which the Party is known to have influence, we are just going to get a setback that will take us years and years to overcome." XW

[NY T-46, September 16, 1963] XW

During the period of October 1 - 6, 1963, a meeting of the NEC, CPUSA, and invited guests was held in New York City, the first two days of which were devoted to a report on the civil rights movement. The report on the civil rights movement was delivered by BENJAMIN DAVIS and the essence of this report is as follows: XW

~~SECRET~~ (U)

~~SECRET~~ (U)

The report he delivered at the NEC meeting in June, 1963, must be used as the background for the report which is a collective report and not entirely his own. KW

Following the killing of the Negro children in Birmingham, Alabama, the Negro movement entered its 4th stage. The first stage occurred when MARTIN LUTHER KING led the sit-downs in Birmingham. The second stage was reached at the August 28, 1963 March on Washington. It was a great stage in the Negro people's movement. As to whether "we" have a positive or negative attitude on the estimate of the March, even if "we" could find some negative things "our" general estimate has to be very positive. The 3rd stage was the killing of the children in Birmingham. The killing in Birmingham proved that the Government cannot protect its people or their property. The Negro people must demand that the President break the resistance of the Dixiecrats. KW

The Negro leadership is in disarray and it requires that the leadership meet and work out a more consistent policy. KW

This is a time for the sharpest demands. The more militant elements of the Negro movement are coming forward and are having an impact on the civil rights struggle. They are preparing a campaign of civil disobedience. However, these militant tactics do not break the unity between Negro and white. KW

As regards the principal organizations in the civil rights movement, ROY WILKINS of the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People (NAACP) and WHITNEY YOUNG, Executive Director of the Urban League, represent the conservatives; MARTIN LUTHER KING, leader of the Southern Christian Leadership Conference (SCLC) and A. PHILIP RANDOLPH of the Negro KW

~~SECRET~~ (U)

American Labor Council (NALC) represent the center and the Student Non-Violent Coordinating Committee (SNCC) represents the left. "We" Communists should fight for the most advanced proposals of all of these groups. There is no alternative for the CP but to support the demands and pressures from the left groups. However, "we" have to be careful not to create an image by which Communists cut themselves off from the Negro movement under the guise of "fighting dogmatism". The tasks of the left, right and the center in the Negro movement are "our" tasks but the Party has to carry on its own independent policy. &W

A group of Negroes are trying to organize a "Freedom Now Party", a party that is essentially leftist, isolationist and bears a trotskyite label but this does not mean that "we" can dismiss it. The Party position should be that if the Negro wants to use independent means, "we" will encourage them. &W

On the question of the Muslims, "we" should be for their defense as "we" are for all Negro rights. "We" will struggle along with the rank and file Muslims although opposing their separatism, their anti-Semitism and their idea of a Negro utopia. A distinction must be made between the Muslim leadership and their rank and file in order not to kill off militancy of the Negro people. "We" must urge them to fight with all who fight for the Negro people and must realize there are trends within the Muslim movement which has caused a split in that organization. &W

On the economic question, the fight for jobs is the heart and core of the Negro movement. The CP should strive to cement the economic struggle with the fight for democracy, and awaken in the Negro a more conscious social perspective. "We" should give special consideration to economic demands such as preferential hiring and quotas and to the matter of how to unite the Negro and white workers. KW

As for the Party, it has a perspective of sharp struggle ahead in the Negro freedom movement. The Party should prepare itself to resolve the question of the growth of the Party and its press while keeping in mind the possibilities of extending its influence in the Negro movement. The image of the Party as a militant organization among the Negro people has been dimmed. KW

The Party has credits in the Negro struggle including its participation in numbers in the March on Washington but "we" have not brought the Party forward up to now and have failed to solve the problem of how to indicate to the Negro the line of march. "We" have shown some responsibility in relation to the Negro freedom movement but still do not have a clear line on the role Communists have to play. KW

"We" must show dedication to the fight against white chauvinism, nationalism and racism as preached by the Chinese CP. KW

"We" must pay special attention to the NALC and emphasize its class position but do it in such a way as not to divide the workers from the middle and upper class Negro. KW

The Party in the South must find a center around which to rally the progressive forces there. "We" must get into the struggle in the South now and KW help solve some of the problems, even though there are several obstacles in "our" way, because otherwise the Party will be set back for years. KW

The Party has not played the role in the Negro movement it is capable of playing. What is needed is some kind of left center that would unite the Negro people and "we" can provide the personnel for this. The Party must do at least as much as SNCC, The Congress of Racial Equality (CORE) or the Negro writers because it has the ideological means. "We" must try to get into all of these organizations. KW

Following a discussion of his report, DAVIS gave a summary during which he said that the question is how to begin a chain of events and actions which can put the Party in a position to speak to and lead this mass movement. He added that, instead of talking in generalities about the left, they should help them do things differently. He stated that the Negro movement will help them establish the Party as a Party of the left and that the Party has to find ways and means for beginning in the South. He said they have to solve the problem of how to grasp the opportunities now before them. KW

At the third session of the meeting, held on October 3, 1963, GUS HALL gave the principal report on the subject of building the Party. During his report he commented on the Negro upsurge in the United States and he made the following observations: KW

This struggle is taking place on many levels and it is the task of the Party to show that there is no need for rivalry with this movement. There has been no red-baiting; where there is a meaningful struggle it tends to ignore red-baiting. There also is a reflection of the leadership of the movement that sees "our role" not in a negative way. KW

~~SECRET~~ (U)

~~SECRET~~ (U)

The question is how to involve the population in this movement. Workers can be involved. Youth are deeply involved and churches are also involved but mainly for moral and ethical reasons. This moral factor should not be underestimated because it is now important in all movements including movements for socialism. However, "we" cannot win the workers on moral and ethical reasons alone. White Americans must be shown it is in their own self-interest related to economy to participate. XW

The American working class cannot be united unless there is Negro-white unity. This class unity must be achieved; the people must unite and the class questions will fall into place. Labor is not sufficiently involved and it must begin to act. XW

The Party must concentrate on three mass currents, the struggle of the Negro people for equality, the economic struggle and the crises of automation and unemployment, and the peace movements and the regrouping of the peace forces after the test ban. These three mass currents are the makings of a people's democratic alliance against monopoly. XW

The general line of BEN DAVIS' report was approved and the report of GUS HALL was also approved. XW

At the October 3, 1963, session of the NEC meeting, GUS HALL, in his report on the general state of affairs of the CP, USA, pointed out that there are many opportunities for the Party on the political scene, in trade unions and in the Negro movement, but that the CP, USA, is not in a position to take advantage of these opportunities. This document contains in part the following: XW

"The increasingly savage resistance of the Dixiecrats and racist reactionaries to the peaceful civil rights revolution for human dignity and equal rights waged by the Negro people and their white supporters presents our nation with an acute crisis which will determine the fate of American democracy now, and for years to come". XW

It continues that the struggle applies to both the South and the North and involves the fight not only for equality of Negroes as citizens, but also the fight against discrimination in jobs, housing, schools and includes oppressed whites, Puerto Ricans and Mexican Americans. It enumerates XW various acts of terrorism against the Negro in the South and puts the blame for these acts on the Ku Klux Klan, the White Citizens Council and Governor WALLACE of Alabama and Governor BARNETT of Mississippi who have rebelled against the Bill of Rights and have defied the federal courts. In the document it states that Negroes have every right to defend themselves with arms against the assault from illegal mobs. KW

The document then states, "In the midst of the seething Negro liberation movement, the question is asked: Where is the party of the Negro people, of the Negro youth and workers? We submit modestly, yet truthfully, that that party is the Communist Party of the United States. Because it is the party of the Negro Freedom Now Movement it is also the party of the white workers; because it is the party of the struggle for equality, human dignity and racial progress now, it is the party of socialism, when exploitation and national oppression will be no more in our country". KW

The CP feels that the Negro liberation movement should extend beyond the Party's own ranks and unite many organizations even those whose leaders disagree with the CP. The CP has its own contribution to make, however, it combines "the struggle for reforms with the struggle for socialism, and it pursues a scientific class approach to the problems confronting the American people while recognizing that only the broadest mobilization of labor and the people on a non-partisan basis can secure the democratic resolution of these problems." KW

The document continues, "The repeated negative experiences of the Negro people and of the working class in seeking full freedom and to improve their lot in KW our country during war or extreme international tension are among the principal reasons why the United States Communist Party rejects the viewpoint of the Chinese Communist Party and shares the peaceful coexistence policies of the overwhelming majority of the world Marxist parties, brilliantly demonstrated in the role of the Soviet Union."

The document pointed out the pitfalls of the Negro movement noting that it is made up of many diverse groups all believing in different approaches. This could lead to loss of initiative and the discontinuance of the offensive against the "Jim Crow System".

According to the document, Communists have made indispensable contributions to the present Negro uprising. "Thousands were in the ranks of repeated marches to Washington including August 28 --- and assisted in mobilizing their fellow shop workers, trade unionists and neighbors for the success of these demonstrations." Communists are among the fighters for "Freedom Now." In the civil rights movement, Communists have been loyal to the unity of Negro people and have rejected recklessness. "They have been motivated by one aim --- immediate and total victory".

According to the document, this action is not enough but it is also necessary that the CP, as a united independent political party, raise the level of its work for the entire freedom movement "with full realization that victory in this movement will, in the words of GUS HALL, cleanse our nation." The document then deals with the contributions the CP can make to the Negro movement and states "where the going is roughest that is, in the deep South, that's where a functioning Communist Party organization belongs - not as a self serving gesture, but to loyally contribute to the unity, effectiveness and perspective of the movement, to help draw into it ever larger sections of the most exploited and oppressed masses." KW

According to the document, the CP is the only Party in the United States fighting for the rights of Negro people. Yet the cry of anti-Communist is used to subvert the civil rights movement. The CP "demands of the KENNEDY administration a new 20th Century Emancipation Proclamation". KW

The CP has the responsibility of a greater mobilization of labor and white forces to the realization of their stake in the civil rights movement. The CP will join with the majority of Negro people and fight for "more militant, united and disciplined action." KW

The document concludes, "the Party's ability to contribute to the solution of the urgent problems confronting the nation today - in the first place, the civil rights crisis - will determine its role in the struggle for socialism." KW

A meeting of the National Board, CP, USA and invited guests was held at CP Headquarters, New York City on November 13, 1963, at which, BENJAMIN DAVIS reported on a recent trip to Detroit, Michigan. DAVIS stated that at a series of meetings in Detroit, there was proposed the launching of a Northern Christian Leadership Conference (NCLC).

It is noted that "The Worker" in its issue of November 10, 1963, contained an article datelined at Detroit, which stated that Dr. MARTIN LUTHER KING, Jr., Head of the SCLC, had endorsed a meeting scheduled for November 8-10, 1963, where Negro leaders from fifteen Northern cities were to establish a NCLC.

DAVIS reported that a new important organization was formed composed of Negro preachers from Detroit and vicinity which group has announced a job getting campaign in Detroit. He further stated that the organization is aiming for a National Conference of Negro Preachers to be held on January 15, 1964, on the question of employment. DAVIS went on to describe the various conferences which were held and then said that he believed it is still possible to affect MARTIN LUTHER KING, as well as some of the young people. At this same meeting, IRVING POTASH stated that the important thing is that there is nothing on the scene at this time of a concentrated effort by the Negro leadership to bring about maximum unity. He said that there is at the present time a disarray of Negro leadership and less unity today, as well as the absence of a united program for a new offensive. He expressed his opinion that they are not without forces that could influence a reaction among the Negro organizations and Negro leaders. He said that they need to arrange "our own forces" so that a unified approach can be made to this question and so that they can determine what kind of influence they can exert in the Negro organizations. JOSEPH BRANDT also spoke stating that there has been much action in forming ideas, programs and plans by various groups engaged in the struggle, whereas "we", outside of a few articles, have not advanced or formulated ideas for coordination. He suggested that there be a national conference of one or two days devoted to the question of the struggle of the Negro people. He said that this conference should be national in character. XW

At a CP meeting at CP Headquarters, New York City on November 22, 1963, JACK STACHEL reported that BEN DAVIS had gone to Detroit for several days originally for a conference to organize a Negro leadership conference. He said that because "we" knew that a Reverend CLAQUE was being influenced by the Freedom Now Party, DAVIS hoped to influence him. He said that DAVIS was very well received at a meeting of the Trade Union Leadership Council, which he described as an influential organization of Negro trade union leaders in Detroit. XW of the NALC presided over by A. PHILIP RANDOLPH. In addition, there were three conferences, one of which was a ministers conference of 100 Negro ministers who took up the question of the struggle against job discrimination, and one of the northern Negro leadership which was poorly attended. This probably was because the ministers held their own conference and because of the CLAQUE faction. He added that DAVIS attended everything except the NALC meeting. KW

STACHEL stated that DAVIS noted that Detroit has become the main center in the North of the Negro struggle and leadership. KW

STACHEL further stated that there was a split in the three groupings at Detroit and that an explanation of the failure of the conference could not be understood without taking into account the Minister's Conference, which was held at Detroit, and the fact that the NAACP was part of that. He added that there are some unsolved problems between the NAACP and MARTIN LUTHER KING's organization. He said the fear is that they will replace the old organizations in the North and the problem is how to create unity among these groups. KW

On December 4, 1963, a meeting of the National Board, CP, USA, and invited guests was held at CP Headquarters, New York City, at which BEN DAVIS spoke on the civil rights struggle. His comments included the following: KW

The ultra-right should be blamed for the violence and lawlessness which was responsible for the assassination of the President. The reaction to this crime has brought forward the best instincts of the American people and among the Negro people it has created a tremendous surge forward in the struggle for Negro rights. President JOHNSON's speech, before Congress, on civil rights was outstanding. His role has been more progressive than President KENNEDY. The attitude of the Party toward President JOHNSON and his Administration should be a positive one. KW

The labor movement now is taking a new position toward the Negro movement which will put the movement on a higher level than ever before. Politically, they should not accept the rejection of preferential treatment of hiring Negroes as held by some Negro leaders and on the question of seniority rights, the Party should be in favor of it but with some modification such as where locals maintain seniority lists for whites and Negroes. KW

A "functioning apparatus" is needed in the South. The work of individual comrades has been heroic and self-sacrificing but it has reached a point where a "functioning apparatus" is needed. "Our role" in the North is to capture the support of the Negro people and this should be worked out in great detail. The job facing the Party is how it can play a role of organizing a movement of a personal character that will rally and unify forces. KW

During the period of December 19-22, 1963, an enlarged meeting of the National Executive Committee of the CP, USA was held in New York City. At the session of December 19, 1963, GUS HALL gave the main report. During his report he mentioned civil rights as one of the three principal areas where there should be activity at the present time. His remarks, in essence, included the following: KW

Now, the civil rights revolution is the center of the struggle for democracy. However, this civil rights struggle will not keep on renewing itself unless millions of people are reached. This is a challenge which "we" can help resolve on a city and local basis. "We" must also continue the campaign to expose racism. It will take the maximum effort by maximum numbers in order to pass civil rights legislation, to continue the drive for school integration, and continue the struggle in the South. There is a need for a national and international campaign to expose the terror in the South. KW

At the session of December 21, 1963, BEN DAVIS presented a report on civil rights. His report included, in essence, the following observations: KW

The Resident Board hopes to re-establish the National Negro Commission and that it will be made a functioning committee. At the last NEC meeting, two weaknesses were noted in the civil rights struggle, namely, insufficient participation by "our" white allies, and disarray in the national leadership of the Negro movement. The lack of participation by white allies still is the biggest weakness. The problem now is how to guarantee concrete steps for civil rights. With regard to white allies, the recent KW

"We" must find a way to link the struggle for democracy in the South with the economic demands of the North. The Negro people's movement is taking its sharpest form of struggle in three areas, Washington, the South, and in the North where economic questions are first in importance. "We" must have a positive attitude on preferential hiring, hiring quotas, and on seniority. KW

There is a need for a registration campaign throughout the country to enroll Negroes to vote. This must be done so they can use their full power. It gives "us" one way in which to associate "ourselves" with the Negro people. KW

Some steps have been taken in the South by the Party and "we" are looking forward to the day when "we" will have a functioning apparatus there. KW

A meeting of leading CP functionaries was held on January 6, 1964, at CP Headquarters, New York City. KW

BILL ALBERTSON reviewed the status of New York City school integration and cited efforts of the Mayor and the Board of Education in this regard. KW

ALBERTSON stated the open enrollment and free transfer plans place the burden of integration on the Negro and Puerto Rican children and establish no responsibility in the white community to carry through integration. According to ALBERTSON, these plans maintain the segregated school as a system of education. KW

SECRET (U)

American Federation of Labor-Congress of Industrial Organizations (AFL-CIO) Convention gave certain directives to the fight against discrimination and for civil rights; it outlined the role of organized labor in the civil rights field. Despite the negative things connected with the AFL-CIO bureaucracy, "we" would be wrong not to acknowledge their pledges. "We" have to take advantage of the positive matters arising from the convention and develop them further. KW

The Negro leadership is no longer in disarray but are united and working for the passage of the civil rights bill. As to this bill, even though it is weaker than the original, "we" are going to fight for it and will fight to strengthen it. "We" want it passed and to kill off any filibuster. "We" must mobilize support for the bill and the Party should send a spokesman to the public hearings in January, 1964. KW

"We" should support the peaceful, Constitutional path and must also keep in touch with the forces that use extra parliamentary methods such as demonstrations on the streets and unite this wing with those who depend upon legislation. KW

"We" must also organize to fight the terror in the South and will need to demand Federal intervention. "We" must help raise the question to make it possible for every voter in the South to vote. "Our" slogan is how to bring the Negro freedom movement into the elections in the South and show that this is in the interest of all southerners. The right to vote is "our" main task. "We" should push the use of the 14th Amendment to the Constitution to reduce Southern representation in Congress on the basis of a lack of qualified voters. In addition, Article 4, Section 4 of the Constitution is of importance for breaking through states' rights. KW

ALBERTSON asserted the New York City Board of Education was not living up to its agreements and has taken the position it cannot move to integrate a particular community until the community agrees to be integrated.

ALBERTSON noted the existence of various organizations involved in efforts to promote integration and commented "We" are distributing 26,000 copies of our own plan. He described this plan as "a fighting plan for integration in the New York City public school system....a plan which is feasible, practical and which will show the way to carry out the integration program".

WILLIAM L. PATTERSON stated, with regard to the (school) boycott, the responsibility of the Party's forces must be to strengthen their influence in the American Jewish Congress which has been taking a splendid position.

ALBERTSON remarked the Party must push for a crash program for rehabilitation of public schools to go hand in hand with integration.

BEN DAVIS remarked "Freedom Now" means setting up a time table to achieve integration and means giving Negroes the best teachers and best schools "because we must make up for the 300 years that they have had to suffer".

[New York T-2

At a meeting of the National Board, CPUSA, and invited guests held February 5, 1964, at CP Headquarters, New York City, ROBERT THOMPSON reported on the February 3, 1964, boycott of New York City schools.

SECRET (U)

THOMPSON claimed the boycott generally had wide labor support but the Party was not able to get a general approach on the part of its trade union forces that would have opened the door to a fuller understanding. He said the boycott was too largely looked at as an action narrow in scope and was not seen as an issue that fundamentally involved the future of the whole approach to public education in the city. KW

THOMPSON declared the boycott a success largely because civil rights groups were able to overcome a number of disagreements and achieve solid coordination. He attributed this to the fact that it was the feeling of not only the Party but of all civil rights groups that the boycott had to be made a success; that if it failed here, then it would be a setback to the integration movement nationally and especially in the North. KW

Without citing any specific activity of the Party in connection with the boycott, THOMPSON claimed that in this boycott action there was a Party involvement not seen in recent struggles in New York and that both quantitatively and qualitatively the Party was in the picture. It had a definite program; it had an adequate, practical, united front approach and, it was able to be a material factor. THOMPSON said he thought the CP would have some very substantial benefits from this as the base was laid for a betterment of the Party's relationship to a number of organizations. KW

WILLIAM L. PATTERSON noted the unity of Negro and white in connection with the boycott and stated the Party should emphasize this unity, make it the backbone for future development and give it positive direction. KW

A meeting of the NNC, CP, USA, which included members of the Communist Party's Trade Union Commission and invited guests, was held in Chicago, Illinois during the period February 22-23, 1964. BENJAMIN DAVIS opened the meeting on February 22, 1964, and praised the line that had been set forth under the leadership of CLAUDE LIGHTFOOT. DAVIS presented the following agenda for the meeting:

1. A main report by himself dealing with the 1964 elections and an estimate of the current struggles of the Negro people.

2. Area reports from those areas, one from New York on the rent strikes and school boycotts, one from the West Coast on jobs and Negro youth, and one from Chicago on jobs and relief struggles.

3. Sub-reports by GEORGE MEYERS on his trip to the South and another by WILLIAM PATTERSON who had been attending the trial of MAE MALLORY in North Carolina.

4. A discussion of the work of the Negro Commission.

The first part of DAVIS' report dealt with the current stage of the Negro people's movement and emphasized that the movement is being felt in the North where three issues have emerged, jobs, schools and housing. Out of this stage, DAVIS said, have developed new elements, school boycotts, a move for national coordination on schools, unity of the Negroes and Puerto Ricans in the New York school boycott, and the fact that white liberals and the trade union movement are beginning to support the movement.

(U)

DAVIS also dealt with the question of whether or not the Negro people's movement is revolutionary in character. He concluded that it has a revolutionary character but there is not a revolutionary crisis in the United States. He indicated that it is a part of the general social economic revolution. He said that how well it will succeed depends to a great extent on the role of the Communist Party. (U)

DAVIS, in his report, also made the following observations: (U)

There must be militant action to stop the filibuster of the Civil Rights Bill. The Communist Party's role is to cement Negro - White unity in this fight and the Party must wage an all - out fight for the bill both through pressure on Congress and, if necessary, by actions such as demonstrations and marches. (U)

The Party's electoral program has three objectives and the main blow should be against the ultra-right. The Negro people are an essential part of JOHNSON camps but it is necessary to develop independent activities to pressure President JOHNSON into breaking completely with the Dixiecrats. In addition, the Communist Party must concern itself with how it can help change the composition of Congress and must bring in more trade union, Negro and Puerto Rican representatives. (U)

One of the major tasks the Communist Party must assist in is the registration campaign. The other is to try and develop independent political action committees in the Negro community to improve the quality and quantity of Negro representation. This can be done by independent activities and by trying to influence both major parties to slate Negro candidates. The Communist Party, wherever possible, should seek to build Negro-labor committees. (U)

They must also attempt to build the unity of the left during these elections and, where possible, to run Communist Party candidates.

In the South, they must demand that every qualified voter be given the protection of the government to exercise his right to vote. The South is basic to the political struggle in this country and progressives must realize that a change in the political alignment in the South is essential to progress in the country. The Supreme Court decision of 1954 to desegregate schools opened the door to all desegregation in the South and the decision to redistrict the Congressional Districts makes it possible to break the role of the minority in the South. The Communist Party must develop independent movements in support of these decisions and guarantee that the redistricting takes place.

The Communist Party is not in a position to solve the many organizational questions facing the Negro movement. The Communist Party can establish a secure base in this movement if it develops and demonstrates a sound line and policy. The Communist Party should not always be discussing how to associate with existing movements, it must take more initiative and organize independent movements around the people's needs. The Communist Party must re-establish its revolutionary traditions among the Negro people. They must develop a sound program for the poor farmers in the South and develop the ideological position of taking the profit out of the Jim Crow system.

The Communist Party must act boldly in the people's movement; the entire Communist Party must be involved in the struggle and they must win the working class to the Negro people's struggle. They must concentrate on a cadre training program. They must build the Communist Party by expanding their clubs and activities in the Negro community and establishing groupings of Communist Party and non-Communist Party forces to discuss action in the Civil Rights movement. The Communist Party must become a factor and can become such a factor in the Negro people's movement. KW

GEORGE MEYERS presented a report on a trip he made to the South. He said he talked with students on the campus of North Carolina A & T College and visited Atlanta where he talked with some Negro leaders. He said his general conclusion was that the question of the right to vote and of jobs are the main issues in the South. He commented on the great impact the Student Non-Violent Coordinating Committee is having on the community in the South and said the Communist Party must find ways to rebuild the Communist Party in the South even if it means sending people to the South. KW

CLAUDE LIGHTFOOT in his comments stated that he felt that although there are tremendous movements going on the Communist Party, in the main, is not in a position of directing and influencing too well. KW

JAMES JACKSON stated that the Communist Party has not recruited from the cream of the crop of the Negro people's movement and that the leaders of this movement are not associating themselves with the Communist Party. He said this has to be a direction of the Communist Party's work. KW

WILLIAM PATTERSON told of how he had attended the opening of the trial of MAE MALLORY in Monroe, North Carolina, where the basic issue on trial is the right to defend your life. He felt the Communist Party must give its full support to this trial and the freedom of this victim.

(U)

TOM NABRIED called for the Communist Party to be more self - critical. He said that many of the proposals made at the last national meeting on the Negro question have not been carried out. He said they must decide who will be the Communist Party's spokesman, that there are only a very few individuals in the Communist Party who are willing to speak in the name of the Communist Party. He asked how they could present any program when no one knows the Communist Party exists.

At the session of February 23, 1964, [redacted] gave a report on the rent strikes in the Harlem area. He said that the Communist Party, at present, is not really in this struggle but that comrades were trying. He said there is no coordinated movement, although "The Worker" played a good role, nor is the Communist Party playing a leading role. b6 b7C

At this session, WILLIAM PATTERSON said that both the rent strikes and the school boycotts raise the question of human rights versus property rights, which is an issue being debated in the national Civil Rights Bill. The school boycott movement only recently developed into a mass movement and the struggle for unity of the movement is still a major question and should receive the attention of the Communist Party.

BEN DAVIS commented that the National Board of the Communist Party had agreed that a Steering Committee should be established for the NNC which should be made up of people in or around New York so they could meet regularly and coordinate the work of the overall Negro Commission. He said it has been proposed that he, DAVIS, be chairman of this committee and that the Board suggested that along with himself, WILLIAM PATTERSON, IRVING POTASH, [redacted] GEORGE MEYERS and JAMES JACKSON be members of the Steering Committee. b6 b7C

(U)

SECRET (U)

DAVIS indicated that regional commissions would be established, one in the far West which would include California, Washington and other areas, one in the Midwest to include Illinois, Ohio, Michigan, Wisconsin and Missouri and one in the East. He said the fields of work for these committees should include the mass organizations, the trade union movement and the South. He said GEORGE MEYERS would be responsible for the South.

DAVIS in summarizing the two day meeting proposed that the Commission approve the general line of the main report and the subreports given at the meeting. He said that JAMES JACKSON had proposed, in a discussion with him, that the Party consider trying to stimulate a work stoppage if there is a filibuster in the Senate on the Civil Rights Bill. He added that the National Board of the Communist Party took the position that they must defend MAE MALLORY and the defendants at all costs in spite of the fact that there are fundamental differences between MALLORY and the Communist Party. He said the Communist Party must develop more initiative in struggles by beginning with the people's needs and developing the struggle accordingly.

At the second day's session of the NNC meeting, February 23, 1964, CLAUDE LIGHTFOOT acted as chairman and, in his speech, said the work of the Commission will be broadened so that it can deal with problems faced by people in every state in the country. He called for the Communist Party in Illinois to strengthen the youth group and to attempt to establish a Party youth group in civil rights groups such as the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People (NAACP), NALC, SNCC, CORE and other organizations. KW

WILLIAM L. PATTERSON also spoke and his comments included the following: KW

The Party must move its members to take a leadership position in civil rights organizations. KW

Concerning the NALC, the chapter in New York is stalemated. This chapter, however, will have the largest number of delegates at the coming NALC convention and, therefore, will control the convention. The Party forces in the NALC should attempt to get legitimate delegates, who have been active throughout the year, elected as delegates to the convention. The New York chapter has participated in the school boycott there but has been ineffective in the industrial field where they should be most effective. KW

The Party press should be built by increasing the circulation of "The Worker". "The Worker" is the official Party publication and the only means of getting word to the masses especially the Negro people.

The "Chicago Tribune" issue of February 29, 1964, page eight, column three, carried an article entitled "Red Leader Urges Civil Rights Strike." This article revealed that JAMES E. JACKSON of New York, the editor of "The Worker", the Communist Party newspaper, held a press conference on February 26, 1964, at the Hamilton Hotel, 20 South Dearborn Street, Chicago, Illinois. The article stated that JACKSON, a Communist Party spokesman, urged civil rights groups to stage a nation-wide work stoppage in key industries, should a Senate filibuster break out on the proposed Civil Rights Act. According to the article, JACKSON asserted that the idea for the stoppage already was under discussion by civil rights groups and he stated the Communists merely would assist the strike if it is called.

MARTY O'CONNOR, Reporter for the "Chicago American" newspaper, 445 North Michigan Avenue, Chicago, Illinois, on February 27, 1964, furnished a press release issued by JAMES JACKSON at a press conference held on February 27, 1964, at the Hamilton Hotel, 20 South Dearborn Street, Chicago, Illinois.

This release stated that last week there was a consultation among a number of leading Marxists on problems besetting the movement to secure "freedom now" to the Negro citizens of our country, both north and south of the Mason - Dixon Line. This meeting, which took place in Chicago with CLAUDE M. LIGHTFOOT, leading Illinois Communist in the chair, discussed a report by BENJAMIN J. DAVIS, the former member of the Council of the City of New York and a leading spokesman of the Communist Party, United States of America. The release continued that DAVIS analyzed the new developments in connection with the further unfolding in the struggle to secure the full equality of the rights of the Negro people. As a conclusion to the consultation, those present foresaw the extension of the tactics of direct mass action in the war against discrimination from withholding their children from schools, from withholding their consumer dollars from merchants and landlords to withholding their labor power from the factories. Specifically, those present from several parts of the country reported that the mood of the Negro workers in key industries is to participate in work stoppages, should the Dixiecrats carry out their plans to filibuster the Civil Rights Act pending before the Senate.

SECRET (U)

The release continued that should the southern Senators act to filibuster the Civil Rights Act to death, a national work stoppage by the Negro workers would open a new and decisive front of struggle against the segregation system, it would be a confrontation at the production level with the power structure itself.

The CP, USA, was in full support of the February 3, 1964 school boycott of New York City public schools. At group meetings of the Communist Party in the Harlem area of New York City, Communist Party members were urged to keep their children home on the day of the school boycott and Communist Party members were urged to participate in the boycott demonstration whether or not they had children attending school.

On March 18, 1964, a meeting of the National Board and invited guests of the CP, USA was held at Communist Party Headquarters, New York City. At this meeting, ROBERT THOMPSON reported on the second school boycott of the New York City public schools on March 16, 1964. His remarks included the following: KW

There was a reduction in the number of Negro children participating in the second boycott as compared with the first but the sharpest fall off was among the whites and the Puerto Ricans. In both boycotts there KW was a "rising tide" in the civil rights struggle but there also was a "rigid crystallization" of the anti-civil rights forces. They should consider what is happening in this area. Specifically, the parents and taxpayers groups mobilized and waged a campaign of discrimination and intimidation. There is a movement of leadership and program of developing against integration and it goes far beyond that. KW

There is a split in Negro forces in the boycott movement the most significant being the split between the Negro and Puerto Rican forces. KW

The participation by ADAM CLAYTON POWELL in the second boycott was helpful and important. KW

The Party must fight for unification of the civil rights movement on a new basis with room for new leaders. A point has been reached where the Party must form a line that is firm, sharp and understandable. It must be in the direction of unity within this movement and the fight for Negro - White unity. KW

JAMES JACKSON also spoke and stated he was in substantial agreement with THOMPSON. He felt that any slogans put forth by the Party should be distinct and different from slogans put forth by the movement. He said these slogans should be supplementary and complementary to those put up by the Negro movement and should not supersede or compete with them. KW

BENJAMIN DAVIS, in his remarks, called for the leaders of the Parents and Taxpayers Association to be denounced. He described these leaders as fascists and said they must find a way for their white comrades to be instructed politically and ideologically to attack them. KW

HYMAN LUMER was the instructor at the Marxist school held in Chelsea, Massachusetts on February 9, 1964. During the afternoon session of this school, LUMER took up the Negro question and began this talk with a history of the Negro in the United States. His additional comments included the following: KW

The oppression of the Negro resulted in the oppression of the working class in the South and discrimination against Negroes became the basis for lower wages for everyone throughout the country. This oppression of the Negro is a central question for the Party and the source of this oppression is the United States and monopoly capital. "Our"fight for equality is a fight against monopoly capital and the fight for rights for Negroes is a part of the whole anti - monopoly struggle in the United States. It also is a part of the peace movement and a struggle within the labor movement. This tends to merge all these struggles together in a movement to establish an anti - monopoly government within the United States.

It is important to see the relationship of this to the class struggle. The success of the Negro struggle depends on unifying it with the class struggle. The Negro struggle and peace struggle is a class struggle and for Marxists the class struggle is the basic question with full equality and democracy the goals.

This letter comments on the growing support for the civil rights legislation, but adds that there is a danger that concessions will be made which will weaken the House passed bill. It states that assurance of an end to the filibuster and passage of the bill without crippling amendments requires that groups favoring the bill voice their support. "First and foremost is this necessary from the largest and most progressive organizations in our country uniting the workers, Negro and white, and the trade unions."

The letter continues:

"Through mass meetings, demonstrations, picket lines, petitions, letters and telegrams to Senators jointly with others and as individual citizens in our places of employment, neighborhoods, in the churches, peoples organizations -- let us make a full contribution towards this goal."

The source made available a copy of the speech given by HENRY WINSTON at this meeting on May 16, 1964. In this speech, WINSTON made the following observations: ~~X~~ w

Today, life is proving an old thesis developed by the CP during the 1930's, namely, that the Negro question in the United States was the touchstone in the struggle for democracy in this country. This was not always understood by Communists or the labor and progressive movements but it is now clear that the defense of democracy for all the people is centered around the struggle for complete equality for the Negro people. ~~X~~ w

The fight for integration is in a new stage because of this. The difficulty of the struggle is clear, that is, the fighting character needed to win, the need for allies. It is impossible to win equality for the Negro people except insofar as this struggle is linked to the fight for democracy as a whole. There is a question as to what is needed from Communists to place the fight for equality on a higher plane. The main problem is to win over the white masses to the struggle and to fight in such a way as to educate and raise the level of understanding of the white masses. ~~X~~ w

~~SECRET~~ (U)

The aim of this struggle is threefold: first, to enlist in the fight the masses of progressive Americans who understand the necessity of this struggle; second, to fight in such a way as to neutralize that section which is beginning to think in opposition; and to isolate the more rabid racists among the white population and advance the struggle for Negro rights.

Communists must be able to show how to develop the fight for integration which must include the fight for the special demands of Negroes.

This meeting has been called for the purpose of seizing the main link in the fight and that is to win the white masses to the struggle, to counteract racist ideology, to place the struggle on a new and higher level, and to begin an all-out offensive against the stall-in Congress.

The furtherance of the fight for equality depends upon the degree to which solidarity between black and white is achieved in the labor movement. The Negro Commission of the Party has already issued a policy statement which called for the development of the alliance of the Negro people and the labor movement. The unity of black and white played a great role in the 1930s, 1940s, and 1950s, and it has to be carried to a higher stage now.

The source made available a copy of the report presented by CLAUDE LIGHTFOOT on May 16, 1964, which was entitled "A Working Paper on Negro-White Unity." This report contained, in substance, the following:

The purpose of the meeting is to discuss one of the most challenging problems before the country today, namely, the struggle to unify Negro and white in order to achieve a better America. There are powerful forces at work operating among Negroes and whites in an attempt to prevent this unity. What is required is to see why unity is necessary and the possibilities for achieving it. KW

[redacted] (U)

The struggle must be waged on two fronts. While the main obstacles to this unity are among white masses, there are also problems and attitudes in the Negro community which must be changed. White chauvinism and certain forms of Negro nationalism are the weapons used by certain elements to prevent the unity of these two forces. KW

Civil rights forces are losing confidence that white support can be gained. What is necessary is for Negroes and their few white supporters to keep working until the white majority is forced to make changes. One of the chief jobs for Communists is to help clarify the theories being advanced by the Negro community as to what actions to take. KW

Since the 1954 Supreme Court Decision de-segregating public schools, changes have taken place in the Negro and labor movements. The Negro movement has become more militant and the labor movement more conservative. Since 1954, the Negro movement has been advancing into a revolutionary force while the labor movement underwent changes making it into a more conservative force. Among the compositional changes causing the labor movement to lose its militancy, was the purging of Communists and the destruction of left unions in the movement. This anti-Communism resulted in the reduction of white participants in the struggle for civil rights. Another factor was the economic status of labor which, over the years, has negotiated wage increases. KW

~~SECRET~~ (U)

~~SECRET~~ (U)

Today there is a crisis comparable to the Civil War which can cause the mass of white Americans to join the fight to end Jim Crow. The international situation has been the chief favorable factor under which the struggle against Jim Crow has been fought. However, this is not enough and today internal forces within the United States are going to be forced into the struggle which will create favorable conditions to achieve more than just token gains. KW

The labor movement status of the last ten years will change in the next few years and the possibility of building a Negro labor alliance, which will be the hard core of a general people's alliance, will grow. The basis for political and social changes in this country is the economic situation as well as the international. The country's economy is in serious trouble and, within the next few years, the country will face the problem of adjusting to a peace time economy. Then it will face a serious challenge from the Soviet Union in providing better living conditions and assisting backward people. An aroused public and labor movement as well as a political change in government will be needed to tackle the economic problems. Against this setting, the objective conditions for a breakthrough against Jim Crow will become favorable. KW

With regards to tactical approaches, no matter what differences exist, attempting to form unity on those issues on which agreement can be reached is essential. This does not mean that the Negro movement should restrict or water down its demands. It is necessary for those who operate in civil rights organizations to try and find those issues that can best unify the Negro and white communities. KW

The Party does not have to identify itself with every form of struggle. The criterion must be, KW not the particular tactic, but the tactic which will get the best results in terms of mass mobilization. The issue is an ever-widening basis of unity of Negroes, of Negro and white, and Negro and labor. This is the way to achieve a break down of the Jim Crow system.

The source also made available details of the report given by GUS HALL at the session of May 16, 1964. HALL's report contained, in part, the following comments:

They must adhere to the class basis in their approach to the solution of the problem of civil rights. Also the concept of Negro-white unity is a basic approach and they should use the term "in struggle" when speaking of Negro-white unity. It is necessary to try to raise the problem to a new level of understanding.

The main ideological influence and problem is the influence of white chauvinism; it is the main obstacle to unity of "our people" and unity of Negro and white. They must find ways of exposing the class source of white chauvinism. The special contribution Marxists can make is the class approach to the problem.

They must consider how to win white America to the struggle and better ways of doing it. It is not enough to be correct; they must be right in a way that wins over people. They should consider how they can best make a contribution in advancing the struggle by winning over people.

They have to emphasize that this struggle is central to everything in this country, to emphasize that this struggle embodies the self-interest of the entire nation.

They must find ways of convincing America that this is so. They also have to find ways of emphasizing that the issue of civil rights is up for resolution now. The solution is to destroy the whole system of discrimination and segregation.

White youth are giving leadership to the movement for civil rights and they should take note of this. Also the increased role of the clergy must be recognized. They should not underestimate the importance of the educational campaign the churches are carrying on.

They must give a positive estimate of the role of Communists, left elements, and socialists and especially Communist youth who are playing an increasing role in actions throughout the country. They must get away from the idea that they do not openly proclaim the contributions that Communists make in the struggle for civil rights. It is true that there is an increasing participation of Communists, Negro and white, in the struggle.

New victories can be won but only through militant and mass struggle. This is true because the system of segregation and discrimination has become a mainstay of the ideology of American capitalism and in keeping reactionary blocs in city, state, and national government. The roots of the problem are deep within capitalism and the system of Jim Crow will be destroyed only when capitalism is destroyed. This has to be a basic premise of the Party approach.

The understanding of the class basis of the system of segregation is fundamental. They have not done enough as a Marxist Party on this question and to this extent have weakened the fight.

[redacted] (U)

SECRET (U)

The center of their appeal to white Americans should be that there is a critical development taking place on the civil rights issue, a drawing together of various groups to preserve the segregation system. The preservation of this system accompanied by the ideology of chauvinism and racism is becoming the unifying factor for all of the most reactionary and bigoted organizations and movements in the country. Such forces are now all joined with the Dixiecrats and White Citizens Councils in the struggle against civil rights. This coalition has the backing of Senator GOLDWATER and will have a special significance because it has him for a spokesman. There is a further crystallization of the ultra-right movement and danger based on this struggle. This is a new danger for this country.

On May 16 and 17, 1964, a meeting of the National Negro Commission, CPUSA, was held at CP Headquarters. During the May 17, 1964 session, it was stated by CLAUDE LIGHTFOOT "we" must not be scared off by the statement of some civil rights leaders that they do not want Communists to participate in the movement. He said he has credentials to participate in this movement and no one is going to tell him otherwise.

At a meeting of leading CP functionaries held in New York City on May 21, 1964, PHIL BART declared that the Party must develop a line and a policy in connection with Negro work and that work in this field should be intensified.

~~CLASSIFIED~~ (U)

It was generally agreed by all present that the Party must become involved in the mass struggle for civil rights.

May 21, 1964]

The report given by PHIL BART at the National Negro Commission meeting stressed mainly the fact that, although the Negro freedom movement has been surging forward in the past period, the Party has not increased its membership among the Negroes and has even retained its position with difficulty. This was blamed on red-baiting and the actions of the government against, the Party, on factionalism in Harlem with a resulting loss in membership and influence, and mainly on a lack of consciousness that the Party must be built during the struggle.

He indicated that this established the need for developing a concentration policy in relation to this activity and, in connection with the coming 45th anniversary of the Party, stress should be given to the fact that the Party made solid contributions to the Negro struggle it can boast of.

BART, in his report, said the meeting had stressed the ideological struggle and in this struggle they are concerned with winning over the Negro to the Party and its position, especially the Negro youth.

He proposed a concentration in Harlem, in New York, and the south side of Chicago and consultation with Los Angeles on a possible point of concentration there. This is to be used for building and strengthening the Party, increase "The Worker" circulation, and help initiate and strengthen such left movements as have been organized and can develop in these areas.

A national committee is to be developed composed of representatives from these areas plus national organization and "Worker" representatives to report on its work and resulting activities each month to the Secretariat. A detailed plan of work should be prepared for a six month campaign, this plan to be worked out during June, 1964. KW

The committee is to work out means of making its activities public and to indicate that these activities are being carried on as a contribution to the struggle for Negro freedom today. BART also said that they must counteract the idea that if the CP directly carries on such activities it will create a bad result for the Negro movement. KW

At the May 17 session of the meeting, CLAUDE LIGHTFOOT spoke again. He said that one of the great problems in the national liberation movement today is the lack of unity among leaders of the movement. He stated that each has his own force and each pushes his own force and that the Party has a role to play in unifying the various forces. KW

LIGHTFOOT remarked that the only criticism he has is that the Party should document its contributions to the Negro liberation movement. He said they must not be scared off by the statement of some civil rights leaders that they do not want Communists to participate. He added that they must not antagonize civil rights leaders but must work with them because "they need us." KW

At the end of the meeting, there was considerable discussion as to whether the Party should follow a KW concentration policy with regard to the Negro movement. The matter of concentrating in one area was discussed but LIGHTFOOT disagreed with this stating they would not produce the over-all results looked for. There was no objection to his proposal that the point of concentration be put on the agenda for the next meeting. &W

LIGHTFOOT concluded the discussion by proposing that a subcommittee be appointed and that HENRY WINSTON be responsible for the day to day operation of this committee. &W

At a meeting of the National Board of the CP, USA, at CP Headquarters, New York City, on May 23, 1964, CLAUDE LIGHTFOOT stated that most of his points had been covered at the National Negro Commission meeting of the past week end. He said they had decided to concentrate on four Negro communities, Harlem, the south side of Chicago, the east or west side of Detroit, and, tentatively, Los Angeles. He said such a program will require the resources and cooperation of the districts and the National Office. &W

GUS HALL also spoke and said that mobilizing whites is the most important problem in the civil rights movement and has been brushed off. He said white workers must be won over and the class basis must be their approach. He said discrimination and segregation are part of the basic structure of United States capitalism. &W

During early April, 1964, the leading members of the CP, USA, assembled in New York City for a meeting of the National Executive Committee. At the session of April 6, 1964, JAMES JACKSON delivered a report on the civil rights movement in the United States. He said he would set forth some current problems with emphasis upon forthcoming dates for action so the Party could prepare itself to participate in these actions. KW

JACKSON first discussed the civil rights bill before the United States Senate stating that there was need for a new spirit all across the nation to focus attention on this bill. KW

He announced that the NALC would hold its convention in May, 1964, in Cleveland and that the war on poverty was on the agenda for the convention. He said there must be a push against the barriers for jobs that have been raised against Negroes. KW

He also announced that the NAACP would hold its convention during June, 1964, and urged that pressures be brought to bear on behalf of Negroes to include such things as school boycotts and rent strikes. KW

JACKSON also championed reapportionment and increased Negro representation in legislative bodies. He suggested the possibility of preparing resolutions to be sent to the National Conventions of the two major parties to dramatize the inequality of Negro representation. KW

Regarding the outlook for the current phase of the Negro freedom movement, there will be no rest, great militancy can be expected in the summer of 1964. He noted that there would be an "Operation Mississippi" in which 2,000 young people would go to that state. KW

Regarding MALCOLM X, he ~~has~~ lost his moorings and direction. The Party should watch closely and perhaps can still guide him in his role.

JACKSON stated also that there was a concerted Party plan last year for reviewing the Party's movement in the South. He announced that the Party has been making contact with new movements and that the Party has people in each of these movements in motion in the South.

JACKSON referred to the Negro quarterly magazine, "Freedomways," stating that the Party can make much greater use of this magazine than they have. He said some group in the South ordered 1,000 copies of the last issue of the publication. He stated that this magazine is the theoretical contact among all parts of the Negro movement.

JACKSON announced that CLAUDE LIGHTFOOT has been drafted to fill the opening in the Negro Commission created by the illness of BENJAMIN DAVIS.

A characterization of "Freedomways" is contained in the Appendix of this report.

A meeting of the New York District CP, Trade Union Commission was held in New York City on June 14, 1964, at which ROBERT THOMPSON gave the main report on civil rights. His report included the following:

The basic question of the Negro revolution is contained within the social, political, and educational affairs of the country today. KW

Civil rights should be tied in with other problems such as war and peace. The peace movement and cold war policies should be brought into focus along with the civil rights issue, and the drive of capitalism against labor should also be pointed out. These two issues along with the civil rights issue should be bound together to make a strong presentation to the American people. KW

At a meeting of the Peace Club, Kings County CP, in Brooklyn, New York, on May 19, 1964, WILLIAM PATTERSON, in his speech, stated that the growth of the Party or the Party's failure to grow would rest on the unity that the Party might develop among civil rights forces and their leaders as well as the unity between Negro and white, and the unity between the Negro civil rights organizations and the labor movement. He said that if the Party did not undertake this and succeed it would be crucial for the Party. KW

The sources made available on June 29, 1964, a letter from HENRY WINSTON dated June 16, 1964, addressed, "Dear Comrade," enclosing a first draft of a statement. The letter states that the aim of this draft is to set forth proposals of the Party regarding the fight for civil rights. KW

~~SECRET~~ (U)

The statement is entitled, "A Program to End Segregation, Southern or Northern Style, Fight a Real War Against Poverty and for Freedom, Put America to Work to Reconstruct the Nation's Harlems and Appalachias." This statement contains the following observations: KW

The civil rights revolution is demanding full citizenship for Negro people now and this revolution has exposed such things as the poverty that exists in this country especially in the Negroes areas and in the area known as Appalachia. The segregated school systems are being challenged in the cities of the nation and there are revolts against the ghettos which are sparked by rent strikes. KW

The alliance of Negro and white workers can today bring about the guarantee of a job and decent pay for all. This alliance must be one of equals. To bring this alliance about, labor must eliminate all job discrimination used by employers and unions. The fight for jobs should be against the common enemy - the big monopolies. KW

The winning of freedom for the twenty million Negro Americans can unify the nation, can break the Dixiecrat reactionary Republican hold on Congress, and filibuster against all legislation in behalf of the people. It can end the Southern differential that provides cheap labor and makes whites and Negroes the victims of substandard wages and job conditions. KW

This statement continues: KW

"A great people's coalition for freedom, peace, decent jobs, homes and schools for all can overcome the rising Goldwater alliance of racists, reactionaries and

"warmongers. It is toward this end that the Communist Party, USA offers the following program for the consideration of all fighters for freedom, democracy and peace. KW

"END SECOND-CLASS CITIZENSHIP. THE CONSTITUTION MUST BE THE LAW OF THE LAND NORTH AND SOUTH. NO MORE SEGREGATION, SOUTHERN OF NORTHERN STYLE, DE JURE OR DE FACTO, BY LAW OR IN PRACTICE. LED BY THE FEDERAL GOVERNMENT, THE NATION SHOULD EMBARK ON A GREAT CRUSADE TO INTEGRATE AMERICA. KW

"Toward this end we propose: KW

"* A multi-billion dollar federal educational program to provide free, integrated schooling everywhere, including on a college and technical level. Special assistance, including financial subsidies to Negro, Puerto Rican and Mexican-American youth to enable them to overcome the educational lag due to decades of discrimination. These are to be steps leading to a national, integrated educational system of a high quality everywhere. KW

"*A multi-billion dollar federal housing program to reconstruct our cities on an integrated basis, to end ghettoes by erasing all discriminatory neighborhood frontiers and to provide adequate low and middle income homes at reasonable rents. The sources made available on June 29, 1964, a mimeographed letter dated June 11, 1964, addressed "To All Districts" and signed, "Comradely Yours, Organization Bureau." One concerned the refusal of the Supreme Court to grant certiorari to the Government's appeal on the McCarran Act against the CP which it said represents an important victory against XW

the Act. It adds that a number of cases are still pending before the courts which are part of the persecution resulting from the McCarran Act. The letter urged that every means be taken "to bring to the attention of the people in your area the need for struggle to defeat McCarranism." KW

The second item captioned, "Terroristic Actions of Southern State Governments," concerns the reactions by these governments to the civil rights movement in the Southern states. It relates that "some cities have been turned into armed camps against the Negro people," and that arrests, beatings, and new laws are being used in an effort to destroy the movement for civil rights. It adds: KW

"We urge that every possible support be given in the struggle to defend the Negro people and whites, who have joined in the struggle in the South today, by calling for federal intervention by the President. This requires federal forces to protect the citizens in these states." KW

It states that the dangers confronting people in the South are summarized in "The Worker" of June 28, 1964. XW

This letter states that the following actions should be taken immediately: XW

"1. It is necessary for each person aware of these facts individually and through securing the support of his or her neighbors, fellow workers in the shops, trade unions and other organizations, churches, etc. to individually and collectively call upon President Johnson and the Dept. of Justice to reverse the position taken by John Doar and to provide all the necessary federal force to guarantee and make secure the lives and Constitutional rights of all citizens in the South, Negro and white. "2. To demand and, if necessary, to ask Congress to pass legislation outlawing the use of dogs, electric prods and other such barbaric methods against demonstrators in any situation. XW

"3. We should especially insist on immediate federal intervention in Mississippi where the liberties of the people are being violated and the lives of the Freedom fighters are in jeopardy. XW

Sources furnished a 40 page, not for publication, first draft of a ten year plan for the development of the kind of public school system in New York City which will provide every child - Negro, white, Puerto Rican - with a first rate education, giving them the equipment they need to play their full and exciting part in the Space Age. (U)

This draft, which sources stated was prepared for the New York District CP by VICTOR PERLO, reflects the CP's program in this regard. It calls for desegregation to be carried out within one year in grades kindergarten through nine through a modified Princeton plan; free transportation to students requiring it; freedom of choice by students to any high school in New York City subject to the capacity of the school and for the teaching of the history of the Negro and Puerto Rican peoples to be a major feature in the school curriculum. The New York District CP Commission on Schools met on October 8, 1963, at 552 Riverside Drive, New York City, for the specific purpose of discussing the draft of a ten year plan for public schools in New York City which had been prepared by VICTOR PERLO in consultation with members of this commission. XU

The consensus was that PERLO had done an excellent job in presenting a program which could be achieved under the present capitalistic system. It was suggested, however, the section of the draft dealing with the education of retarded children be amplified. Specifically, it should be defined as by whom and how such children would be selected. XU

It was stated that after the New York District CP had given its final approval to the draft, an Editorial Committee would meet to prepare the draft in its final form. XU

It was further determined that VICTOR PERLO at the specific request of the CP is now working on a study of how both the economic status of the lowest workers in the social structure of New York City and the overall economy of the city could be upgraded with complete disarmament and the conversion of all war related industries in the New York City area. The source made available a press release dated October 30, 1963, on the letterhead of the Communist Party of New York State, issued by WILLIAM L. PATTERSON and ROBERT THOMPSON, spokesmen for the New York State Communist Party.

This press release pertains to the October 23, 1963 "Policy Statement on the State of the Negro Today", adopted by the City Commission on Human Rights of New York which was made public on October 28, 1963.

The press release states the New York State CP considers the Human Rights Commission has done the City of New York, and the State and Nation as well, a service of immeasurable value through the issuance of this "Policy Statement."

It goes on to state that in its essence this statement is a stirring call that all agencies of government pursue policies which recompense Negro Americans "for the inequities of 100 years."

In conclusion, this press release states,

"The Communist Party urges each and every one of its members to play their full part in this struggle.

"It urges that every union, every peoples' organization, every decent minded individual make their voice and pressure felt at once in support of the basic principles set forth in the Human Rights Commission Policy Statement.

"Demand that the City Council, Mayor Wagner, and all other city officials, including candidates in the current elections support this Policy Statement.

"Demand that the City Council and the Wagner Administration adopt the Human Rights Commission Policy Statement as New York City Policy and that it be applied by all city agencies.

On November 11, 1963, a meeting was held at CP Headquarters, New York City, which was opened by WILLIAM PATTERSON. He designated the Harlem area of New York City as a concentration point stating that it is necessary to have unity there and to develop a working class leadership. His additional remarks included the following: (U)

It is necessary to have Negro-White unity, to cite the unemployed communities and to bring forth a satisfactory program for housing and schools. (U)

In Harlem, at the present time, "we" have two Party adult clubs but the problem is to strengthen them because they are not playing a role. It is necessary to bring forth the image of the Party in its correct light. "We" have many friends in that area and there is a possibility of operating within the Democratic Party there. (U)

He would propose that there be a plan of work from the two clubs consistent with their possibilities. These clubs should work with the youth and each member of the club must be a member of a mass organization. Such a plan must be drawn up immediately and he would propose having a Harlem conference soon regarding the possibilities of growth in that area. (U)

~~SECRET~~ (U)

~~SECRET~~ (U)

ROBERT THOMPSON noted that the main mass activity is civil rights. In regards to civil rights, it should be a Party-wide mobilization of Whites. What is done in Harlem is dependent on what can be done to move the White community and labor movement. THOMPSON said that they have in mind a forum in Harlem which would be open to all points of view, but a discussion is needed regarding the personnel to be involved as well as its location. The forum should have a directorate of 8 to 10 people, which would have a "composition" that will insure "one" outlook. However, they must guard against making it a Party forum. Such an understanding would open up avenues not existing for the Party and would help expand the youth program. ~~(U)~~

JACK STACHEL posed the question of how they could bring forth the Party in Harlem. He felt there should be some concentration in regards to "The Worker" which should begin by having assignments of people to get stories about Harlem and have the midweek issue of "The Worker" become almost an organ of Harlem. He recommended that 1,000 copies of the midweek issue be distributed free each week. ~~(U)~~

Continuing, STACHEL proposed as an objective of January, 1964, the organization of two schools in Harlem; have a class on Negro history and one on the American Revolution, where they could deal with economics and Marxism. ~~(U)~~

BEN DAVIS said he had agreed to help with the work in Harlem if he "would be on top of a club." ~~(U)~~

ALBERTSON described the split in the City Wide Committee as a weakening of the whole movement. He said the white anti-integration forces are now organized on a city-wide basis. BOB THOMPSON noted the NAACP, the Urban League and the Puerto Ricans have not stated they would support a second boycott. He said the CP has to make an estimate of whether the militancy of the Negro and Puerto Rican masses is such that they would support a second boycott without a unified leadership. He said the Party concludes a second boycott would not be feasible and that it should do all it can to work with the interested groups in whatever line is considered appropriate. XW

WILLIAM L. PATTERSON commented the boycott is a major tactical weapon and should be regarded as such. He said he did not think failure of a second boycott would cause irreparable damage, only if carried through, it would still be of great value. XW

BILL ALBERTSON said consideration must be given to what action will be most effective in bringing victory to the school integration movement and he was not sure a second boycott would be effective. ALBERTSON said the Reverend MILTON GALAMISON is becoming a national leader; however, organizations like the NAACP want to keep their own image before the people and, therefore, in a power struggle, they are attempting to keep GALAMISON from the limelight. ALBERTSON said the civil rights movement is hurt by these actions and, in fact, is weakened instead of being strengthened. KW

ALBERTSON went on to state that another similar boycott should be acted upon immediately and it would be important if the impact of this boycott be felt throughout the whole city. Pressure should be put on the Mayor inasmuch as his comments to date have been very weak. ALBERTSON stated the CP's responsibility is to work and build up the second boycott to guarantee its success. The New York District CP Staff met on April 13, 1964, at New York District CP Headquarters, 23 West 26th Street, New York City. The main topics of discussion were the situation in the schools and civil rights generally.

MIKE DAVIDOW stated the opinion and position of the CP, with regard to civil rights, should be set out in a series of articles in "The Worker". He said the Party should make its position clear as well as to point out the need for unity within the civil rights movement.

BILL ALBERTSON felt some of the public officials should be sharply criticized in that public officials have a responsibility to mobilize the white people for democracy. The public officials he referred to were President JOHNSON, Governor ROCKEFELLER of New York and Mayor WAGNER of New York City. He said the importance of white participation in the Negro struggle must be emphasized, the main point being the emphasis of unity within the Negro movement in order to have victory.

[redacted] stated that while the tactics being taken by the Brooklyn chapter of the Congress on Racial Equality (CORE) are understandable, tactically, they are a mistake. b6 b7C

JAMES TORMEY stated essentially the line "The Worker" is taking is correct. He said the Party's position has to be motivated to achieve the greatest possible unity within the Negro peoples movement. He said each period will bring out a new type of tactic and the tactics of the present and the future are going to be far more militant than what has been achieved up to this point.

BOB THOMPSON stated the attitude set forth is basically correct but the Party has to do better than it has been doing in putting forth the argument especially leveled at the white population. He said on the question of tactics, the Party must have a position, not a position of sitting in judgment on tactic, but "we" have to draw the dividing line. He said "our dividing line is the question of individual terrorism and actions that make for that." XW

[redacted] stated the big problem involved is that most of the white population is getting a one-sided approach to this situation. He felt the trade union movement could play a vital role in educating the trade union people on the question of integration. XW b6 b7C

PATTERSON stated it appears now that new groups would be formed to carry on the many fronts necessary for a civil rights struggle but there is needed a unity of forces to present a united front of action. "1. The fame and contributions of Dr. William Edward Burghardt Du Bois in the world fight against colonialism and racism will live in the minds of men forever. They will, in fact, grow with the years.

"2. It is, however, our responsibility as Americans to extend and deepen that growth within our country. That cannot help but be a force quickening the tempo of the fight for equality of rights and opportunities and also the fight for peace.

"3. Du Bois was a great Negro, an equally great American and a very great human being. His greatness in these categories was strengthened by his quest for objective truth that brought him to Communism. He was a great Communist.

"4. His name will be honored in many ways, but none more important politically, culturally and organizationally than through a nationwide organization of youth clubs among masses, in schools and colleges, as in labor, churches, social clubs - everywhere.

"5. The study of the life of Du Bois can be of inestimable value to Negro youth and American youth of all ethnic and social groups.

TORMEY mentioned there would be civil rights rallies held on May 17 and 18, 1964. He stated the May 17 rally would take place in different boroughs of the city and would primarily be of the nature of people getting together to discuss what is going on and what should be done.

TORMEY related the May 18 rally would be a combined effort of CORE and the NAACP marching on City Hall and then the Board of Education protesting for integration in New York City schools. TORMEY said the CP should support the May 18 rally, but the District Board failed to act on any plans as to what the Party should do.

A meeting of the Peace Club, Kings County CP, was held on May 19, 1964, at 240 Crown Street, Brooklyn, New York, with WILLIAM L. PATTERSON as the main speaker.

PATTERSON spoke on the school integration demonstrations which had been held on May 18, 1964, at City Hall and the Board of Education. He stated a liberal estimate of the crowd which took part in these demonstrations was 7,000 people; however, these demonstrations could not exactly be called a success because BAYARD RUSTIN, who organized the demonstrations, publicly had predicted a crowd of 15,000 would demonstrate. PATTERSON stated it was a mistake for RUSTIN to predict the size of the crowd because when that number failed to materialize, the press was given the opportunity to term the demonstration a failure.

~~SECRET~~ (U)

PATTERSON stated more people would have participated if the Reverend MILTON GALAMISON and JESSE GRAY had cooperated with RUSTIN. PATTERSON stated Reverend GALAMISON and GRAY failed to cooperate because they had not been included in the early organizational plans for the demonstrations and because GALAMISON was not to be given an opportunity to speak or to take a leading role in the demonstrations. According to PATTERSON, Reverend GALAMISON was requested by RUSTIN on May 15, 1964, to mobilize his people for the demonstrations but when he was advised of his minor role, he stated he would not mobilize his backers. PATTERSON stated GRAY also had been requested by RUSTIN to organize his group for the demonstrations, but he told RUSTIN to "go to hell." XW

PATTERSON stated he had spoken to Reverend GALAMISON on May 18, 1964, at which time, GALAMISON stated that if he had been spoken to by RUSTIN before RUSTIN's press conference on the demonstrations, he would have cooperated. PATTERSON advised Reverend GALAMISON to leave personalities out of politics because unity and cooperation are of the utmost importance at this time among Negro leaders and between Negroes and Whites. PATTERSON stated he attempted to get Reverend GALAMISON to cooperate and not to try to run the integration show by himself. XW

PATTERSON stated Reverend GALAMISON is power happy and likes the "spotlight", that he is not a Communist but he is a man the Party can reach because "we" can sit down with him and talk over ideas. According to PATTERSON, Reverend GALAMISON will take support from anywhere he can get it. XW

On June 14, 1964, a meeting of the New York District CP Trade Union Commission was held in New York City. The main report was given by ROBERT THOMPSON on the subject of civil rights who, in this report, made the following observations:

The most important recent development is the growth of old line civil rights groups such as the NAACP, in addition to the growth of new organizations such as CORE and the Student Non-Violent Co-ordinating Committee. The basic question of the Negro revolution must be found and is, in fact, contained within the social, political and educational affairs of the country today. Jim Crow must be ended in the United States. The current Negro revolution has changed the outlook of the political situation in this country, especially in the South. There will be a change of political power if the Civil Rights bill is passed and the Negro given the right to vote in the South because a breakthrough of liberal forces will be made in both the southern Senate representatives and Congressional representatives.

The civil rights struggle should be tied in with other problems. The peace movement and cold war policies should be brought into focus along with the civil rights issue and the drive of capitalism against labor should also be pointed out. These two issues, along with the civil rights issue, should be bound together and a strong presentation made to the American people.

If labor would place its full force behind the civil rights issue, the future would be a great deal brighter and easier for those taking part.

The Parent and Taxpayers Association in the New York area has grown to be one of the largest anti-liberal reactionary organizations in New York. This organization is anti-Negro and is causing a great deal of concern to liberal groups. Something must be done to combat this menace.

The following are the issues involved in the civil rights struggle:

1. Equality for the American Negro.

2. Breakup of the reactionary coalition comprised of the southern Dixiecrats and conservative Republicans.

3. Elimination of the form of state structure.

4. Elimination of wage differences between the North and South.

5. The possibility of democratic form and change of power structure.

"The Worker", March 10, 1963, Page 2, Column 2, contains an article "Benjamin Davis' Negro Unity Plan Greeted at Forums in Los Angeles" in which it is stated that four speakers, including DAVIS, "a spokesman for the CP", addressed two successive meetings held in Los Angeles over the week end of Washington's Birthday. The article described the other speakers as TERRY FRANCOIS, a former president of the San Francisco Chapter of the NAACP, JOHN SHABAZZ, a Minister of the Los Angeles Muslims and the West Coast spokesman for ELIJAH MUHAMMAD and F. DANIEL GRAY, a First Vice-President of the Los Angeles Chapter of CORE. The article states that the four speakers agreed that a national unity conference of all Negro organizations was necessary in the fight for civil rights.

The article continues that DAVIS, in his speech, advocated the convening of every Negro organization in the country in a national conference in order to adopt a common program. DAVIS stressed the need for unity and concluded his speech with a plea that such a united front could result in the President issuing a second Emancipation Proclamation by January 1, 1964.

The article attributes the following to DAVIS in his emphasis on the need for unity:

"'We (the Communists) defend the right of the Muslims to practice of their religion, their right to advocate a separate independent existence for the Negro people,' he said. 'Why shouldn't they stand beside us in the fight [illegible] against the McCarran Act? There are many paths to freedom. We say let history decide the best course while we unite on what we agree upon instead of letting our differences keep us apart.'"

The article further states that DAVIS' recommendation of united mass action won wide support from the audience.

as to employment. The big corporations are responsible for this condition of Negro workers and Negro youth and it is these corporations who practice Jim Crow and discrimination. The trade unions must fight for jobs and for equal treatment of Negro workers and youth.

A factor in the strained relations between the trade union movement and the Negro people's movement is that there has been no progress in electing Negro leadership beyond local and intermediate levels. Because of this, Negro leaders and workers have resorted to other means to achieve these rights from employers and trade unions such as using existing laws and groups like the Labor Relations Board.

People can fight for and get legislation and executive orders that will enforce constitutional rights and full citizenship for the Negro people. Discrimination in trade unions has aided the passage of anti-labor legislation. A joint struggle by labor and the Negro people within the trade unions and in Congress for equal rights for Negroes can help defeat new anti-labor legislation now being proposed.

"This is why the CP fully supports proposals by the NALC, the NAACP and other Negro people's organizations for utilizing every and all measures including existing laws to compel all corporations, all employers, all institutions, including the trade unions to grant full and equal rights to the Negro workers. We consider the above policy as a principle and guide for all Communists and we hope it will become the guide for all trade unionists". This is the only way in which to develop an approach whose objective is the unity of Negro and white workers to bring about equal rights for Negro workers.

SECRET (U)

"The Worker", March 3, 1963, Page 3, Columns 2-5, contains a statement of the CP, USA, urging the strengthening of the Negro-labor alliance. The final paragraphs of this statement were omitted from this issue but were printed in "The Worker" issue of March 10, 1963, Page 3, Columns 4 and 5. This statement is substantially as follows:

As a result of the successes achieved by the Negro people in their struggle for civil rights, they now are demanding full citizenship and an end to the Jim Crow system and all forms of segregation and discrimination. The Negro people will not accept policies of tokenism and gradualism.

The Negro people are becoming more aware that their demands and struggles are connected with the interests and struggles of all Americans for democracy and social progress. Negroes, especially Negro workers, are coming to realize that they can achieve their objectives only by a common struggle with all the people "against the common enemy out of which the whole system of Jim Crow today stems - the handful of Big Business monopolists".

There are 6 million Negro working men and 1½ million are in trade unions. The Negro people, therefore, understand the role of the trade union movement and what it has achieved for Negro workers as well as its role in the successes achieved by the Negro people in civil rights. Negro leadership in the labor movement and the Negro people's movement is pressing for the end of all discrimination and segregation in the trade unions.

Negro workers are today suffering more than white workers because of automation and unemployment. Negro youth especially face a hopeless situation

~~SECRET~~ (U)

It is hoped that trade unions will enforce equality within unions on their own without resorting to government agencies and laws.

If the struggle against discrimination "is conducted always with the understanding that the common enemy of all are the Big Business monopolies and that the labor movement with all its weaknesses is the most progressive and democratic force uniting workers of all colors, creeds and political persuasions, in our land, then the outcome will be the strengthening of the labor movement, the Negro people's movement and the Negro-Labor alliance."

"The Worker", February 17, 1963, Page 5, Column 1, contains an article "Towards True Alliance of Negro and Labor" by GEORGE MORRIS. In this article, it is stated that the Negro people will no longer accept gradualism or tokenism in their struggle for civil rights but are demanding full and immediate equality in all fields of life. This force behind the civil rights movement has brought a crisis in the Negro-labor alliance which will continue until the trade union movement changes its policies as regards its Negro members.

The article concludes that a durable Negro-labor alliance is the key issue. "Without a higher level of Negro-labor unity there can hardly be any thought of a real economic advance for the Negro people and the great strength that would add for the labor and progressive movement."

"The Worker", March 24, 1963, Page 6, Columns 3-7, contains the text of a speech given by JAMES JACKSON at the Carnegie Hall celebration of the 39th Anniversary of "The Worker" on March 10, 1963.

This speech includes the following comments:

Negroes have contributed to the wealth of the country in excess of their proportion to the population. However, most Negroes are still denied equal rights. They are engaged in militant struggles today to secure their rights. Their struggles have been effective and victories achieved.

Conditions exist today for a general victory in the struggle for Negro rights. One third of the world is on the road to socialism. The growth of the Soviet Union and the socialist world has changed the balance of forces to the side of those struggling against oppression. The imperialists who perpetuate colonialism and the monopolists who maintain the Jim Crow system in the United States no longer have the power to control the pace of history.

The tempo of the mass actions of the Negro people must be continued. There must be closer unity among Negro leaders and it must be recognized that anti-Communism is the principal device used against this unity. The militancy of the Negro masses must be matched by the trade unionists and also by a broad group of white people. There must be mass action directed to the government demanding that the President issue now appropriate Executive Orders to enforce the outlawing of discrimination against Negroes in the exercise of their rights. These are the things that are required.

The Negro people will combine their struggle for civil rights with the struggle to abolish colonialism and for friendship with the anti-colonial countries of Africa, Asia, Latin America and the socialist world. They will stand with those Americans who are joining in the struggle for world peace.

Big business interests are still attempting to secure laws to control and exploit trade unions. The system of segregation and discrimination today serves only those who are trying to exploit labor with new anti-labor laws. In order for the working class to be victorious, the trade union movement must join the struggle to secure the civil rights of Negroes. Securing the rights of Negro people will advance the rights of all working people.

"The Worker", March 5, 1963, page 2, contains an editorial "Bloodshed in Mississippi" in which the shooting of a Negro in Mississippi, who is described as a leader of the Negro people's struggle to win the vote, is blamed on those who profit from segregation, the Southern white-supremacists, "the pro-fascist ultra-right" and Republican leaders who plot with the Southern white-supremacists to gain power for the "right wing".

The editorial also criticizes the President and the Attorney General for failure to protect the Negro people of Mississippi with the police and military power of the government. The KENNEDY Administration is accused of "licking the boots of the Southern white-supremacists" in order to consolidate their political power.

The editorial calls for letters to the President urging him to use the government's police and military power.

"The Worker", March 31, 1963, Page 3, contains an editorial "Send the U.S. Marshals", which calls attention to the situation in Mississippi where Negroes are attempting to register and vote. It accuses the KENNEDY Administration of playing "a cruel hoax" on Negro citizens who are attempting to register because it has encouraged this campaign but refused protection to them. It calls for "democratic minded Americans and especially labor" to appeal to the White House to heed the demands of Negro leaders and protect the Negro citizens in Mississippi from racist terror.

The Winter, 1963 issue of "Freedomways" which is Volume 3, Number 1, is self-described as "A Quarterly Review of the Negro Freedom Movement" published by Freedomways Associates, Incorporated, 799 Broadway, New York City. The editorial calls for the President to issue a new proclamation to enforce equal rights for Negro Americans.

This issue contains seven articles, a short story, a poem, a section entitled "Readers' Forum" in which there are three short articles, a book review section, a section listing recent books and a section containing information about contributors to this issue.

"The Worker", April 7, 1963, page one, contains an editorial, "Jail The Outlaws of Mississippi". This editorial calls for letters and telegrams to be sent to the President and Attorney General to take action against the "Mississippi racist authorities" who, it states, are waging a "bloody war" against that state's Negro population because they are attempting to register as voters. It calls for the President to declare a state of national emergency in Mississippi; to send Federal police authorities to enforce the rights of the Negro citizens there and for the Attorney General to go to Greenwood and deputize several hundreds of Negro citizens as Deputy United States Marshals to safeguard the lives, liberties and property of the people of Mississippi.

"The Worker", April 14, 1963, page one, contains an editorial praising WALTER REUTHER, President of the United Automobile Workers, for his appeal for Federal action to protect American citizens in Greenwood, Mississippi. It said that such an example should be emulated throughout every international and local of the labor movement. It called for international and local unions to send contributions of money to aid the Negro struggle in Birmingham, Alabama and Greenwood, Mississippi, and to send mass delegations to these states to take part in solidarity actions with the Negro people.

"The Worker," April 28, 1963, page five, contains an article "May Day Appeal of C.P. Lists People's Demands". This article states in part that labor should erase discrimination in its own ranks against the Negro people and should join in a united fight to advance the conditions of both. It states that labor can advance its own interests only by fighting against job discrimination against Negro workers and for an end to Jim Crow.

"The Worker", May 7, 1963, page one, contains an editorial "What Are You Doing About Birmingham?", which sets out alleged acts of "police barbarism" and states that the heroism of Birmingham "evokes the image of the Warsaw Ghetto Uprising". It states that 80,000 Negroes of Birmingham are demanding an end to the segregation system and full and equal rights of American citizens and that they should be supported.

The editorial calls for action and for demands to be made of the President and Department of Justice to use Federal police power to restore the Constitution and the First Amendment to the people of Birmingham, to safeguard the rights of the Negro people and to obtain the release from prisons of the "victims of the police outrages".

~~SECRET~~ (U)

This editorial relates that the situation calls for actions such as:

1. Sending telegrams to the President and Attorney General.

2. Requiring Congressmen and Senators to speak out.

3. Organizing protest demonstrations in every community and sending solidarity delegations to Birmingham.

4. Sending money to help the freedom movement of MARTIN LUTHER KING.

5. Having local governments petition the President and Congress to intervene in Birmingham to secure the rights of its Negro citizens.

This same editorial appeared on page 12 of "The Worker", May 12, 1963, as an article by JAMES E. JACKSON.

"The Worker", May 12, 1963, page one, contains a reprint of a telegram which, it is stated, was sent to the President by GUS HALL. In this telegram, HALL states that the President has the responsibility to put into action the full power of the Federal Government to establish the righteous demands of the Negro people in Alabama. HALL further states that the contempt for the Constitution shown by Police Commissioner CONNOR must be condemned and halted. The President is exhorted to take action now and to defeat and arrest the racists.

"The Worker", May 19, 1963, page one, contains an editorial, "A New Charter of Freedom", which states that in May of 1963, the Negro people of Birmingham are writing a new Emancipation Proclamation, a new freedom charter. The victory achieved in breaking the segregation barriers in Birmingham is the beginning of the final struggle for freedom for Negroes in the United States.

~~SECRET~~ (U)

It is stated that, to complete the victory, it is necessary to have unity of Negroes and whites in this country and that the labor movement must assume the leadership to bring this about. "The unity of the American people cannot be achieved except on the foundation of Negro freedom. And the American labor movement is destined, by its place in society, to be the leader in creating this unity."

"The Worker", June 9, 1963, page three, contains an editorial, "A Time For Firmness", which states that the entire segregation and discrimination system must be abolished now. The present struggle of the Negro people demands freedom now and is a challenge to all organizations such as trade unions, churches and schools to examine themselves and to eliminate all discrimination.

The editorial continued that conferences such as the one the President called of businessmen to enlist their cooperation can only serve as preliminary measures for Federal enforcement action.

The Negro people are awaiting the President's message to Congress and his recommendations on civil rights legislation. The key to the coming legislative fight will be the pressure sustained by the people through actions of their organizations and their letters, petitions and delegations to their Congressmen and the White House. In addition, the continued struggles of the Negroes in the South require support in the form of public rallies, the raising of funds and participation in these struggles. There should be also an intensification of pressure on the President and Attorney General to use the powers of their offices to protect the Negro freedom fighters.

"The Worker", June 23, 1963, page three, in an editorial, "In The South", states that in many parts of the South white supremacists and police are engaged in a "reign of terror" and calls upon the President to take over the enforcement of law in the Southern states. It states that the weapons and police powers of those engaged in the terror must be taken away. It also calls for letters to be sent to the President urging that he order Federal troops and marshals into the South to supersede its lawless police.

A similar editorial appears in "The Worker" of June 25, 1963.

"The Worker", June 23, 1963, page three, contains an article by BENJAMIN J. DAVIS, "A United People's Action Program for Freedom Now!" In this article, DAVIS states that the program presented for the destruction of the Jim Crow system in the United States "is based upon a report unanimously adopted at a recent national gathering of Communist leaders". He states that the proposals set forth are based upon a constitutional path to equal rights which path is "possible only through direct, mass, peaceful action pursued through the unity of the Negro people and their organizations" plus the support of white allies beginning with organized labor.

The proposals of DAVIS' program are as follows:

1. The enforcement of Article 4 of the Constitution guaranteeing a republican form of government to each state.

2. In such states as Alabama, Mississippi, Georgia and South Carolina, where the governments are illegal because of the disenfranchisement of its citizens, the governments should be declared illegal and free elections held.

3. The withholding of Federal funds from states which deny Constitutional rights to citizens.

4. A petition to the Supreme Court to set a time limit of January 1, 1964 for compliance with its 1954 decision on the desegregation of public schools and all subsequent decisions bearing on desegregation.

5. The Federal government should exercise the right of eminent domain to eliminate ghettos.

6. The passage of a Federal FEPC applying to private industry calling for the loss of license of any business practicing segregation or discrimination in employment or among its customers, and the decertification of any union practicing discrimination.

7. The President should issue a second Emancipation Proclamation with January 1, 1964 as a deadline.

DAVIS also states that pressure should be brought upon the President to end the terror against Negro citizens in the South and if necessary, he should federalize the State National Guards. In Jackson, Mississippi, the President should declare a state of martial law to protect the Constitutional rights of Negro citizens. In addition, the white citizens councils and the Ku Klux Klan should be outlawed.

The Spring, 1963 issue of "Freedomways", which is volume three, number two, is self-described as "A Quarterly Review of the Negro Freedom Movement", published by Freedomways Associates, Incorporated, 799 Broadway, New York City. This issue contains twelve articles, a short story, four poems, a book review section, a section listing recent books and a section containing information about contributors to this issue. Of the twelve articles, three are set forth under the heading of "The Assault On Civil Rights" and one of the contributors to this symposium is BENJAMIN J. DAVIS who contributed an article "Mc Carran Act and the Negro Freedom Movement". In the section detailing information about contributors, DAVIS is described as a former New York City Councilman from Harlem and as "a leading spokesman for the Communist viewpoint".

"Political Affairs", August, 1963, contains an article, "The Time Is Now" by BENJAMIN J. DAVIS which is identified as being based upon a report discussed and adopted at a national meeting of Communist leaders in May, 1963.

This article states in part as follows:

The Negro freedom movement has entered a new stage in that the fight now is against tokenism and gradualism, factors which are being used to delay and prevent the full realization of Constitutional rights for Negroes.

The Dixiecrats, the ultra-Right fascists and the white supremacists are responsible for the violence, bloodshed and the explosive situation that exists in the country today.

There is a Constitutional and moral crisis in the country which would not exist if the Federal power was used to break the resistance of racists and reactionary officials. This crisis is aggravated by unemployment, with Negroes having the highest percentage of unemployed. Because of this crisis, "our country is paying the price of the 18-year Cold War....which has psychologized the American people to the effect that the enemy of the national interest was a foreign Communist one, allegedly the Soviet Union".

The President's leadership has failed to identify the real enemy. These are the monopolists, the pro-fascist racists and other reactionary forces. The defeat of these pro-fascist reactionaries is the most urgent domestic challenge to the welfare of the nation. The President should issue a call to the people to defeat them. This is the concern of all Americans, not Negroes alone.

The unity of Negroes and of Negroes and whites should be built to such strength that their combined pressure will be irresistible in resolving the crisis facing the country.

There has been a favorable shift in the world balance of forces, marked by the emergence of the world socialist system and the collapse of the colonial system, which makes it possible now to achieve changes under the capitalist system.

Birmingham has brought a turning point in the struggle of the Negro people. They are demanding their Constitutional rights now. Prior to Birmingham, Negroes were united on the goals of the struggle to end Jim Crow but not on the methods. Now they are united on the methods to be used. They have adopted the method of non-violence, and peaceful direct action.

The South is the new frontier. The negro struggle there is for the good of the whole country. This struggle has opened the possibility of the "democratization of the South". The South is the new frontier for the extension of democracy in this country but it can only occur with the victory of the civil rights revolution. Discrimination and Segregation can be ended only by the defeat of the "Dixiecrat racists and their reactionary Republican abettors". The Administration has the power through enforcement of Article 4, Section 4 of the Constitution to oust illegally elected Dixiecrat regimes in the South.

"The Communist Party greets with boundless joy the present revolutionary freedom movement of the Negro people and will spare no sacrifice to help bring about its total victory now...and to immediately resolve the acute constitutional and moral crisis facing the nation. It is because the Communists have a proud record of disciplined, responsible and militant struggle for Negro rights that they have been honored as the first victims of the Mc Carran Act, as they were of the Smith Act".

Governor Barnett of Mississippi has charged that the CP controls the Negro people's civil rights organizations and decides its policies. "This is a typical Hitler big lie. The CP has no desire to control or dominate any organizations, and it is ridiculous to imagine that the leaders of the Negro people's organizations and their supporters, ... would submit to dictation from the CP or anyone else.

"The advantage of being a Communist is that one learns that the workers and common people can master the social forces that determine victory or defeat.

"Quite independently of each other, there is a wide area of agreement between the CP and the Negro freedom movement on programs, aims and tactics. This is not because one controls the other.

"Nor is it remarkable that the policy of our Party should coincide with the aspirations of the Negro freedom movement. This is rather a tribute to the correctness of Marxist-Leninist theory applied to the unique attributes of our country, and to the sound policies of our Party adopted at its 17th National Convention in December, 1959".

The program of the Negro freedom movement is a common one to abolish Jim Crow supported by persons of all political beliefs including Communists. "Communists believe that the 'freedom now'; aims of the program answer the pressing democratic needs of the Negro people and of the nation in serious crisis; and Communists hold that this is the central domestic issue before the country. At the same time Communists believe the achievement of this program will lay an indispensable basis not only for the future social progress of the country but for its socialist and communist future when United States imperialism, with its inevitable breeding of racism, discrimination, wars and insecurity will be no more. Communists see the struggle for socialism as a struggle to extend the horizons of democracy.

"The Party in this struggle has the duty not only to work with modesty, self-sacrifice, militancy and responsibility. It has the deep obligation to the cause of freedom and equality now-to the national advance of our country-to strengthen its unity, and to build its organization and influence. Trained in the science of Marxism-Leninism, its experience and contributions are needed in overcoming the big and complex problems that confront the democratic forces and the nation.

"Political Affairs", November, 1963, contains an article by JAMES JACKSON "Democratic Uprising of the American Negroes". In this article, JACKSON, commenting on the present struggle of Negroes in the United States, notes that the struggle has been undertaken at a time when the new world relation of forces provides a favorable climate and when great advances have been made by the people of Africa and Asia and by Cuba in throwing off colonialism, all of which has given stimulus to the Negro people. He adds that there is also a growing awareness of a "great country-the Soviet Union" whose success in securing full equality to its many peoples is a "challenging alternative to the prevailing racist patterns in the US".

JACKSON notes that the struggle of Negro Americans to secure equal rights attained nationwide significance with the civil rights demonstrations led by MARTIN LUTHER KING in Birmingham, Alabama, in May, 1963. He said that since that time the struggle of the Negro people has dominated the political and social scene in the United States and has gained momentum and militancy. The article also notes that the Negro movement has gained the support of many groups and organizations such as church organizations and white high school and college students. The trade union movement also has been stirred to action and the Federal Government has been compelled to act to uphold rights of Negro citizens.

The article concludes with the following under the subheading "The Communists' Approach."

"From its earliest days the Communist Party of the United States has given major attention to the struggle for the economic, political and social equality of the Negro people. It has done so not only because the racist oppression of the Negro people

"in the United States was itself a shameful violation of the dignity of human beings, but also because the racist proscription of the Negro people stood athwart the path of social progress of the class and the nation.

"At its Sixteenth Convention in 1957, the Communist Party clearly pointed out that the main line of march of the Negro people's movement was that of opposition to all forms of separatist "solutions" to the question of their oppression and toward full and complete integration in the life of the nation. It estimated the significance of the Negro question then as being "the crucial domestic issue of the day" (Political Affairs, March 1957, pages 31-42), the struggle for the solution of which would accelerate social progress along the whole anti-monopoly front.

"Events have fully confirmed the major theoretical and programmatic resolution on the Negro question which our Party adopted at its Seventeenth Convention in December, 1959. In this resolution we stated:

". . . The main unrealized task of bourgeois (capitalist) democracy in the United States is revealed in the special oppression of the Negro people. The bonds of Negro oppression can and must be shattered. All signs point to an early and triumphant resolution of the century-old battle of the Negro people for full and equal citizenship..... Victory on this sector would open the way to rapid developments along the advancement of the entire nation.

"In the current stage of the massive movement our Party has given full support to the broadly based united front of the Negro people's organizations which gives leadership to the direct actions of the Negro people's rising against segregation and for full "equality. Our Party fosters the widest unity of action of the broad political spectrum of participating organizations and leaders which make up a Negro freedom front. Our Party promotes white masses-labor, the youth, peace forces and religious people-in the struggle for the rights of the Negro people. At the same time, our Party exposes the diversionists, adventurists, provocateurs, and opponents of Negro-white unity who seek to poach upon and disrupt the Negro people's freedom movement.

"Through the victorious development of the Negro people's freedom struggle the Party perceives the re-invigoration of the whole front of social action and struggle for new levels of social progress in our country. As GUS HALL put it:

"'The removal of the cesspool of racism with its practices of discrimination in the South will also eliminate one of the main sources of ideological contamination of our people. Racism and white chauvinism have stunted the growth of class consciousness and working class ideology in general. They remain among the most effective weapons in the hands of the employers for diverting the rise of class unity, class consciousness and militancy.... Victory in the South will enable the healthy ideology of the working class to take its rightfull place in our midst....'

"And he added:

" ' The struggles (of the Negro people) in the South to rid our land of the shackles of new strength to all our democratic institutions. They are broadening the popular base of democracy in our land. They are cleansing the political and social atmosphere of our country.'

"The Negro people in the United States are today in all-out battle to secure victory for themselves, for the working class, and for the nation. This great democratic struggle will remove the main roadblock to the renewal of the advance of the working class along the road of social progress in our nation."

~~SECRET~~ (U)

"Political Affairs", December, 1963, contains an article by GUS HALL, "Objective Conditions and the Work of the Party". A section of this article bears the sub-caption "The Civil Rights Revolution" and contains, in part, the following, in summary:

The upsurge of the civil rights movement, which is demanding "Freedom Now", has brought into active participation the greatest number of people in this country's history. The civil rights movement is primarily a movement "on the streets" with demonstrations taking many forms. There are many levels to the movement involving different forces with each force complementing the other.

The outlook of the movement is significant and noteworthy because there has been an absence of "redbaiting" and this "reflects an acceptance of our policies by the masses and testifies to the correctness of our policies".

As regards the participation of Socialists in the Negro upsurge, "what is most important is that, to the degree that Socialists have cut down on red-baiting, there has been a greater acceptance of the socialist viewpoint in a basic sense, so essential to any solution of the Negro question and the advancement of democracy in our land."

The civil rights movement has resulted in many forms of independent political action because of the voter registration and right-to-vote campaigns.

The upsurge in the Negro movement provides an excellent opportunity for the campaign to organize the unorganized workers in the South. Such an organization could eliminate the wage differential and the run-away shop and, therefore, every worker has a stake in this movement.

~~SECRET~~ (U)

Today, the Negro struggle is a part of the general democratic movement directed against monopoly capital "...its relationship to the totality of democratic forces in this country is a question of vital importance both for the victory of the Negro liberation movement itself and for the general extension of democracy."

The Negro revolution will not be successful without the participation of the rest of the American people. However, gaining participation by white Americans is a difficult task. The task is to get a section of white Americans to participate, neutralize those in opposition, and to keep the hard-core opposition to a minimum. These three objectives should be fought for. An important factor to gain the participation of the white population in the struggle is the economic and political self-interest of this population. "We must give more thought to this aspect, for this is our special contribution to the advancement of the struggle."

If the cold war is ended, the government could use the "war budget" for job-creating programs. The fight to end discrimination could be related to such a program of jobs. This outlook leads to unity and "unites the self-interests of the different groups behind the democratic revolution".

The civil rights movement faces the problem of how to move forward. To do this, demonstrations must be continued and "those forces who want to get this movement off the streets must be defeated". A second task is to strengthen the unity of the movement. Unity of the Negroes, Negro and white and of the Negro movement with labor is essential. Another task "is the necessity of breaking the 'states rights' reactionary clique, which stands as a roadblock to all progress."

~~SECRET~~ (U)

"The Worker", October 6, 1963, in its editorial "An Outrageous Farce", comments on recent civil rights events in Birmingham, Alabama, Cambridge, Maryland and Orangeburg, South Carolina, and states that it is obvious that the racists who control law enforcement in Alabama and the other Southern states will do nothing to protect the lives and property of Negro citizens. The editorial requests its readers to write to the President requesting that he send Federal troops to Alabama and other southern states, to remove from office all officials who are derelict in upholding the Constitution, to prosecute those responsible for the "reign of terror" in the Southern states, and to prepare the way for fair elections in these states.

"The Worker" in its issues of October 13, 22, 27 and 29, 1963, contained editorials dealing with the strengthened civil rights bill recommended by the House Judiciary Committee and the fact that it was in danger of being "watered down". These editorials attacked the Attorney General "for helping the Republicans and Southern racists sabotage meaningful civil rights legislation" and called for communications to be sent to him urging him to back and to mobilize support for the civil rights bill approved by the committee. The editorials also called for letters to be written to Congressmen demanding that they support a strong civil rights bill and for readers to call on their Congressman, or their representatives, when they return to their homes on week ends, urging support of a meaningful civil rights bill.

"The Worker" in its issue of November 5, 1963, contains an editorial commenting on the "watered down" civil rights bill which it states the President and Attorney General "forced out" of the House Judiciary Committee against the will of the majority. It reflects that a meaningful bill can be passed at the current session of Congress but will require increased activity. It continues that two objectives are to force the House Rules Committee to get the civil rights bill to the floor of the House and to strengthen it after it gets to the House floor.

It calls for letters and delegations to each Congressman and strong lobbies in Washington to make House members realize a strong civil rights bill is wanted in the current session of Congress.

"The Worker" in an editorial on page 1 of the November 19, 1963, issue, captioned "Renew the Offensive", states that the segregationists and their apologists are trying to avoid the passage of an effective civil rights act. The editorial criticizes the President for vacillating and retreating on civil rights legislation and calls for the people to intensify their pressure on the administration to fulfill its commitment to secure a genuine civil rights law.

It adds that the Thanksgiving recess provides an excellent opportunity, since Congressmen return to their home districts, for civil rights forces to register their demands that every Congressman and Senator act for a strengthened civil rights bill now.

The editorial also calls for a "massive nationwide action" by all the forces of the Negro revolution in the form of a "nationwide Freedom Now holiday and work stoppage" as a warning against further delay on civil rights legislation.

The Fall, 1963 issue of the magazine "Freedomways" published by Freedomways Associates, Incorporated, 799 Broadway, New York, New York, contains seven articles, several poems and pencil sketches, as well as a section devoted to Book Reviews and a section devoted to recent books. This issue announced that the next issue of the magazine will be an All-Southern issue containing articles from writers, artists and freedom fighters from the South.

"The Worker", January 12, 1964, contains an editorial by BENJAMIN J. DAVIS "A Hard Necessity" in which he advocates support for the mass boycott of the New York City public schools scheduled for February 3, 1964. He describes the boycott as "a hard necessity" and as "a form of struggle for masses of people who seek to uphold the law of the land" and to correct the segregated character of the public schools.

"The Worker", January 28, 1964, on its editorial page, calls attention to the boycott of the public schools scheduled for February 3, 1964, and states that it will have the active support of all who want public school education to be democratic in content and non-racist in form.

"The Worker", February 18, 1964, in an editorial on page two, praises the Reverend MILTON GALAMISON for his leadership in the "Great February 3rd School Boycott" of the public schools in New York City and states that the secret of his success was his skill in unifying the diverse organizations which participated. It states, "The unity achieved within the Negro community and the bonds of fraternal cooperation established with the Puerto Rican and progressive white communities are important achievements of the School Boycott movements. This unity should be defended against all forces seeking to disrupt it."

~~SECRET~~ (U)

The February 18, 1964, issue of "The Worker", page three, contains an article, "The School Boycott" by WILLIAM L. PATTERSON, in which he comments on the February 3, 1964 school boycott in New York City. He described it as marking "a new high in terms of unity in the battle for a free America" and said that it demonstrated an understanding of the responsibility of youth of the Supreme Court desegregation decision of 1954. He said those participating in the boycotts are demanding that this decision be implemented now in New York.

PATTERSON said:

"The youth of New York have done their country an invaluable service in this boycott. It has set an example of action that should be followed in every city. ... This unity forged in struggle can have other and more far - reaching political goals."

"This boycott helped clarify the political atmosphere. It brought a new appreciation of the power of unity in struggle..."

"The Worker", March 3, 1964, page one, contains a denunciation by WILLIAM L. PATTERSON of the sentence of 16 to 20 years given to Mrs. MAE MALLORY in Monroe, North Carolina on charges of kidnapping a white couple on August 27, 1961. He describes Mrs. MALLORY as a "defender of the constitution, fighter for equality of rights and opportunities" and states that the major issue is the right of a Negro American to defend her life when threatened by death by white supremacists. He said the charge against Mrs. MALLORY "is a new approach to 'legal' racist terror" and that her crime is that she was born black."

~~SECRET~~ (U)

~~SECRET~~ (U)

PATTERSON further states:

"To win democracy in the United States, the fight for MAE MALLORY's freedom must be raised to its highest level, nationally and internationally. The decision and judgment have been appealed. The march of these freedom fighters to the highest court in the land is on. It is, however, the people's fight. The case can be reversed in the state supreme court. It cannot be won without a militant movement...

"The decision and judgment in the MALLORY case are symbols of a way of life that must be smashed if democracy is to mean equality of rights and opportunities."

"The Worker", January 5, 1964, page three, sets forth the second of two articles based upon a report "recently delivered" by GUS HALL on problems facing the nation and the tasks and opportunities facing the workingclass and people's forces in 1964. In this article by HALL, he mentions three areas of concern, namely, the new Administration, the 1964 elections, and civil rights. In commenting on civil rights, he states that this revolution "has become the central area in the struggle for a democratic America". HALL remarks that terror and brutality have increased in the South, that racists have become bolder than ever and that a campaign has been launched in the North, mainly by the big magazines, whose aim in calling for "reasonableness" is to slow down the struggle and split the movement. Another factor in the attack on civil rights forces is the charge being made that it is not the Negro people or the leaders who are responsible for the "unreasonableness" but "outsiders" which means "the Communists and the Left".

~~SECRET~~ (U)

HALL continues in his treatment of the civil rights struggle with the following observations:

The source of power of the Negro people's struggle has been the role of the masses "and we should never forget that it is the source of the power and strength of all people's movements and struggles". However, this source cannot be taken for granted and it cannot be left on its own. The rank and file have not been involved in a more organized manner. "This is a challenge we can be more helpful in resolving both on city and community levels." The educational campaign against racism must be continued and improved.

"The greatest challenge" is how to organize a struggle on the economic front where there is job discrimination against Negroes, where the problem of jobs for Negroes has become linked with growing unemployment. There must be a united working class, white workers must be shown that the trade unions can gain the support of all workers only if they take up the problem arising from discrimination.

In the future the struggle will proceed on three levels:

1. An all - out effort to get passage of the Civil Rights Bill.

2. Organized struggle for specific objectives including such actions as the fight on housing and rents in Harlem, on hiring at Motorola in Chicago, and on school desegregation. "This kind of struggle takes initiative, planning and organization. Is this not the area of challenge in which we can make a unique contribution? I think it is?"

3. The continuing struggle in the South where the greatest obstacle is the "reign of terror".

"If we could launch a national and an international campaign against this brutality we could make a signal contribution to the freeing of the South...A second aspect of the struggle in the South in which we can be helpful is the development of a dialogue between the trade unions and the freedom movement in the South."

"The civil rights front is that on which the main battles are being fought today. It must at all times receive our top attention."

"The Worker", February 9, 1964, page one, contains an editorial on Negro History Week for 1964 which states that it is a time for rededication to the battle for civil rights. It comments on the militant demonstrations that have taken place since Negro History Week, 1963, and the fact that the Civil Rights Bill is before Congress. It calls for support of the Bill and "mass action" to overcome the filibuster that the Bill is expected to face in the Senate.

It adds that there is little doubt there will be more demonstrations directed at the Senate to enact the Bill into law without crippling amendments. It notes that in February, 1964, there was a boycott of the largest public school system in the Nation, New York City, in which unity was achieved between different Negro organizations, and an alliance formed with Puerto Rican groups. It cites the fact that, at this time, a large rent strike was spreading through the Negro, Puerto Rican and poor white areas. It adds that a sit-in strike was staged in Chicago in a demand for jobs with a living wage. The editorial continues, "This struggle of the unemployed for livelihood will merge with the already unfolding social strikes, against discrimination in housing, education and for equal accommodations in public services. It will bring a new current of power to the common cause of Negro freedom and the social progress of all Americans."

"The Worker", March 15, 1964, in its editorial on page three, calls for maximum pressure on Senators to pass the Civil Rights Bill. It states: "Letters, mass telegrams, demonstrations, marches, rallies, civil disobedience, nationally organized work holidays and school holidays - every popular method of protest must be brought against the filibuster for the enactment of the Civil Rights Bill."

"The Worker", March 29, 1964, page three, in an editorial "Jacksonville Requires Federal Trusteeship", comments on recent incidences of violence resulting from recent civil rights conflicts in Jacksonville, Florida. It states that "The situation in Jacksonville (not unlike a dozen other spots in the unregenerate segregationist South) attests to the fact that the police and city's officialdom have gone over to the position of the racist mobsters, that the deprivation, degradation and segregation of Negro citizens has become a policy and prime purpose of the local government authority."

This editorial calls for the Federal Government to establish a Federal trusteeship over Jacksonville until new elections can be held, for the Justice Department to send Federal Marshals and for the President to be prepared to send in Federal troops to uphold the rights of the Negroes. A call is also made for action demanding an end to the filibuster in the Senate and the passage of the Civil Rights Bill without weakening amendments.

The Winter, 1964 issue of "Freedomways", which is published by Freedomways Associates, Incorporated, 799 Broadway, New York City, is self-identified as being a special issue concerned with "the southern freedom movement". In an editorial in this issue, it is stated that the issue deals with developments on the southern "battle front". It adds that they had promised their readers that the current issue "would represent the most comprehensive coverage of the Freedom Movement in the South ever to appear in a single issue of an American magazine.

This editorial also states "many activists in the Freedom Movement, among them many of our readers, are keenly aware of the need for some instrument of communication and exchange of information by the various sections of the movement, stretched across the South. 'Freedomways' format combines first - hand description of events with insight and analysis."

"The Worker," May 24, 1964, page 1, sets forth the contents of a telegram which, it is said, was sent to the President that week by GUS HALL and BENJAMIN DAVIS, "spokesmen for the CP." The telegram condemned the delay in passage of the civil rights bill by the Senate and called upon the President to issue a declaration in support of the bill as passed by the House "with abandonment of all subsequent deals, and pressing for its immediate enactment by ending the filibuster..."

"The Worker," April 21, 1964, page 1, contains an editorial by JAMES E. JACKSON, "Negroes Ask Liberals for Their Cooperation, Not Permission." This editorial states that Negroes are asking cooperation from Americans in their freedom struggle not permission to fight it. The editorial attacks those who criticized the called for stall-in action at the opening of the World's Fair in New York City and defended this action and even a general work stoppage in the country if it is necessary to secure civil rights for Negroes. It closes with a wish for success to the World's Fair stall-in.

~~SECRET~~ (U)

"The Worker," May 5, 1964, page 2, in an editorial "A Call to Rights Action" appeals to the readers and friends of "The Worker" to increase their efforts to gain passage of the civil rights bill. It calls for them to organize with letters, telegrams, phone calls, and petitions calling upon the Senate to act and to help organize meetings, demonstrations, and picket lines.

"The Worker," May 17, 1964, page 3, in its editorial, comments on the importance of the Supreme Court decision of May 17, 1954, which desegregated public schools. It states that the importance of this decision is that it was the first significant action taken by a branch of the government for civil rights since 1896 and that following this decision the Negro freedom movement began to grow. The editorial adds:

"The great Negro and white 'coalition of conscience' taking shape around the struggle to bring about an end to segregation and discrimination against the Negro people is the very 'coalition for progress' in the war against poverty, for peace and for expansion of democracy which best serves the national interest."

It notes that desegregation of the schools has gone on at a "snail's pace of less than one percent per year." It states that the tenth anniversary of the Supreme Court decision will be marked by an increase in activity in the struggle against discrimination and that there is no better focal point than the Senate where the fillibuster against the civil right bill was then taking place.

"The Worker," June 14, 1964, page 1, contains an editorial, "Concern of All Americans," which urges all readers of the paper to call on the President to intervene in Alabama to protect the Negro people there. It asks the readers to urge their union locals, churches, and civic groups to make appeals to the President for federal action in Alabama.

"The Worker," June 28, 1964, page 1, contains an editorial, "Halt the Terror in Mississippi," which comments on the disappearance of MICHAEL SCHWERNER, ANDREW GOODMAN, and JAMES E. CHENEY in Mississippi. It states that Mississippi is in a state of insurrection and that "Mississippi's racist officials, like those of Florida, Alabama and other Southern states are plotting with brutal subhumans to violate the law of the land with rifle, bomb and flame."

It states that the guilt for the "terror" that engulfed these three persons lies with Governor WALLACE of Alabama, Governor JOHNSON of Mississippi and Governor BRYANT of Florida; with Senator GOLDWATER "who incited these white supremacists to violence" with his speech on the civil rights bill; with GOLDWATER's friends in the ultra-right; with the Justice Department which failed to provide safety for young American patriots and with the President because of his vacillation and hesitation.

The editorial calls for every American to urge the President to immediately send into Mississippi, Florida, Alabama, and any other "rebellious" Southern state, all the federal forces necessary to guarantee the safety of citizens in exercising their Constitutional rights.

"The Worker," June 30, 1964, in an editorial, "Put Mississippi Under U.S. Rule," accuses the state of Mississippi of being in revolt against Constitutional government and of violation of the Constitutional liberties and rights of Negro citizens and white Americans who grant Negroes equal rights. It states that Mississippi has placed itself outside the state - federal relationship of the Constitution and the conduct of the state requires that the President invoke Article IV, Section 4 of the Constitution and place Mississippi under full federal stewardship.

"The Worker", issue of January 7, 1964, page 4, contained an article entitled, "A Plan to Achieve Integration in Our Schools and Eliminate Ghetto Standards in Education". This article reflects it is presented as a public service by the New York District of the Communist Party and sets forth part of a program devised by the New York District to eliminate segregation in education. This article sets forth the current conditions in education in the New York City school system as well as presenting a plan to improve all aspects of education.

"The Worker", issue of February 4, 1964, page 8, contained an article captioned, "CP Insists Wagner, Rocky Act at Once". This article reflects that ROBERT THOMPSON and WILLIAM L. PATTERSON, spokesmen for the New York State CP, had sent a letter to Mayor ROBERT F. WAGNER and Governor NELSON ROCKEFELLER with regard to the February 3, 1964, school boycott in New York City. The letter states the boycott is a mandate of the people for action and states that in New York City the time for token integration plans is past.

The letter reflects these officials have in their possession the New York State CP program for effective, speedy integration as published in "The Worker" on January 7, 1964. The letter calls for immediate action by New York State to bring about speedy, effective integration as demanded by the people.

"The Worker", issue of March 15, 1964, page 3, contained an article entitled, "1,500 at Rally Celebrate Worker's 40th Anniversary".

This article contains a summary of statements made at the 40th Anniversary celebration of "The Worker" held at Carnegie Hall, New York City, on March 12, 1964.

According to the article, JAMES E. JACKSON called for the immediate passage of the civil rights bill which is being threatened with a Southern filibuster.

He said "The Worker" supports the March 16th boycott of New York City schools as well as the rent strikes by tenants "living in rat-infested hell holes".

JACKSON further called for an all out war on poverty and welcomed President JOHNSON's declaration on poverty, but stated the money proposed to fight poverty was inadequate. He said, "If capitalism does not abolish mass poverty, the impoverished masses will abolish capitalism".

"Freedomways" is self-described as "A Quarterly Review of the Negro Freedom Movement", published by Freedomways Associates, Incorporated, at 799 Broadway, New York City. It lists its Editorial Board members as being:

W. ALPHAEUS HUNTON, Associate Editor
JOHN HENRIK CLARKE, Associate Editor
MARGARET G. BURROUGHS and JOHN L. DEVINE, Art Editors
ESTHER JACKSON, Managing Editor
SHIRLEY GRAHAM, Contributing Editor

The summer, 1963 issue of the magazine was a special issue devoted to "Harlem, A Community in Transition". The editorial of this issue states that "The Harlems of the north and west are joining the new democratic revolution which was born of the southern Negroes" desegregation battles. This revolution for long-deferred equal rights has linked the Negroes of Birmingham to those of Philadelphia, of Boston, of St. Louis, of Cambridge, Maryland, of Harlem, New York, in one irrepressible marching column that is determined to secure a new birth of freedom here and now".

This editorial states that the prospects for victory for Negroes in achieving equal rights seems close at hand, but that there are many battles ahead. What is needed is unity of action. It adds "We need the full strength of our people and our allies in militant sustained action to insure the victory".

"Out of our sorrows, our unrequited want and hunger, out of our struggles and dreams, a rich growth of beautiful and meaningful artistic and literary creation has come. Trenchant analysis and social criticism, humor and poetry have been born."

"We believe that a rich representation of all this has been collected here between the covers of this special Harlem edition of 'Freedomways'. We hope that each of you who reads this issue will become a booster and salesman for other copies and for securing subscribers to our unique and vital publication - 'Freedomways'".

The spring, 1964 issue of the magazine, in its editorial, attacks the indictment against leaders of the Albany, Georgia movement, announced by the office of the Attorney General, as "one of the crudest cases of injustice and sheer racism ever to be attempted by an agency of the Federal Government". It charges that efforts by the Justice Department to prosecute these leaders "seems to be part of a political deal between the Administration and the powerful RUSSELL-TALMADGE machine in Georgia". It accuses the office of the Attorney General as "becoming a sort of clearing house through which a policy of accomodation between the Administration and the southern segregationists is being worked out". The editorial concludes with an appeal to its readers to send letters and telegrams to the Attorney General asking that the convictions be set aside and the indictments dropped.

The summer, 1964 issue of "Freedomways" is a special issue devoted to "The People of the Caribbean Area". In the editorial of this issue, it is stated that the "staff of 'Freedomways' continues its in-depth inquiry into those resurgent areas of the world where people of African descent are forging a new birth of freedom". It also states that, "Today the problems of the Caribbean people are uniquely related to the problems of the African people and of Negro Americans. Common to each is their fight for freedom, for justice and the dignity of full manhood. There is a wide community of interests among these people of African descent. In our times all are arrayed against the yoke of racism and colonialism and for freedom from all manner of oppression.

B. OTHER COMMUNIST GROUPS

PROGRESSIVE LABOR MOVEMENT (PLM)

1. Plans and Strategy of the PLM As Set Forth in the PLM National Strategic Program and Statement of MILTON ROSEN, PLM National Chairman

The PLM National Strategic Program sets forth that one of the immediate goals of the PLM is to place the Movement politically in a position to lead the masses of people in every significant area of struggle both directly through its own voice and together with united front voices. However, the Movement must be able to organize masses of working people into its ranks and lay the basis to build a new workers state.

The PLM National Strategic Program also sets forth that a negro liberation movement must be developed as "the black people in this country will not wait for white workers to get wise before they move; they are moving already; they constitute an oppressed colonial people; our role must be to help launch and participate in a political movement of black workers and sharecroppers in control of their own communities for political power. This movement in time may coincide with the general class struggle as the mass of white workers take all the cudgels against the common exploiter.

"This movement could be aimed at isolating and destroying the South fascists, explore their links to the Northern monopolies and the Federal Government thus exposing the phony 'moderates' as they will undoubtedly come to the aid of their Dixiecrat friends when push comes to shove.

"This movement must be based on new forces of organization which are based on the masses of negroes in the South. This means those civil rights groups now working which have a base among the negro masses should be encouraged to organize them into membership organizations. It means that whenever possible and nothing else exists new membership organizations should be formed i.e. Womens League, Youth Action Committee etc., we must be flexible about the forms.....

"Finally, this means councils for community control or call it what you like, composed of representatives of negro mass organizations and also of representatives of our party, who will of course, be among the leadership of the mass organizations anyway in many cases.

"These councils would map out plans to control their own areas. To seek political power but not through existing state structure (although the tactic of running candidates may be used when useful), but through assuming control of the community's housing problems (rent strikes), police problems (armed self-defense organization), legal problems (peoples courts), job problems (a general strike of black workers in the area), education (revolutionary schools) etc.

"..... however, it is clear that black Americans especially in the South are ready for independent racial activity aimed at political power. It is clear moreover that non-violence will not achieve that and the majority of negro people (as the majority of all people, incidentally) will fight back when attacked.

"A few of the preliminary steps we must take towards setting up these councils are:

"Develop a South-wide freedom paper, in which we participate; assign new forces to work in the South; determine the areas of concentration within the South; maintain the open PLM activity, which we have begun in the South."

The PLM National Strategic Program also sets forth a proposal to develop a racial movement for workers control of communities in big cities.

This proposal is based primarily on the work of PLM neighborhood groups in New York City.

The proposal as set forth states "we must build on rent strikes, the struggle against police brutality, the school boycotts etc., to raise the consciousness of the working class communities, to show people the ultimate solution lies in their own control of their neighborhoods particularly, control of housing, schools and police. At the same time, the rent strikes gave us an opportunity to show people the value of collective action and the cooperative spirit in the communities, by forming independent committees working with PL or joining PLM directly."

The proposal also set forth that "the committees and PL should see about starting up neighborhood defense organizations to protect the people in the neighborhood from the cops."

March 28, 1964]

On the evening of July 30, 1964, a PLM meeting was held at 210-212 East 17th Street, New York City. MILTON ROSEN, National Chairman of the PLM conducted the meeting and discussed the political situation, the Harlem Riots and the Garment Workers.

ROSEN stated in regard to the Harlem situation that PLM will agitate and try to make more trouble. The PLM was not organized to take advantage of the recent riot. They should now organize so that the next time a riot breaks out they can start riots in many different areas to divide the police and have them spread around the city thus they would avoid concentration of police in any one area at any given time.

SECRET (U)

ROSEN stated that the PLM did not expect the current riot to happen, but the firing of guns and the clubbing done by the police is tailor made to fit the PLM charges of police brutality. ROSEN stated that the PLM should exploit the current situation for all it is worth and further that PLM will agitate for further rioting and disturbances. KW

ROSEN stated that this is the beginning of the revolution and the next time something like this happens PLM will be organized to have a base from which to operate to protect the people from the police. KW

According to ROSEN the PLM must keep agitating and work through the Harlem Defense Council to be prepared for next summer, which will be difficult as they will have people on roof tops and the bloodshed will be the blood of the New York City Police Department and not that of the people. KW

On December 7, 1963, a Special Agent (SA) of the Federal Bureau of Investigation (FBI) was handed an announcement issued by the PLM, 68 West 106th Street, New York City, which set forth that on Saturday, December 7, 1963, a street meeting would be held at the corner of 105th Street and Columbus Avenue, New York City.

According to the announcement, the meeting will protest against the "police are murderers." The announcement also calls for the taking away the "murder weapons" from the New York City Police.

This flyer was captioned "Do You Want Discrimination", and set forth that it was distributed by the Intergration Workers Group of the PLM, 227 East Third Street, New York City.

This letter addressed "Dear Friend" stated in part as follows:

The PLM intends to give the working people of New York a real choice in the coming Councilman elections in November. Under the leadership of the Wagner - Kennedy forces in New York and the Rockefeller leadership in Albany, our city has become the largest slum and lowest wage city (as compared to other Metropolitan areas) in the country. You do not have to go to Birmingham or to the Deep South to see misery, oppression, racism and its corollary, police brutality, exist right here in New York City. On December 7, 1963, SAS of the FBI observed a PL street meeting held at 105th Street and Columbus Avenue, New York City.

MILTON ROSEN was one of the speakers and he mourned the two dead Puerto Rican "brother workers", who were murdered, as he would his own flesh and blood. ROSEN demanded that their "killers be brought to justice."

One of the other speakers, STEFAN MARTINOT, who charged that the Police were instruments of the rich and part of the conspiracy to hold the Negro and Puerto Rican workers in a low status so that a large pool of cheap labor would be readily available to the bosses and to the capitalists.

Another speaker at the meeting was BILL EPTON, who accused the police of discrimination and brutality against the Negroes and Puerto Ricans.

On April 18, 1964, SAS of the FBI observed a PLM street meeting held at 104th Street and Columbus Avenue, New York City. At this meeting, STEFAN MARTINOT, was one of the speakers and stated that Negro citizenship and the right to vote have been taken away and they should all unite to get their rights back.

MARTINOT stated that the Negro was asked to fight in Korea and now he is being asked to fight in Vietnam for the interests of Mayor Wagner and Governor Rockefeller.

~~SECRET~~ (U)

Another speaker at this street meeting was FRED JEROME, who spoke about the war in Vietnam and stated that the Puerto Ricans are being asked to die in Vietnam. According to JEROME, Governor Rockefeller and other millionaire interests are reaping the profits from this war.

JEROME further stated if Puerto Ricans have to be killed they should die fighting for better housing and better wages in this country and not be asked to die in Vietnam.

Source advised that he had learned that the leaders of the PLM in New York City are attempting to obtain firearms for the use of the people in New York City, particularly in the Harlem area, to defend themselves from the police.

[NY T-138

On August 6, 1964, SAS of the FBI observed a demonstration sponsored by the PLM, 66 West 109th Street, New York City, to protest police brutality, poor working and housing conditions in Harlem. The demonstration was held at the corner of 100th Street and Amsterdam Avenue.

ROBERT APTER, who identified himself as a member of the PLM, spoke at the rallyand stated that the demonstration was called to protest the killing of FRANCISCO RODRIGUEZ and RALPH BRAZIER by the cops. APTER said that BILL EPTON of the Harlem PL Club was arrested at a street demonstration on July 25, 1964, because the police were afraid he would gather thousands of people in Harlem and march downtown. APTER remarked that the arrest of EPTON is false because EPTON was notadvocating violence, but said that the people in Harlem must defend themselves and a few cops and judges would probably be killed.

~~SECRET~~ (U)

SECRET (U)

APTER continued by stating that the capitalist system causes unemployment, slums and police brutality and it should be overthrown. APTER stated that the only force and violence that would be used would be in self-defense.

Another speaker at the demonstration was DAVID DOUGLAS, who identified himself as a member of the Harlem PL Club, stated that the capitalist system must be overthrown and he does not care what system or government replaces it. DOUGLAS stated that the people must organize against police brutality and protest against anything and everything. However, that before anything can be done, the people must organize with the people in their blocks and protest against rats, roaches, lack of heat, hot water and anything else they wanted to protest against. DOUGLAS stated that the PLM can be called to help them organize themselves so that they can get what they want.

DOUGLAS further stated that the cops are only good for killing and they do not protect the people.

On May 18, 1964, SA of the FBI received a four page printed flyer, which was being handed out in the vicinity of City Hall, New York City.

This flyer was captioned "Harlem United, Let Us Defend Ourselves!".

This flyer protested police brutality and claimed that "Police, the Press, the Politicans and all other agents of the white power structure, have launched a campaign to terrorize and slander against 500,000 black people in this community, a campaign more vicious and more brutal than ever." The flyer also sets forth that "the Harlem PLM along with other organizations is forming a united peoples committee against police brutality. On May 1, 1964, a SA of the FBI obtained a printed flyer from an unknown individual on the street in New York City. This flyer announced that the PLM was going to start publication of a weekly newspaper named "Challenge".

This flyer set forth that "Challenge" would be a weekly organ of the PLM of New York City, which will be dedicated to the working men and women, who have built this city and who keep it going. "It is also dedicated to fight the slum lords and bosses, fight and expose those in Government, City, State and National, who are bought and paid off by the landlords, big corporations, bankers and racketeers. Fight those who hide behind police uniforms to terrorize working people; those who murder innocent people while big crooks go scot free; fight for equal rights for all who work for a living; fight those who divide working people against each other by preaching hatred of one color by another or one language by another; fight for jobs, for a shorter working day with no loss in pay." The flyer then sets forth that "above all this newspaper is dedicated to fight for a new way of life, a way of life where working men and women own and control their homes, their factories, the police force, the courts, the City Hall, and the entire Government on every level."

Source made available mineographed sheet captioned "newspaper report" which indicated that a proposal was made that the PLM publish a weekly tabloid containing from eight to sixteen pages to be distributed in the working class neighborhoods of cities. This tabloid would be in both Spanish and English and would deal with the lives and struggles of the working people. This tabloid would be the official organ of the PLM of New York City.

Socialist Workers Party (SWP)

The SWP has been designated pursuant to Executive Order 10450.

1. Plans, Strategy, and Line of the SWP National Organization

A national conference of the Committee to Aid the Monroe Defendants (CAMD) was held on January 26, 1963, at 168 West 23rd Street, New York, New York. Activities and plans of the organization were discussed and one of the speakers was BERTA GREEN, Secretary of the CAMD.

The chairman of the CAMD, Dr. ALBERT E. PERRY, in a speech during the convention, emphasized that the organization was concerned only with the Monroe defendants. He stated that neither the SWP or any other organization had any influence in the CAMD. He further stated that the position of BERTA GREEN as Secretary of the CAMD had nothing to do with her SWP membership.

A characterization of the CAMD is contained in the appendix hereto.

Following the CAMD convention, described above, a member of the SWP National Committee (NC) related that the SWP felt that it could still use the CAMD as a vehicle in which the Party could enter into and exert influence in the Negro struggle. It was said that the Party felt that if the occasion ever arose where its interests in the CAMD were jeopardized, sufficient pressure and control could be exerted in order to protect the interests of the SWP in the CAMD.

One of the topics dealt with by [redacted] was the Negro movement. He said this was the most advanced section of the mass movement. [redacted] claimed that the Negroes were conducting a struggle of the deepest revolutionary nature and that the SWP had the responsibility of intervening in this development. b6 b7C

He wrote that one of the topics on the convention agenda would be a report and discussion on the Negro question.

At a meeting of the SWP Political Committee (PC) held May 10, 1963, a vote was taken on the political resolution entitled "Preparing for the Next Wave of Radicalism in the United States." The resolution was approved with one PC member, TIM WOHLFORTH, in opposition and another, MYRA WEISS, abstaining.

[NY T- 218 June 25, 1963]

This resolution was printed in a SWP Discussion Bulletin, volume 24, number 16, dated in May, 1963, and made the following points in regard to the Negro people:

The SWP today approaches the end of its prolonged isolation but the breakthrough into the mass movement has barely begun. The radicalization of the Negro people constitutes the most important single political development within the country and its repercussions will generate new militancy against capitalism. This Negro militancy will lead toward a break with capitalist politics. Significant forces are calling for independent Negro election candidates.

Fulfillment of the political needs of such newly radicalized people is central to the activity of the SWP as a revolutionary party. Its main task is to develope a propaganda offensive for the key issues of the day such as the fight for peace, civil rights, economic security, social welfare and civil liberties. The Party will continue to run candidates where possible in local elections and also prepare for a Presidential ticket in the 1964 elections.

Major attention must be given to work in support of Negroes and others fighting for their civil rights. If white workers can be won over to active support of Negro freedom fighters this alliance might lead to the formation of a labor party and improve chances of recruiting by the SWP.

At the SWP National Convention on July 19, 1963, the report on the PC resolution on the Negro question was given by GEORGE BREITMAN, a NC member. He said that the Negro struggle was the forerunner and vanguard of the class struggle. BREITMAN designated the Negro efforts of today as almost revolutionary in nature. He said the Negroes were becoming aware that they must repudiate the white capitalist society. BREITMAN said that Negro nationalism was an outgrowth of the fight for Negro equality and one should regard Negro nationalism and revolutionary socialism as similar in nature and purpose.

He discussed the Negro labor problem and stated this could only be resolved by the merging of a radicalized labor movement with a radicalized Negro nationalist movement. BREITMAN stated that if the Negroes want they should form an independent political group; the SWP would be willing to support it with a hope of recruiting further SWP members.

A vote was taken on the Negro question on July 20, 1963, and the PC resolution supported by an overwhelming majority of the delegates.

FARRELL DOBBS announced at the SWP National Convention on July 20, 1963, that the SWP would go all out to back the forthcoming March on Washington. In the fall 1963 edition of "International Socialist Review" there was printed the document adopted by the 1963 convention of the SWP entitled "The New Stage in the Struggle for Negro Emancipation and Tasks of the SWP."

This set forth that the most notable characteristic of the newest stage in the Negro struggle was the clear and sharp rejection of gradualism, described as the program and method of "capitalist liberalism." It was set forth that the Negro move toward a Freedom Now Party was an essentially radical and potentially revolutionary demand. The document set forth that a new period had begun in May, 1963, marked by the following features:

1. The struggle is acquiring an ever greater mass character.
2. Mass action in various forms has moved into the North.
3. Negro leaders feel nervous and unsteady because they lack control over the masses.
4. There are special traits in the civil rights struggle in the South which, by dramatizing injustices, constantly embarrasses the Federal government.

The document went on to name the first big task of the Negro struggle as being the mobilization and unification of the Negro masses in an independent movement to fight for their equality. This was to prepare for an eventual "revolutionary alliance of the working class and the Negro people". For this reason, according to the SWP document, revolutionary socialists welcomed the growth of Negro nationalism because this contributed to the creation of an independent Negro movement. Negro nationalism and revolutionary socialism were regarded as complementary forces. It was recommended that revolutionary socialists be firm and patient in demonstrating that Marxism was valid and relevant for the Negro struggle.

It was set forth that the general alliance between the labor movement and Negroes fighting for liberation could be helped by cooperation between the vanguard of the Negro struggle and the vanguard of the working class represented by the SWP. It was further set forth that the role of the SWP was to assemble and programatically equip the forces that would lead the "coming American revolution to abolish capitalism and racism". It was stated that the SWP sought to equip both revolutionary whites and Negroes with "the best set of scientific tools yet devised to change society-Marxism".

The present tasks of the SWP in connection with the Negro were said to consist of better educating the membership to understand the Negro, providing more leadership and coordination to expand Party work in the Negro struggle, to expand the Party's Negro cadre in Negro organizations, to develop demands and proposals in collaboration with other Negro militants and to expand the Party's press and circulation of literature among Negroes.

A letter was sent to all locals and branches of the SWP on August 1, 1963, setting forth that the literature panel at the SWP convention had proposed a massive subscription campaign for "The Militant". It was planned to make a special introductory offer aimed at penetrating Negro communities throughout the country. It had been decided that it would be realistic to launch a subscription drive to run from September 16th until November 16, 1963, with a minimum goal of 5,000 new readers. The price of the introductory subscription was to be .50¢ for a four month period. It was said that this would be the most ambitious project since the immediate post war period. It was urged that emphasis be placed on quantity sale of subscriptions to new readers. It was requested that sales be concentrated in areas calculated to return a major expansion of Negro readers of "The Militant".

The Political Committee voted at its meeting of August 2, 1963, to organize a national tour of DE BERRY in the fall, speaking on the Negro struggle. DE BERRY is a member of the SWP NC.

In a letter to Party branches dated August 5, 1963, the National Office of the SWP set forth that a special issue of "The Militant" would be available for sale featuring the idea of independent political action through a Freedom Now Party. It was set forth that the task of the SWP was to sell this issue of "The Militant" at the March on Washington, August 28, 1963.

The SWP sent a letter to its branches early in September, 1963, setting forth that the National Office felt that the most significant issue to come out of the March on Washington was the call for the formation of a Freedom Now Party which would run its first candidates in the 1964 elections. It was felt conceivable that such an organization could elect councilmen in the heavily populated Negro areas of large Northern cities as well as Congressmen from these areas.

of 1963. It was set forth that the SWP had taken the initiative in organizing a defense committee for the Monroe people and had not undertaken this lightly. The Party had faced overt opposition and hostility from the leadership of major civil rights groups and also the less direct opposition of political opponents.

Other problems faced was the early rivalry between two defense committees, the blackout of news by the mass media and the lack of forces outside the SWP willing to lead a defense. The most important handicap, however, was the repeated postponements of the trial which made it increasingly difficult to sustain popular interest. It was set forth that each campaign to raise funds for local defense and to publicize the cause met with less response.

It was further stated that although the CAMD was not the main arena for Negro work today there could be interaction between the CAMD and other work. In areas where CAMD chapters had become dormant, SWP branches were instructed to immediately take steps to reactivate them. Where chapters had never existed the branches were asked to take the initiative in organizing them.

A letter was sent from National Headquarters to all branches of the SWP under date of September 30, 1963 headed, "CLIFTON DE BERRY National Tour on FNP". XW

The letter set forth that DE BERRY was presently campaigning as SWP candidate for Councilmen-at-Large in Brooklyn, and that he would soon begin a national speaking tour. The letter set forth that the tour was important from the point of view of orienting Party members on the new stage in the Negro struggle and the Party's role in it.

Another letter to all branches was sent out October 3, 1963, and set forth that DE BERRY's tour would begin in Baltimore on October 19, 1963, and the title of his speech would be "The Negro Revolution". DE BERRY stated that the present Negro struggle was unleashing forces which could be the start of a political revolution in the United States. He said that socialism was the only answer to the class and labor struggle and that when the Negro struggle was successful, they would unite with labor and go on to overthrow capitalism in the United States. GEORGE BREITMAN expressed his views to the SWP leadership regarding the FNP in October, 1963. He said the FNP as yet did not amount to much, but that within certain limits, its growth in various localities would depend on the initiative of Negro SWP members. Realizing that obstacles to the success of FNP were enormous, BREITMAN felt the SWP had nothing to lose through collaboration with the new Negro forces. BREITMAN wished his views to be kept in confidence because of an anti-SWP tendency which existed within the FNP.

GEORGE BREITMAN again expressed his views to the SWP leadership late in November, 1963, pointing out that there had been, from the beginning, a persistent anti-SWP campaign in the FNP. He said there had been complaints that the SWP had been trying to dominate the FNP. BREITMAN had feared there would be some comment against the SWP at the "Negro Grass Roots Conference" held at Detroit, but this had not occurred. At a plenum of the SWP NC in session on December 27, 1963, at New York Party Headquarters, one of the SWP leaders present, FRED HALSTEAD, predicted that there would be a slowing down of activities regarding the FNP. He stated that the FNP had no strong leaders and it was therefore desirable for the SWP to go to work on its own election ticket and make arrangements later if there were changes in the development of the FNP.

In regard to the 1964 elections, HALSTEAD said there were better opportunities for Party propaganda now since independent political action was known and accepted in the Negro movement.

Another speaker, CLIFTON DE BERRY, said that while on tour, he had spoken with many of those connected with FNP and found them to be inexperienced and lacking organizing ability.

FARRELL DOBBS discussed the SWP Presidential ticket at the plenum on December 27, 1963, and said that it was advisable, in view of the civil rights movement, to have a Negro comrade as Presidential candidate. He recommended CLIFTON DE BERRY to be the SWP candidate for President with EDWARD SHAW to run as Vice-President.

In the discussion that followed, there were some objections to DE BERRY on the ground that he was not the strongest candidate, and suggestions were made that DOBBS, SHAW or HALSTEAD might be better choices. It was finally concluded, however, that DE BERRY would stand up better in any discussion regarding civil rights because he was a Negro and the plenum finally voted to unanimously approve the nomination of DE BERRY and SHAW.

He also said that the DE BERRY tour under the slogan, "Freedom Now" had added to the confusion and the identification of FNP as a creature of the SWP. It was the opinion of SWP leaders that WORTHY himself held no ill will and that if carefully and sensitively handled, the Party could continue collaboration with the FNP without embarrassment or additional problems resulting.

A public forum was held by the SWP at its headquarters in New York City on February 28, 1964, with CONRAD LYNN as guest speaker. LYNN discussed the case of the Monroe, North Carolina kidnap defendants and their sponsorship by the CAMD. He attacked the SWP in that as the main organizer of the CAMD it had acted without regard to the individual defendants and as a result these individuals came under the influence of people hostile to the SWP. LYNN said that the Monroe defendants were as underdeveloped politically and socially as they had been before the CAMD took over their sponsorship and because the CAMD had failed to work on their political development they were easily influenced by others. According to LYNN, it was this influence that resulted in the boys renouncing the SWP and CAMD as the case came to trial and this resulted in their losing the case because of the last minute change in lawyers.

In "The Militant" of March 16, 1964, it was set forth that CLIFTON DE BERRY had lauded the declaration by MALCOLM X that he would develop black nationalist political strength and would actively support the civil rights struggle. DE BERRY declared that "every militant civil rights struggle helps the Negro understand the need for black political power. And I certainly welcome his declaration that Negroes have the right and duty to defend themselves against racist violence."

It is noted that in succeeding issues of "The Militant", speeches and activity of MALCOLM X were reported on with approval and MALCOLM X was also sponsored as a speaker at an open forum of the SWP in New York.

The National Office of the SWP notified its branches that they were expected to become more closely integrated with the activities of the Negro groups, clubs and social affairs in their communities. It was said that this was a task that would give the branches greater opportunities to work in the civil rights struggle and give the Party a political opening which they had not had before. All branches were instructed to go into the Negro community and make clear that CLIFTON DE BERRY was a Negro running for President of the United States. They were to urge Negroes to have speaking engagements for DE BERRY to show the world that the Negro through the power of the ballot will have a say in who sits in the White House.

In one of the speeches he made during the Spring of 1964, CLIFTON DE BERRY made the following points in regard to the Negro nationalist movement:

He said that the SWP recognized that Negro nationalist organizations are a potential revolutionary force. Because of their militancy, the nationalists tend to pull other Negro political organizations to the left. He said that the nationalists would soon learn that it was impossible for the Negro to be equal under capitalism and find that the only answer is socialism.

"Muhammad Speaks" is an official publication of the Nation of Islam (NOI).

CLIFTON DE BERRY, one of the participants in the symposium, stated that the black people were just beginning to demonstrate their opposition to the Democratic Party. He said that in striking out in their own interests they were attacking the power structure and the power structure was paying attention. He further stated that the people of this country were learning from struggles abroad that if they were going to have their freedom, they must strike the first blow.

Another speaker at the forum, according to "The Militant" was MALCOLM X of the Muslim Mosque, Incorporated (MMI).

MALCOLM X is the founder and leader of Muslim Mosque, Incorporated, a characterization of which is contained in the appendix hereto.

A statement by CLIFTON DE BERRY was printed in "The Militant" of June 29, 1964, regarding the kidnapping of three civil rights workers in Mississippi. In his statement, DE BERRY called upon President JOHNSON to deputize and arm the Negroes in Mississippi and to dispatch federal troops there.

2. Policy, Plans and Activities of the SWP - New York Local (NYL)

A characterization of the SWP - NYL is contained in the appendix hereto.

Unless otherwise indicated meetings of the SWP - NYL were held at Party Headquarters, 116 University Place, New York, New York.

In 1963, the main activity of the NYL consisted of electoral activity in Brooklyn, New York, where the SWP is running a Negro candidate for Councilman-at-Large. This candidacy is in preparation for the advancement of SWP support for the FTP. It is also in accordance with the new SWP policy adopted at the 1963 National Convention calling for the formation of an all-Negro party set out in the SWP resolution on the Negro question. In this regard, the SWP approach to the Negro question involves encouraging the growth of Negro nationalist movements, such as the Muslims, as the beginning of the revolutionary development of the Negro people, and the eventual turning of the Negro toward a revolutionary socialist direction.

She urged all NYL members to get behind the Party in the drive for the CAMD in its bid to defeat the extradition of one of the Monroe defendants from Cleveland to North Carolina.

CARL FEINGOLD spoke, saying that all SWP branches would reactivate their CAMD work. NAT WEINSTEIN stated that while the SWP was not numerically the majority in CAMD, it was the driving force and accepted the leadership positions and all major responsibility in CAMD functions and actions. At a membership meeting of the NYL held March 19, 1964, BERTA GREEN described the events leading to the developments at the trial in Monroe. There followed a discussion of the CAMD generally and the Party's role in creating it and guiding it over the three years of its existence. It was concluded that events had taken an unforeseen course due to the activities of some of the Monroe defendants who prevented the uniting of various groups active in the defense effort.

Thus, as of April, 1964, the CAMD, previously set up by the SWP as a front group, no longer exists. The cessation of activities of this committee resulted from the rejection of the CAMD by the Monroe defendants just prior to their trial in Monroe, North Carolina.

At a meeting of the NYL Executive Committee held December 16, 1963, a report was made on civil rights and it was proposed that NYL become involved in the rent strike being conducted by some individuals in New York City. It was felt that this could be undertaken by Negro members but the white members should be working on getting subscriptions and making contacts.

In reference to the rent strike, issues of "The Militant" during the fall and winter of 1963 to 1964, made frequent mention of the rent strike movement against poor housing conditions in Harlem. In the issue of December 23, 1963, it was stated that the rent strike had national implications. In the issue of January 13, 1964, it was set forth that the rent strike was successful and that the city power structure recognized its potential explosiveness.

In "The Militant" of February 3, 1964, CLIFTON DE BERRY was described as having prepared a statement for delivery at a meeting of New York City Council on January 23, 1964. He never actually delivered the statement at the meeting, described as "the wildest hearing ever seen in the Council chambers", because DE BERRY walked out with others as a boycott of the session. In DE BERRY's statement, printed by "The Militant", he said that neither the Democrats nor Republicans had any program for solving the housing problem. He stated that the banks, speculators and other big real estate interests control these properties and liked things the way they were. He expressed the hope that the rent strike movement would gain such momentum as to force a change in the Democratic - Republican monopoly of the political picture.

At its meetings, early in 1964, the NYL also followed activities of the rent strike and its progress was regularly reported on. Members were asked to mobilize in support of the rent strike. &u

At the NYL branch conference held February 8 and 9, 1964, BOB FRANKLIN gave a report on the Negro struggle. He said there was a need for the Party to move with caution but to firmly build a Negro cadre for the coming struggle. He said the best vehicle was activity in connection with the rent strike and through contacts made among the thousand subscribers to "The Militant" obtained recently, most of whom were Negroes. In the discussion that followed everyone spoke hopefully on the prospects of the rent strike growing nationally to the gain of the radical movement. &u

On April 3, 1964, a Militant Labor Forum (MLF) was held at Party Headquarters by the SWP - NYL on the topic "The Northern Negro and the Civil Rights Struggle." The speaker, LARRY STEWART, was introduced as the SWP candidate for Senator from New Jersey. In his speech, STEWART said that Northern Negroes expressed sympathy with Negroes suffering in the South, but when stern measures are brought up they tend to shy away from any suggestion of violence. In regard to "self-defense" STEWART said that contrary to popular belief Negroes in the past at many times defended themselves as individuals. STEWART spoke in favor of organized self-defense as a new policy for obtaining Negro rights. X/W

He instructed that all members be at this meeting one hour before it was scheduled to start and to be available for assignment. He described the meeting as a political act of first importance, saying that the turnout of the NYL would be a public test of the SWP potential. At the MALCOLM X meeting held April 8, 1964, the speaker remarked that he had been in Cleveland a few days earlier where violence had occurred in a civil rights protest with the police having rocks thrown at them in response to fire hoses and tear gas. MALCOLM X summed up by saying it was Molotov cocktails yesterday, stones today and hand grenades tomorrow. This remark resulted in extended applause. XW

MALCOLM X also stated that the black man wanted his rights and economically, politically and socially would not stop until he got them. He said that in the future white men as well as Negroes would be losing their blood. A membership meeting of the NYL was held on May 7, 1964, at which there was a discussion of the "stall-ins" held by Negro civil rights groups in New York. Some of the members objected to intervention because of the lack of Negro cadres in the Party. XU

A MIF was held May 8, 1964, which was in the form of a symposium on the topic "Mass Civil Disobedience for Civil Rights." It was mentioned that the "white power structure" wanted to keep Negroes in servitude. It was agreed that the World's Fair stall-in was a success because it was a revolutionary tactic and it accomplished its objective of harrassing white people. XU

Signs carried by those picketing and chants shouted by them were in opposition to the "New York Times," New York City's Police Commissioner and Jim Crow.

At a membership meeting of the NYL held May 28, 1964, there was a lengthy discussion on the movement led by MALCOLM X since his split with ELIJAH MUHAMMAD. The general summary was that MALCOLM X claimed he was not familiar with Marxism but that he and the SWP were allied similarly politically. It was stated that the outlook of MALCOLM X in regard to whites was improving and that he would now accept help from them. The SWP issued a publication entitled, "Party Campaigner" dated June, 1964, which described acvitities undertaken by the SWP in various areas. One of these articles discussed the MLF during the period January - May, 1964. It was set forth that in the 22 public meetings which had been held, 12 of the guest speakers had been Negroes. In describing the subject matter of the 1964 forums it was noted that the largest number, 10, had been on the Negro struggle.

Another article in the "Party Campaigner" was on the subject of newsstand sales of "The Militant" in Harlem. It was set forth that there was some question about the reception the SWP would get from black nationalists in Harlem, but when the campaign began this proved no real barrier. It was reported that there were now 45 Harlem newsstands which regularly sold "The Militant." It was further stated that there were now between 75 and 100 people who bought "The Militant" on newsstands in Harlem.

A characterization of the OAAU is contained in the Appendix Section of this report.

At a meeting of the NYL held July 23, 1964, a report was given by BOB DESVERNEY on the rioting which had taken place in Harlem on the previous weekend. He said that the Negro rioting was an act of desperation on the part of the Negroes. He said that there was no communist involvement in the rioting as reported in the press. DESVERNEY said that the Negroes would need guns and they may eventually go against the police to get them. DESVERNEY stated that the "Negro radicals" and the SWP were allied because they were the only two groups who were against the present society.

DESVERNEY stated that the rioting and looting was without organization, but in answer to the fact that these people were in the minority one could answer that other "revolutionaries" were also in the minority until they took over and became the majority. DESVERNEY gave as an example the Russian Revolution in which "the police had a plan for the first, second, third, fourth, fifth and sixth days, but they never got to the sixth day". It was DESVERNEY's opinion that the rioting was a pre-revolutionary tendancy and that the charge of communist infiltration had been propagandized because whites simply could not believe it was the work of Negroes alone.

In the discussion following DESVERNEY, it was the general concensus of the members present that the police should be removed from Harlem. The rioting and looting which took place in the Bedford-Stuyvesant area of Brooklyn was referred to as a "second front". One of the members present, SHARON FINER, said that she had been with the downtown Brooklyn CORE unit during the rioting and she had been responsible for numerous telephone calls to the police to send them on false

On July 23, 1964, a meeting was held at Central Plaza Annex, New York, New York, which had representatives of a number of groups, including the SWP. The purpose and main theme of the meeting was solidarity as it related to the Negro working class and the White working class. In the discussion, it was decided that street demonstrations in the civil rights fight must utilize both Whites and Negroes in integrated protests. In this regard, a protest march and demonstration was planned for the following meeting.

BOUTELLE had been forbidden by the police to speak in that area and, when he tried to do so, was arrested. KW

DE BERRY said that SWP was defending BOUTELLE and had enlisted the aid of the American Civil Liberties Union to defend him when his case came up in court. DE BERRY said he had been able to speak on August 8, 1964, although he predicted that it would not be long before KW other individuals would be forbidden to speak in Harlem.

The arrest of PAUL BOUTELLE on August 29, 1964 was printed in the August 30, 1964 late city edition of the "New York Herald Tribune". It set forth that BOUTELLE had attempted to speak at an outdoor rally of the "Trotskyist Socialist Workers Party."

A meeting of the Executive Committee of the NYL was held on August 31, 1964, and at this meeting a report was made on a Harlem street meeting held August 29, 1964. The meeting was regarded as a success in view of limited goals set up. It was reported, however, that only a small number of Negroes were in attendance at the meeting. It was proposed that street meetings by held in Harlem on a weekly basis for the next four weeks. It was further proposed that efforts be made for joint action with nationalist groups in an attack on both "capitalist" parties. The value of joint meetings was emphasized with the goal of drawing out the nationalists and inflicting pressure on them to speak out now and not be silent on the issue.

It was proposed and accepted that the SWP continue to have its own regular meetings but arrange a series of meetings involving black nationalists, also.

A street meeting was held by the NYL at 125th Street and Seventh Avenue in Harlem, on September 5, 1964. The rally was observed by SAS of the FBI and it was noted that a maximum of 50 people were present.

A panel discussion open to the public was held at SWP Headquarters in New York City, on September 18, 1964 on the issue of support for the Democratic Party. One of the speakers was PAUL BOUTELLE, who was violently anti-white and pro-black in his remarks. He said he wanted a totally black Freedom Now Party. He said this was necessary because the present system is politically, economically and socially oriented towards and controlled by the 'white supremacist ruling class".

Another speaker, LEZ EDMOND, was also vigorously anti-white in his remakrs. He, too, supported a Freedom Now Party consisting only of Negroes. He said that even if his own mother supported the white-dominated government, he would throw her out. He said he hoped there would be another CASTRO in the Latin American countries and more soldiers killed in Vietnam, because this would hasten the destruction of the political system in the United States.

3. Plans, Program and Directives Appearing in SWP Publications and Other Publicity Media

In the Spring 1963 edition of "International Socialist Review" an article by WILLIAM F. WARDE was printed entitled "The Emancipation Proclamation". WARDE wrote that in the 100 years since LINCOLN issued the Emancipation Proclamation, very little had been accomplished toward placing Negroes on an equal status with whites. He claimed that there had been a barrier between the white working class and the Negroes, which had prevented these groups from working together for their common good. He predicted that at present, however, there was an increasingly militant temper in the movement for racial equality which marked the beginning of a deep change in American life and politics. This, according to WARDE, had revolutionary implications, as before long the mass of workers would rebel against the "reactionary anti-labor policies" and bring them into opposition with the Administration. With this, both the Negro and worker segments would find themselves arrayed against the common foe.

WARDE claimed that these "anti-monopolist forces" would have to seek points of contact and mutual support and in their practical collaboration, prejudices would disappear and a new alliance would be formed. He concluded that the Emancipation Proclamation would be realized for blacks and whites alike in the freedom which a socialist America would bring.

Beginning in the Spring of 1963, "The Militant" began to advocate that Negroes in the South take up arms in self-defense during their integration struggles.

In the issue of May 20, 1963, a statement from the SWP NC to President KENNEDY was printed which concluded that the right to self-defense was a basic human right. It was set forth that abled bodied men chosen by Birmingham's Negro community should be deputized and armed by the Federal Government for that city's self-defense and to exercise police powers.

In "The Militant", May 27, 1963, an editorial was printed setting forth that the Negroes of Birmingham stood unarmed against the law enforcement agencies in the city. The editorial thought all those for civil rights should let the Negroes of Birmingham and the South know that they support their right to arm themselves for the fight against "racist" attacks.

In "The Militant" of June 24, 1963, there was printed another article setting forth that the government had defaulted in police protection of Negroes. In view of this it was stated the Negroes had the right to arm and train themselves for self-defense. It was set forth that Negro neighbors should be protected and guards should be provided for Negro leaders to prevent their assassination.

"The Militant" in its issue of August 5, 1963, set forth that the Negro struggle had occupied the major attention at the 1963 SWP National Convention. It further set forth that this convention had an increased number of Negro delegates.

In the issue of "The Militant" dated August 19, 1963, there was printed under a page 1 banner headline a story hailing the proposal by "civil rights activists" to form a FNP. It was set forth that a FNP with candidates responsible only to the colored masses could rapidly become a real political power for the Negro revolution. It was further added that white unionists and militants could greet a FNP as a national ally in the fight against anti-labor forces which control the Democratic and Republican parties.

There has been previously set forth information concerning SWP participation in the March on Washington, August 28, 1963, through the sale of "The Militant".

In the issue of "The Militant dated September 23, 1963, the lead story set forth that Negroes in Birmingham, Alabama, had armed themselves and were patroling their neighborhoods. The story went on to say that the self-defense measures taken by Birmingham's Negroes constituted the only protection they had. Law enforcement bodies were described as a constant threat to their safety. "The Militant" demanded that President KENNEDY deputize and arm the Negro people of Birmingham for self-defense and to send Federal troops to occupy Alabama to disarm the "racist police" and military forces there.

The January 13, 1964 issue of "The Militant" announced the candidacies of CLIFTON DE BERRY for President of the United States and EDWARD SHAW for Vice President. The candidates were quoted as saying they stood for "Freedom Now" and demanded that the Negroes' right to vote be enforced with integrated Federal troops. The candidates also upheld the right of Negroes to organize in self-defense against attack.

The January 14, 1964 edition of the "New York Times" carried an article setting forth that DE BERRY had been nominated by the SWP as its candidate for President. It further set forth that DE BERRY had been on a national speaking tour supporting the idea of a FNP as a step toward independent political action by labor and Negroes.

In the "New York Times" of January 15, 1964, an article was printed setting forth that CONRAD J. LYNN, acting national chairman of the FNP, asserted that speeches by DE BERRY were tending to confuse the FNP with the SWP. LYNN said there was no chance that his Party would endorse DE BERRY, the SWP candidate for President.

SECRET (U)

The SWP election platform was printed in the issue of "The Militant" dated April 6, 1964. Concerning the Negroes, the platform had this to say:

"For Negroes, Mexicans, Puerto Ricans and other minorities the problems are the most severe. Those employed usually draw the dirtiest, hardest, lowest-paid jobs. They are largely restricted to ghetto life in slum areas where they must pay high rent for squalid quarters. Their neighborhood schools are the poorest, most overcrowded, least well staffed. Such social services as are extended to them are at the lowest level. Police brutality is an unending part of their everyday existence, and most everywhere they go they face open or thinly-veiled discrimination that violates their human dignity and blights their lives.

"With great fanfare a token civil-rights bill is introduced into Congress where capitalist politicans will cynically play preelection politics with it. Negro freedom fighters peacefully demonstrating for their civil rights are subjected to brutal police attacks. Freedom fighters who defend themselves against white supremacist violence are framed up, as were four people recently convicted on fake "kidnap" charges in Monroe, North Carolina, and sentenced to long prison terms.

"Those who would maintain racial oppression have, as a current NAACP report correctly states, "resisted the Constitution and court rulings by force, by deceit, by tokenism, by stalling litigation and by such legislative maneuvers as the filibuster.

"Fed up with a century of tokenism, the Negro people are demanding freedom now, and they are fighting for it. Their mood was symbolized by the big Southern demonstrations last year, called to protest discrimination and segregation and to demand the right to vote. Wave after wave of Negro freedom fighters went up against police dogs and fire hoses; undaunted by mass arrests, they came out of jail determined to continue the battle for human dignity and elementary rights.

"In the giant March on Washington, sparked by the Southern demonstrations, Negroes came from all over the land to voice their demands for jobs and freedom. The big turnout reflected a rise in Nothern militancy under the impetus of the Southern struggle. Rent strikes soon began in Northern cities where minorities are seggregated in rat-infested slums. School boycotts followed in opposition to segregation of Negro and Puerto Rican children in the educational system. Negroes, and Puerto Ricans inspired by the Negro example, are demanding their democratic rights in the unions and pressing for union support of their right to full equality in employment.

"Confronted with a lack of response from conservative union officials, they are taking action on their own. Construction sites, hotels and other places are picketed to protest discrimination in hiring and to demand equal rights on the job. Demands are pressed for higher minimum-wage laws covering all workers and for a shorter work-week to provide more jobs. Protest demonstrations are conducted against police brutality and there is growing sentiment to exercise the constitutional right of self-defense against extra-legal hooligan attacks on civil-rights demonstrators.

"A group of prominent Negroes distributed a manifesto at the March on Washington calling for independent Negro political action. "One hundred years of waiting for Democratic and Republican politicans to correct our grievances is too long," they said. "We have to take our freedom; no one will hand it to us. That is why ... we call upon all who believe in true emanciaption to join us in forming the Freedom Now Party."

"For these reasons the Socialist Workers Party supports independent Negro political action of the type manifested in the call for a Freedom Now Party."

One of the planks in the SWP platform is as quoted below:

"3) FREEDOM NOW for all minorities
Full economic, social and political equality for the Negro people and for all other minority groups. Solidarity with mass actions aimed at securing these rights as exemplified in the rent strikes, school boycotts, picketing of construction sites, public demonstrations and sit-ins. Uphold the right of self-defense against white-supremacist violence.

"Full use of the federal power to enforce all laws and court orders against discrimination and segregation. Enforce existing laws against lynch murder and police brutality and enact new ones. End the barbaric death penalty and reform the antiquated prison system.

Establish an FEPC with teeth and compensate minorities for the disadvantages they have suffered. Create a federal agency fully empowered and equipped to enforce minority rights in all spheres of national life. Federal action to guarantee and protect the right to vote in all national, state, county and city elections. Abolish all existing poll taxes.

Teach Negro and African history in the nation's schools. Combat all forms of anti-Semitism."

An editorial was printed in the July 27, 1964 edtiion of "The Militant" saying that the attempt by the New York police to "repress" the people of Harlem by brute force and open viiolence were military tactics which had been planned in advance and known to top officials. The editorial went on to say that in carrying out their orders against the people of Harlem the police could not expect to be well received by "the victims of the oppression they enforce." The editorial further stated that capitalist society had nothing to offer the black people except exploitation. The editorial concluded that present capitalist politicans and most Negro leaders were useless to the black masses. They were also, it was claimed, useless for organizing the revolutionary political struggle required to win justice and dignity for the black working class.

An article was printed in "The Militant" of August 10, 1964, which it was stated would set forth the real meaning of the Harlem riots. In the article, the riots during the summer of 1964 were described as "the entry into direct action of do-or-die freemom-fighters, an authentic made-in-the-USA resistance movement, the uprising of the most daring and self-sacrificing elements of an oppressed people." The protests were further described as "revolutionary defiances aimed at the overthrow of the whole rotten system ... anti-capitalist in effect if not in conscience."

In the August 24, 1964 issue of "The Militant", CLIFTON DE BERRY claimed that the New York City police were in a concerted drive to establish a police state in Harlem.

In "The Militant" of September 13, 1964, an article was printed defending the interest of the SWP in the movement for Negro independence. It was set forth that the SWP advocated Negro independence because history showed the more independent the Negro movement became, the more revolutionary it became, and the more revolutionary, the better for all revolutionists, white and black. It was claimed that the process of growing independence would inevitably lead the Negro movement toward close collaboration with other revolutionary forces, including the SWP.

A characterization of the Workers World Party (WWP) appears in the Appendix Section attached hereto.

1. Plans and Activities on National Level

At a New York Branch WWP meeting at 46 West 21st Street, New York City, on March 8, 1963, SAM BALLAN, WWP National Chairman, spoke concerning efforts to free MAE MALLORY. BALLAN stated that Ohio authorities had set bail for MALLORY and the WWP had to raise $1500, which was the amount needed to post bond. At this meeting, $1,045 was pledged by persons present and BALLAN indicated that additional sums were to be raised by the WWP in Buffalo, New York, and in Ohio.

[NY T-150

During recent months, the primary activity of the WWP has been its attempts to secure bail for WILLIE MAE MALLORY through the Monroe Defense Committee (MDC), and to bring public pressure to bear to have the Governor of Ohio revoke the extradition warrant concerning MALLORY. WWP provides living expenses for CLARENCE SENIORS, WWP National Committee member, who serves as Chairman of the MDC.

At the September 2, 1963, session of the WWP Labor Day Conference held August 31 - September 2, 1963, at 46 West 21st Street, New York City, CLARENCE SENIORS spoke concerning the increased activities concerning the MDC and its fight on behalf of MAE MALLORY. He stated that 10,000 signatures were obtained for an appeal to the Governor of Ohio to cancel MALLORY's extradition to North Carolina.

At the September 2, 1963 session of the WWP Conference, SAM BALLAN praised CLARENCE SENIORS for his self-sacrifice and hardships on behalf of the MDC. BALLAN stated that state and federal authorities must know that the WWP will fight in every manner to keep MAE MALLORY alive and free.

2. Plans and Activities at Local Level

At a meeting of the New York Branch WWP on September 27, 1963, at 48 West 21st Street, New York City, SAM BALLAN spoke concerning the urgent need for funds to aid MAE MALLORY and the MDC. BALLAN stated that the court decision concerning the extradition of MALLORY was scheduled for October 7, 1963. He indicated that should the decision be unfavorable, WWP members from New York City and Buffalo, New York, would be called upon to go to Cleveland to take actions such as demonstrations to prevent MALLORY's extradition to North Carolina. BALLAN stated that the MDC had been instructed to take any steps necessary to keep MALLORY in Cleveland and indicated that force should be used if necessary even to the point of WWP members facing arrest in the fight to prevent MALLORY's extradition. As a result of BALLAN's speech, a total of $3,100 was pledged by persons present at the meeting.

On January 14, 1964, Sheriff D. S. GRIFFIN, Monroe, North Carolina, advised SA [redacted] that WILLIE MAE MALLORY was at that time incarcerated in Union County Jail, Monroe, North Carolina. Sheriff GRIFFIN stated that a $10,000 cash bond had been set for MALLORY.

On January 14, 1964, Chief of Police A. A. MAUNEY, Monroe, North Carolina, advised SA [redacted] that CLARENCE SENIORS from Cleveland, Ohio, came to Monroe during the previous weekend shortly after the arrival of MALLORY, and SENIORS was attempting to make bond for her. Chief MAUNEY advised that SENIORS had visited MALLORY in jail on two occasions and had been in contact with local Negro citizens in an effort to make bond for MALLORY.

At a Branch Meeting of the New York Branch WWP on January 17, 1964, at 46 West 21st Street, New York City, SAM BALLAN stated that the WWP on January 17, 1964, sent $10,000 via Western Union to CLARENCE SENIORS in Monroe, North Carolina, to be used by the MDC to post bond for MAE MALLORY. According to BALLAN, this money was raised by loans and donations from WWP members in New York City and some of it would be repaid when the bail money was returned. BALLAN stated that other organizations wanted to help MALLORY; however, she had agreed to accept help only from or through the WWP.

The Youth Against War and Fascism (YAWF) was scheduled to sponsor a picket demonstration at the New York City Police Department, located on East 104th Street, New York City, on February 23, 1964, to protest alleged police brutality against Negroes and Puerto Ricans. The demonstration was to be publicized as sponsored by the East Harlem Tenants Council; however, it was to be controlled by the WWP and the YAWF. (U)

On February 23, 1964, the above-described demonstration began at 2:30 p.m., and ended at 3:45 p.m.. Participants displayed placards with such slogans as "Stop Police Brutality" and "We Demand Justice". The group chanted "Assassins!" and "Murderers!" at police in the area. The demonstration was under the complete control of the WWP with WWP members serving as line captains as well as participants.

On November 21, 1963, a picket line was observed by Special Agents of the Federal Bureau of Investigation (FBI) in front of the 24th Precinct, New York City Police Department (NYCPD), West 100th Street, New York City. Placards carried by participants disclosed that this demonstration was sponsored by the YAWF and had been called to protest the killing of two Puerto Ricans by members of the NYCPD. The picket line grew steadily, until 100 people were participating, at which time the group left the picket area and moved into the street, blocking traffic. The crowd continued to grow until an estimated 300 people had joined the demonstrators who then moved in an un-organized marching mob to Broadway, where for approximately 15 minutes, the south bound lanes of Broadway were completely blocked. Requests by police officials for the crowd to disperse were met with jeers and boos until a sizable tactical Police Force arrived on the scene and, taking the demonstrators under control, forced them from the area.

The primary activity of the WWP in recent months has been its attempt to secure freedom for WILLIE MAE MALLORY by influencing public opinion in her favor. Following MALLORY's conviction for kidnapping in Monroe, North Carolina, in February, 1964, the WWP provided the necessary funds for MALLORY to make bond while the case was being appealed. The WWP provides living expenses for CLARENCE SENIORS, who serves as Chairman of the MDC in North Carolina. KW

3. Plans and Activities as Stated in the "Workers World"

A characterization of the "Workers World" appears in the Appendix hereto.

The January 11, 1963, issue of the "Workers World" contained an article entitled, "Black Actors Jimcrowed - And Black Audiences Insulted", which set forth that a black skin condemns a person to low wages and job discrimination in every field. But even worse was the fact that the racist ruling class fosters lynchings, mob violence, and police brutality. The article continued that recent hearings on discrimination in New York had disclosed that black actors had little chance of being employed in a drama on Broadway, in television or the movies.

The February 8, 1963 issue of the "Workers World" contained an article entitled, " Racist Ruling Class Lets Us Talk About 'Negro History' This Week, But Keeps Black Freedom Fighters Like Mae Mallory Locked Up in Jail". This article criticized Ohio state authorities for not freeing MAE MALLORY.

The February 8, 1963 issue of the "Workers World" contained an editorial entitled, "Mae Mallory Appeal", which calls for an avalanche of petitions, letters and telegrams to be sent to the Governor's Office of Ohio asking that the warrant to extradite MAE MALLORY to North Carolina be revoked. The article also asked that contributions be sent to the MDC in Cleveland, Ohio.

The March 8, 1963 issue of the "Workers World" contained an article entitled, "JFK Talks Civil Rights For South As Racist Terrors Rages in North", which claimed that even though President JOHN F. KENNEDY had said a few words about civil rights in a message to Congress, he really has not the slightest intention of bringing any rights to the disfranchised black masses of the South.

The May 10, 1963 issue of the "Workers World" headlined a front page article entitled, "Freedom Now!". The article praised the people of Birmingham for having "taken to the field of battle." According to the article, the world is watching the Birmingham situation and stated that every friend of freedom everywhere should lay aside whatever he is doing and "take up the cause as the enemy of that cause are the Workers' enemies."

The June 21, 1963 issue of the "Workers World" contained an article entitled, "Kennedy's Civil Rights Program, Too Little - Too Late - Too Phony, 20,000,000 People Want Freedom." This article stated that the black masses were fighting for their freedom but the capitalist ruling class - North as well as South - are not yet ready to grant this freedom. The article continued, "The old masters are not merely keeping segregation because they hate the Afro-American. They are making profits out of him."

The September 27, 1963 issue of the "Workers World" contained an editorial entitled, "The Right of Self-Defense", which discussed the racial problems in Birmingham, Alabama, and stated that the only way for the black people to obtain freedom is by the principle of self-defense. The editorial asserted that self-defense, like self-preservation is a law of nature and that law must inevitably assert itself as a class law.

The September 27, 1963 issue of the "Workers World" also headlined an article entitled, "Only Armed Self-Defense To Stop The Racist Terror in Birmingham". This article alleged that the black people of Birmingham had already taken their defense into their own hands.

The February 6, 1964 issue of the "Workers World" contained an article entitled, "NY School Boycott Great Success; Harbinger of Coming Liberation". This article lauded the leaders and participants in the February 3, 1963, New York City school boycott.

The March 5, 1964, issue of the "Workers World" contained an article entitled, "Monroe Frame-Up Trial Verdict Arouses World-Wide Protest". This article criticized the conviction of MAE MALLORY by an "all white jury" in Monroe, North Carolina, which grew out of the "kidnapping frame-up which occurred during a mass racist attack on the black community of Monroe in August, 1961". The article indicates that MALLORY was convicted only because of her color.

The June 4, 1964, issue of the "Workers World" contained an article entitled, "White Workers: Don't Fall For Hysteria of Racist Ruling Class!", which stated that the white bosses were trying to convince the people that the civil rights protest was being carried out by "black teen gangs"; was only a police trick to deny civil rights and to divide the working class. The article alleged that the call for more police protection from some groups was not designed to protect the poor working people, but to crack down more viciously on the Afro-American and Puerto Rican minorities.

The July 2, 1964, issue of the "Workers World" contained an article entitled, "Only Organized Self-Defense Will Stop Lynch Terror!" This article discussed the three civil rights fighters who were reported missing in Mississippi and stated that, "LBJ, ALLEN DULLES and the FBI were collaborating with the same Klan -- cops who probably helped the lynchers". The article mentioned that the possibility of sending troops to Mississippi had been discussed and stated that people should not forget what every black worker knows: 'the US Government is run by a pack of racists - and so is the Army only more so". The article concluded with a paragraph urging that the masses organize their own armed self-defense to stop the lynchers and would-be lynchers.

The July 30, 1964 issue of the "Workers World" contained an editorial entitled, "Self-Defense", which concluded with the following paragraphs:

"Our slogan has always been to disarm the oppressor; arm the oppressed. The oppressed black people are going to implement this slogan against the police and police agents of the oppressor.

"It is the duty of all workers of all nationalities and races to support them."

B. MARCH ON WASHINGTON, 8/28/63

This investigation is predicated upon the following information which reflects the full support of the Communist Party, USA (CPUSA) to the August 28, 1963, March on Washington:

Source furnished a letter dated June 11, 1963, on the letterhead of the CPUSA, 23 West 26th Street, New York 10, New York, addressed "To All Districts" from the "Organization Commission". This letter reflects the following:

"Dear Comrades: (U)

"The March on Washington, August 28th, called by the major organizations conducting the fight for civil rights, is an event of the greatest historic importance. It deserves the support of everyone who recognizes that this struggle is essential to guaranteeing constitutional rights for all and for the further democratic advance of our country. (U)

"For this reason, we, as all other labor and progressive groups, will lend our full support to this event. (U)

"We urge you follow closely these developments and that you follow the Worker and Midweek Worker on the progress of the campaign, as well as suggestions for its further development." (U)

INTEREST OF CPUSA IN MARCH ON WASHINGTON

(U) ~~SECRET~~

National Leadership, CPUSA (U)

At a meeting of leading CP functionaries held June 19, 1963, in New York, JAMES E. JACKSON reported on the importance of the Negro liberation movement and the importance of getting legislation abolishing segregation in all public places. He called for a Federal policy of non-discrimination, and the inclusion of on-the-job training for Negroes in all areas of the United States. (U)

JACKSON stated 100,000 to 200,000 white people should join with the Negro people in a massive demonstration in Washington, D. C., in the event of a filibuster to prevent the passage of civil rights laws. He added a cooperative relationship must be established among the Negro organizations. (U)

BENJAMIN J. DAVIS remarked everyone is calling the Negro movement a revolution. He said it is a transition of the Negro in this country from second class to first class citizenship within the framework of our present social system. He continued,"We are witnessing a revolutionary movement in our country, but we are just not in it..." (U)

DAVIS said the biggest single question is not the disagreement and disunity among Negro leaders, which is serious enough, but it is the fact that the white allies of the Negro people are not coming into the struggle enough. He said he would like to see a plan of action develop and would like"to see the Party get on all fours in respect to the struggle". (U)

IRVING POTASH commented the differences which exist among the Negro organizations should not be permitted to develop into bitterness that plays into "the hands of the enemy". He said "our Party" can play a "special role, a public role" and can exert a wholesome influence in this area. (U)

~~SECRET~~ (U)

POTASH said the criticism against the Party is valid, and it is correct to say "we" are not coming forward, not writing and not giving leadership. The leadership of the Party should explore all ways and means for all of "us" to play a bigger role in this struggle "which we have not done yet". (U)

POTASH felt the trade union movement was not making a real struggle because of their own discrimination, and the comrades must find ways to "build a fire" under the leadership of the trade union movement. (U)

ELIZABETH GURLEY FLYNN stated no matter how much "we" do, it is not enough, but, on the other hand, "we" should not underestimate the work the Party does. (U)

JAMES E. JACKSON stated "The Worker" must be utilized along with Party facilities to interest the trade union movement in the Negro struggle, and "the Party must register its presence on the street". (U)

June 19, 1963] (U)

At a meeting of the Organization Bureau, CPUSA, held July 11, 1963, at CP Headquarters, New York City, JACK STACHEL stated the purpose of the meeting was to discuss the August 28th march on Washington, D. C., which he said had two objectives: (U)

1. To arouse the conscience of America to the economic plight of the Negro in the United States. (U)

2. To demand that an effective and meaningful civil rights bill be passed by Congress, to protest against filibuster and demand majority rule in the United States Senate. (U)

STACHEL described plans being made by organizations preparing this demonstration and then asked rhetorically, "How can we explain to anybody in the future that 100,000 people went to Washington and we were not among them?" (U)

STACHEL proposed that, if need be, the Party finance people to go to this demonstration. He suggested that contact be made with Jewish clubs and national groups such as the Hungarians, Russians, Ukranians and Armenians in order to get people for the demonstration. He commented "We must convey this approach to the other Districts. There are tremendous possibilities here for contacts with the Negroes, in the Jewish field, the youth. It can open up a new life for us." (U)

IRVING POTASH proposed that Comrades go to community organizations and set up groups in shops to collect money. He said that Party must concentrate on the unemployment issue in Harlem, Newark and other areas "where there are congregations of Negro population". (U)

STACHEL proposed further meetings on this matter to perfect plans, stating that he thinks it possible "for our Left forces alone, if they work properly, to organize more than five thousand people to be there in Washington". (U)

July 11, 1963] (U)

During a meeting of the National Board, CPUSA, and invited guests, held July 31, 1963, in New York, JAMES E. JACKSON, commenting on the Negro struggle for integration, said "we" have to spell out the task for our rank and file membership on how to most effectively utilize the struggles to make our contribution. In addition to being a part of the movement, "we" have to see in this the opportunity to build up friends with the objective of bringing them into the Party. (U)

~~SECRET~~ (U)

JACKSON said "we" have to discuss how the Party can do more, because one of the aspects of this struggle that it is an ideological struggle for the minds of the many people who come to join "us" in the fight. "We" have a role not only as "activists", but also a role to play in the "ideological ferment" that is being born. It is a new chance to put "our Party" back in contact with the people responsible for orgainzational questions. (U)

[NY T-2

JACK STACHEL opened the discussion and said there would be only one point on the agenda, "August 28th and civil rights in general". He said two questions have been raised: "our" responsibility for bringing the maximum number of "our people" into the movement, and in some places "we" are effective... but much more needs to be done. He said the question always to be decided upon is on what do you base yourself and the answer is to defend Negro rights. (U)

STACHEL stated that Negroes make up a large majority of the working class and "we" have to represent them. The second question is in regard to the labor movement in relation to Negroes and whites and "we" have to become the vanguard in this. Continuing, STACHEL said the main thing "we" decided is that on August 28th, "we" will participate and organize a minimum of 100 people plus "our" literature and "The Worker". He said that WILLIAM WEINSTONE and LOUIS WEINSTOCK will help plan this and make sure "we" have Comrades. The general idea is that Comrades will sell papers and there are available pamphlets on the Negro question. The idea is to organize pressure groups..... which will come from New Jersey, Philadelphia and Baltimore.... The estimate is that it will require a minimum of 100 people. (U)

~~SECRET~~ (U)

WILLIAM ALBERTSON said it must be realized that before this "civil rights revolution" got underway, the Party was isolated from the movement of the Negro people. He stated that to build the Party, it must be shown "that you are the best picketers, the best cadre fighting, the best of everything, otherwise you are just a propaganda organization and you are not participating in the struggle". (U)

ALBERTSON proposed the opening of a special headquarters in Washington, D. C. He stated "the people that we organize can go there as part of a whole group, and then they separate themselves there". He suggested that recruits for the demonstration be sought among people" who do not have mass responsibilities" noting "we have a whole group of needle trades Comrades who are retired". (U)

WILLIAM WEINSTONE proposed that a quantity of literature be carefully selected to get into the hands of the people and "thereby help to deepen the struggle". (U)

ARNOLD JOHNSON said there should be a meeting between the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People (NAACP), the church groups and the various other agencies that are participating so that some kind of order can be maintained. He said that there should be a full-fledged discussion on this and proposed that the NAACP be contacted in order to arrange a meeting. He continued, "secondly, I would like to say this August 28th is not the climax to this fight. It is not the end to everything. We should not go into this thing with everything we've got only to find that we have nothing left to go with after the 28th". (U)

JOHNSON urged that the Party try to become associated "with these different groups that are participating" noting that in this way "we may receive a share of the TV, radio and press coverage that will go with this event". He said that besides contacting all these other agencies, it is very important to contact the unions, both as to their participation in the march and also as to their hiring (U) policies. With respect to literature, JOHNSON suggested the publication of a supplement on the international question, "which we can direct to the Negroes". He commented, "I think we can sell this for a nickel". (U)

WILLIAM ALBERTSON expressed pleasure with the activity going on in New York, and commented "we have in this march a relationship between Negro and white that we have never had before in history". (U)

ALBERTSON said "we" have two objectives:

1. Participation by the total membership. (U)

2. "We" take responsibility for initiating organization on the "grass roots level" in connection with the march... (U)

He said there is one problem, the Puerto Ricans are going down and are setting up their own political action group and there is nothing "we" can do about it. (U)

IRVING POTASH commented that "our Comrades" in industry have been instructed to make the maximum contacts possible in whatever factory they are in and "our people" should follow up these contacts "after August 28th". (U)

WILLIAM ALBERTSON, concluding the discussion, said that there is to be from 50 to 75 assembly points in Washington. Each state will have an assembly point. The smaller States will be merged. ALBERTSON then proposed that they set up a committee of three to plan the Washington operation. He proposed GEORGE MEYERS from Baltimore, JOE BRANDT and LOUIS WEINSTOCK. (U)

Source reported that on August 2, 1963, GUS HALL inquired what "The Worker" was going to do with regard to the March on Washington. (U)

According to the source, HALL was advised "The Worker" was planning a special edition "dedicated completely to the March" and intended to distribute a minimum of 10,000 copies in Washington, D. C. (U)

Further, ELIZABETH GURLEY FLYNN would prepare an article, GEORGE MORRIS would write an article on the Negro labor movement and JOE NORTH and CLAUDE LIGHTFOOT have been asked to prepare articles for the special edition. (U)

HALL commented that after thinking it over, he did think everyone should participate in the March on Washington. He said the Party should avoid giving the appearance it is taking over the March. HALL stated that, on the other hand, the Party does want to take anything away from the March so they must be discreet on how they handle it. HALL related he told CLAUDE LIGHTFOOT in Chicago that he (LIGHTFOOT) does not have to actively participate, however, he believes GEORGE MEYERS from Baltimore and THOMAS NABRIED should attend. (U)

He suggested that the distribution be made at departure points in various areas. With respect to the number of copies of "The Worker" to be distributed, STACHEL proposed the following quotas: (U)

It was agreed that distribution is to be made before or after the March on Washington and not during the time it is in progress. (U)

WILLIAM ALBERTSON said that 50 or 75 "New York Comrades" should be mobilized on the date of departure of delegates to the March on Washington and given 100 to 150 pieces of literature apiece to distribute at Pennsylvania Station, and the bus terminal. He said the first train leaves at 5:20 AM and the comrades should, therefore, be instructed to report at CP Headquarters at 4:00 AM. (U)

A meeting of leading CP functionaries was held August 14, 1963, at the CPUSA national office in New York. (U)

ROBERT THOMPSON, in discussing the August 28, 1963, March on Washington, said the problem "we" have is the relationship between Negroes and Puerto Ricans, which can be harmful. According to THOMPSON, the Puerto Ricans have not been successful, because they have not gone through what the Negro has over the years. Coupled with this, is also the fact that the Puerto Ricans do not desire to be linked with the Negro population, and as a result elements of racism are showing. (U)

Continuing, THOMPSON remarked that the Puerto Rican movement may develop under its own leadership, and "our job" should be to attempt to get a development under cooperative lines.... (U)

SECRET (U)

THOMAS NABRIED stated that in Philadelphia "we" have gone into certain areas with loudspeakers to inform the people as to what is going on. "We" expect that about half of these people in these areas will participate in the March on Washington, and "we" are interested in setting up a meeting upon their return from Washington. He said they would like to establish a base for the continuation of their ideas in order to correlate what has happened. (U)

NABRIED said that there is the usual amount of jealousy among the various organizations working on the March, but he believes they will be set aside "for this historic event". (U)

JAMES LUSTIG commented on the situation in New Jersey, which he said was getting better. (U)

LUSTIG, in commenting on the March, said that the number represented will depend upon the amount of transportation available. He said the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People (NAACP) has sponsored a train from Newark to Washington, D. C. and that buses will be sponsored by the Congress of Racial Equality (CORE), and will leave for Washington from Lincoln Park in Newark, New Jersey. LUSTIG, in concluding his comments, stated that the most important thing is that following the March, the participating organizations will hold a conference and what will be decided there will be as important as the March itself. (U)

MORTIMER DANIEL RUBIN said that the general picture he has regarding the March is that there will be a large number of young people attending. He said that a young person from Pittsburgh had written to him saying that between two and three thousand people are expected to go to Washington, D. C., by train and bus. RUBIN said the one big problem that has arisen is "What is our special role in all of this? We have people with a lot of enthusiasm working with people unrelated with us". (U)

SECRET (U)

LOUIS WEINSTOCK said the Party has to extend the distribution and sale of literature nationally, as well as to widen participation and to work harder. He said "we are loaded with literature but are unable to get one or two people to go out". He said that unfortunately this situation applies not only to New York but to all sections of the country. WEINSTOCK recommended that ten thousand copies of "The Worker" be distributed in various parts of the country, since there is to be no distribution in Washington, D. C. He also recommended that ten thousand pamphlet be sold at concentration points on the morning of August 28, 1963; the remainder to be sold after the demonstration. (U)

BENJAMIN J. DAVIS agreed that ten thousand copies of "The Worker" should be distributed as a Party enterprise. He said that as a result there could be a substantial increase in the paper's circulation, as well as a build-up for the Party. (U)

DAVIS commented that GEORGE MEANEY's statement regarding the Negro Movement indicates a white chauvinist and a white supremacy attitude. DAVIS felt that MEANEY, because of his attitude, is turning the Negro Movement over to the muslims and other extremists. He recommended that the Party call upon workers and labor leaders to repudiate MEANEY's statement. At the same time "we" should defend A. PHILIP RANDOLPH and WALTER REUTHER's attitude. DAVIS was of the opinion that RANDOLPH would welcome a sharp criticism of GEORGE MEANEY. (U)

WILLIAM L. PATTERSON commented that MEANEY's action will have an effect not only in relation to the March, but also to its aftermath. He said it must be shown that MEANEY's attitude does not reflect the attitude of the Trade Union Movement as a whole. (U)

PHIL BART stated that there has not been a comparable period in the past wherein hundreds of Communists will actually be together with tens of thousands of others in the March. He said efforts should be made to work with the idea of establishing connections with forces. (U)

JOSEPH BRANDT felt that as a result of this mobilization there will be a change in "our rank and file..." He said "our Party" has blended themselves in this Movement, and it is necessary to devote ourselves now to a more advanced role for "our forces". He said that the people going to the March are listening "to our people" so that the question is what can be done with these people after the March. (U)

BRANDT also stated that an effort should be made to get twenty-five local unions to send telegrams condemning GEORGE MEANEY but congratulating A. PHILIP RANDOLPH and WALTER REUTHER. ROBERT THOMPSON stated that any statement to be issued should not only be a condemnation of MEANEY, but that it must have a much broader concept. (U)

A meeting of leading CP functionaries was held August 21, 1963, in New York, pertaining to the forthcoming March on Washington. (U)

The first item of discussion was the distribution of "The Worker" on August 28, 1963, at public transportation depots prior to the March on Washington. LOUIS WEINSTOCK, in speaking for "The Worker" refused to allow distribution of CP literature unless it is to be paid for, either by recipients or the CP itself. Others present felt that free distribution was more appropriate. (U)

JOE BRANDT then introduced the thought that every CP leader and all CP Headquarters functionaries should be in Washington on August 28, 1963. He added the CP should issue a statement to effect GUS HALL and others will be participating in Washington on August 28, 1963, not because it is giving the March on Washington leadership, but because the March on Washington and/or the Negro Movement is an integral part of the CP's life. The statement should urge all Communists and friends of the CP to participate in the March on Washington. (U)

ROBERT THOMPSON : said the CP must in every way guard against provocation in connection with any CP participation in the March, but felt it was correct to emphasize the historic role of the CP in relation to the Negro movement. (U) should try to be more active in mobilization between then and August 28th, the scheduled date for the March on Washington. (U)

During the ensuing discussion, BILL ALBERTSON said thathe thinks they have to call attention to the impact which the March itself has now had on the country. ALBERTSON also said that they have to point out that the problem of Negro unemployed is not only a Harlem problem, it is also a problem on the Lower East Side, in Bedford Stuyvesant, and Coney Island. (U)

ALBERTSON stated that he thinks that as long as picket lines are up, they should continue to support them. He thinks their position should be one of trying to get agreement among the Negro leaders. (U)

As to the distribution of "The Worker" there will be 10,000 copies of the weekend edition of "The Worker" prior to the March. There will also be 6,000 pamphlets. "We" decided not to do anything in Washington. The distribution is to take place, before the March starts, in New York. Fifty percent of the total distribution will be in New York. Others will be air mailed to Chicago, Detroit and Cleveland. The other 50 percent will then be divided between the other districts from Chicago east to Washington. (U)

Distribution will take place at the point of embarkation in New York City. The comrades who are going on the March, will have completed their job before they get on their own train or bus. They are going to mobilize 100 people on the basis of the people's pledge to the county organizers. (U)

WILLIAM L. PATTERSON stated he felt that on the matter of the follow-up to the March there were tremendous possibilities. He said he felt this would be the most important period in the whole development of the Negro struggle. (U)

ROBERT THOMPSON stated he felt the Party could not expect any great initiative from the leaders of the March on Washington to form a more permanent committee after the March. The Party, therefore, has to try to exert as much influence as it can. He said the immediate task for the New York District would be to try to transfer the forces and the enthusiasm built up around the March into an involvement in the fight around the school crisis. Attendance was by invitation only and a majority of the 65 to 70 persons present were known to the source to be Communist Party members. (U)

HALL devoted approximately five minutes to a discussion of the August 28, 1963 March on Washington. He addressed his remarks particularly to white comrades, stating that it is imperative that as many white people as possible participate in the March. He said that many people will be watching to see if there is unity between whites and Negroes at the time the March is held. For this reason, it is essential that white comrades participate and that as many white non-comrades as possible be induced to take part. (U)

HALL said that the August 28 March on Washington in itself is revolutionary in character; that if there is any peaceful march toward socialism, the August 28, 1963 affair is a good indication of this peaceful transition. (U)

HALL said that Lenin teaches that in the struggle for socialism, "we" must first attempt to create democratic institutions. HALL said that the Negroes' fight toward creation of equal civil rights and democratic institutions can lead toward socialism. (U)

Source stated that the August 28, 1963 March on Washington has been discussed from the district to the club level, CPEPD, and that CP leaders are emphasizing that as many CP members as possible participate in the March. Both THOMAS NABRIED, Chairman, and FRANCES GABOW, Organization Secretary, CPEPD, have stated that as many white people as possible should take part. The source added that the CP Youth Club, however, is the only club within the CPEPD which is taking an active role to date. The center of their activity is being carried on at the SYU clubhouse, 1426 West Bristol Street, Philadelphia. (U)

Source advised that according to THOMAS NABRIED, the CPEPD is working with legitimate organizations, such as CORE, the NAACP and church organizations. The CP is working with these groups in an effort to make the March a success. According to NABRIED, this is typical throughout the country and follows CP policy. NABRIED added that the same technique is being used in New York City. (U)

NABRIED also stated that the IGC has been very active in the Philadelphia area in support of the March on Washington. This group has worked particularly in West and North Philadelphia and has utilized a soundtruck and has also had a telephone brigade in an effort to obtain participants in the March on Washington and to obtain funds to pay for the transportation for those unable to do so. (U) Portland, Oregon

Source advised that at a meeting of the Oregon State CP Board, held July 28, 1963, in Portland, Oregon, DONALD HAMERQUIST referred to plans underway to organize a contingent from the Portland area for a "freedom train" excursion from Portland to Washington, D.C., for participation in the NAACP-sponsored demonstration to be held there on August 28, 1963. HAMERQUIST disclosed that he was taking an active part in organizing a local "freedom train", which would involve the NAACP, the Urban League, labor, peace and church groups in Portland. HAMERQUIST further indicated that a local group of which he is a part, unnamed, is trying to form a coordinating committee involving the above groups. The coordinating committee is also as yet unnamed. (U)

Activity of "The Worker"

"The Worker", issue of July 2, 1963, on page 1, contained an article captioned, "Rights Leaders Map Unified Capital March."

This article reflects Dr. MARTIN LUTHER KING had reiterated his call "upon all people of good will from every section of the country and from every state" to join in "a non-violent, peaceful march on Washington."

The article quoted Dr. KING as calling for participation in the March by "the hundreds of thousands."

"The Worker", issue of July 7, 1963, contained, on page 1, an article by JAMES E. JACKSON, entitled, "A Fighting People Forging New Unity."

In this article, JACKSON reviews the massive upsurge of the Negro masses to secure their full rights as American citizens. He writes that the movements unity was dramatically affirmed when Negro leaders affirmed the determination to proceed with the August 28, 1963 March on Washington.

In conclusion, JACKSON writes, "Anti-communism can only foster divisionism in the ranks of the movement at a time when the paramount resolution of all conscious forces are striving to enhance its unity for victory in the sharp battles that still are to be fought in order to consolidate gains made and to secure full freedom.

"The Negro freedom movement stands on the threshold of a great victory. In the mighty revolutionary upsurge of the Negro masses against segregation and discrimination, social forces are being activized, fighting alliances of the common people are being forged such as will carry our nation forward to a genuine new birth of democracy, of peoples' well-being, social progress and peace."

"The Worker", issue of July 16, 1963, page 1, contained an editorial captioned, "Toward the Aug. 28 March on Washington For Jobs and Freedom."

This editorial cites the importance of the March to the Negro freedom movement and urges that every reader of the paper to do all in their power to make the Washington mobilization a huge success and a new landmark for social progress and Negro freedom in the history of the United States.

"The Worker", issue of July 21, 1963, page 3, contained an editorial entitled, "Jim Crow and Red Herring."

This editorial stresses that, "The selfless, and often pioneering, role of the Communists in the struggle for the freedom and equal rights of the Negro people is unmatched by the members of any other political party in American life. The Communists, Negro and white, set a standard of leadership and service in the fight for the just rights of the Negro people that is only now being matched by numerous other forces and organizations."

The editorial goes on to state, "Indeed, in the entire phase of the modern history of the Negro freedom struggle, the Communists have always played, and always will play, an honorable and dedicated role. The Communist Party of the U.S. wholeheartedly supports the just struggle of the Negro people for freedom and integration in the political, economic and social life of the nation."

"The Worker", issue of July 23, 1963, contained an editorial entitled, "Celler's Slow Down," which related to the attempt of Representative EMANUEL CELLER of New York to discourage participation in the August 28 March on Washington by representativves of the Negro people.

The editorial reflects the March on Washington and the preparations for that historic occasion will provide the best stimulus for affirmative action by Congress on civil rights.

"The Worker", issue of August 18, 1963, page 6, contained an article by CLAUDE LIGHTFOOT entitled, "New Era Dawns for Negro People After Century of Struggle."

In this article, LIGHTFOOT writes that the August 28 March on Washington and other demonstrative actions must have as a focal point preparations for the 1964 elections.

In citing various elements of a political action program for 1964, LIGHTFOOT states that among the issues the Negro freedom movement should concentrate on is the immediate, all out support of and participation in the March on Washington.

In conclusion, LIGHTFOOT wrote that Communists will contribute everything they possibly can to forging unity in the struggle for these immediate goals of the Negro freedom movement.

"The Worker", issue of August 20, 1963, page 3, contained an article entitled, "Patterson Assails Racists' Attempt to Redbait March."

In this article, WILLIAM L. PATTERSON writes that Communists are unalterably opposed to racism in any manner. Concerning the March on Washington, PATTERSON states provocations will undoubtedly be made charging the infiltration and capture of the movement by Communists.

He writes, "No such provocation must move any person from the struggle to achieve the aims and purposes of this March and the campaigns of struggle which everywhere will be aided and inspired by it.

"For the unity of all forces seeking the destruction of racism and the political power of racists we must devote our greatest efforts."

This was held at Washington, D.C., on August 23, 1963.

Among these cards was one for PAUL NOVICK, the "Morning Freiheit", Press Card 1136.

No instructions or directives were issued by the officials of the CP of Eastern Pennsylvania and Delaware (CPEPD) to any members of the CPEPD in regard to the March on Washington. MANNER IN WHICH CP MEMBERS PARTICIPATED IN MARCH ON WASHINGTON

The following sources attended the March on Washington on August 28, 1963. These sources reported that the March was an entirely peaceful affair with no incidents occurring, and that they observed no attempt by the Communist Party or its members to influence the March or its participants.

These sources further advised that on the return trip to New York by various modes of transportation, the main theme of discussion among the returnees was the effectiveness of the March and the quality of the speeches made, particularly that of Reverend MARTIN LUTHER KING.

Sources related they did not participate in the March as CP members, but rather as passive participants.

In addition, NY T-28 related that prior to leaving for Washington, D.C., bundles of "The Worker" were placed on the buses chartered by Advance, as well as copies of a statement by the PYOC on its "Right to Earn, Right to Learn" conference. (U)

It was decided, in view of the position of the leaders of the March on Washington, to leave the bundles of "The Worker" unopened on the bus. (U)

NY T-17 additionally reported that upon arrival in Washington, D.C., members of the informant's group were given pamphlets written by BEN DAVIS dealing with the Negro fight for civil rights.

Following the March, these individuals sold about 100 copies of "The Worker" and various CP pamphlets. (U)

Source advised a large Detroit delegation convened on themall by the Washington Monument. There was a short meeting of CP members from Detroit and it was brought out that "we" should reverse the march, that is, to persuade the people to march to Capitol Hill instead of the Lincoln Memorial. This idea was abandoned as not being feasible as there were too many marshals and Military Police deployed around Capitol Hill. (U)

TOMMY DENNIS stated "we" should have brought a determined group of young people who could stampede the individuals attending the March into reverse, marching on Capitol Hill instead of the Lincoln Memorial. DENNIS stated this demonstration is only the beginning and "we" have won a point just by having such a demonstration. DENNIS said that the next time, possibly in two or three years, "we" will have another March, and this one will be a March on Congress. (U)

GUS HALL stated, with respect to the March on Washington, that in his opinion there were a quarter of a million people in the March. He stated that one quarter of the people in the March were white and that he and the Party could take credit for there having been so many white people in the March. HALL further stated the Party "had a great deal to do with this and that the Party played a major role in many of these white people going to Washington." (U)

A meeting of leading CP functionaries was held August 30, 1963, at CP Headquarters, New York City. (U)

The discussion concerned itself with the civil rights legislation pending in Congress and what could be done to get the Congress to react favorably towards this legislation now that the March on Washington was a success. (U)

JACK STACHEL urged that efforts should be made to get the labor unions involved in this fight. WILLIAM L. PATTERSON commented that demonstrations should be held in front of press offices demanding editorials on the need to do away with the filibusters in Congress. (U)

ARNOLD JOHNSON called for work stoppages as well as demonstrations in Washington, D.C., as an anti-filibuster step. He said the work stoppages could be for a few minutes each day, to be increased daily as long as the filibusters continue. (U)

BENJAMIN J. DAVIS, JR., stated that the CP should think more along the lines of a mass movement of a non-partisan (U)

nature, saying the struggle is for all Americans and that it has placed the American system on trial. He noted that the Muslims, as a result of the March on Washington, were "buried". DAVIS said that he would propose that the CP have people demonstrate in Washington, D.C., every day of the filibuster. He also felt that it was possible to have ten million Negroes shut down everything in this country as an anti-filibuster move. He felt that the work stoppages could be for fifteen minutes a day on the first day and the next day increase the work stoppage to a period of two hours. He felt that it was a legitimate demand to mobilize the American people in order to break any filibuster. (U)

DAVIS averred to the recent article by DAVID LAWRENCE in the "New York Herald Tribune." He described LAWRENCE's column as the worst one in the entire country. DAVIS stated that in his opinion, he did not believe that it would be out of line to set up a picket line around the "New York Herald Tribune." He said the picket line would be along the lines that DAVID LAWRENCE must go or there must be a public apology by that paper. DAVIS also felt that some effort should be made to force Governor NELSON ROCKEFELLER of New York to take an active part in breaking any filibuster. (U)

August 30, 1963] (U)

A meeting of the National Board, CPUSA, and invited guests was held September 4, 1963, in New York. (U)

At this meeting, the main point on the agenda was the March on Washington. (U)

BENJAMIN J. DAVIS discussed the March. He characterized it as "the greatest demonstration for freedom in the history of the country" and said there is a feeling in many quarters that official estimates of the March were lower on attendance figures than the number who actually participated. He stated that although the newspapers said there were approximately 200,000, it appeared more likely that there were close to 300,000 or 400,000. (U)

SECRET (U)

SECRET (U)

DAVIS called for the establishment of a policy committee by the CPUSA for the purpose of bringing the meaning of the March to the people and to act on local problems. He commented, "More and more it is going to be necessary to work on our contribution within the framework of the March...to fight for the role of the working man... more and more it becomes necessary to work for the ideology of this particular movement and the working class..." (U)

According to DAVIS, the breaking of a filibuster "is the main next job" and pressure must be put on the President of the United States to break the resistance. (U)

JAMES JACKSON commended DAVIS on his report. He stated that ROY WILKINS, Executive Secretary of the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People (NAACP) had paid tribute to Dr. DU BOIS and it was his opinion that "there seemed to be kind of a second thought that the Negro movement at this stage in its organizational security can ill afford its divorcement of the experience and the substantial contribution of Negro Marxists." JACKSON noted that every newspaper in every country in the world has identified DU BOIS, not only as a leading literary figure, but also as a Communist. (U)

In describing the role of the CPUSA, JACKSON said that, "although equipped with proper foresight and projections, it could not be said that the practical, organizational functions of responsibility fitted the projections made." He said "We were one of many stimulating elements...but in this we played a rather anonymous role and we functioned more or less as individuals. Our mission was that of undistinguishable parts of the whole. In many areas our people were responsible for getting fine turnouts...the stimulating role our people played in certain areas needed additional emphasis...as to just what should be our particular role...it is a sad fact that in the huge mass role we performed anonymously." (U)

SECRET (U)

SECRET (U)

JACKSON then asked rhetorically "Was there no special role for the Party?" and continued that "it points out a serious aspect of the Party - a kind of critical aspect of organizational laxity, a problem of definition of our identity." (U)

JACKSON was critical of the fact that so few participated in the distribution of "The Worker" and other literature noting that "in spite of the fact that the literature was neatly packaged and all prepared, in spite of the fact there were decisions and commitments, 3 or 4 people participated in the distribution..." He said this was not just another mass meeting but was "a big chunk of the most advanced area of the American popular masses and working class." He noted that "this is an assembly that comes once in the life-time of a party to assemble the militant, dedicated people who crossed half the country, gave up their jobs for a day or so, sacrificed to get into a social struggle. This was a natural pawn in which Communists should exist...to be with these people, eat with them, meet with them, develop address with which they could further communicate." (U)

JACKSON recalled the fact that, with only one dissenting vote, it had been decided that there be a special edition of "The Worker" for the March and that "a hundred comrades should participate" in its distribution but, in spite of this, the one dissent was the prevailing reaction. (U)

GUS HALL asked how many copies were sold and LOUIS WEINSTOCK stated that 1,400 copies of "The Worker" were sold "that day" and a total of about 1,000 pamphlets were also sold. (U)

WEINSTOCK remarked that final arrangements were made three or four weeks before the affair and "there were nineteen people at the meeting where 100 were supposed to come, five of them non-Communists..." (U)

SECRET (U)

~~SECRET~~ (U)

JACKSON stressed the need for getting better organizational means to get people to work. He said that, while in Washington, he had gotten "maybe a half dozen invitations from trade unions" and that the trade unions put on a tremendous public relations job. He noted that there was a Socialist Party conference for civil rights held on Thursday and Friday following the March attended by 100 people at the first session and about 300 people at the second session. (U)

WILLIAM PATTERSON remarked "I think there is the opportunity for us to strengthen our participation in the follow-up (of the August 28th March) in the major districts and states that have not only struggled for public works programs but also other unemployment programs." (U)

MORTIMER DANIEL RUBIN stated he thought there was an improvement in youth work in terms of participation through mass organizations and there has been an improvement in terms of involvement of youth in civil rights demonstrations. (U)

IRVING POTASH commented "the country will not be the same after this March. I think an examination will probably show that many of our comrades played a very important role in bringing about or helping to bring about the participation of quite a number of trade unionists and trade union officials in this." (U)

POTASH stated the CPUSA must play a very important role in the civil rights struggle and "the youth movement in particular has a terrific role to play, and first of all to establish basic relations with the Negro youth." (U)

POTASH continued, "It is not difficult to establish those unions where the Communists have a great deal of influence. Those were the unions which produced the greatest participation in this March. To some extent this is true of (U)

the UAW. Although that is not a red led union, it is true it has a great deal of left influence...you take District 65 (District 65 Retail Wholesale and Department Store Union, AFL-CIO) with a participation of four and one half thousand, certainly there is an example of left influence, Communist influence, where these unions have led the upsurge in the Negro struggle." (U)

POTASH, with respect to the role of the CPUSA, stated he thought that up to now the Party has been too cautious and it should be put on the agenda to move into this area with a greater decisiveness. (U)

September 4, 1963] (U)

At a meeting of leading CP functionaries held September 6, 1963, in New York, JAMES E. JACKSON reported on the August 28th, 1963 March on Washington, claiming that "not since the Civil War have so many official bodies of the working population of our country associated themselves actively under the banner of the struggle for the rights of the Negro people." He said that the speeches were notable by the absence of red baiting and there was a unity of purpose between the leadership and those who participated in the March. (U)

JACKSON mentioned his attendance at a conference called by the Socialist Party and held in Washington, D.C., during the week of the March. He said the conference was very significant because it attracted to it as participants and speakers, many of the leading personalities and key administrators of the March. JACKSON commented, "One of the very interesting contributions at this conference was made by BAYARD RUSTIN who described himself as a fellow traveler of the Socialist Party." (U)

SECRET (U)

SECRET (U)

JACKSON was critical of the role of "The Worker" in connection with the March, stating "our paper in comparison with any paper did not follow this event as it should have done. The truth is that very little happened to utilize 'The Worker' to establish our banner above the other banners in this movement." (U)

JACKSON pointed out that, in spite of the decision to publish a very large number of extra copies of "The Worker" dedicated to the March, the paper was not utilized at the March. He described the failure of adequate distribution of "The Worker" as a serious weakness in organization and said "Our Party is the vehicle to socialism. The 200,000 people who took part in the March should be the 200,000 people who should be in our Party. So we had the additional duty in this March to win Party members." (U)

GEORGE MORRIS said that the union representation at the August 28th March was brought there by unions that are partially or to some extent Socialist-Party influenced or have a Left background. He described this as a revitalization of the united front and stated "I think this is something for us to seriously think about because it again emphasizes that there is a base for progressive activity." (U)

Source related PHIL BART had complained the CP had not contributed to the March on Washington because it had not contributed to the unity of the March. BART further commented no one was at the March on Washington to sell "The Worker" although "we" were supposed to have a meeting of 100 people on the Monday before for that purpose. A meeting of leading CP functionaries was held September 16, 1963, in New York. (U)

JAMES JACKSON reviewed the racial situation in Birmingham, Alabama, and announced that "The Worker" would carry a lead editorial on the first page demanding that Governor WALLACE of Alabama be brought to justice; demanding that the President establish federal occupational authority throughout Alabama; demanding a roundup of the membership of the American Nationalist Party, the White Citizens Councils, and the Ku Klux Klan; and demanding the immediate discharge of J. EDGAR HOOVER, Director of the Federal Bureau of Investigation (FBI), and a complete reorganization of the FBI. (U)

WILLIAM PATTERSON said that, immediately after hearing of the bombing in Birmingham, he reached a number of people in the Harlem area of New York City, and raised the question of sending telegrams and holding some kind of demonstration. (U)

PATTERSON said that, while he thought JACKSON's statement concerning the FBI was correct, he would like to see a special article devoted to the FBI and "its complete failure over the years" in relation to racial matters in the United States. (U)

ROBERT THOMPSON stated the CPUSA should try to bring about effective, immediate action by the New York City Committee on Racial Equality. He said there should be some kind of major action in New York City, either in the nature of a mass meeting or a march and the Party should undertake a compaign in New York and nationally to influence public opinion in this situation. (U)

SECRET (U)

IRVING POTASH said it is not enough to throw responsibility on Governor WALLACE of Alabama, but it must be stated in clear terms that the federal government also has a certain responsibility for what is happening in Alabama. (U)

POTASH noted that President KENNEDY is scheduled to appear before the United Nations (UN) and suggested it might be advisable to set up delegations to submit petitions and demands "even before he gets to the UN", thereby precipitating a possible demonstration at the UN. (U)

POTASH also suggested the possibility of taking the proposed statement for "The Worker" and reading it publicly at some federal office, "possibly at Foley Square" in order "to dramatize our feelings in this matter." (U)

BEN DAVIS commented, "I feel bitterly disappointed and bitterly dissatisfied with the response of our Party." He said the Negro movement has now reached the stage which requires a sharpening up of "our attack on the Kennedy administration." DAVIS urged greater activity on the part of the CP, USA stating, "I am of the opinion that unless our Party finds a way, symbolically or personally, or in some other way, to integrate itself in some public manner, if not in its own name, then through some organization in which the Party is known to have influence, we are just going to get a setback that will take us years and years to overcome." "Brutal murder of 6 Negro children yesterday in Birmingham demands immediate action and Federal troops to protect lives of American citizens against lawless insurrection, terror, and calls for the arrest of Wallace and others responsible for murder and bombings. Federal authorities must take power of government away from such bloody hands. Failure to act vigorously in this crisis will not be tolerated by justice living Americans. You can no longer ignore the growing popular demands for arrest of Wallace and those who incite racist violence and defiance of United States Constitution. Action must be taken to dissolve the Ku Klux Klan, the White Citizens Councils, the American Nazi Party, the National States Rights Party, and all racist terrorists. We demand executive orders and complete program of Federal action to smash the resistance of segregationists in Alabama, Louisiana, Mississippi, and elsewhere in the south, for the full establishment of constitutional liberties immediately to all Negro Americans and the establishment of new genuinely democratic government in those states in accord with the United States Constitution. Nothing short of these minimum measures will constitute adequate response by you to the challenge of the Birmingham bombing outrages. You, President Kennedy, are held personally responsible for the lives and property of American citizens against racists terror under your authority under the constitution. (U)

A meeting of the National Board, CPUSA and invited guests was held September 18, 1963, at CP Headquarters, New York City. (U)

SECRET (U)

At this meeting it was stated the student council of Tuskegee Institute had issued an invitation to GUS HALL or some other representative of the CPUSA to participate in a series of platform speakers to develop "ideas and philosophy occupying various positions along the ideological spectrum." HALL was requested to explain the basic philosophy of the CPUSA, and discuss what he felt to be the main threat to the democratic idea. (U)

BEN DAVIS spoke of the letter from Tuskegee Institute describing it as of greatest importance. He asserted that the Negroes are now willing, as are other forces, to know what the Communist Party has to say and to listen to Communists and welcome whatever support, guidance, leadership, and practical sacrifice the Communists can give "in this new stage, which is how to break the resistance of the Dixiecrats and how to stop the Mc Carran Act." DAVIS stated that the letter from Tuskegee indicates how the students are thinking and "These students want to know what the Communists have to say about a democratic perspective in America today." He described this as "a direct relationship to the role of Communist youth and to the setting up of a new organization." (U)

September 18, 1963] (U)

A meeting of the National Board, CPUSA and invited guests was held September 25, 1963, in New York. (U)

The meeting concerned itself primarily with a report being prepared by BENJAMIN J. DAVIS, Jr., on the Negro struggle in the United States. (U)

BENJAMIN J. DAVIS, Jr., discussed an outline form for the report he is preparing. He said that he did not intend (U)

that his report be considered an ideological report, noting there is "no Chinese wall" between questions of ideology and a political line. He said it is possible to divide the two. The point of the report is to concentrate on the next step in the Negro movement as a whole. DAVIS felt that the Party had defined the character of the Negro Revolution and "our position" is essentially that the Negro movement is national in form despite the fact that "we" had come up with the erroneous position of "self-determination." (U)

DAVIS said that the Negro people have adopted a method of struggle, namely "peaceful, non-violent, direct mass action." He said this is now the chosen method of struggle by the Negro masses. He said the new question coming up, as a result of the bombings in Birmingham, is whether now is the time to abandon the whole question of non-violent action. He said it was his opinion that they should not abandon this theory because the purpose of the violence in Birmingham is to provoke the Negro and to date, the Negro has shown more self-restraint in the face of it. (U)

Continuing, DAVIS said "we" must make it clear that "we are for these self-defense programs of the Negroes." He said the Negro should have the right to defend himself against brutal attacks by racists with whatever weapons they can. He said the Party should point out that the Federal Government should step in and protect the Negro so that this responsibility is not left on the Negro people. DAVIS said the Negro people are in favor of Federal action in Birmingham and want Federal troops to take over the state. He felt that an additional goal is to break the resistance of the Dixiecrats which means "illegalizing and outlawing" all fascist organizations operating in the South. (U)

DAVIS commented that the two-man truce team sent by the KENNEDY Administration to Birmingham (KENNETH C. ROYALL and EARL C. BLAIK) was a pitiful step by the administration. He said that KING (MARTIN LUTHER KING, President of the Southern Christian Leadership Conference) made a serious mistake when he agreed to accept these two people. DAVIS said that in criticizing this method "we" should put the blame on the KENNEDY Administration and not on KING. (U)

~~SECRET~~ (U)

Continuing, DAVIS stated that the great unity achieved as a result of the August 28, March on Washington can only be maintained by the development of further mass motions of this character, adding "you cannot have unity of the Negro people if they omit actions." He said the domestic leadership of the Negro movement, in one form or another, is tied in some way to the KENNEDY Administration. This is a situation that requires greater independence on the part of the Negro movement and its leaders. The key question is "how to get our line out and how to fight for it and how the party is going to exert some control and some influence." (U)

DAVIS stated that the August 28, March on Washington was not only a historical and unprecedented demonstration of the unity of the Negro people as well as the white people, but that the March transferred the responsibility to the Federal Government and to the American citizen. He said the next step, following Birmingham and the bombings, has to be a step involving masses of people. Since everyone "at the demonstration" took a pledge to sit in, to stand in, to demonstrate, now is the time, in my opinion, for the leaders of the Negro movement to use this to advantage. DAVIS stated that the South in the next five years will be the additional force which can be brought into the progressive movement and will help change the whole relationship of forces. He said "somehow our party has to appear as the champion of the Negro people's movement and as the champion of the very low poverty levels of living of the white masses in the South." (U)

He said this has to be done and it is not being done at the present time. There is no representative form of government in Alabama, Mississippi and other states. The focus of attention should be on what is the main source of resistance in the South today, the implementation of the rights of the Negro people. DAVIS felt that there was a need for some center from which a consistent policy and leadership could be given in order to reach wide sections of the Negro people. (U)

~~SECRET~~ (U)

He said it should be something broad, something militant, something which gives action from another center and which gives direct leadership in such a form that it can be an accepted part of the new revolution. He said it was time that "we went around and talked to some of the Negro leaders in order to see how this could be developed. He said "we have to have a form in which the consistent policy of the Party can be brought forward and can be approximated, if not fully, as closely as possible and that can reach great masses of the Negro people." DAVIS acknowledged that this "means money and it means a thorough discussion on our part." (U)

DAVIS also remarked that Harlem is a problem that must be solved because other forces have taken over the Harlem community "and the Party is no where around." He said this is the number one Party problem to be solved. "We" have to keep in mind the image of "our Party" among the Negro people as well as the white workers and progressives throughout the country. (U)

Following DAVIS' comments a discussion period followed. ROBERT THOMPSON said that the main object of the report is to develop the question "What is required now to successfully force federal intervention in Alabama?" He said that "we" have to defend KING's leadership in this movement---especially the leadership that KING represents. THOMPSON remarked that he did not agree that there was a need for a new center for the civil rights movement as suggested by DAVIS. He said it would not serve a useful purpose and such a center would be a focal point for the gathering of "every flighty element that is trying to horn in on the real movement." (U)

THOMPSON said "we" have to think about the development of the strength and role of the Negro-American Labor Council (NALC). He said their activities can play a real part and can be expanded to shape the program of the civil rights movement. (U)

GUS HALL expressed the opinion that there is a need now to discuss the question of a new party, a party of labor and Negro. There is a need to discuss a new (U)

~~SECRET~~ (U)

alignment, not necessarily a new party but one which could emerge as a giant political action. He felt that there was also a need to project new ideas on the part of labor "in order to get out of their rut." (U)

JAMES JACKSON said the report should give a rousing salute to the Negro in this year 1963. The main thing is the glorious rise of the Negro in America which has inspired the world. JACKSON, in commenting on the pending civil rights bill, felt that there should be a lobby down in Washington on this bill. (U)

ARNOLD JOHNSON stated that labor will play an important role in the Negro movement and he was in favor of some sort of a Negro political action committee. (U)

IRVING POTASH stated that there was a need for unity in the Negro movement. He said "our party" for years has projected this idea and the Party should signify the weakness of this unity. He said that the right of self-defense by the Negro is a most important question and "we" should take a forthright position on it. He said the Negro patrols in Birmingham have our support in view of the fact that the Federal authorities are not carrying out their responsibilities. He said that if the Federal authorities were carrying out their responsibilities, it would be a different situation. (U)

GILBERT GREEN commented that what had been discussed can be the basis for a good report. He said there is a need to take the Negro freedom struggle off the streets and into the courts. "Our party" should be careful to maintain the unity of the Negro struggle. "we should not impose the party on this movement. We should do nothing which will either turn this movement into an anti-Communist movement or will divide the movement." (U)

GREEN said "our objective" must be to press the administration to break with the Dixiecrats and this will guarantee the renovation of the South. (U)

~~SECRET~~ (U)

BENJAMIN J. DAVIS, in concluding the discussion, said the Party must concentrate on influencing the leaders and the policies of the Negro liberation movement. He said "we" should suggest that there be in Washington in some public place like the Washington Monument or the Lincoln Memorial a round-the-clock massing of people with outstanding speakers from all over the country to continue until the filibuster is broken. He said "many people in the movement are officially considering this." DAVIS said "our access" to various forces and figures in this movement is not cut off. "I am not the only one who has this access. Gus (Hall) and Jim (Jackson) have it as well as others on various levels." DAVIS said the question is, are we satisfied with "the limited instrumentalities that we now have?" DAVIS further remarked "we must have elements of boldness and change our role from one that just defines policy and evaluation to one that helps shape policy." DAVIS said "This guy Rustin calls me constantly...openly." (U)

DAVIS, in concluding his remarks, stated that the Party must demand (President) KENNEDY come out against the ultra right and take a sharp position against them. He said "we" must demand that a deadline be set for integration in the country. (U)

NEW YORK DISTRICT LEADERSHIP, CPUSA

On September 17, 1963, a CPUSA New York District meeting was held at Hellanic Hall, 269 West 25th Street, New York City. WILLIAM L. PATTERSON acted as Chairman and the agenda included an evaluation of the March on Washington by ROBERT THOMPSON. In his report, THOMPSON made the following observations: (U)

The March was orderly and calm, without any incidents which would have detracted from it. Negro and white unity has (U) been raised to a new level by the March. The struggle for equality is a struggle for all Americans not for Negroes alone. The March was excellent but the murder of Negroes in Alabama and the fact that police brutality is still a major issue against Negroes should have been brought out more in the March. (U)

The leaders of the March should concentrate on these proposals in regard to civil rights and a strong Fair Employment Practices Commission. They should see that the Negro is protected in his right to vote in the South and a fight made for full equality in the struggle for jobs. The Negro fight for jobs is a test for the labor movement and Negro and white allies. This fight should be concentrated industry by industry and understanding in trade unions raised to a new level. (U)

Although the March was good, there was not enough organization in the grass root section of the movement, especially in the Puerto Rican community. Few Puerto Ricans took part because they were not organized and werenot told what the March was all about. The Puerto Rican movement should be built up and this is one field the Party could move into and do a good job. (U)

The Negro American Labor Council was not as successful as it should have been in the March. This organization has been going downhill since its last convention in its fight for Negro rights. However, individual leaders, especially A. PHILIP RANDOLPH, showed great strength and character. (U)

The formation of the new Negro party is a danger to the Negro movement at the present time. It is a danger to the Negro movement because its name will split the movement itself. (U)

In regard to the Party activity in the March, "The Worker" did not effectively reach the hands of those who attended this event. Very few volunteers showed up to distribute "The Worker" at the various points of embarkation from New York to Washington, D.C. Although the role of the Party was a correct estimate of the March and how it should be carried out, the main Party weakness was not getting the paper into circulation. (U) (U)

The report by THOMPSON was accepted unanimously.

LOCAL CP CLUBS, NEW YORK DISTRICT

JAMES TORMEY gave a report on the Negro Movement and the August 28, 1963 March on Washington, at a meeting of the CP caucus in the New York Chapter of the Negro American Labor Council (NALC). (U)

TORMEY advised the following in his report: (U)

The Negro Movement is a revolutionary movement aimed at the elimination of the residue of slavery and intimidation of the Negro people. Reverend MARTIN LUTHER KING has said that the whole Movement is a basic attack against the power structure of the United States, and that this is most important because it is a Marxist approach to the problem coming from a Negro leader. (U)

Concerning the August 28, 1963, March on Washington, the Negro leadership estimated 250,000 people participated with an estimate of approximately thirty per cent white people. This is very important to the overall success of the March. (U)

The Muslim and Black Nationalist Movement suffered a serious setback because of the March on Washington, the way it was received and the way that it was carried out without any riots or fighting. (U)

The efforts of the progressives to obtain the labor unions participation in the Civil Rights and Negro Movement is tantamount to saving labor unions. If the Labor Movement does not become involved in this struggle they could be seriously weakened. Labor seriously needs the alliance with the Negro Movement. (U)

~~SECRET~~ (U)

The contemplated March on City Hall in New York City scheduled for September 29, 1963, was called off. The reason given was that as originally planned it would have been mainly concerned with the building trades and would have been dangerous and may have destroyed labor's part in the March. (U)

The March on City Hall should include other demands besides those against the building trades. (U)

When the new date is announced for the March on City Hall, "we" will have an all out job. The bridge between labor and the Negro People's Movement is the Negro "Comrades." (U)

WILLIAM L. PATTERSON advised at this same meeting that "we" played a fundamental role in the March on Washington all over the United States. He also said that "we" must fight vigorously to protect the unity of the Negro leaders. (U)

OTHER CP DISTRICTS

1. Newark, New Jersey (U)

At a CP meeting held September 4, 1963, in Newark, New Jersey, a discussion was held relative to the March on Washington. (U)

It was stated by one of the members present that he felt the March would not accomplish any great change in Congress, and it would not bring civil rights closer, but it was a success in that the March was actually held. Further, that President KENNEDY, by being so nice, had robbed the March of its militancy. President KENNEDY, by endorsing the March, attracted many people to the March who otherwise would not have attended. (U)

It was further felt that a bad part of the March was the failure of those participating not to realize that the United States must have socialism to bring about civil rights and end unemployment. (U)

ACTIVITY OF "THE WORKER"

"The Worker" issue of September 1, 1963, page 1, contained an article by "The Worker Staff" entitled, "200,000 Demand Congress Act For Freedom," which article summarized the events of the March on Washington and contained brief excerpts from some of the speakers at the March.

"The Worker," isssue of September 8, 1963, contained an editorial by JAMES E. JACKSON entitled, "The Mandate of Millions Is for Kennedy to Act Against the Racists." This editorial mentions various racial incidents and states the March on Washington presents President KENNEDY with a mandate to take prompt corrective action in the quest for civil rights.

This same issue contained on page 2, an article by MIKE DAVIDOW entitled, "N.Y. Ripe for Its Own Civil Rights March".

"The Worker" issue of September 10, 1963, page 3, contained an article entitled, "March to City Hall Sept. 29 To Protest Building Job Bias."

This article called attention to a proposed March on City Hall to press the struggle for building trades jobs for Negroes and Puerto Ricans being sponsored by the Joint Committee for Equal Opportunity as a follow-up to the March on Washington.

"The Worker" issue of September 17, 1963, page one, contained an editorial captioned, "Bring Wallace to Justice for Inciting to Murder" and an article by JAMES E. JACKSON under the same caption relating to the bombing in Birmingham, Alabama, which resulted in the death of six Negro children. These artivities demanded President Kennedy issue an Executive Order declaring the State of Alabama to be in a state of insurrection against the constituted law of the land and in violation of the United Nations Charter of Human Rights.

'We All Did It'" and "East Siders Urge U.S. Federalize Alabama."

These articles all relate to the bombings in Birmingham, Alabama, and point up the plight of the Negro people. They call for the arrest of Governor WALLACE of Alabama and for President KENNEDY to intervene in that State.

"The Worker" issue of September 24, 1963, contained an article entitled, "10,000 at Rally Demand JFK Send Troops."

This article reflected a crowd of 10,000 people gathered at New York's Foley Square on Sunday, September 22, 1963, to mourn the six Negro children killed in Birmingham, Alabama, and to demand federal action in behalf of the Negro people in the South.

D. DEMONSTRATIONS BY ADVANCE IN NEW YORK CITY ON SEPTEMBER 16, 1963, SEPTEMBER 30, 1963 AND NOVEMBER 27, 1963

A group of about 35 persons representing Advance picketed the United States Mission to the United Nations (UN), New York City, on September 16, 1963, continuing through to the morning of September 17, 1963, at which time eight pickets remained. The pickets carried signs protesting the Birmingham killings and asking President KENNEDY to intervene in that situation and calling for a civil rights police force. While walking they chanted for the arrest of Alabama's Governor WALLACE.

About 40 persons participated in a picket line demonstration in the UN Plaza, held by Advance on September 16, 1963, calling for a civil rights force to prevent further violations in the South and demanding Federal intervention in Birmingham.

F. Boycott of New York City Public Schools, February 3, 1964, March 16, 1964

The "New York Daily News" of February 4, 1964, contains an article captioned "Third of Pupils Stay Out in Peaceful Boycott." It was reported in this article that slightly more than a third of the million pupils in the city school system boycotted classes on February 3, 1964. It was noted that the demonstration was not marred by a single instance of violence. The organized demonstration was planned and executed by civil rights groups dissatisfied with the Board of Education's plan for racial integration.

"The New York Times" of February 4, 1964, contained an article captioned "Thousands of Orderly Marchers Besiege School Board's Office." In this article, it was stated that thousands of those participating in the Boycott of New York City Public Schools on February 3, 1964, marched on the Board of Education headquarters, 110 Livingston Street, Brooklyn. It was reported that Rev. MILTON A. GALAMISON was the leader of the boycott and that BAYARD RUSTIN was the director of the boycott. The boycott was called to protest the racial imbalance in New York City Public Schools.

It was reported that the ranks of those marching had been infiltrated/"by extremists" who were "passing out copies of the Communist Party Worker and a pink sheet of the far-left Progressive Labor Movement, demanding that President JOHNSON take three billion dollars from the defense budget to rehabilitate city schools."

The "New York Daily News" of February 5, 1964, carried the headline "Boycott Chief Soviets' Guest; RUSTIN at UN Mission Party." On page 3, there appears an article by JOHN BAIRD and HENRY LEE. In the article it was stated that BAYARD RUSTIN, who was fresh from his labors of the day before (February 3, 1964) in directing a citywide schools boycott, last night attended a private cocktail party given by NIKOLAI FEDERENKO, Soviet United Nations Mission, 136 East 67th Street. According to the article, the press learned from RUSTIN that his presence there was derived from his activities in the Committee for Nonviolent Action and his preoccupation with artistic freedom within the Soviet Union.

A circular by the CPUSA was circulated at the Walt Whitman Housing project, Brooklyn, New York, just prior to the Boycott of New York City Public Schools, which took place on February 3, 1964. The circular supported the February 3, 1964 Boycott of Public Schools.

H. MARCH FOR DEMOCRATIC SCHOOLS, NYC, MAY 18, 1964

"The New York Times," May 9, 1964, page 14, contained an article "Rustin Is Fearful of Violence Here" which contained comments of BAYARD RUSTIN relative to the demonstration planned for May 18, 1964, in New York City. RUSTIN is credited with stating that the demonstration would afford a means of relieving some of the racial pressures that are building up. RUSTIN also said that the proposed demonstration would center on the demands of Negroes, Puerto Ricans and liberal whites for improved, integrated education.

It is stated that the demonstration would be sponsored by the National Association for Advancement of Colored People(NAACP) and the Congress of Racial Equality(CORE). According to the article, RUSTIN gave the schedule of events for the demonstration to be called "March for Democratic Schools" and these included boycotts at several public schools on the morning of May 18, 1964, picketing at Governor NELSON ROCKEFELLER'S office at 22 West 55th Street, New York City, in the early afternoon, followed by a demonstration and mass meeting at City Hall, New York City at 4:30 p.m., and concluding with a march across Brooklyn Bridge to affix demands to the door of the Board of Education building.

"The Worker," in its issue of May 12, 1964, page 1, column 3, contained an article "Monday March for Rights Gets Wider Support" in which it is stated that BAYARD RUSTIN, "director of the May 18, March for Democratic Schools announced last week growing support for the New York City Hall rally to demand a city-wide plan for quality integrated schools." This article further stated:

"It is clear that the director of the May 18 action was appealing to all friends of the civil rights movement, and particularly to the white supporters, to view the City Hall rally in a crucial sense.

"The press has already indicated that comparison with the all-white March 12 City Hall action led by the racist-led Parents and Taxpayers is inevitable.

"Since less than a week remains for mobilization, nothing less than an all-out activity that characterized the preparations for the Aug. 28 March on Washington is required to achieve the kind of demonstration that will make a profound impression on the city."

On May 8, 1964, MIKE DAVIDOW, representing "The Worker," was in contact with BAYARD RUSTIN. DAVIDOW wanted to know how the May 18th demonstration was progressing and RUSTIN advised him of the organizational support they were getting, the announced speakers and the plan for boycotting schools in Harlem.

Source further advised that on May 8, 1964, JACK STACHEL told CHAIM SULLER that he should play up big the May 18th affair at City Hall. (U)

"The New York Times," May 19, 1964, page 1, contained an article "Rights Turnout Here Falls Short of Leaders' Goal' which stated that a crowd of Negroes and whites estimated at 4,000 to 5,500, showed up at City Hall, New York City, on May 18, 1964, for a school integration rally "instead of the '15,00 and 1' hoped for by civil rights leaders." It added that "Bayard Rustin, director of the protests here, had hoped to surpass the crowd of 15,000 whites that marched on City Hall on March 13. . ."

I. SHOOTING OF JAMES POWELL, NEW YORK CITY, JULY 16, 1964

At approximately 9:25 a.m., on July 16, 1964, [redacted] Superintendent of the buildings located at 211 and 215 East 76th Street, New York City, while hosing the street and flower boxes outside the above buildings, became involved in an altercation with several Negro youths who were waiting to enter Robert F. Wagner Junior High School, 222 East 76th Street, New York City, for 10:00 a.m. remedial reading classes. b6 b7C

The Negro youths felt that [redacted] had deliberately splashed them with water and they, in retaliation, began to hurl trash cans and bottles at [redacted] fled into the building located at 215 East 76th Street, New York City, and from the first floor rear apartment in that building, telephoned the local police precinct, the 19th Precinct to report the incident.

B. Appx.

One of the Negro youths, subsequently identified as James Powell, age fifteen, 1686 Randall Avenue, Bronx, New York, armed with a knife, pursued [redacted] into the building at 215 East 76th Street, New York City, but was prevented from entering beyond the vestibule of the building by a double locked door which required a key to open it. b6 b7C

Lieutenant [redacted] New York City Police Department (NYCPD) was at this time in Jadco TV Service Store at 215 East 76th Street, New York City. [redacted] who was off duty at the time, heard the crash of glass and emerged from the store to see Powell with a knife in his hand emerging from the building at 215 East 76th Street, New York City. Lt [redacted] identified himself as a police officer and ordered Powell to drop the knife. Powell did not drop the knife, but attempted to assault Lt. [redacted] whereupon [redacted] fired three shots, two of which struck Powell, killing him.

At the time of the shooting, there were approximately eight hundred students in the vicinity of Robert F. Wagner Junior High School waiting to enter classes there and some of them attempted to create a disturbance which was brought under control by the arrival of additional members of the NYCPD.

Soon after the shooting, six youths who are pupils at the Robert F. Wagner Junior High School and allegedly witnessed the incident were questioned by the NYCPD. The six youths told conflicting versions of the incident, "but in the main" corroborated the statement of Lt. [redacted] that Powell refused to halt and drop the knife when [redacted] had ordered him to do so.

[redacted] previously mentioned, and [redacted] b6 Proprietor of the Jadco TV Service Store both furnished statements b7C to the NYCPD substantiating the statement of Lt [redacted] that he had shot Powell in self-defense.

On the afternoon of July 16, 1964, three youths, who are pupils at Robert F. Wagner Junior High School appeared at the 19th Precinct, NYCPD and alleged that they were witnesses to the shooting of Powell. Two of these youths claimed that Powell had no knife on his person as Lt. [redacted] claimed. The third youth stated that he heard the first shot and while leaving the school building to see what happened, heard two more shots. According to the youth, when he got to the street outside the school, he saw Powell lying in the street but never saw the actual occurrence.

The NYCPD recovered a knife which they claim had been in Powell's possession prior to the shooting.

Powell did not mind going to school because one of his main activities at school was fighting. He claimed that he "never lost a fight." He had learned how to box in the Catholic Youth Organization (CYO), but after a year had been kicked out of that organization. The incident leading to this was that a coach had told him to "take it easy on a kid" who was just learning how to fight and was smaller than Powell. However, Powell had become very angry when hit hard by theother boy and had commenced to beat him very seriously even after the round was over. This incident occurred when Powell was twelve or thirteen years old.

~~SECRET~~ (U)

Powell gave as one of the reasons for his poor school attendance during 1963-1964 school year, the fact that he was knifed in the leg and had spent a few days in a hospital. This knifing took place while his mother was in the hospital and he was staying with a friend. Powell belonged to a gang which he called a club, and despite the fact that they practiced how to fight using knives and shooting guns, his club "played it cool" and kept out of trouble. When Powell was fourteen and a half years old, he and another boy [redacted] who was a classmate of his at Junior High School 123 had beaten up a Puerto Rican boy "for kicks." As a result, the [redacted] boy was sent to a training school because he had been in trouble before. Powell was put on probation which started in June and ended in September, 1963. N.Y.K. b6 b7C

Powell fought nearly every day for kicks and he and his friends liked "to get high" on whiskey, but he did not drink wine as he felt that this was beneath him. Powell was absent from school thirty-two days during the last school term and on various days in December, 1963 and January, 1964, he was accused by fellow students or school authorities of the following:

Bullying, pickpocketing, stealing, card playing and fighting.

In April, 1964, Powell left New York City for Providence, Rhode Island because he had learned in March, 1964 that a girl, with whom he and four other boys had sexual relations, was pregnant. One of this group , who was an associate of Powell "Had been blamed for the baby". Court action by the girl against Powell's associate would result in a lot of trouble for that boy because he had a long record. It was Powell's thought that the girl might be killed and, therefore, he wanted to be safely out of the city before anything like this was going to happen. Powell also gave as a reason for leaving New York City "there are no more kicks in this town." He returned to New York City in June, 1964, at which time he was described "as having moody spells and acting a little nasty."

DEMONSTRATIONS AND VIOLENCE IN NEW YORK CITY FOLLOWING SHOOTING OF JAMES POWELL, JULY 17-31, 1964

July 17, 1964

About 200 Negro teenagers conducted an animated but orderly demonstration in Yorkville to protest the fatal shooting on Thursday (July 16, 1964) of James Powell.

The demonstrators, carrying school textbooks and placards proclaiming, "Save Us From Our Protectors" and "Stop Killer Cops," paraded for four hours in front of the Robert F. Wagner Junior High School on East 76th Street, New York City, New York, and near the 67th Street Police Station, New York, New York.

Led by local officials of the Congress of Racial Equality (CORE), the teenagers sang civil rights songs, chanted "Police Brutality Must Go" and jeered and hooted at some 50 patrolmen who watched their parading.

The protest demonstration began at 9:00 a.m. with 75 youths marching and singing in front of the Wagner Junior High School. Two hours earlier, 50 policemen had been posted at the scene with nightsticks. The nightsticks were turned in when the police were told that only youths would be involved in the protest. At noon, the demonstrators were joined by 150 summer school students who had completed their morning classes. NY

As the crowd of teenagers grew, Chris Sprowal, Chairman of the Downtown Chapter of CORE grabbed a megaphone and cautioned the demonstrators "to behave like ladies and gentlemen." Minutes later, the demonstrators began marching the nine blocks to the 67th Street police station between Lexington and Third Avenues.

When they arrived in the vicinity of the station, the demonstrators were shunted behind a barrier on 67th Street between Lexington and Park Avenue, half a block away from the precinct house. Police stated the demonstrators had not been allowed in the block because it contained a firehouse, the Soviet Mission to the United Nations and the Kennedy Child Study Center. Later, they permitted 25 demonstrators to march across the street from the police station.

The group marched for about an hour. They dispersed quietly after Mr. Sprowal told them that there would "be picketing at the school early Monday morning."

On July 18, 1964, on the Southwest corner of 125th Street and Seventh Avenue, New York City, outside the Hotel Theresa, a rally was held sponsored by the East River and Downtown Chapters of CORE. This rally was scheduled for the period 7:00 to 8:00 p.m. and the speakers included Chris Sprowal of Downtown CORE and Charles Saunders of East River CORE. The subject matter was police brutality and the rally attracted about 300 persons at its peak. At 8:15 p.m., Sprowal informed the Police Department that the CORE part of the meeting was ended.

Shortly after this, the Reverend Nelson Dukes of the Fountain Spring Baptist Church, 158 West 126th Street, New York City, who is affiliated with the Blue Ribbon Organization for Equal Opportunities, took advantage of the crowd assembled for the CORE rally and began to speak about police brutality. Dukes, who was not a scheduled speaker for the CORE rally, made a strong speech.

Before Dukes spoke and after Sprowal ended his talk, Benjamin 2X Goodman, who identified himself as a teacher in Muslim Mosque I, delivered a very inflammatory speech which excited the audience against whites. CORE had lost complete control of the crowd.

Although it is not clear whether Dukes or [redacted], the speaker who followed him, urged the crowd to demonstrate at the 28th Precinct, Dukes was the one who led the crowd to the precinct. At about 8:30 p.m., a crowd of about 300 led by Dukes and others, proceeded south on Seventh Avenue to demonstrate at the 28th Precinct, demanding the immediate suspension and arrest of [redacted].

At about 8:30 p.m., James Lawson of the United African Nationalist Movement (UANM) began to speak at the Northeast corner of 125th Street and Seventh Avenue. He had a loudspeaker and invited the crowd over from the CORE meeting. Lawson delivered an inflammatory speech against police brutality and made statements that Negroes "should bust some heads" and "for every black man killed, two white men will be killed."

In the midst of his speech, he was interrupted by one of his group who informed that the police were battling people outside the 28th Precinct. Lawson told the audience what was going on and urged his listeners to split into two groups, one going south on 8th Avenue and one south on Seventh Avenue to West 123rd Street, where they could converge for a demonstration at the precinct. The majority of the crowd went south on Seventh Avenue with Lawson where they joined the demonstration at the 28th Precinct.

NYCPD, July 31, 1964

From 7:00 to 8:00 p.m. on Saturday, July 18, 1964, a rally was held at the Southwest corner of 125th Street, and Seventh Avenue, New York City, to protest the alleged "murder" of James Powell. This rally was under the sponsorship of the Downtown and East River Chapters of CORE with about 300 spectators. At the conclusion of the rally, a member of Malcolm X's Organization of Afro-American Unity, (OAAU) was allowed to speak and stirred up the spectators by making statements to the effect that Negroes should arm themselves for self-protection and must be willing to spill blood for freedom.

At approximately 8:15 p.m., another Negro group started a rally at the Northeast corner of 125th Street and Seventh Avenue, when the people from the CORE rally began to march three abreast to the area of the 28th Precinct of the NYCPD, 123rd Street and Seventh Avenue, to demonstrate.

In the demonstration, which began outside the 28th Precinct at about 8:45 p.m., there were elements from CORE chapters, the Freedom Now Party, the Progressive Labor Movement (PLM) and OAAU. The number of demonstrators at this precinct reached approximately 400.

NYCPD, July 19, 1964

About one hour after the demonstrations began at the 28th Precinct, someone in the crowd hurled a bottle at the police and an order was issued to clear the area immediately in front of the precinct. Many of the demonstrators refused to move, sat down and sixteen were arrested by the police. In making these arrests, numerous fights broke out and a call was issued for additional police to clear the entire area.

An outgrowth of this demonstration was the spread of disorder throughout Harlem. Three hundred additional police were ordered to Harlem at the height of the disorder and the Police Commissioner, Michael Murphy, arrived in Harlem during the early morning of July 19, 1964, to observe the situation.

A total of 32 persons were arrested as a result of the incidents which took place which total included the sixteen arrested in the area of the 28th Precinct and sixteen others arrested throughout Harlem on a variety of charges including felonious assault and looting.

Two Negroes were reported shot by the police, [redacted] who was shot in the spine while looting a pawn shop, and J. L. NYCPD, July 19, 1964

"The New York Times" issue of July 19, 1964, reported events of July 18, 1964, in part, as follows:

On July 18, 1964, a rally was held at Seventh Avenue and 125th Street by three chapters of CORE. After representatives of CORE had spoken protesting the shooting of James Powell by Police Lt. Thomas Gilligan, the speakers' platform was turned over to speakers representing various other groups including the United African Movement (UAM) and the Harlem PLM. One of the last speakers was the Reverend Nelson C. Dukes of the Fountain Spring Baptist Church, 158 West 126th Street, who called for a march on the West 123rd Street Police Station to demand the arrest of Lt. Gilligan on a murder charge.

After the rally broke up at 8:45 p.m., Reverend Dukes led the crowd down Seventh Avenue to the police station and upon arriving there, attempted to push in through the door but was blocked by police. With the aid of reinforcements, the crowd was pushed across the street at 9:30 p.m. As the police attempted to contain the crowd, bottles, bricks, and covers from refuse cans rained down from the roofs.

More than 500 policeman, including all members of the tactical force were called out to control the mobs. Shots were fired into the air by policemen to disperse the milling crowds. At least 30 people were arrested and many people were injured. Store windows were broken, and there was wide-spread looting.

A group of Harlem leaders met at 123rd Street Station House with Deputy Police Commissioner Philip Walsh. Attending the meeting were Madison Jones, Executive Director of the City Commission on Human Rights (CCHR); Criminal Court Judge Kenneth M. Phipps and James Lawson of the UANM. It was decided that a letter by Police Commissioner Murphy would be read at all church services in the morning, asking for law and order.

Reverend Dukes was shaken by the developments, and said that if he had known "this" was going to happen, he would not have said anything.

At Second Avenue and 76th Street, approximately a half block from the scene of the shooting of James Powell, six young members of the "Fascist-oriented United States Nationalist Party" held a brief meeting on July 18, 1964, in the afternoon to assail civil rights leaders for what was described as rising violence.

A small group of spectators who gathered to hear the speakers reacted with open scorn.

Persons who identified themselves as being from the PLM were handing out copies of "Challenge", the publication of this group.

these youths together in order to have them go through Harlem that evening to ask people to stay off the streets to forestall the possibility of any additional rioting.

There were no incidents or disturbances at this demonstration.

NYCPD, July 20, 1964

On July 19, 1964, a rally was held at the Mount Morris Presbyterian Church, at 122nd Street and Mount Morris Avenue West, the leader of which was Jesse Gray; the theme of the rally was "Is Harlem Mississippi". The audience consisted of 500 people, half of whom were Black Nationalists.

Gray called for "100 skilled black revolutionaries who are ready to die" to correct a situation which he called "the police brutality situation in Harlem." He stated that one way which could correct the situation is "guerrilla warfare," and he said that the city could be changed by 50,000 well organized Negroes.

Marshall England, the leader of the Harlem Chapter of CORE, said that the Negro people must vote and organize, which caused many in the audience to boo him. Jesse Gray called on Edward Mills Davis, a well known Black Nationalist street speaker, to restore order.

Davis stated that the problem would not be solved by an emotional outburst or by undirected violence. He called on black people who had been in the armed services and who know anything about guerrilla warfare to come to the aid of "Our people." He added, "If we must die, let us die scientifically."

The final speaker was James Farmer of CORE, who was booed even before he spoke. He talked about the use of firearms by the police during the rioting.

As of 8:30 p.m., July 19, 1964, about 2000 Negroes were milling about the funeral parlor, 2250 Seventh Avenue, where the body of James Powell was on view. There had been numerous incidents of missile throwing at police officers by the crowd and an undetermined number of shots were fired by the police to disperse the crowd. Additional police were being ordered to the area of the funeral home.

Jesse Gray called for a march on and a demonstration at the United Nations on July 20, 1964, to ask the United Nations to take cognizance of the Negro situation in Harlem.

As of 10:00 p.m., July 19, 1964, the area from 125th Street to 133rd Street on Seventh Avenue was still the scene of numerous skirmishes between the police and Negro residents, with an estimated several thousand Negroes in the area. The activity consisted mainly of throwing bottles and other objects at the police and they in turn had fired shots only to disperse crowds.

As of 2:15 a.m., July 20, 1964, the situation in Harlem had quieted down and as of 4:45 a.m., things were back to normal with no further demonstrations being reported.

An unofficial tally for the period beginning late on Saturday, July 18, 1964, and ending early Monday, July 20, 1964, indicated that there were 56 persons injured, 115 arrested, one killed, three others shot, and 65 stores in the Harlem area damaged. No police official had as yet characterized the disturbances of July 18-20, 1964, in Harlem as a "riot" but referred to them as a series of unlawful acts.

NYCPD, July 20, 1964

As 150 persons crowded into the Levy and Delaney Funeral Home, 2250 Seventh Avenue, from which James Powell was being buried, police manned barricades outside. Objects were thrown at the police from the roof tops. Police fired a volley of shots at roof tops which put a stop to the throwing of objects.

As the Powell family departed from the funeral home, a sound truck drew up in front, and Bayard Rustin entered the truck to urge the restless crowd to go home. He was answered by shouts of "Uncle Tom". Rustin replied that he was willing to be a "Tom" if it was the only way to prevent women and children from being shot down in the street. The crowd shouted, "We want Malcolm X." More objects were thrown from the roof tops, and more shots were fired by the police. The outbreak quickly subsided.

Special Agents of the FBI on July 25, 1964, observed a demonstration at 73rd Street and Amsterdam Avenue, New York City, which demonstration was co-sponsored by the HPA; New York Du Bois Youth Clubs; Women's Strike for Peace; Parents Workshop for Equality; Village Peace Center and the "Catholic Worker." The co-sponsors of this rally were identified on a leaflet passed out at this rally. This rally began at 1:30 p.m. and ended at 3:30 p.m. with approximately 250 in attendance with some 750 on-lookers.

The opening speech was given by Jane Benedict Hawley, from the Metropolitan Council on Housing. Hawley's speech was inflammatory, dealing mainly with police brutality. She criticized the killing of James Powell and cited other instances of police killings, which she felt were unwarranted. Hawley also mentioned the situation in Mississippi, the need for more housing and jobs for Negroes and suggested reading of the writings of James Baldwin and Langston Hughes. Hawley's remarks were greeted by taunts from the crowd across the street.

Other speakers at this rally echoed the remarks of Hawley and also were severely booed by the crowd.

The main advertised speaker at this rally, Reverend Milton Galamison, failed to appear, and excuses were given for this failure.

The rally approved the sending of a telegram to be sent to Mayor Wagner of New York City, the text of the telegram containing the following demands:

William L. Patterson, on July 22, 1964, expressed concern regarding the recent violence in Harlem. He stated that it must end as soon as possible and expressed concern over the role of the black nationalists and that of Jesse Gray. He felt that Gray had a hand in stirring up some violence and that it had been deliberate on his part. Patterson stated that there have been some meetings between Gray and the CP at which Patterson had been present and that at these meetings Gray had agreed to forget his idea of "mobilizing what would have amounted to a guerrilla force". However, according to Patterson, Gray did attempt to set up this force but with less success than Gray had hoped for. This statement which was entitled, "Mr. Screvane-Harlem and Terror," reads as follows: (U)

Acting Mayor Paul Screvane has charged Communists with the responsibilities for the blood letting and terror loosed in Harlem streets. Through employment of this monstrous lie, Screvane seeks to hide the guilty. He provides war munitions to the camp of the most implacable enemies not only of Negro citizens but the entire nation. (U)

The slum lords and monopolists who use the ghetto for a dumping ground for rotting goods sold at exorbitant prices can benefit by this burst of anti-Communism invoked to hide the hell of ghetto life and shield those responsible, but Harlem and the nation are the losers. (U)

Who is there that does not know that the murder of a 15 year old Negro school lad sparked the terror drive spear-headed by New York Police at whose head stands the man selected by the Mayor of the city. (U)

The CP has never ceased to condemn violence as a means of eliminating ghetto life and its monstrous evils. (U)

The CP has never ceased to advocate and work for the unity of those who see and know the ghetto to be a weapon of terror and oppression. From its inception the CP has demanded the elimination of the ghetto and advanced a program of building new hospitals, homes, schools, parks and recreation spots that will make what was the ghetto attractive to all Americans. (U)

Mr. Screvane's big lie is an incitement to a police force that cannot but reflect the racist policies of an administration calloused to the democratic demands of its Negro citizens. The big lie is a splitting tactic against those seeking unity in democratic struggle for equality of rights and opportunity. The CP brands this Screvane maneuver as an act endorsing the continuation of police terror. The CP demands equal time to answer this scurrilous lie loosed by Mr. Screvane. (U)

Indict the man who murdered James Powell Mr. Mayor. Indemnify his parents and other victims of police terror. Banish Jim Crow and segregation from every sphere of New York's life. The CP demands these steps in furtherance of American democracy and as an end to American racism. Signed Robert Thompson, William L. Patterson. Patterson said this will speak for the Party. (U)

The meeting opened with a report by Robert Thompson on the racial riots in Harlem. Thompson stated that with reference to police brutality "what you had was the police running amok, indiscriminately clubbing lots of the kids that were running about on the streets, just anybody and everybody that came within reach." Thompson said it was unquestionably a planned thing. He described the police as a body of armed men that (U) were terror stricken and just striking out right and left without rhyme or reason. Thompson continued in substance as follows: (U)

I want to pass quickly if I may to the organized, planned aspects of this. Unquestionably, this unleashing of the full provocation and violence, starting with Harlem on Saturday, was an element of providing a cover and a justification for the Police Department and specifically for Police Officer Gilligan in the murder of James Powell, the schoolboy. Unquestionably, in my opinion, the action was motivated by an effort to create a kind of enormous provocation and frame with which this act of calculated violence against this young lad would be obscured and justified. That, I am sure, is one of the elements in the picture. However, this element, which would have been there under any circumstances, takes place in this situation within a much larger frame; and that is the fact that those who want to thwart the social forces in this country, who want to move this country to the Right, who want to move in the direction of a Fascist trend of development, are calculating in the first place. (U)

The cornerstone of this tragedy in the first place is that of the calculation of the ability to arouse within the country on a nationwide and mass scale, a wave of anti-Negro, racist feeling and action that will bring about the kind of political realignment that they require in order to achieve their aims. What happened basically in New York was the first really large, major culmination of a strategy that is in a conscious way moving nationally in this direction. (U)

What we are dealing with in this situation is a very well planned network of not Ultra-Right crackpots, although it includes these, but of hard headed, keen planners on the Right, with their connections made over the last number of years in each of the major parties, based on the Republican Party, but in each of the major parties, and extending into the organized circles of all (U)

the professional organizations, extending in many areas into labor oganizations, to one degree or another, and most certainly extending into the high circles of the Government agencies, the FBI , Pentagon, et cetera, and into the Police Departments. (U)

And this thing that has been happening the last week in New York, there is an element of accident in timing, but in the strategy of it, in the calculated setting of this trend in motion and of counting upon consequences of it, there is no element of accident in that . That is a planned thing. The extent of the unrestrained display of brutality in those areas, that is a deliberate, calculated thing designed to create in the country a kind of situation where the conscious forces of reaction would be able to create an atmosphere best suited to their aim of arousing a wave of racist feeling that is a prerequisite for a victory for these Goldwater forces this year, or at least a substantial advance on their part. (U)

Now insofar as the situation within the community and within the civil rights movement itself. As far as any direct reaction to the major provocation that has taken place here in New York, there has been remarkably little in this state from the point of view of reaction on the part of the leadership of predominantly white organizations, labor or community. And the fact is that there has been in this situation, there has been a very understandable but nevertheless very disturbing growth of Nationalist mood and feeling in the Negro community. (U)

I think (Bayard) Rustin could have been much more eloquent than he is; or (James) Farmer much more (U) eloquent; or anybody else much more eloquent. If there had been some big announced action going on outside of Harlem, outside of Bedford-Stuyvesant, directed at City Hall, directed at the Police Department, this would have had ten times the impact on the thinking, the feeling, the actions. This has been the central problem. It remains the central problem. This is why basically there has been a growth, let us say to a disturbing and an alarming point, of a Nationalist feeling among the Negro organizations. (U)

There is the Police Department, the FBI, there are diverse groupings operating in the Negro community as well as elsewhere, there is money flowing into this movement from diverse sources, and there are with it of course the agent provocateur and other elements at work. There is, for example, one James Lawson (who) is really an FBI man. And with that you have the operation of elements like Progressive Labor and the Trotskyites and so forth who, half of them are FBI Agents. They put out things like this tract on how to make Molotov cocktails and distribute it around. Or they call something, such as has been done for this next Saturday, in the name of the so-called Harlem Defense Committee, which is nothing more than a name. (U)

They are going to get out fifty thousand leaflets which call in Harlem for a mobilization and march on the Police Station, which is the most provocative g-- d----d thing that could happen. At the same time, you have now to a greater extent the beginning of a gathering together and speaking out of the militant, solid leadership of the Negro community. (U)

The thing that is most essential is to transfer the arena of action and struggle at this moment outside of Harlem and Bedford-Stuyvesant and direct it at City Hall, (U)

at the Headquarters of the Police, at the areas of City, State and Governmental power outside of Harlem and Bedford-Stuyvesant. Now why has there not been greater action in the white communities, in white organizations? Well, we have been asking ourselves that question all week long. There has been a great deal of effort put into it, I can assure you of that in the limited strength of our Party and certain other conscious forces. I will tell you one reason why I think the response has been limited. I would like to get your thinking on this also. I think that in labor and political circles there has been a very considerable doubt and hesitation as to how their white membership or constituents would react to this situation. I think some of that is becoming resolved, but I think that was an element, that people who normally would react on their own initiative, did not react in this situation as they otherwise could have been expected to react. I think this is one of the factors in this situation. (U)

In these United States in 1964, the use of chauvinism and anti-Negro feeling is aiding the fascist forces even more so than during the rise of Hitler in Germany. This is one thing the overall situation (in Harlem) in which we have a very vital interest. It is a situation in which we have every possibility in terms of regrouping of the democratic forces, the whole process of democratic forces in our country. (U)

Lastly, I would observe I have no doubt that there were many things that were overlooked but by and large I am quite proud of what our party did and what our youth did. I think we came off as a party and our youth came off with a particular, considering our relative strength, with a respectable showing in the struggle and its many facets. (U)

~~SECRET~~ (U)

William L. Patterson noted that some may feel there is no basis for the anti-Communist cry in the light of the relative weakness of "our forces" and yet this cry of anti-Communism is evidence of "our potential strength." He added, "And it comes against our cry, our insistent cry of Negro-white unity." (U)

Patterson said the National Association for Advancement of Colored People (NAACP) has gotten out a leaflet finally, calling for Negroes in administrative offices. He said, "This and other voices added to our call for a Negro downtown can be effective." (U)

Robert Thompson in summarizing said in substance: (U)

The task of our Party in the Negro community and in the civil rights movement is enormous and vital, and given the resources of our Party, it places an enormous responsibility on our Party and particularly on the Negro leadership and comrades of our Party. The central problem is to move this labor movement and to move the white communities and predominantly white organizations. We as a Party and in the first place the white comrades must succeed in moving in a tangible and substantial way sectors of the labor movement and the predominantly white communities and organizations into action on this question. This is a fight not for Negroes, this is a fight for America. (U)

District CP Trade Union Commission told CPUSA Against Harlem Riots

At a meeting of the New York District CP Trade Union Commission held in New York City on July 26, 1964, James Tormey stated that the Party was against the rioting and looting that took place in Harlem and Bedford-Stuyvesant. They felt, however, that the causes of this were there for some time, these being frustration, unemployment, et cetera, and all it needed was a spark to set it off, such as the shooting of the Powell boy. (U)

Tormey stated that the Party forbade any of its white comrades to participate in the Harlem or Bedford-Stuyvesant picket lines, instead they were asked to work in white neighborhoods if possible. They did send some Negro comrades into Harlem and Bedford-Stuyvesant to see what was going on, but not to work with the extremist groups. (U)

Tormey mentioned that he felt Jesse Gray was becoming more of a Negro Nationalist and thus moving away from the Party's position. Also, he stated that "Jim Lawson" was an FBI Agent and so the CP had nothing to do with him. (U)

Tormey stated the Party was pleased with the responsible Negro leaders like Farmer (of CORE) who calmed the people and asked them to go home. However, the Party didn't like the actions of Bill Epton or his group and felt that because of them the CPUSA's image would be damaged. The reason being people don't think, they only remember the headlines, and some of the papers don't bother to say that Epton and his group don't belong to the CPUSA and that the Party has nothing to do with them. He stated that the Party has no idea where the Epton group gets its money. (U)

The Party also feels they will have problems with white people, because of these riots they will vote for Goldwater because he is not for the Negro. Therefore, the white comrades in their mass work must work against this idea. (U)

(U) CP Leaders Informally Discuss Harlem Situation

An informal discussion of New York District CP functionaries took place on July 27, 1964, at CP Headquarters, New York City. (U)

James Tormey said that the Farmers and the Wilkins "will not talk to us" but the others will. He told both Robert Thompson and William L. Patterson that some criticism concerning their picture being in the paper has been raised. Tormey indicated that a statement was being prepared criticizing the press for putting blame on the Communists for the riots. (U)

Robert Thompson spoke of the rally held at 73rd Street and Amsterdam Avenue, New York City on July 25, 1964. This rally was held under the auspices of the United New York for Freedom, an Ad Hoc Committee of seven groups, one of which was the W. E. DuBois Club, a CP youth organization. Thompson said the CP had failed to distribute literature, yet the PLM was able to distribute its material. Thompson said this is a real problem and the CP must better organize itself. (U)

Thompson said "We were able to get participation of some of our people in some of the CORE actions and one or two other things but that was it". (U)

Patterson said the CP is going to get out a document in which it disassociates itself from the Milt Rosen group. (U)

(U) District CP Board Hears Report on Harlem Riots

A meeting of the New York District CP Board was held on July 27, 1964, at Academy Hall, 853 Broadway, New York City. (U)

Robert Thompson reviewed the racial situation in Harlem and Bedford-Stuyvesant areas. He informed the New York District Board that the Party would not and does not work with the extremist groups such as PLM and the Nationalists, instead the Party would work with groups such as CORE, NAACP and Negro American Labor Council (NALC). (U)

Betty Gannett asked Thompson if Jesse Gray was a Nationalist or drifting in that direction. Thompson replied that he felt he could not say if Gray was part of the Nationalist or PLM, however, he is surrounded by them and, therefore, they have influenced him. (U)

Continuing, Thompson said that the labor organizations did not help or do enough in the racial situation because he, Thompson, felt they did not know where their membership stood on this problem. He said that it was up to CORE, NAACP, NALC, the major political organizations and the labor movement to stand together and help improve the conditions in Harlem and Bedford-Stuyvesant. (U)

Thompson also stated that he, William L. Patterson and Rasheel Storey attended a rally in the Mt. Morris Presbyterian Church, New York City, on July 19, 1964. He said that they wanted to speak but the opportunity for them to do so did not arise. He said that after the meeting they did talk to individuals outside to find out what was going on. (U)

ROBERT THOMPSON
Gus Hall (U)

~~SECRET~~ (U)

NY 100-153735

William L. Patterson
James Jackson
Jack Stachel (U)

Thompson opened the meeting by commenting on the PLM. He said that the problem that confronts "us" is not simply that of exposure of the police agent character of PLM but also to develop an effective ideological and political polemic regarding this; disassociating "our" Party from this camp (PLM). Thompson said that coupled with an exposure of their role and a polemic against their whole basic philosophical outlook, "we" must distinguish between"our" Party and other groups who call themselves Communist. (U)

Gus Hall added his comments saying "we" need a real basic discussion among ourselves. I don't think its enough to say that among them there are police agents and, therefore, they are provocateurs. There are police agents among them but that is not the only reason why they are provocative and racist. Hall thought that the basic estimate of them must go in the very fundamental direction that they are a petty bourgeois, opportunistic element. They are fundamentally anti-Communist, anti-working class. It is because of these fundamental questions that they are provocative and dangerous. The Party, said Hall, must find ways of speaking out in the clearest possible fashion as to what is Party policy, Party role and the projection of the Party's position. Hall said "we" must draw up a very fundamental political statement on why these people (PLM) are not Communists and that the designation of "Communist" is a cover for all kinds of elements. Hall said "we" have to find ways of basically and fundamentally disassociating the Party from these elements. (U)

Patterson said there must be an understanding that unity is for us a basic factor, not only unity of Negro and white but unity of Negroes. The "Rosen group" (PLM) has organization, a paper, a program. They are making a very definite challenge to us. Patterson said "we've" got to show what the people's role is and what our role is in the struggle to place the pressure to see that there is enforcement of the civil rights law. (U)

Jackson said "we" need a full statement which defines our points sharply. (U)

According to the source, Lightfoot stated that this was a national question and not something for just New York State. Lightfoot was of the opinion that a press conference should be called to present before the President and the country the CP's view on the situation that exists. Lightfoot further informed Hall that every paper and television station in the country is portraying this guy (William Epton) as a Communist and "we" cannot let him speak for our Party. Lightfoot said "we" must differentiate ourselves from these "S.O.B.s", adding that the ultra-right is playing this "up to the hilt." Gus Hall Holds Press Conference Re Harlem Riots

The scheduled press conference of the CP USA was held on July 30, 1964, at CP Headquarters, New York City.

Gus Hall, before reading his press statement, said the NYCPD neede d a distraction to cover its bloody tracks and the red scare has been used as a camouflage from Hitler to Al Capone. Police Commissioner Murphy needed a discredited threat calling itself the PLM to say they are Communists and they are for violence. (U)

In his statement Hall said that during the explosion in Harlem, a small band of self proclaimed Communists was brought into the spotlight with the helping hand of the police and the news media. This band, the PLM, projected an action, called by HALL as irresponsible and hair brained adventurism.

Those responsible for the existence of police brutality now seek to smear the wrathful reaction of the Negro people as being no more than a response to a "Communist..." Attention is thus diverted from the real culprits, the real source of the Negro peoples anger. According to Hall this was the meaning of sending the FBIto Harlem and the reason for the lying accusation of Acting Mayor Screvane, that the discord was the work of infiltrators from the CP.

~~CLASSIFIED~~ (U)

Hall said that PLM members are not Communists and that their antics and irresponsible actions have nothing in common with Communism or the position of the CP. In fact, said Hall, the leaders of PLM were expelled from the CP some years ago after a long history of adventurism and that PLM exists only as a "parasitic parasite on the body of the Negro Freedom Movement.

Hall said the CP has always condemned any acts of violence and terror. The CP stands for militant mass actions and struggles aimed at the achievments of specific gains on the path to Negro freedom. The Party stands for organized actions which will bring together the greatest possible numbers of Americans directed against the forces of racism and the right-wing reaction, against the monopoly inspired oppressors of the Negro people. Above all, Hall said, the Party constantly strives for the ever greater unity of Negro and white Americans as a prerequisite to victory in this all important fight for the fundamental democratic rights of all Americans.

A question and answer period followed with William L. Patterson and Henry Winston, participating with Hall. In answer to a question, Patterson stated there were no Communist representatives participating in the Harlem riots and that there were no outstanding Communist leaders taking part in any of the rallies in Harlem.

Patterson continued that he was not in touch as to whether there were any "secondary leaders" or not.

In this question and answer period, Hall said the CP had not called any demonstrations during the Harlem riots but that the CP would support mass activities of the type of action such as the March on Washington of August 28, 1963.

(U)

In answer to a question, Hall said the CP is ever growing and becoming more influential, adding, "we are satisfied with our progress so far". Hall was then asked if his position was that Communists took no part in the riots in Harlem and Bedford-Stuyvesant. Hall replied, "No, I'm not saying that at all, " and added Communists are active political workers in all sections of the city. They are active in Harlem, but "Communists did not instigate or advocate violent overthrow in Harlem. Communists advocate mass actions, mass developments for people's victory."

Hall was then asked again what part did they play. Hall replied, "I think generally the role that Communists play in the struggle, including the civil rights struggle, that we work out policies and programs and ideas of struggle, and project these not only for Communists but for all people in the fight for civil rights."

[CP Role in Current Racial Strife Discussed] (U)

On July 30, 1964, a meeting of CP leaders was held at CP Headquarters, New York City. Among those in attendance were:

Robert Thompson
Jack Stachel
Hyman Lumer
Arnold Johnson
Irving Potash
Henry Winston
William Patterson
James Jackson
James Tormey

The discussion centered mainly on the role of the CP in the current racial strife. They also discussed factors that will affect the coming presidential election. (U)

Robert Thompson said that the immediate effect of events in Harlem and Bedford-Stuyvesant has created some real problems and raises the dangerous possibility that the Goldwater forces will be able to use this to their advantage. He said the CP is going to have to play a more effective role than it has up to this point. Thompson mentioned the importance of the Democratic Party Convention and the shaping of the various platform planks. He also said it is important for the Negroes to register to vote and that the CP must undertake a program that will have an impact not only on the Negro peoples, but the labor and white forces as well. (U)

Jack Stachel spoke of the need for Negro trade unionists to play a more meaningful role so they could be the means of communication between the white workers and the Negro community as a whole. Stachel mentioned the role of the CP has not yet been determined and the role they have been playing is not what they would like to play because the party in "not well enough--". He suggested a meeting of county organizers where they could gather material to see where they are strong and where they are weak, and then make their plans. (U)

Hyman Lumer said they must deal with what Goldwater's candidacy means to the working class as a whole and that they need literature for distribution. (U)

Arnold Johnson said the organized campaign by Goldwater and the ultra-right should not be underestimated. (U)

Irving Potash said he thought the statement of the Negro leaders (to limit demonstrations for the present) is important and can be used to get a good reaction in the trade unions. He did not interpret the statement to mean there should be no mass actions in connection with political activities. Potash also said in relation to the Press conference CP leaders held earlier that day they should consider how to make the essence of this Press conference available to either "The Worker" or some other publication. (U)

Henry Winston stressed the importance of Negro unity to meet the danger of Goldwater. He thought the party should not underestimate their great responsibility in Harlem and that there is an immediate need for a headquarters in Harlem. He said the CP has a tremendous support among Negro people and with an energetic and organized campaign they could drive organizations like the PLM out of Harlem. Winston said this should be number one on the agenda and that 25,000 or 50,000 copies of the program they presented to the press that morning should be distributed in Harlem proper. (U)

William Patterson commented that every effort should be made to be sure these struggles do not have elements of violence. (U)

James Jackson said they would have to affirm their confidence in the white working masses in America. (U)

James Tormey said the police department has tried to reverse responsibility for setting off this violence and there are too many people who accept the newspaper versions on the question of vandalism and looting. Many think the Negro people are going too far. Tormey said they must emphasize the necessity of working through the labor movement and through other mass organizations. (U)

Claude Lightfoot Complains Over Not Being Consulted Regarding CP Statement

On July 30, 1964, Claude Lightfoot was in contact with Gus Hall. Lightfoot complained to Hall because he, Lightfoot, as a leader of the Party, was not consulted regarding the CP statement. Hall informed Lightfoot that he had a legitimate gripe " but that it was done under real pressure." Hall said that Hyman Lumer wrote it as part of a committee of Lumer, James (Jackson) and Hall. (U)

Hall told Lightfoot that he should hold a press conference in Chicago. Lightfoot appeared to be hesitant but Hall informed him that the Press Conference in New York did not get national coverage and Hall felt another one should be held in Chicago. (U)

Hall said it should be determined how to circulate the statement and consideration is being given to the possible issuance of a leaflet. (U)

Callender stated that the blame for the Harlem riots must be placed on the shoulders of Mayor Robert F. Wagner and Police Commissioner Murphy. He claimed the Harlem situation developed because city officials would not listen to New York leaders, sit-ins at Police offices were ignored, and the Powell shooting was the spark which ignited the rioting.

~~SECRET~~ (U)

Callender stated that there is a dual system of justice, depending on a man's color. Callender stated that if "you are black, you get bad schools, unemployment and police brutality". Callender demanded the establishment of a civilian complaint board, the dismissal of Commissioner Murphy, and demanded that Mayor Wagner issue orders for the NYCPD to cease and desist from "brutality". Callender concluded by stating that the current problem could be resolved if the Negro receives all of his demands, and in addition, the suspension and trial of Lieutenant Thomas Gilligan.

The "New York Times", December 31, 1963, page 32, in an article captioned "Harlem Slum Fighter - Jesse Gray" reports that Gray, head of CCH, stated that he is the only paid member of the organization and draws $75.00 per week. Gray further stated that the CCH has about 2,000 members, but only 400 are able to pay the monthly dues of $1.00.

This article also reports that Gray has as his goals the organizing of every slum tenant in Harlem; the calling of rent-strikes whenever intolerable violations of the housing laws are ignored by landlords; forcing the City of New York to take over tenements under the Receivership Law; and, to have the Federal Government start a massive drive to eliminate slums as an eventual solution to the housing problem.

On July 26, 1964, Jesse Gray was observed passing out handbills at 125th Street and Seventh Avenue, New York City. These handbills listed Jesse Gray as the Director of the CCH.

The "New York Times", July 20, 1964, page 16, column 6, contains an article "Guerrilla War Urged in Harlem" in which it is stated that Jesse Gray, "the leader of the Harlem Rent Strike" called for "100 skilled black revolutionaries who are ready to die" to correct what he termed "the police brutality situation in Harlem". The meeting was held at the Mount Morris Presbyterian Church, 122nd Street and Mount Morris Avenue, New York City, on July 19, 1964. The article states that Gray was the leader of this rally which had an audience of 500, about half of them black nationalists.

The "New York Times", July 21, 1964, page 22, column 6, in an article describing racial violence in New York City on July 20, 1964, stated that a rally called by Jesse Gray, "rent strike leader", on July 20, 1964, in front of the United Nations, New York, was attended by approximately 250 persons. The purpose of the rally was to protest police brutality.

The article notes that Gray, during yesterday's court hearing, denied that his call for "100 men ready to die" was aimed at guerrilla warfare in Harlem or elsewhere here. Gray insisted that he was simply seeking a "trained community organization for better schools, housing and jobs and against police brutality."

The current racial violence in the Harlem and Brooklyn areas of New York City have definite organization backing. The prime organization at this time appears to be the Progressive Labor Movement (PLM), since it has taken an active roll in creating violent atmosphere in Harlem and the Bedford-Stuyvesant areas. Regarding Jesse Gray, there is no evidence that he is a member of PLM, however, he has utilized the PLM OFFICE IN Harlem as his current base of operation.

Organization and Participants

Approximately 20 persons met on the evening of July 23, 1964, in Room 1C, Central Plaza Annex, 40 East Seventh Street, New York, New York. The meeting began at 8:30 p.m., and concluded at 11:00 p.m. Groups represented included the Progressive Labor Movement (PLM), the Socialist Workers Party (SWP) and the Workers World Party. (U)

The purpose and main theme of the meeting was "solidarity"as it related to the Negro working class and the white working class. It was pointed out that the labor unions have not participated in the present Civil Rights fight, for they have not recognized any integrated working class. Further demonstrations in this field must utilize both whites and Negroes in an integrated protest. In this regard, it was planned that a protest march and demonstration should take place in that part of NewYork City referred to as the garment district. Some discussion was held regarding the printing of leaflets for distribution before and during the protest demonstration. The main theme was that it must be a united march of Negro and white people and that Puerto Ricans should also be included. It was intended to be a non-violent demonstration. Probable groups which could be invited to participate are peace organizations. One individual stated that he did not object to the plans made but he added that he personally preferred not to turn the other cheek at that moment. (U)

Considerable discussion was held concerning the name to be given the organizing force. It was agreed that in some manner it should include the words, "Solidarity Committee". (U)

Dissatisfaction was expressed with white workers who ignore the suffering of the Negro workers. It was felt that the present time would be the best time to carry out a demonstration in the midst of a large number of such workers, specifically in the garment district. Throughout the meeting it was noted that little discussion was held concerning the details of recent racial outbreaks of violence in the Harlem and Brooklyn areas of New York City. It appeared that the general purpose of the meeting was to take advantage of the current situation in order to promote the idea of integrated solidarity in the ranks of labor. (U)

Activities During Racial Demonstrations

On July 28, 1964, from 12:10 p.m. to 1:00 p.m., Special Agents of the Federal Bureau of Investigation observed a street rally on 38th Street west of Eighth Avenue, New York, New York, which was publicly advertised as sponsored by the Harlem Solidarity Committee.

Milton Rosen, identifying himself as being with the Progressive Labor Movement (PLM), started the rally by stating that the solidarity rally was called to fight police brutality, unemployment and poverty, in Harlem, and to fight for decent working conditions in the garment district.

Conrad Lynn, introduced as the National Chairman of the Freedom Now Party, addressed the rally and protested the arrests of people in Harlem for merely walking on the sidewalk and distribution leaflets. Lynn stated he was one of the persons arrested. He called for support of white workers in helping Negroes attain freedom.

Key Martin, introduced as a representative of the Youth Against War and Fascism (YAWF), addressed the rally and he described the recent racial incidents in Harlem and Brooklyn as a genuine rebellion and not a riot. He said the rebellion grew out of slum conditions, police brutality, and oppression of the Negro police.

James Robertson, introduced as a representative of "Spartacist", accused the police of denying the right of free speech to individuals who organized this rally since the police denied them the use of loudspeaker equipment. He stated that the "facist police" deny the right to demonstrate in Harlem and next they will be denying the rights of all citizens.

Vincent Copeland, who was introudced as a representative of the Workers World Party, demanded the removal of all police from Harlem and the right of Negro areas to police themselves. He demanded the arrest and prosecution of Lieutenant Thomas Gilligan, New York City Police Department.

Milton Rosen closed the rally by calling for the following:

1. The immediate removal of New York Police Commissioner Murphy.

2. The arrest and prosecution of Lieutenant Gilligan.

3. The opening of grand jury hearings to the public.

4. The removal of the injunctions banning demonstration in Harlem.

5. The impeachment of Mayor Wagner of New York City.

During the rally several placards were on display bearing such slogans as "Get Fascist Police Out of Harlem", "Stop the Racist Storm Troopers", "Down with Murphy's Occupation Army", and "Get the Kakistocratic Killer Kops Out of Harlem". Most placards bore the notation that they were printed by the YAWF.

Muslim Mosque Incorporated

Nature of Organization

The March 13, 1964 edition of the "New York Times", a daily newspaper published in New York, New York, contained an article on page 20 which indicated that Malcolm X (Little), former national official of the National of Islam (NOI) and Minister of NOI Mosque #7, New York, who broke with the NOI on March 8, 1964, publicly announced in New York City on March 12, 1964, that he had formed the Muslim Mosque, Incorporated (MMI). The MMI, according to the article, would be a broadly based politically oriented black nationalist movement for Negroes only, financed by voluntary contributions. In this public statement Malcolm X urged Negroes to abandon the doctrine of non-violence when it is necessary to defend themselves in the civil rights struggle, and he also suggested that Negroes form rifle clubs to protect their lives and property in times of emergencies in areas where the government is unable or unwilling to protect them.

On April 17, 1964, Malcolm X appeared over KYW-Television, Cleveland, Ohio, at which time he stated that the MMI does not stand for integration, but for complete freedom, justice, and equality, for Negroes. He stated that Islam was the religious philosophy of the MMI, while the political, economic and social philosophy was black nationalism.

Headquarters of the MMI are located in Suite 128, Hotel Theresa, 2090 Seventh Avenue, New York City, where they were established on March 16, 1964.

At this meeting, Shabazz expressed the opinion that, according to the cycle of historical events, cops will be murdered in the streets of Harlem. Shabazz characterized the rioters as "freedom fighters" and stated he himself approved of the rioting and looting. Shabazz also stated that the next step will be a demand that police be withdrawn from Harlem and stated that if they are not withdrawn, they will be killed.

Shabazz talked on a general theme of hate, but did not advocate or request those in attendance at the meeting to take action. Shabazz did not at any time state that his group was going to kill police or agitiate Negroes fo further violence, nor did he make any mention of a violent overthrow of the United States government.

"Negroes should stand on their rights even if it costs them their lives. An eye for an eye, a tooth for a tooth, a life for a life. That's the only way this thing can be brought to a head".

On July 2, 1964, one Benjamin (last name unknown) from MMI, New York, attended a meeting of the MMI at Philadelphia. Benjamin complained that the MMI inPhiladelphia is organizing too slowly and that if MMI in Philadelphia is not able to get members, what they need to do is create some excitement that will cause people to respond to a rally. According to Benjamin, blowing up a truck or bridge would create some excitement and only two persons would have to be used. One to act as the lookout and the other to do the job. To blow up a bridge a good swimmer would be needed, who could swim underwater and blow up the bridge at the base. (U)

Benjamin compared Philadelphia to Harlem, but he said the people in Harlem are more vicious but that the people in Philadelphia could also be aroused to become vicious. Benjamin then explained how to make a Molotov cocktail. He said that he talked to teenagers in New York City and they are doing the right thing. All they need is leadership and they are ready to do anything at anytime. Benjamin then indicated that the MMI in New York is not involved in the recent current violence in New York City. (U)

A flyer was made available on July 22, 1964, indicating the sponsor to be the HDC, 336 Lenox Avenue, phone FI 8-2254. The flyer requests all persons to join a mass demonstration to be held at 4:00 p.m., July 25, 1964, at 116th Street, Lenox Avenue, New York City.

The flyer sets forth, "The black people of Harlem have historically been terrorized by the Police Department of NewYork. They have been brutally maimed and murdered by these police. We, the people of Harlem, in order to partially alleviate these conditions demand:". The poster thereafter sets forth ten demands, among which is the immediate arrest and prosecution of Lieutenant Gilligan for first degree murder. It also sets forth the demand that public Grand Juries investigate police brutality against Negores and Puerto Ricans in MewYork City. One of the demands includes the statement that it is "our constitutional right to defend ourselves by any means necessary". It is noted the address of the HDC, 336 Lenox Avenue and phone number of the flyer are the same as the Harlem Progressive Labor Club.

William Epton, on July 20, 1964, reportedly stated that the PLM had nothing to do with the riots that took place over the weekend. Epton said he went outside the PLM club during the riots and when shooting started, he went back inside. Once inside, Epton noted that a bullet came through the window of the office. Epton stated "They" are starting a group to see the Mayor regarding the killing of the Powell boy and "they" will need some help concerning this. Epton probably referred to the HDC as "they". (U)

Two subsequent meetings held for the same purpose were attended by William Epton, who had reportedly stated it was the group's idea to fight the police because of police brutality against Negroes. Epton reportedly stated he had already organized the youth movement on 127th Street and 128th Street and whenever police were about to make an arrest, on a given signal, all Negroes would surround the officers and prevent any action on their part. Among some of the speakers scheduled to be present was William Epton, Chairman of the Harlem Progressive Labor Movement.

The flyer, mentioned above, contained the statement that "Lieutenant Thomas Gilligan (remember the name) shot James once and James fell to the ground. This fascist cop stood over him and fired two "more bullets into him. He then kicked the dead boy. This is the way the fascist and racist cops operate here in 'liberal' New York. Epton replied the demonstration was called by HDC, which he said is an independent organization and not part of PLM. Epton admitted that HDC is in the same office as PLM, but this was a temporary measure.

Ludlam asked if Epton's effort in this demonstration, as well as efforts in Harlem, were tied in anyway to CP, USA. Jerome calls for "public demonstrations in the street of Harlem", until Police Commissioner Murphy is dismissed. "And when Murphy's uniformed goons attack the crowd with gas and guns, let us not run and let us not pray -let us fight back".

"This is not a proposal for wild and reckless riots in which the killer-cops will be able to massacre the people," he writes. "No. It will take organization-through such groups as the Harlem Defense Council".

Provisional Organizing Committee for a Marxist - Leninist Communist Party (POC)

Nature of Organization

The POC, comprised mostly of Puerto Ricans and Negroes, split from the Communist Party, United States of America (CP, USA) in 1958. It was then known as an ultra-left caucus within the CP, USA, which felt that the CP, USA was not revolutionary enough. Its basic aim is to supplant the CP, USA and become the real Marxist-Leninist CP in the United States. Its total national membership amounts to no more than ninety to one hundred members, approximately fifty of whom are in the New York City area. The POC line is the same as that of the CP of China in that it rejects peaceful coexistence and projects the eventual violent overthrow of the capitalist governments of the world, especially that of the United States. Nature of Organization

A Socialist Workers Party (SWP) minority group under the leadership of National Committee member, Sam Ballan, also known as Sam Marcy, split from the SWP in February, 1959, after many years of program and policy differences on varied issues concerning tactics and interpretation of political events. This minority group accused the SWP of liquidating itself by departing from the Marxist precepts of Leon Trotsky and retreating from the fight for the world socialist revolution. This minority group hoped to build a revolutionary party with a complete proletarian orientation for the purpose of overthrowing capitalism in the United States and throughout the world. This group took the name, Workers World Party. The National and New York City Headquarters of the WWP are located at 46 West 21st Street, New York, New York. "James Powell - 15 year old!! - a ninth grade student - is dead: His life was cut short by a policeman's bullet. He is dead - while the racist who insulted him and the trigger-happy cop who shot him are set free. James Powell was killed by:

"A racist cop who says it was his duty to protect a white racist building superintendent and shoot a fifteen year old black youth to death.

"James Powell was killed by:

"A fascist-type police force that recruits and trains people for brutality. Any decent human being would quit before two weeks on the force - a gang of storm troopers.

"James Powell was killed by:

"Political bosses who praise Murphy's K.K.K. in blue and call on them to be 'tougher', and other politicans who merely look the other way after each killing.

"James Powell was killed by:

"Millionnaire bosses who own the sweatshops, banks, and stores and pay the police that protect the rich and harass the poor. They use the tactic of divide and rule.

"Their newspapers preach racism to try to pit the white workers against their black brothers. They invent scare stories, magnify minor incidents with huge headlines, and shed phony tears about 'subway violence'. But they never say where the continuous violence comes from - from the racist cop that they try to depict as a 'victim'.

"Their police forces enforce their racist system throughout the country by killing and arresting the poor people whom the bosses have driven to desperation. The police are given the job of strike-breakers in the struggle for equality - of terrorizing people into fear of protest.

"James Powell was the latest casualty in the war of the bosses against the workers and unemployed, young and old, black and white. The only way to fight against this war on the masses in independent mass organization to fight back."

The NP was reactivated in May, 1964 under the name, USNP. It has no actual headquarters or official membership and utilizes Post Office Box 443, Lenox Hill Station, New York, New York 10028 as its mailing address. Luke Dommer, although he has no official title as an officer of the USNP controls its activities. Even though the USNP claims to be solely anti-communist, it has in the past displayed anti-semitic tendencies.

Counter-picketing Activities

At approximately 9:00 p.m., on July 24, 1964, two members of the United States Nationalist Party (USNP) were observed distributing handbills against the Congress of Racial Equality (CORE) picketing then going on outside the headquarters of the New York City Police Department (NYCPD), 240 Centre Street, New York City. The handbill advertised a picketing by the USNP starting at 11:30 p.m. on July 25, 1964 in support of Lieutenant Thomas Gilligan, NYCPD.

On July 27, 1964, from 8:05 p.m. to 8:55 p.m., approximately 15 members of the USNP demonstrated outside NYCPD headquarters, 240 Centre Street, New York City, in opposition to the CORE pickets and in support of Lieutenant Gilligan.

After the above demonstration, the USNP proceeded, by private automobile to Gracie Mansion, New York City, official residence of Mayor Robert F. Wagner where 7 members of the USNP resumed picketing in support of Lieutenant Gilligan. The picketing here began at 9:50 p.m. and terminated at 10:10 p.m. There were no incidents or arrests resulting from any demonstrations conducted by the USNP.

Reaction of Nationally Recognized
Negro Civil Rights Leaders to Demonstrations

At 5:20 p.m., on July 19, 1964, Bayard Rustin and 75 Negro youths were observed on the steps of the Mount Morris Church, at 122nd Street and Morris Avenue, New York City. Rustin told the police that he had gathered the youths together to have them go through the streets of Harlem on that evening urging people to stay off the street to forestall the possibility of additional rioting.

On July 19, 1964, Bayard Rustin attended the fumeral of James Powell at the Levy-Delany Funeral Home, 2250 Seventh Avenue, New York City. Immediately following the service, Rustin left the church and attempted to quiet the restive crowd of Negroes that had gathered in front of the funeral home. Rustin entered a sound truck and urged them to go home, but his request was received with replies of "Uncle Tom".

On July 19, 1964, James Farmer, National Director of the Congress of Racial Equality (CORE), while appearing on a WABC-TV program, said he had evidence which "we" consider to be conclusive that the shooting amounted to murder. He said Lieutenant Gilligan should be arrested.

Farmer did not elaborate on the evidence, beyond saying that there was no knife in the hands of the youth, as the police had charged.

Farmer said he had seen a blood orgy on the part of the police on Saturday night. He said he had seen policemen firing guns wildly into the air, shooting into windows, into tenement houses and the Theresa Hotel.

The police were hysterical, Farmer said, adding that it was his opinion that the Police Commissioner, in the posture which he had adopted in the past few months of self-congratulations for the police department, must assume part of the responsibility for that hysteria.

"The New York Times"
July 20, 1964

On July 20, 1964, James Farmer, in commenting on a statement of Acting Mayor Paul Screvane of New York City, said he welcomed the statement but that it was "inadequate in this hour of crisis". In his statement Farmer said:

"We are pleased that more Negro police will be used in Harlem.

"The Grand Jury investigation of the murder of James Powell is welcome, though far too long delayed.

"Review by the Deputy Mayor of the Police Department's Complaint Board findings is insufficient to insure fair play for the minority community. A real independent Civilian Review Board is a necessity now.

"The authority of the proposed City Affairs Committee must be defined.

"The intensive recruiting of new police is desirable. CORE points that there are other areas of City Government where Negroes should be recruited."

"The New York Times"

On July 20, 1964, Whitney Young, Executive Director of the National Urban League said that Police Commissioner Murphy of New York was partly to blame for the rioting in Harlem.

Young said also that he put the rest of the blame on the climate created by the Republican Party's nomination of Senator Barry Goldwater for President.

"The New York Times"

James Farmer said on July 21, 1964, that he had assessed the mood in the ghettos and had found it still ugly. He said if prompt action was not taken against Lieutenant Gilligan, there would be trouble that night.

"New York Herald Tribune"

On July 21, 1964, James Farmer denied an allegation that walkie talkie radios had been used by youths during the rioting in Harlem.

"The New York Times"
July 22, 1964

On July 21, 1964, James Farmer, in referring to an announcement of President Johnson, that the FBI had been ordered into the Harlem riots, said the FBI should launch a full and thorough investigation of all the circumstances surrounding that terrible incident. He said "there had been provocation and brutal behavior by the police - by all the circumstances we mean both the bottle throwing and billy-swinging."

"New York Herald Tribune"
July 22, 1964

In commenting on Mayor Wagner's television talk on July 22, 1964, James Farmer received the Mayor's appeal with guarded approval. He said he was glad the Mayor urged more police recruitment among minority groups; he welcomed the Mayor's decision to spend time with minority group committees and he said he shared the Mayor's sentiments regarding law and order being necessary to further civil rights.

Farmer said, however, that the appeal did not go far enough. He said he had hoped the Mayor would favor an independent Civilian Review Board.

"New York Herald Tribune"
July 23, 1964

On July 22, 1964, Roy Wilkins, Executive Secretary, National Association for the Advancement of Colored People (NAACP) said: "Everyone, church leaders, businessmen and leaders of the community, must sit down and find ways of ending the violence which has given us a black eye - and it has also given the civil rights movement a difficult obstacle".

"New York Herald Tribune"
July 23, 1964

"The New York Times", July 25, 1964, contained an article captioned "Police Ban March in Harlem Today; Sponsor Defiant". OTHER PER SEALED COURT ORDER

NY-

"The New York Times", July 28, 1964, page 15, column 2, reported that the Reverend Martin Luther King, Jr., met with Mayor Robert F. Wagner on the night of July 27, 1964, in New York City. According to the article, Livingston L. Wingate, a member of the newly formed United Council of Harlem organizations, expressed displeasure at the presence of King in the city, and said representatives of the Harlem community groups were mad at the Mayor for importing King and resented King's discussing community problems with the Mayor before talking to them.

[NY T-153

On July 29, 1964, the Reverend Martin Luther King, Jr., while holding a press conference in New York City, announced that his presence in New York was to support absolutely the "Unity Council" and their demands which they had presented to the Mayor. He said he was not in New York to subvert the "Unity Council" of Harlem because it is the true representative of the Harlem community and that he had made that clear to the Mayor.

King said he had told the Mayor that: "Law and order cannot exist in a vacuum --- law and order must be based on confidence of the people in the city authorities.

"The kind of non-violence for which I stand can flourish when the basic economic and social needs of the oppressed are being met - and those who rule our cities have a major responsibility to give vigorous leadership to that end".

"The New York Times"
July 29, 1964

On July 29, 1964, four leaders of major civil rights organizations met in New York City and urged their members to observe a "broad curtailment if not total moratorium" on all mass demonstrations until after the Presidential election on November 3, 1964. The four who signed the statement urging a halt to demonstrations, looting and rioting were Roy Wilkins, Martin Luther King, Whitney M. Young, Jr., and A. Philip Randolph, Chairman of the Negro American Labor Council (NALC).

Two other leaders who were present at the meeting but who did not sign the declaration were James Farmer and John Lewis, Chairman of the Student Non-Violent Coordinating Committee.

"The New York Times"
July 30, 1964

On July 31, 1964, Bayard Rustin conferred with an individual who represented himself to be Don Alexander of Radio Station WLUB, New York City. Alexander requested a statement from Rustin as to the Mayor's rejection of the demands of civil rights leaders for the establishment of an independent Civilian Review Board. To this, Rustin said he had maintained from the very beginning that two things were necessary to insure racial peace in New York; that a police review board be established and that Lieutenant Gilligan of the NYCPD be suspended.

Rustin said it was obvious that "we" (Negro leaders) could not go to the Negro community and ask that they refrain from demonstrating unless the city officials of New York City are going to accede to these demands.

~~SECRET~~ (U)

~~SECRET~~ (U)

Rustin said it was tragic that Mayor Wagner had not seen fit to act. He said under these circumstances he would not urge anyone in New York to respect the request of civil rights leaders, that they not demonstrate.

Rustin's opinion of Police Commissioner Murphy was sought by Alexander, prompting him to say that Murphy was the chief culprit and should be dismissed immediately. The grounds for Murphy's dismissal Rustin said, should be: "That he used more 'violence' than necessary during the riots; that he continues to permit crime in Harlem; and has failed to move against [redacted]." b6 b7C

INJUNCTION AGAINST FURTHER DEMONSTRATION

Progressive Labor Movement,

Jesse Gray

On July 25, 1964, an injunction restraining certain defendants from demonstrating was obtained in New York Supreme Court, New York County, and providing for hearing on July 27, 1964, to show cause why an order should not be made against such demonstrating, and affording any other relief as might be proper.

The injunction was sought by the New York Police Department, with the City of New York and People of the State of New York by Frank S. Hogan, New York County District Attorney, as Plaintiff, against Milton Rosen, William Epton, Jesse Gray, John Doe, Richard Roe, and Mary Roe, these last three being fictitious but intended as members, officers and directors of PLM, HDC and CCH, as well as any persons or organizations associated with them.

The restraint obtained and sought to be extended was to cover a specified area of Manhattan (New York County), generally known as Harlem.

The order was granted on July 25, 1964, by Justice Charles Marks, on the basis of an affidavit by Sanford D. Garelik, Assistant Chief Inspector, NYCPD. He made note of the current disturbances of the peace, and set out that on July 18, 1964, Epton and others had made public an intention

The entire transcript is set out hereinafter.

Garelik also stated that on July 20, 1964, defendants distributed in Harlem, leaflets, a copy of one was made another attachment, in which it was asserted:

"The events of the last two days have shown that if we are not organized we are just a mob and not in a position to properly deal with the enemy."

Further, the affidavit alleged that defendants had threatened a march on a police precinct on West 135th Street, that police reports had established that Epton at a PLM meeting on July 19, 1964, had said incidents would be created on side streets to draw police there, who would then be the target of missiles and bottles with inflammatory and destructive substances. "Block Captains" would instruct on preparation of such weapons.

An accompanying affidavit of support by District Attorney Hogan urged that the order be issued to prevent violation of the New York State criminal anarchy statute.

will take it by any means necessary as we know the beast that we are dealing with is that we have to create a revolution in this country and we will create a new government that is run by the people. That is run by the black people and some of the poor white people who are catching hell too. And they don't know it yet but if they don't join with us when the deal goes down we don't have time to wait for them. We are going to roll on. We are going to roll on the freedom and independence and liberation. Those who are ready to come with us and stand with us and join the Harlem Defense Council to help protect the mothers and protect the streets and our neighborhoods they will give their money to those mothers who have joined together to save their sons. They will go back into their blocks and organize their blocks into defense committees so when the deal goes through they will be able to be in the street tens of thousands strong ready to face that man. And we know how to use weapons just like they know how to use weapons. And when the deal goes down we have to be ready to confront them and beat them. I tell you brothers and sisters the message that we are carrying they will carry around Harlem on every corner every Saturday 9 to 6 P.M. to enlighten our people, to organize our people and to make our people aware of the fact of what is happening with these six youngsters and to make our people aware of the fact that in order for us to achieve our freedom and independence we must organize and fight this beast and destroy him. Epton and HDC and Abraham Unger appeared for Gray and CCH after the proceedings started.

Detective John Rivera, Bureau of Special Services (BSS) New York City Police Department testified that Epton spoke on July 18, 1964, at street meeting at 115th Street and Lenox Ave., and said there was going to be a demonstration, not necessarily peaceful, that he (Epton) was preaching violence, also that people of Harlem should kill some cops. Epton also said to Rivera, that Rivera as a police officer of Puerto Rican origin, should be aware of subjugation of Puerto Ricans and should join in fight against cops.

Rivera testified he was equipped with a device to receive Epton's remarks for relay to a recorder.

Patrolman Francis Koopman testified he was at same location with receiving device to record Epton's remarks by way of Rivera's transmitter. He produced the recording and a transcript thereof.

Rivera then identified that material and noted that Epton had said the Negro must be free, that they were going to kill cops and judges, that no revolution can be won by peaceful means, that they would have to fight, and they would not be fully free until they smash this state totally and completely.

Patrol Clifton King testified that on July 19, 1964, he had attended a meeting at 336 Lenox Ave., where Epton had spoken of organizing a march on July 25, 1964, beginning at Lenox Ave. and 114th St., thence north on Lenox Ave., to the 135th St. police station. People would join at each block, and on side streets disturbances would be created, to suck cops into the block and, hemmed in, would be the object of bottles filled with flammable liquid. Each block would have a captain. King obtained a leaflet headed "Stop the Cops", placed in evidence.

SECRET (U)

Detective Fritz O. Behr of BSS testified concerning a demonstration at the United Nations on July 20, 1964, at which Gray was interviewed by the press. Gray was asked about a leaflet with the name of CCH appearing on it, and Gray had told an unidentified reporter that PLM had made up the leaflet for his use. This leaflet called for organizing the demonstration on July 25, 1964.

The plaintiff closed their case, and Lynn was given to August 3, 1964, for filing of briefs. Unger requested a hearing for his clients, this being set for July 28, 1964.

At the July 28, 1964, session of the hearing, Detective Frederick Jenoure, Bureau of Special Services (BSS) of the NYCPD, testified to statements of Jesse Gray made at the meetingof July 19, 1964. Gray asked all to attend a demonstration at the United Nations on July 20, 1964, and also called for 100 men ready to die, who would be trained in guerilla warfare.

Another police witness was Detective John Rivera, BSS, on duty outside the meeting place on July 19, 1964, who testified to disorder outside the building. When asked on cross-examination if he had heard other inflammatory remarks on conditions in Harlem, Rivera said he could recall only two such instances in his three and one-half years experience in that area, although he had heard criticism of conditions many times.

Junius Griffin, a Negro, who is a reporter for the "New York Times", appeared as a witness for the plaintiff under subpoena and verified his story under his by line in that newspaper's issue of July 20, 1964. He had written that Gray, at the July 19, 1964, meeting had called for "100 skilled black revolutionaries who are ready to die" to correct alleged police brutality in Harlem. On cross-examination, Griffin said his article may have been edited, but the quotation was not out of context. Griffin also noted that guerilla warfare was mentioned by Gray in connection with Mississippi and as likely in New York.

SECRET (U)

Clarence Jones, appearing as co-counsel with Unger for Gray, urged Judge Culkin to dismiss the application saying right of petition had been taken away, that there was no proof of crime of conspiracy on part of Gray. This was denied.

Gray in testimony, denied any connection with PLM or HDC, denied any help in organizing demonstration against which preliminary injunction was obtained, or participation in preparation of leaflet in evidence. He claimed demonstration held at UN on July 20, 1964, was peaceful and aimed at promoting demands for improvement of Harlem conditions. Gray said his remarks on July 19, 1964, were in protest against police action and a call for a civilian board to review allegations of police brutality and for investigation of shooting of James Powell. He related that at this meeting of July 19, 1964, he had said many people believe that guerilla warfare might be necessary in Mississippi and something might be needed in New York. Secondly, he had said one hundred dedicated men were needed to defend Negroes by organizing a total of 50,000 to support demands for improvements in employment, housing and other social betterment. He denied any intention to participate in demonstration scheduled by PLM and HDC.

On July 29, 1964, Jesse Gray testified that he had not participated in any of the violence in Harlem, but that he was the victim of an unprovoked blow by a policeman resulting in a cut on his face that required stitching at a hospital where he saw other people who had been injured. He attributed the looting to a general frustration but said only a minute percentage of people engaged in looting.

Judge Culkin asked what he had done to ease the riot situation, and Gray responded that he had called for an investigation of the shooting of Powell, that he had sought a disciplined reaction to that incident.

On Cross-examination, Gray admitted use of phrase "guerilla warfare" with reference to Mississippi, and that he had said something had to be done in New York. He admitted making a call for one hundred black revolutionaries, but said it was not a call for action against the police.

Gray said he had not had contact with William Epton since a rent strike early in the year, and did not know of participation by PLM in rent strike demonstrations. He was shown photos depicting Gray and others at such a demonstration on February 8, 1964, and denied knowledge of the identity of the others. He said he could not recall if Epton was present at the UN demonstration on July 20, 1964. He could not recall if William Patterson attended the meeting on July 19, 1964, although he admitted he was acquainted with him. He said he did not know Robert Thompson. He denied any leaflet was prepared by PLM or CCH, and said the leaflet in evidence was prepared without his knowledge or consent, although admitting he had not made any protest.

On redirect examination Gray said many demonstrations have been held by CCH, with no objection to participation by others, as it is an organization open to all races. He said "black revolutionaires" meant to him persons going out into the community to bring about a change for the better.

Patrolman Francis Koopman identified the photographs as taken of a demonstration on February 8, 1964, and Detective Rivera testified to the identification of Stefan Martinot and Fred Jerome, appearing in the photos, as members of PLM and Fred Halstead as a member of the Socialist Workers Party.

The hearing was then closed, with Judge Culkin setting July 31, 1964, for the filing of briefs, decision to be rendered thereafter.

B. Congress of Racial Equality

The Congress of Racial Equality will be referred to as CORE in this report unless reference is being made to a chapter of CORE. The designation then will be proceeded by the name of the chapter.

The Communist Party, USA, will be referred to as the CPUSA.

ORIGIN AND PURPOSES

b7C

On April 14, 1964, [redacted] Community Relations Director, CORE, 38 Park Row, New York City, made available a brochure which sets forth background information concerning CORE.

Pertinent information in this brochure is set forth below.

"The first CORE group was organized in 1942 by Farmer (JAMES FARMER, National CORE Director) and a group of students at the University of Chicago who believed that it was time, in his words, 'to substitute bodies for exhortations.' The bodies went into service immediately in sit-ins and on picket lines. CORE spread across the country as its local chapters pioneered in non-violent techniques. Its early vistories included desegregation of dime store lunch counters in St. Louis and Baltimore, theatres in Denver and Washington, a swimming pool at the Palisades Amusement Park in New Jersey. The list has kept growing.

"There were sit-ins at Miami lunch counters, a Pilgrimage of Prayer in Richmond to protest the closing of Virginia's public schools, a campaign for voter registration in four counties of South Carolina. During the first year of that campaign, new Negro voters in one precinct elected 16 or 17 representatives to the Democratic county convention.

In Columbia, the Negro vote was decisive in defeating a segregationist candidate for mayor. In recent years, CORE chapters have been operating extensively in the Deep South, concentrating on the fundamental problems of voter registration, Negro employment and integration of public accommodations.

"CORE's non-violent methods have also been increasingly effective in desegregating employment, schools and housing in the North. CORE is content with neither promises not tokenism, and its aggressiveness has sometimes provoked criticism. At one point, The New York Times complained editorially that CORE's tactics were inconveniencing 'innocent bystanders.' CORE replied that, on the issue of civil rights, there can be no innocent bystanders. Those who stand by while others are made targets for discrimination and bigotry must share in the guilt.

"By the time sit-ins attracted national attention in 1960, direct action had been enabling CORE members to fight discrimination in their own communities for 18 years. CORE's action projects have been carried out by local people whenever appropriate, and they have always been non-violent...

"CORE sees discrimination as a problem for all Americans. Not just Negroes suffer from it and not just Negroes will profit when it is eliminated. Furthermore, Negroes alone cannot eliminate it. Equality cannot be seized any more than it can be given. It must be a shared experience.

"CORE is an inter-racial group. Membership involves no religious affiliation. It is open to anybody who opposes racial discrimination, who wants to fight it and who will adhere to CORE's rules. The only people not welcome in CORE are 'those Americans whose loyalty is primarily to a foreign power and those whose tactics and beliefs are contrary to democracy and human values.' CORE has only one enemy: discrimination, and only one function; to fight that enemy. It has no desire to complicate its task by acquiring a subversive taint, and it avoids partisan politics of any kind...

"Much of CORE's work is carried on by its chapters. These vary in structure according to their locations and the specific problems they face. They support themselves through membership dues and contributions from local supporters...

"The national office co-ordinates the work of its local chapters. It organizes training conferences and workshops which teach the theory and practice of non-violent action and give chapters an opportunity to exchange ideas and information. Its field staff encourages the formation of new groups and assists existing ones....

"National CORE plans and carries out action projects which are designed to focus attention on problems of national significance. The Freedom Rides, in 1961, are the best known example of this..."

On April 14, 1964, [redacted] advised that each local chapter is autonomous and acts independently from the National Office of CORE. He stated that as long as these chapters conform to the general policies of CORE, they act with the approval of CORE. However, in those instances where the local chapter of CORE acts contrary to the policy set forth by the National Office [redacted] the local chapter faces disciplinary action by the National Office.

As an example, [redacted] cited the action of the Brooklyn Chapter of CORE in calling for a "stall-in" in opposition to the policy of CORE, resulting in CORE completely suspending all CORE activities of the Brooklyn Chapter. The "stall-in" calls for "tying up" all main traffic arteries to the World's Fair, New York City, on April 22, 1964.

The only time ZEKOR ANTONSEN's influence or control in the functioning of S.I. CORE is shown, is when a picketing is arranged by S.I. CORE.

Since ANTONSEN is self-employed, he can leave his employment at any time and make arrangements for the picketing as well as participate in it.

ANTONSEN, due to his nature, likes to participate in this type of activity and the membership of S.I. CORE, recognizing this trait, permits him to do so inasmuch as almost all the other members are unable to participate.

ERDINE ANTONSEN, the wife of ZEKOR, has little influence in policy making decisions of S.I. CORE.

An example of the influence of ZEKOR and ERDINE ANTONSEN in the activities of S.I. CORE is cited in the fact that the membership of S.I. CORE recently voted against a resolution made jointly by ZEKOR and ERDINE ANTONSEN that S.I. CORE participate in National CORE's "stall-in" at the World's Fair.

Members of S.I. CORE know that ZEKOR ANTONSEN drinks, but though ZEKOR ANTONSEN always "has a few in him" he is never "really drunk".

At the present time, as far as informant knows, there is only one CPUSA group operating on Staten Island, New York. This is the "Industrial" type group headed by [redacted] and whose members work in some industry or in some trade. XW b6 b7C

Informant believes, although he cannot say definitely, that ZEKOR and ERDINE ANTONSEN go to CPUSA meetings in New York City or "somewhere outside of Staten Island" and that in addition to the ANTONSENs the only other person he thinks might attend the same meetings as the ANTONSENs is [redacted] wife of [redacted] Informant reached this opinion based on comments [redacted] has made concerning [redacted] CPUSA activity. XW b6 b7C

[redacted] are no longer friendly with the ANTONSENs and if they are active CPUSA members, belong to "some" CPUSA unit other than the one to which the ANTONSENs belong. (U)

It is possible there is a CPUSA unit separate from the "Industrial" type group on Staten Island. That if this is so, informant thinks this unit has been established by the CPUSA as a separate unit set apart from the "Industrial" type group and this might be an explanation why [redacted] described ZEKOR ANTONSEN as the Chairman of the CPUSA on Staten Island, New York, and recognized as such. (U) b6 b7C

The informant cannot understand why the "Industrial" type group considered bringing ERDINE and possibly ZEKOR ANTONSEN into their group. Informant stated that it is informant's opinion that plans to bring the ANTONSENs into the "Industrial" type group have been discontinued because [redacted] would resign immediately if they were brought into the group, and because ANTONSEN in addition to his drinking habits, does not like to follow orders and tends to do things on his own regardless of the consequences. (U) b6 b7C

Concerning ZEKOR ANTONSEN's activity in S.I. CORE, the informant has formed the opinion that while members of the "Industrial" group do not object to the ANTONSENs working in S.I. CORE, they feel that their work should be discreet and "behind the scenes." That is the reason members of the "Industrial" type group were so disturbed when ZEKOR ANTONSEN lead an S.I. CORE picket line in front of Public School Number 15 on Staten Island, New York, on May 21, 1964. This picket line demonstration was conducted by S.I. At the fourth day's session on June 19, 1963, of the National Youth Conference, CPUSA, which was held in New York City, from June 16-June 19, 1963, DANIEL RUBIN stated that in order to accomplish the objectives of the CPUSA Youth which are: 1) unite youth against monopoly enslavement, (2) build alliances between youth movements and the working class and (3) examining the issues, organization forms and the channels they take in order to establish Negro-white unity.

As to number 3, he listed the issues as peace, Negro rights, civil rights and job security and he stated to develop mass movements around these issues we must approach mass movements through: (1) mass organization such as the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People (NAACP), CORE; (2) labor unions; (3) "left organizations" and (4) the Party and its public voice.

This summary reflected that during the course of the session, BENJAMIN J. DAVIS stated that our Party in the South must find a center around which to rally the progressive forces down there. This is necessary more than ever. The South will supply this country with new reserves for peace and progress. We must get into this struggle in the South now. It is true there are several obstacles in our way. We must, nevertheless, get in and help solve some of these problems; otherwise we will be set back for years. In the past, the Party was ahead of its time, but now we have not played the role in the Negro movement that we are capable of playing. We, therefore, need some kind of new left center that would unite the Negro people. We can provide personnel for this. We must do at least as much as the Student Non-Violent Coordinating Committee, CORE or the Negro writers. We have the ideological means. We must try to get into all these organizations. XU

This article reports that an army of 200 "toughs", believed to be part of a group known to local police as the "White Shirters", were spotted in the forefront of the Harlem rioting. They were also spotted at the inflamatory rally that Harlem rent strike leader, JESSE GRAY, masterminded at the Mount Morris Presbyterian Church in Harlem. The article further reports that it was at this rally that JESSE GRAY called for 100 men willing to die in the crusade against so-called police brutality.

"New York Times", issue of July 30, 1964, page 12, contains an article captioned, "Gray Denies Role in Inciting Riots". This article reports that a stay against demonstrations in Harlem by JESSE GRAY and the CCH was continued in New York Supreme Court despite denials by GRAY that he had instigated any of the present disorders. The article reports that GRAY testified that after the July 19, 1964, Church rally in which he called for "100 men ready to die for freedom", he went home and spent the second night of the Harlem rioting "trying to finish a document on European history". GRAY further explained that his statement regarding "100 men" was not aimed at guerilla warfare in Harlem or elsewhere, but that he was simply seeking a trained community organization for better schools, housing, jobs, and against police brutality.

The "New York Times", issue of July 21, 1964, page 22, in an article describing the racial violence in New York City, reported that JESSE GRAY, on July 20, 1964, called a rally to be held at the United Nations Building in New York City on this date to protest police brutality.

On July 20, 1964, a demonstration was held at the United Nations Building in New York City to protest police brutality. This was a spontaneous demonstration called by no special organization; however, JESSE GRAY was among the speakers at the rally.

On July 31, 1964, a Militant Labor Forum was held at the headquarters of the Socialist Workers Party (SWP), 116 University Place, New York City, to "protest police terrorism in Harlem". This rally was attended by approximately 200 individuals, and featured various Negro speakers, including Major WILLIAMS from CCH. WILLIAMS, during his talk, stated that rioting should and would continue in regard to Negro development; that looting is to be condoned as a mark of the oppressed Negro race reacting to their oppressors; that the "Big Six" Negro leaders are not representatives of the Negro people; and, that he had previously asked for 100 men who were willing to die for the Negro race.

On September 1, 1964, JESSE GRAY passed out handbills at 125th Street and 7th Avenue, in New York City. One of these handbills, issued by the CCH, was captioned, "Tenant News", and bore the heading "Powell's Murderer Set Free". The handbill announced that as a result of the Grand Jury refusal to indict the murderer of JAMES POWELL, all Harlem is alarmed and angry at the injustice; that Mayor WAGNER must be told to find a way to reopen the case so justice can be done. The handbill concludes by noting that as a result of the Grand Jury decision, "Any white policeman who wants to kill a Negro will not have to worry about being tried for murder".

New York School Boycott

The "New York Times", issue of March 16, 1964, page 1, contains an article captioned, "Galamison Sees Boycott Success". This article reports that the Reverend MILTON A. GALAMISON, a civil rights leader in New York City, stated that through the intervention of the militant CCH, he received the unsolicited support for the boycott from MALCOLM X. The article also reports that MALCOLM X addressed a rally at the Milbank Center, 32 West 118th Street, New York City, at the invitation of JESSE GRAY, at which time GRAY stated that the rally had been called to "work up support for the boycott".

A characterization of MALCOLM X is included in the characterization of the Muslin Mosque, Incorporated set forth in the Appendix Section.

New York Worlds Fair Stall-In

"The New York Times", issue of April 21, 1964, contains an article captioned, "Stall-In Leaders Defy Plea to Bar Tie-Up Tomorrow". This article reports that civil rights leaders went ahead with plans to conduct a massive traffic stall-in at the opening of the World's Fair in New York despite a court order barring such demonstrations. The article further notes that JESSE GRAY and members of the CCH were among those listed in this court order.

Miscellaneous

During an enlarged meeting of the National Executive Committee of the CP held in New York City on December 21, 1963, GUS HALL, General Secretary of the CP, stated that JESSE GRAY is leading the tenant councils in Harlem in their strikes against landlords who maintain slum houses and that this is having a definite impact on the entire racial struggle. Address

The current Manhattan Telephone Directory reflects that the address for the National Office of the NAACP continues to be 20 West 40th Street, New York City.

Membership

"The Crisis," official organ of the NAACP, issue of February, 1964, contains information concerning NAACP highlights for the year 1963. The following is an excerpt from the article:

"Our Executive Secretary, Roy Wilkins, reported to the annual meeting, January 6, that paid memberships shot past the half-million mark for the first time in our history. The most astonishing gains were made in youth memberships, which were increased by a whopping 47 percent over 1962.

"Complete tabulations were not in at press time; however, as of December 24, Mr. Wilkins reported the membership figures to be 426,361 adult members of branches, 55,867 youth members, 10,562 life members and 8,026 members-at-large. This comes to a grand total of 515,396."

Policy Concerning Communism

The NAACP at its national conventions since 1950, has passed resolutions rejecting Communism and prohibiting Communists from holding office or membership in the NAACP.

LOREN MILLER was interviewed at his law office, then located at 219 West 3rd Street, Los Angeles, by Special Agents MERLE L. PARKER and VINCENT W. HUGHES on February 20, 1952. He stated he had long been active in the fight against racial discrimination and had attended meetings in the civil rights field at which Communists were present in the early 1930's. He said that during this period he had been affiliated with the International Labor Defense (ILD); that he had gone to Russia in the early 1930's with a group of Negroes to make a film, but that the idea was eventually rejected by the Russian Government.

He said that the motive of those who went was simply the making of a film and that their interests were not political. After returning from Russia, he worked in New York for a while and then returned to Los Angeles to practice law, at which time he became active in the National Negro Congress and was Executive Secretary of that organization in Los Angeles about 1938. He said that during this period he was undoubtedly a member of other organizations sponsored by the Communists. He said he had also become a member of the National Lawyers Guild primarily because this was the only bar association which would accept Negroes at the time.

MILLER said he had never been a member of the CP, primarily because he did not want to submit to their complete discipline. He said efforts had been made to recruit him into the CP, but he had resisted such efforts.

He described himself at the time of interview as being anti-Communist. He said that he had a great interest in seeing that Negroes achieve complete equality and integration with all other American citizens.

BENJAMIN J. The branch of government that has been most sensitive to the problems of the Negro people has been the Judiciary. Therefore, it has been through the courts that the most significant strides have been made in the Negro liberation struggle. ~~X~~ U

DAVIS stated that a time limit must be put on the Jim Crow System in the United States. The Supreme Court's formula of all deliberate speed as enunciated in the 1954 decision has just not worked. The Socialist Workers Party (SWP) convention was held in New York City July 18-21, 1963. A resolution on the "Negro Question" was adopted. This resolution points out the trend of Negroes today to insist not on gradual granting of full equality but rather the sharp and massive demands for immediate and full equality. The resolution also describes the leading Negro groups which includes the NAACP.

The Party plan of action is one of "behind the scenes support". The Party does not plan to boost one group or trend over another but rather to support all groups until the Negro masses decide which type of group or plan of action is best.

A meeting of the National CP Negro Commission was held on February 22, 1964, at 306 East 43rd Street, Chicago, Illinois. At this meeting, BENJAMIN DAVIS of New York gave the main report. He stated that the Party will have to concern itself with the conventions of the Negro organizations such as the NAACP. In this connection, DAVIS stated that the NAACP was not prepared to take steps in projecting themselves into the main stream of the civil rights struggle. X U

On April 26, 1964, a CP Sub-committee meeting on the NAACP affairs, which was opened to some non-Party members, was held at the Chelsea Hotel in New York City. The purpose of this meeting was to formulate X U plans for the forthcoming NAACP Convention to be held in Washington, D. C. June 22-29, 1964, and to analyze the role of the CP in connection with the civil rights struggle of the NAACP. (U)

The meeting was opened by LESTER DAVIS who stated that the problems facing the Party today in connection with the civil rights struggle and the NAACP are twofold; namely, to plan on the tactics and program to be utilized in connection with the forthcoming NAACP Convention in Washington, D. C., and to evaluate the role of the NAACP in the current civil rights struggle. He pointed out that many people have taken negative attitudes toward the role of the NAACP indicating that they are not militant enough and are not taking a direct action approach to this civil rights struggle. At this time the floor was opened for viewpoints on the extent of the role of the NAACP in connection with the civil rights struggle and whether the Party should continue its work within the NAACP or should direct its activity to other organizations whichare more militant in their approach to the civil rights problem. (U)

JOHN SILVERBERG stated that status must be maintained within the NAACP, but we must also seek ways of channelizing our activities elsewhere in the civil rights struggle. He stated that we must not abandon other civil rights organizations which are active in the civil rights struggle. (U)

CAROLINE BALLIN stated that we owe leadership to the membership of the NAACP. She pointed out that the current leadership is not the organization but we must continue to give leadership to the membership of the NAACP. She stated that (U)

generally speaking the current Negro leadership in the civil rights movement does not know where it is going. X U

WILLIAM L. PATTERSON also stated that the leadership of the NAACP is not the NAACP itself. He stated that the struggle on the civil rights issue is not simple but there is no justification for abandoning the NAACP. He stated that there was never a greater need for Party people to be active in connection with the civil rights struggle of the NAACP. PATTERSON went on to state that the CP by abandoning the NAACP would not break up the NAACP but it would simply permit the current guiding forces to do as they wish in connection with the Negro problem. PATTERSON went on to state that we must continue our effort to bring about unity of the Negro people now. He pointed out various vehicles that could be used in furthering the civil rights struggle and mentioned specifically that we should use to advantage in connection with the civil rights struggle, the United Auto Workers civil rights resolution which links the plight of Negroes to the poverty struggle. PATTERSON also drew attention to the resolutions of an organization named, Women Strike for Peace, which links the Negro question to the struggle for peace. He stated that we must find ways of utilizing these resolutions at the National Convention in Washington to further the struggle for civil rights of the Negro people. X U

OLIVER MARTIN stated that it would be a mistake to pull out of the NAACP. He stated, however, that the current NAACP leadership is scared and are not taking chances. He added this current leadership was pushed into a direct action program by the Student Non-Violent Coordinating Committee and they are now trying to retreat from this direct action approach. MARTIN also stated X U that he felt badly that he did not know earlier about this meeting as he may have been able to determine the national program planned for the convention in Washington, D. C., and this program could be used in formulating tactics at this convention. (U)

MURIEL SILVERBERG stated that she agreed with the remarks of WILLIAM L. PATTERSON and also added that we cannot consider pulling out of the NAACP. (U)

TED BASSETT pointed out that there have been many attempts to follow up the August 28, 1963, March on Washington by many forces, but ROY WILKINS, Executive Secretary, NAACP, stepped in and prevented any further direct action programs. BASSETT then stated that the following items must be considered in connection with the NAACP convention: (U)

1. Possibility of changing the leadership of the NAACP at the convention even though such leadership is not elected at the convention. (U)

2. Propose activity in conjunction with the civil rights bill now pending in Congress even though many Congressmen have stated that such activity or demonstrations will not influence their vote in connection with this matter. There must be demonstrative action in connection with this bill. (U)

The following proposals were made as possible resolutions at the NAACP convention to be held in Washington, D. C., June 22 - 29, 1964: (U)

1. Fight any attempt on the part of the National NAACP Office to reaffirm its role of legal action instead of direct action in connection with the civil rights struggle. Point out that to rely on court action is a retreat to gradualism. (U)

2. Tackle the poverty question. Develop a program linking ghettos with the poverty program and urge spending of money to wipe out ghettos. (U)

3. Explore the possibility of utilizing youth in changing the leadership of the NAACP. (U)

4. Reaffirm or try again to get the NAACP to go back to the Supreme Court and request the Supreme Court issue a deadline for enforcement of the 1954 Supreme Court decisions. (U)

JAMES JACKSON on July 10, 1964, gave a report at CP Headquarters, 23 West 26th Street, New York City, on the NAACP Convention which he attended as a reporter for "The Worker". (U)

JACKSON stated that the NAACP is the major organization in which the Negro people exercise their involvement in the fight for freedom and equal rights. He said the NAACP has been identified from its inception with personalities of W. E. DU BOIS, "our own comrade... a member of our Party". JACKSON said that in the annual report, tribute was paid to the memory of DU BOIS, quite in contrast to any previous conventions of the NAACP, which has fought to re-write the history of the organization and leave out the efforts of DU BOIS. (U)

Continuing, JACKSON stated that this was one of the most extraordinary conventions of the NAACP which he had ever attended. He said initially the convention was the occasion for summer vacations for school teachers, doctors, lawyers and so forth, who make up the leadership of the NAACP. There are, however, quite a few representatives of labor and trade unions involved actively on committees and in some places in the operational and executive leadership of the organization. (U)

JACKSON stated that there are 80,000 young people organized into youth councils of the NAACP. It is estimated that 15,000 to 20,000 of them are white young people. He said that there was more attendance of white youths than at any other convention. He said there was a grateful manifestation of Negro-white unity among the young people. (U)

JACKSON said that the leaders of NAACP remarked that the civil rights bill was a mandate from the whole country to the President and the Attorney General particularly, to proceed with all haste and without compromise to secure for Negroes all the necessary federal protection for them to exercise their rights of American citizenship. relation to attitudes towards "ourselves" was notable. JACKSON said that they had a good time fraternizing with the delegates and were given "a respectful hearing insofar as our position". (U)

JACKSON said that anti-Communism was not evident at this Convention. The Convention opened on a note of triumph, confidence and pride as a result of the passage of the Civil Rights Bill by Congress. JACKSON said that he was unprepared for the depth of anger on the subject of (Senator) GOLDWATER. The delegates were of one mind about the nature of GOLDWATER, and a plan was outlined for the participation and involvement of the NAACP in the 1964 elections. (U)

JACKSON stated that the number one aim of the plan is to defeat GOLDWATER and, secondly, to do everything to support those candidates who supported the Civil Rights Bill, to support a massive registration campaign and, above all, to work for the implementation of the Civil Rights Bill. He stated that "our paper" was the only paper distributed at the Convention until later when the "Afro-American" also distributed one of their papers. (U)

F. Negro American Labor Council

The Negro American Labor Council will be referred to in this report as the NALC, the Greater New York Chapter of the NALC will be referred to as the NYNALC and the Communist Party United States of America, as the CPUSA.

In July, 1959, more than seventy five Negro trade union leaders met in New York to explore the possibility of establishing an organization designed to fight discrimination in industry, government and trade unions. After much planning, the NALC was officially founded in Detroit, Michigan, May 28, 29 and 30, 1960. A. PHILIP RANDOLPH, veteran trade union leader and President of the Brotherhood of Sleeping Car Porters, was elected President at the Founding Convention. At the Second Annual Convention held in Chicago, Illinois, November 10, 11 and 12, 1961, the NALC broadened its membership base to include not only trade unionists, but all Negro workers in response to the developing job crisis suffered by colored workers.

At the meeting BOB THOMPSON discussed the Negro question and civil rights. THOMPSON stated the trade union section should concentrate its forces in the NALC, because it is through the NALC that the trade union sections can get things moving in the civil rights field. (U)

THOMPSON mentioned that "red-baiting" has existed in the NYNALC, but since JAMES SMITH is no longer an officer in the NYNALC, the situation will improve, it will be easier to get applications and thus increase the size of the membership. He stated that A. PHILIP RANDOLPH wants to keep the size of the NALC small so that he can more easily control it. (U)

THOMPSON stated that it is the responsibility of the members of the Trade Union Commission to increase the size of the NALC through the people in their unions. (U)

At the meeting after giving her report on the NALC Convention, [redacted] criticized the mistakes of the Party leadership and stated: b6 b7C

1. They did not meet fast enough when problems arose in the NALC to set the correct Party line.

2. The New York District Negro Commission, CP was formed recently and therefore was not able to act on NALC problems. (X U)

3. Not enough time was set aside for the presentation of the problems of the cadre in the NALC.

[redacted] asked, "What is the attitude of the CPUSA Industrial Division in regards to work in the NALC?" In answer to this question, she stated that unfortunately, there was not a sharp, well dfined policy toward the NALC and the Party cadre working in it. (U)

In order to remedy the mistakes, [redacted] stated that there should be a close liaison between the CPUSA leadership and the NALC cadre in future meetings concerning the NALC. (U)

Further she stated that more attention should be paid by all sections of the Party to the work being done by the cadre within the NYNALC and that the Party line was correct in getting Party members active in the NYNALC and also encouraging both Negro and White unity within the NALC. (U)

A meeting of New York District CP Board was held on June 22, 1964, at the Hotel Woodstock, New York City. (U)

During the course of the report of [redacted] b6 b7C concerning the NALC Convention which was held in Cleveland, Ohio, [redacted] stated that the Party could aid in the growth of the NALC by making Party members and the Party cadre in the NYNALC aware of the importance and specific role that the NALC plays. (U)

The Party can help formulate NALC policies in that it can influence the line and the direction of the NALC in two ways:

1. By singling out the NALC as an organization with a special unique role to play at the present time. The Party can then devote special attention to work with the NALC workers. (U)

2. The Party can also, with enough support from NALC members, influence the NALC leadership and because of the cadre's work in the NYNALC, they can do it directly.

The Party can also, according to [redacted] b6 b7C recruit Party members from the NALC, because it is an organization of working people who are advanced enough to understand the special importance of Negro and White unity. No matter how anti-Communist they now are as a group, they are the most aware section of working class people and therefore, are the best prospects for Party leadership. (U)

In describing what the Party has done at the present time in the NALC, [redacted] b6 b7C stated that she was re-elected as a Vice President, that ARTHUR KNIGHT had been elected to the Executive Board of the NYNALC and that due to the work of the cadre in the NYNALC they were able to elect the slate of MORRIS DOSWELL, who is now President of the NYNALC rather than the slate headed by JAMES SMITH. (U)

She continued by stating that four members of the NYNALC cadre were able to attend the NALC Convention and that [redacted] had contacted a Vice President of the NALC, FRANK EVANS in Cleveland. That he had made EVANS aware of his, [redacted] struggle to gain admittance into the Teamsters Local in the Schaefer Brewing Company in Brooklyn, New York. XU

[redacted] then stated that help was needed from the Party leadership in getting new members for the cadre in the NYNALC. She suggested that they come from other clubs in the Industrial and Community sections of the Party. She made a proposal that the Trade Union Commission of the New York District CP as well as the Negro Commission of the New York District CP should get together to discuss the NYNALC fully and to produce ideas as to the best role the Party can play in the NALC. At the meeting, a discussion was held concerning the election of the NYNALC and it was mentioned that the aim of the NYNALC CP caucus is to have one or more of its members elected to the Executive Board, NYNALC. (U)

In order to achieve this aim a slate of candidates for the Executive Board will be presented by ARTHUR KNIGHT at the nominations meeting of the NYNALC which is scheduled for March 25, 1964. This slate will have members of the NYNALC CP caucus, thereon with the exception of [redacted] with the hope that at least one of them will be nominated. (U)

It was stated that [redacted] did not want to be on the Executive Board of the NYNALC, because she believed she would operate more effectively within the NYNALC in some other capacity. (U)

The NYNALC CP caucus members were advised to attend meetings of the NYNALC and not merely to appear at the nominations meeting of the NYNALC. (U)

ARTHUR KNIGHT gave a report on three meetings of the Nominating Committee of the NYNALC of which he is a member, during the above meeting. KNIGHT said all of the current officers were approached to be renominated and that MORRIS DOSWELL will be renominated as President at the nominations meeting of the general membership meeting of the NYNALC to be held on March 25, 1964. (U)

KNIGHT stated that JAMES SMITH, Vice-President, NYNALC was asked if he would accept the nomination again. KNIGHT advised that SMITH said if all the candidates for the Executive Board would sign a loyalty oath then he would accept renomination as Vice-President. KNIGHT said that SMITH was told that the Nominating Committee has no authority to do this and if any such action was taken it would have to be taken on orders of the National Office, NALC. KNIGHT stated that SMITH was not put on the Nominations List. (U)

KNIGHT advised that he had attempted to have [redacted] and JOHN CUTCH nominated for the Executive Board, but other members of the Nominating Committee told him that [redacted] was only attending meetings of the NYNALC, because he has a "complaint" in his employment and that if his "complaint is satisfied" he would probably stop coming to the meetings. The October 6, 1960 issue of "The Atlanta Constitution", a daily newspaper published in Atlanta, Georgia, carried an article captioned "Negro Parley in Atlanta May Chart New Protest". The article set out that a meeting sponsored by the SNCC would be held in Atlanta, Georgia on October 14 through 16, 1960. The formal activities of the session would center around the topic "Non-violence and the achievements of desegregation". The article stated that SNCC was formed in Raleigh, North Carolina in April, 1960, by college students who had been participating in various sit-down demonstrations and delegates at that meeting agreed to hold another meeting later in the year.

I. THE SOUTHERN CHRISTIAN LEADERSHIP CONFERENCE

b The Southern Christian Leadership Conference will be abbreviated by the initials SCLC where appropriate.

A brochure entitled "This is SCLC", issued by the SCLC, lists the National Headquarters as being at 334 Auburn Avenue, Northeast, Atlanta, Georgia.

This brochure describes the SCLC as a non-membership organization that would be a permanent organization which would serve as a coordinating agency for local protest centers which utilize the technique and philosophy of non-violence in creative protest. This brochure reports that the SCLC had a basic aim of achieving full citizenship rights, equality and the integration of the Negro in all aspects of American life. Reverend MARTIN LUTHER KING, JR., of Atlanta, Georgia, is listed as President of the SCLC.

NEW YORK AFFILIATE OF THE SCLC

BAYARD RUSTIN

In "The Saturday Evening Post", issue of July 11-18, 1964, page 76, BAYARD RUSTIN is the subject of a feature article captioned: "The Lone Wolf of Civil Rights". In it, RUSTIN is said to have come to New York in 1938, as an organizer for the Young Communist League (YCL), and as such, he had the job of recruiting students for the "Party". Furthermore, the article reports that during his first years in New York, RUSTIN gave most of his earnings to the "Party". He reportedly left the "Party" in 1941, the article states.

The YCL has been designated pursuant to Executive Order 10450.

The "Daily Worker", February 11, 1957, page 1 column 2, reported that BAYARD RUSTIN, Executive Secretary, War Resisters League, was an observer at the 16th National Convention of the Communist Party, United States of America (CP, USA), held in New York City, on February 9-12, 1957.

WILLIAM WORTHY, JR.

The May 8, 1963 edition of the "New Haven Register", a daily newspaper published at New Haven, contains an article on page 64 entitled, "Reporter Who Made Illegal China Trip to Speak at Yale", which reflects that WILLIAM WORTHY, correspondent for the Baltimore "Afro-American", would discuss his "illegal re-entry" passport case at a public meeting to be held on May 14, 1963, at Yale University, New Haven, Connecticut.

This article discloses that Worthy's passport was cancelled after he defied United States State Department bans by traveling to China and Hungary on an assignment for C.B.S. News and the "New York Post" newspaper.

WILLIAM WORTHY, JR. was convicted in the United States District Court, Southern District of Florida, Miami, Florida, on August 8, 1962, for violation of Section 1185B, Title 8, United States Code, and that he entered the United States from Cuba in October, 1961, without a valid passport.

On September 17, 1962, WORTHY was sentenced to one year in the custody of the United States Attorney General, three months committed, nine months probation. Worthy appealed the conviction to the Fifth Circuit Court of Appeals, New Orleans, Louisiana. On February 20, 1964, this Court reversed the above decision and WORTHY was acquitted of the charge.

ADVANCE YOUTH ORGANIZATION

[redacted] who voluntarily furnished information concerning Communist Party (CP) Front activities to the Federal Bureau of Investigation (FBI) from April, 1958, to July, 1962, advised on February 18, 1960, that Advance, An Organization of Progressive Youth, was founded in New York City on February 13, 14, 1960.

A source advised on March 2, 1960, that, according to the Secretariat of the Communist Party, United States of America (CPUSA), the Declaration of Principles adopted at the founding convention of Advance were essentially the line of the leadership of the CPUSA. b6 b7C b7D

[redacted] member of the CP from [redacted] stated in December, 1961, that at a meeting of the CP members of Advance, held on December 20, 1961, [redacted] declared that Advance had been initiated by the CP as a Marxist-Leninist youth organization.

[redacted] furnished information on January 28, 1963, reflecting that at the Third Annual Convention of Advance, held in New York City, on October 13, 1962, the name of the organization was changed to Advance and Burning Issues Youth Organizations (A-BI). This action was taken because Burning Issues (BI), a separate youth organization, organized in New York City, in May, 1961, as a discussion club, became an affiliate of Advance.

A second source advised on June 26, 1963, that at a meeting of the City Board of A-BI, held on June 25, 1963, it was voted to disassociate BI from the Advance organization. (U)

CHICAGO COMMITTEE TO DEFEND THE BILL OF RIGHTS

SECRET

The Chicago Committee to Defend the Bill of Rights (CCDBR) maintains headquarters in Suite 424, 431 South Dearborn Street, Chicago, Illinois.

A source advised in July, 1960, that RICHARD CRILEY, a member of the Civil Liberties Commission, Communist Party (CP) of Illinois, met with key leaders of the CP of Illinois and discussed with them the fact that the climate in the United States on civil liberties and civil rights issues had changed to the extent that it was now possible to proceed to form a new organization with broad mass support. By doing so, CRILEY believed that people who would not associate themselves with an organization of narrow scope would join a civil liberties and civil rights organization build around a broader issue such as the abolishment of the House Committee on Un-American Activities (HCUA). The CP leaders, after receiving assurance from CRILEY that any new organization that might evolve would protect the Party interests, authorized CRILEY to proceed with his plan to form a broader organization.

A second source advised on October 31, 1960, that a new organization known as the Chicago Committee to Defend the Bill of Rights was formally launched in Chicago at a meeting on October 26, 1960. The stated primary purpose of the new organization was to seek the abolition of the HCUA, and RICHARD CRILEY was named as its Executive Secretary, after having been the guiding force in arranging the October 26, 1960, meeting.

The first source, in October, 1960, advised that CRILEY again attended a meeting of the Illinois District CP leadership on October 28, 1960, at which time he reported on the organizational meeting of the CCDBR. CRILEY stated that the immediate purpose of his organization is to obtain mass support to abolish the HCUA, but the new Committee purposes will also include defense of Smith Act and Taft-Hartley victims. He said there will be no formal affiliation with any national organization of similar purpose; however, the CCDBR, according to CRILEY, will consult and have liaison with national organizations having the same purpose. According to the source, the CP leadership agreed with the general direction of the CCDBR as outlined by CRILEY.

A third source advised on May 3, 1962, that the CCDBR continues to adhere to the same aims and purposes and operates under the same leadership.

A source in January, 1941, furnished an announcement stating, "Calling all Americans to an Ohio Conference, American Committee for Protection of Foreign Born (ACPFB), Cleveland City Club, February 2, 1941." The announcement states the Conference called by" Ohio Provisional Committee," and lists the aims of the Conference as "Establish Ohio Chapter of American Committee for Protection of Foreign Born; Combat Discrimination on the Ground of Race, Nationality, or Non-Citizenship; Amend the Naturalization Laws by Reducing the Fees, Moderating the Educational Requirements and Abolishing Discrimination on the Ground of Race and Economic Viewpoint; Prevent Destruction of American families by Deportation; Maintain the Traditional Right of Asylum for Political and Religious Refugees in the United States."

This same source in February, 1941, reported that the conference on February 2, 1941, to establish the Ohio Chapter of the ACPFB, was dominated by the Communist Party, 63 of the 121 persons present being members of the Communist Party.

A second source advised on April 15, 1963, that meetings held by the organization during the past recent years have been referred to as Cleveland Committee for Protection of Foreign Born (CCPFB) meetings and Cleveland ACPFB meetings. Prior to this the organization was referred to as the Ohio Committee for Protection of Foreign Born.

The CCPFB has held no meetings since June of 1961. It has no officers, bank account, or formal membership. All activities of the CCPFB, when active, had to be approved by the ACPFB. The CCPFB gave full support to any decisions made by the ACPFB.

~~SECRET~~ (U)

"The Jewish Fraternalist" dated October, 1947, self identified as the official publication of the Jewish People's Fraternal Order (JPFO) of the International Workers Order (IWO), on page 6, contained an article which reflected that the Emma Lazarus Division (ELD) of the JPFO was to hold its first national convantion in New York City on November 15 and 16, 1947, after having been first established at a National Women's Conference called three years previously by the JPFO.

The "Morning Freiheit" on January 25, 1951, contained a report of the National Convention of the ELD of the JPFO which took place in New York City on January 20 and 21, 1951. At this convention it was noted that the ELD changed its name to Emma Lazarus Federation of Jewish Women's Clubs (ELF) and adopted a new constitution.

On April 25, 1963, a source advised that the ELF is one of several mass organizations comprising the Jewish cultural progressive movement. JUNE GORDON, ELF Executive Director, who is a member of the New York State Communist Party (CP) Board and Committee, is the leading force in the organization, whose leadership is largely made up of Communists.

The source stated that the ELF claims to be for peace and interested in protecting the rights of the foreign born. It is against the BEN GURION Government of Israel, bomb testing, anti-Semitism, Negro discrimination, and the rearmament of West Germany.

The source related that the ELF renders support to and receives support from the "Morning Freiheit" and other Jewish progressive organizations.

The "Guide to Subversive Organizations and Publications", revised and published as of December 1, 1961, prepared and released by the Communist on Un - American Activities, United States House of Representatives, Washington, D. "Emergency Civil Liberties Committee

"1. 'The Emergency Civil Liberties Committee is an organization with headquarters in New York, whose avowed prupose is to abolish the House Committee on Un - American Activities and discredit the FBI. * * *
The committee finds that the Emergency Civil Liberties Committee, established in 1951, although representing itself as a non-Communist group, actually operates as a front for the Communist Party. It has repeatedly assisted, by means of funds and legal aid, Communists involved in Smith Act violations and similar legal proceedings. One of its chief activities has been and still is the dissemination of voluminous Communist propaganda material.'

'FRANK WILKINSON was called as a witness when he appeared in Atlanta as a representative of the Emergency Civil Liberties Committee to propagandize against the Committee on Un-American Activities and to protest its hearings. In 1956 WILKINSON was identified as a Communist Party member by a former FBI undercover agent within the party. Summoned at that time to answer the allegation, his reply to all questions

'Disputing the non-Communist claim of the organization, the committee finds that a number of other individuals connected with the ECLC also have been identified under oath as Communists. * * *'
(Committee on Un-American Activities, Annual Report for 1958, House Report 187, March 9, 1959, pp. 34 and 35.)

'To defend the cases of Communist law-breakers, fronts have been devised making special appeals in behalf of civil liberties and reaching out far beyond the confines of the Communist Party itself. Among these organizations are the * * * Emergency Civil Liberties Committee. When the Communist Party itself is under fire these fronts offer a bulwark of protection.'

FAIR PLAY FOR CUBA COMMITTEE

The April 6, 1960, edition of "The New York Times" newspaper contained a full-page advertisement captioned "What Is Really Happening In Cuba," placed by the Fair Play for Cuba Committee (FPCC). This advertisement announced the formation of the FPCC in New York City and declared the FPCC intended to promulgate "the truth about revolutionary Cuba" to neutralize the distorted American press.

"The New York Times" edition of January 11, 1961, reported that at a hearing conducted before the United States Senate Internal Security Subcommittee on January 10, 1961, Dr. CHARLES A. SANTOS-BUCH identified himself and ROBERT TABER as organizers of the FPCC. He also testified he and TABER obtained funds from the Cuban Government which were applied toward the cost of the aforementioned advertisement.

On May 16, 1963, a source advised that during the first two years of the FPCC's existence there was a struggle between Communist Party (CP) and Socialist Workers Party (SWP) elements to exert their power within the FPCC and thereby influence FPCC policy. However, during the past year this source observed there has been a successful effort by FPCC leadership to minimize the role of these and other organizations in the FPCC so that today their influence is negligible.

On May 20, 1963, a second source advised that the National Headquarters of the FPCC is located in Room 329 at 799 Broadway, New York City. According to this source, the position of National Office Director was created in the FAll of 1962 and was filled by VINCENT "TED" LEE, who now formulates FPCC policy. This source observed

LEE has followed a course of entertaining and accepting the cooperation of many other organizations including the CP and the SWP when he has felt it would be to his personal benefit as well as the FPCC's. However, LEE has indicated to this source he has no intention of permitting FPCC policy to be determined by any other organization. LEE feels the FPCC should advocate resumption of diplomatic relations between Cuba and the United States and support the right of Cubans to manage their revolution without interference from other nations, but not support the Cuban revolution per se.

GREATER NEW YORK LABOR PRESS CLUB ~~SECRET~~

A source advised on December 6, 1962, that the Greater New York Press Club (GNYPC) was formed during February, 1961, by LOUIS WEINSTOCK when he was the General Manager of "The Worker" by obtaining members who would contribute funds, subscribe to and work for "The Worker," and also to hold social and cultural affairs.

The source stated that in the spring of 1962, JAMES LUSTIG was the Business Manager of "The Worker." LUSTIG announced at a press club meeting at Adelphi Hall, New York City, held on April 26, 1962, the formation of a new press club known as the "City Press Club Executive Board" (CPECB). The purpose of this new club was to coordinate the work of all the borough press clubs in the New York City area; to strengthen the work of the press clubs; to organize new press clubs; and to draw in people who were not members of the Communist Party, United States of America (CPUSA). The source stated that the basic purpose was to raise funds for "The Worker and increase the circulation of that publication. Persons not members of the CPUSA could be members of the new club, but leadership in the club was limited to members of the CPUSA. The name of the CPCEB was later changed to "Greater City Press Club" (GCPC) which club became the successor of the GNYPC. (U)

The source continued that in July, 1962, LOUIS WEINSTOCK again became General Manager of "The Worker" and the GCPC again became known as the Greater New York Readers' Club, Greater New York Readers' Clubs, Greater New York Readers' Conference, Greater City Press Club and the City Press Club, by personnel responsible for preparation of notices and literature regarding meetings and activities of the clubs. The source advised at that time the GNYPC had no office or headquarters and used the mailing address of "The Worker", 23 West 26th Street, New York City.

"The Worker" is an East Coast Communist newspaper.

The second source advised on August 15, 1962, that the Greater New York Readers' Club was formerly known as the "Three Boro Readers' Club."

MUSLIM MOSQUE, INCORPORATED

The March 13, 1964, edition of "The New York Times," a daily newspaper published in New York, New York, contained an article on page 20 which indicated that MALCOLM X (LITTLE), former national official of the Nation of Islam (NOI) and Minister of NOI Mosque #7, New York, who broke with the NOI on March 8, 1964, publicly announced in New York City on March 12, 1964, that he had formed the Muslim Mosque, Incorporated (MMI). The MMI, according to the article, would be a broadly based politically oriented black nationalist movement for Negroes only, financed by voluntary contributions. In this public statement MALCOLM X urged Negroes to abandon the doctrine of non-violence when it is necessary to defend themselves in the civil rights struggle, and he also suggested that Negroes from rifle clubs to protect their lives and property in times of emergencies in areas where the government is unable or unwilling to protect them.

Incorporation papers of the MMI filed on March 16, 1964, with the Business Section, Clerk of Courts, New York County, New York, New York, reflect that the MMI was incorporated under the Religious Corporation Law of the State of New York to work for the imparting of the Islamic Faith and Islamic Religion in accordance with "accepted Islamic principals." The principal place of worship to be located in the Borough of Manhattan, New York, New York.

During an appearance over KYW - Television, Cleveland, Ohio, on April 7, 1964, MALCOLM X stated that the MMI does not stand for integration, but for complete freedom, justice, and equality for Negroes. He stated that Islam was the religious philosophy of the MMI, while the political, economic and social philosophy was black nationalism.

NATION OF ISLAM

In January, 1957, a source advised ELIJAH MUHAMMAD has described his organization on a nationwide basis as the "Nation of Islam" and "Muhammad's Temples of Islam."

On July 10, 1963, a second confidential source advised ELIJAH MUHAMMAD is the national leader of the Nation of Islam (NOI); Muhammad's Temple of Islam No. 2, 5335 South Greenwood Avenue, Chicago, Illinois, is the national headquarters of the NOI; and in mid-1960, MUHAMMAD's organization on a nationwide basis, commenced using either "Mosque" or "Temple" when mentioning one of "Muhammad's Temples of Islam."

The NOI is an all-Negro organization which was originally organized in 1930 in Detroit, Michigan, MUHAMMAD claims to have been selected by Allah, the Supreme Being, to lead the so-called Negro race out of slavery in the wilderness of North America by establishing an independent black nation in the United States. Members following MUHAMMAD's teachings and his interpretation of the "Koran" believe there is no such thing as a Negro; that the so-called Negroes are slaves of the white race, referred to as "white devils," in the United States; and that the white race, because of its exploitation of the so-called Negroes, must and will be destroyed in the approaching "War of Armageddon."

In the past, officials and members of the NOI, including MUHAMMAD, have refused to register under the provisions of the Selective Service Acts and have declared that members owe no allegiance to the United States.

NATIONALIST PARTY (NP)

On June 28, 1963, [redacted] Bureau of Special Services (BSS), New York City Police Department, advised that the Nationalist Party (NP) was formed on September 21, 1961, and although it has no actual headquarters, maintains a "mail drop" at 507 Fifth Avenue, New York City. b6 b7C b7D

[redacted] further stated LUKE DOMMER controls the activities of the NP even though he is not listed as an officer of the NP and that even though NP activities consist of anti-Communist demonstrations, individuals who participate in NP activities have in the past exhibited anti-Semitic tendencies.

On November 5, 1963, LUKE DOMMER, NP leader, advised the NP was then "out of business" for the past several months because the "rise of conservatism" in the United States had negated the need for such an organization.

On November 18, 1963, a source, who has furnished reliable information in the past, advised that JOHN S. SULLIVAN, former National Chairman of the NP, stated that the NP was completely disbanded and has been defunct for the past several months.

NATIONAL KU KLUX KLAN
KNIGHTS OF THE KU KLUX KLAN
(NKKK)

A source advised that on May 22, 1960, the National Grand Council of the Knights of the Ku Klux Klan met at Atlanta, Georgia, to discuss consolidation of the klans unity of effort and activities, to establish a National Fund and a National Secretary and to design a new flag. The meeting was attended by representatives of the Federation of Ku Klux Klan, Alabama; Association of Arkansas Klans, Arkansas; Florida Knights of the Ku Klux Klan, Florida; Southern Knights of the Ku Klux Klan, Florida; Association of Georgia Klans, Georgia; Knights of the Ku Kluz Klan, North Carolina; Association of South Carolina Klans, South Carolina; Dixie Knights of the Ku Klux Klan, Tennessee; and Kyksos Klan, Texas.

This source advised that at a consolidation meeting at Atlanta, Georgia, September 2-5, 1960, at which the North Carolina and Texas Klans were not represented, it was resolved and passed that their name be changed to National Ku Klux Klan.

This source also advised that at a consolidation meeting at Savannah, Georgia, October 23, 1960, it was resolved and passed that in any future meetings of this group the name "Majority Citizens League" was to be used.

A second source advised that at a national klonklave meeting at Texarkana, Texas, on February 11-12, 1961, a motion was carried that there were to be at least six national meetings a year to be held any time from one week to twelve weeks after the last meeting. The time and meeting place were to be decided by the newly elected chairman. This second source also advised that at each meeting a new chairman and acting secretary were to be elected to serve at the next meeting. A national secretary had not been appointed.

NATIONAL STATES RIGHTS PARTY

On November 26, 1957, a source advised that the United White Party (UWP) was organized at a convention held in Knoxville, Tennessee, on November 10, 1957. An article in the November 26, 1957, issue of the "Greenville Piedmont," a newspaper of Greenville, South Carolina, reported "the recent formation of a new political party to be known as the United White Party." According to the article, the party was formed at a recently held meeting in Knoxville, Tennessee, at which many klansmen were represented. The UWP was reported as being opposed to all "race mixing organizations and individuals."

The July, 1958 issue of "The Thunderbold," self-described as the "official Racial Nationalist Organ of the National States Rights Party" (NSRP) reported that rank and file "States Righters" had merged with the UWP under "the banner of the National States Rights Party," with national offices at Post Office Box 261, Jeffersonville, Indiana.

In November, 1958, a source advised that the NSRP is composed of past members of klan-type organizations and notorious anti-Semites.

Issue Number 19, dated June, 1960, "The Thunderbolt," announced the address of the headquarters of the NSRP had been changed from Jeffersonville, Indiana, to Post Office Box 783, Birmingham, Alabama.

On June 17, 1960, a source advised that EDWARD R. FIELDS, the Information Director of the NSRP, is the individual who "runs the NSRP."

NEW YORK COUNCIL TO ABOLISH
THE HOUSE UN-AMERICAN ACTIVITIES COMMITTEE

On March 9, 1961, a source advised that the New York Council to Abolish the Un-American Activities Committee (NYCAUAC), 150 West 34th Street, New York City, New York, was formed at a meeting held in New York City on November 17, 1960. This organization was founded principally through the efforts of FRANK WILKINSON, Field Representative of the National Committee to Abolish the Un-American Activities Committee (NCAUAC).

A second source advised on September 17, 1952, that FRANK WILKINSON was a Communist Party member as of September, 1952.

A third source furnished on September 14, 1961, a copy of resolutions of the New York Council to Abolish the House Un-American Activities Committee (NYCAHUAC) which were adopted by the NYCAHUAC. One such resolution affirmed the intention to continue to work for the abolition of the House Committee on Un-American Activities (HCUA) and to continue its efforts to broaden the participation in this fight. Another resolution accepted as a modus vivendi the suggestion of the Field Representative of the "National Committee to Abolish the HCUA" (NCAHUAC) namely that local abolition committees may identify and co-ordinate their efforts as closely as they desire with NCAHUAC, still maintaining their autonomy for as flexible and independent a program as possible.

Various sources have advised during March, 1962, that Communist Party (CP) members in the New York City area have been solicited to support activities of the NYCAHUAC during attendance at CP club meetings.

On May 6, 1963, the first source advised that the NYCAHUAC continues to function from its office at 150 West 34th Street, New York City, New York.

NEW YORK SCHOOL FOR MARXIST STUDIES

In September, 1960, a source advised it was announced at a meeting of the Communist Party, United States of America, (CP,USA), New York District (NYD), Staff, held September 16, 1960, that the People's School for Marxist Studies was founded in September, 1960, as the result of a decision of the CP, USA, NYD. Adult classes were scheduled to start October 17, 1960. (U)

"The Worker", an East Coast Communist newspaper, October 16, 1960, issue, announced the opening of the New York School for Marxist Studies (NYSMS) with general classes beginning October 14, 1960. The address of the School is Room 1922, 853 Broadway at 14th Street, New York, New York.

The records of Pierce Mayer & Greer, 41 East 42nd Street, New York City, reflect that on August 29, 1960, HERBERT APTHEKER leased Room 1922-23, 853 Broadway, New York City, for the period starting October 1, 1960. The premises were to be occupied by a "People's School." On July 3, 1962, HERBERT APTHEKER signed a new lease for Room 1922-23, 853 Broadway, New York City, to start October 1, 1962, which reflects that the premises were to be used for an office for the NYSMS.

During April and May, 1964, a second source furnished information that the NYSMS was then in operation at 853 Broadway, New York, New York.

A third source advised on December 14, 1959, that at the 17th National Convention of the CP, USA, held December 10-13, 1959, HERBERT APTHEKER was elected a member of the National Committee of the CP, USA.

The May, 1963, issue of "Political Affairs," self-described as the theoretical organ of the CP, USA, reflects that HERBERT APTHEKER has been replaced as editor of that publication after holding this position for several years.

A characterization of SCOPE is included in the appendix.

POLITICAL AFFAIRS PUBLISHERS INCORPORATED

A source advised on December 18, 1963, a meeting of leading functionaries of the Communist Party, United States of America, (CP, USA) was held at CP Headquarters, 23 West 26th Street, New York, New York. At this meeting HYMAN LUMER reported on "Political Affairs." LUMER stated that "Political Affairs" should be set up as an independent organization and it is being set up as Political Affairs Publishers Incorporated. (U)

"Political Affairs" is self-described as the theoretical organ of the CP, USA.

A second source advised that HYMAN LUMER was a member of the National Board of the CP, USA, as of April 24, 1963. (U)

The records of the New York State Secretary of State, Corporate Records Division, Albany, New York, reflects Certificate of Incorporation Number 410694 was filed on December 17, 1963, with the Secretary of State under Section 402 of the Business Corporation Law. The name of the proposed corporation was listed as Political Affairs Publishers Incorporated.

Certificate of Incorporation Number 410694, mentioned above, indicates that the purpose of the proposed corporation was to sell, publish, and distribute at wholesale and retail, books, pamphlets, magazines, periodicals, and publications of all kinds, including prints of art works, music, maps, and drawings of all kinds; to purchase and acquire copyrights of all kinds.

A third source advised on May 19, 1964, that Political Affairs Publishers Incorporated maintains its office at 23 West 26th Street, New York, New York.

PROGRESSIVE LABOR PARTY,
PROGRESSIVE LABOR MOVEMENT,
"PROGRESSIVE LABOR"

A source advised on July 2, 1962, that Progressive Labor groups held a conference in New York City on July 1, 1962, where MILTON ROSEN acted as chairman. He read a statement at this conference setting forth their intention to form a new Marxist-Leninist party in the United States. ROSEN stated that a more formal organization was necessary, one which would provide a frame-work for all who wanted to join in a united effort to build an American vanguard. The forces of this new organization are to consolidate all existing forces around Progressive Labor and organize additional forces; expand and improve political activities; win additional forces to an outlook of Marxism-Leninism and increase the open advocacy of socialism; develop a significant Marxist-Leninist program for the new party; and organize a collective organization of leaders and members.

"The Worker", an East Coast Communist newspaper, issue of January 7, 1962, Page Ten, Column Three, reported the expulsion of MILTON ROSEN, former Labor Secretary of the New York State Communist Party, from the Communist Party, United States of America.

A second and third source advised in February, 1963, that this new Marxist-Leninist party had not yet been organized on a formal basis, but that Progressive Labor groups had been formed in several localities in line with the proposals of MILTON ROSEN. The sources advised as of February, 1963, that the leaders of this group were referring to it as the Progressive Labor Movement.

A fourth source advised on March 15, 1964, that the Progressive Labor Movement follows, supports, and is politically orientated toward the Communist Party line of Red China rather than that of the Soviet Union.

PROGRESSIVE YOUTH ORGANIZING COMMITTEE

On February 9, 1961, a source advised that the Progressive Youth Organizing Committee (PYOC) was established, at a national socialist-oriented youth conference held in Chicago, Illinois, December 30, 1960, through January 1, 1961. This conference was the result of a mandate issued by the National Executive Committee, Communist Party, USA, calling for a youth conference to establish an organizing committee whose objective would be to set up a national socialist-oriented youth organization. The conference scheduled a convention to be held within a year to found a new national socialist-oriented youth organization.

On June 18, 1962 [redacted] member of the Communist Party (CP) from [redacted] advised it was reported at the meeting of the National Council of the PYOC held New York, New York, June 16 and 17, 1962, that although it had been planned to form a Marxist- oriented youth organization by the Fall of 1962, it would not be possible to form such an organization for the next few years. b6 b7C b7D

On May 8, 1964, a second source advised the PYOC has its headquarters at 169 Allen Street, New York, New York.

"Provisional Organizing Committee for a Marxist-Leninist Communist Party (POC)

"1. Found to be 'a new Communist splinter group'. The Provisional Organizing Committee for a Marxist-Leninist Communist Party'also known as the POC * * * was formed in August, 1958, by a number of Communist Party members who were dissatisfied with the trends and policies of the party and, while within it, had referred to themselves as the Marxist-Leninist Caucus'.

'The leaders and participants in the Provisional Organizing Committee group had been expelled from the Communist Party on the technical charge of "disruptive, factional, anti-party activities."

'The POC group is composed largely of extreme left-wing elements from the Communist Party. Throughout the party's history, there have been contending right- and left-wing factions which, in periods of turmoil such as the party has gone through in the recent past, have fought for control. The POC elements lost out in this recent struggle within the U. S. party'.

1963 UNION SQUARE MAY DAY COMMITTEE

On February 26, 1963, a source advised that a meeting of the Communist Party, USA (CPUSA), New York District (NYD) Board was held on February 25, 1963, at Academy Hall, 853 Broadway, New York City. WILLIAM ALBERTSON, Executive Secretary of the NYD CP, gave a brief report on the 1963 May Day Committee. He stated that a representative of each CP club in the city should attend a meeting of the committee on March 23, 1963, at which time plans would be drawn up for the 1963 May Day celebration. (U)

Records of the Department of Parks, New York City, reflect that a permit had been issued to the 1963 Union Square May Day Committee to hold a rally at Union Square Park Plaza, 17th Street between Broadway and Park Avenue South, New York City, on May 1, 1963, 4:00 - 8:00 p.m.

The midweek edition of "The Worker," dated May 7, 1963, page 3, columns 3-5, contained a report of the May Day rally held on May 1, 1963, at Union Square Park Plaza, the theme of which was Peace and Peaceful Coexistence. According to the article, GUS HALL, Communist leader, and WILLIAM L. PATTERSON, as New York State Communist spokesman, were among the speakers who "sounded the May Day keynotes of 'Peace,' 'Civil Rights,' and 'Job Security.'"

"The Worker" is an east coast Communist newspaper.

On April 4, 1963, a second source advised that the 1963 Union Square May Day Committee had an office at 130 East 16th Street, New York City, room 201, telephone GR 3-8490.

On May 16, 1963, the Information Operator of the New York Telephone Company, advised that telephone number GR 3-8490 was changed to OR 9-9450. By means of a suitable pretext, a Special Agent of the Federal Bureau of Investigation determined from LOUIS WEINSTOCK, General Manager of "The Worker," that OR 9-9450 is listed to "The Worker" and that the May Day Committee has been disbanded.

THE UNITED STATES FESTIVAL COMMITTEE, INCORPORATED (EIGHTH WORLD YOUTH FESTIVAL)

The third 1961 issue of "World Youth," a publication of World Federation of Democratic Youth (WFDY), reported that the first meeting of the International Preparatory Committee (IPC) took place at Helsinki, Finland, on February 20-22, 1961, to prepare for the Eighth World Youth Festival to be held in Helsinki, in 1962. At the meeting, the IPC elected a permanent commission composed of representatives of a number of countries including Canada, the United States, as well as representatives of WFDY and the International Union of Students (IUS).

The IUS with headquarters in Prague, Czechoslovakia, and the WFDY with headquarters in Budapest, Hungary, are cited as communist organizations in the "Guide to Subversive Organizations and Publications" dated December 1, 1961, published by the Committee on Un-American Activities, United States House of Representatives, Washington, D.C., pages 91 and 177.

A source advised that in April, 1961, DANNY RUBIN, National Youth Director, Communist Party, United States of America (CPUSA), advised that CP districts should concentrate on getting broad groups to sponsor the United States Festival Committee (USFC).

A pamphlet issued by the USFC described the program for the Festival and advised that the USFC was organized by students and youth leaders at a founding conference at Chicago, Illinois, October 15, 1961, to publicize and encourage participation in the Helsinki Festival. The USFC had been recognized by the IPC, the sponsoring body of the Festival, as the United States Committee to administer United States participation in the Festival.

On August 20, 1963, a second source reported the USFC Post Office Box 172, Highbridge Station, Bronx 52, New York, had been closed July 1, 1963, and mail since the latter date had been forwarded to NORMAN Z. BERKOWITZ, 15 Clarke Place, Bronx, New York, who was listed as Treasurer of USFC.

UNITED AFRICAN NATIONALIST MOVEMENT (UANM)

The records of the Bureau of Special Services, New York City Police Department, which were reviewed on November 10, 1960, reflect that in 1948, JAMES LAWSON was actively associated with the Universal African Nationalist Movement, New York City, which organization had been active in Harlem (New York City) for a number of years, and at one time had exclusive interest in a movement to colonize Liberia with American Negroes. A group within this organization deviated from this purpose and formed a "buy black" committee advocating that Harlem Negroes purchase only from Negro merchants. JAMES LAWSON was one of the members of the "buy black" committee. As a result of this action Nationalist Movement notified the New York City Police Department on September 3, 1948, that JAMES LAWSON and five other members were being expelled from membership. Subsequently, a new organization known as the United African Nationalist Movement was organized. JAMES LAWSON was and still is President of this organization.

On April 23, 1959, a source furnished a pamphlet, which reflected the following aims and objectives of the UANM:

1. To establish a world-wide confraternity among the Black race.

2. To promote the economic and industrial development of independent black nations.

3. To promote economic self-determination in all black communities, instilling the slogan: "Buy Black".

a. Buy first from black owned businesses.

b. Buy, secondly, from businesses who have managers, clerks, et cetera of African ancestry.

c. Buy, thirdly from businesses who are owned by others who have a fair employment policy (who hire us).

4. To conduct a world-wide commercial and industrial intercourse for the good of the race.

5. To conduct a militant and consistent campaign against colonialism by European nations in Africa; slogan: "Africa Must Be Free".

6. To represent the race, locally, nationally and internationally in all instances where the rights of the people of the African Race are involved.

7. To insist that the curricula in schools attended by children of African stock contain African history.

During November, 1960, another source advised that it is doubtful that membership of the UANM has ever reached beyond fifty members.

Upon being interviewed on March 17, 1961, JAMES R. LAWSON, the President of the UANM, advised that the purpose of UANM was to obtain the rights due the "African descendants" in this country and Africa. He stated that the UANM was financed by payments collected from the members and, in the past, has received contributions from a group of businessmen, whom he declined to identify.

UNITED INDEPENDENT-SOCIALIST COMMITTEE,
Formerly Known As the Independent-Socialist Party

A confidential source advised in June, 1958, that the Independent-Socialist Party (I-SP) was organized at conferences held on June 13-15, 1958, in New York City.

Another confidential source advised in October, 1958, that the I-SP had as its ultimate aim the establishment of a national labor party.

An article in the February 2, 1959, issue of "The Militant" entitled "N.Y. Socialists Discuss Possibilities for 1960," related that the I-SP on January 24, 1959, had voted unanimously at a meeting to continue activities as the United Independent-Socialist Committee (UI-SC).

Early in February, 1959, the first confidential source mentioned that between January and the Fall of 1959, the UI-SC would engage in struggles of the "left" and would participate in the fight for "peace, coexistence, civil liberties and civil rights and support the struggles of colored peoples and the struggle for passports, etc."

Early in May, 1959, the first confidential source advised that the Socialist Workers Party (SWP) was then the dominant group in the UI-SC and was in a position from which it could direct and control activities of the UI-SC.

An article, "UI-SC Disbands in N.Y.; Failed to Agree on '60," which appeared in the November 9, 1959, issue of the "National Guardian," related in part: "Because of disagreement over electoral policy for 1960, New York United Independent-Socialist Committee has voted to dissolve."

The headquarters of the UI-SC was located at 799 Broadway, New York City.

"The Militant" is a weekly newspaper of the SWP.

The SWP has been designated pursuant to Executive Order 10450.

W.E.B. DU BOIS CLUBS OF AMERICA

A source has advised that on October 26-27, 1963, a conference of members of the Communist Party (CP), including national functionaries, met in Chicago, Illinois, for the purpose of setting in motion forces for the establishment of a new national Marxist-oriented youth organization which would hunt for the most peaceful transition to socialism. The delegates to this meeting were cautioned against the germ of anti-Soviet and anti-CP ideologies. These delegates were also told that it would be reasonable to assume that the young socialists attracted into this new organization would eventually pass into the CP itself.

A second conference of over 20 persons met in Chicago on December 28-29, 1963, for the purpose of initiating a "call" to the new youth organization and planning for a founding convention to be held in June, 1964.

A second source has advised that the founding convention for the new youth organization was held from June 19-21, 1964, at 150 Golden Gate Avenue, San Francisco, California, at which time the name W.E.B. DuBois Clubs of America was adopted. Approximately 500 delegates from throughout the United States attended this convention. The aims of this organization, as set forth in the preamble to the constitution, are: "It is our belief that this nation can best solve its problems in an atmosphere of peaceful coexistence, complete disarmament and true freedom for all peoples of the world, and that these solutions will be reached mainly through the united efforts of all democratic elements in our country, composed essentially of the working people allied in the unity of Negroes and other minorities with whites. We further fully recognize that the greatest threat to American democracy comes from the racist and right wing forces in coalition with the most reactionary sections of the economic power structure, using the tool of anti-communism to divide and destroy the unified struggle of the working people. As young people in the forces struggling for democracy, we shall actively strive to defeat these reactionary and neo-fascist elements and to achieve complete freedom and democracy for all Americans, thus enabling each individual to freely choose and build the society he would wish to live in. Through these struggles we feel the American people will realize the viability of the socialist alternatives."

W.E.B. DU BOIS CLUBS OF AMERICA

The constitution further states that this new organization shall be a membership organization open to individuals, or if five or more people so desire a chapter can be formed which shall in turn be guided by the policies and principles of the parent organization.

The second source has also advised that at the founding convention it was voted that the organization should be temporarily headquartered in San Francisco, California, although no specific physical location was decided upon. This same source advised on June 29, 1964, that the temporary headquarters of this organization is 1007 McAllister Street, San Francisco, which is the headquarters of the W.E.B. DuBois Club of San Francisco.

Both sources have advised that at the founding convention two officers were elected:

PHILIP CHAPIN DAVIS - President
CARL ELLENGER BLOICE - Publications Chairman

A third source has advised that on October 26, 1962, PHILIP DAVIS attended a CP recruiting class held at 1579 Scenic Avenue, Berkeley, California. (U)

A fourth source has advised that CARL BLOICE, reporter for the "People's World" newspaper, was, on April 3, 1964, elected to the newly organized San Francisco County Committee of the CP.

The "People's World" is a west coast communist newspaper published weekly in San Francisco, California.

WORKERS WORLD PARTY

On April 17, 1959, a confidential source advised that on February 12, 1959, a Socialist Workers Party (SWP) minority group, under the leadership of National Committee member, SAM BALLAN, split from the SWP.

The source stated that this minority group, referred to as the Marcyites, after many years of program and policy differences on varied issues concerning tactics and interpretation of political events, split from the SWP on the grounds that the Party was liquidating itself by departing from the Marxist precepts of LEON TROTSKY and retreating from the fight for the world socialist revolution. The final issue which ultimately forced the split was the minority's opposition to the SWP regroupment policy which involved cooperation with the Communist Party (CP) periphery - individuals characterized by the minority as petty-bourgeois.

The minority program, according to the source, advocated unconditional defense of the Soviet Union and has as its goal the building of a revolutionary party with a complete proletarian orientation for the purpose of overthrowing capitalism in the United States and throughout the world.

On May 12, 1960, the source advised that this minority group had chosen the name Workers World Party.

On April 27, 1964, a second source advised that the Workers World Party, which maintains headquarters at 46 West 21st Street, New York, New York, supports the People's Republic of China in its ideological dispute with the Soviet Union.

The SWP and the CP have been designated pursuant to Executive Order 10450.

YOUNG ACTION

A confidential source advised on August 15, 1963, that a group of young adult members of Advance Youth Organization met at New York City on August 14, 1963, and decided to establish a new organization composed of working class youth interested in Marxism. (U)

A program of teaching job skills to youth residing in the Lower East Side section of the Borough of Manhattan was discussed as being the primary function of the organization. The members voted to call the new organization "Young Action".

The source reported on March 8, 1964, that the office of Young Action was located at 169 Allen Street, New York City.

A second confidential source furnished information on February 12, 1964, which listed the elected officers of Young Action as follows:

President	AL ZAGARELL
Vice President	SAM "Brother" JARVIS
Secretary	HIRAM GONZALEZ
Education Director	ANNETTE ZELMAN

[redacted] member of the Communist Party from [redacted] advised on September 27, 1962, that AL ZAGARELL chaired a meeting of the Lower Manhattan Communist Party Youth Club held in New York City on September 23, 1962.

The March 1, 1954, issue of the "Young Socialist Challenge," published as page three of "Labor Action," an official publication of the Independent Socialist League (ISL), contained an article concerning the creation of the YSL, which pointed out that at a unity conference occurring February 12-14, 1954, at Labor Action Hall, New York, New York, a merger occurred between the Young People's Socialist League (YPSL) and the Socialist Youth League (SYL). The new organization was named the YSL.

A confidential informant on June 15, 1954, made available the minutes of the YSL's National Action Committee meeting of April 13, 1954, which reflected that one S. SITEMAN, " Chairman of SP (Socialist Party) Youth Committee," had objected to a statement appearing in "Commerce," a New York University journal, which indicated that the YPSL merged with the SYL to form the YSL. He explained that the YPSL did not merge with anyone, that it continued to exist as the youth section of the Socialist Party. He explained that a small group of the YPSL was dropped, expelled, or suspended from that organization and joined the SYL, which he characterized as the youth group of the "Trotskyite ISL." He explained that after these few former members of the YPSL joined the SYL, the SYL then proceeded to change its name for its own purposes. (U)

On April 9, 1956, another confidential informant advised as follows:

The YSL has frequently worked in close sympathetic cooperation with the ISL toward similar objectives, although each major issue given mutual consideration is decided upon by these organizations individually. The YSL serves as an apprenticeship for the ISL, but ISL selection of members from YSL ranks is made on an individual and personal basis. In many instances YSL members are also members of the ISL.

A source advised that on May 15, 1960, the National Executive Committee of the Communist Party, USA (CPUSA), endorsed a project presented by MORTIMER DANIEL RUBIN, National Youth Director, CPUSA, calling for a youth publication, "New Horizons". RUBIN stated that this publication will deal with youth questions and while it will not be labeled Marxist, it will use a Marxist analysis on all issues. (U)

Another source advised on June 2, 1960, that the title of the youth publication "New Horizons", had been changed to "New Horizons For Youth".

Records of the New York County Clerk's Office, New York, New York, reflect that Youth Publications, Incorporated, was incorporated in the State of New York on May 17, 1960.

The Volume 1, Number 8, May, 1961, issue of "New Horizons For Youth", indicated that it is published by Youth Publications, Incorporated, 799 Broadway, New York, New York.

The Volume 4, Number 1 issue of "New Horizons For Youth", published during January, 1964, indicates that LIONEL LIBSON is the editor and the place of publication is 1426 Bristol Street, Philadelphia 40, Pennsylvania.

On May 7, 1964, a third source advised that LIONEL LIBSON was a member of the Youth Club, Communist Party of Eastern Pennsylvania and Delaware (CPEPD); that he was moved by the CP to New York to work on "New Horizons For Youth"; and when "New Horizons For Youth" moved to Philadelphia, LIBSON returned to Philadelphia as editor and is again a member of the Youth Club, CPEPD. YOUNG SOCIALIST ALLIANCE

The May, 1960, issue of the "Young Socialist" (YS), page 1, column 3, disclosed that during April 15-17, 1960, a national organization entitled "The Young Socialist Alliance" (YSA) was established at Philadelphia, Pennsylvania. This issue stated that this organization was formed by the nationwide supporter clubs of the publication YS.

The above issue, page 6, set forth the Founding Declaration of YSA. This declaration stated that the YSA recognizes the Socialist Workers Party (SWP) as the only existing political leadership on class struggle principles, and that the supporters of the YS have come into basic political solidarity with the SWP on the principles of revolutionary socialism.

A source advised on May 6, 1964, that the original YSA was an organization formed during October, 1957, in New York City by youth of various left socialist tendencies, particularly members and followers of the SWP. The leaders of this group were the guiding forces in the establishment of the national organization.

The source further advised on May 6, 1964, that the YSA is dominated and controlled on a national basis by the SWP through having SWP members comprise exclusively the National Executive Committee (NEC) and through an official SWP representative at all YSA NEC meetings. The YSA, in reality, is the youth and training section of the SWP and the main source of new SWP members.

The headquarters of the YSA are located in Room 631, 41 Union Square West, New York City.

The SWP has been designated pursuant to Executive Order 10450.

Title: COMMUNIST INFLUENCE IN RACIAL MATTERS

Character: INTERNAL SECURITY - COMMUNISM

Synopsis: HUNTER PITTS O'DELL and STANLEY LEVISON observed in company of MARTIN LUTHER KING, JR., President of SCLC, in Savannah Air Terminal, 1/10/63, prior to departure to McIntosh, Ga., the location of the Dorchester Center, site of teacher training center in south, which is staffed and programed by SCLC and supported by funds from the Marshall Field Foundation. Chatham County Crusade for Voters, affiliate of SCLC, maintains offices in quarters rented by Local 870, IUMMSW. HOSEA LORENZO WILLIAMS, President of Crusade for Voters, publicly announced 8/28/63 his organization severing ties with IUMMSW, but offices currently listed as located in same place. HOSEA WILLIAMS and MARTIN LUTHER KING contacted by CARL or ANNE BRADEN. HOSEA WILLIAMS assisted C. T. VIVIAN in planning 8th Annual Convention of SCLC held at Savannah, Ga., 9/29-10/2/64. FRANK W. SPENCER, listed as member of Advisory Committee of SCEF in letter to CARL BRADEN, advised he would pay for hotel charges for BRADEN and Rev. MAURICE MC CRACKIN during SCLC Convention, and in same letter described HUBERT HUMPHREY as "good friend". BRADEN observed in Manger Hotel 9/30/64 and later shaking hands with MARTIN LUTHER KING. During SCLC Convention, BRADEN contacted offices of SPENCER and Chatham County Crusade for Voters. List of individuals attending SCLC convention at Manger Hotel whose rooms paid for by SCLC set forth.

SV T-2 advised on February 26, 1957, that he had identified a photograph of [redacted] as a person whom he knew during late 1953 or early 1954 to be a representative of, and in a position of leadership, in the Labor Youth League.

b7C

The Guide to Subversive Organizations and Publications, published December 1, 1961, which was prepared and released by the Committee on un-American Activities, U. S. House of Representatives, reflects on Page 98, the following information concerning the Labor Youth League:

1. Found to be a "Communist-front organization" within the meaning of the Internal Security Act of 1950 and ordered to register as such with the Attorney General. The Labor Youth League "Formally came into being at a conference or convention held in Chicago, Illinois, on May 28 and 29, 1949."

"* * * the Board concludes and finds that the Communist Party of the United States, believing that control of the youth is necessary to wage a successful revolutionary struggle in the United States, and acting upon the principle that 'the forces that win the youth of our country will win our country,' created and controls the Labor Youth League.

"Although purportedly an independent organization devoted to the so-called needs of the youth, and educating and stimulating the interest of the youth in the spirit of 'Socialism,' the Labor Youth League was never intended to be, and is not in actuality, independent of the Communist Party. It is operated and maintained in such a way as to be completely subservient to the Party, and is used to promote and carry out important Party objectives.

"* * * To a controlling extent those who are active in the management, direction, or supervision of the League, whether or not holding office therein, are individuals who are either active in the management, direction, or supervision of, or are representatives of, the Communist Party.

"The Labor Youth League is the principal means whereby a segment of American youth is indoctrinated and trained for dedicated membership and future positions of leadership in the Party. It is also the means whereby these individuals are put into active service in support and in aid of Communist Party policies and objectives."

2. Cited as a "Communist organization" which "has taken the place of the two prior organizations as the organization for young Communists" --the Young Communist League and American Youth for Democracy.

3. "Evidence in the possession of the committee shows that the Labor Youth League has functioned as the youth section of the Communist Party in recent years."

4. "Where the Communist message cannot be carried most effectively by the Communist Party among particular groups in the population, special fronts are formed for the purpose, such as * * * Labor Youth League."

In April, 1964, SV T-3 advised that STANLEY LEVISON was a secret member of the Communist Party, United States of America (CPUSA), in July, 1963. In late 1963 and early 1964, he criticized the Communist Party for not being sufficiently militant in the Civil Rights struggle. LEVISON was described by certain Communist Party leaders as being to the "left" of the Communist Party in his position on Civil Rights. LEVISON's differences with the Communist Party, however, are merely tactical and he continues his ideological adherence to Communism.

SV T-1 advised on January 9, 1963, that STANLEY LEVISON was scheduled to depart New York City on January 9, 1963, arriving in Atlanta on January 10, 1963, at 6:50 AM.

On January 10, 1963, Special Agents of the Federal Bureau of Investigation observed the arrival of MARTIN LUTHER KING, JR., and members of his staff, including JACK O'DELL. Upon arrival of this group at the Savannah Air Terminal, KING was approached by a white male in such a manner that it was indicative that the two were not strangers. In the ensuing conversation, KING was overheard to introduce [redacted] b6 b7C the Educational Director of the SCLC, to this same white male, but in this introduction KING used the name STANLEY LEVISON during the short period of time the group remained in the air terminal, KING was heard to call HUNTER PITTS O'DELL by his first name.

SV T-4 advised on December 14, 1959, that during the 17th National Convention of the Communist Party, United States of America (CP, USA), held December 10-13, 1959, in New York City, the election of the new National Committee, CP, USA, was held. Three individuals from the south were elected to membership on this new National Committee, one being CORNELIUS JAMES.

On January 6, 1960, SV T-5 advised that CORNELIUS JAMES is fictitious and is actually identical to HUNTER PITTS O'DELL.

SV T-6 advised on July 3, 1962, that HUNTER PITTS O'DELL was among those persons who attended a conference of the CP, USA National Committee, district leaders and selected functionaries which was held at Academy Hall, New York City, June 22-24, 1962.

In July, 1962, SV T-5 stated that HUNTER PITTS O'DELL was considered by the CP, USA, as a member of the National Committee.

b7D

[redacted] advised on September 25, 1962, that O'DELL registers in and out from New York City and represents himself as being with the SCLC. She stated that he has represented himself in this capacity as late as September, 1962, and that he registers under the name of J. H. O'DELL.

On Page 8 of the January 19, 1963 issue of "The Herald", a weekly Negro publication published in Savannah, Ga., is reflected an article which states, "MARTIN LUTHER KING, JR., President of the Southern Christian Leadership Conference of Atlanta, Georgia, paid an unexpected visit to Dorchester Center at Liberty County, Friday night, where the Citizenship School Teachers of Savannah, South Carolina, Virginia and Albany convene for their refresher courses in Citizenship.

"Reverend King told the teachers that no matter what he and the Southern Christian Leadership Conference did for freedom the results depends upon them.

"There were 16 Citizenship School Teachers from Savannah representing the Chatham County Crusade for Voters."

b7D

On March 19, 1963, [redacted] made available a citizenship workbook of the SCLC which reflects on the reverse side of the front cover the officers of the SCLC, among which is listed under "Voter Registration Project", J. H. O'DELL, Staff Consultant.

In an interview on August 14, 1964, HOSEA LORENZO WILLIAMS, President, Chatham County Crusade for Voters, Savannah, Ga., affiliate of the SCLC, advised that the SCLC staffs and programs the Dorchester Community Center at McIntosh, Ga. He stated that the Dorchester Center is the only teacher training center of its kind in the south, and Negroes are trained at the Dorchester Center from Maryland to Florida, from Louisiana and Mississippi and other southeastern states. He stated that the funds to operate and maintain the Dorchester Center originate with the MARSHALL FIELD Foundation, who in turn make these funds available to the American Missionary Association, which he described as a division of the Congregation in Christ Churches, and he knows the church as the United Church of Christ in New York City. He continued by stating the American Missionary Association then makes the funds available to the SCLC, who staff and program with their personnel at the Dorchester Center.

He advised the school conducts classes for Negro adults for a period of six days, during which time these Negroes are trained to return to their home communities and conduct night classes for one or two weeks duration with the Negroes in their communities in an effort to help teach them to become qualified voters and to improve their reading, writing, manners, arithmetic and learn more about the government.

Page 1A of the July 24, 1963 issue of the "Savannah Morning News", a daily newspaper published in Savannah, Ga., reflects an article captioned, "State Will Probe Negro Group Here". This article pertains to an investigation called for by State Attorney General EUGENE COOK of a report that the Chatham County Crusade for Voters has its headquarters in quarters rented by the Local 870 of the International Union of Mine, Mill and Smelter Workers. (IUMMSW) The article continued by quoting that HOSEA WILLIAMS considered the use of quarters rented by the local union at 416 West Park Avenue as "coincidental". WILLIAMS stated his organization has used a portion of the eight-room facility leased to the union since 1961 and explained, "We were looking for rent-free quarters simply because we had no money to pay rent". He added that the Mine, Mill and Smelters Union last year contributed "about " $100 all together" to the Crusade for Voters.

The article continued by stating the President of the Savannah local, JAMES EDWARDS, and the local's representative to the International Union, JESSIE DOSTER, are both members of the Executive Board of the Crusade for Voters.

C.A. S.C.

The 1955 edition of the Directory of National and International Labor Unions in the United States, U. S. Department of Labor Bulletin #1185, Pages three and four, reflects that the International Union of Mine, Mill and Smelter Workers was expelled from the Congress of Industrial Organizations (CIO) on February 15, 1950, for being Communist dominated.

SV T-7 advised in 1948 that JAMES EDWARDS of the International Union of Mine, Mill and Smelter Workers was chairman of a Shoreside Branch of the Communist Party in Savannah, Georgia.

The December 1, 1952 issue of "The Union, official organ of the International Union of Mine, Mill and Smelter Workers, contains a photograph of ASBURY HOWARD, National Executive Board member of the National Negro Labor Council, congratulating JESSIE DOSTER on the formation of a Negro Labor Council Chapter in Charleston, S. C.

The December 1, 1961 issue of the Guide to Subversive Organizations and Publications, prepared and released by the Committee on un-American Activities, U. S. House of Representatives, reflects on Page 123, the following regarding the National Negro Labor Council:

1. "One of the Communist fronts currently active in seeking to deceive American Negroes into serving the Communist cause in the National Negro Labor Council.* * * The organization was formally founded at a conference held in Cincinnati, Ohio, October 27 and 28, 1951, under the direction of leading Negro Communists in the United States, such as Abner Berry, Sam W. Parks, and Coleman A. Young. According to the latest available information, Young is the present National executive secretary of the organization, from which post he controls and directs NMLC activities.* * * A study of the operation of the council shows that, rather than helping the Negro worker, it has been a deterrent to him."

2. Cited as a Communist front "formed to provoke racial friction."

On Page 5B of the August 28, 1963 issue of the "Savannah Morning News" there appears an article captioned, "Crusade cuts ties with Union", which states that HOSEA WILLIAMS, President of the Chatham County Crusade for Voters, has announced that his organization is severing ties with the International Union of Mine, Mill and Smelter Workers to "prevent being associated with any un-American-like activities". The article further stated that the union has been labeled Communist-controlled by the U. S. Subversive Activities Control Board.

The current Savannah City Directory for 1963 and 1964 reflects that the Chatham County Crusade for Voters, HOSEA WILLIAMS, President, has offices in Room 203 at 416 W. Park Ave. The same directory reflects that the IUMMSW Local 870 has offices at 416 West Park Avenue.

[redacted] Delta Airlines, advised on January 11, 1963, that O'DELL, along with others, had reservations on Flight 422, departing Savannah at 8:25 AM on January 12, 1963. [redacted] explained that O'DELL originally had the reservation in his name, but later cancelled the reservation and changed the name of the reservation to HUNTER. b6 b7C

[redacted] of the Atlantic Coastline Railroad Police, advised on January 11, 1963, that STANLEY LEVISON had a reservation on the Atlantic Coastline Train #2, "West Coast Champion", Bedroom D, Car A, leaving Savannah, Ga., at 8:45 PM, scheduled to arrive in New York City on January 12, 1963, at 11:50 AM.

On October 28, 1963, T-8 advised that CARL and ANNE BRADEN of Louisville, Kentucky, had contacted Dr. MARTIN LUTHER KING, JR., at the Dorchester Center on September 5, 1963. She also stated that the BRADENs had contacted HOSEA WILLIAMS in Savannah, Ga., on September 30, 1963, at the office of the Chatham County Crusade for Voters, 416 West Park Avenue.

CARL and ANNE BRADEN

Mrs. ALBERTA AHEARN, 2311 Payne Street, Louisville, Kentucky, a self-admitted former member of the Communist Party (CP), Louisville, Kentucky, in testifying on December 11 and 13, 1954, in Jefferson County, Kentucky, Criminal Court, in a state sedition prosecution against CARL JAMES BRADEN, identified BRADEN and his wife, ANNE BRADEN, as having been known to her as members of the CP, Louisville, Kentucky, from January, 1951, to shortly prior to the time of her testimony. 4403 VA. Ave. Louisville, Ky.

The Courier-Journal, Louisville, Kentucky, a newspaper of general circulation, on February 3, 1959, reported that CARL BRADEN had been sentenced to one year in prison on a charge of contempt of Congress on February 2, 1959, in Atlanta, Georgia. The story noted that he had been convicted under this charge on January 21, 1959, and that the charges arose from his refusal to answer questions before the House Committee on un-American Activities.

The Louisville Times, Louisville, Kentucky, a newspaper of general circulation, on February 27, 1961, reported that the United States Supreme Court had, on that date, affirmed the contempt of Congress conviction of BRADEN.

The Courier-Journal on May 2, 1961, reported that CARL BRADEN had surrendered to the United States Marshal at Atlanta, Georgia, on May 1, 1961, to begin serving a one-year prison sentence for contempt of Congress.

The Courier-Journal, on February 2, 1962, reported that CARL BRADEN had been released from the Federal Prison Camp at Allenwood, Pennsylvania, on February 1, 1962. BRADEN indicated that he would return to his home, Louisville, Kentucky.

SV T-9 advised that CARL BRADEN and his wife, ANNE BRADEN, continue to reside at 4403 Virginia Avenue and are employed as Field Secretaries for the Southern Conference Educational Fund, Inc., a characterization of which is located in the appendix.

On April 5, 1964, SV T-10 furnished information reflecting that J. H. O'DELL, on March 4, 1964, contacted HOSEA WILLIAMS, Chairman, Chatham County Crusade for Voters, 416 West Park Ave., Savannah, Ga., on behalf of "Freedom Ways" magazine regarding the organization represented by WILLIAMS, using this magazine. He stated that he had asked the editors of the publication to make arrangements for his organization to make bulk purchases of the magazine at a discount and also pointed out that the current issue of "Freedom Ways" is a special issue devoted to the Negro freedom movement in the south. O'DELL suggested to WILLIAMS that a number of his "key block" workers, as well as others, would like the opportunity of getting the current issue of "Freedom Ways" and added that the magazine has considerable educational value and could be useful in any training program for those active in the Civil Rights movement.

A characterization of Freedom Ways Associates, Inc., publishers of the magazine "Freedom Ways", is set forth in the appendix.

SV 100-5131

Southern Christian Leadership Conference
Eighth Annual Conference
Savannah, Georgia
September 29 - October 2, 1964

On August 26, 1964, HOSEA WILLIAMS, President, Chatham County Crusade for Voters, an affiliate of the SCLC, advised that the Reverend C. T. VIVIAN of the SCLC is in Savannah, Ga., confering with him in regard to making plans for the forthcoming national convention of the SCLC to be held at Savannah, Ga., September 29 through October 2, 1964.

In November, 1947, SV T-11 advised that C. T. VIVIAN was a member of the Community Section of the Communist Party in Peoria, Illinois. On June 24, 1948, SV T-11 advised that C. T. VIVIAN had not been active in the Communist Party affairs in the Peoria area for some time, and advised he had not been in the area for a long period of time.

On September 28, 1964, SV T-12 made available a letter, which is set forth as follows:

"Mr. Carl Braden
Southern Conference Educational Fund, Inc.
4403 Virginia Avenue
Louisville, Kentucky 40211

Dear Carl:

I have reserved a double room (twin beds) for you and Rev. Maurice McCrackin 29 September to 2 October at the Manger Hotel -- Phone 232-6121. Please call the hotel if you will not arrive before 6:00 PM so that they may know just when you will reach the hotel.

SV 100-5131

I regret to advise that we will be in Atlanta on 20 September for the Georgia Democratic Campaign Money Raising Dinner at which my good friend Hubert Humphrey will be the speaker.

Trust that your attendance will prove fruitful at the SCLC Conference.

All good wishes,

Sincerely,

Frank

SV T-13 made available on August 18, 1961, a copy of a letter of the Southern Conference Educational Fund, Inc., dated July 19, 1961, which set forth a list of officers, members of the Board of Directors, members of the Advisory Committee, and the Medical Advisory Committee. Under the list of the Advisory Committee in the State of Georgia was listed Frank W. Spencer.

SV 100-5131

On September 29, 1964, SV T-12 advised that HARRY WACHTEL and his wife, LEONORA, would arrive on that date in Savannah, Ga., to be in attendance at the SCLC Convention. According to the official pamphlet of the Convention of the SCLC, HARRY WACTHELL was scheduled to give the citation for the Rosa Parks Freedom Award on Thursday evening, October 1, 1964, at the city-wide mass meeting at Grayson Stadium.

SV T-14 furnished information in December, 1949, that HARRY H. WACHTEL, 41 Broad St., New York City, was on a list of individuals carried as active members of the National Lawyers Guild. N.Y.

Mrs. Harry H. Wachtel

Page 121 of the Guide to Subversive Organizations and Publications, published December 1, 1961, which was prepared and released by the Committee on un-American Activities, U. S. House of Representatives, reflects the following regarding the National Lawyers Guild:

1. Cited as a Communist front.

2. Cited as a Communist front which "is the foremost legal bulwark of the Communist Party, its front organizations, and controlled unions" and which "since its inception has never failed to rally to the legal defense of the Communist Party and individual members thereof, including known espionage agents."

3. "To defend the cases of Communist lawbreakers, fronts have been devised making special appeals in behalf of civil liberties and reaching out far beyond the confines of the Communist Party itself. Among these organizations are the * * * National Lawyers Guild. When the Communist Party itself is under fire these offer a bulwark of protection."

On March 5, 1944, SV T-15 furnished information which revealed that the name HARRY

WACHTEL was on a list of names, significance not known, which was maintained at the headquarters of the Kings County Communist Party at 26 Court Street, Brooklyn, New York.

Regarding HARRY WACHTEL's wife, LEONORA, it is noted that SV T-15 furnished information on March 5, 1944, which revealed that her name and address were on a list of names of newly elected officers of the Bath Beach Club of the Kings County Communist Party.

On September 30, 1964, at about 1:15 PM, CARL BRADEN was observed in the coffee shop of the Manger Hotel, Savannah, Georgia, in company with another white male approximately of the same age and height. At the time BRADEN was observed to have a stack of letters and mail on the table and he appeared to be writing something on a pad of paper. During the time of the observations, BRADEN was wearing on the left lapel of his suit coat an SCLC button to which was attached a red ribbon bearing the word "Press", running vertical on the ribbon. At about 2:30 PM, BRADEN accompanied by the other individual, paid the check and they were observed to enter the elevator in the Manger Hotel. From the automatic floor indicator above the elevator, it was ascertained that they stopped on the fourth floor.

About 3 PM, BRADEN and the other unidentified individual were observed to leave the elevator, walk through the lobby of the Manger Hotel and request a vehicle. During the time they were waiting for the vehicle to be delivered, MARTIN LUTHER KING, accompanied by other unidentified individuals, stopped in front of the Hotel and departed from the car. BRADEN was observed to shake hands with KING and thereafter, kissed an unidentified Negro female while standing in the street in front of the Manger Hotel.

Shortly thereafter, a late model Ford Galaxie, faded light gray or light blue in color, was observed to pull up in front of the Manger Hotel and BRADEN was observed to enter the car as the driver. The other unidentified individual climbed in the front seat along side of BRADEN. Upon departing from the hotel, the above vehicle was observed to bear Jefferson County, Kentucky license J92-994.

A discreet observation of the automobile parking records of guests of the Manger Hotel which are maintained by the doorman, disclosed that Jefferson County, Kentucky license J92-994 had the name BRADEN written along side of the license number.

[redacted] made available registration card of the Manger Hotel, number B89014, signed Reverend MAURICE McCRACKIN, representing SCLC, reflecting he was assigned to Room 410 at the rate of $6.00 plus 18¢ tax. Under special instructions it is noted "Registered in. Bill to Frank Spencer, P. O. Box 136, Sav. Ga.". The time stamped on the reverse side of the registration card reveals he registered at 10:32 PM on September 29, 1964. b6 b7C b7D

In addition, [redacted] made available ledger card number B89014, reflecting Reverend M. McCRACKIN was charged for 3 nights lodging at $6.18 plus one telephone call on October 2, 1964, at 15¢, for a total of $18.69. Under remarks was the notation "charged to Captain Frank Spencer, P. O. Box 136, Sav. Ga_", and was signed MAURICE MC CRACKIN by CARL BRADEN.

[redacted] made available registration card number B89015 in the name of CARL BRADEN, representing SCLC, reflecting that CARL BRADEN was assigned to Room 410 at the rate of $6.00 plus 18¢ tax. A notation on the registration card was as follows: "Registered in. Bill to Frank Spencer, P. O. Box 136, Sav. Ga". b6 b7C b7D

The reverse side of the registration card was stamped to indicate Mr. BRADEN registered at 10:32 PM on September 29, 1964.

[redacted] made available ledger card number B89015 reflecting CARL BRADEN, Room 410, was charged with 3 nights lodging on September 29, 30, and October 1, 1964, and was charged 30¢ for two telephone calls on October 2, 1964, for a total of $18.84. A notation was entered on the bottom of this card under remarks "chg. to Capt. Frank Spencer, P. O. Box 136, Savh, Ga-" and was signed-CARL BRADEN.

[redacted] stated that they checked the switchboard records for the three telephone calls charged to Room 410 on October 2, 1964, but they were able to find a record of only two local calls. One was to number 232-8103 and the other was to 233-8127. He said they had no way of knowing whether the calls were made by Mr. BRADEN or by Reverend MC CRACKIN as the charge is merely listed by room numbers. b6 b7C b7D

An article in the January, 1963 issue of the "Cardinal", a student publication of the University of Louisville, Louisville, Ky., urged current contributions to the organization termed "Operation Freedom", which was described as a national Civil Rights organization, providing economic assistance to persons deprived of their living from reprisals against their participation in Civil Rights activities, be sent in care of Reverend MAURICE MC CRACKLIN, 932 Dayton St., Cincinnati, Ohio, which is the address of the Community Church of Cincinnati of which MAURICE F. MC CRACKIN is the pastor.

A search of the Savannah Cross-Reference Directory for January, 1964, reflects telephone number 232-8103 is assigned to the Atlantic Towing Co. business office, as well as to the office of FRANK W. SPENCER. The Directory reflects telephone number 233-8127 is assigned to the Chatham County Crusade for Voters.

On September 28, 1964, [redacted] made available the following list of individuals who had rooms at the Manger Hotel during the SCLC Convention September 29 - October 2, 1964, which had been paid for by the SCLC: b6 b7C b7D

SOUTHERN CONFERENCE EDUCATIONAL FUND, INC.

"The Southern Patriot", a monthly publication, shows that it is published by the SOUTHERN CONFERENCE EDUCATIONAL FUND, INC. (SCEF).

"The Southern Patriot" was cited as an "organ" of the SOUTHERN CONFERENCE FOR HUMAN WELFARE (SCHW) by the Committee on Un-American Activities, House Report 592, of the SCHW, June 12, 1947.

The SCHW was cited as a communist front by the Committee on Un-American Activities, House Report 592, June 16, 1947.

An amendment to the charter of the SCHW changed the name of that organization to the SCEF, and listed its purpose as being to improve the educational and cultural standards of the Southern people in accordance with the highest American democratic institutions, traditions, and ideals. The amendment was dated April 26, 1946.

A source advised on March 2, 1962, that CLAUDE LIGHTFOOT, a Communist Party functionary, stated at a meeting of the Communist Party in Baltimore, Maryland, on February 25, 1961, that the Communist Party is not connected with any progressive movement but indirectly they do have some influence in the SCEF.

A second source, who is familiar with some phases of Communist Party activity in the New Orleans area, advised on May 27, 1963, that during the time the SCHW was in existence, Communist Party (CP) members were members of and worked actively in the SCHW. However, since the formation of the SCEF, rank and file CP members have not been encouraged to work in the SCEF. The source stated that the SCEF is a progressive, liberal organization, which he considers a CP front organization because it has gone along with the Communist Party on certain issues, particularly on the racial question.

On May 27, 1963, the second source advised that in the past he has considered JAMES DOMBROWSKI, the Executive Director of the SCEF, to be a communist, if not an actual Communist Party member, because he followed communist principles. C.A.

The second source also advised on May 27, 1963, that many people who are officials and members of the SCEF, while liberal in their views, are by no means communists.

FREEDOMWAYS ASSOCIATES, INC.

The records of the New York Secretary of State, Albany, New York, show that the certificate of incorporation of Freedomways Associates, Incorporated, was filed on March 2, 1961.

The Spring of 1963, issue of "Freedomways" is self-described as "A Quarterly Review of the Negro Freedom Movement" published by Freedomways Associates, Incorporated, 799 Broadway, New York City.

On May 24, 1961, a source advised that a report was given on "Freedomways" at a meeting of the National Board, Communist Party, USA (CPUSA), held on May 24, 1961. It was stated that the original plan called for the publication to be openly Marxist, but that it was later decided it would not be avowedly a Marxist publication. Editorials are in the hands of a mixed group of Marxists and non-Marxists. It was stated that the central purpose of "Freedomways" is to develop a theory and positive criticism of currents in the Negro movement, as well as to raise the leval of understanding and discussion taking place in Negro life today and to project a socialist and pro-Soviet orientation.

On May 25, 1961, another source advised that "Freedomways" was set up for the CPUSA by James Jackson, a member of the National Committee of the CPUSA.

Title: COMMUNIST INFLUENCE IN RACIAL MATTERS

~~DECLASSIFIED BY~~ SSA9803 RDD/JAC
~~ON~~ 11/21/96 (291768) (U)

Character: INTERNAL SECURITY - C

Synopsis: This report covers the period of January 1, 1963 through October 29, 1964.

COMMUNIST STRATEGY:

CP, USA: GUS HALL, CP, USA, General Secretary, reportedly ordered Northern California District CP to form a "special committee on civil rights" in 1963 because the CP had been caught "doing nothing." ROSCOE PROCTOR, member of the CP, USA, National Committee, on 6/8/63, declared the Negro people's movement could become "that catalytic force which could move the United States on the road to socialism." MICKEY LIMA, member of the CP, USA, National Committee and Chairman of the NCDCP, declared in June, 1964, that the CP must win over a wide segment of white workers to the CP program of fighting for labor and civil rights. NCDCP Negro Board in September, 1963, advocated recruitment of Negro youth into the CP, a campaign for jobs for Negroes without displacing white workers, and selection of a national spokesman on the Negro struggle. CP leaders took cognizance of militancy of youth in connection with San Francisco Bay area sit-in demonstration for Negro jobs.

"PEOPLE'S WORLD" PROPAGANDA:
PW criticized federal government for failure to act promptly in Birmingham. PW alleged Negroes were handled roughly in connection with SF sit-ins and criticized trials of arrestees. PW editorial declared "racism and redbaiting are the Siamese twins of contemporary American politics."
SWP: SWP role in connection with the Negro struggle was declared in August, 1963, to include education of the entire SWP membership, expanding and strengthening the Negro cadre of SWP, devoting more energies and forces to the Negro struggle, and improving SWP press and literature treatment of the Negro struggle. SWP designated members to attend CORE meetings. In July, 1964, SWP members in SF were urged to cultivate their contacts with the "black nationalist movement" so the SWP could afford tactical support and advice in the "black revolution."
YSA: YSA leaflet distributed in April, 1964, proposed a program which included militant direct action for civil rights, support of both civil rights activism and black nationalism, and assistance in placing political power in the hands of the working class and Negro people. YSA reportedly is 99% white and has participated in sit-in demonstrations in an effort to recruit people into the YSA.
W.E.B. DU BOIS CLUBS: DuBois Club members were advised to work with other organizations active in civil rights rather than assume the responsibilities themselves. Projects for 1964 included support of the Rumford Fair Housing law, opposition to de facto segregation in schools, and direct action projects for equal employment practices. SF W.E.B. DuBois Club leaflet issued in March, 1964, declared club originated as a Marxist study group, and changed to an action-oriented group because of the need for a group with an ideological base which could give direction to persons involved in struggles for peace, civil rights, and civil liberties. Constitution of W.E.B. DuBois Clubs of America declared need for building a program in relation to the Southern civil rights movement.
YOUTH FOR JOBS: CP Negro Commission planned organization of Youth for Jobs to tackle unemployment problems of youth. YFJ reportedly developed around concept that every individual has a right to a job, discrimination must end, and new jobs must be created.

PROGRESSIVE LABOR MOVEMENT: PLM leaflet in August, 1963, called for solidarity in struggle of American Negroes for equality and freedom. Chairman of Bay Area PLM on 11/24/63, declared PLM favored mass revolutionary action (self-defense measures), such as sit-downs in theaters and stores. LAURENCE HARRIS at same meeting declared BAPL would help Negroes fight for equal rights. During July, 1964, MORTIMER SCHEER, Organizer for PLM in SF area, reportedly stated PLM was trying to coordinate its activities nationally with the radical fringe of the Negro civil rights groups. He defined PLM position as including that the civil rights movement in the South must develop "around self-defense forces."
PROVISIONAL ORGANIZING COMMITTEE: General Secretary ARMANDO ROMAN in June, 1964, declared the POC advocates class warfare, not minority warfare. Organizational Secretary HELEN ROMAN noted the "revolutionary fervor" among the Negro people and declared this fervor must be raised by the POC to a higher level. ROMAN commented that the POC cannot work among established organizations of the Negro people.
NAACP: TAREA HALL PITTMAN, NAACP Regional Secretary, declared in March, 1964, that NAACP would not tolerate unlawful activity in its programs. SF Chapter President Dr. THOMAS BURBRIDGE disagreed with regional policy and declared demonstrators could violate laws where important moral issues are at stake and no personal injury or property damage results. BURBRIDGE in June, 1964, opposed "resort to violence" which he noted had been tolerated by "more militant leaders."
CORE: JACK WEINBERG, a member of the technical staff of a CORE campus publication, in September, 1964, analyzed the civil rights movement in San Francisco and concluded that a change of tactics from sedate picketing wherein "image was all important" to massive civil disobedience demonstrations resulting in mass arrests forcing the press to give full coverage had proved successful. WEINBERG himself was arrested three times. DAVID FRIEDMAN, editor of the above publication, concluded that SF civil rights demonstration trials revealed that the "power structure" will not tolerate massive social change so the civil rights movement must take a new direction. WILLIAM BRADLEY, Chairman of CORE in SF, declared publicly that CORE has no interest in a person's politics so long as he is willing to fight for civil rights.

Synopsis Continued: ~~CONFIDENTIAL~~ (U)

AHCED: MIKE MYERSON, AHCED officer, declared that laws which stood in the way of privacy of the Negro people would not influence AHCED action in the fight for jobs for Negroes. AHCED leaflet, issued in connection with sit-ins, urged demonstrators to go limp when being arrested.

SLATE: SLATE leaflet in April, 1964, pledged full support to the civil rights revolution, locally and nationally, and urged establishment of a defense fund for those arrested in connection with demonstrations.

OTHER per Court Order

COMMUNIST TACTICS:

SELECT REAL ESTATE DEMONSTRATIONS (9/63): CORE-sponsored demonstrations in SF against Select Real Estate protesting alleged discrimination against Negroes and other minorities resulted in fifteen arrests on 9/14-18/63. Seven of the arrestees or their parents had some known subversive connections.

MEL'S DRIVE-IN DEMONSTRATIONS (11/63): Demonstrations at Mel's against alleged racial discrimination in hiring policies resulted in 99 being arrested on 11/2,3/63. Fifty-six of the arrestees or their parents had known subversive histories.

SHERATON-PALACE HOTEL DEMONSTRATIONS (3/64): AHCED-sponsored demonstrations at the Sheraton-Palace Hotel in SF against alleged discrimination against Negroes in its hiring practices resulted in the arrest of 121 on 3/1/64 and 174 on 3/6,7/64. Ninety-seven of the 295 arrestees, or their parents, had known subversive backgrounds. Cases against those arrested 3/1/64 were dismissed because the restraining order they were accused of violating was faulty. Of the 46 with subversive histories arrested on 3/6,7/64, 16 received jail sentences and/or fines, 12 were acquitted, 3 cases were dismissed, and 15 resulted in hung juries.

CADILLAC AGENCY DEMONSTRATIONS (3/64): Picketing sponsored by NAACP, assisted by CORE and AHCED, against Cadillac in SF protesting discriminatory hiring practices resulted on 3/14/64, in 110 arrests, 33 of whom had subversive histories. Trials of the 33 resulted in jail sentences of varying length for 23, 1 dismissal, 1 probationary term, and 8 hung juries.

Synopsis Continued:

AUTO ROW DEMONSTRATIONS (4/64): NAACP-sponsored demonstrations on Auto Row in SF resulted on 4/11/64, in the arrest of 228 demonstrators, among which were 70 persons with some subversive history. Trials of the 70 resulted in 39 receiving jail sentences of various lengths, 19 receiving fines and probation or suspended jail sentences, 3 dismissals, 8 hung juries, and 1 referral to juvenile authorities.

BANK OF AMERICA DEMONSTRATIONS (5/64-8/64): Picketing against the Bank of America in the Bay area, spearheaded by CORE, from 5/25/64-8/31/64, sought a head count of minority race employees. The bank refused to comply and a SF CORE leader announced organization in future would not seek a head count, but would demand hiring of more Negroes. CORE claim that 300 members of minority races were hired because of the demonstrations was questioned by a bank official. One citizen's arrest for trespass resulted in 90-day sentence which is being appealed.

REPUBLICAN CONVENTION DEMONSTRATIONS: Daily picketing under sponsorship of CORE took place at the Republican Convention in SF. CORE leaflet called upon delegates to commit themselves to an implementation of the Civil Rights Bill and immediate school integration, to repudiate those who opposed civil rights and social legislation affecting Negroes and other minorities, and to endorse and support local and national fair housing legialation. No arrests took place.

OAKLAND-TRIBUNE DEMONSTRATIONS (9/64): AHCED instituted demonstrations against "Oakland-Tribune" newspaper 9/4/64, demanding increase in minority race employees, that AHCED be furnished records of current and new employees as to race, and the right to tour offices of the paper to check on racial composition of employees. Demonstrators on 9/4/64, included 15 individuals with subversive connections. Churches and unions reportedly are acting as mediators between AHCED and the paper.

COMMUNIST PENETRATION AND INFLUENCE IN ORGANIZATIONS:

BERKELEY DU BOIS CLUB: BDBC officers include individuals with CP affiliations. BDBC is utilized by the CP to place CP literature and speakers on campus at University of California in Berkeley.

YOUTH FOR JOBS: CP members have been active in YFJ under leadership of ROSCOE PROCTOR. YFJ Organizer's Council included three CP members in 1963.

PROGRESSIVE LABOR MOVEMENT: Former CP members are active in the leadership of Bay Area PLM.
NAACP: Local NAACP has not been the subject of CP infiltration because CP leaders have characterized it as lacking militancy and the organization has been reluctant to accept CP assistance in its programs. NAACP Executive Board in SF in June, 1964, reportedly was seeking methods of gaining more control over its members participating in civil rights demonstrations. BURBRIDGE and other "activists" resigned 10/14/64, because "moderates" refused to push suit regarding redevelopment in SF.
CORE: BOB KAUFMAN at a CP Youth Club meeting in November, 1963, suggested CP members in CORE should attempt to establish roots in the Negro community. CP Housing Committee in November, 1963, expressed a desire to establish liaison with housing committees of CORE and NAACP. YSA report dated August, 1964, admitted consistent work in CORE and claimed YSA had developed "political strength" therein.
AHCED: AHCED leaders reportedly conferred with and/or received help of CP, SWP, and DuBois Club leaders. OTHER per Court Order

MISCELLANEOUS: Survey of SF arrests for civil disobedience in connection with sit-ins since September, 1963, reflected a total of 766 arrests. As of 9/20/64, 402 persons had been tried for 513 of the arrests (some were arrested more than once), with 239 found guilty, 45 found not guilty, 95 nolo contendere pleas, 91 hung juries, 22 dismissed, 18 juveniles, and 3 pending. Of 402 persons involved, 269 were males, 133 females; 351 were Caucasians, 50 were Negroes, and 1 was Oriental.

I. COMMUNIST STRATEGY

CONFIDENTIAL (U)

A. COMMUNIST PARTY (CP) USA

1. Strategy and Party Line on a National Level

The CP USA, its subdivions, subsidiaries and affiliates, have been designated by the Attorney General of the United States pursuant to Executive Order 10450.

member C.P.U.S.A. National Committee

On February 26, 1963, BEN DAVIS presided over a meeting at the residence of ROSCOE PROCTOR, 1919 Oregon Street, Berkeley, California. DAVIS reported that he had travelled throughout the country making speeches because students in colleges were eager to know what communists were thinking. DAVIS reported that at a meeting in Los Angeles, he had called for Negro unity from all segments of the community including communists, Muslims and conservatives. He concluded that the response to his proposal at this meeting had led him to believe that communists could take an active part in the Negro peoples' movement. (X) (U)

DAVIS recommended the initiation of a campaign to get all Negro leaders together at a national meeting through a "grass roots movement." (X)(U)

A characterization of the Muslims (Nation of Islam) is set forth in the appendix pages of this report.

During May, 1963, a copy of a report by ~~GUS HALL~~ Secretary C.P.U.S.A. N.Y. entitled "In the Struggle for Peace" was distributed among selected CP leaders to serve as a basis for discussions at a meeting of the Northern California District CP leaders scheduled for June 8, 1963. This report included a discussion on the Negro question which declared in part as follows: (X)(U)

The struggles of Negro citizens for equality and justice in the South are comparable to the victorious struggle for peaceful coexistence in relation to the Cuban events. These events are part of the human progress in this new epoch. (X)(U)

It is of the utmost urgency that Americans, especially white Americans, understand the full meaning of this struggle. The breakthrough in Birmingham represents a historic, social, political and economic achievement. This is a revolutionary, qualitative eruption that will become an integral part of our very being as a people and a nation. (X)(U)

The walls of segregation were erected by plantation owners and the forces of monopoly capital took over where the slave masters left off. (X)(U)

The struggles in the South are wiping out 100 years of shame and disgrace, and make it possible to re-establish the self-respect of our people and our nation. This struggle is unifying the working class. It also signals the end to second-class citizenship, bringing new health, votes and officials into our democracy. (X)(U)

CONFIDENTIAL

The leadership of the movement in Birmingham was brilliant in the use of correct tactics. These successful policies and techniques can continue only if white Americans fully realize that this is their fight, that this is a fight for a better America, and if they give the campaign their full, active and unqualified support. (X) (U)

While there were mass actions in all cities and communities, the most heartening action occurred in Boston. With the exception of Boston, however, the movement has not been on a level to measure up to the dimensions of the struggle. Because the struggle is not over, it is necessary to learn from the Boston experience that an "all people's mobilization" is needed and that longer range plans must be adopted. (X) (U)

Every community should have some united front formations that can move into activities for the defense of the democratization of the South. (X) (U)

Birmingham is the beginning of the breakthrough and it has set all of the South into motion. It must stir the entire country into motion. It also is a test for the CP as well as an opportunity for the CP. The CP must meet this challenge by giving it everything it has. (X) (U)

On June 8, 1963, there was a meeting of leading CP members in San Francisco, many of whom had served as former members of the Northern California District Committee of the CP, in order to discuss the report of GUS HALL. (X) (u)

There was a discussion of the significance of the struggles in Birmingham and in the South. ROSCOE PROCTOR pointed out that the Negro movement had displayed a tragic amount of independence. He pointed out that it was possible, however, for the Negro peoples' movement to become that catalytic force which could move the United States on the road to socialism. He concluded that the main task of the left force was to win over the right forces. (X) (u)

PROCTOR pointed out that the Negro movement in the South was keeping open the concept of peaceful change. He declared that there could not be any peaceful movement with the ideology of the Muslims, and that the CP must find ways of attacking the ideology while working with the Muslims "on the outside." PROCTOR also concluded that there was a need for opening up discussions on the issue of white chauvinism. (X) (u)

CARL BLOICE criticized the report of HALL and PROCTOR on the basis that there appeared to be too much stress on the effect of the Birmingham struggle. He pointed out that the forces of monopoly were large, and that this report failed to take into consideration the size of the movement and who would lose by the movement. BLOICE pointed out that when demands are made of the President of the United States that he take drastic political action to protect the Negro rights in the South, the President in effect is being asked to change the entire political structure of the United States. The Northern California District of the CP reportedly was ordered by GUS HALL to form a "special committee on civil rights" composed of ALBERT JASON (MICKEY) LIMA, Chairman of the Northern California District of the CP, and four Negro leaders in Northern California. HALL reportedly declared that the CP should be giving leadership in civil rights matters, and that the CP had been caught doing nothing in connection with the Negro struggle. (A)(U)

[SF T-7 8/16/63] XU

At a conference of the Northern California District of the CP on November 15, 1963, GUS HALL declared that Negroes had made a lot of progress during the preceding few years. HALL declared that this was an area in which the party must move with great vigor because the Negro people needed help and "we must be obligated to stand up for any American citizen regardless of race." HALL concluded that the American Negro had shown what it was like to stand up against racial bigotry and had illustrated that initiative is the key to progress. (A)(U)

2. Strategy and Party Line on District and Lower Levels

At a meeting of the San Francisco County Committee of the CP on January 3, 1963, HERB NUGENT made a report on the fight against school segregation in San Francisco. He noted that a report issued several weeks previously had illustrated that the CP must delve far more deeply into the general field of education and in the problems existent in that field. (A)(U)

NUGENT suggested that the CP consider the matter of "class education." He noted that several books on education pointed out that working class children never had been given the educational opportunities of the rich ruling class or the upper middle class. He concluded that the education of the working class had been in a direction in which the ruling class could exploit further the working class. (A)(U)

NUGENT made the following proposals:

(1) That the CP become active in regard to segregation in San Francisco schools;

(2) That a special committee be established, responsible to the county committee, to help in developing a CP policy on the segregation struggle;

(3) That all CP clubs hold discussions on this matter;

(4) That the CP seek ways to publicize segregation in San Francisco;

(5) That the issue of segregation be injected into the 1963 elections;

(6) That unions be involved in the struggle in an organized way;

(7) That efforts be made to get the San Francisco Board of Education to admit that segregation existed.

At a meeting of the San Francisco County Committee of the CP on January 3, 1963, NUGENT circulated a report which pointed out that discrimination existed in schools in New York, San Francisco, and throughout the United States. He noted that the San Francisco Board of Education was holding meetings to ascertain whether or not segregation existed in San Francisco schools, and he suggested that each CP club have at least one member attend these meetings so that the club would be cognizant of developments. He commented that the CP in San Francisco planned to form an education committee which would include one CP member from each club. The main function of this committee was to work with Parent-Teachers Associations, union groups and neighborhood groups in the fight against segregation in San Francisco schools. It was suggested that this committee also should work on housing and job discrimination, and that it should work in conjunction with the Negro Commission of the CP. (X)

At a meeting of the San Francisco County Committee of the CP in Daly City on February 25, 1963, HERB NUGENT pointed out that the San Francisco Board of Education had established a committee of three members to survey the racial situation in San Francisco schools and to report on February 28, 1963. NUGENT declared that all CP clubs should have a representative at this meeting, and that subsequently these representatives should attend a meeting at his home on March 6, 1963, to decide on action in regard to the report of the Board of Education Subcommittee. The CP Educational Committee met on March 4, 1963, to plan action to encourage people to attend the Board of Education meeting on April 2, 1963, in order to hear the report of the Board of Education Committee in regard to de facto segregation in San Francisco schools. HERB NUGENT suggested that the CP contact ministers, the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People, and other groups in an effort to encourage individuals to attend this meeting. This meeting of the educational committee was attended by ALICE CORRELL, HERB NUGENT, BECKY WONG and WILLIS WONG. (X)

At a meeting of a CP club in San Francisco on June 26, 1963, members were given a memorandum captioned "Memo on the Struggle for Negro Rights." This document declared that the breakthrough in Birmingham constituted a "revolutionary eruption" which will forevermore become an integral part of our very being as a people and a nation. The memo declared that it was imperative to do everything possible to aid this struggle and to take every possible action to involve white Americans in this fight. It noted that the labor movement had the greatest stake in this struggle because every state in the South had a "right to work" law on its books.

The memo noted that the President was presenting his civil rights program to Congress and that some of the leaders of the Negro peoples' movement had announced that they intended to take the most militant kinds of action in support of his program. The memo declared that the proposals of the President would not solve the problems of JIM CROW, and that this struggle in Congress would be the focal point for developing the broadest kind of mass actions by white and Negro Americans against the "Dixiecrat System." The memo concluded that there was no organization or governmental body and no group which could not be confronted with proposals to support one or another aspect of this civil rights program. The memo called for initiative, boldness and immediate action.

A meeting of the Northern California District Negro Commission took place at the home of ROSCOE PROCTOR on September 19, 1963. PROCTOR declared that this meeting had been called for the purpose of making proposals for a new Negro program to be presented by him at a forthcoming meeting of the National Committee of the CP USA. (X)

After much discussion the Negro Commission agreed that the following matters should be included in a CP Negro program: (X)

(1) The CP should devote attention to the recruitment of Negro youth into the CP;

(2) The CP should advocate and work to develop jobs for Negroes without antagonizing organized labor by taking jobs from white workers;

(3) The CP should select a national spokesman on the Negro situation;

(4) The CP should support a plan to distribute land in the South to the Negro people following the settlement of current problems. X

At a meeting of the San Francisco County Committee of the CP on December 2, 1963, it was reported that demonstrations regarding civil rights had brought prestige to the CP among the youth. At a meeting of the San Francisco County Committee of the CP on March 9, 1964, a mimeographed document was distributed which included a section on "Negro Rights." This document declared in part as follows: (U)

The CP had felt that the main effort on Negro rights would be around housing and jobs. By and large this happened, but other things also happened. The scope and militancy of the movement continues to grow and has a great attraction for the young people. The demand for Negro representation in government has become very prominent. It so happens that San Francisco is the only large city in California that does not have one elected Negro official. (U)

All this and more has taken place without any effective organization in the Negro community and with a very small number of people taking an active part in the Negro peoples' struggle. It is a real cause of concern that the CP has been unable to build a substantial organization in that area. This situation must be changed and ties with the District Negro Commission must be strengthened. (U)

[(1) Help unify the movement, particularly bringing in the full participation of Negro unionists;

(2) Help bring clarity on the matter of the character and future of the Negro peoples' struggle and its relation to the socialist movement;] (U)

"People's World"

The "People's World" (PW) is a West Coast Communist Party (CP) newspaper published weekly in San Francisco.

A review of the PW newspaper from January, 1963, through September, 1964, disclosed extensive news coverage on racial problems throughout the United States. Reported below are portions of editorials and articles concerning this problem in the West Coast areas:

(PW, 1-12-63, page 10)
An article captioned "Behind Negro Anger With Brown, A Problem of When to Protest" by CARL BLOICE, read in part as follows:

" . . .Reduced to its simplest elements, the anger of the Negro community stems from the failure of Gov. Brown to appoint a Negro to one of the three new municipal judgeships created for San Francisco by the 1961 session of the state Legislature.

"In its more complex ramifications it involves the growing, increasingly articulate demand of Negroes throughout the state for direct representation in government. It involves also such tactical questions as, 'When do you flex political muscle - before or after elections?'...."

An article captioned "Crisis Told In Cop Race Relations" by CARL BLOICE, read in part as follows:

CONFIDENTIAL (U)

"Antagonism between police and the Negro community in major California cities has reached crisis proportions.

"This fact both sides appeared to agree upon this week as an advisory committee to the U. S. Civil Rights Commission conducted two days of hearings in the San Francisco bay area on Tuesday (Jan. 22) in Oakland and Wednesday (Jan. 23) in San Francisco.

"The Berkeley Chief of Police, Addison Fording, college trained like all Berkeley officers, testified he is under considerable pressure from downtown interests to go into the Negro community 'with clubs' and 'disperse idlers who stand on corners.' He said he was being urged to display a show of force in Negro areas. This includes sending uniformed men into local taverns....."

(PW, 5-18-63, page 1 and 8)
An editorial captioned "Shame, Courage in Birmingham", read in part as follows:

"The name of Birmingham has been written in shame for all the world to see.

"And the futility of 'negotiated' settlements of matters that are a question of right has been written in blood.

"The story of the shame - and of the courage of Birmingham's Negroes - is told dramatically and brilliantly on these pages by a courageous People's World reporter named Carl Bloice. It is a story the President

"The federal government must - no matter what its later action - stand forever charged with criminal delay in Birmingham.....

"But, in the case of Birmingham, the inaction becomes monstrous. The pictures of Birmingham - the dogs, the fire hoses, the children being herded to jail by the hundreds - shouted this nation's shame from the front pages of newspapers around the world.

"Nothing can excuse the failure of the federal government to take action in Birmingham, Alabama, in the second week of the month of May in the year 1963.....

"The cry can be raised. It is already being heard across the land. It must be louder. It must become a cry that the White House can't deny. It must become a cry that goes beyond Birmingham, a cry that opens lunchrooms throughout the South, that opens the gates of schools and colleges, that opens the voting booth, a cry that will change the face of the South, a cry that will end a bloody, fear-filled century of waiting....."

"Meanwhile, the Negro leaders and other pro-civil rights forces have not been sitting by waiting for a yes or no reply. They have been organizing and preparing in the event the power structure comes up with too little, too late....."

(PW, 6-22-63, page 8)
An editorial captioned "Keep The Pressure On" read in part as follows:

"The vast surge of the Negro freedom movement has made this one of the most exciting times in the history of our nation. It is also a time fraught with danger. James Reston of The New York Times says it could produce 'the most ominous constitutional and racial crisis of this century.'

"People are in motion. And they are forcing the Government to move. Presidential inaction became action because of the public outcry at the indignities visited upon the freedom movement.

"One of the dangers inherent in the situation is that some of the people's pressure upon the Government may now slacken. The President has, it is true, now allied himself with the freedom movement, but this by no means insures victory....."

"If there was any thought that the shifting of the Negro freedom battle to Congress would put out the flames in the South or the flares in the North while the President is abroad, Negro leaders in a show of unity have made it clear it's just wishful thinking.

"Behind the stout declarations they continue to make that the direct and mass actions will continue is the sometime stated, and oft-times implied conviction that the leaders couldn't stop the actions even if they wanted to. For as the congressional battle commences over the Administration's civil rights program, the flames of revolt continue to burn throughout the South.

"Actually Negro groups have gone one step further and have served notice that not only will the mass actions continue but the debate in Congress itself will be a target for action....."

(PW, 7-20-63, page 8)
An editorial captioned "Negroes and Friends" read in part as follows:

An article captioned "Racial Discrimination Rampant in Hollywood. Qualified Negroes Not Hired; Both Unions, Industry Accused" datelined Hollywood by SARAH DUNTON, read in part as follows:

"Thirty-five Negroes are qualified radio announcers but cannot obtain employment on major stations in this area.

"Eleven qualified Negroes are now available and waiting for TV jobs. Their job outlook is bleak.

"These were two of the facts found by this newspaper which refute the denials of industry and labor officials that they do not practice discrimination.

"The denials have come from a number of sources since Herbert Hill, national labor secretary of the Natl. Assn. for the Advancement of Colored People, told a press conference here that 'less than 1%' of the members of Hollywood craft unions are Negroes.....

"Whenever the buck versus democracy or movie content is the consideration, the buck usually wins out. Since Hollywood production is based almost exclusively on profit, the lowest common denominator of the market acts as the determining factor. He is the censor of TV and radio announcers selling products, as well as the content of movies that the producers feel might in any way offend the Southern white supremacist.

An article captioned "Negro Movement Told: Stop Quarrelling, Unify", by CARL BLOICE, read in part as follows:

"Negroes here Monday night told their leaders to act like cardinals; 'Go into conclave and we are going to wait to see the smoke coming from the chimney.'

"'But if you stay up there too long, we're going to have a conclave of our own and when you come down we will have already started the revolution.'

"They didn't say it to each of their quarrelling leaders personally. Some of the main ones weren't even there. They didn't sign their names to any letter. But 1,300 people clapped, shouted and cheered to those words when they heard them spoken by Louis Lomax, Negro author, to the Aug. 19 mass meeting of the San Francisco Freedom Movement at Third Baptist Church.

"If Lomax's words were taken as a resolution, then the people voted unanimously 'amen' with their applause even before all the 'whereases' and 'resolves' were complete.....

"In his speech to the mass meeting, Lomax advocated the use of mass direct action. He called for a standing army of 15,000 to back up the leaders when they go to the conference table.

"Speaking of Negroes' determination, he said, 'They (whites) don't believe you. Even sometimes you don't believe yourself.

"'But only when you, and your white brethren who believe in you, join hands and march through the streets of San Francisco are you going to get them to listen.'.....

"The meeting opened with a progress report from Dr. Thomas Burbridge, chairman of the San Francisco Freedom Movement. He told the rally, 'We are not talking about tokenism, but fundamental change.'

"'We reserve the right to choose our own leaders and no one shall tell us with whom we shall talk.'

"*Supervisor Harold Dobbs, candidate for mayor, will have to face up eventually to charges of job discrimination in the operation of a string of eating establishments he owns.

"*Redevelopment activity must stop until there are basic changes in city housing policy.

"*'Negroes are not going to stand for police brutality' anymore.

"*Negroes will take to the streets and demonstrate unless something is done soon to speed up the elimination of de facto segregation in the city's schools.

"In the main address to the mass meeting, Negro writer Louis Lomax revealed that police officials had phoned Burbridge after the incident and tried to hold the community leadership responsible for the crime.

"'Do you think for a moment that a Catholic had committed the crime they would have called the archbishop and placed the responsibility on him?' he said.

"This is a deliberate thing done deliberately, not only to embarrass but also to make us have a sense of inferiority.'

"In this San Francisco Bay Area, with its unseasonal spring, a prophecy made months ago by civil rights leaders is coming to pass - a northern city is being rocked by the struggle for jobs.

"What has happened here might be a preview of things to come in other northern cities when the winter thaws, and civil rights leaders put in effect their plans to make 1964 the Year of the Fight for Jobs.

"And what has happened here indicates it will not be easy. There have been 'shop-ins,' 'sit-ins,' injunctions, mass arrests, massive damage suits, and a massive propaganda campaign (by the daily press and political office holders) to restrain and divide the movement.

"During the past week 120 Negro and white demonstrators were jailed for participating in direct action to persuade a large unit of a giant national hotel chain to desist from discrimination in hiring.

"The demonstrations at the hotel were preceded by action against a large supermarket chain, culminating in a negotiated agreement with the management after the store was jammed with bags of groceries that the demonstrators decided at the last minute they did not want.

"The management of San Francisco's big, swank Sheraton Palace hotel tried to go to court last weekend in an effort to disperse a demonstration against the hotel's racial hiring policies. But it didn't work.

"Instead, the new tactic resulted in the largest total of civil rights arrests in the city's history and brought the prospect of even more determined demonstrations this weekend if negotiations for more than a token hiring of Negroes in varied positions are not successful. There is also a threat of nationwide demonstrations against the Sheraton chain.

"On Sunday night (March 1) 120 Negro and white demonstrators (plus several bystanders and three passing sailors) were hauled off to jail following three different methods of direct action protest, some hurried (and, as it turned out, improper) legal maneuvering by the hotel and a raft of charges and counter charges that put the Negro freedom movement back in the San Francisco headlines....

"...Then Dr. Thomas Burbridge, present NAACP president and chairman of the United San Francisco Freedom Movement, a cigar clenched between his teeth, went limp and was dragged away.

"When it was all over no one appeared to have been hurt - except every Negro male in the demonstration had been handled roughly.

"One was socked under the eye by a husky officer. Another was smashed against the side of the wagon by an officer who hit him in the face repeatedly. But the favorite tactic appeared to be the thought-to-be concealed blows to the testicles...."

"For all the differences between the battles of '34 and '64, there is an important similarity - each time the issue was fundamental and the engagement here marked a peak in the principal nationwide conflict of its time. Then labor revolted against industrial serfdom, now the Negro people revolt against jimcrow bondage.

"Then, as now, there were shrill outcries about tactics.

"Indeed, so dim was the official view of the strikers' 'lawless' tactics that two of them were shot dead by police. Gen. Hugh Johnson, the federal government's economic czar, denounced the general strike as 'a threat to the community...a menace to the government...a civil war.' The San Francisco press called the strike illegitimate, irresponsible, ill-advised - and, of course, lamented that it damaged labor's cause. The same newspapers now apply the same epithets to the sit-ins.

"Then, as now, the powers that be tried to draw a line between the 'responsible' and 'irresponsible' elements.

"Gov. Frank Merriam pitted 'the sane, intelligent, right-thinking leadership in the labor organizations' against 'the rash counsel of communistic and radical agitators.' Do not politicians of today echo the Merriam of yesteryear in exhorting 'responsible' and 'intelligent' Negro community leaders to repudiate the 'radical' intruders?

"The seemingly endless series of trials is now in its fourth week. They are like a giant game of judicial Russian roulette. There are as many as nine trials going on simultaneously. "ISSUES AT STAKE

"The stakes are higher than most people realize, higher than 'Freedom Now.'

"The battle is important not only for the Negro but will decide the course the whole nation will undoubtedly take for quite a while. "What is becoming increasingly clear is that the opposition has become the rallying point for the right wing elements. At a joint meeting of the East Bay and San Francisco branches of the SWP in San Francisco on August 5, 1964, there was a discussion of the civil rights movement in the San Francisco Bay Area. It was noted that when the demonstrations at the Sheraton Palace Hotel in San Francisco took a definite form, the YSA decided to go all the way, even to the point of going to jail, in order to be in a position to assist the AHCED and to take an active part in the leadership of that organization. It was reported that [redacted] and JIM PETERSEN of the YSA had succeeded to some extent in gaining positions of leadership in the AHCED, but that the latter organization from the beginning had been controlled and directed by the Communist Party through the medium of the W.E.B. Du Bois Club (X) Young Socialist Alliance Calif.

Members of the SWP were told that the AHCED had developed into a highly intellectual and political discussion committee to the extent that no independent political action could be organized. The AHCED also was stated to have no appeal for the people in the ghettos, inasmuch as their demonstrations demanded only jobs for white-collar workers and nothing for the mass of people. (X) u

It was noted that the SWP and the YSA preferred to see the AHCED become a serious political organization, but that the CP members were turning it into another CP group. (X) u

SWP members were told that the "left wing" of the AHCED, and the YSA supporters were going to be purged. (X) u

It was concluded that the AHCED was a very demoralized organization as a result of the CP attitude and the trials. It was concluded that the only reason for the SWP and the YSA to be active in connection with the AHCED was to get in touch with the most militant people in the area and to recruit as many as possible. A YSA Berkeley Area Report dated August, 1964, was mailed anonymously to the New York office of the Federal Bureau of Investigation. This report, in part, declared as follows:

The growth of the Berkeley YSA has been slow but steady. Membership reached a peak of 28 in early summer, but membership in August of 1964 was 24 because of several transfers out.

Through consistent work in other organizations, combined with YSA educationals, YSA has developed a solid core of cadre people capable of working effectively in other organizations, thereby presenting YSA politics and orientation to a large number of students. A year ago YSA had almost no periphery, "although campus radicals certainly knew we existed", and today the biggest problem is recruiting people. Although the combination of working in other organizations and pulling the best people from them into weekly YSA educationals has proved effective, YSA still needs a good recruiting propaganda campaign and good recruiters.

CONFIDENTIAL

The steady recruiting of good, solid people has been the result of, and in turn has helped to promote, a basic shift in orientation. When YSA was extremely isolated, as it was a year ago, there was a strong tendency towards in-group "Trot" talk, and petty a-political slander of other organizations and individuals in them. Many good people naturally were turned off of YSA by this closed, hostile attitude. By contrast, it is now well understood in YSA that only valid criticisms are political ones, and that even in criticizing tactics, the political reasons for tactical errors are the central concern.

The YSA was able to bury the "atrocity habit" by constant attention to it, and now finds itself in a very open-ended situation where it is in continual contact with members of opponent tendencies, and on good personal terms with some of them, thereby affording a situation and opportunity to confront them politically.

YSA members generally feel now that the political balance of forces has shifted completely in their favor since their intervention at the founding convention of the W. E. B. Du Bois Clubs of America. Until June of 1964 the YSA was on the defensive against the Du Bois Club; YSA intervention at their conference caused them to be isolated from a large section of their former periphery, and, although they will build a new one in time, the YSA should be able to take considerable advantage of this situation during the election campaign while they disappear into the Democratic Party.

By attending the open meetings and forums of the Dubois Club, as the YSA did prior to the founding convention, the YSA can continue to raise the political questions they want to avoid, and have a very detrimental effect on their efforts to build.

The most active area of work of YSA has been in the CONGRESS OF RACIAL EQUALITY (C.O.R.E.), a civil rights organization. Although the meetings often seem totally meaningless, and the organization displays all the worst characteristics of the petty-bourgeois college milieu, virtually every potential radical passes through C.O.R.E. at some time simply because civil rights is the most important issue today, and because C.O.R.E. is the only active campus civil rights organization. (U)

The civil rights movement in the Bay Area is unique to the extent that it is a white student movement carried to its natural conclusion. It is easy for the YSA to point out that the San Francisco trials were inevitable as long as the demonstrators and the demonstrations refused to break with the two-party system.

"Our" recently adopted perspective on C.O.R.E., which is being written into a leaflet for selected distribution, evolves from four points:

(1) Endorsement of actions oriented to the white community and designed to gain support from the white community for the Negro struggle.

(2) Criticism of all actions oriented toward the Negro ghetto, which usually are based on a social worker approach.

(3) Propaganda aimed at politicizing the actions of C. O. R. E.

(4) Propaganda pointing out the necessity of independent political action.

The W. E. B. Du Bois Clubs of America is characterized in the Appendix Pages of this report.

SF T-14 advised on April 12, 1963, that the W.E.B. Du Bois Youth Club, Berkeley Chapter, originated in October, 1962, principally through the efforts of MATTHEW HALLINAN. The club has distributed a statement of purpose which reads in part as follows:

> "The W.E.B. Du Bois Club believes that only through the establishment of a socialist economic system can the basic problems of our nations be solved. We are an independent youth organization with no commitment to any political party. Our organization is pledged to a study of scientific socialism in order to develop a road to progress which will fulfill the finest traditions and aspirations of our American situation. The two primary functions of the Du Bois Club are to provide a forum in which to study the principles of socialism and to educate others through action within this framework."

SF T-14 advised in October, 1963, that MATTHEW HALLINAN was elected as Chairman and Communist Party Youth Commission Representative of the Berkeley Communist Party On-Campus Youth Club during September, 1963.

University of California, Berkeley, California, records in April, 1964, reflected that the Du Bois Club is recognized as an "off-campus" organization, having registered as such with the Dean of Students Office, for the Spring, 1964, semester. As an "off-campus" organization, the Du Bois Club is allowed to present lectures on the campus if permission is obtained in advance from the University.

SF T-28 advised in April, 1964, that the following are the principal officers of the W.E.B. Du Bois Youth - Berkeley Chapter:

SF T-14 advised during December, 1963, that PAUL RICHARDS and SUE MILLUNCHICK attended a Communist Party contact class held in November, 1963, in Berkeley, California.

SF T-23 advised in April, 1964, that JACK WEISS is a current member of the Oakland-Berkeley Branch of the Socialist Workers Party (SWP).

A characterization of the SWP is contained in the appendix hereto.

SF T-33 advised in March, 1964, that LEE GOLDBLATT was a new subscriber and held a yearly subscription to the "People's World."

The "People's World" is a west coast communist newspaper published weekly in San Francisco.

SF T-28 advised further on April 13, 1964, that the W.E.B. Du Bois Youth Club - Berkeley Chapter, is currently active as a membership organization.

SF T-130 advised on July 31, 1964, that the group's headquarters is located at 5935 Grove Street, Oakland, California.

On February 7, 1963, a Special Agent of the FBI personally observed a pamphlet being distributed at the literature table of the Du Bois Club on the University of California campus at Berkeley. This pamphlet set forth the beliefs of the Du Bois Club and further stated:

"The two primary functions of the Du Bois Club are to provide a forum in which to study the principles of socialism and to educate others through action within this framework. To this end we sponsor speakers at our own meetings and for the general campus public; hold classes on such topics as Marxist theory and current world problems; and initiate action in support of any issue which is concurrent with our policies. We maintain our willingness to work with any organization in a united effort upon such issues.

"We stand for human dignity and political, economic and social freedom -- an end to discrimination in all walks of American life, for the rights of any man to examine, hold and express any ideas regarding government and society."

On November 18, 1962, the Du Bois Club held a meeting at Berkeley, California, with about 17 persons in attendance. During this meeting a discussion was held concerning the relationship of the Du Bois Club with other "off-campus" groups at the University of California, Berkeley, and it was decided that the Du Bois Club would not take over any of the responsibilities or functions of other groups who might be demonstrating on civil rights issues nor would they conduct any organizing of demonstrations on their own. The members were instructed that they should work with these other organizations which were organizing demonstrations and thereby make these demonstrations more effective. (X) (U)

The "Daily Californian" publication at the University of California in its issue of September 16, 1963, published a series on student political groups which included a release from the W.E.B. Du Bois Club which reported that the Du Bois Club started in the fall of last year as an independent Marxist socialist youth group working for scientific socialism and it is both an education and an action group. It also reported that the Du Bois Club makes a point of sponsoring communist speakers and always has one or two pieces of communist literature on its tables at the University of California. The spokesman for the Du Bois Club stated that the work of this club for the current semester would include work on the "Negro Liberation Movement."

SF T-28 on February 7, 1964, made available the Berkeley Du Bois Club (BDBC) newsletter which stated in part:

> "The spring seasons of the past four years have seen the stirrings, and organization, consolidation of the civil rights movement. If 1960 was the Spring of the Sit-In, 1961 the Spring of the Freedom-Ride, 1962 the Spring of the Albany movement, and 1963 the Spring of Birmingham and Cambridge, 1964, will see the Spring of the Mississippi voter registration and of the consolidation of a Northern Freedom movement.
> "In the South, the Student Non-Violent Coordinating Committee, the only major civil rights organization manned and directed by young people, has called for an all-out drive for voter registration in Mississippi. Hundreds of young voter registration workers will be mobilized in this effort which will undoubtedly bring about a crisis situation and most likely a reaction of violence by the cracker population. Should such a situation prevail, the Federal government will be forced to intervene. However, Federal intervention could mean either protection for registration workers and voters, or it could mean martial law. The decision as to how to act is especially tenuous in this election year.

The DuBois club should undertake as a major effort the mobilization of wide community support, both financial and active, for our Southern contemporaries. This hopefully will reach the proportions of Northern support of the Birmingham Movement last year.

"Of course, most of the Du Bois Club's work will be directed to organizing in the Bay Area. This should include three main projects: 1) all-out support of the Rumford Fair Housing Bill now under attack by the California Realtors Association's initiative petition; 2) work in the Berkeley community against defacto school segregation; and 3) continuation of direct action projects for equal employment practices. As part of the Ad-Hoc Committee to End Discrimination (and thus as part of the United San Francisco Freedom Movement), we are now engaged in negotiations with Langendorf Bakeries, Edy's Confectionaries, Fox West Coast Theaters, The Sheraton-Palace Hotel, and the Clift Hotel to established agreements similar to those already gained with Mel's Drive-Ins and Doggie Diners If the negotiations fail, we will undertake direct action against these establishments. The hotel negotiations have special importance now with the Republican Convention being held in July.

"Finally, the Du Bois Club should continue to support the efforts of the existing civil rights groups in whatever way we can."

At a meeting of the W.E.B. Du Bois Club held in Berkeley on April 12, 1964, the speaker announced that he and other officers of the club were attempting to establish some sort of contact with the "Oakland Tribune" newspaper so that they could delve into the personnel problem of the "Oakland Tribune" regarding the hiring of Negroes. The speaker indicated that this would be an attempt to embarrass WILLIAM KNOWLAND who is owner of the "Oakland Tribune" and is active in Republican Party politics. ~~C~~ U

At a meeting of the BDBC held on May 17, 1964, it was decided to state club policy concerning students who are on trial for demonstrating for "civil rights" in San Francisco, California. It was announced that the University of California had a policy of not letting students drop classes if they had been arrested and especially if students gave as an excuse for dropping a course the fact that they had been in court. Discussion was then held on how they could apply pressure on the President of the University of California such as appealing to the Academic Senate asking key faculty members to apply pressure and asking political figures to attempt to persuade the University President so that he would not take any action against students who had been arrested. (U)

Money was also collected to send one of the California State Legislators a telegram setting forth the Du Bois Club's views on the situation and especially in regard to the students who were on trial. It was finally decided that this telegram was to be sent in the name of the Berkeley Young Democrats. (U)

Another leader in the Du Bois Club then gave a report on their cooperation with the Ad Hoc Committee to End Discrimination. He described a meeting which was held with WILLIAM KNOWLAND of the "Oakland Tribune" and certain individuals representing the Ad Hoc Committee. According to the speaker at this meeting the Ad Hoc Committee asked for the employment breakdown by race and it wound up as a shouting match between the speaker and KNOWLAND when former Senator KNOWLAND refused to give the exact number of employees in each job category and their race. The speaker then asked for club approval on certain further action which the Ad Hoc Committee was considering. They felt that the Ad Hoc Committee should, in such places as San Francisco, bargain directly with the City of San Francisco in matters concerning civil rights throughout the city. (U)

The speaker felt that if they made their demands for housing, employment and education directly to the city, such as San Francisco and Oakland, and the cities refused to take responsibility in these matters and enforce the civil rights demands, some sort of race disobedience would be used. (U)

After considerable discussion on this matter, the club voted to instruct the speaker to oppose this measure at this time as they felt that the Ad Hoc Committee should concentrate its immediate efforts on supporting the students on trial for civil rights demonstrations. (U)

W.E.B. DuBOIS CLUB OF SAN FRANCISCO
(b)(SFDBC)

The SFDBC is characterized in the Appendix.

A West Coast Youth Conference was held in San Francisco on March 21-22, 1964, and hosted in part by the SFDBC. The conference was held to discuss the formation of a new national youth organization. To explain in part to other delegates what the SFDBC is and what it had accomplished in the past, the SFDBC published a two-page leaflet which read as follows:

"The San Francisco DuBois Club originated as a Marxist study group a few years ago with about a dozen persons who were committed to Marxism as an ideology, and who had been active in liberal and issue oriented groups. These individuals saw the necessity of a group with an ideological base which could give direction to persons involved in struggles for peace, civil rights, civil liberties, etc., through discussion of theoretical and contemporary questions and problems.

"After about six months it became evident that a discussion group alone would not meet the needs of the individuals involved or of the existing situation in San Francisco. Liberal groups such as SCOPE, SLATE, peace groups, etc., were falling apart. There were many young people becoming inactive because of disatisfaction with the direction of these groups that were generally lacking in perspective.

"The change to an action oriented youth group with a Marxist ideology was the natural step forward for the Dubois Club and its members. With this came the broadening of the base of the group to include not only those already committed to Marxism but also to include those who were interested in studying Marxism as a possible alternative to our present economic system.

"The club was set up to appeal to persons involved in, or who had been involved in, political action. It was not felt that we would appeal to many persons who had not previously been involved in political activity of any nature. As it turned out, we are attracting a greater number of these persons then we had anticipated and have in many ways failed to adjust our program to sufficiently meet the needs of these persons. This failure stems not from lack of activity and involvement in mass action but from the lack of an educational program which is directed towards persons new to political activity.

"As previously stated, the club formed during a period when there was little organized left-wing activity, and very little political activity of any character involving young people in San Francisco. As a club, therefore, we began our activity by organizing young people to participate in election campaigns, providing manpower for precinct work, etc., for candidates and issues which we felt were most important in any election. Also we participated fully in action initiated by other organizations around various issues. Through our ability to turn out a sizeable group of people who could be depended upon to work hard and consistently for these actions, we ___ able to develop close working relationships with other organizations. Since we have proven that we will work hard to accomplish the goals which these other groups have set for themselves, we have created an atmosphere of close cooperation and have virtually done away with red-baiting, one of the main tools used to divide the forces of mass movements.

"We are more than ever becoming able to initiate activities in our own name and to expect support from other organizations; for example, the demonstrations protesting U.S. policy in Viet-Nam during Madame Nhu's visit to San Francisco. However, our most effective work has been in the field of Civil Rights, through cooperation with all civil rights groups in San Francisco and in particular through the Ad Hoc Committee to End Discrimination. This committee grew out of the cooperating groups responsible for the demonstrations against a restaurant chain owned by one of our last mayoralty race candidates.

"This unorthodox civil rights group, with representatives from three DuBois Clubs, two Youth for Jobs organizations, Citizens Committee for Nuclear Disarmament, Direct Action Group and Slate, has been able to:

"a. Introduce the issue of Civil rights into the last mayoralty race in San Francisco after seven candidates had made a pact to 'Be quiet' on the issue of civil rights.

"b. Stimulate other civil rights groups to speed up their activities and to take a more militant stand and more militant action.

"c. Break the entire Hotel Employers Association in San Francisco through the Sheraton-Palace demonstrations which had many significant factors introduced, such as:

"1. The involvement of 1,500 to 2,500 persons on a mass picket of the Palace, many of whom had never previously participated in civil rights demonstrations.

"2. The largest civil rights arrests in the history of San Francisco--167 in one night, 250 arrests in all--in difiance of a court order restricting the number of pickets which was an unprecedented measure in San Francisco used by the manager of the hotel.

CONFIDENTIAL (U)

~~CONFIDENTIAL~~ (U)

"3. Full support, public and active, of local CORE, NAACP and the United Freedom Movement, which created a unity of civil rights groups also unprecidented in San Francisco.

"4. Full support of national CORE which set off spontaneous sympathy demonstrations at Sheraton hotels in four other major cities.

"5. Public and active support of some unions, especially the ILWU, the first active involvement of labor in civil rights struggles in San Francisco.

"6. The collective bargaining agent for the fourteen unions involved in the Sheraton dispute publically sided with us by stating that our demands did not in any way violate their union contracts.

"7. Forced the mayor of San Francisco to intervene in the dispute and settle in our favor.

"8. Defeat of a mass scale red-baiting attempt by all major newspapers, initiated by the Hotel Association Chairman, with civil rights leaders publically stating that the time for such attacks had passed and that they were behind us 100% regardless of our ideology.

"9. The opening of 1,500 jobs in San Francisco for Negroes.

"The experience of our club has been that the time for liberal groups has long passed. We feel that it is no longer possible to follow the inconsistent middle road policy toward the problems we are dealing with. The gradual polarization of forces which has been taking place in this country has been speeded up by: 1. The Negro people demanding complete economic, social, and political equality; 2. By the threat of nuclear war, with the existence of a large Socialist world power for peace, and with continuing colonial revolts; 3. By peace groups that are turning toward an anti-imperialism policy and are calling for conversion from a war economy to a peacetime economy; 4. By the growing ineffectiveness of such groups as HUAC to deny civil liberties and to create hysteria; 5. By growing unemployment with no relief in sight; 6. And by growing concern over the lack of cultural and individual freedom of expression. More and more people are being effected by these problems and are searching for solutions to them.

"We feel we have the solutions and can offer them through a strong program of education and political action designed to appeal to all young people who are becoming aware of these problems. This program should focus on pointing out the interrelatedness of these problems and show where they basically stem from.

"We are now involved in developing this program which has been growing out of our own experience and that of other groups similar to ours. We feel that such a program has been lacking, or weak, in the past and must be developed on a local and also a national level since most of the problems are national problems and many can be dealt with as such."

[SF T-30, 3/23/64.] (U)

The Direct Action Group (also referred to as Direct Action Committee) originated out of the Student Non-Violent Coordinating Committee with the idea of direct involvement in racial integration, working on specific projects such as stores and unions.

The following are excerpts from the constitution of the DCA as passed at the founding convention on June 21, 1964, and workshop papers made available by SF T-34 on July 16, 1964: JAU

"Preamble"

"It is our belief that this nation can best solve its problems in an atmosphere of peaceful coexistence, complete disarmament and true freedom for all peoples of the world, and that these solutions will be reached mainly through the united efforts of all democratic elements in our country, composed essentially of the working people allied in the unity of Negroes and other minorities with whites. We further fully recognize that the greatest threat to American democracy comes from the racist and right wing forces in coalition with the most reactionary sections of the economic power structure, using the tool of anti-communism to divide and destroy the unified struggle of the working people. As young people in the forces struggling for democracy, we shall actively strive to defeat those reactionary and fascist elements and to achieve complete freedom and democracy for all Americans. We will further oppose all measures advanced by the government to further advance racist policies, perpetuate the cold war, and stand in opposition to political minorities, thus enabling each individual to freely choose and build the society he would wish to live in. Through these struggles we feel the American people will realize the viability of the socialist alternatives."

"POLITICAL PERSPECTIVES"

"It is the responsibility of this socialist youth organization to attempt to win the majority of the American people to a socialist alternative to capitalism, while at the same time actively participating in the constant fights for the protection and expansion of the democratic rights of working people, and for the betterment of their economic and cultural standards under capitalism.

"The most immediate concern of this organization is to develop and increase the ability of the vast majority of the American people to influence the existing political framework for the purpose of satisfying their demands.

"Socialists must be part of the political and economic struggles of the American people because:

"1) We believe that capitalism can be dismantled and socialism achieved only through the action of the great majority of the American people, i.e. the working people and their allies.

"2) The working people can be won to socialism only in the process of concrete political struggle, and only if socialists are a part of that struggle.

"At the present time, such demands as jobs, civil rights, extension of democracy, etc., all specific expressions of the class struggle organic to capitalism, are put forth in a political climate in which the two major political parties are controlled by elements which have vested interests in maintaining the status quo in regard to laws in this country, the political arena in which these reforms are fought for is more or less totally confined to this two party system. ....."

"CIVIL RIGHTS IN THE SOUTH"

"We feel that the W.E.B. DuBois Clubs have something unique to contribute to the Southern Civil Rights Movement without competing with, or duplicating, the work of any of the established Civil Rights organizations. It should be understood that our analysis and interpretation is offered as a legitimate point of view, but is not intended to dictate policy to areas where we have no direct involvement in the movement.

"1. We feel that the W.E.B. DuBois Clubs should build a program in relation to the Southern Civil Rights Movement to bring about massive Federal intervention in those areas where basic Democratic rights are violated. Should a crisis situation occur in the South this summer it should be the responsibility of the DuBois Clubs to issue a national call for Federal intervention, or to throw all its resources behind any group that issues a call protesting such injustice and focusing the responsibility on the proper authorities. The DuBois Clubs should set up the channels of communications that will enable this call to be issued instantaneously and the organization will dramatize this by demonstrations.

"2. We propose that the W.E.B. DuBois Clubs appoint public representatives who will be stationed in and maintain close contact with the Civil Rights movement in the South for the purpose of acting as liaison between the Southern Civil Rights Movement and the W.E.B. DuBois Clubs.

"3. We recommend that the Educational Program of the DuBois Clubs include an analysis of the Southern Civil Rights Movement in regard to such issues as the role of unions and the working class in the movement, the need for Federal intervention in the South, the relationship of monopolies in the North to the Southern Power Structure, and the relationship of the movement to the struggles for peace and disarmament and civil liberties.

CONFIDENTIAL (U)

CONFIDENTIAL (U)

"4. We recommend that whatever publication the DuBois Clubs have contain a section devoted to the interpretation of the Northern movements to the South. Machinery should be set up to do research on the Northern movement which will be distributed in the South. These communications should be written in the language of the Southern community.

"The following telegram was unanimously endorsed by the general body at the founding convention and was sent to President Johnson, Atty. Gen. Kennedy, and the COFO office in Jackson Mississippi on June 23, 1964

"WE DEMAND IMMEDIATE PROTECTION FOR ALL PEOPLE ATTEMPTING TO SECURE THEIR DEMOCRATIC RIGHTS IN MISSISSIPPI THIS SUMMER. "CIVIL LIBERTIES"

"The existence of civil liberties and an atmosphere in which they may be freely practiced is vital to all democratic movements, and to the success of all mass struggles. In the new group unemployment, civil rights and socialism will undoubtedly receive major emphasis while on the other hand, the creation of an atmosphere in which new ideas can be freely aired and developed is essential to formulate any program. What is the status of civil liberties today? Both positive and negative developments may be seen in an increasing demand for full rights by the mass movements and all sections of the working class countered by the mounting attack upon American's democratic institutions led by the Ultra-right and sections of the power structure.

"We support the Bill of Rights without qualification. Any restriction upon these rights, particularly in the existing political climate is a weapon in the hands of the power structure. This is because in our country the forces which violate civil liberties, the Right Wing, are not prosecuted by the government except under extreme mass pressure and only then in rare instances. In the case of restrictions the left is invariably the victim of such prosecutions, although they have long engaged in the struggle for full civil liberties. The mass movements as they grow are daily confronted with the manifestations of this opposition: police brutality and terrorism, legal injustice, denial of constitutional guarantees by the government through such organs of harrassment as the McCarran Act, HUAC, and the basically hostile Department of Justice. There is a growing awareness of the facts that the fight for civil liberties must be conducted in the streets: that mass political action, in addition to the debate whether the court room, is vital to the establishment of a truly libertian society. There is a steadily increasing understanding within the mass movements that only in a climate where civil liberties of all persons are guaranteed, can one be secure. ....."

"In the past, action among youth has been almost totally based upon spontaneous reactions to specific violations of civil liberties. This point is illustrated by demonstrations and educational campaigns against HUAC, for academic freedom, on in-loco parentis for a complete investigation of the Kennedy assassination, etc. Recently there has been a trend toward planned action such as trips to Cuba in defiance of the travel ban. Except for local organizations which each year are established to meet and deal with an immediate issue and then dissolve, there has been no permanent civil liberties organization. Among working youth, there has been no organization and little action. ....."

YFJ is characterized in the Appendix Pages of this report.

The 1963 Constitution and By-laws of YFJ provided that all activities of YFJ, such as picket lines, demonstrations, sit-ins, and walkouts should be approved by a majority of the membership present at any one meeting. Approval by two-thirds of the YFJ Council would be sufficient for the carrying out of such action in the event it was impossible to bring up such plans at a membership meeting.

A characterization of the above organization is contained in the Appendix hereto.

BAPL distributed leaflets during October 1963 in San Francisco, California, captioned, "Chairman MAO Tse-tung's statement, calling upon the people of the world to unite to oppose racial discrimination by U.S. imperialism and support the American Negroes in their struggle against racial discrimination." This was a one-page throw-away leaflet and had the following added at the bottom of the leaflet:

"The above statement by the eminent spokesman for the three quarters of a billion citizens of the People's Republic of China was issued August 1963. It is specifically a reflection of the overwhelming support of the peoples of the world for the just and vigorous struggle of the American Negro for equality and freedom. It is reprinted as a public service by the Bay Area Progressive Labor."

BAPL distributed leaflets in San Francisco, California, during October 1963 entitled, "Freedom," which related to the Negro movement in Monroe, North Carolina, and Freedom House. The leaflet appealed for all progressive-minded people of the Bay Area to show solidarity with this struggle. It pointed out that money is needed for organizing expenses, bail, lawyers, rent, and food. It requested that contributions be sent to BAPL in San Francisco.

A source advised on June 27-28, 1964, that on those dates the Provisional Organizing Committee for a Marxist-Leninist Communist Party (POC) held its West Coast Conference at the Anglo Hotel, 241 - 6th Street, San Francisco. Twenty-two persons attended, including National General Secretary ARMANDO ROMAN of New York, National Chairman HAROLD ALLEN of Philadelphia, and National Organizational Secretary HELEN ROMAN of New York. (X)(U)

A characterization of the POC is appended hereto.

Comrade [redacted] opened the second session of the POC Conference by reading a report on the National Liberation Question. He pointed out that his report outlined the general features of the question and was not presented as a polemic per se. He said that the report was prepared in Los Angeles and took four or five months of work and discussion. The report was entitled "The Role of the Negro Worker in the Liberation of the American Working Class." [redacted] stated that "the fight for the liberation of the Black Belt and its coordination with the fight for the liberation of the rest of the country is the problem confronting the POC. The overall situation is the development of the proletarian movement in the United States in two aspects: 1) the fight for the national liberation in the colonies, specifically within the United States, and 2) the overall fight for socialism and communism. His report included a lengthy history of the Negro settlement in the United States and how they have fared. He said that he did not believe that there will be a liberation of the Black Belt without the establishment of socialism in the United States because the imperialists will not tolerate this planned development. He said that "if the situation becomes more acute the revolutionary potential of the people will grow and, with the leadership of a Marxist-Leninist Communist Party, will reach the point of open rebellion in the most oppressed area, namely in the Black Belt itself." (X)(U)

CONFIDENTIAL (U)

He concluded that "this situation can be seen today by the increasing oppression by the Southern state governments and the increase in Negro discontent in the South. Presently, demonstrations are taking place in the cities. But as the situation becomes intensified, there will develop insurrectionary or guerilla movements in the Southern countryside. The task of the communists in this struggle is to coordinate the fight for the liberation of the American working class in both the colonial and home base areas. This task entails the establishment of an underground network capable of sustaining and winning a war in this country for the liberation of the American working class. This network must be able to facilitate unlimited movement for cadres moving between North and South, to coordinate and fuse together the overall struggles for the liberation in the Black Belt in the Northern big cities and intervening countryside so that the war can be efficiently conducted and won." (S) (W)

General Secretary ARMANDO ROMAN responded to HOFFMAN's report by pointing out that it is erroneous theory. He referred the group to recent articles in their publication, "Vanguard," for the correct line on the Negro question. He said, "It is class warfare, not minority warfare, that the POC advocates." Organizational Secretary HELEN ROMAN, in commenting on [redacted] report, said, "There is a revolutionary fervor among the Negro people, particularly in the South and New York, but we are not ready for the question of guerilla warfare. We do not take the lives of the working people. Our job is to harness the revolutionary fervor and raise it to a higher level. Experience has shown that we cannot work among established organizations of the Negro people. We have attempted it and it did not work." (S) (W)

C. OTHER ORGANIZATIONS ACTIVE IN CIVIL RIGHTS MOVEMENT

1. NAACP

In March, 1964, TAREA HALL PITTMAN, Regional Secretary, NAACP, both on television and through news releases, stated that the NAACP "would not tolerate any unlawful activity, and anyone taking part in NAACP programs must be subject to NAACP rules of conduct." Further, that the NAACP was not in agreement with the sit-in tactics used by both the Ad Hoc Committee to End Discrimination (AHCED) and the Congress of Racial Equality (CORE). Further, that the regional office of the NAACP is in disagreement with the President of the San Francisco Chapter of the NAACP, THOMAS N. BURBRIDGE.

On March 12, 1964, BURBRIDGE, as President of the San Francisco Chapter, NAACP, and WILLIAM BRADLEY, Chairman of San Francisco Convention, issued a press statement stating that they were behind the AHCED and the racial activities would continue regardless of what anyone said.

SF T-140 advised in October, 1964, that the demonstrations sponsored by the San Francisco Chapter of NAACP were in no way sanctioned by either the regional office of NAACP or the national office of NAACP. Further, that the NAACP does not tolerate disobedience of the law. Further, that the San Francisco Chapter of the NAACP had attempted to get approval for the demonstrations at the Cadillac Agency, 1000 Van Ness Avenue, San Francisco, in March, 1964, and during the auto row demonstration in April, 1964. Having failed to get approval for the demonstrations at Cadillac, BURBRIDGE attempted to get bail money from the national office, which in effect would have sanctioned the San Francisco Chapter - led demonstrations; however, no approval was forthcoming, and no bail money was made available.

SF T-140 concluded by stating that the action of the San Francisco Chapter of the NAACP in regard to leadership of demonstrations where illegal activities and violations of law occurred were in the nature of maverick actions.

The "News Call Bulletin" for March 13, 1964, set forth that the San Francisco NAACP threatened to extend mass picketing and sit-ins throughout the city if necessary. It quoted Dr. THOMAS N. BURBRIDGE, local chapter president, as saying "We plan to be on the streets until every instance of inequality is eradicated."

BURBRIDGE in a press conference March 12, 1964, reportedly stated that demonstrations which might violate laws are justified if there is an "important moral issue at stake," and if there is no personal injury or property damage. BURBRIDGE read a resolution adopted by the San Francisco NAACP calling for "mass protest," picketing, sit-ins, buyer's campaigns and appropriate constitutional means of attacking discrimination and segregation in public accomodations, housing, education, employment and politics. He said this resolution was inspired by the national NAACP, and that "all units of the NAACP were directed to implement the direct action resolution." "After years of attempts at being nice, we are resorting to these action campaigns," Dr. BURBRIDGE said. He accused San Francisco of failing to make civil rights a "reality."

The "News Call Bulletin" for March 12, 1964, set forth the split between the Regional Office of the NAACP and the President of the San Francisco Chapter of the NAACP, THOMAS N. BURBRIDGE. According to the article, the split concerned the NAACP's welcoming of the AHCED in joining in its demonstrations. BURBRIDGE issued a statement recognizing that "beneficial results" had followed the Ad Hoc Committee's activities. In this article, a Negro religious leader, Reverend HAMILTON BOSWELL, Pastor of the Jones Methodist Church, stated that 80 per cent of the demonstrators were white.

A meeting sponsored by the W.E.B. DuBois Club of San Francisco on July 23, 1964, featured a panel of "experts on the Negro question." The meeting was held at 1007 McAllister Street, San Francisco. WILLIAM BRADLEY, as a representative of CORE, criticized the severe sentences the San Francisco courts had handed out to civil rights demonstrators, and alleged this was without precedent throughout the country. He noted that civil rights demonstrators in other sections of the country had received very light sentences compared with those in San Francisco. (U)

BRADLEY declared "We are going to demonstrate in every city in the country where there is a CORE chapter. We will demonstrate against bad housing, against lack of jobs for the Negro people, against lack of good schools, against discrimination in all forms, and demonstrate against America's home grown fascist BARRY GOLDWATER." (U)

[redacted] (U)

CONFIDENTIAL (U)

BRADLEY continued that CORE intended to step up the pace and scope of its demonstrations. He declared that America is at the crossroad and either "we go forward or backward, and CORE does not intend to go backward." (X) (U)

BRADLEY emphasized that this statement was being made not merely as head of the local CORE chapter, but also as a man who had been in recent communication with every official of CORE up to and including JAMES FARMER. (X)(U)

BRADLEY declared that it was the determination of every official in CORE to demonstrate, and that the support of others was desired. (X) (U)

CARL BLOICE was the next speaker and pointed out that a ready made base for CORE demonstrations was existent in San Francisco, and that CORE had not been able to "tap" this base. BLOICE noted that in covering demonstrations for the "People's World" (PW) newspaper, he had noted a tremendous amount of good will for the PW, CORE and the NAACP among whites and Negroes in the lowest income groups, but he expressed dissatisfaction with the way in which these groups cooperated with CORE and the NAACP. (X) (U)

The next speaker, Dr. THOMAS N. BURBRIDGE, declared that there must be more and larger demonstrations, and that they must be maintained unceasingly. BURBRIDGE spoke bitterly of the sentences being meted out to the sit-in demonstrators, but declared that the demonstrations would continue, even if people did go to jail. BURBRIDGE declared that no great struggle was ever won by cowards, and if the Negro people of America and Negro people from San Francisco shirk from the struggle simply because a few arrests were made and stiff jail sentences handed out, "we" are lost. BURBRIDGE concluded that he felt the Negro people and "our white friends" were aroused and that they would continue to fight to bring about changes necessary to allow the Negro people to live in decency and comfort. (X) (U)

After this discussion of the attitude of the various individuals toward the sit-in demonstrations, the panel was asked to express its opinion on the Harlem situation. BRADLEY claimed that the Harlem trouble was a result of white landlords and businessmen victimizing the Negroes at every turn, denying them jobs and decent homes, and selling them inferior merchandise at high prices. He also criticized (X) (U)

CONFIDENTIAL (U)

New York policemen for harassing Negroes who indicated they might be dissatisfied with conditions. (X)

CONFIDENTIAL (U)

Dr. BURBRIDGE cited instances of sufferings of the Negro people in San Francisco wherein they allegedly were subjected to subhuman living conditions and working conditions. He expressed dissatisfaction with the attitude of both the city politicians and the Chamber of Commerce toward Negroes. He also criticized the attitude of the labor unions toward Negroes and cited cases of Negro unemployment and failure to employ Negroes in highly skilled jobs. (X)

BURBRIDGE subsequently declared that the Negro cannot be restrained. He stated that the Negro must bring his case before the American public, and he must do this from day to day, week after week, month after month in the strongest way possible without resorting to gunfire. BURBRIDGE stated that gunfire is not a logical presentation of one side of a debate. He declared you resort to gunfire only when there is no point in debating any longer, and "I don't believe we have quite reached this stage yet. Certainly I hope we haven't." (X)

BURBRIDGE declared that he felt that it would be very stupid to resort to violence regardless of any personal inclinations on the part of some of the more militant leaders. (X)

LOUIS LOMAX, the Negro writer, was continually criticized by members of the panel as being a person who had sold out to the white power structure and who was then devoting his talents to aiding the white power structure in keeping the Negroes from obtaining their full rights as citizens of this country. (X)

During the course of the discussion, Dr. BURBRIDGE made a bitter personal attack on Mayor SHELLEY of San Francisco, alleging that he was a pliant tool of the white power structure serving the interest of that structure. (X)

2. CORE

CONFIDENTIAL (U)

The Berkeley Campus Chapter of CORE published the "Campus Core-Lator" in September, 1964.

This newsletter, in an article by JACK WEINBERG entitled "Recent Trends in the Local Civil Rights Movement," set forth the following in part:

Congress of Racial Equality member Calif.

"The 'Movement' as we now know it in the Bay Area is a very recent development. Through the beginning of 1963, there were few significant achievements attributable to direct action. Although direct action groups existed, their goals were either remote or of an extremely limited nature. Thousands of man-hours were spent picketing Woolworth and Kress in sympathy with Southern lunch counter demonstrations; realtors and apartment house managers were picketed because of their refusal, in specific cases, to sell or rent homes to Negroes; employment projects concentrated mainly on demanding that all-white business establishments where specific instances of discrimination could be documented, 'integrate' their work force. The Movement had a high moral tone, but little social content. Dimestore picketing had little visible effect (except demoralization). Eyeball-to-eyeball confrontation with petty entrepeneurs brought about concessions of microscopic import: one apartment, one or two jobs. Image was all-important. Suit and tie was the standard direct action costume. Talking and smoking were forbidden on picketlines. Spacing of pickets, and holding of signs 'properly' were important. The CORE chapter was considered a 'small group of dedicated people.'

"The Freedom Rides of 1961 brought the first large wave of people into CORE, but local direct action generally followed the above pattern until early 1963. At this time Berkeley and Oakland CORE entered into direct action against Montgomery Ward in Oakland. They considered this action a bold new step (which it was) because 'Monkey Ward' already employed some Negroes (about 2%). A seventeen-page fact booklet (now a rare collectors' item) was prepared, presenting CORE's case. In reality, the booklet was a defense of CORE's right to demand more than tokenism in employment. It presented the thesis that token employment of Negroes was a discriminatory hiring policy. After two weeks of picketing, the project was successfully concluded. The new type target demanded a new type agreement. The agreement reached with Montgomery Ward was the prototype of future Bay Area employment agreements. It pioneered demands for statistical reporting, special recruitment policies, and goal projections. Hundreds of jobs for minority people were soon opened. The demands of the Movement had undergone a radical change. Although the number of pickets involved (as many as 60 at a time) was much greater than previous demonstrations, the overall picketline protocol remained about the same.

"The next significant turning point was at the Mel's Drive-In restaurants. This action led to the formation of the Ad Hoc Committee to End Discrimination, and even more significantly, changed the entire mood of demonstration. The notion of trying to maintain a respectable image was almost entirely demolished. The first Mel's lines did not even pay lip service to non-violence. The policy was, 'We'll defend our line'. There was singing, shouting, clapping, smoking, talking, walking two abreast, dancing, and all types of dress on the line. 'Experienced' civil rights demonstrators didn't know what to think. Some stayed away; some tried to instruct the line in proper conduct; some joined in. Never before were there such large civil rights picketlines. The project was successfully concluded following two large waves of sit-ins and arrests. This was a pioneering attempt at using civil disobedience in a situation where the form of the protest was not directly related to the grievance. The demonstrators were not sitting-in for service; they were sitting-in to protest an unfair hiring policy. Although other local direct action groups did not immediately incorporate massive civil disobedience into their programs, they were unable to maintain the picket line protocol upon which they had previously insisted. Picket lines became more spontaneous, more people joined, the situation became more excitable, and demonstrators put increasing pressure on their leaders for escalation of tactics.

"The Lucky Stores demonstrations consolidated the image of militancy and new notions of protocol established at Mel's. It also greatly increased the involvement of the college community in the civil rights movement. One new precedent was established. CORE continued using the shop-in tactic despite almost universal condemnation by the white community. By refusing to be scolded into submission, the movement achieved a new power, and a new respect, from enemies as well as from friends. The notion of image was dead; only results counted!

"Little need be said about the Sheraton Palace and Automobile Row demonstrations. They greatly increase the number of people involved in civil rights demonstrations, although the demonstrators still came largely from the college campuses. At the Sheraton Palace, it was proved that the civil rights movement, unlike most modern labor unions, is willing to break an anti-picketing injunction in order to preserve constitutional guarantees. The demonstrations were among the most spectacular and exciting civil rights actions ever held in this country. Mass picketing and mass arrests forced the press to give full coverage, and this in turn became one of the most effective means of mobilizing additional support. The Bay Area civil rights movement became a force to be reckoned with, and a Human Relations Commission, long sought by more conservative groups, was established by the City of San Francisco. . . ."

WEINBERG is identified on page two of the publication as a member of the Technical Staff.

WEINBERG was arrested November 3, 1963, at Mel's Drive-In, March 7, 1964, at the Palace Hotel, and April 11, 1964, on Auto Row in connection with demonstrations.

Following WEINBERG's article, the editor's note set forth the following:

The Editor is DAVID FRIEDMAN, according to page two. Congress of Racial Equality Calif.

"The Movement must begin to take a new direction. The lesson of the San Francisco civil rights trials is that the power structure will not tolerate massive social change. The Sheraton Palace action was a small scale revolution against the status quo. Nowhere in this nation can a real social revolution succeed under the present distribution of political forces. Only political power can protect us against crippling harassment in the courts. If our demonstrations become more successful, nine-month sentences like that of Dr. Burbridge will become the rule for civil rights demonstrators. Sit-ins may be made felonies under new state laws. The social forces that are emerging with accelerating automation and unemployment will be used against us, unless we prepare a political base, starting with the Negro community, but responsive to the increasingly urgent needs of white workers and the unemployed."

FRIEDMAN was arrested March 1, 1964, in connection with the Palace Hotel demonstrations.

CHARLES LEINENWEBER, in an article entitled "Prospects for Civil Rights," declared as follows:

"The Present Calif.

"The ghetto Negro is more and more the typical inhabitant of the largest cities of the North. Almost seventy-five per cent of the nineteen million Negroes in the U. S. are urban dwellers; virtually all rural Negroes live in the South. With the increasing urbanization of the Negro and his relocation in the North, the problems which he faces have become more clearly defined. First of all, he gains sophistication from daily contact with many others immersed in the same situation. Further, he is likely to be aware of the efforts of various segments of the civil rights movement, and even may have been reached by some of the activists. Secondly, the urban Negro develops that insight into official American life which comes from standing outside of it. The Negro masses do not believe in those myths which assert 'equality of opportunity,' 'equal justice for all under law,' and 'the highest standard of living in the world'--the central claims of American society. These myths have absolutely no reality for the Negro people.

"As the consciousness of the urban Negro advances, the status quo comes more and more under attack, both in a qualitative and a quantitative sense. The problems he faces are themselves analyzed in a more penetrating way than before, and links between them are perceived. Thus the demands he makes are more fundamental, more of a threat to the system. Agitation increases in volume as greater numbers are swept into the Negro movement for change. And of course, the system resists by any means possible. The primary mode of resistance is the use of police terror--a familiar tactic in the ghetto. (As this article is being prepared, every Negro in north Philadelphia is under house arrest; it's night-time here). The white power structure which fortifies and defends the system refuses to be shaken. They attempt to keep agitation for change under their control, to tie demands to the bargaining table and other channels of action which they legitimate. Any independent show of power by the Negro people is crushed; they are then led to the bargaining table where they can only be betrayed--where the white power structure may toss down a few crumbs while insuring its own continued dominance.

"It is important to recognize who comprises the white power structure before we can see how it may be shattered. The power structure is made up of business and real estate wealth, and is held together by the city machine. The machines are directly sustained by and responsible to this wealth. Machine politicians repay campaign donations by levying regressive sales taxes rather than property taxes; by using the police as agents for the slumlord. They use Uncle Toms and opportunists like Dawson and Powell to identify their interests with those of the Negro--while they are his main enemy in the Northern ghetto. The political tag for the machine is: the Democratic Party. These machines are the source of strength for the Democratic Party in the North, and are reactionary to the core by their very nature. Philadelphia's Tate can trace his political ancestry, through Dilworth, directly back to Clark and the 'liberal' A.D.A. reform machine. The Northern machines are notorious for their war of brutality against the Negro population to keep them subdued and squeezed safely into the ghettos. These are Johnson's staunchest allies. The 'moderate' Negro leaders who announced the moratorium have in effect proclaimed their intention to 'leave it to Lyndon' and his urban political machines to defend the Negro people.

"But there is not very much which Johnson will do. One of the primary causes of ghetto misery is tremendously high unemployment. Yet the Democratic Party program doesn't even creep toward full employment. The 'war on poverty' trains workers for jobs which do not exist. It may sway votes, but it will not tear down slums. The civil rights act does not affect the ghetto Negro at all; most Northern states already have stronger laws. This indicates a willingness on the part of the power structure and the Democratic Party to do away with legal segregation, but at the same time it shows their inability to alter the status quo which is their life. The Democratic Party is powerless to stop the so-called 'white blacklash.' It cannot provide a basis on which Negro and white workers can unite instead of fighting over what jobs remain. At the very most it can present vapid illusions about upward mobility for Negroes, all the while using the national press to smear militant protest about the real world. The civil rights movement would plunge into disaster if it supported this bankruptcy.

"The Future

"The movement for civil rights is being transformed as it sinks roots into the black ghetto. A new leadership is emerging which reflects the aspirations of the urban Negro--a very militant leadership which includes such figures as Jesse Gray, Rev. Glamison, and Malcolm X. Yesterday's militants--like King and Rustin--are the new Uncle Toms. Men like these never had a working base in the ghetto, were never responsible to the feelings of the urban Negro as the new leaders in many ways are. Yet, even the new leaders in all their militancy are likely to be thrust aside as the movement becomes more and more viable in the ghetto. The new leaders still bear scars from the old days when things were organized differently. For example, when tenants' councils developed during the Harlem rent strike, Gray as a leader lacked a clear program to extend the activity of the councils to include school boycotts, self-defense, and political action. In fact, he acted as a fetter to further any spontaneous development of the tenants' councils.

"It is natural that the more militant Negro leader should be associated with separatism. The oppressed urban Negro perceives the social roots of his frustration and, simultaneously, the commitment of the white power structure to making him its scapegoat. Thus, the emergence of a separatist phase signifies a turn of the civil rights movement towards the working class Negro. Importantly, it is only through such self-assertion that the Negro can ever win freedom. He must control any movement which is to liberate him in order to insure that it will remain responsive to himself, rather than to the power structure. With this self-assertion, he can eventually win allies to his struggle.

"The first hurdle which needs to be cleared is the coming election. Liberals are panic-stricken at the thought of a Goldwater victory. But a vote for Johnson will not arrest the drift of American politics to the right. By 1972, a Goldwater may be the left-wing candidate, opposing a real fascist, simply because we will have exhausted our energies in working for the lesser evil, in rallying the Negro and white workers around their 'friend,' a man from a party which can offer no solution. Remember: to ask a Negro to vote for the Democratic Party means support for continued police brutality, continued mass unemployment, more slums and misery. Johnson's program does not justify the subordination of the Negro struggle to his victory.

CONFIDENTIAL

"The power of the Negro people is constantly under assault by the agents of the power structure. The press makes daily attacks upon the militants, who are slandered as 'racists in reverse' and prophets of desperation. With the help of Wilkins, Rustin & Co. the newspapers assure the Negro that he can win freedom only by relying upon his enemies. The facts belie that course

"Independent political action must begin now. The 'white backlash' will not end on election day, but will end when there is room enough in the society for all. The Negro masses cannot wait for the fossilized trade unions to eradicate racism in their ranks, but must build a movement based on their own participation and serving as the awakener of the white working class in an assault upon corporation supremacy. The power structure can be smashed--but never by working with it through the Democratic Party, which paves the way for reaction by acceeding to its basic premises. It can only be smashed from the outside. The field of struggle cannot be left to the white racists and to a Johnson whose Democratic Party answer is 'law and order' through police terror, not jobs, housing and schools. It is time for the Negro people to win the struggle with a mass demonstration of their own, independent power. That is the only answer."

JACK WEINBERG, in another article entitled "We Will Not Stop Demonstrating! (Speech given at Campus CORE street rally), in part, set forth the following:

"We must keep fighting for equal opportunity, we must keep fighting for justice. If we stop raising demands, if we stop raising issues, neither party will be responsive to our needs.

"But exactly what do our liberal advisors ask of the civil rights movement? They ask the movement to stop holding demonstrations. They ask it to cool things down. Maybe the movement can call off its demonstrations, but it can't cool things down. All it can do is withhold leadership. People can't be turned on and off. In those areas where violence is feared, a moratorium on demonstrations will make things hotter. The active civil rights leadership is not firmly entrenched in the Negro community, and it will lose its influence as soon as it stops producing results. Within the community, a moratorium on civil rights activity can only be interpreted as a sign that the movement is not totally committed to the problems of the ghetto. It will show that the movement has reservations. The people are angry. The people are bitter. The situation is tense, and justifiably so. The civil rights movement holds some promise of results to the Negro community. This cannot be withdrawn. The reality of protest is with us. The only question remaining is whether the protest will have direction or whether it will not.

"No, we won't stop demonstrating. We won't let the reaction scare us into quitting and making a deal to accept the status quo. We're tired of 'friends'; we want allies."

WILLIAM BRADLEY, Chairman of San Francisco CORE, has publicly stated at press conferences and over television, that CORE is not interested in the color of a man's skin or in his politics, but welcomes everyone who is willing to fight for civil rights.

a. Plans and Strategy

In the March 16, 1964, issue of the "Golden Gater," a San Francisco State College campus newspaper, appeared an article captioned, "Ad Hoc Club Expanding Fast." Among other things the article informed that AHCED's plan of operation was as follows:

1) A head count is taken by AHCED in a given firm.

2) AHCED then asks the firm for a head count. The number is then given to AHCED. If AHCED believes more non-whites should be employed, then negotiations commence with the firm.

3) If no satisfaction is obtained by AHCED, then AHCED resorts to picketing, demonstrations or "direct action" as a last resort.

On April 24, 1964, a Special Agent of the FBI obtained a throwaway leaflet from an unidentified individual on the University of California (UC) campus, Berkeley, California, which set forth the SLATE platform for the spring semester 1964. This platform stated in part that SLATE fully supported the civil rights revolution, both locally and nationally and urged that the University immediately cease and apologize for the police harrassment of Negro students. It stated that as one of the original members of the Ad Hoc Committee to End Discrimination, SLATE had participated in all demonstrations of this group, including the Sheraton Palace demonstration. It proposed that the Associated Students of the UC raise an appeal and defense fund for use by University students, alumni, faculty and employees who were arrested and prosecuted for participating in civil rights demonstrations.

The leaflet further stated that one of the SLATE candidates for Representatives at Large to the Student Senate was BETTINA APTHEKER. BETTINA APTHEKER has been elsewhere characterized in this report.

JACQUELINE GOLDBERG, also known as JACKIE GOLDBERG, was also listed as a candidate for representative at large. JACQUELINE GOLDBERG has been elsewhere characterized in this report.

II. COMMUNIST TACTICS

A. Select Real Estate and Rental Company, 3315 - 24th Street, San Francisco, California

The "San Francisco Examiner", a daily newspaper published in San Francisco, on September 19, 1963, identified the Congress of Racial Equality (CORE) as the organization demonstrating against Select Real Estate and Rental Company.

Records of the San Francisco Police Department set forth that on September 14, 1963, the San Francisco Chapter of CORE staged a "sit-in" demonstration at the Select Real Estate and Rental Company, 3315 - 24th Street, San Francisco, California, for alleged discrimination against Negroes and other minorities in renting homes and apartments. Eleven individuals were arrested by the San Francisco Police Department on September 14, 1963, and were charged with violation of Section 602J (Illegal entry) of the California Penal Code.

On September 17, 1963, three more individuals were arrested and on September 18, 1963, one additional arrest was made. The arrests on September 17 and 18, 1963 were on the basis of violation of Section 415 (Disturbing the Peace) of the California Penal Code. The owner of the realty company, SAMUEL L. PEITCHEL, in each of the 15 cases of those arrested during the three days, placed these individuals under citizen's arrest.

Records of the San Francisco Municipal Court and the "San Francisco Examiner" of September 19, 1963, set forth that at the trial of these individuals PEITCHEL requested that all charges be dropped as he had signed a non-discriminatory agreement with CORE. All charges were dropped by the San Francisco Municipal Court.

B. Mel's Drive-In 3355 Geary Boulevard,
San Francisco, California

~~CONFIDENTIAL~~ (U)

The "San Francisco Examiner" on November 4, 1963, set forth that sit-in pickets were arrested on November 2 and 3, 1963, at Mel's Drive-In Restaurant at 3355 Geary Boulevard, San Francisco, California. It set forth that the demonstration was instigated by the Direct Action Committee, a loosely organized group of students at San Francisco State College. They were joined by the Ad Hoc Committee To End Discrimination (AHCED) and an organization called "Youth for Jobs" (YFJ). The pickets were described by the paper as being from the "beard and sandal set".

The article pointed out that the co-owner of Mel's Drive-In was Acting Mayor HAROLD DOBBS who was a candidate for San Francisco Mayor in the election held on November 5, 1963. Picketing was not confined to DOBBS' business but also included his residence.

The demonstrators denied that politics was involved and claimed that the picketing was directed against racial discrimination in hiring. DOBBS counterclaimed that twelve per cent of his 245 employees in San Francisco were Negroes and that 30 per cent of the employees were minority groups.

A characterization of the AHCED and YFJ is contained in the appendix of this report.

Records of the San Francisco Police Department set forth that 117 arrests were made at Mel's Drive-In. Eighteen demonstrators were arrested twice.

The demonstrators, instead of seeking service, refused it and occupied all seats in the restaurant. In addition they were described as engaging in singing, chanting and feet stomping. When the manager asked the demonstrators to leave they refused and went limp after locking arms. The arrests were based on a citizen's complaint under Sections 602J and 415 of the California Penal Code (Interfering and obstructing a lawful business and disturbing the peace).

~~CONFIDENTIAL~~ (U)

[redacted] Assistant District Attorney for the City and County of San Francisco, on October 9, 1964, advised that among other motions filed, an indefinite continuance was requested and granted to those arrested at Mel's Drive-In on the basis that State Law was used to enforce discrimination by a private firm, thus violating the United States Constitution. It was claimed by the defense that at that time a case was pending before the United States Supreme Court that would "settle the Constitutional question". However the case did not settle the question and had no application to the arrests at Mel's Drive-In. b6 b7C

C. SHERATON-PALACE HOTEL (March 1, 1964)

In the February 24, 1964, issue of the "San Francisco Chronicle," a San Francisco daily morning newspaper, there appeared an article captioned "Anti-Bias Pickets at the Palace." The article informed, among other things, that about 50 placard-carrying students picketed the Sheraton-Palace Hotel yesterday (February 23, 1964). The students said they were protesting discrimination in hiring practices. The article went on to say that TRACY SIMS, identified as a student spokesman, claimed the hotel had only 22 Negroes out of 550 employees. SIMS said the hotel should hire Negroes in all job categories and plans should be made to upgrade all Negro employees. Continuing, the article related that SIMS and her group, AHCED, had been talking with hotel officials since December 13, 1963. According to the article, picketing at the Sheraton-Palace Hotel lasted from 6 p.m. to 7 p.m.

In the February 29, 1964, issue of the "San Francisco Chronicle," there appeared an article captioned "Pickets at Downtown Hotel - Bias Charged." Among other things, the article related that members of AHCED picketed at the Sheraton-Palace "last night" after a meeting with the management failed to produce an agreement. The article went on to say that TRACY SIMS, spokesman for AHCED, led the 60-member picket line on a march through the hotel lobby and afterwards conducted the singing of "We Shall Overcome," outside the hotel's Tudor Room street entrance.

In the March 1, 1964, issue of the "San Francisco Chronicle," there appeared an article captioned "Court Halts Picketing at S.F. Hotel." The article, among other things, informed that more than 100 singing and chanting civil rights demonstrators were banished from the lobby of the Sheraton-Palace Hotel by a court order "last night."

The article further informed that the demonstrators backed down from pledges to get themselves arrested when one of the leaders read a temporary restraining order from Superior Court Judge FRANCIS MC CARTHY. The article went on to say that the restraining order, quickly handwritten by Judge MC CARTHY and rushed to the hotel in a police squad car, enjoined the demonstrators from "disturbing the peace and preventing egress from the hotel."

~~CONFIDENTIAL~~ (U)

CONFIDENTIAL (U)

The article went on to say that some 200 persons started picketing outside the plush Market Street hotel at 7 p.m. Continuing, the article informed that a $50,000 suit was filed against TRACY SIMS, Chairman of AHCED, and that she was also ordered to appear in court "tomorrow" to show cause why the picketing should not be halted. The complaint said that AHCED, made up of Bay Area students and youth groups, was trying to make the hotel disobey the State Fair Employment Practices Act.

In the March 2, 1964, issue of the "Daily Californian," a University of California, Berkeley, campus newspaper, there appeared an article captioned "81 Pickets Arrested in S.F." The article informed that 81 civil rights demonstrators were arrested for criminal contempt "last night" for violating a court order prohibiting them from picketing outside of San Francisco's Sheraton-Palace Hotel.

The article went on to say that the demonstrators, all of whom belonged to AHCED, charged the hotel was recruiting exclusively from "sources that will produce only white workers."

According to the article, the court order, the second one issued over the weekend by Superior Court Judge FRANCIS MC CARTHY, at the hotel management's request, limited the demonstrators to nine pickets.

On Saturday, a court order enjoined the pickets from singing and chanting inside the hotel lobby, because they were "disturbing the peace and preventing egress from the hotel."

In the March 3, 1964, issue of the "San Francisco Chronicle," there appeared an article captioned "A Truce in Palace Picketing."

The article informed that the restraining orders issued over the weekend against the 123 persons picketing the Sheraton-Palace Hotel for alleged discriminatory practices were dissolved "yesterday" by Superior Court Judge JOSEPH KARESH. This case is referred to as the Palace #1 sit-ins.

CONFIDENTIAL (U)

CONFIDENTIAL (U)

Continuing, the article reported that Judge KARESH ruled the restraining orders were improperly served and gave the respondents insufficient time to prepare a defense. The article commented there was no information available as to the effect Judge KARESH's ruling would have on the contempt of court citations issued against the pickets.

The article went on to say that the 123 pickets arrested Sunday night and early "yesterday" during a wild melee outside the hotel, appeared "yesterday morning" before Municipal Judge JOSEPH KENNEDY, who promptly released them on their own recognizance and set their cases over until March 16, 1964.

In the April 4, 1964, issue of the "San Francisco Chronicle," information was set forth that Municipal Judge JOSEPH G. KENNEDY "yesterday" had dismissed contempt charges against 123 pickets who had been jailed after the first big civil rights demonstration at the Sheraton-Palace Hotel, San Francisco, on March 1, 1964. The article informed that Judge KENNEDY cleared demonstrators of the charge because he said the restraining order they were accused of violating was faulty.

D. Sheraton-Palace Hotel
San Francisco
March 6 and 7, 1964

In the March 6, 1964, issue of the "San Francisco Chronicle", a San Francisco daily morning newspaper, there appeared an article captioned, "Picketing to Resume at Palace." Among other things, the article informed that the Sheraton-Palace Hotel broke off negotiations with AHCED "yesterday" and was faced with a new onslaught of civil rights demonstrators. The article reported that according to TRACY SIMS, Chairman of AHCED, "at least" 500 persons would picket the hotel "today."

In the March 7, 1964, issue of the "San Francisco Examiner" there appeared an article captioned "A Protest By College Papers." The article informed that two Bay Area student newspapers decried anti-discrimination picketing at the Sheraton-Palace Hotel which prompted a protest demonstration on one campus "yesterday." The article went on to inform that student members of AHCED had organized a lunch hour rally at San Francisco State and had also paraded before the offices of the "Golden Gater." The "Golden Gater" is a campus newspaper published at San Francisco State College.

In the March 9, 1964, issue of the "Berkeley Daily Gazette", a Berkeley, California daily newspaper, information was set forth that more than 300 demonstrators formed a human blockade at the three exits of the hotel during the early morning hours. According to the article, the blockade effectively prevented anyone from entering or leaving the hotel. Continuing, the article said that the police, with the reluctant consent of the hotel's management, threatened mass arrest unless the exits were cleared.

The article related that SIMS and other members of AHCED rejected the advice after a hurried conference and told the demonstrators to invite arrest. The article commented that 167 were arrested during civil rights demonstrations at the Sheraton-Palace Hotel in San Francisco over the weekend. According to the article, of those arrested, 78 were from Berkeley, California.

CONFIDENTIAL (U)

CONFIDENTIAL (U)

Continuing, the article informed that the demonstration, which started Friday evening (March 6, 1964), was aimed at alleged discriminatory hiring practices by the Sheraton-Palace Hotel. More than 1000 persons gathered inside and outside the hotel during the night.

The article went on to say that the protest finally broke up Saturday afternoon when hotel officials and civil rights leaders signed an agreement committing 35 major San Francisco hotels to open 15 to 20 per cent of their jobs to Negroes and members of other minority groups.

In the March 28, 1964, issue of the "National Guardian" there appeared an article captioned, "How Ad Hoc Kept Pact to End Discrimination in Hotel Hiring - The Sheraton-Palace Battle at San Francisco." Among other things, the article informed that a picket line around the famed Sheraton-Palace Hotel, which progressively became a walk-in, a sit-in and a sleep-in ended after almost 20 hours and 167 arrested with the signing March 7, 1964, of a non-discriminatory hiring agreement by 33 San Francisco hotels.

The article related that the demonstration, the largest of its kind in the San Francisco Bay Area, was organized by AHCED, a group composed of eight local organizations active in civil rights movements.

The article went on to say the picketing of the Sheraton-Palace Hotel by AHCED began about a month ago after negotiations which commenced in December, 1963, had broken down. On March 1, 123 pickets were jailed for contempt of court after they ignored a temporary restraining order limiting their number to 9.

Continuing, the article informed that the demonstration began the evening of March 6. By 7:00 p.m. nearly 2,000 pickets, mostly students, were surrounding the Sheraton-Palace Hotel, four abreast. They chanted "freedom now" and "JIM CROW must go." In addition, the article informed that the demonstrators sang the anthem of the civil rights movement, "We Shall Overcome."

The article went on to inform that pickets were instructed by Monday not to accept any pieces of paper from unidentified persons in order to thwart the serving of any restraining order. After several hours the pickets stopped singing and more than 800 filed into the long lobby. First they marched quietly around the room, then they sat down, blocking all but a narrow passage through the middle of the lobby.

CONFIDENTIAL (U)

The article related that until early in the morning, it appeared that the parties would reach an agreement. However, when word suddenly came to the mass demonstrators that the Hotel Association had refused to negotiate, community leaders shouted, "are you ready to go to jail now?". The crowd shouted assent, and 200 people moved into the hotel's main doorway, sitting down and packing it tightly. The singing and chanting began again.

A characterization for the "National Guardian" is appended hereto.

The article informed that a total of 167 demonstrators were arrested, the largest number involved in a mass arrest in the City's history.

Inspector [redacted] has informed that 174 individuals were arrested at the Sheraton-Palace Hotel, San Francisco, on March 6 and 7, 1964. All of those arrested were charged with violation of Section 415, Penal Code, State of California (Disturbing the Peace). b6 b7C

A review of the list of those arrested by the San Francisco Police Department as maintained by Inspector [redacted] revealed, among others, the following names. E. CADILLAC AGENCY (3/14/64)

CONFIDENTIAL (U)

[redacted] San Francisco Police Department (SFPD), has informed that picketing commenced at 4:00 P. M. on March 13, 1964, at the Cadillac Agency, 1000 Van Ness Avenue, San Francisco. The demonstration was led by the NAACP and joined by CORE and AHCED. b6 b7C

[redacted] went on to say that at 5:20 P. M., [redacted] Manager of the Cadillac Agency, read a statement to the 150 pickets who were parading inside the showroom, that the building was not open for the purpose of demonstration, and requested the demonstrators to leave. The picketing continued both inside and outside the building. Pickets left peacefully at 6:00 P. M., which was closing time. No arrests were made.

Continuing, picketing resumed at the Cadillac Agency on Saturday, March 14, 1964, by the same groups. At 1:00 P. M., Dr. THOMAS BURBRIDGE, President of the San Francisco Branch of the NAACP, who was in charge of the demonstration, invited the pickets to join him inside and to continue the picketing both inside and out. Dr. BURBRIDGE requested anyone under 18 years of age not to picket inside because of legal difficulties. Approximately 200 pickets entered the showroom.

[redacted] went on to say that at 1:10 P. M. March 14, 1964, [redacted] read the statement that the building was not open for the purpose of demonstration, and requested the pickets to leave. Following him, Captain [redacted] of the SFPD, supervising captain of the district, warned the group that unless they dispersed immediately they would be arrested. Approximately 100 demonstrators left the building. Those remaining assumed a sitting position awaiting arrest and began singing "We Shall Overcome." b6 b7C

[redacted] has informed that the pickets returned to the Cadillac Agency, 1000 Van Ness Avenue, San Francisco, on March 16, 1964. More than 60 pickets formed a long oval in front of the main entrance of the building, chanting and singing. In accordance with a two-week moratorium on civil disobedience invoked March 14, 1964, by civil rights groups leaders and Mayor JOHN F. SHELLEY, San Francisco, the pickets made no attempt to enter the automobile showrooms. b6 b7C

They arrived at 4:30 P. M. and dispersed abruptly at 6:00 P. M., which was closing time for the showroom.

CONFIDENTIAL (U)

Continuing, [redacted] has informed that at 4:15 P. M., March 18, 1964, approximately 150 pickets paraded in front of the Cadillac Agency, 1000 Van Ness Avenue, San Francisco, in protest of alleged discriminatory hiring policies. The pickets made no attempt to enter the showroom, and there were no arrests. b6 b7C

[redacted] has informed that 110 were arrested at the Cadillac Agency on March 14, 1964, and were charged with violations of the following: b6 b7C

Section 415, Penal Code, State of California (Disturbing the Peace);

Section 602J, Penal Code, State of California (Trespassing with Intent to Interfere with a Lawfully Operated Business);

Section 407, Penal Code, State of California (Unlawful Assembly);

Section 409, Penal Code, State of California (Refusal to Disperse and Remaining on Premises After Ordered to Leave).

A review of the list of those arrested at the Cadillac Agency, as maintained by [redacted] revealed, among others, the names which follow: b6 b7C

Unless otherwise stated, all sentences are to run concurrently.

All trials which have ended in a hung jury have been set to October 25, 1964, for setting for a new trial date.

Names of persons not followed by identifying information of a subversive nature will be found characterized elsewhere in this report.

CONFIDENTIAL (U)

In the April 5, 1964, issue of the "San Francisco Examiner," a San Francisco daily morning newspaper, there appeared an article captioned "Rights Pickets March Again at Cadillac." The article informed that more than 300 pickets enthusiastically singing "freedom songs" surrounded the Cadillac Agency "yesterday" as the NAACP resumed demonstrations protesting alleged hiring discrimination by the Cadillac Agency.

Continuing, the article informed that the return of throngs of pickets to the Van Ness Avenue showroom marked the end of a two-week moratorium on mass demonstrations agreed to by civil rights leaders at the urging of Mayor JOHN F. SHELLEY's interim committee on human relations. The article related there was marching and singing, but no "sit-in," and police reported no trouble. The article went on to say that the picketing was spirited but orderly. At 12:30 P. M., the marchers who had been walking two and three abreast since 11:00 A. M., formed a single file which stretched around the area formed by Van Ness, O'Farrell, Polk and Myrtle Streets. This area is almost entirely occupied by the Cadillac Agency and its used car lot.

The article quoted Dr. THOMAS BURBRIDGE, President, San Francisco Chapter NAACP, as stating that the small "token" picketing which never changed its three-days-a-week schedule at the Cadillac Agency would continue indefinitely.

In the April 9, 1964, issue of the "San Francisco Chronicle," there appeared an article captioned "NAACP, Cadillac Pact Near." The article informed that an agreement had been reached "on most points" in the dispute between the NAACP and the Cadillac Agency in San Francisco. According to Dr. BURBRIDGE, the article went on to say that nevertheless, more than 100 singing and chanting civil rights pickets marched in front of the Cadillac Agency "last night" as part of the NAACP's continuing protest.

In the April 12, 1964, issue of the "San Francisco Examiner," there appeared an article captioned "226 Auto Pickets Failed." Among other things, the article informed that demonstrators, on April 11, 1964, - 600 strong and predominately white - formed at 11:00 A. M. in front of the Cadillac Agency. After 30 minutes of noisy marching outside the agency, the group split into three segments, one marching to the Jim Wessman Lincoln-Mercury Auto Agency, three blocks away, another travelling one block south to the Chrysler showroom, and the third and largest segment remaining at the Cadillac Agency.

CONFIDENTIAL

At 1:00 P. M., the three picket echelons began sit-in invasions of the three showrooms. More than 200 entered the showrooms, while about 350 remained outside on picket lines.

A short time later, a special force of 60 policemen and three patrol wagons began moving methodically from one agency to the next. The first "mop-up" was at Jim Wessman's where 31 men and 13 women were scooped into the wagons. Six were Negroes.

The police then moved to the Cadillac Agency, where 104 were arrested. 61 men and 43 women were loaded into the police vans. Of the 104 arrested, ten were Negroes.

The article went on to say that a second surge of 60 pickets struck the Cadillac Agency 20 minutes before the 5:00 P. M. closing time. However, only six youths and five adolescent girls invaded the showrooms. Police returned on the run and hauled the invaders to jail.

Continuing, the article commented that the demonstration turned "ugly" at the Chrysler-Plymouth Agency. Led by "poker-faced" BILL BRADLEY, Chairman, San Francisco Chapter of CORE, more than 100 demonstrators invaded the offices, lounged in display autos on the showroom floor, honked horns, lay under autos and opened the auto hoods.

The article concluded that of the more than 600 demonstrators, police estimated that no more than ten per cent of the total were from minority groups.

[redacted] has informed that on April 10, 1964, negotiations between civil rights groups and Motor Car Dealers Association, San Francisco, broke down completely. The NAACP demanded that the automobile dealers effect a 16 per cent to 30 per cent increase in Negro employment in the "next four months," and also notify the NAACP whenever an automobile agency had a job vacancy. The dealers refused both of these demands, saying that they could not gauge percentages in hiring, and that they did notify state or city groups of vacancies, but not private groups, such as the NAACP. b6 b7C

[redacted] went on to say that picketing began at 11:00 A. M. April 11, 1964, at the Cadillac Agency, 1000 Van Ness Avenue, San Francisco, and was expanded to Jim Wessman Lincoln-Mercury Dealer, 1301 Van Ness Avenue, San Francisco, and to Van Ness Chrysler-Plymouth Agency, 901 Van Ness Avenue, San Francisco. Shortly after 1:00 P. M., the demonstrators went inside the dealers' showrooms and refused to disperse after requested to do so by the manager. They were told by the police that they would be arrested for failure to obey the order. According to [redacted] 228 individuals were arrested and charged with the same four violations as mentioned for those arrested at the Cadillac Agency on March 14, 1964.

A review of the list of those arrested as maintained by [redacted] revealed among others the following: b6 b7C

In the April 19, 1964, issue of the "San Francisco Chronicle," there appeared an article captioned "Pickets Cheer Peace on Auto-Row Job Pact." The article informed that the dispute over the hiring policy for the civil rights and the city's car dealers ended at 2:02 P. M. April 18, 1964. The article went on to say that a wildly cheering crowd of 3,000 pickets who had been parading peacefully in front of the auto dealership for three days was told by Dr. BURBRIDGE, President, San Francisco Chapter NAACP, "You have won a victory . . . . We have an agreement."

G. BANK OF AMERICA

(U) ~~CONFIDENTIAL~~

In the April 20, 1964 issue of the "San Francisco Examiner," there appeared an article captioned "New CORE Talks Today With B of A." The article asked whether the world's biggest bank - Bank of America - would become the focal point of the next round of San Francisco racial hiring demonstrations and stated this question would be decided "this afternoon."

The article went on to say the meeting at the bank's headquarters - 300 Montgomery Street, San Francisco - would be a four-man team of bank officials and perhaps a dozen representatives of CORE. The article commented the confrontation would be the fourth in a series which began in mid-March. At issue is reluctance on the part of the bank to allow a racial head count of current employees.

In the May 23, 1964 issue of the "San Francisco Chronicle" there appeared an article captioned "Mass Bank Picketing Begins In 13 Cities." The article commented that singing, sign-carrying CORE pickets marched around the Bank of America offices in San Francisco, and at least twelve other California cities yesterday (May 22, 1964), protesting the bank's alleged discriminatory hiring practices. The article related that the demonstration in San Francisco - the only city in the state with a recent history of large-scale civil rights demonstrations - was by far the largest and by far the most volatile. At its peak, 250 to 300 demonstrators quick-stepped along the sidewalk around the bank's Day and Night Branch at 1 Powell Street, San Francisco.

Continuing, the article informed that a hostile, heckling crowd, estimated by police at 800 to 1,000 persons, thronged the opposing sidewalks and overflowed from the tiny traffic island in the center of the three-pronged downtown intersection.

~~CONFIDENTIAL~~ (U)

CONFIDENTIAL (U)

Continuing, the article informed that much smaller and much quieter demonstrations were staged before the Bank of America branches in San Jose, San Rafael, Stockton, Richmond, Sacramento and Oroville. According to the newspaper article, picketing in San Francisco began promptly at 4:00 PM, as a special conciliation team - appointed by Governor EDMUND G. BROWN yesterday morning (May 22, 1964) held fruitless eleventh-hour talks with CORE representatives a few blocks away, trying to head off the state-wide demonstrations. The pickets disbanded promptly at 7:00 PM.

The article went on to say that among the demonstrators were [redacted] and [redacted] of AHCED. b6 b7C

In the May 23, 1964 issue of the "San Francisco Examiner" there appeared an article captioned "State-wide Protest, Pickets Hit B of A, Day and Night Branch Target." Essentially, information appearing in this article was the same as previously recorded in the May 23, 1964 issue of the "San Francisco Chronicle"; however, this article also identified [redacted] and [redacted] as participants in the demonstration, and also three sons of Attorney VINCENT HALLINAN who were unnamed.

In the June 2, 1964 issue of the "San Francisco Chronicle," there appeared an article "New Tactics By Pickets." The article informed that CORE pickets began new tactics - a bank slowdown - in the big Day and Night Branch of the Bank of America late yesterday (June 1, 1964). The article informed that approximately 40 of the pickets who had been parading outside of the bank at 1 Powell Street, entered the bank at 5:45 PM and went quickly to the teller's window to ask for change. When they had received the pennies and silver coins they specified, they took their coins to another window to ask that they be given bills or larger coins in exchange. According to the article, the usual busy lines of customers at each window were delayed up to five minutes by each transaction.

Meanwhile, about 50 other pickets continued to march outside singing and chanting. After the demonstration had gone on for some time, the pickets outside began to come in and relieve the insiders who went out again and joined the picket lines. The article identified [redacted] as one of the participants in the change-making incidents. b6 b7C

In the June 13, 1964 issue of the "San Francisco Member, Congress of Racial Equality Chronicle," there appeared an article captioned "An Arrest At CORE's 'Bank-In'" The article informed that a Bank of America official had made a citizen's arrest of a civil rights demonstrator last night (June 12, 1964) as CORE Calif. resumed its picketing of the bank's Day and Night Branch at One Powell Street, San Francisco. The article informed that [redacted] a Vice President and Operations Manager of the Bank of America, had asked [redacted] a CORE picket Captain to leave. [redacted] refused. [redacted] then declared that [redacted] was under citizen's arrest for trespassing and said, "I remand you to custody of the officers." [redacted] then went limp into the arms of two policemen, who were standing behind [redacted] and was dragged to the corner of the bank to await a patrol wagon. The article informed that the picket line, which was assembled at 4:00 PM, disbanded at 7:05 PM, 35 minutes after [redacted] arrest. B Approx 1942 b6 b7C

According to the records of the Bureau of Identification, San Francisco Police Department, [redacted] was sentenced to 90 days in the county jail for violation of Section 602J, PC, State of California (trespassing) and has appealed the sentence. b6 b7C

Demonstrations took place at the Bank of America from May 25, 1964 to August 31, 1964. These demonstrations were spearheaded by CORE. They took place every Monday and Friday nights from 4:00 to 6:00 PM, with the number of participants ranging from approximately 50 to 100 individuals.

~~CONFIDENTIAL~~ (U)

On August 31, 1964, [redacted] b6 b7C
San Francisco Chapter of CORE, who was marching with the demonstrators, announced that picketing would end at 6:00 PM, and a decision would be made at a later date whether picketing would continue at the Bank of America. [redacted] claimed that the Bank of America had hired 300 members of minority races as a result of demonstrations by CORE. [redacted] commented in the future CORE would not ask for a head count as to the members of minority races hired by the Bank of America, but would demand the Bank of America hire more Negroes.

[redacted] commented in view of the rapid turn-over of personnel at the bank, not even the Personnel Department of the bank could furnish a figure.

There have been no reported demonstrations against the Bank of America since August 31, 1964. In addition, there were no additional arrests in connection with any demonstrations at the Bank of America.

H. DEMONSTRATIONS AT THE REPUBLICAN NATIONAL CONVENTION, SAN FRANCISCO, CALIFORNIA, JULY 13 THROUGH 16, 1964

A press release dated June 29, 1964, from CORE issued by [redacted] National Program Director, announced the following: b6 b7C

JAMES S. FARMER, National Director of CORE, would personally present CORE's demands to the Republican Party Platform and Credentials Committee. CORE's specific demands ranged from meaningful and immediate implementation of the civil rights bill "soon expected to be law" and "denunciation and repudiation of Republican members of Congress who voted against the civil rights bill." HILL, according to local reporters, said he hoped to have 3,000 to 5,000 demonstrators from 45 CORE chapters in the 11 western states participate in a demonstration at the Republican National Convention.

A leaflet issued by CORE and passed out at the Republican Convention on July 14, 1964, set forth the following demands by CORE:

"We demand that the Republican Party - at its 1964 convention - declare itself for concrete measures that will solve the inequities of poverty and racial bias."

"1. Immediate meaningful implementation of the Civil Rights Bill

"2. Denouncing and repudiation of Republican Congressmen who voted against the Bill.

"3. Repudiation of alliance with Dixiecrats on civil rights and social legislation affecting Negroes and other minorities.

"4. Full and Fair employment (massive works and training program; $2 minimum wage).

"5. Enforce those sections of the 14th Amendment of the United States Constitution in the Southern States which deny Congressional Representation by denying voting rights.

"6. Realistic program for massive and immediate integration of all public schools as ordered by the Supreme Court ten years ago.

"7. Legislation allocating substanital funds for aid to communities and states for quality integrated education.

"8. Legislation allocating substantial funds for development and encouragement of integrated housing within the income range of all citizens.

"9. Take immediate steps to change the Senate cloture rule from the present 2/3 vote now necessary to a simple majority (51%).

"10. Endorse and support Fair Housing Legislation nationally and locally."

At the bottom was written "COME JOIN OUR PROTEST - C.O.R.E."

A Special Agent of the FBI observed that JAMES FARMER, National Chairman of CORE, was present with demonstrators during the Republican National Convention during the first two days.

Picketing took place at each session of the convention beginning July 13 through and including July 16, 1964. The demonstrations reached a climax on July 15, 1964, when two groups of pickets gained admittance to the convention building. One group blocked the turnstile exits by sitting down, and still another blocked a six lane highway, Geneva Avenue, leading to the convention site by lying on the pavement. Number of pickets participating:

DATE	APPROXIMATE NUMBER OF PICKETS OBSERVED
July 13, 1964	98
July 14, 1964	300
July 15, 1964	750

I. OAKLAND - TRIBUNE NEWSPAPER OFFICES

On September 4, 1964, from 7:00 to 9:00 PM, AHCED commenced demonstrations against the "Oakland - Tribune" newspaper. This demonstration was allegedly against the hiring policies of the newspaper. According to an editorial, which appeared in the September 6, 1964 issue of the "Oakland - Tribune", AHCED was demanding the following:

1. Increase minority race employment to 15 to 20 per cent of the total Tribune employment by December 15, 1964.

2. Furnish AHCED indefinitely records of all current and new employees as to their race, color, national origin or ancestry.

3. Right to police and tour all Tribune offices in order to "check-up."

The editorial informed that the Oakland - Tribune's answer to all issues was "NO."

On September 4, 1964, a demonstration took place against the "Oakland - Tribune" newspaper offices, 13th and Franklin Streets, Oakland. This demonstration took place from 7:00 PM to 9:00 PM and there were approximately 150 participants. Among those participating were the following:

In the September 3, 1964 "Blue Streak" issue of the "Oakland - Tribune", there appeared an article which informed that among the ten individuals who had represented AHCED and had participated in discussions with the "Oakland - Tribune" newspaper, were the following:

[redacted]

In a leaflet distributed by an unknown person at Sather Gate, University of California, Berkeley, during the early part of September, 1964, contents of which were described as a reproduction of the statement issued on September 2, 1964 by AHCED, the following information was set forth:

CONFIDENTIAL (U)

CONFIDENTIAL

There had been a series of meetings with the "Oakland Tribune" management, beginning last May, the topic being the hiring patterns at the "Oakland - Tribune." The leaflet remarked that the information given "to us" by "Oakland - Tribune" staff members was that there were an estimated 250 employees, of whom less than two per cent were Negroes. "It is our opinion" and of at least two recent Attorneys General, that a work force which is racially substantially lower than that of the general community from which the work force derives is a clear indication of discrimination. The leaflet invited the recipient to join the demonstration on September 18, 1964, at 7:00 PM at the "Oakland - Tribune" building, 13th and Franklin Streets, Oakland.

Demonstrations commenced at the offices of the "Oakland - Tribune" newspaper building, 13th and Franklin Streets, Oakland, September 4, 1964. Originally the demonstrations took place from 7:00 to 8:40 PM every Friday evening; however, on September 26, 1964, the demonstrations were moved to 1:00 to 3:00 PM every Saturday afternoon. The number of pickets has ranged from approximately 25 to 150 individuals.

On October 10, 1964, [redacted] announced to an assembled group, who were to march in a demonstration against the "Oakland - Tribune", that the churches and the unions were acting as mediators between AHCED and the "Oakland - Tribune" newspaper and in good faith AHCED would not demonstrate on October 10, 1964.

The March 15, 1964, issue of the "San Francisco Examiner," a daily newspaper published in San Francisco, California, contains the following article by GEORGE N. CROCKER, entitled, "The Du Bois Clubs":

"Among the somewhat weird excrescences that have begun to appear on the periphery of campus life at college towns in some sections of this country are the Du Bois Clubs.

"Like fungi they have shot up; and if the name might suggest little coteries of dilettantes who get together to taste the refinements of French culture or gastronomy, the impression would be far from the fact. The Du Bois Clubs are no more French than a Chevrolet is. It would be hard to say what winds of nationalism do blow when they meet.

"I say 'weird' only because these clubs ostensibly exist for worshipful obeisance before the ghost of the late W.E.B. Du Bois. He was a Harvard-educated American who developed an infatuation for the Soviet Union and who, before he died last year, openly espoused communism, renounced his American citizenship and became a citizen of the African nation of Ghana, a semi-barbaric dictatorship ruled by Kwame Nkrumah.

"Du Bois was a Negro. But what American Negro chooses Ghana? Not even the poorest hankers to trade his American birthright for a one-way trip to Africa - and Du Bois was never poor. Not even the most hate-filled Black Muslim clamors to become one of Kwame Nkrumah's subjects.

"Last week, when a ragtag mob of 600 youths (mostly white) made the lobby of San Francisco's Sheraton-Palace Hotel their hippodrome and sleeping-pen, one of the masters of ceremony and co-leader of the 'Ad Hoc Committee to End Discrimination' was a white 23 year old ex-student representing three Du Bois Clubs. He informed curious reporters that the clubs are 'socialist action youth groups.' And to remarks about the unwashed T-shirted, bearded, straggly haired types reveling in this Saturnalia, he answered, 'Yes, we are all individualists. That's why we're here together.'

"It takes more than a beard and a dirty shirt, or long black stockings and a ponytail, to make an individualist; and the young man's confusion is flagrant in his failure to perceive that socialist and individualist are contradictory concepts. True individualists don't run in mobs and herds. Socialism, to them, whether it be in Russia, Ghana, or anywhere else, is the very negation of what Emerson called 'the primacy of the individual.'

"And perhaps the episode was put in better perspective by the later comment of Donald Warden, head of the Afro-American Assn., which stresses self-improvement. This brilliant young Negro, a Phi Beta Kappa and a lawyer, said: 'Those pickets had no more concern about the Negro race than Bilbo. Their only concern was for agitation.'

"But while we don't know what transpires at Du Bois Club meetings, we hope all concerned will have a clear image of W.E.B. Du Bois. This man, born in Massachusetts of Negro, French, and Dutch ancestry, was for half a century the voice of Negro radicalism - so far to the left that he broke with the NAACP in 1948 and lost contact with American Negroes and whites alike.

(U) ~~CONFIDENTIAL~~

"There was a strange misanthropy in Du Bois, despite his Harvard Ph.D., advanced study in Europe, and success as teacher, author and editor. Carl T. Rowan, a Negro now high in our government, wrote in Saturday Review in 1959 that Du Bois was 'an irascible black racist' and 'a haughty, arrogant aristocrat.' A biographer has said that he hated the white race without ever loving the black race.

"His antagonism to America and the other Western countries hardened into a blind bias. From the end of World War II to the day of his death in Ghana, he advocated the positions of Russia and Red China vis-a-vis the U.S. on every opportunity. In his inflamed mind, black chauvinism was scrambled with a compulsion to accept uncritically all the oppressions, hypocrisies and brutalities of the Communist world.

"Mr. Rowan described this pathetic figure as an 'an old man whose cup of racial bitterness runneth over - a nonagenarian brooding out his last days in a desperate admiration of things Russian and an irreconcilable hatred of things white American.'

"It is possible that the Du Bois Clubs which have sprung up do not mean to honor everything Du Bois represents in history. Perhaps many of the club members - especially the teen-agers - just find this as exciting a cause to be confused and dazzled by as any other. Fervor is nature's gift to the young.

"But here is a case in which one wants to say, as Shaw did: Youth is a wonderful thing; what a crime to waste it on children."

The April 23, 1964, issue of the "San Francisco Examiner" contains the following article entitled, "Red Speakers on DuBois Club List," by ED MONTGOMERY:

"Further evidence of extreme left-wing and Communist influence within groups which have infiltrated the local civil rights movement was seen yesterday in the schedule of events for April announced by the W.E.B. DuBois Club.

"The DuBois Club membership is composed for the most part of a conglomeration of representatives from nearly a dozen individual Socialist groups and the Students Ad Hoc Committee to End Discrimination.

"Highlight of the club's calendar for the month was an appearance April 10 by Frank Wilkinson, identified Communist who heads the National Committee to Abolish the House Committee on Un-American Activities.

"Wilkinson was here to attend a strategy meeting of West Coast Communists held April 11 under auspices of the Citizens Committee to Preserve American Freedoms. This organization has been cited by the U.S. Attorney General as a Communist front group.

"On April 17 the Citizens Committee for Nuclear Disarmament presented two films at the DuBois headquarters at 1007 McAllister St.

The Northern California District CP leadership in May, 1963, reportedly had no plans to infiltrate or attempt to control the NAACP inasmuch as previous efforts along this line had been failures because of the NAACP vigilance against any attempt on the part of the CP to put across its own programs within the NAACP. The CP reportedly desired that its members join the NAACP in order to have listening posts within the organization and to learn of any activities of the NAACP upon which the CP might capitalize. The CP reportedly minimized the importance of the NAACP in Negro activities because of its lack of militancy. (U)

During the fall of 1963, MICKEY LIMA, Chairman of the Northern California District CP, reportedly told a long-time member of the CP in the Santa Rosa area to discontinue his NAACP membership immediately because he was well known as a communist in the Santa Rosa area. LIMA explained that membership of a well-known CP member in the NAACP would prove a hindrance to that organization because it would taint the organization as being communist. (X)(U)

[SF T-7 9/20/63] X(U)

The continued vigilance of the NAACP in the San Francisco area was illustrated by an article which appeared in the "San Francisco Chronicle" newspaper of June 11, 1964, entitled "NAACP Looks at its Rights Role." This article reported that San Francisco directors of the NAACP had launched an inquiry into methods of gaining closer control over members' participation in civil rights demonstrations. This program reportedly was approved by a 33 to 0 vote of the directors of the San Francisco Branch after they overwhelmingly rejected a resolution offered by Attorney [redacted], which would have censured CORE for picketing city hall during the civil rights trials. The rejected resolution would have condemned "external pressures" on the courts by "organizations and individuals who purport to speak for the entire civil rights movement and the Negro community." The directors instead reportedly voted to establish a committee to "reassess the position of the NAACP branch with reference to the current activities and the trend of the entire civil rights movement." b6 b7C

The "San Francisco Examiner," on June 22, 1964, reported that on June 21, 1964, the Executive Board of the San Francisco Chapter of the NAACP had voted in a secret meeting to advise all remaining defendants in sit-in trials to plead nolo contendre (no contest). This move reportedly was in opposition to Dr. THOMAS BURBRIDGE, and was designed to clear court calendars of the sit-in trials which had tied up the municipal courts for weeks. BURBRIDGE reportedly indicated a readiness to resign as president of the chapter after the overwhelming vote against him and a small group of other "militants" on the board. Board members reportedly agreed by a large majority that "the purpose of the NAACP is to get jobs for Negroes, not to jam the courts." The article concluded that the NAACP decision was expected to widen the rift between the militant and the more moderate leaders of the civil rights movement in San Francisco.

At a meeting of the San Francisco County Committee held April 13, 1964, at 1027 Brussels Street, San Francisco, California, CARL BLOICE gave a report on the civil rights struggle. Pleasure was expressed at the strength of the demonstrations and the number of people turning out. (X) (U)

BLOICE reported that it is easy to get people to consent to that part of the demonstrations which result in arrest. There are some problems in getting coordinated action between the participating organizations such as CORE, NAACP and the Ad Hoc Committee. The Ad Hoc Committee is, of course, ideologically more advanced than the other two organizations and more militant. (X) (U)

The "San Francisco Chronicle" on October 15, 1964, published an article entitled "Big NAACP Split--Burbridge Quits" which reported that the leadership of the local NAACP was split down the middle on October 14, 1964, by the bitter resignations of Dr. THOMAS N. The article reported that the paper learned that the dispute involved a long-standing difference over tactics in the civil rights fight, and a specific break over what the NAACP should do about the Western Addition Area 2 Redevelopment Program, which many Negro residents of the area oppose.

The "San Francisco Chronicle" on October 19, 1964, reported under the caption "Furor Over NAACP Resignations" that the San Francisco Branch of the NAACP had refused on October 18, 1964, to publicly air some letters of resignation from its executive board. The article disclosed that about ten members of the 45-man executive board had quit in support of the resignation of Dr. BURBRIDGE, "whose militant civil rights tactics have aroused opposition with NAACP ranks here."

The "San Francisco Examiner" on October 19, 1964, carried an article entitled "The NAACP Rift--Over Money" by [redacted] which attributed the struggle within the San Francisco Branch of the NAACP to a depleted treasury. A source reportedly close to the situation was quoted as having stated that "it's great to be an activist, but whatever we do costs money. And we just didn't have the money to go along with Doctor BURBRIDGE on many things." b6 b7C

The article reported that Dr. BURBRIDGE and the ten members of the executive committee who resigned were all regarded as activists. They reportedly resigned when the more moderate wing of the group declined to press a lawsuit to halt the redevelopment of the second area of the Western Addition. BURBRIDGE reportedly favored the suit, which charged that the redevelopment project would mean prohibitive rents and displacement of many law income families, whereas a majority of the board did not favor the suit.

The "San Francisco News-Call Bulletin," a daily newspaper published in San Francisco, on October 19, 1964, carried an article entitled "NAACP Drops School Suit" which reported that the SF Chapter of NAACP had dropped its suit, filed in 1962, against the San Francisco Board of Education charging that the Board had failed to take action against de facto segregation in the schools.

Attorney [redacted] Chairman of the chapter's legal redress committee, reportedly told a general membership meeting on October 18, 1964, that the authority of school boards in such a situation had been "confused" by recent rulings of federal and state courts, and the hiring by the school board of [redacted] as Human Relations Officer indicated "good faith." b6 b7C

The members reportedly decided not to fill the vacancies left by the resignations immediately. The members also failed to act on a directive from the national NAACP that required reorganization of the local chapter into three units, but postponed action on this directive until after January 1, 1965.

The "San Francisco Chronicle" on October 23, 1963, page six, contained an article entitled "Burbridge Explains Why He Quit NAACP Post." BURBRIDGE was quoted as having stated on October 22, 1964, that he quit because he objected to the NAACP's Executive Board's "gross insincerety" in the fight against the Western Addition Area 2 redevelopment plan and to its rejection of efforts to dismiss a part-time office secretary. BURBRIDGE was quoted further as having stated that "underlying these incidents is a deep philosophical rift. Those of us who resigned feel that the more a civil rights organization can divorce itself from politics, the better off it is. Those opposing us feel the branch should be involved in the political arena." (U)

WILLIAM (BILL) BRADLEY, San Francisco Chairman of CORE, stated on June 11, 1964, at a press conference that the various civil rights organizations could not deny that there might be comments and CP members in the various civil rights organizations responsible for picket lines and demonstrations. Further, that the attitude of the civil rights organizations was that they would welcome anyone who would support and be active in civil rights.

At a meeting of the CP Youth Club, Berkeley, California, held on November 15, 1963, at 2734 Haste Street, Berkeley, California, an unprepared and disorganized discussion over CORE took place. It was pointed out that Berkeley CORE was comprised almost entirely of white University of California students. Further, that it was not organized with a Negro community base. As an example it was noted that only five per cent of the CORE members picketing the International Pancake House in Berkeley, California, were Negroes. A brief discussion was held in which it was suggested by [redacted] elsewhere characterized, that Party members in CORE should try to establish roots in the Negro community. (X)(U)

At a meeting of the CP Housing Committee held on November 12, 1963, at 1584 Post Street, San Francisco, a discussion was held on ways and means of making contact with any of the Negro groups who are interested in housing. It was the CP's intention to intensify the struggle to bring Negroes into the movement, but difficulty was encountered in attempting to get someone to volunteer to contact Negro groups such as a Housing Committee of the NAACP or the Housing Committee of CORE. It was suggested that they get these committees to agree to send representatives to the CP Housing Committee meeting or allow the CP Housing Committee to send representatives to their meetings to establish liaison with housing committees active in San Francisco. It was pointed out that attempting to make contact with any of these Negro groups was very difficult. (X)(U)

[redacted] a member of the CP National Committee, on April 19, 1964, held a meeting at her residence. The exact nature of this meeting was not specified. The meeting generally concerned itself with a discussion of racial demonstrations in San Francisco. Part of the discussion concerned the picketing at the Bank of America, and in this connection, [redacted] said that there was to be five weeks of negotiations which would last until the third week of May. If agreement was not reached, this group would advocate pushing CORE to see that things came to a head, and if the Bank of America did not agree, the Ad Hoc Committee could enter the discussion, have demonstrations, and have members arrested. At a meeting of the New Amalgamated CP Club which met on August 26, 1964, at 411 Pierce Street, San Francisco, the board decided to equalize work of Executive Board members. One member of the board was assigned to work in CORE. Other members were assigned to work at Freedom House and with one of the major political parties. This left the NAACP and the churches, and it was decided to ask for volunteers to work with these groups. It was finally decided to ask one of the members to go into the NAACP and to work there. A YSA Berkeley area report dated August 19, 1964, was forwarded by mail anonymously to the New York Office of the FBI. This report, in part, declared as follows:

One of the most active areas of work of YSA has been in connection with CORE on the campus. Although nominally it is a civil rights organization, it is important to realize that CORE actually is the student movement in its present form.

CORE on the campus presently is controled by the local Young People's Socialist League, (YPSL), in a very bureaucratic manner which is fast alienating the "good people." The political strength of the YSA is so great, however, that the YPSL has been forced to define itself only by reaction to the YSA. The left YPSLs try to outflank the YSA on the left and end up in a position which is almost anarchisttotally action oriented, judging only in terms of "militancy" and considering politics a hindrance in the struggle. Although the CORE meetings frequently seem totally meaningless and the organization displays all the worst characteristics of the petty bourgeois college milieu, virtually every potential radical passes through CORE at some time simply because civil rights is the most important issue today, and because CORE is the only active campus civil rights organization.

Many of the "good people" stay away from civil rights demonstrations for awhile for lack of a better place to go. It is among these people that the YSA is able to do its most effective work. Partly due to the presence of the YSA, and partly due to the development of the civil rights movement in the Bay Area, the majority of the students in CORE support the idea of independent political action as the next logical step.

The civil rights movement in the San Francisco Bay Area is unique to the extent that it has been a white student movement carried to its natural conclusion. Everyone's fingers have been burned and with the sting of this experience still fresh, it is easy for the YSA to point out that the San Francisco sit-in trials were inevitable as long as the demonstrations and demonstrators refused to break with the two party system.

The YPSL is known publically as the youth affiliate of the Socialist Party - Social Democratic Federation.

AD HOC COMMITTEE TO END DISCRIMINATION

According to an article in the March 8, 1964 issue of the "San Francisco Examiner", a San Francisco daily morning newspaper, [redacted] stated among other things that following a sit-in demonstration in San Francisco, during October, 1963, by various civil rights groups, the groups realized that a central, coordinating committee was needed. The formation of AD HOC COMMITTEE TO END DISCRIMINATION (AHCED) was the result, and SIMS became its chairman. b6 b7C

A source reported on December 9, 1963, that in December, 1963, [redacted] attended a joint meeting of the San Francisco Communist Party Youth Club and the Communist Party Berkeley Off-Campus Youth Club.

Second source on May 12, 1964, described AHCED as a central body of representatives from militant youth organizations whose purpose was to work for equal civil rights and to put pressure on establishments and employers to hire more people from the minority races, especially Negroes.

A third source reported on March 13, 1964, that at a meeting of the San Francisco Branch of the Socialist Workers Party on March 11, 1964, [redacted] a representative of AHCED related among other things that AHCED was directed and controlled by the W. E. B. Du Bois Clubs of the Bay Area. b6 b7C

A fourth source reported on January 30, 1964, that on January 29, 1964, [redacted] attended a San Francisco Branch membership meeting of the Socialist Workers Party.

Second source related on May 12, 1964, that the W.E.B. Du Bois Clubs of the Bay Area consisted of the W.E.B. Du Bois Clubs of San Francisco, Berkeley, and San Francisco State College. (1) Alleviate the Negro problem in the United States.
(2) Promote peaceful co-existence between the United States and Russia.
(3) Promote and encourage Marxist doctrines and to bring about a socialistic government in the United States.

A second source advised in March, 1963, that the Du Bois Club was both conceived and originated by [redacted] b6 b7C

A third source has advised that [redacted] attended a Communist Patry Youth Commission meeting in San Francisco in October, 1963.

Commencing in March, 1963, the Du Bois Club published a newsletter entitled "San Francisco News and World Report." In its first issue a "Proposed Statement of Principles" was set forth in which the club's aforementioned aims were elaborated upon. In the same issue the lead editorial in part described the San Francisco Du Bois Club as "...a group of young people who are convinced that Socialism is the only answer to the many problems of our time and so find philosophical rapport with the life and thought of Dr. DU BOIS, nevertheless, we are weighed with humility in comparing our goals and ambitions with the genius of his life and work. As a source of inspiration, the figure of W.E.B. DU BOIS is unequaled in American history, but as a standard and example, we seem miserably lost in his shadow. We can only resolve that we do his name no dishonor, and whatever we may accomplish should be recognized as a supplement to his life work."

The November 25, 1961, issue of the "People's World," a West Coast communist newspaper published in San Francisco, contains an article on page 12 reflecting that W.E.B. DU BOIS joined the Communist Party after applying for admission on October 1, 1961.

A second source advised on September 14, 1961, that the CCCL had opened an office at 942 Market Street, Room 401, San Francisco, California, and that some of the furniture for this office had come from the CP office on the same floor.

A third source advised June 22, 1962, that Dr. HERBERT PHILLIPS announced that he had closed down the headquarters of the CCL at 942 Market Street, San Francisco.

A fourth source in November, 1962, advised that CP officials in Northern California have been active in promoting the CCL.

This same source advised in November, 1962, that the CCL was active in the fight against the Internal Security Act of 1950, under which the CP and its officials were being prosecuted.

A fifth source on May 2, 1963, furnished the names of the officers of the CCL in San Francisco as Dr. HERBERT J. PHILLIPS, Chairman, and WALTER STACK, Treasurer.

Dr. HERBERT PHILLIPS testified in open court in 1953 to CP membership since 1935.

One of these sources advised February 13, 1963, WALTER STACK stated on February 8, 1963, that the officers of the CCL were holding off temporarily on further activity on the advice of MICKIE LIMA, District CP Chairman.

A seventh source advised that Dr. HERBERT PHILLIPS stated in August, 1963, that the CCL is defunct in the San Francisco area.

The fifth source above advised that the CCL bank account at the Bank of America, #1 Powell Street, San Francisco, was closed August 16, 1963, because it was "no longer needed".

SF 100-5390 2 CITIZENS COMMITTEE FOR CONSTITUTIONAL LIBERTIES (NEW YORK CITY)

~~CONFIDENTIAL~~

The Guide to Subversive Organizations and Publications, revised and published December 1, 1961, prepared and released by the Committee on Un-American Activities, United States House of Representatives, contains the following on Page 42 concerning "Citizens Committee for Constitutional Liberties (New York City)":

1. "On the basis of its investigations and hearings to date, the committee concludes that the National Assembly for Democratic Rights and a coordinating and organizing group in support thereof, titled the 'Citizens Committee for Constitutional Liberties,' are communist fronts. Created, dominated, and controlled by members and officials of the Communist Party, the National Assembly for Democratic Rights and the Citizens Committee for Constitutional Liberties were organized as propaganda devices for the conduct of 'mass activity' in support of the avowed objectives of 'reversal or nonapplication' of the Supreme Court decisions of June 5, 1961, which upheld the constitutionality of the registration and disclosure provisions of the Internal Security Act of 1950 as applied to the Communist Party, and the Smith Act membership clause making punishable active and purposive membership in the Communist Party."

"The long-range objective of the Citizens Committee for Constitutional Liberties is to serve as the vehicle for concealed communist participation in, and direction of, propaganda and agitational activities aimed to nullify the Internal Security and Smith Acts."

"Committee investigation disclosed that the Citizens Committee for Constitutional Liberties was formed on or about June 12, 1961."

Committee to End American Intervention in Viet-Nam (Ad Hoc), Committee to End United States Intervention in Viet-Nam (Ad Hoc), Committee to End United States Imperialism

~~CONFIDENTIAL~~

This Committee was organized as the Committee to End American Intervention in Viet-Nam (Ad Hoc), March 29, 1964, in San Francisco, California, at the instigation of and by members of the W.E.B. DuBois Club of San Francisco, a Marxist youth group, which has promoted the organization's activities among the various groups in the San Francisco area interested in peace and disarmament. Its announced aims have included American withdrawal from Viet-Nam, self-determination for the South Viet-Namese people and adherence of the United States to the 1954 Geneva Convention. Demonstrations along with the distribution of and exhibition of propaganda comprise its program. A flyer advertising a forum of September 15, 1964, in San Francisco on "World Wide Movements--for Freedom" referred to "Cuba - Harlem - Congo - Viet Nam" and listed the Committee to End U. S. Foreign Intervention as sponsor. One of the two sources which provided the information on the Committee's organization has advised that it is the same committee. The other source advised on June 28, 1964, that an Executive Committee of five members was elected in June, 1964, but no new officers were otherwise elected.

Another source advised on September 17, 1964, that the original officers were JOHN W. THOMAS, Chairman; BEVERLY D. RADCLIFFE, Treasurer, and MARGARET DRIGGS, Secretary. The signature of two of these are still required for checks written.

One source mentioned above currently advises that no headquarters is maintained by the Committee; meetings are infrequent and poorly attended, ranging from eight to twenty members. The last reported membership total was approximately twenty in June, 1964.

JOHN THOMAS attended meetings of the DuBois Club of San Francisco on May 10 and 31, 1964.

COMMITTEE TO END U. S. FOREIGN INTERVENTION, aka

When interviewed by Special Agents of the FBI on October 1, 1964, THOMAS indicated he was not a member of the W.E.B. DuBois Club and would not join any group until he found one that really helped the Negro people.

BEVERLY RADCLIFFE in April, 1964, was a member of the DuBois Club of San Francisco.

MARGARET DRIGGS, when interviewed by Special Agents of the FBI on January 25, 1955, said that her activities in the Communist Party (CP) began in the middle 1930s during the depression in Tacoma, Washington. She and her husband moved to Seattle, Washington, and were members there of the CP and the Communist Political Association (CPA). As a result of open criticism of Party functionaries on her part and on the part of her husband, she and her husband were expelled from the CP in 1946 with the proviso that after six months they would reinstate. She said that they did not seek reinstatement. (The CPA has been designated by the Attorney General of the United States pursuant to Executive Order 10450.)

CONFIDENTIAL (U)

The "New York Times" newspaper on November 20, 1960, carried an article captioned "Pro-Castro Body Reports U.S. Gain", which reported that the Fair Play for Cuba Committee (FPCC) had 5,000 paid-up members in the United States. The article declared that the FPCC had headquarters at 799 Broadway, New York City, New York, and had chapters in other cities, including one in San Francisco.

A source advised in March, 1961, that the Bay Area Chapter of the FPCC (BAFPCC) began to be formed in San Francisco in November, 1960, under the direct guidance and leadership of ASHER HARER, who the source identified as a member of the San Francisco Branch of the Socialist Workers Party (SWP) and a member of the National Committee of the SWP.

The SWP has been designated by the Attorney General of the United States pursuant to Executive Order 10450.

The source advised in March, 1963, that in the recent election of the BAFPCC the SWP continued its influence by having SWP members elected to the executive committee.

A source advised in May, 1963, that the BAFPCC included members in San Francisco and surrounding counties. He advised that the BAFPCC has no headquarters but received mail through Post Office Box 2615, San Francisco 26, California, which is a box maintained by ASHER HARER. He stated that the announced aims and purposes of the BAFPCC are to "spread the truth about Cuba and to prevent U. S. intervention in Cuba."

A second source advised on January 10, 1964, that at a BAFPCC meeting in Berkeley, California, in December, 1963, it was decided to dissolve the BAFPCC.

FAIR PLAY FOR CUBA COMMITTEE

CONFIDENTIAL (U)

The April 6, 1960, edition of "The New York Times" newspaper contained a full-page advertisement captioned "What Is Really Happening In Cuba," placed by the Fair Play for Cuba Committee (FPCC). This advertisement announced the formation of the FPCC in New York City and declared the FPCC intended to promulgate "the truth about revolutionary Cuba" to neutralize the distorted American press.

"The New York Times" edition of January 11, 1961, reported that at a hearing conducted before the United States Senate Internal Security Subcommittee on January 10, 1961, Dr. CHARLES A. SANTOS-BUCH identified himself and ROBERT TABER as organizers of the FPCC. He also testified he and TABER obtained funds from the Cuban Government which were applied toward the cost of the aforementioned advertisement.

On May 16, 1963, a source advised that during the first two years of the FPCC's existence there was a struggle between Communist Party (CP) and Socialist Workers Party (SWP) elements to exert their power within the FPCC and thereby influence FPCC policy. This source added that during the past year there had been a successful effort by FPCC leadership to minimize the role of these and other organizations in the FPCC so that their influence as of May, 1963, was negligible.

> The SWP has been designated by the Attorney General of the United States pursuant to Executive Order 10450.

On May 20, 1963, a second source advised that VINCENT "TED" LEE, FPCC National Office Director, was then formulating FPCC policy and had indicated that he had no intention of permitting FPCC policy to be determined by any other organization. This source stated that LEE believed that the FPCC should advocate resumption of diplomatic relations between Cuba and the United States and should support the right of Cubans to manage their revolution without interference from other nations. LEE did not advocate supporting the Cuban revolution per se.

The November 23, 1963, edition of "The New York Times" reported that Senator THOMAS J. DODD of Connecticut had called FPCC "the chief public relations instrument of the Castro network in the United States." It is to be noted that Senator DODD was a member of the Senate Internal Security Subcommittee which twice conducted hearings on the FPCC.

The December 27, 1963, edition of "The New York World Telegram and Sun" newspaper stated that the pro-Castro FPCC was seeking to go out of business and that its prime activity during its lifetime had been sponsorship of pro-Castro street rallies and mass picket lines, and the direction of an active propaganda mill highlighting illegal travel-to-Cuba campaigns. Its comparatively brief span of life was attributed to mounting anti-Castro American public opinion, the 1962 Congressional hearings which disclosed FPCC financing by Castro's United Nations Delegation, and ultimately, the bad publicity which the FPCC received from disclosure of activities on its behalf by suspected presidential assassin LEE H. OSWALD.

On February 6, 1964, the previously mentioned second source advised that V. T. LEE had recently remarked that the FPCC was dead and that there were no plans to organize another similar organization.

On April 13, 1964, a third source advised that there had not been any FPCC activity in many months and that the FPCC had been dissolved.

FREEDOM HOUSE

A source advised on May 28, 1963, that Freedom House was established in Monroe, North Carolina, in May 1963, as a headquarters for racial integration activities in the Monroe area. Although there is no formal organization, as such, the activities of this group of four racial organizers are under the leadership of JACOB ROSEN, Southern Editor of "Progressive Labor."

This source advised on July 18, 1963, that Freedom House publishes a monthly newspaper entitled "Freedom," which carries articles primarily concerning local integration activities. Editor of this publication is JACOB ROSEN.

JACOB ROSEN advised Special Agents of the Federal Bureau of Investigation on July 31, 1963, that the purposes of his group at Freedom House are to integrate the public schools, encourage Negro voter registration and, in general, to improve the living and working conditions of the Negroes in the area. He stated that his organizers possess firearms, and that his group advocates the use of violence, if necessary, as a means of self-defense.

This source advised on October 8, 1963, that the activities and operations at Freedom House are being directed and financed by Progressive Labor in New York City, and that JACOB ROSEN and his organizers are all working for and under the control of Progressive Labor.

The source advised on October 22, 1963, that Freedom House headquarters was moved on that date from 605 Brown Street to 308 Hudson Street, Monroe, North Carolina. The mailing address is Post Office Box 84, Monroe, North Carolina. The source added that the future activities of Freedom House in Monroe are questionable as ROSEN and his organizers have lost much of their local Negro community, in that they are not wanted in Monroe.

INDEPENDENT STUDENT UNION

On October 7, 1960, a source advised that the Independent Student Union (ISU) was formed by a group of Los Angeles City College students in March, 1960.

The preamble to the ISU constitution states in part:

"We, the members of the ISU, are dedicated to giving our energies to building a world of peace, wherein the peoples of all lands will not have to live in constant fear of nuclear, biological and chemical warfare.

"We pledge our efforts to ending of all social inequality based [illegible] race creed or national origin and to furthering the eradication of discrimination in all walks of American life.

"We affirm [illegible] students and instructors [illegible] an active role in the political life of the nation, and believe that no restriction should be placed upon the free expression of ideas and opinions within or outside the classroom.

The source stated that the ISU was originally controlled by three co-chairmen, one of whom was FRANKLIN ALEXANDER, a member of the Southern California District Communist Party (CP). In September, 1960, ALEXANDER was elected to be president of the ISU.

The CP, USA, has been designated by the Attorney General of the United States pursuant to Executive Order 10450.

The source stated the ISU claims to have a membership of 200; however membership does not necessarily indicate sympathy to the CP.

NATION OF ISLAM,
Formerly referred to as the Muslim Cult of Islam, also known as Muhammad's Temples of Islam

~~CONFIDENTIAL~~ (U)

In January, 1957, a source advised that ELIJAH MUHAMMAD has described his organization on a nationwide basis as the "Nation of Islam," (NOI) and "Muhammad's Temples of Islam."

On May 8, 1964, a second source advised that ELIJAH MUHAMMAD is the national leader of the NOI; Muhammad's Temple of Islam No. 2, 5335 South Greenwood Avenue, Chicago, Illinois, is the national headquarters of the NOI; and in mid-1960, Muhammad and other NOI officials, when referring to Muhammad's organization on a nationwide basis, commenced using either "Mosque" or "Temple" when mentioning one of "Muhammad's Temples of Islam."

The NOI is an all-Negro organization which was originally organized in 1930 in Detroit, Michigan. MUHAMMAD claims to have been selected by Allah, the Supreme Being, to lead the so-called Negro race out of slavery in the wilderness of North America by establishing an independent black nation in the United States. Members following Muhammad's teachings and his interpretation of the "Koran" believe there is no such thing as a Negro; that the so-called Negroes are slaves of the white race, referred to as "white devils" in the United States; and that the white race, because of its exploitation of the so-called Negroes, must and will be destroyed in the approaching "War of Armageddon."

In the past, officials and members of the NOI, including MUHAMMAD, have refused to register under the provisions of the Selective Service Acts and have declared that members owe no allegiance to the United States.

On May 5, 1958, the first source advised MUHAMMAD had, upon advice of legal counsel, tempered his personal statements and instructions to his ministers concerning the principles of his organization in order to avoid possible prosecution by the United States Government; however, he did not indicate any fundamental changes in the teachings of his organization.

On May 7, 1964, a third source advised that MUHAMMAD had, early in July, 1958, decided to de-emphasize the religious aspects of the teachings of Islam and to stress the economic benefits to be derived by those Negroes who joined the NOI. This policy change, according to MUHAMMAD, would help him acquire additional followers and create more interest in his programs.

A source advised that on May 15, 1960, the National Executive Committee of the Communist Party, USA (CP, USA) endorsed a project presented by MORTIMER DANIEL RUBIN, National Youth Director, CP, USA, calling for a youth publication, "New Horizons." RUBIN stated that this publication will deal with youth questions and while it will not be labeled Marxist, it will use a Marxist analysis on all issues.

Another source advised on June 2, 1960, that the title of the youth publication "New Horizons", had been changed to "New Horizons for Youth."

Records of the New York County Clerk's Office, New York, New York, reflect that Youth Publications, Incorporated, was incorporated in the State of New York on May 17, 1960.

The Volume 1, Number 8, May, 1961 issue of "New Horizons for Youth" indicated that it is published by Youth Publications, Incorporated, 799 Broadway, New York, New York.

The Volume 4, Number 1 issue of "New Horizons for Youth", published during January, 1964, indicates that LIONEL LIBSON is the editor and the place of publication is 1426 Bristol Street, Philadelphia, 40, Pa.

On January 21, 1964, a third source advised that LIONEL LIBSON was a member of the Youth Club, Communist Party of Eastern Pennsylvania and Delaware (CPEPD); that he was moved by the CP to New York to work on "New Horizons for Youth"; and when "New Horizons for Youth" moved to Philadelphia, LIBSON returned to Philadelphia as editor and is again a member of the Youth Club, CPEPD.

1. Found to be "a new Communist splinter group." The Provisional Organizing Committee for a Marxist-Leninist Communist Party "also known as the POC * * * was formed in August 1958 by a number of Communist Party members who were dissatisfied with the trends and policies of the party and, while within, it had referred to themselves as the Marxist-Leninist Caucus."

"The leaders and participants in the Provisional Organizing Committee group had been expelled from the Communist Party on the technical charge of 'disruptive, factional, anti-party activities.'

"The POC group is composed largely of extreme left-wing elements from the Communist Party. Throughout the party's history, there have been contending right and left-wing factions which, in periods of turmoil such as the party has gone through in the recent past, have fought for control. The POC elements lost out in this recent struggle within the U.S. party ***."

"The one fact that is completely clear today is that the POC group is made up of hard-core, dedicated, and extremist Communists, who, despite their present differences with the Communist Party leadership, are intent upon doing all within their power to speed the achievement of the goals of international communism."

STUDENT COMMITTEE FOR TRAVEL TO CUBA

"The Columbia Owl," weekly student newspaper of Columbia University, New York City, December 13, 1962, issue, page one, contained an article entitled "Students to Visit Cuba During Holidays." This article stated in part that the Ad Hoc Student Committee for Travel to Cuba was formed October 14, 1962, by a group of students from New York City universities, the University of Wisconsin, Oberlin College and the University of North Carolina, who stated that as students they would like a chance to see and evaluate the situation in Cuba for themselves and had received an offer of transportation and two weeks stay in Cuba from the Federation of University Students in Havana, as guests of the Federation. The Committee accepted the offer and applied to the United States State Department for passport validation which was refused; however, over fifty students planned to defy the State Department ban and go to Cuba.

A source advised on December 6, 1962, that during December, 1962, it was learned that the Ad Hoc Student Committee for Travel to Cuba had recently been formed by the Progressive Labor Group.

A second source advised on September 13, 1963, that a group of 59 individuals who had assembled in New York City, departed New York City by air on June 25, 1963, and traveled to Paris, France, Prague, Czechoslovakia, and then to Havana, Cuba. The group remained in Cuba until August 24, 1963, at which time they departed by air for New York City via Madrid, Spain. The group arrived in New York City on August 29, 1963.

The same source advised that the leaders of the group were members of Progressive Labor and the trip was planned and organized by Progressive Labor members.

"The Columbia Owl," March 11, 1964, issue, page one, carried an article captioned, "Another Visit to Cuba, Students Will Defy Student Travel Ban This Summer." W.E.B. DU BOIS CLUBS OF AMERICA

A source has advised that on October 26-27, 1963 a conference of members of the Communist Party (CP), including National Functionaries, met in Chicago, Illinois, for the purpose of setting in motion forces for the establishment of a new national Marxist oriented youth organization which would hunt for the most peaceful transition to socialism. The delegates to this meeting were cautioned against the germ of anti-Soviet and anti-CP ideologies. These delegates were also told that it would be reasonable to assume that the young socialists attracted into this new organization would eventually pass into the CP itself.

A second conference of over 20 persons met in Chicago on December 28-29, 1963 for the purpose of initiating a "call" to the new youth organization and planning for a founding convention to be held in June, 1964.

A second source has advised that the founding convention for the new youth organization was held from June 19-21, 1964 at 150 Golden Gate Avenue, San Francisco, California, at which time the name W.E.B. DU BOIS CLUBS OF AMERICA was adopted. Approximately 500 delegates from throughout the United States attended this convention. The aims of this organization, as set forth in the preamble to the constitution, are, "It is our belief that this nation can best solve its problems in an atmosphere of peaceful co-existence, complete disarmament and true freedom for all peoples of the world, and that these solutions will be reached mainly through the united efforts of all democratic elements in our country, composed essentially of the working people allied in the unity of Negroes and other minorities with whites. We further fully recognize that the greatest threat to American democracy comes from the racist and right wing forces in coalition with the most reactionary sections of the economic power structure, using the tool of anti-communism to divide and destroy the unified struggle of the working people. As young people in the forces struggling for democracy, we shall actively strive to defeat these reactionary and neo-fascist elements and to achieve complete freedom and democracy for all Americans, thus enabling each individual to freely choose and build the society he would wish to live in. Through these struggles we feel the American people will realize the viability of the socialist alternatives."

A fourth source advised in March, 1964, that [redacted] was a new subscriber and held a yearly subscription to the "People's World." b6 b7C

The "People's World" is a West Coast communist newspaper published weekly in San Francisco.

The second source advised further on April 13, 1964, that the W.E.B. DuBois Youth Club - Berkeley Chapter, is currently active as a membership organization.

A fifth source advised on July 31, 1964, the group's headquarters is located at 5935 Grove Street, Oakland, California.

~~CONFIDENTIAL~~ (U)

A source advised that on January 31, 1963, the W.E.B. Du Bois Club of San Francisco held its first general meeting at California Hall, Polk and Turk Streets, San Francisco, California, at which time the aims of the club were put forth as follows by [redacted] b6 b7C

(1) Alleviate the Negro problem in the United States.
(2) Promote peaceful co-existence between the United States and Russia.
(3) Promote and encourage Marxist doctrines and to bring about a socialistic government in the United States.

A second source advised in March, 1963, that the Du Bois Club was both conceived and originated by [redacted]

A third source has advised that [redacted] attended a Communist Patry Youth Commission meeting in San Francisco in October, 1963.

Commencing in March, 1963, the Du Bois Club published a newsletter entitled "San Francisco News and World Report." In its first issue a "Proposed Statement of Principles" was set forth in which the club's aforementioned aims were elaborated upon. In the same issue the lead editorial in part described the San Francisco Du Bois Club as "...a group of young people who are convinced that Socialism is the only answer to the many problems of our time and so find philosophical rapport with the life and thought of Dr. DU BOIS, nevertheless, we are weighed with humility in comparing our goals and ambitions with the genius of his life and work. As a source of inspiration, the figure of W.E.B. DU BOIS is unequaled in American history, but as a standard and example, we seem miserably lost in his shadow. We can only resolve that we do his name no dishonor, and whatever we may accomplish should be recognized as a supplement to his life work."

The November 25, 1961, issue of the "People's World," a West Coast communist newspaper published in San Francisco, contains an article on page 12 reflecting that W.E.B. DU BOIS joined the Communist Party after applying for admission on October 1, 1961.

CONFIDENTIAL (U)

In May, 1963, the first source informed that the "San Francisco News and World Report," although written and edited by members of the club, was run off on a mimeograph machine located in the offices of the "People's World;" however, in March, 1964, this source advised that the newsletter was no longer mimeographed by the "People's World" because of the unreliability of the machine and, in addition, the name was changed to "The Insurgent" upon recommendation of one of the club officers who felt the new name sounded more militant.

The first source has also stated that commencing in May, 1963, the Du Bois Club had no permanent headquarters and used to hold its meetings at 307 Page Street, Apartment 3, San Francisco, California. In March, 1964, this source advised that the club is currently active as a membership organization and has its headquarters at 1007 McAllister Street, San Francisco.

On January 27, 1964, a source furnished the January 1964 newsletter of the W.E.B. DuBois Club of San Francisco (WEBDCSF) which contained a report on the formation of a W.E.B. DuBois Club at San Francisco State College, San Francisco, California, during the fall term, 1963.

The second source advised on January 10, 1964, that the constitution of the new DuBois Club at San Francisco State College states the name of the organization shall be the San Francisco State College W.E.B. DuBois Club (SFSCWEBDC).

The third source advised May 12, 1964, that the SFSCWEBDC is not an independent organization but is in effect a campus branch of the WEBDCSF formed for the purpose of enabling the WEBDCSF to involve itself in student political activity at San Francisco State College and to have a sounding board for its ideas on the San Francisco State College campus as well as provide recruitment for new members to the WEBDCSF.

The fourth source advised on June 3, 1964, that the SFSCWEBDC was active at San Francisco State College during the spring term of 1964 and anticipated resumption of activities during the fall term of 1964.

WOMEN'S INTERNATIONAL DEMOCRATIC FEDERATION

The Guide to Subversive Organizations and Publications of December 1, 1961, published by the HCUA, on page 173, has the following to say about the Women's International Democratic Federation:

1. Cited as a Communist front "which was founded and supported at all times by the International Communist movement." Also cited as an "organization [which] frankly stated that it intended to follow the lead of the Soviet Union, 'the only country truly working for peace' and which joined in issuing the call for the World Peace Congress, held in Paris in April 1949."

   (Committee on Un-American Activities, House Report 1953 on the Congress of American Women, April 26, 1950, originally released October 23, 1949, p. 1; and House Report 378 on the Communist "Peace" Offensive, April 25, 1951, originally released April 1, 1951, p. 71.)

2. Cited as being among "international Communist fronts * * * functioning at the present time."

YOUNG SOCIALIST ALLIANCE (known in the San Francisco Bay Area as the Bay Area Young Socialist Alliance, aka the Bay Area Committee of the Young Socialist Alliance, Bay Area Committee for the Young Socialist)

~~CONFIDENTIAL~~ (U)

A source advised on May 16, 1960, that the Bay Area Young Socialist Alliance (BAYSA) was formed in February, 1958, as the Bay Area Committee for the Young Socialist (BACYS). At a later stage in its development prior to adoption of the name BAYSA, the organization was known as the Bay Area Committee of the Young Socialist Alliance (BACYSA).

The source advised that as a result of a national convention held April 15-17, 1960, at Philadelphia, Pennsylvania, the BAYSA became a branch of a national organization to be known as the Young Socialist Alliance (YSA) and will carry out in the Northern California area the policies of the YSA. The BAYSA is divided into two working units, the San Francisco YSA and Berkeley YSA.

The source advised that the BAYSA, although ostensibly an independent organization, is in reality controlled by the San Francisco Branch, Socialist Workers Party (SWP) and Oakland Branch SWP.

The source advised April 23, 1964, that the BAYSA is currently active.

The SWP has been designated by the Attorney General of the United States pursuant to Executive Order 10450.

YOUNG SOCIALIST ALLIANCE

CONFIDENTIAL (U)

The May, 1960, issue of the "Young Socialist" (YS), page 1, column 3, disclosed that during April 15-17, 1960, a national organization entitled "The Young Socialist Alliance" (YSA) was established at Philadelphia, Pennsylvania. This issue stated that this organization was formed by the nationwide supporter clubs of the publication YS.

The above issue, page 6, set forth the Founding Declaration of YSA. This declaration stated that the YSA recognizes the Socialist Workers Party (SWP) as the only existing political leadership on class struggle principles, and that the supporters of the YS have come into basic political solidarity with the SWP on the principles of revclutionary socialism.

A source advised on May 6, 1964, that the original YSA was an organization formed during October, 1957, in New York City by youth of various left socialist tendencies, particularly members and followers of the SWP. The leaders of this group were the guiding forces in the establishment of the national organization.

The source further advised on May 6, 1964, that the YSA is dominated and controlled on a national basis by the SWP through having SWP members comprise exclusively the National Executive Committee (NEC) and through an official SWP representative at all YSA NEC meetings. The YSA, in reality, is the youth and training section of the SWP and the main source of new SWP members.

The headquarters of the YSA are located in Room 631, 41 Union Square West, New York City.

The SWP has been designated pursuant to Executive Order 10450.

YOUTH FOR JOBS (YFJ), aka
Youth for Jobs Committee

A source advised in July, 1963, that several recent graduates and dropouts of high schools in Oakland and Berkeley, California, had on April 17, 1963, attended the organizing meeting of Youth for Jobs (YFJ) in Oakland, California, in response to letters prepared by ROSCOE PROCTOR and [redacted]. At this meeting, [redacted] gave reports on the unemployment problems among youth and the need for an organization of this type. PROCTOR also spoke at this meeting.

In May, 1963, a second source advised that ROSCOE PROCTOR attended meetings of the National Executive Committee of the Communist Party (CP), USA, during May, 1963, in New York City.

In January, 1963, a third source identified [redacted] of a CP recruiting class held in January 1963, in Berkeley, California.

In May, 1963, the first source advised that in May, 1963, a 12-page pamphlet entitled "Youth for Jobs - Aims and Purposes" was distributed. This pamphlet described YFJ as an independent organization of young people working together to find solutions to current vocational, social and recreational problems; it specified that YFJ is not affiliated with any other organizations, but would fully support the labor movement and any other organizations striving to combat unemployment and to increase job security for all employees.

In June, 1963, the third source advised that at a meeting of the Political Committee of the CP of the East Bay Region (Alameda and Contra Costa Counties, California) held in June, 1963, VIRGINIA PROCTOR, member of that Committee, gave a report on a draft document read before the National Committee, CP, USA, by GUS HALL, member of the National Committee, CP, USA. In connection with the portion of the report dealing with youth, PROCTOR said, "A report from this area on the activity around Youth For Jobs organized by ROSCOE PROCTOR will be included in the final document, as one of the signs of the Party work in organizing the unemployed."

On April 16, 1964, a fourth source advised that ROSCOE PROCTOR has promoted and guided YFJ since its inception and continues to do so. The source stated that meetings of YFJ are held at the YFJ Club House, 1095 59th Street, Oakland, California, and at homes of individual members.

YOUTH ACTION UNION
formerly known as Los Angeles
Youth For Peace and Socialism

~~CONFIDENTIAL~~

A source advised on May 12, 1964, that during the period January through March, 1962, a series of formation meetings to establish a "socialist youth organization" was held in the Los Angeles area. LEONARD POTASH was acting chairman in charge of the group and PAUL ROSENSTEIN and [redacted] were named to a provisional committee to help organize the new group. On April 3, 1962, the group officially selected the name of Los Angeles Youth For Peace and Socialism (LAYPS) and elected officers.

[redacted] Source further advised that POTASH, ROSENSTEIN and as of 1963, were all members of the Southern California District Communist Party (SCDCP).

A second source advised on May 12, 1964, that the LAYPS was organized with the full knowledge and assistance of DANNY HEALEY, Chairman of the SCDCP, and that several CP members had been approved by HEALEY to teach Marxist theory to the members of the LAYPS. This source further advised that the LAYPS would be a Marxist study and action group and that the teachings of KARL MARX would be followed. Source also advised that although the alleged purpose of the group was to promote "socialism" in the United States, the group considered themselves to be "CP oriented" and were anxious to study the brand of Marxism associated with the CP, USA.

The first source above further advised on May 12, 1964, that in June, 1963, the LAYPS changed the name of the organization to Youth Action Union for two

Title: COMMUNIST INFLUENCE IN RACIAL MATTERS

Character: INTERNAL SECURITY - C

Synopsis:

HERBERT K. KRANSDORF, Organizer, Communist Party of Western Pennsylvania (CPWP) until 9/15/64, during 1963 and 1964 was concerned with strategy concerning civil rights and Negro matters, and stated CP members should participate in meetings of Negro organizations to influence these committees and to suggest racial demonstrations. KRANSDORF participated in demonstration to protest alleged discrimination in hiring Negroes, Pittsburgh, Pa., 8/63; participated in demonstration to demand more Federal protection for civil rights workers in Mississippi during 7/64, and participated in March on Washington, D. C., during 8/63. [redacted] Ohio Valley Section of CP, Wheeling, W. Va., assisted in the organization of demonstration to protest injustices to both Negroes and whites by racial segregation during 10/63, and participated in March on Washington, D. C., during 8/63. KRANSDORF's attempts to influence organization of high school students in Pittsburgh, Pa., for purpose of correcting discrimination and [redacted] attempted infiltration of NAACP, Wheeling, W. DETAILS:

I. COMMUNIST STRATEGY

A. COMMUNIST PARTY, USA

On June 10, 1963, PG T-1 advised that on May 31, 1963, HERBERT K. KRANSDORF remarked that he had recently met with other progressive leaders in New York City to discuss the racial situation. KRANSDORF stated that he was rather embarrassed as he had nothing to report from Pittsburgh, Pa., while the other leaders reported large mass meetings in support of racial demonstrations in their territories. KRANSDORF stated that Pittsburgh had done nothing. He said that he had contacted the Pittsburgh Branch of the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People (NAACP) to ask them to plan some demonstrations, but that the people there told him they were too busy with other matters. KRANSDORF also stated that he believed that a mass protest could begin from within the churches, but that he had approached several ministers without success.

On April 26, 1963, PG T-2 advised that HERBERT K. KRANSDORF was employed on a full-time basis as the Organizer of the Communist Party of Western Pennsylvania (CPWP).

On September 25, 1964, PG T-2 advised that on September 15, 1964, HERBERT KRANSDORF left Pittsburgh, Pa., for Detroit, Michigan, where he was transferred by the National Office, CP.

On July 17, 1963, PG T-2 advised that HERBERT KRANSDORF arranged a CP meeting which was held in the Pittsburgh area on July 6, 1963. KRANSDORF brought HYMAN LUMER to this meeting and LUMER talked about the Negro Movement. During his talk, LUMER stated that special privileges for Negroes seeking employment opportunities was a CP idea of long standing and was now beginning to catch on.

On April 24, 1963, PG T-3 advised that HYMAN LUMER was a member of the National Board of the CPUSA.

On March 7, 1963, PG T-4 advised that HYMAN LUMER had resumed his former position of National Educational Director of the CPUSA.

On July 10, 1963, PG T-1 advised that HERBERT KRANSDORF, a short time prior to this date, had indicated that he had drawn up some proposals which he felt would be a good basis on which the NAACP could work. Among these proposals KRANSDORF listed racial discrimination in unions, in housing, in city and county positions, etc. KRANSDORF indicated that he was going to seek the opinions of several individuals concerning these proposals and would like to have them presented to the President of the Pittsburgh Chapter of the NAACP. On this occasion, KRANSDORF indicated that he was very discouraged concerning the fight for integration in Pittsburgh, and expressed the opinion that more pressure should be put on white people to break up segregation practices in Pittsburgh.

On July 24, 1963, PG T-5 advised that at a CP meeting held in the Pittsburgh area on that date HERBERT KRANSDORF spoke at length concerning civil rights and Negro matters. According to PG T-5, some of KRANSDORF's remarks were as follows:

> The aspects of civil liberties made it plain that the question of constitutional liberties encompassed the area of civil rights. KRANSDORF stated that those in attendance at the aforementioned meeting were aware that a decision had been made to leave the question of public accommodations available to all people up to the Interstate Commerce Commission. Everyone was aware that if the provisions of the 14th Amendment had been carried out, they would have taken care of the whole area of civil rights. A "red herring" had been brought into the fight because communists were blamed for the whole civil rights fight. The charge had been made that the leadership of the whole civil rights fight was made up of communists. KRANSDORF said that he found this proposition intolerable. He declared that this fight was the basic movement of the Negro people for full equality and that it was obvious that civil rights and civil liberties were linked and interrelated.

KRANSDORF continued that in many areas, such as in Alabama, the NAACP had been banned. Efforts had been made to secure NAACP membership lists to determine if any communists were named thereon. KRANSDORF noted that these activities were undertaken to disrupt the civil rights movement. KRANSDORF said that many people active in the civil rights movement were either communists or were so-called communists, and that it was important to bear this in mind if such a question should come up in the future. He said that victory in the civil rights movement would shake up the reactionary's control of the economic and political life of the country. KRANSDORF noted that there was a tremendous reserve of profit for business and industry in this country due to the lesser wages being paid to Negro employees.

KRANSDORF urged those in attendance at this meeting to examine the movement itself. He said that there had been considerable mass action, such as parades, etc., in every city except Pittsburgh. He noted that Detroit had 200,000 marching and other cities had mass picket lines. KRANSDORF noted that this mass action in other cities had shaken up the status quo of the power structure in those cities. However, in Pittsburgh, very little was being said about such activities. KRANSDORF noted that Pittsburgh had a Negro judge and a Negro councilman, but that one should look at the housing situation in Pittsburgh. He reminded those present at this meeting that a Negro doctor in Pittsburgh had been refused a lot on which to build a home.

KRANSDORF also reminded those attending this meeting to look at the job situation relative to Negroes at Pittsburgh. He said that facts showed that the unemployed Negro figures were 20 times greater than those of the white people, and also that there were no Negroes in craft jobs. He pointed out that the craft unions in the city had agreed to open their doors to Negroes after they were subjected to pressure, but that there was no guarantee that such was being done. He noted that all large businesses had only token Negro employment. He also alleged that the local police had used degrading methods against a Negro in a recent murder case. KRANSDORF stated that very few Negro police officers had been hired by the Pittsburgh Police Department, and again reminded those present that there was only one Negro judge and only one Negro councilman in Pittsburgh. He said that there was a lack of proper representation for the Negro in labor, and that there was no Negro able to speak for labor in Pittsburgh. He said that this was not because of a lack of qualified Negroes but could be blamed on the opposition to Negro leadership.

KRANSDORF also stated that there was no real integration in the Pittsburgh schools and that there was no preparation of Negroes for college. He said that there were very few Negro teachers in the all white schools in the Pittsburgh area, and that he doubted if there were any Negro teachers at all in the South Hills areas.

KRANSDORF also stated that in Pittsburgh a "big business" monopoly headed by the MELLON family had its reasons for maintaining the status quo. He said that the MELLONs controlled the Aluminum Company of America, Mellon Bank, Gulf, and Westinghouse, and that the family's billions of dollars had been gained because these companies had operated for many years on a Jim Crow policy. He stated that all MELLON concerns employed Negroes only in menial jobs, such as elevator operators, etc., but that very little else was done for the Negro.

KRANSDORF stated that as far as the press was concerned, only the Negro press was doing anything in Pittsburgh. He said that the Negro leadership at Pittsburgh was greatly out of step with the rest of the country, and that things should be changed. He called attention to a recent remark made by the President of the Pittsburgh Branch of the NAACP, whom he quoted as saying that he (the NAACP President) could not understand why a piece of land was not sold to a Negro doctor inasmuch as this doctor was so light skinned that it would not have been noticed that he was a Negro. KRANSDORF stated that this was not the right attitude for a leader of the NAACP to have.

On August 2, 1963, PG T-5 advised that on that date, while discussing the general situation regarding the Negro at Pittsburgh, HERBERT KRANSDORF stated that he could not understand why Pittsburgh had had no real racial demonstrations in view of the activities which had taken place in other cities. KRANSDORF spoke of the difficulties in controlling demonstrations and pointed out that the reason for such demonstrations was to show the people that they (the demonstrators) were hard to control and to wake up the people to the real problems. KRANSDORF said that the Negro did not need "crumbs" but the Negro did want justice and equality.

On September 4, 1963, PG T-2 advised that on August 13, 1963, HERBERT KRANSDORF indicated that he had been preparing "letters" concerning the Negro problem and that one letter would be sent to "Political Affairs" in the name of DAVID FOY, which dealt with the disfranchisement of the Negro in the South, and pointed out that the employment of Negroes was good for the whole country.

On October 1, 1963, PG T-2 advised that as of that date DAVID FOY was a member of the CPWP.

"Political Affairs" is self-described as a theoretical organ of the CPUSA.

On September 4, 1963, PG T-2 also advised that on August 13, 1963, KRANSDORF explained that another letter would be sent to the "Pittsburgh Post-Gazette," Pittsburgh daily newspaper, concerning the employment of Negroes. This letter would advocate that school children should be taught that the Boston Tea Party and similar happenings in our history were demonstrations similar to the current Negro demonstrations. Another letter would be sent to U. S. Senator (HUGH) SCOTT in the name of GEORGE MARTIN to explain the plight of a typical unemployed Negro and pointing out that the United States should employ such individuals to manufacture products in the Pittsburgh area instead of buying them in West Germany.

On October 1, 1963, PG T-2 advised that as of that date GEORGE MARTIN was a member of the CPWP.

On September 4, 1963, PG T-2 advised that on August 26, 1963, [redacted] indicated that he and HERBERT KRANSDORF had been attending meetings of the United Negro Protest Committee (UNPC), a Negro organization in Pittsburgh which had staged picketing demonstrations protesting racial discrimination by some Pittsburgh firms in their hiring practices. [redacted] indicated that originally they were excited at the militancy shown by the Negro leaders, but later became somewhat disappointed in them because of an early settlement they made with a Pittsburgh light company. [redacted] stated that he had proposed the policy that employers be told to hire Negroes regardless of qualifications and train them on the job. According to ALLEN, this proposal had been accepted by the majority of the Negroes. b6 b7C

On September 4, 1963, PG T-2 advised that as of August 18, 1963, [redacted] was a member of the CPWP. b6 b7C

On October 1, 1963, PG T-2 advised that on September 19, 1963, [redacted] indicated that he was attempting to form a group within the UNPC to force the UNPC leaders to hold out for better settlements for Negroes in negotiations with business firms.

On October 1, 1963, PG T-2 advised that at a CP meeting held in the Pittsburgh area on September 22, 1963, HERBERT KRANSDORF talked about the Negro movement, saying that Governor (GEORGE) WALLACE (of Alabama) "was guilty of the church bombings" and that President KENNEDY was also guilty for not arresting Governor WALLACE who had encouraged others to defy the law. KRANSDORF pointed out that steel mills, large businesses, and unions in the South were controlled by the same individuals who run these enterprises in Pittsburgh. According to KRANSDORF, these are the individuals who keep Governor WALLACE in power. He said that some way must be found to have these companies and unions in both the North and South make a statement on the racial issue.

On April 6, 1964, PG T-2 advised that on March 29, 1964, HERBERT KRANSDORF commented that he had talked with individuals in Pittsburgh concerning Negro problems in the Pittsburgh area, particularly Negro employment and school integration. KRANSDORF stated that the Pittsburgh Board of Education had indicated that new schools were to be built in the near future and it was KRANSDORF's opinion that these schools should be built in "fringe areas" so that both Negro and white students could attend. KRANSDORF also indicated that he recently attended a meeting of the UNPC in Pittsburgh and praised this group because he claimed it was the only one taking action and getting results. He said that the recent action of this group in forcing a Pittsburgh contractor to hire Negro bricklayers was the best victory achieved by any group. KRANSDORF indicated that he would like to have more CP members involved in UNPC activities because this was a good place to make contact with many active people in addition to the fact that the UNPC needed CP ideals.

On May 12, 1964, PG T-2 advised that at a CP meeting held in the Pittsburgh area on April 19, 1964, [redacted] announced that he had been responsible for the arrangements for a NAACP meeting sponsored by the East Boroughs Chapter, NAACP, scheduled to be held on May 3, 1964, at the New Hope Baptist Church, Sixth Street, Braddock, Pa. [redacted] indicated that speakers at this meeting would deal with school integration and civil rights problems and that Captain HUGH MULZAC, author of the book, "A Star to Steer By," would be the principal speaker. HERBERT KRANSDORF stated that he would work with ALLEN to assure that this meeting was properly advertised in the Pittsburgh area.

On May 17, 1963, and May 21, 1963, PG T-6 furnished information that among a delegation of Americans, self-described as "trade-unionists," who visited the Soviet Union from late April to mid-May, 1963, was HUGH MULZAC of Queens, N. Y. PG T-6 advised that this delegation was organized by and traveled under the instructions of IRVING POTASH, Labor Secretary, CPUSA.

On May 25, 1964, PG T-2 advised that on May 3, 1964, MULZAC and [redacted] engaged in a long conversation during which MULZAC told of his experiences and his writing. MULZAC remarked that his world travels had proved to him that race hatred was the most prevalent in the United States; that most of the trouble in the world was caused by the white man wanting everything for himself, and that the current demonstrations, marching, etc., were the beginnings of a revolution because the white man had been stalling and did not intend to do right by the Negro. MULZAC indicated that his trips to the USSR had convinced him that he preferred communism to a system which "passed itself off" as a democracy. b6 b7C

On May 25, 1964, PG T-2 advised that HUGH MULZAC was the principal speaker at a NAACP meeting held at the New Hope Baptist Church in Braddock, Pa., on May 3, 1964. MULZAC spoke on the problems of the Negro and advised the Negroes in attendance to be prepared to fight for their rights. He said that the Negro had friends all over the world who would help him in his struggles. He urged those attending to buy his book, "A Star to Steer By," which was on sale at the church.

On May 25, 1964, PG T-2 advised that during a CP meeting held in the Pittsburgh area on May 10, 1964, HERBERT KRANSDORF and those attending made two proposals dealing with the Negro question. The first proposal was that the CP members begin regular visits to the meetings of the UNPC so that they might become active and be able to influence this committee.

The second proposal was to renew demands at local steel unions for upgrading of Negroes in the steel plants and the hiring of Negro women in the offices at these plants.

On May 25, 1964, PG T-2 advised that on May 12, 1964, HERBERT KRANSDORF discussed with a CP member a program drawn up by KRANSDORF which would insist that candidates for offices of local unions in the steel industry have a Negro on their slate of candidates. KRANSDORF had prepared a paper on this matter and, among other items, pointed out that although Negroes had helped build the union (United Steelworkers of America) they were not represented among the officers of the union. KRANSDORF discussed the strategy to be used in presenting this program to the local union membership.

On June 7, 1964, PG T-2 advised that during a CP meeting held in the Pittsburgh area on May 24, 1964, HERBERT KRANSDORF spoke concerning civil rights and problems of the Negro. KRANSDORF pointed out that although Governor GEORGE WALLACE of Alabama received a high percentage of the vote in northern primaries, this did not mean the average citizen was against integration. He said that the "ultra-rightists" had capitalized on this to frighten people concerning the Negro's fight for civil rights and to turn them against the Negro because of civil rights demonstrations. KRANSDORF said that it was a fact that the Negro today had fewer enemies than at any time since the Civil War. During the above discussion, KRANSDORF raised the question as to whether those attending thought that the Negro had gone too far in his demonstrations for civil rights. It was agreed that the correct answer to this question was "No," but KRANSDORF suggested setting up a program to debate this question and said that if such a program could be arranged, he would try to bring in a speaker from the CPUSA to defend civil rights demonstrations. He said that he would work on this and report concerning this at a future meeting.

DEMONSTRATION, PITTSBURGH, PA., AUGUST 12-15, 1963

The August 8, 1963, issue of the "Pittsburgh Post-Gazette," a daily newspaper at Pittsburgh, Pa., contained an article entitled, "Negroes Plan March on Light Firm," which set forth that the UNPC had scheduled a mass demonstration to protest alleged discrimination in hiring by the Duquesne Light Company. The demonstration was scheduled by Chairman JAMES McCOY of the UNPC to be held at 11 a.m., August 12, 1963, in front of the Duquesne offices on Sixth Avenue, Pittsburgh, Pa.

On August 9, 1963, PG T-5 advised that on this date HERBERT KRANSDORF stated that the Pittsburgh Branch of the NAACP was going to make an example of the Duquesne Night Company in Pittsburgh (for alleged employment discrimination) by throwing up a picket line at the company on August 12, 1963. KRANSDORF stated that "we" must support the picket line at the Duquesne Light Company.

On August 12, 1963, [redacted] Pittsburgh Police Department, Pittsburgh, Pa., advised that approximately 150 to 200 Negroes, interspersed with a few white people, formed a picket line at 11 a.m. on that date around the Duquesne Light Company Building, Sixth Avenue and William Penn Way, Pittsburgh, Pa. The pickets marched continuously and chanted "Jim Crow has got to go" and were aided by loud speakers. The picketing was temporarily halted from 12:45 p.m. to 2:30 p.m. and broke up for the day at 4:30 p.m. [redacted] stated that no arrests were made during the course of the picketing and that no violence had occurred.

Mrs. Herbert K.

On August 12, 1963, PG T-5 advised that on this date HERBERT KRANSDORF and his wife, JEAN KRANSDORF, discussed the picketing (by the UNPC) which took place at the Duquesne Light Company in Pittsburgh on this date, and JEAN KRANSDORF stated that the pickets should continue their demonstrations until at least 200 Negroes were employed at the company. She said that the Negroes should refuse to pay their electric bills until the company adopted a fair hiring practice. HERBERT KRANSDORF commented that the demonstrators were "a real inspired gang."

On October 29, 1963, PG T-2 advised that as of that date JEAN KRANSDORF, wife of HERBERT KRANSDORF, was a member of the District Committee, CPWP.

The August 14, 1963, issue of the "Pittsburgh Post-Gazette" contained an article entitled, "300 Pickets Renew Light Firm Protest," which set forth that pickets again converged on the Duquesne Light Company headquarters on August 13, 1963, renewing a UNPC demonstration. Approximately 60 banner-bearing demonstrators appeared at the utility firm about 11:15 a.m., but by noon the ranks had swollen to approximately 300.

The August 13, 1963, "Pittsburgh Press," a daily newspaper at Pittsburgh, Pa., contained an article entitled, "3 Arrested at Negroes' Protest," which set forth that during the racial demonstration against the Duquesne Light Company of Pittsburgh on that date Attorney BYRD R. BROWN, President of the Pittsburgh Chapter, NAACP; JAMES McCOY, JR., Chairman of the UNPC, and LAIN L. LEE, a commercial sign painter and NAACP member, had been arrested for using public address systems in public places. All three were released without bond pending a hearing. Several other demonstrators were removed from the picket area by Pittsburgh Police, but no charges were lodged.

On August 13, 1963, PG T-5 advised that on that date [redacted], the KRANSDORFs' 14 year old daughter, mentioned that she had taken part in the demonstration at the Duquesne Light Company on August 13, 1964, and that [redacted] the KRANSDORFs' 17 year old son, had stated that he had been the only white person present on the picket line during the two-hour period when he had been a part of the demonstration at the Duquesne Light Company on that date. b6 b7C

b. APPROX. 1946

(Doc)

On July 3, 1963, PG T-7 advised that JOSEPH KRANSDORF attended a conference of the Progressive Youth Organizing Committee (PYOC) held in New York City, June 21-23, 1963, and a PYOC school held at Camp Midvale, New Jersey, June 25-30, 1963.

The PYOC has been characterized in the Appendix of this report.

On June 25, 1964, PG T-8 advised that [redacted], the 18 year old son of HERBERT KRANSDORF, was in attendance at the founding convention of the W.E.B. DuBois Clubs of America, San Francisco, California, June 19-21, 1964. b6 b7C

The W.E.B. DuBois Clubs of America is characterized in the Appendix of this report.

On August 14, 1963, [redacted] above, advised that the picketing of the Duquesne Light Company building resumed for the third day at about 11 a.m. on August 14, 1963, and continued until about 3 p.m. There were about 150 marchers in the picket line which was about the same number as marched previously. There were fewer onlookers, however, and Pittsburgh Police patrolled the area and there was no violence. b6 b7C

On August 14, 1963, PG T-5 advised that HERBERT and JEAN KRANSDORF again discussed the demonstration at the Duquesne Light Company on this date, and HERBERT indicated that he had been at the scene of the demonstration. HERBERT indicated that he wanted to contact some individuals to get them on the picket line at the demonstration, and JEAN indicated that their son, [redacted], was participating in the demonstration on this date.

On August 15, 1963, PG T-5 advised that [redacted] indicated that he had been involved in the demonstration at the Duquesne Light Company, Pittsburgh, on this date. b6 b7C

On August 15, 1963, [redacted] advised that picketing of the Duquesne Light Company building resumed for the fourth straight day at about 11 a.m. on August 15, 1963, and continued until approximately 6 p.m. Pittsburgh Police patrolled the area and there was no violence.

The "Pittsburgh Post-Gazette" for August 16, 1963, set forth that the protest picketing of the Duquesne Light Company was called off at 11:25 p.m., August 15, 1963, inasmuch as an agreement on hiring practices was reached between the UNPC and Duquesne Light Company of Pittsburgh, Pa.

On September 4, 1963, PG T-2 advised that at a CP meeting held in the Pittsburgh area on August 18, 1963, HERBERT KRANSDORF made a long talk on all phases of the Negro movement, saying that the UNPC in Pittsburgh had given up too easily and had made a poor settlement in their dispute with the Duquesne Light Company. KRANSDORF said that this will not stop the Negroes who are growing stronger every day and emphasized that the Negro movement must be pushed as much as possible by people closer to the CP.

DEMONSTRATION, PITTSBURGH, PA., JULY 6, 1964

The July 4, 1964, issue of the "Pittsburgh Post-Gazette," contained an article entitled, "Negroes Ask U. S. Guards for Miss.," which set forth that at a meeting of the UNPC at Pittsburgh on the evening of July 3, 1964, the UNPC voted unanimously to join the Student Committee on Racial Equality (SCORE) in a picketing demonstration to demand more Federal protection for civil rights workers in Mississippi. The demonstration was scheduled to be held from 2 p.m. to 5 p.m., July 6, 1964, in front of the New Federal Building, Seventh Avenue and Grant Street, Pittsburgh, Pa.

Additional information concerning SCORE appears hereinafter.

On July 6, 1964, [redacted] Pittsburgh Police Department, advised that approximately 35 pickets, representing the UNPC and SCORE, demonstrated in front of the New Federal Building, Pittsburgh, between 2 p.m. and 5 p.m. on that date. The pickets participating in the demonstration carried placards and distributed leaflets deploring the lack of moral and physical support by the Federal Government regarding the welfare of people working to help Mississippi citizens exercise their human and civil rights, and urging effective Federal protection everywhere in the United States of aforementioned rights guaranteed by the United States Constitution. [redacted] further advised that the demonstration was held without incident.

A Special Agent of the Federal Bureau of Investigation observed HERBERT KRANSDORF and his son, [redacted] in the picket lines at aforementioned demonstration. b6 b7C

DEMONSTRATION, WHEELING, WEST VIRGINIA, OCTOBER 7, 1963

On August 4, 1963, [redacted] b6 b7C Wheeling, W. Va., [redacted] the Municipal Yacht Club and Roller Skating Rink located on Wheeling Island, advised that he believed [redacted] and a group of Negro people were trying to cause him trouble in the operation of the roller rink on Wheeling Island. [redacted] pointed out that he employed a local college boy, one [redacted] and on the previous evening, August 3, 1963, [redacted] had been requested to go to [redacted]

[redacted] said that [redacted] had gone to the residence and was greeted inside the residence by a group of Negro people and [redacted] These people indicated to [redacted] that they considered him a "traitor" because he worked for [redacted] at the rink and a long discussion was had with [redacted] about the rink. [redacted] said that [redacted] did not want anything to do with this group and had informed him about the incident, pointing out that the group apparently wanted the rink to be integrated. [redacted] pointed out that he was making an effort to slowly integrate the rink but his method was opposed by [redacted] and the group with her. b6 b7C

On April 11, 1963, PG T-9 advised that [redacted] who resided in Wheeling, W. Va., was [redacted] of the Ohio Valley Section of the CP at Wheeling, W. Va.. b6 b7C

On October 2, 1963 [redacted] b6 b7C Wheeling Downs Skating Rink, Wheeling, W. Va., advised that a group of about 20 Negroes had appeared at the skating rink the previous evening and made inquiry regarding admittance. [redacted] advised that the group indicated they represented the NAACP of Martins Ferry, Ohio, and that [redacted] of Wheeling was associated with the group. b6 b7C

[redacted] advised that there was no demonstration but the group did advise that they desired admittance to the rink. He said he refused admittance and they advised him they would return at a later date. [redacted] said that after leaving the rink the group proceeded to the residence of [redacted] which is located a short distance from the rink.

On October 7, 1963, PG T-10 advised that a demonstration under the auspices of the Congress on Racial Equality (CORE) was being planned to take place at the Wheeling Roller Rink, Wheeling Island, Wheeling, W. Va., on October 7, 1963, at approximately 6:45 p.m. PG T-10 advised that the group was to meet at the Federal Building (U. S. Post Office), Wheeling, and march from this location to the roller rink in order to picket the rink in protest against racial segregation. PG T-10 noted that the owner of the rink, [redacted] reportedly allowed Negroes to skate only on Monday night and Saturday afternoon. PG T-10 added that [redacted] of Wheeling, was one of the main organizers of the planned demonstration, noting that CORE was presently in the process of organizing a local branch. b6 b7C

On October 7, 1963, [redacted] Bureau of Police, Wheeling, W. Va., advised that after receiving notification of the planned demonstration that night he had contacted a local CORE representative to advise the organization of the necessity for obtaining a city permit prior to parading on the street. [redacted] said the CORE representative had in his presence telephonically contacted [redacted] to inform her of the necessity of obtaining a parade permit. [redacted] said that he also talked with [redacted] on the phone, she being personally known to him. He related that after he informed [redacted] regarding the parade permit she advised him that someone would apply for the permit that afternoon. b6 b7C

On October 7, 1963, [redacted] City Manager, Wheeling, advised that on that date [redacted] representing CORE, had that afternoon obtained a parade permit for that evening. [redacted] commented that a police escort would be provided and police would also be assigned to the roller rink area to direct traffic and maintain order. b6 b7C W.V.a.

On October 7, 1963, PG T-11 advised that various groups of Negro individuals had been visiting [redacted] Wheeling, during most of that day and that earlier in the morning several people had taken into the [redacted] residence a bundle of signs mounted on wooden sticks. PG T-11 said that though he was unable to read any of the signs, he assumed that these signs were in connection with the planned activity at the roller rink scheduled for the evening of October 7, 1963. b6 b7C

On October 7, 1963, Special Agents of the FBI observed a group of individuals congregating outside the Federal Building, Wheeling, at approximately 6:15 p.m.

At approximately 6:50 p.m., the group, consisting of 32 men, women and children, left the Federal Building and proceeded to march through the streets to the Wheeling Roller Rink. The group was escorted by two motorcycle policemen and two police automobiles with two police in each car.

Observed with the group were [redacted] and [redacted] together with their small daughter, [redacted] were earlier observed in the lobby of the U. S. Post Office and they joined the marchers as they passed the side entrance to the post office. b6 b7C

On March 1, 1963, PG T-9 advised that [redacted] was a member of the Wheeling, W. Va., Club of the Ohio Valley Section of the CP. PG T-9 based this statement on [redacted] frequent contacts with [redacted] leader of the Club, and his attendance at social gatherings at [redacted] home at which CP matters were discussed. b6 b7C

On March 1, 1963, PG T-9 advised that [redacted] had accompanied her husband to [redacted] home but that [redacted] did not trust her and regarded her as mentally unstable.

The group was observed to reach the entrance of the Wheeling Roller Rink at approximately 7:15 p.m. Shortly before reaching the rink, they passed the residence of [redacted] who was observed on the front porch of her house watching the marchers. [redacted] was not observed taking part in the march or in the ensuing demonstration at the roller rink. b6 b7C

As the group reached the rink, the [redacted] and [redacted] and their daughter, were observed to depart from the group and join [redacted] at her residence. b6 b7C

From the time of arrival until approximately 10:50 p.m., the group was observed to demonstrate outside the entrance of the Wheeling Roller Rink. The demonstration consisted of marching, singing various songs such as "We Shall Overcome," and the exhibition of signs inscribed, "Freedom Now" and "Justice For All." During the major portion of the evening, the demonstration was led by [redacted] with the aid of a battery operated microphone. b6 b7C

Several members of the group distributed leaflets to spectators along the route of march and at the site of demonstration. The leaflets set out that they were distributed by CORE and were titled, "Why We Protest," explaining that this protest was being staged to demonstrate against the injustice done to both Negro and white skaters by racial segregation. The literature urged recipients to refrain from skating, join the picket line and sing the songs.

During the demonstration, additional persons joined the original marchers until the group numbered approximately 50 people. During the evening, the group broke up until there were only about 20 individuals left at the end of the demonstration.

MARCH ON WASHINGTON, AUGUST 28, 1963

The August 3, 1963, issue of the "Pittsburgh Post-Gazette," previously mentioned, carried an article entitled, "Washington March Plans Start Here," which set forth that the organization of a Pittsburgh contingent to join the mass civil rights demonstration in Washington, D. C., on August 28, 1963, was begun on August 2, 1963. Representatives of churches, unions and civil rights groups chose HERBERT WILKERSON, Executive Secretary of the Pittsburgh Chapter of the NAACP, to head a committee named "The Western Pennsylvania March on Washington Committee" to organize a Pittsburgh delegation. In addition to WILKERSON, the members of the Steering Committee who were to head the Pittsburgh effort were:

MOLLY YARD GARRETT of the Young Women's Christian Association

JAMES SYPHERS of the American Friends (Quakers) Service Committee

HOWARD CROFT, a Duquesne University senior

RICHARD RIEKER of Americans for Democratic Action (ADA)

WOODY TAYLOR of the "Pittsburgh Courier" newspaper.

On July 17, 1960, PG T-12 advised that on that same date [redacted] (C) (U)

CONFIDENTIAL (U)

On July 17, 1963, PG T-5 advised that on this date HERBERT KRANSDORF and his son, [redacted] discussed the March on Washington, and HERBERT KRANSDORF noted that President KENNEDY's endorsement of the March could be used in "The Worker" as an effective piece of propaganda. KRANSDORF also said that this statement should be set forth in a leaflet and that the local community should be saturated with the leaflets. KRANSDORF complained that it was impossible to get the proper leadership in Pittsburgh and that the leaders of the NAACP had not reached the people on this matter. KRANSDORF said that he intended to keep close tabs on plans for this demonstration in Washington, D. C. [redacted] that he and some of his friends who were interested in the March had contacted Negro church groups in Pittsburgh. b6 b7C

"The Worker" is an east coast communist newspaper.

On August 8, 1963, PG T-13 advised that on July 24, 1963, a meeting was held in the Pittsburgh area at which KRANSDORF spoke at length concerning problems of the Negro and the plans for the March on Washington. KRANSDORF stated that Pittsburgh and Western Pennsylvania had not been as militant as other parts of the country in fighting for Negro rights, and asked for suggestions which would help encourage people to take a more active part in mass meetings, demonstrations and the March on Washington.

On July 24, 1963, PG T-5 advised that at the above meeting KRANSDORF stated that it was very important for Pittsburgh to have a good turnout on August 28, 1963, for the March on Washington as it was important for Pittsburgh people to see the feeling of the country so that they might return to Pittsburgh to push the movement for civil rights. KRANSDORF said that it was a challenge to all progressive persons to get all the support and attendance possible for the Washington March. KRANSDORF urged those attending this meeting to get everyone known to them to turn out for this March on Washington, especially young people and the unemployed. KRANSDORF stated also that this demonstration was a tremendous opportunity "for us" and that plans to make this demonstration a success must be carried through. KRANSDORF said that it was not his intention to take over the demonstration or create any division among the groups sponsoring it but he wished to use any means at his command to constructively help the whole movement.

On August 9, 1963, PG T-5 advised that on this date HERBERT KRANSDORF stated that the President of the Pittsburgh Chapter of the NAACP had told him that money was being raised readily for the March on Washington, and explained the transportation arrangements which had been made for the March. KRANSDORF said "we" must help the NAACP in connection with the March. He said that the March would have a profound effect on all concerned and would "shape up" the political scene.

On August 21, 1963, PG T-1 advised that on this date HERBERT KRANSDORF stated that he was going to participate in the March on Washington and would probably proceed to Washington, D. C., by bus.

The August 28, 1963, issue of the "Pittsburgh Post-Gazette" contained an article entitled, "1,500 From W. Penn. Due in Freedom March," which set forth that a Western Pennsylvania delegation estimated at 1,500 persons would take part in the big civil rights demonstration in Washington, D. C., that day. MOLLY YARD, coordinator for the committee, said about 500 persons traveled to Washington by train, another 500 persons traveled by chartered buses, and the remainder by private autos and by plane.

On August 31, 1963, PG T-5 advised that HERBERT KRANSDORF; his son, [redacted] LOUIS BORTZ, and JAMES QUINN traveled to Washington, D. C., to participate in the March on Washington. b6 b7C

On October 29, 1963, PG T-5 advised that as of that date LOUIS BORTZ was a CPWP member.

On March 20, 1959, PG T-2 advised that JAMES QUINN attended a CP meeting at Pittsburgh on February 27, 1959, at which the status of the CPWP was discussed.

PG T-5 further advised that KRANSDORF made mimeographed copies of a speech delivered at a "Liberty Rally" in New York City on June 6, 1963, under the auspices of the Citizens Committee for Constitutional Liberties. KRANSDORF distributed copies of that speech to people in Washington, D. C., on August 28, 1963.

The Citizens Committee for Constitutional Liberties is characterized in the Appendix of this report.

On October 1, 1963, PG T-14 advised that RALPH HALLOW traveled to Washington, D. C., on August 28, 1963, to participate in the March on Washington.

On March 6, 1962, PG T-15 identified a photograph of RALPH HALLOW as being identical with an individual who attended a CP conference in Chicago, Ill., in the latter part of December, 1960.

On September 17, 1963, PG T-2 advised that at a CP meeting held in the Pittsburgh area on September 8, 1963, HERBERT KRANSDORF talked about the March on Washington, saying that it was larger than expected; that more white people than expected participated; that the March made the Negro problem the American peoples' problem; and that the March would cause everyone to take a new look at the Negro movement. KRANSDORF predicted that the next such March would be larger because many who were afraid that there might be violence would now see that violence came only from the white people.

On August 21, 1963, Mr. AL MOLNAR, reporter, "Wheeling News-Register," Wheeling, W. Va., daily newspaper, advised that his newspaper office had been visited the previous day by a group of a newly-formed committee identified as the "March on Washington Committee," located at 525 Vine Street, Martins Ferry, Ohio. Mr. MOLNAR pointed out that [redacted] accompanied seven other persons who came to the newspaper office to present their plans to charter a bus to leave Wheeling, W. Va., about 10 p.m., August 27, 1963, and return from Washington on August 28, 1963. b6 b7C

This group told MOLNAR they desired to send a delegation to the District of Columbia from the Wheeling-Eastern Ohio area.

The August 22, 1963, edition of "The Intelligencer," daily newspaper, Wheeling, W. Va., contained an article which was headed, "Reds Aid 'March' Here?" which set out that [redacted], Wheeling, was to be a participant in the March on Washington Committee sponsored by the Youth Council of the Belmont County (Ohio) NAACP Chapter. b6 b7C

The article related that [redacted] was once described before a hearing of the House Un-American Activities Committee as the head of the Communist Party in West Virginia, referring to public testimony by Mrs. HAMP GOLDEN before the hearings of the HCUA in Pittsburgh, Pa., on March 10, 1959.

The newspaper article also pointed out that the newspaper had telephoned [redacted] at her residence. The article carried a reported verbatim account of the telephone interview with [redacted] in which [redacted] stated she was active in the NAACP; referred to the allegation regarding her CP affiliation as an old red herring; denied that she was presently a leader of the CP in this section of the country, and refused to answer as to whether she was presently a member of the CP, noting that the questions being asked her were an infringement on her constitutional rights. The article indicated that she terminated the interview by hanging up. b6 b7C

The story also quoted local NAACP leaders in Belmont County (Ohio) as disclaiming any knowledge that [redacted] had ever been a communist and related that they were giving consideration to disbanding the committee and reorganizing.

The article noted that while members of the Belmont County (Ohio) portion of the committee purported to be surprised at [redacted] background, members of the Wheeling Chapter, to which [redacted] belonged, were apparently aware of it. The article stated that a member of the Wheeling Branch of the NAACP advised that they were aware of the allegations concerning [redacted] and that about two years ago [redacted] had gotten up at a meeting and denied that she was a communist. b6 b7C

The Wheeling NAACP Chapter spokesman related that they had "checked out" [redacted] story with the National Headquarters in New York and that they "O.K.'d" her. The spokesman said that the Wheeling Branch adhered to the same policy as the Belmont County Branch and that no person admitting communist tendencies would be permitted to serve in any capacity.

It is noted that Mrs. HAMP (MARY) GOLDEN was a former member of the CPWP who regularly furnished information to the FBI from October 28, 1947, to October 10, 1959.

On August 26, 1963, [redacted] advised a Special Agent of the FBI who did not identify himself that she was a member of a committee making plans for the "March on Washington." She said that at that time there were eight people, including herself, who definitely planned to make the trip by bus to Washington. She said there were about ten other people who had tentatively agreed to go. She said that the bus was to leave from the Lincoln Civic Center in downtown Martins Ferry, Ohio, about midnight, August 27, 1963, and was to return between 5 and 6 p.m. on August 28, 1963.

[redacted] said that everyone who had committed themselves to the journey to Washington had been requested to be an hour early for the bus trip so that time could be used for preparing signs to be carried in the demonstration. b6 b7C

[redacted] pointed out that the requested price for the round-trip ticket to Washington, D. C., was $10.55; however, anyone who was unemployed or could not personally afford to make the trip was invited to participate without charge since the group had personally solicited sufficient funds to pay the expenses for anyone desiring to make the trip. b6 b7C

On August 26, 1963, PG T-16 advised that the Wheeling Chapter, NAACP, had declined to participate in the sponsorship of the March on Washington because [redacted] reported CP member, was connected with it. PG T-16 added that the Wheeling Chapter was encouraging individual participation in the event, however.

PG T-16 declared that [redacted] was continuing to work with the Belmont County (Ohio) NAACP Chapter. According to [redacted] the group had decided to leave from Martins Ferry, Ohio, rather than Wheeling, W. Va., on their bus trip to Washington for the March on Washington. b6 b7C

The August 26, 1963, edition of the "Wheeling News-Register," Wheeling, W. Va., daily newspaper, contained an editorial entitled, "Alarmed, Not Scared." This editorial pointed out that Negro rights had been ignored but the wrong must be righted lawfully, and pointed out that Congressman ADAM CLAYTON POWELL was wrong when he stated the white man was "scared" and that the Negro must keep him on the run. It indicated that "alarmed" would be a better word as most thinking white citizens agreed action must be taken but were alarmed at "unchecked law violations." The editorial also pointed out that there were examples that communists had tried and succeeded in directing certain phases of the Negro movement. It cited as an example the fact that [redacted] was a leader in the March on Washington for the Ohio NAACP Chapter at Belmont, Ohio, even though she had been named at an HCUA meeting as a communist. b6 b7C

On August 23, 1963, PG T-9 advised that on that date [redacted] said the bus for the March on Washington was chartered and she expected that it would be filled.

On August 27, 1963, PG T-9 advised that on that date [redacted] remarked that plans for the March on Washington on the same date were just about complete. She said donations from various sources, which she did not identify, had made it possible for unemployed persons to go to Washington for the March. b6 b7C

[redacted] also said some of the money given to her for the March on Washington was furnished by JAMES COBB who gave her $20, $10 for his wife, MARY COBB, to go to Washington, and $10 extra for another person to go inasmuch as he would not be able to make the journey.

PG T-17 advised on September 25, 1963, that on a post card signed [redacted] and postmarked at Washington, D. C., which was received on August 29, 1963, [redacted] indicated that she had participated in the March on Washington and considered it a wonderful experience. b6 b7C

On September 25, 1963, [redacted] advised a Special Agent of the FBI who contacted her under pretext that she had participated in the March on Washington and had made the trip in a chartered bus, returning to Wheeling on August 28, 1963, after the completion of the March. [redacted] indicated that she had been with the group that day in Washington and they did not do anything except participate in the March.

III. COMMUNIST PENETRATION AND INFLUENCE IN RACIAL AND OTHER ORGANIZATIONS

STUDENT COMMITTEE ON RACIAL EQUALITY (SCORE)

On January 19, 1964, PG T-5 advised that on that date [redacted] and a friend discussed SCORE, to which they belonged, with the father of [redacted], HERBERT KRANSDORF. [redacted] mentioned that he was thinking of writing a letter to the editor of a local newspaper concerning SCORE but HERBERT KRANSDORF quashed this idea. HERBERT KRANSDORF advised [redacted] and his friend that they should not attempt to start out with a "splash" because people would expect too much from them. [redacted] remarked that people knew of the organization (SCORE) but that they did not know what the organization represented or when meetings were held. b6 b7C

On February 7, 1964, PG T-18 advised that on January 25, 1964, JEAN KRANSDORF stated that her son, [redacted] had organized a group called SCORE which was composed of students in the Pittsburgh area. JEAN KRANSDORF indicated that this group had held two meetings in the Pittsburgh area and that future meetings were scheduled. b6 b7C

On February 24, 1964, PG T-2 advised that on February 8, 1964, HERBERT KRANSDORF remarked that his son, [redacted], was a member of a group made up of students from four high schools called SCORE; that this group did not as yet have a serious program, but that later the group would take up problems such as integration.

On April 6, 1964, PG T-2 advised that on March 29, 1964, HERBERT KRANSDORF distributed a two page mimeographed pamphlet captioned, "A Proposal For Communication and Understanding Among Pittsburgh High School Students in Segregated High Schools," signed by [redacted] Co-chairman." [redacted] advised that this pamphlet was "put out" by his son for SCORE and that his son would be going to Chicago, Ill., during the Summer of 1964 on behalf of SCORE. This pamphlet b6 b7C stated that SCORE was comprised of approximately 120 members from twenty-three (Pittsburgh) area high schools and a large number of non-members who attended meetings regularly. According to this pamphlet, the composition of this group encompassed all cultural, racial, scholastic, economic and social groups. The pamphlet defined the purpose of SCORE as follows: "Our purpose is recognizing the presence of discrimination against minority groups throughout our country, a lack of communication and understanding among the various ethnic groups, and a dangerous disunity of men due to bigotry and hatred exists. SCORE resolves to organize the Pittsburgh and surrounding area high schools to seek out and correct discrimination, to gain a better understanding among persons of all backgrounds, and to aid all movements which bring about equality for all men."

The pamphlet proposed, "In line with our belief that there is a lack of communication among Negro and white students, a school exchange, to be executed specifically between the two high schools, Westinghouse (attended predominantly by Negro students) and Taylor-Allderdice (attended predominantly by white students). We feel that an exchange period of three days during the week of April the 19 to 25 is sufficient for our needs."

This pamphlet concluded by stating that "We hope to increase understanding between the two racial groups. We hope to destroy some of the illusions which have arisen over the years. These fallacies are the basis of hatred, which makes itself evident at athletic events in the form of fights, name calling and poor sportsmanship."

On July 13, 1964, CHARLES HAMILTON, 646 Singer Place, Pittsburgh, Pa., advised that SCORE was the outgrowth of a meeting of youths at the residence of [redacted] Pittsburgh, during November, 1963. KRANSDORF was believed to have conceived the idea of such an organization as SCORE. b6 b7C

The following individuals were elected as officers of SCORE at an organizational meeting:

CHARLES HAMILTON, Co-Ordinating Chairman
MARJORIE GAMBLE, Secretary
BETTY ANDERSON, Treasurer.

Student Committee on Racial Equality Pa.

HAMILTON stated that prior to the election of officers, KRANSDORF maintained that he did not want to hold a position as an officer in SCORE as there had been a rumor that his uncle in New Jersey had been a communist.

HAMILTON advised that in a statement of purpose which was drawn up at the founding of SCORE, SCORE resolved to:

1. Organize the student resources of the Pittsburgh and surrounding area high schools

2. Seek out and correct discrimination

3. Gain a better understanding among persons of all backgrounds

4. Support all movements which bring about equality to men.

HAMILTON said that after SCORE was organized, JOSEPH KRANSDORF became one of the seven members of the Executive Committee. KRANSDORF has taken a very active part in the operation of SCORE.

HAMILTON continued that in view of KRANSDORF's interest and activity in SCORE, HAMILTON was successful in getting KRANSDORF appointed to the position of Co-Chairman of SCORE. HAMILTON explained that KRANSDORF earned this position inasmuch as he did about half the work undertaken by SCORE.

HAMILTON stated that SCORE had been instrumental in effecting student exchanges between predominantly Negro high schools and predominantly white high schools in the Pittsburgh area. These exchanges were made possible through the cooperation of the Board of Education, Pittsburgh City Schools, and of the principals of the high schools concerned. As a result of this success of these student exchanges, SCORE received a commendation from the Pittsburgh Board of Education.

HAMILTON said that the membership of SCORE was estimated to be about 600 high school students, representing all high schools in the City of Pittsburgh. He said the group held meetings about every three weeks.

HAMILTON further advised that the adult sponsors of SCORE were [redacted], University of Pittsburgh, Pittsburgh, and [redacted] in charge of Manchester House (Manchester Recreation Center), North Side, Pittsburgh, Pa. [redacted], [redacted] was a member of the Writing Committee of SCORE. She had been active in SCORE but had not held a leadership position. b6 b7C

HAMILTON said that HERBERT KRANSDORF, father of [redacted] had attended most of the SCORE meetings. He generally sat in the rear of the room where the meetings were held and observed the proceedings, but at no time did it appear that [redacted] was operating under the direction of his father. b6 b7C

HAMILTON advised that he (HAMILTON) dominated the policies and activities of SCORE. He said that [redacted] as a Co-Chairman of SCORE, had been compelled to carry out his plans and ideas in the operation of SCORE by working through him, as [redacted] lacked the necessary influence with SCORE leaders and members. HAMILTON stated that for some reason he had the interest of SCORE leaders and members, whereas [redacted] did not. b6 b7C

WHEELING, WEST VIRGINIA, CHAPTER OF THE NATIONAL ASSOCIATION FOR THE ADVANCEMENT OF COLORED PEOPLE (NAACP)

The February 27, 1963, city edition of the "Wheeling News Register," a Wheeling, W. Va., daily newspaper, contained an article which stated that the Wheeling, W. Va., Chapter of the NAACP held an election at its February meeting and officers were installed. This article indicated that MARVILLIS WEBB was elected President; STUART CATLIN, Vice President; LAVONDA BURRESS, Secretary; THEODORE SMITH, Treasurer; JAMES CYRUS, Membership Chairman; DORETHEA BROWN, Chaplin; CHERY GORDON, Corresponding Secretary; MARGARET MILLER, Program Chairman; Mrs. MARCELLA BRADSHAW, Youth Advisor, and [redacted] Assistant Advisor. b6 b7C

On March 26, 1963, PG T-10 advised that [redacted] assisted the Youth Director of the Wheeling, W. Va., Chapter of the NAACP. PG T-10 advised that [redacted] was also a member of the NAACP Youth Group at Wheeling, W. Va. b6 b7C

[redacted] when contacted under a pretext by a Special Agent of the FBI on September 26, 1962, advised he had attended the World Youth Festival in Helsinki, Finland, in 1962, and found it to be very interesting.

"The Worker" issue of July 12, 1962, page 6, columns 1-3, contained an article which stated that the Eighth World Youth Festival would be held in Helsinki, Finland, July 28, 1962, through August 6, 1962.

A characterization of the United States Festival Committee, Inc. (Eighth World Youth Festival) is set out in the Appendix hereto.

CONFIDENTIAL (U)

On July 19, 1963, PG T-9 advised that on July 17, 1963, [redacted] said she was continuing her NAACP activity. b6 b7C

On August 12, 1963, PG T-16 advised that Mrs. [redacted] had continued to be active in the Wheeling Chapter of the NAACP.

On August 23, 1963, PG T-19 pointed out that [redacted] had been working with the youth movement of the NAACP in Wheeling and her dynamic leadership had been quite impressive.

PG T-19 continued that a special meeting of the NAACP Chapter from Belmont County, Ohio, had been held August 22, 1963, at the home of [redacted] and that [redacted] was questioned frequently by those present regarding her Communist Party affiliations. PG T-19 stated that [redacted] repeatedly evaded the questions; that a statement denying CP affiliation was prepared for [redacted] signature, but [redacted] refused to sign it and continued to evade questions concerning the CP. b6 b7C

The Wheeling, W. Va., "The Intelligencer," daily newspaper, on October 8, 1963, indicated in an article which was headed, "NAACP Ousts Island Woman," that [redacted] had been expelled from membership in the Wheeling Chapter of the NAACP.

PG T-20 advised on October 7, 1963, that on that date [redacted] was being notified by the local chapter of the NAACP that her membership in the Wheeling Chapter was being suspended. PG T-20 said that the action was being taken because of KUHN's suspected affiliation with the CP.

CITIZENS COMMITTEE FOR CONSTITUTIONAL LIBERTIES
(NEW YORK CITY)

The "Guide to Subversive Organizations and Publications," prepared and released by the Committee on Un-American Activities, U. S. House of Representatives, Washington, D. C., under date of December 1, 1961, sets forth the following concerning the above organization on page 42:

"1. 'On the basis of its investigations and hearings to date, the committee concludes that the National Assembly for Democratic Rights and a coordinating and organizing group in support thereof, titled the "Citizens Committee for Constitutional Liberties," are Communist fronts. Created, dominated, and controlled by members and officials of the Communist Party, the National Assembly for Democratic Rights and the Citizens Committee for Constitutional Liberties were organized as propaganda devices for the conduct of "mass activity" in support of the avowed objective of "reversal or nonapplication" of the Supreme Court decisions of June 5, 1961, which upheld the constitutionality of the registration and disclosure provisions of the Internal Security Act of 1950 as applied to the Communist Party and the Smith Act membership clause making punishable active and purposive membership in the Communist Party.'

'* * * The long-range objective of the Citizens Committee for Constitutional Liberties is to serve as the vehicle for concealed Communist participation in, and direction of, propaganda and agitational activities aimed to nullify the Internal Security and Smith Acts.'

'* * * Committee investigation disclosed that the Citizens Committee for Constitutional Liberties was formed on or about June 12, 1961 * * *.' PROGRESSIVE YOUTH ORGANIZING COMMITTEE

On February 9, 1961, a source advised that the Progressive Youth Organizing Committee (PYOC) was established at a national socialist-oriented youth conference held in Chicago, Illinois, December 30, 1960, through January 1, 1961. This conference was the result of a mandate issued by the National Executive Committee, Communist Party, USA, calling for a youth conference to establish an organizing committee whose objective would be to set up a national socialist-oriented youth organization. The conference scheduled a convention to be held within a year to found a new national socialist-oriented youth organization.

On June 18, 1962, AARON COHEN, a member of the Communist Party from 1947 to 1957 and from December, 1961, to October, 1963, advised it was reported at the meeting of the National Council of the PYOC held in New York, New York, June 16 and 17, 1962, that although it had been planned to form a Marxist-oriented youth organization by the Fall of 1962, it would not be possible to form such an organization for the next few years.

On March 9, 1964, a second source advised the PYOC has its headquarters at 169 Allen Street, New York, N. Y.

THE UNITED STATES FESTIVAL COMMITTEE, INCORPORATED
(Eighth World Youth Festival)

The magazine, "World Youth," third issue, 1961, a bimonthly English-language publication of the World Federation of Democratic Youth (WFDY), contained an article entitled, "8th Festival in Helsinki." The article set out that the first meeting of the International Preparatory Committee (IPC) took place in Helsinki, Finland, February 20-22, 1961, to prepare for the Eighth World Youth Festival which was to be held in Helsinki in 1962.

The article set out that the IPC elected a permanent commission composed of representatives of a number of countries including Canada or the United States as well as representatives from the WFDY and the International Union of Students (IUS).

The IUS, with headquarters in Prague, Czechoslovakia, and the WFDY, with headquarters in Budapest, Hungary, are cited as communist organizations in the "Guide to Subversive Organizations and Publications," dated December 1, 1961, published by the Committee on Un-American Activities, U. S. House of Representatives, Washington, D. C., pages 91 and 177.

A source advised that in April, 1961, DANNY RUBIN, National Youth Director, Communist Party, USA, advised that Communist Party districts should concentrate on getting broad groups to sponsor the United States Festival Committee (USFC).

A second source, on February 27, 1962, made available a pamphlet issued by the USFC describing the program for the Festival. The pamphlet set out that the USFC was organized by students and youth leaders at a founding conference at Chicago, Illinois, October 15, 1961, and the USFC was organized to publicize and encourage participation in the Helsinki Festival. The pamphlet set out that the USFC had been recognized by the IPC, the sponsoring body of the Festival, as the U. S. Committee to administer U. S. participation in the Festival. The pamphlet set out the address of the USFC as Room 807, 460 Park Avenue, South, New York 16, New York.

W.E.B. DU BOIS CLUBS OF AMERICA

A source has advised that on October 26-27, 1963, a conference of members of the Communist Party (CP), including National Functionaries, met in Chicago, Illinois, for the purpose of setting in motion forces for the establishment of a new national Marxist oriented youth organization which would hunt for the most peaceful transition to socialism. The delegates to this meeting were cautioned against the germ of anti-Soviet and anti-CP ideologies. These delegates were also told that it would be reasonable to assume that the young socialists attracted into this new organization would eventually pass into the CP itself.

A second conference of over 20 persons met in Chicago on December 28-29, 1963, for the purpose of initiating a "call" to the new youth organization and planning for a founding convention to be held in June, 1964.

A second source has advised that the founding convention for the new youth organization was held from June 19-21, 1964, at 150 Golden Gate Avenue, San Francisco, California, at which time the name W.E.B. DU BOIS CLUBS OF AMERICA was adopted. Approximately 500 delegates from throughout the United States attended this convention. The aims of this organization, as set forth in the preamble to the constitution, are, "It is our belief that this nation can best solve its problems in an atmosphere of peaceful co-existence, complete disarmament and true freedom for all peoples of the world, and that these solutions will be reached mainly through the united efforts of all democratic elements in our country, composed essentially of the working people allied in the unity of Negroes and other minorities with whites. We further fully recognize that the greatest threat to American democracy comes from the racist and right wing forces in coalition with the most reactionary sections of the economic power structure, using the tool of anti-communism to divide and destroy the unified struggle of the working people. As young people in the forces struggling for democracy, we shall actively strive to defeat these reactionary and neo-fascist elements and to achieve complete freedom and democracy for all Americans, thus enabling each individual to freely choose and build the society he would wish to live in. Through these struggles we feel the American people will realize the viability of the socialist alternatives."

~~CONFIDENTIAL~~ (U)

The constitution further states that this new organization shall be a membership organization open to individuals or if five or more people so desire a chapter can be formed which shall in turn be guided by the policies and principles of the parent organization.

The second source has also advised that at the founding convention it was voted that the organization should be temporarily headquartered in San Francisco, California, although no specific physical location was decided upon. This same source advised on June 29, 1964, that the temporary headquarters of this organization is 1007 McAllister Street, San Francisco, which is the headquarters of the W.E.B. DuBois Club of San Francisco.

Both sources have advised that at the founding convention two officers were elected:

PHILIP CHAPIN DAVIS, President, and
CARL ELLENGER BLOICE, Publications Chairman.

A third source has advised that on October 26, 1962, PHILIP DAVIS attended a CP recruiting class held at 1579 Scenic Avenue, Berkeley, California.

A fourth source has advised that CARL BLOICE, reporter for the "People's World" newspaper, was, on April 3, 1964, elected to the newly organized San Francisco County Committee of the CP.

The "People's World" is a west coast communist newspaper published weekly in San Francisco, California.

COMMUNIST INFLUENCE IN RACIAL MATTERS

(Bureau file 100-442529)

On July 16, 1964, a meeting of CP functionaries was held at CP Headquarters, New York City and GEORGE MEYERS was in attendance. HENRY WINSTON spoke at this meeting and stated that the Negro Commission, as one aspect of its electoral policy would issue a mass popular appeal to the Negro people setting forth the position of the Party not only with respect to the elections but, from a long-range point of view, to advance the fight for economic, political and social equality for the Negro people. He said they had to finalize this document in order to present fundamental ideas in a popular way that would be understandable to the broad masses of the Negro people.

At this meeting the highlights of a draft statement by the CP were read and it was stated that the CP offers the program for the consideration of all those fighting for freedom, democracy and peace. The statement called for a multi-million dollar Federal Education Program, Federal Housing Program, a National Civil Rights Agency with full executive authority to enforce the Constitution and the civil rights law, creation of a Civilian Review Board to hear charges of police brutality, elimination of ghettoes, construction of technical and scientific training centers to equip semi-skilled and unskilled workers and establishment of cultural and entertainment centers to provide the fullest use for the talent that exists in the Negro community.

"The Worker", August 9, 1964, page 3, contains an article setting forth the CP's program to fight poverty and end segregation. It states that the CP, USA had urged a Federal fund of 15 billion dollars for a war against poverty "for an end to segregation, for reconstruction of the Nation's Harlems and Appalachias as the only solution of the present political, economic and moral crisis in which the nation now finds itself."

It adds that before the Federal Government can be compelled to make the necessary changes "the racist counterrevolution led by Senator BARRY GOLDWATER" must be overcome. It describes the "coalition of racists, reactionaries, atomaniacs" as being in open alliance with Governor WALLACE of Alabama and states that the "Goldwater racist-like coalition" is attempting to stir up anti-Negro sentiment and create division among whites and Negroes.

"The Goldwater-Wallace coalition aims at setting our streets aflame with bloody racial strife and then cashing in at the ballot box on racist fears and hatreds....."

The article continues that the Communists emphasized that "the coalition of racists and would-be fascists" can be defeated by a national front of all democratic forces. "The CP declared:

"'A great people's coalition against racism, war and fascism is called for to clear the Freedom Road.....'

"The Communists asserted that the same forces that joined in action to win the Civil Rights Law, desegregated hundreds of public places in the South, challenged the KKK and massed by the millions in freedom struggles - the trade unions, the Negro people, the churches, minority groups, can now, by uniting, overwhelm the ultra-rightists, the racists, the atomaniacs."

NY 100-131666

At the fourth day's session of a meeting of the National Board of the CP, USA and invited guests held at CP Headquarters, New York City, on September 21, 1964, GEORGE MEYERS acted as Chairman. WILLIAM L. PATTERSON noted that the Negro vote would have a great effect in the coming national elections. He also noted that there would be a national conference of Negro leaders held during the period of September 24 - 27, 1964, which would deal not only with domestic issues but American foreign policy, that on October 16, 17, 1964, the Negro American Labor Council would hold a meeting which would contain a further study and broading of the question, and that in Georgia during the period of September 29, through October 2, 1964, there would be a conference of the Southern Christain Leadership Conference. PATTERSON recommended that a report be made on all the activity taking place by the Negro civil rights forces.

"The Worker", September 27, 1964, page 3, in its editorial "Incompetent or Guilty" comments on what is termed "inaction" by the Justice Department and the White House with respect to the bombings that took place in Mc Comb, Mississippi. It states that these assaults in Mississippi and the "alibi of the Justice Department that 'Everything that can be done is being done', demand a show of anger from the people". It calls for a "popular outcry" to remind the Justice Department and the White House that "the cause of democracy in Mississippi is one of the issues of the election."

MRS. STANLEY M. GRIFFIN

OM T-1 on October 23, 1964, advised that the Des Moines, Iowa, Chapter of the Congress of Racial Equality (CORE) has its headquarters at 1242 East 16th Street, Des Moines, Iowa. T-1 stated that the local chairman of this chapter is EDNA MAY GRIFFIN, a housewife who resides at 1608 44th Street, Des Moines, Iowa, with her husband and minor children. She is married to Dr. STANLEY M. GRIFFIN, a Des Moines Osteopathic Physician.

OM 100-6837

T-1 advised that the Des Moines, Iowa, Chapter of CORE is comprised of approximately ten or twelve members and that EDNA MAY GRIFFIN is the only officer of this group. T-1 said that to his knowledge there has been no use or distribution of communist propaganda by the Des Moines Chapter of CORE, and there are no other persons with subversive backgrounds who are known members of CORE or exert any influence in the group other than EDNA MAY GRIFFIN.

OM T-2 advised in February, 1957, that EDNA MAY GRIFFIN, Des Moines, Iowa, had stated she had been a member of the Communist Party for a period of over twenty-four years.

This same source advised in August, 1957, that EDNA MAY GRIFFIN had recently paid $10.00 for Communist Party dues for her and her husband, Dr. STANLEY M. GRIFFIN, who at that time were residing at 1108 Third Street, Des Moines, Iowa. T-2 stated he had learned that EDNA MAY GRIFFIN intended that she and her husband remain in good standing in the Communist Party and would contribute $10.00 for dues per month and for Communist Party literature she was receiving periodically.

T-1 advised that he is well acquainted with EDNA MAY GRIFFIN and her husband. T-1 stated he did not believe EDNA MAY GRIFFIN or her husband had been active in Communist Party activities or causes for many years.

[redacted] Police Department, on October 23, 1964, advised that the Des Moines, Iowa, Chapter of CORE has its headquarters at 1242 East 16th Street, Des Moines, Iowa. He further advised it was his understanding that the chairman of this chapter is EDNA MAY GRIFFIN. Captain NICHOLS stated that the CORE members in Des Moines, Iowa, number approximately ten persons and that GRIFFIN was the only officer of this group. b6 b7C

(A) DEMONSTRATION, DALLAS, TEXAS, December 22, 1963

DL T-1 (February 5, 1964)

GROUP 1
Excluded from automatic downgrading and declassification

This document contains neither recommendations nor conclusions of the FBI. It is the property of the FBI and is loaned to your agency; it and its contents are not to be distributed outside your agency.

On the above date, a group of four members of the Catholic Interracial Council in Dallas, including JOE LANDIN, a member of the Communist Party (CP) in Dallas, picketed St. Paul Hospital on its opening day, claiming the hospital was being operated on a segregated basis. LANDIN was merely a participant and did not direct the activities of the group. There was no violence and there were no arrests.

III - COMMUNIST PENETRATION AND INFLUENCE IN RACIAL AND OTHER ORGANIZATIONS

(A) NATIONAL ASSOCIATION FOR THE ADVANCEMENT OF COLORED PEOPLE (NAACP)

DL T-1 (September 13, 1963)

In September, 1963, JOE LANDIN, a member of the CP, was heard to state he was then a member of the Executive Committee of the NAACP.

DL T-1 (October 23, 1964)

JOE LANDIN, a member of the Texas State Committee of the CP, is currently a member of the Executive Committee of the NAACP branch in Dallas. He does not exercise any influence in affairs of this group, however. He was specifically assigned to attend NAACP affairs by AUGUSTIN ESTRADA, Chairman of the Texas State Committee, CP, in order to observe activities of the NAACP so the CP will be aware of same. NAACP members do not know LANDIN is a CP member or that he has any contact with the CP.

Informant stated the NAACP in Dallas has about 900 dues paying members, and LANDIN is the only CP member who is also a member of the NAACP. There are no known former CP members who are also members of the NAACP in Dallas.

The NAACP in Dallas has no stated policy concerning membership therein of CP or former CP members.

(B) CONGRESS OF RACIAL EQUALITY (CORE)

DL T-1 (October 23, 1964)

CORE in Dallas claims to have a membership of about 100. However, there are only about 25 to 35 active members, with about 18 of these being regularly active.

DL 100-11053

JOE LANDIN is a member of and active in CORE in Dallas. He exercises no influence in this group. He was specifically assigned to join and participate in activities of CORE by AUGUSTIN ESTRADA so the CP could be kept apprised of activities of CORE.

ESTRADA has instructed LANDIN not to take part in any racial demonstrations, disturbances, or other similar activities with racial overtones unless forced into a position where he has no choice but to participate.

Other than LANDIN, no present or past CP members, or members of similar organizations, are known to be affiliated with CORE or any other organizations which have as their purpose the furtherance of integration.

Throughout May, 1964, members of CORE sponsored a month of daily picketing of the Piccadilly Restaurant in Dallas, and since the early summer of 1964 CORE has sponsored several picket lines at local Dallas schools and the school administration building. However, upon specific instructions of AUGUSTIN ESTRADA, JOE LANDIN has not participated in any of these demonstration activities.

Informant stated CORE has no stated policy concerning membership therein of CP members.

DL T-2 (August 18, 1964)

In August, 1964, Reverend EARL E. ALLEN, Southwestern Regional Director of CORE, was heard to state, in answer to a question put to him as to what the Dallas CORE chapter would do if a CP member tried to join that group, that he was not looking too hard to find any CP members and that if he found any he, personally, would do nothing about it.

It is further noted that no information is set out in this report concerning the Student Non-Violent Coordinating Committee's (SNCC) policy concerning Communist participation in the organization's activities since such policy is not known to the Little Rock Office and could not be obtained without making direct inquiries, which inquiries are not considered to be in the best interest of the Bureau since this information can be obtained and reported by the Atlanta Office where the Headquarters of SNCC is located and where such policy would be made.

The information as set forth in the details concerning LARRY ELLIOTT SIEGEL was obtained from Little Rock file 44-853 captioned "KENNETH WINFREY; GEORGE POPE; LARRY ELLIOTT SIEGEL - VICTIM, CIVIL RIGHTS - ELECTION LAWS." It is noted that the spelling of SIEGEL's father as furnished by SIEGEL is different than the spelling of Dr. SEIGEL obtained from New York Office and used to characterize Dr. SEIGEL.

On July 29, 1964, LARRY ELLIOTT SIEGEL advised Special Agents [redacted] and [redacted] that he was a Field Worker with the Student Non-Violent Coordinating Committee (SNCC) and was at that time conducting a Voter Registration Workshop at West Helena, Arkansas. SIEGEL advised that his father is Dr. SAMUEL R. SIEGEL, 10 West 65th Street, New York City, New York.

LR T-1 advised on January 12, 1955, that Dr. SAMUEL SIEGEL was a member of the Professional Unit of the Communist Party at New York City during the period he lived at Croton-on-the-Hudson, from 1949 to 1951. He had been a member of the Communist Party in New York City for an unknown period prior to 1949.

It was ascertained on September 30, 1964, by pretext interview that SAMUEL ROBERT SIEGEL, supra, resides at 10 West 65th Street, New York City, and is a dentist with an office at 200 West 57th Street, New York City.

Mrs. EVELYN HART, 37 Clover Lane, Roslyn Heights, Long Island, New York, advised SA [redacted] on March 1, 1955, that SAMUEL and DOROTHY SIEGEL have two sons, [redacted] and MICHAEL SIEGEL, who were 14 and 12, respectively, at that time.

On July 24, 1964, Miss DAVIS, Office of Dr. TOM LEVIN, Medical Committee for Human Rights, 11 West 81st Street, New York, New York, advised the New York Office that Dr. SAMUEL SIEGEL was one of a group of doctors of the Medical Committee for Human Rights who was to depart from New York on July 25, 1964, to travel to Clarksdale, Mississippi.

On October 16, 1964, WILLIAM HANSEN, Field Representative for SNCC, Pine Bluff, Arkansas, advised that SNCC is not a membership organization and that at the present time there are six SNCC Field Workers working in the State of Arkansas, and LARRY ELLIOTT SIEGEL is no longer working for SNCC in Arkansas.

b7C

[redacted] SNCC Committee, Atlanta, Georgia, advised on April 23, 1964, that IRIS GREENBERG was working as a Field Secretary for the SNCC at Pine Bluff, Arkansas, at that time.

On July 30, 1964, Reverend BENJAMIN GRINAGE, former chairman of the Pine Bluff Movement and associated with SNCC in Pine Bluff, Arkansas, advised that IRIS GREENBERG had been working in Mississippi for about six weeks and he did not believe GREENBERG would return to Pine Bluff, Arkansas. Reverend GRINAGE stated he did not know GREENBERG's location in Mississippi, but only that she was working in that state through the Headquarters at Atlanta, Georgia.

[redacted], SNCC, Atlanta, Georgia, advised on September 5, 1964, that IRIS GREENBERG is presently working with SNCC in Jackson, Mississippi, and it is presumed she will be working there for some time. b6 b7C

LR T-2 advised in late 1958 that IRIS GREENBERG attended four classes in the development of Marxist Philosophy during October and November of that year.

LR T-2 advised on April 9, 1959, that IRIS GREENBERG attended a conference to found a Marxist-Leninist Youth Organization, New York City. One of the conference's sponsors was HERBERT APTHEKER, who said he was there at the request of the Communist Party.

HERBERT APTHEKER testified in the U. S. District Court, Eastern District of Pennsylvania, on July 14, 1954, that he was a Communist Party member from 1939-1954.

On March 12, 1959, [redacted] b6 b7C University of Wisconsin, Madison, Wisconsin, made available records showing that IRIS GREENBERG, currently a student at the University of Wisconsin, had been employed for two years at Camp Kinderland, New York. A characterization of Camp Kinderland is contained in the Appendix hereto.

On October 1, 1959, the "Daily Cardinal," University of Wisconsin student newspaper, published an article in which IRIS GREENBERG identified herself as "a U.S. delegate at the Vienna Youth Festival" held in Austria during the 1959 summer.

The "Milwaukee Journal," August 5, 1959, in an article datelined at Vienna, Austria, characterized the recently concluded international youth festival as Communist sponsored.

LR T-3 advised on January 13, 1960, that IRIS GREENBERG was recorded as a member of the Wisconsin Socialist Club (WSC) as of September 1959. A characterization of the WSC is included in the Appendix hereto.

LR T-4 advised on January 10, 1962, that IRIS GREENBERG, in executing records for the University of Wisconsin for the second semester of the 1961 school year in listing membership in student activities, listed the Wisconsin Socialist Club.

WISCONSIN SOCIALIST CLUB

On December 10, 1957, source one described the Wisconsin Socialist Club (WSC) as then a duly registered and authorized student campus organization at the University of Wisconsin (UW) with a charter membership of 21, including MATTHEW CHAPPERON and [redacted] who prior to the dissolution of the Labor Youth League (LYL) were publicly known as officers of the UW chapter of the LYL. On November 30, 1960, source two identified MATTHEW CHAPPERON as then a member of the State Committee of the Communist Party of Wisconsin (CP). b6 b7C

On June 23, 1958, source three described the WSC as an organization founded primarily on principles closely allied with those of English socialists, with many of its members genuine socialists, but source observed there existed a pro-Marxist element in the club, including CHAPPERON and [redacted] which element had taken the lead in policy-making functions of the WSC. On September 20, 1960, this source reported that [redacted] and CHAPPERON had been elected president and secretary respectively of the WSC for the 1960-61 school year. b6 b7C

The November 16, 1963, issue of "The Daily Cardinal," student organ at the UW, identified [redacted] according to source four, also during 1964 became the midwest coordinator of a movement to form a National Marxist youth organization. During April, 1964, source four reported that [redacted] had recently been recruited into the CP. This source also identified [redacted] as collaborating with [redacted] in the founding of a new Marxist youth organization and in February, 1964, source five identified [redacted] as [redacted] of the WSC. b6 b7C

On May 10, 1964, at a meeting of the WSC, [redacted] according to source six, announced that [redacted] a UW student from Philadelphia, Pennsylvania, was replacing him as chairman of the WSC. [redacted] has been described by sources six, seven, eight, nine, ten and eleven as having a history of activities in CP and CP front groups and as being the daughter of parents with past CP affiliations and membership. b6 b7C

Issues of "The Daily Cardinal" during the 1963-64 school year reflected that the WSC continued to function as a student campus organization at the UW, periodically sponsoring off campus speakers, including JAMES JACKSON, editor of "The Worker," CP weekly newspaper, and CLAUDE LIGHTFOOT, who according to source twelve is chairman of the CP of Illinois.

The LYL is an organization which has been designated by the Attorney General pursuant to Executive Order 10450.

DETAILS:

I. COMMUNIST STRATEGY

A. Communist Party, USA

[redacted] San Antonio, Texas, joined the Communist Party, USA, in an effort to cooperate with the FBI and was a member of the Communist Party (CP) from April 26, 1961, until she testified as a Government witness before the Subversive Activities Control Board, Washington, D. C., September 23, 1963. b6 b7C

On August 9, 1963, [redacted] furnished the following information: b6 b7C

At a Communist Party club meeting in San Antonio on August 6, 1963, JOHN STANFORD related to those present:

"There is going to be a demonstration in Austin, Texas, on August 28th (1963) for the ones who can't make it to Washington. If someone from the group can go it will be good."

[redacted] advised further that it appears no one from the CP club in San Antonio will go to Austin or Washington August 28th. b6 b7C

SA T-1 (9/16/64)

Source advised that JOHN STANFORD continues as the main CP leader in San Antonio, Texas. He has been a CP member and leader in San Antonio from at least July, 1957, to the present time. He continues his efforts to strengthen the CP in this area. STANFORD has been a San Antonio representative on the State Committee of the CP of Texas from at least July, 1957. He has been Executive Secretary of the CP of Texas since at least February, 1958. In January, 1962, the State Committee and its offices were technically abolished. However, it was agreed the committee and its officers would continue to function and STANFORD has continued to do so to the present time.

SA T-17 (1/7/60)

Source advised that on that date JAMES E. JACKSON, Secretary of Negro and Southern Affairs, CP, USA, identified JOHN STANFORD as a member of the National Committee, CP, USA, and District Organizer in Texas.

SA T-2 (8/20/63)

At a CP meeting held in San Antonio on August 13, 1963, JOHN STANFORD stated that "we" should try to get certain political organizations interested in the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People's march to Washington, D. C. STANFORD claimed that this would be the most important thing the colored people have accomplished.

SA T-1 (8/15/63)

On August 13, 1963, at a CP club meeting held in San Antonio (supra), JOHN STANFORD commented that the Negro question was the most important single issue the CP has to work on at present, and he pointed out that the marches on the State capital and the Federal capital at Washington, D. C., to be held on August 28, 1963, were important events. STANFORD made no comments that the CP should participate in these marches.

SA T-1 (2/27/64)

At a CP club meeting held in San Antonio on February 26, 1964, JOHN STANFORD suggested that inasmuch as there was a meeting of CORE in San Antonio to be held on that very night, February 26, 1964, that this club meeting should be cut short, and that some of the members of this club go to this CORE meeting. STANFORD pointed out that the club had been dormant in taking part in any group movements in the field of racial matters or peace movements and that this would present an excellent opportunity for them to do this.

The club agreed to postpone the educational in view of the above, and some of the members agreed to go to the CORE meeting.

On August 14, 1964, JOHN STANFORD brought up the subject of the San Antonio chapter of the Freedom Now - CORE Affiliate group and that organization's attempts to convince the San Antonio City Council to pass a municipal ordinance prohibiting segregation. STANFORD explained that the CORE people have been carrying this fight alone before the City Council and he was of the opinion that there should be more white people helping the CORE organization in this endeavor.

STANFORD then instructed the San Antonio CP member to exert any influence he could with certain political organizations in an effort to obtain their cooperation concerning the assistance of CORE as mentioned above. STANFORD told the CP member that he would like the CP member to convince the proper people in those organizations to send representatives to the City Council meetings so that those representatives could join with CORE in requesting the San Antonio City Council to pass an ordinance prohibiting segregation.

STANFORD spent a considerable time on the above subject matter and was obviously highly interested in this project.

It is to be noted that the San Antonio Chapter of the Congress of Racial Equality (CORE) is formally known as Freedom Now - CORE Affiliate as explained below.

SA T-2 (8/19/64)

JOHN STANFORD has, in the past, told a CP member in San Antonio to join CORE and to keep abreast of CORE's activities.

SA T-1 (8/27/64)

On August 26, 1964, JOHN STANFORD advised a CP member to call G. J. SUTTON concerning arrangements and plans for appearances before the San Antonio City Council inasmuch as ALFRED FEATHERSTON appeared to be backing out of the picture.

It is to be noted that ALFRED FEATHERSTON will be documented hereinafter in this report.

SA T-8 (6/22/42)

Source advised on June 22, 1942, that G. J. SUTTON was present at a Communist Party District 20 meeting, during which meeting SUTTON was elected CP Organizer for the Negroes in San Antonio, and SUTTON reported having recruited three new members. At this meeting SUTTON was also elected a member of the City (San Antonio) Committee of the CP.

SA T-9 (2/43)

Source advised that in February, 1943, G. J. SUTTON was a member of the City

(San Antonio) Committee of the CP and had done considerable work among the Negro people of San Antonio in recruiting new members for the CP.

SA T-10 (2/46)

Source advised that SUTTON attended a meeting of the CP in San Antonio held at the Sutton Funeral Home on February 12, 1946.

SA T-11 (4/14/59)

Source advised that in the recent past, exact date not recalled, JOHN STANFORD was questioned about G. J. SUTTON and why SUTTON was not made to attend CP meetings. STANFORD replied, in effect, that SUTTON was not actually a formal CP member, that he was not registered in the Party; however, that his feelings were still with the Party. STANFORD said that SUTTON could do more good for the CP in such a capacity.

SA T-1 (10/27/64)

Source advised on October 27, 1964, that SUTTON is not a CP member to Source's knowledge.

SA T-2 (9/17/64)

On September 16, 1964, JOHN STANFORD heard that the CORE group in San Antonio wanted to hold some type of demonstration during the Southern Governors Conference, but the plans had not been finalized as yet. STANFORD instructed a CP member to attend the next meeting of CORE and pointed out that the mass demonstration during the Governors Conference should be discussed at that meeting by the CP member. STANFORD stated that CORE should not attempt to demonstrate by themselves but should have a committee to contact other groups to also take part in this demonstration. STANFORD instructed this CP member to influence CORE in this regard.

STANFORD also indicated that he thought it would be a good idea to have some prominent individuals take part in this demonstration. STANFORD felt that if prominent individuals were to take part in this demonstration that the police and deputy sheriffs would be more apt to let the demonstration take place without any incidents since the police and deputy sheriffs would be reluctant to take any action against prominent persons.

II. COMMUNIST TACTICS

A. Demonstration, City Hall, San Antonio, Texas, June 12, 1963

A Special Agent of the FBI observed that at 8:00 A.M., June 12, 1963, ten Negroes were picketing San Antonio City Hall carrying placards marked, "NAACP," and bearing statements such as, "Not favors but rights," "Wanted--Legal Desegregation," "A city ordinance is protection," and "Equal rights."

Prior to the formation of the picket line, G. J. SUTTON was observed giving out the placards to the pickets.

It is to be noted that this picket line was to demand the passage of a city ordinance against segregation or to amend the existing city desegregation ordinance for the purpose of including the word "Negro."

All individuals involved appeared to be orderly, and no demonstrations of a hostile nature were observed or reported.

SA T-5 (6/13/63)

In connection with the above-mentioned demonstration, although it is not public knowledge, there are two factions working within the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People (NAACP). One faction is demanding the passage of a law or statute by the City Council for complete desegregation of all facilities, public, private, or governmental control. This group wants immediate action, and among those heading it up is G. J. SUTTON. The three Negro leaders heading this group up appear to have the ear of, and possibly control of, the President of the NAACP in San Antonio. SUTTON is a member of the Executive Committee of the NAACP in San Antonio, and the group to which he adheres does not want to wait for any voluntary integration program but demands the City Council take immediate action which is complete desegregation in all parts of the City of San Antonio.

SA T-12 (6/13/63)

Source stated that the picketing on June 12, 1963, in front of the City Hall while the San Antonio City Council was meeting was not the desire of the majority of the colored people in San Antonio, nor even the desire of the majority of the Executive Committee of the NAACP in San Antonio, but was the will of a few, which included G. J. SUTTON.

B. Demonstration, City Hall, San Antonio, Texas, June 26, 1963

A Special Agent of the FBI observed that on June 26, 1963, the NAACP in San Antonio, Texas, again picketed the San Antonio City Council meeting. The pickets were under the direction of four individuals, including G. J. SUTTON.

The group of twenty Negro people, male and female, performed an orderly "sit-in" at the City Council meeting, some wearing signs across their chests reading "Equal rights now."

The signs being carried by Negroes in front of City Hall bore such markings as "Wanted--Legal Desegregation," and "Not favors, but rights."

C. March at Austin, Texas, August 28, 1963

The August 2, 1963, issue of Snap, San Antonio weekly Negro newspaper, carried an article entitled, "San Antonio to Join CONNALLY Picketing." The article stated that Snap had received word that several groups from San Antonio are organizing to join the state-wide caravan to the State capital on August 28, 1963.

The march will be in protest to Governor JOHN CONNALLY's stand against President KENNEDY's civil rights program, as stated in a recent television appearance.

SA T-13 (8/28/63)

On August 28, 1963, Source was in the area near the Corinth Baptist Church, 500 block of South New Braunfels, San Antonio, Texas. At this time individuals were meeting and forming the delegation to travel to Austin, Texas, to participate in the demonstration to be held on that date. It was observed that about twenty-one automobiles left from the front of the church, and G. J. SUTTON and another Negro in a black Cadillac led the automobile caravan.

On August 28, 1963, Special Agents of the FBI observed that approximately twenty-two persons, including four white persons, left San Antonio, Texas, on the morning of August 28, 1963, by automobiles in a caravan enroute to Austin, Texas, to attend a demonstration there. This caravan was escorted by a Negro uniformed motorcycle officer.

On August 28, 1963, [redacted] Criminal Investigative Division, Austin, Texas, Police Department, advised that the demonstration began at 2:05 p.m. with approximately five hundred to six hundred persons. There were a large number of white people in the parade. Placards were carried indicating representatives from Houston, San Antonio, and Dallas. Some placards carried had the inscriptions, "Freedom now," and "KENNEDY Si - CONNALLY No." The demonstration ended at approximately 3:00 p.m. at Woolridge Park where the participants assembled to hear speeches. There were no incidents or arrests.

b7C

D. Demonstration, City Hall, San Antonio, Texas, November 14, 1963

A Special Agent of the FBI, on November 14, 1963, observed that during a San Antonio City Council meeting on that date Mayor W. W. McALLISTER read a decision unanimously made by the Council to the effect that the 1941 anti-discrimination ordinance should not be amended to include the specific words, "Negro race." The Mayor stated that the San Antonio City Attorneys had informed him that it was their opinion that the 1941 ordinance is not a constitutional ordinance.

SA T-12 (11/14/63)

Source advised that during the above-mentioned Texas City Council meeting, G. J. SUTTON spoke out and questioned the competency of [redacted] b6 b7C desegregation leader, and stated that no one had the right to say whether San Antonio was desegregated or not, and no one could declare it as such until an ordinance demanding such desegregation was passed by the City Council. Mayor McALLISTER informed SUTTON that he was out of order, and SUTTON said, "Maybe you should throw me out. Maybe you should throw all of us out." SUTTON accused Mayor McALLISTER of permitting his leg man, BAUGH, to talk freely on the matter of desegreation, but no one else. SUTTON stated, "I don't want anything to do with white supremacy--voluntary desegregation is working for you but not for any of my people." SUTTON then endeavored, without the permission of the Council, to question [redacted] further on the work of the Desegregation Committee, and Mayor McALLISTER again advised him that he was out of order and should be seated, that the City Council wished to carry on its affairs in an orderly manner. SUTTON then got angry and shouted at the Mayor, "I am being seated then." The Mayor said, "Yes, because you are out of order." Shortly thereafter, SUTTON got the "Freedom Now" followers present at the City Council meeting and left with them, stating, "This has been a Gestapo action."

A Special Agent of the FBI observed that at this meeting there were approximately seven young white students of college age wearing printed signs approximately twelve inches by four inches with the words, "Freedom Now." There were about six Negroes wearing similar signs in the audience.

E. Picketing at Reus Cafe and Liquor Store, 932 East Commerce Street, San Antonio, Texas, February 29 - March 26, 1964

SA T-3 (2/29-3/26/64)

Source advised that on February 29, 1964, the Freedom Now - CORE Affiliate group (FNCA), San Antonio, Texas, began picketing the Reus Cafe and Liquor Store, 932 East Commerce Street, San Antonio, Texas, because they refused to serve Negroes while they were seated at a table. Up until this time, [redacted] had agreed to serve Negroes food to take out and to sell them liquor in the liquor store but was against serving Negroes at a table. b6 b7C

From February 29, 1964, until March 26, 1964, the FNCA in San Antonio picketed the Reus Cafe and Liquor Store every day except Sunday.

On March 26, 1964, [redacted] gave in to the request of the FNCA and agreed to serve Negroes effective March 30, 1964. This was agreed upon by both parties.

SA T-3 advised that the individual in charge of handing out press releases and propaganda was G. J. SUTTON.

SA T-3 advised that among those on the picket line on March 4, 1964, was G. J. SUTTON.

SA T-3 (10/27/64)

member of Freedom Now-Core / AFFiliate

LILLIAN SUTTON TAYLOR, school teacher and sister of G. J. SUTTON, according to her own admission, has been active in the FNCA movement in San Antonio, Texas, since the middle of February, 1964. She actively participated in the FNCA picketing of the Reus Cafe and Liquor Store during the period February 29, 1964, to March 26, 1964, by carrying placards. Her sons also participated in this picketing at her request.

F. Appearance at City Council Meeting, San Antonio, Texas, March 12, 1964

A Special Agent of the FBI observed that during the City Council meeting held at City Hall, San Antonio, Texas, on March 12, 1964, eight individuals, including G. J. SUTTON, affiliated with the FNCA in San Antonio, Texas, were present, wearing CORE buttons.

SUTTON requested to be heard by the City Council, which request was granted by Mayor W. W. McALLISTER. SUTTON thereafter criticized a recent passage of a city ordinance to protect dogs used by the Police Department. He also questioned a City Council member regarding that person's opinion of voluntary desegregation and asked the Councilman to make a motion favoring an ordinance which would amend the 1941 ordinance whereby the words, "Negro race," would be inserted in the 1941 ordinance, making it illegal to discriminate against any individual, regardless of his race or color. After further discussion of this, and the use of dogs by the police, SUTTON stepped down and the entire FNCA group left the Council meeting.

G. Demonstration, Southern Governors Conference, San Antonio, Texas, October 10-14, 1964

SA T-3 (10/24/64)

On July 23, 1964, [redacted] of the Freedom Non-Violent Affiliate FNCA group, San Antonio, Texas, advised that a night letter had been sent by himself and G. J. SUTTON to CORE headquarters in New York City to ask them if everything was set up for the appearance of [redacted] as one of the stars at the proposed picket and demonstration scheduled to be held during the Southern Governors Conference in San Antonio, Texas, October, 1964 Texas b6 b7C

SA T-3 (10/3/64)

At a meeting of the FNCA group held on October 2, 1964, in San Antonio, Texas, G. J. SUTTON stated he received a letter from the CORE headquarters in New York City, stating that two men were coming to assist in the demonstration at the Southern Governors Conference which is meeting in San Antonio, October, 1964. SUTTON stated he is waiting for another letter for further clarification. He also stated that he plans to call CORE headquarters in New York City for further instructions.

SA T-3 (10/11/64)

At a regular meeting of the FNCA group in San Antonio held on October 9, 1964, G. J. SUTTON stated that during the planned demonstration for the Southern Governors Conference, that if the police should attempt to interfere in any way with the demonstrators or to arrest them, they are to immediately call their attorney.

SA T-7 (10/10/64)

At the October 9, 1964, FNCA meeting in San Antonio, mentioned above, SUTTON advised those present that when and if the police should approach them and endeavor to move them, they should go limp, fall on the ground, and force the police to carry them away.

SA 100-9845

On October 12, 1964, in a conversation had by G. J. SUTTON and [redacted] b6 b7C of the Congress of Racial Equality, SUTTON advised that they had prepared over one hundred posters to be used in the picket line in the demonstration against the Southern Governors Conference to be held in San Antonio. SUTTON stated he hoped to have a number of children in the picket line.

On October 12, 1964, [redacted] San Antonio Police Department, San Antonio, Texas, advised that twelve of the Southern Governors arrived at San Antonio International Airport at approximately 11:00 p.m. on October 10, 1964, and were greeted by eight FNCA pickets led by G. J. SUTTON and LILLIAN SUTTON TAYLOR. They carried placards; however, at no time did they cause an incident, and their presence went almost unobserved by the Governors. b6 b7C

SA T-8 (8/15/42)

On July 27, 1942, at a CP City Committee meeting held in San Antonio, Texas, Mrs. E. A. TAYLOR, nee SUTTON, commented that she and her husband had been members of the CP for years. She said she attended a CP State conference in Houston in July, 1942, and wanted to report on the same. She said she was a member of the CP State Board. She said she attended these State CP conferences each month and paid her own expenses.

SA T-16 (12/44)

Mrs. E. A. TAYLOR, also known as LILLIAN SUTTON TAYLOR, has not made her appearance at any of the CP meetings held since early August, 1944, through the meetings held the middle of December, 1944, in San Antonio.

SA T-1 (10/27/64)

LILLIAN SUTTON TAYLOR, sister of G. J. SUTTON, is not a member of the CP, to Source's knowledge.

Special Agents of the FBI observed that fourteen members of the FNCA group in San Antonio, Texas, began picketing across the street from the entrance of La Villita, a section of San Antonio, Texas, where the Southern Governors were being feted on the night of October 12, 1964. The picketing began at approximately 6:40 p.m. and lasted until 7:45 p.m. The pickets were led by [redacted] of CORE.

b7C

The group carried placards which read, "Governor, would you rather fight than switch?," "Welcome KKK," "CORE Protest," "Rats invade San Antonio - Extremists," "Segregation is dead - why not bury it?," "Confederacy is dead, freedom instead," "Moral evil invades San Antonio," "Segregation stinks," and "All aboard, last call for freedom."

The picketing group also carried a white coffin. The coffin had the word, "corpse," printed on the side. The pickets who were parading sang Freedom songs during the time they were picketing.

There were no incidents, violence, or arrests, and the picketing was carried off in a very orderly manner.

SA T-3 (10/27/64)

LILLIAN SUTTON TAYLOR actively helped prepare placards and used her car to transport pickets in connection with the demonstration of the FNCA group before the Southern Governors Conference in San Antonio, October 12, 1964.

SA 100-9845

SA T-12 (10/28/64)

G. J. SUTTON was present during the above-mentioned demonstration on October 12, 1964. He was not known to have actively participated in the demonstration, but was observing the demonstrators.

III. COMMUNIST PENETRATION AND INFLUENCE IN RACIAL AND OTHER ORGANIZATIONS

A. Freedom Now - CORE Affiliate (FNCA), San Antonio, Texas

SA T-3 (12/16/63)

A group of Negroes and Latin Americans in San Antonio met at a private residence and formed an organization known as Freedom Now.

SA T-3 (1/11/64)

On January 9, 1964, the Freedom Now group in San Antonio officially affiliated itself with the CORE organization and the first chairman to be designated was ALFRED DWIGHT AMOS FEATHERSTON, also known as ALFRED FEATHERSTON.

SA T-6 (1/26/64)

FEATHERSTON advised that FNCA is "an active, militant organization whose one inflexible rule is nonviolence; that it prefers to solve racial problems, where possible, through patient negotiation in an atmosphere of amicability and good will." FNCA prepares for every contingency but only demonstrates when negotiation proves futile. Another purpose of the FNCA group, according to FEATHERSTON, is to show local citizens the evil of discrimination and the fact that FNCA works toward its elimination from the American scene.

SA T-7 (10/9/64)

As of October 9, 1964, there were twenty-nine dues-paying members of the FNCA group in San Antonio.

SA T-7 (10/23/64)

At no time during any of the meetings of FNCA in San Antonio has the CP been discussed to Source's knowledge. As far as can be ascertained by SA T-7, there is no policy concerning communist participation in the organization, nor has there been any distribution of communist propaganda, either during, before, or after the meetings. The rules of the FNCA organization make no mention of prohibiting a communist from holding office, but SA T-7 does not know of any communist who holds an office.

SA T-3 (2/26/64)

Texas

A delegation of the FNCA group met JAMES FARMER, National Director of CORE, at the San Antonio Airport upon his arrival on February 26, 1964. The group was led by G. J. SUTTON and ALFRED FEATHERSTON.

On that same date, following a general meeting of the FNCA group and guests, which was addressed by FARMER, a special meeting was held which was attended by FARMER, G. J. SUTTON, FEATHERSTON and others. According to SA T-3, FEATHERSTON stated that FARMER had advised that someone should take charge of getting all the "liberal" elements in San Antonio behind their movement. SUTTON stated that he would take care of this. FEATHERSTON advised that FARMER did not define what he meant by "liberal." FARMER spent the night of February 26, 1964, at the home of SUTTON.

SA T-3 (6/26/64)

On June 26, 1964, FEATHERSTON stated that he had been approached by friends, such as SUTTON and others, for the purpose of asking [redacted] to step down as Co-Chairman of the FNCA group. b6 b7C of Congress of Racial Equality

G. J. SUTTON informed the FNCA group he had received a telephone call from a Dallas newspaper man regarding the proposed shipment of foodstuff and clothing to the "poor" Negroes in Mississippi by the FNCA group in San Antonio. The newspaper man wanted to get a story on this for a Dallas newspaper. SUTTON also stated on July 23, 1964, that he had received word from CORE headquarters to the effect that [redacted] of CORE, would visit the FNCA group in San Antonio in the near future and that a Negro was scheduled to come to San Antonio in August, 1964, to help get the San Antonio FNCA group to become more active and get a larger following. SUTTON also stated he planned to take several members of the FNCA group to the July 23, 1964, meeting of the San Antonio City Council for the purpose of requesting the Council to pass an ordinance for desegregation of all public accommodations in accordance with the Civil Rights Act of 1964. b6 b7C

SUTTON advised that ALFRED FEATHERSTON, who was present at the meeting, would be named in charge of all public relations and press matters for the FNCA group in San Antonio and would handle press releases in connection with the shipment of foodstuff and clothing to Mississippi.

SA T-3 (7/24/64)

G. J. SUTTON stated he planned to have the foodstuff and merchandise to be shipped to the Negroes in Mississippi on a truck on the morning of July 25, 1964, and allow newspaper reporters and photographers from Dallas to take photographs. SUTTON stated that he had arranged that the foodstuff and clothing be taken off the truck that is loaded at the FNCA headquarters and then be put on another truck, the identity of which would be known to no one.

SA T-3 (7/29/64)

The photographers from Dallas had arrived a day late to take photographs of the foodstuff and, because they were a day late, no one was able to attend to them, and they got no photographs.

When G. J. SUTTON learned about the incident, he became very mad and threatened personally to see that the leaders of the FNCA group in San Antonio were removed.

SA T-7 (10/3/64)

During a meeting of the FNCA group in San Antonio on October 2, 1964, G. J. SUTTON suggested that FEATHERSTON be named Chairman, but FEATHERSTON declined, stating he did not know how long he would be in San Antonio. SUTTON then complained that [redacted] has not been sufficiently active as a leader, and he wanted someone more impressive. b6 b7C

SA T-3 (10/6/64)

On October 5, 1964, [redacted] was in San Antonio. He stated that he had come to San Antonio again to try to organize the FNCA group which was "in a mess." [redacted] stated that G. J. SUTTON has been trying to ramrod the FNCA group and, as a result, there is much dissension among the ranks. b6 b7C

SA T-7 (10/6/64)

During a meeting of the FNCA group at San Antonio, Texas, on October 2, 1964, G. J. SUTTON endeavored to run the meeting; however, [redacted] who was present, "sat on" SUTTON and told him to sit down because the situation was already "a mess." [redacted] stated because of SUTTON's continual interference in the operation of the FNCA group in San Antonio, it had become a useless organization, and they were practically not functioning at all.

SA T-3 (10/27/64)

LILLIAN SUTTON TAYLOR (supra) has been active in the FNCA movement in San Antonio, Texas, since the middle of February, 1964.

SA T-2 (5/5/64)

The FNCA group in San Antonio is a group whose purpose is to improve the exercise of the civil rights of the Negro. As far as is known, the San Antonio FNCA group is not infiltrated or dominated by the CP.

B. National Association for the Advancement of Colored People - San Antonio Chapter (NAACP)

SA T-5 (6/19/63)

The NAACP Executive Committee in San Antonio is composed of thirty members, but seldom do more than ten to fifteen members show up for a meeting. G. J. SUTTON and several others are always present, and generally they are able to swing sufficient votes to put through whatever action they deem necessary.

The June 20, 1963, issue of the San Antonio Light, a daily San Antonio newspaper, carried an interview with G. J. SUTTON, described as an east-side Negro political leader. He stated that it is part of the plan of the NAACP in San Antonio, of which he is a member of the Executive Committee, and Chairman of the Strategy Committee, to "go all the way" in bringing about mandatory desegregation in the City of San Antonio. He stated that the NAACP leaders in San Antonio would urge "influential people" to use that influence to block federal aid for the proposed San Antonio International HemisFair. He continued by stating that "we may even make appearances in Washington ourselves." He stated that "we are playing it by ear and what we do will depend on the council."

On August 6, 1963, [redacted] President of the Texas State Conference of National Association for the Advancement of Colored People b6 b7C volunteered that JOHN STANFORD at one time was a member of the NAACP but that he is not one at this time. BURNS said the NAACP does not want people like that in the organization.

SA T-14 (8/1/63)

From information available, G. J. SUTTON, Negro political leader on the east side of San Antonio, is presently running the NAACP Executive Committee in San Antonio, Texas. The President of this organization, [redacted] has been trying to wrest the control from SUTTON and join forces with the group who are against picketing in order to obtain their ends, but, due to his previous stand on the matter, has not been able to wrest the control or power away from SUTTON. SA T-14 advised that SUTTON is calling all the shots, and at the meeting states what should and should not be done. SA T-14 states that there definitely has been a falling-out between [redacted] and SUTTON; however, the matter has been kept hushed up at the present time. b6 b7C b6 b7C

SA T-15 (8/2/63)

G. J. SUTTON has made the statement that picketing will be renewed by NAACP members at the next meeting of the San Antonio City Council, scheduled for August 7, 1963. Beside picketing the City Council meeting and in front of the City Hall, the pickets also plan to picket in front of the City Water Board, the City Public Service Board headquarters, and the San Antonio Transit System. SA T-15 stated that the possibility exists that they will also picket in front of the San Antonio Savings and Loan Association, whose President is also Mayor of the City of San Antonio.

SA T-5 (10/27/64)

The current membership on the rolls of the NAACP Chapter in San Antonio, Texas, is believed to be about 1500 persons, but it is estimated that about 50 to 75 persons attend monthly meetings. G. J. SUTTON is a member of the Executive Committee, regularly attends meetings, and influences those who attend the meetings.

IV. MISCELLANEOUS

ALFRED DWIGHT AMOS FEATHERSTON

SA T-3 (2/20/64)

On February 19, 1964, FEATHERSTON attended a meeting of the Nation of Islam (NOI) in San Antonio. During the meeting he was high in his praise of FIDEL CASTRO and the CASTRO government, stating that the United States is crucifying CASTRO unnecessarily because CASTRO refuses to bow to the desires of the United States Government.

A characterization of the Nation of Islam (NOI) is contained in the appendix hereto.

SA T-3 (3/11/64)

Informant learned that FEATHERSTON had sent a communication to MALCOLM X, head of the Muslim Mosque, Inc., offering help to MALCOLM X and requesting permission to allow FEATHERSTON to place him in contact with FIDEL CASTRO.

U.S.A.

A characterization of the Muslim Mosque, Inc. (MMI) is contained in the appendix hereto.

On April 28, 1964, ALFRED FEATHERSTON advised HENRY S. CARR, employee of the San Antonio Express and News Publishing Company, that he had worked out of the Yucatan Peninsula for a time getting supplies to FIDEL CASTRO while CASTRO was leading his guerrilla war against the Cuban Government and continued to assist CASTRO until CASTRO took over Cuba.

ALFRED FEATHERSTON visited JOHN STANFORD at his residence in San Antonio August 26, 1964. During the discussion between FEATHERSTON and STANFORD, FEATHERSTON expressed a disappointment in the activities of the FNCA group in San Antonio. FEATHERSTON stated that he felt that he had outlived his usefulness in San Antonio and that it would be best if he would go to Africa where he knows some people and can do some good. FEATHERSTON also stated to STANFORD that he was disgusted with the lack of activity with the Negroes' situation in San Antonio and expressed the opinion that the Negro in San Antonio was not sufficiently militant or active in fighting for his cause. FEATHERSTON also stated that the FNCA group in San Antonio has poor leadership.

On that same date, August 26, 1964, STANFORD and another CP member discussed the fact that FEATHERSTON was confused in his thinking, and STANFORD concluded by stating that he would give FEATHERSTON some literature.

ALFRED FEATHERSTON came to San Antonio in November, 1963, for the purpose of obtaining employment at the Snap newspaper. In December, 1963, FEATHERSTON helped to form the Freedom Now organization in San Antonio, which later became affiliated with the Congress of Racial Equality (CORE) and is now known as Freedom Now - CORE Affiliate.

FEATHERSTON was the first chairman of this organization and controlled this operation until May, 1964, when he stepped down in order to take a trip to Mexico and British Honduras. During the time he was affiliated with this organization he was responsible for bringing to San Antonio [redacted] of CORE, who conducted a workshop showing members how to defend themselves against attack while picketing and still be classified as nonviolent. FEATHERSTON was also responsible for the visit of JAMES FARMER, National Director of CORE, to San Antonio. FEATHERSTON led the FNCA group when they picketed the Reus Cafe and Liquor Store in San Antonio in February and March, 1964, which cafe did not serve Negroes. The matter was resolved in favor of serving the Negro.

When FEATHERSTON returned from his trip to Mexico and British Honduras in July, 1964, he attended a number of FNCA group meetings in San Antonio and then drifted away from the organization because, in his opinion, they were too passive. FEATHERSTON wanted a more aggressive and militant type of organization.

At the present time FEATHERSTON does not consider himself a member of the FNCA group in San Antonio; however, he occasionally visits with the group when they meet. He no longer tries to influence the group in any way. Several of the members of the FNCA group have spoken out against FEATHERSTON and his insistence on violent action. FEATHERSTON stays to himself at the present time and is considering leaving San Antonio and possibly going to Mexico.

NATION OF ISLAM, formerly referred to as the Muslim Cult of Islam, also known as Muhammad's Temples of Islam

In January, 1957, a source advised Elijah Muhammad has described his organization on a nationwide basis as the "Nation of Islam" (NOI) and "Muhammad's Temples of Islam."

On May 8, 1964, a second source advised Elijah Muhammad is the national leader of the NOI; Muhammad's Temple of Islam No. 2, 5335 South Greenwood Avenue, Chicago, Illinois, is the national headquarters of the NOI; and in mid-1960, Muhammad and other NOI officials, when referring to Muhammad's organization on a nationwide basis, commenced using either "Mosque" or "Temple" when mentioning one of "Muhammad's Temples of Islam."

The NOI is an all-Negro organization which was originally organized in 1930 in Detroit, Michigan. Muhammad claimed to have been selected by Allah, the Supreme Being, to lead the so-called Negro race out of slavery in the wilderness of North America by establishing an independent black nation in the United States. Members following Muhammad's teachings and his interpretation of the "Koran" believe there is no such thing as a Negro; that the so-called Negroes are slaves of the white race, referred to as "white devils," in the United States; and that the white race, because of its exploitation of the so-called Negroes, must and will be destroyed in the approaching "War of Armageddon."

In the past, officials and member of the NOI, including Muhammad, have refused to register under the provisions of the Selective Service Acts and have declared that members owe no allegiance to the United States.

On May 5, 1958, the first source advised Muhammad had, upon advice of legal counsel, tempered his personal statements and instructions to his ministers concerning the principles of his organization in order to avoid possible prosecution by the United States Government; however, he did not indicate any fundamental changes in the teachings of his organization.

On May 7, 1964, a third source advised Muhammad had, early in July, 1958, decided to de-emphasize the religious aspects of the teachings of Islam and to stress the economic benefits to be derived by those Negroes who joined the NOI. This policy change, according to Muhammad, would help him acquire additional followers and create more interest in his program.

MUSLIM MOSQUE, INCORPORATED

The March 13, 1964, edition of "The New York Times," a daily newspaper published in New York, New York, contained an article on page 20 which indicated that MALCOLM X (LITTLE), former national official of the Nation of Islam (NOI) and Minister of NOI Mosque #7, New York, who broke with the NOI on March 8, 1964, publicly announced in New York City on March 12, 1964, that he had formed the Muslim Mosque, Incorporated (MMI). The MMI, according to the article, would be a broadly-based politically-oriented black nationalist movement for Negroes only, financed by voluntary contributions. In this public statement MALCOLM X urged Negroes to abandon the doctrine of non-violence when it is necessary to defend themselves in the civil rights struggle, and he also suggested that Negroes form rifle clubs to protect their lives and property in times of emergencies in areas where the government is unable or unwilling to protect them.

Incorporation papers of the MMI filed on March 16, 1964, with the Business Section, Clerk of Courts, New York County, New York, New York, reflect that the MMI was incorporated under the Religious Corporation Law of the State of New York to work for the imparting of the Islamic Faith and Islamic Religion in accordance with "accepted Islamic principals." The principal place of worship is to be located in the Borough of Manhattan, New York, New York.

During an appearance over KYW - Television, Cleveland, Ohio, on April 7, 1964, MALCOLM X stated that the MMI does not stand for integration, but for complete freedom, justice, and equality for Negroes. He stated that Islam was the religious philosophy of the MMI, while the political, economic, and social philosophy was black nationalism.

On May 15, 1964, a confidential source advised that the headquarters of the MMI are located in Suite 128, Hotel Theresa, 2090 Seventh Avenue, New York City, where they were established on March 16, 1964.

NATION OF ISLAM
MOSQUE #7, NEW YORK CITY

On May 3, 1963, a source advised that the Nation of Islam (NOI) affiliate in New York City is known as Mosque #7, also known as Temple #7, and is located at 102 West 116th Street, New York City. Mosque #7 is a part of the NOI headed by ELIJAH MUHAMMAD, with headquarters in Chicago, Illinois. Mosque #7 follows the policies and programs as set forth by ELIJAH MUHAMMAD.

The date Mosque #7 originated in New York City is not known.

However, in connection with the origin of Mosque #7, it should be noted that in 1953, a second source advised that there was a temple of the NOI (known to source then as the Muslim Cult of Islam) in New York City located at 135th Street and Seventh Avenue, as far back as 1947.

Title: COMMUNIST INFLUENCE IN RACIAL MATTERS

Character: INTERNAL SECURITY - C

Synopsis:

In 9/64, an informant advised that a Miami Communist Party (CP) member was making an effort to get connected with the Negro movement in Miami area, but has had little success in this regard. Progressive Labor Movement (PLM) interested in recruiting members among Negroes in Miami area. On 9/4/64, PLM distributed handbills in Miami Negro area. One handbill contained picture of NYC Police Officer who shot Negro youth. Another handbill urged nation-wide campaign to free BILL EPTON, a PLM functionary who was expelled from the CP, USA. Three of seven Miami area delegates to a 1963 March on Washington were described in 1964 as CP members. Current Miami CP Organizer was on committee for train accommodations for that March. In 1961, a Reverend THEODORE R. GIBSON was speaker at Southern Conference Educational Fund (SCEF) conference. He also petitioned President KENNEDY not to enforce Supreme Court decision requiring the CP to register as agent of the Soviet Union. Reverend THEODORE R. GIBSON is current and past President of Miami National Association for the Advancement of Colored People (NAACP).

I. COMMUNIST STRATEGY

A.) Communist Party, USA (CPUSA)

On September 21, 1964, MM T-1 advised that according to ISAAC DANTZIG, ABE SORKIN was making an effort to get connected with the Negro movement, with which he was once very active. These organizations consist of the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People (NAACP), Congress of Racial Equality (CORE), and other Negro civil rights organizations.

According to MM T-1, SORKIN has stated that although he is not a wealthy property holder, as many of the Miami Communist Party (CP) members are, and is a working man, he has had little success in this regard. SORKIN has been critical of DANTZIG and other Miami CP members for not taking a more active part in the racial movement.

On May 1, 1964, MM T-1 advised that ISAAC DANTZIG is CP Organizer for the Miami area CP, and that ABE SORKIN was a current CP member, as of that date.

B.) Progressive Labor Movement (PLM)

A characterization of the PLM appears in the Appendix of this report.

On August 14, 1964, MM T-2 advised that leaders of the PLM in New York, New York were planning to send handbills to the Miami area for distribution in Negro neighborhoods of Miami.

MM T-2 advised these handbills would contain a picture of Lieutenant THOMAS GILLIGAN of the New York Police Department, and a write-up designed to anger the Negroes in Miami over GILLIGAN's alleged "murder" of a Negro youth.

On August 14, 1964, MM T-2 advised that according to [redacted] a Miami PLM member, JAKE ROSEN of New York was planning to come to the Miami area and attempt to recruit members for the PLM among the Negroes in the Miami area. b6 b7C

On April 21, 1964, MM T-2 stated JAKE ROSEN recently admitted that he was formerly a member of the CP in New York, but was expelled inasmuch as GUS HALL, General Secretary of the CPUSA, considered him to be too militant. ROSEN also admitted that he is Organizer of the PLM for the Southeastern District of the United States.

On October 9, 1964, MM T-2 advised that FRED JEROME, a New York PLM member, recently told Miami PLM members that they should discontinue their efforts to recruit Cubans into their group; that the PLM is primarily an American revolution, and that they should direct their efforts and activities toward the struggling minority group, which is the Negro element, in the Miami area.

MM T-2 stated that according to JEROME, the Miami PLM members would have to recruit for the organization, and the best way to accomplish this would be by direct personal contact. JEROME felt the distribution of handbills was ineffective.

JEROME further pointed out that the main objective of the PLM was to overthrow the United States Government by revolution, and that one step toward this would be to have the citizens become dissatisfied and lose confidence in their local officials.

II. COMMUNIST TACTICS

A.) March on Washington, D. C., August 28, 1963

On August 20, 1963, MM T-3 advised that a meeting was held by the Interracial Mothers Club (IMC) on August 16, 1963, at the Jewish Cultural Center (JCC), 429 Lenox Avenue, Miami Beach, Florida, to make plans for delegates participating in the March on Washington.

MM T-3 described the IMC as a group of Negro and white women organized to promote the integration of the races.

MM T-3 advised that at the August 16, 1963 meeting, Mr. A. D. MOORE, Miami Chairman of the Congress of Racial Equality (CORE), was the speaker of the evening. He spoke about the terrible injustices to the Negro people, and stated none will be free unless all are free.

An appeal for funds for the marchers was made at the meeting, and over $300 was donated, in addition to pledges. According to MM T-3, this money will be used to pay for the train fare of the seven delegates to represent greater Miami in the March. Among these seven delegates were [redacted] MARTHA LENCHUS and [redacted]

b7C

The JCC is characterized in the Appendix of this report.

On May 1, 1964, MM T-1 advised that [redacted] b6 b7C husband and wife, were then members of the CP in Miami.

When interviewed by Special Agents of the Federal Bureau of Investigation (FBI) on March 23, 1961, MARTHA LENCHUS admitted she had been a member of the Emma Lazarus Federation of Jewish Womens Clubs (ELF), which meets regularly at the JCC, and that she also occasionally reads the "Morning Freiheit" (MF).

On November 13, 1962, MM T-3 advised that [redacted] was an ELF member during 1962.

The ELF locally and nationally, and the MF are characterized in the Appendix of this report.

MM T-3 also advised that ISAAC DANTZIG is one of the four persons on the Functioning Committee, which will make all the arrangements for train accommodations for the March.

ISAAC DANTZIG has previously been characterized as Miami CP Organizer in 1964.

On September 6, 1963, MM T-3 advised that [redacted] MARTHA LENCHUS b6 b7C and [redacted] did go to Washington, D. C., and participated in the March on Washington. These individuals commented afterwards that the March was a great success.

B.) PLM Handbill Distribution, Miami, September 4, 1964

On September 2, 1964, MM T-2 advised that approximately 4,000 handbills prepared by the PLM in New York had been received by the Miami PLM. One handbill was entitled "Wanted for Murder, Gilligan the Cop". The second handbill was entitled "Attempted Political Assassination of Bill Epton".

On Page 2, of the July 28, 1964 issue of "The Worker", there is contained an editorial by JAMES E. JACKSON, reflecting that several years ago the CPUSA expelled BILL EPTON and FRED JEROME from the CPUSA for both adventurism and for cowardice for demanding the dissolution of the CP. In the article, JACKSON described them as ersatz revolutionaries and crypto-communists, and said the communists rejected them from their ranks. The July 28, 1964 issue of "The Worker" lists JAMES E. JACKSON as the Editor.

"The Worker" is an east coast communist newspaper.

On September 5, 1964, MM T-2 advised that individuals associated with the PLM in the Miami area had distributed several hundred handbills in the Negro section of Miami, Florida on the evening of September 4, 1964. One handbill contained a picture of Lieutenant THOMAS GILLIGAN of the New York City Police Department, and the second called for massive demonstrations and a nation-wide campaign to free BILL EPTON, a PLM functionary, who had been arrested by the New York City Police Department.

MM T-2 advised that source had ascertained that some of the Negroes receiving these handbills showed some interest in this literature, but none of them gave any indication that they were angered by the information contained in the handbills.

[redacted] Intelligence Unit, Dade County Sheriff's Office, and [redacted] Intelligence Unit, Miami Police Department, advised on September 5, 1964, that there was no excitement or unusual activity in the areas where these handbills had been distributed. b6 b7C

[redacted] advised that the Miami Police Department had confiscated all of the handbills they had located which had been distributed in the Miami area. b6 b7C

On September 8, 1964, JACK FREEMAN voluntarily appeared at the Miami Office of the FBI and requested interview. FREEMAN admitted being familiar with activities of the PLM in the Miami area, including the PLM leaflet distribution on September 4, 1964. He said the leaflets were not designed to provoke violence or incite a riot, but merely to create an interest in the PLM among the Negroes in Miami.

III. COMMUNIST PENETRATION AND INFLUENCE IN RACIAL AND OTHER ORGANIZATIONS

A.) National Association for the Advancement of Colored People (NAACP)

It was determined under a suitable pretext on February 19, 1964, that Reverend THEODORE R. GIBSON is the Pastor of Christ Episcopal Church, Miami, and that he is the President of the Miami Chapter of the NAACP and on the National Board of Directors of that organization.

Records of the Credit Bureau of Greater Miami, as of February 17, 1964, reflected Reverend GIBSON has been President of the Miami NAACP for many years.

The files of the House Committee on Un-American Activities, reviewed on June 17 and 27, 1963, reflected that an article appeared in the November 13, 1961 issue, Page 5, of the "National Guardian", indicating that Reverend THEODORE R. GIBSON was a speaker at an October 27, 1961 conference of the Southern Conference Educational Fund (SCEF).

The "National Guardian", and the SCEF are characterized in the Appendix of this report.

On October 10, 1961, an article appeared in the "Miami News", a daily newspaper, captioned, "Rev. Gibson Signs Plea for 'Liberty'". This article reported that the Reverend THEODORE R. GIBSON of Miami was among 322 citizens petitioning President JOHN F. KENNEDY not to enforce a Supreme Court decision requiring CP members to register as agents of the Soviet Union. The article noted that the petition was signed by 90 clergymen.

The October 10, 1961 issue of the "Miami News" also contained an article of an interview by the press with Reverend GIBSON. GIBSON stated, in part, that he could not go along with any group whose aims advocated the overthrow of the United States Government. He said that if the NAACP was subversive, he would not be President of the local chapter. He pointed out that the NAACP can reject applicants for membership if they are communists, and can expell members if they prove to be communists.

The December 6, 1961 issue of the "Miami Herald", a daily newspaper, contained an article reflecting that the Dade County, Florida NAACP had 1,000 members.

On July 7, 1964, MM T-4 advised that ISAAC DANTZIG had received literature from the "Committee of 100", NAACP Legal Defense and Educational Fund, Inc., 10 Columbus Circle, New York, New York. MM T-4 was unable to furnish any other information in this regard.

DANTZIG has been previously characterized as Miami CP Organizer in 1964.

B.) Southern Christian Leadership Conference (SCLC)

In connection with another investigative matter in September of 1962, Reverend EDWARD T. GRAHAM, Pastor, Mt. Zion Baptist Church, Miami, furnished a Statement of Experience reflecting he was a past President of the Miami Branch of the NAACP, a Board member of the SCLC, and still active in both organizations.

On September 28, 1964, Reverend EDWARD T. GRAHAM advised a Special Agent of the Federal Bureau of Investigation (FBI) that he would attend the SCLC convention from September 29 to October 2, 1964, at Savannah, Georgia.

The February 16, 1947 issue of the "Miami Times", a daily newspaper, reflected that a Reverend E. GRAHAM was recently elected Vice-President of the Fourth District Council of the Southern Conference for Human Welfare (SCHW).

The 1947 Miami City Directory lists only one EDWARD GRAHAM, as follows:

"EDWARD T. GRAHAM, colored, Vice-President, Southern Conference for Human Welfare, resides 1854 Northwest 64th Street".

The SCHW is characterized in the Appendix of this report.

On March 4, 1949, MM T-5 advised that a Reverend EDWARD GRAHAM was one of the speakers at a rally of the Civil Rights Congress held at 3901 Northwest Second Avenue, Miami, on that date.

The Civil Rights Congress is an organization designated by the Attorney General of the United States, pursuant to Executive Order 10450.

On November 27, 1952, MM T-6 advised that a Reverend GRAHAM was one of the speakers at a mass meeting held on January 26, 1952 at the JCC, Miami Beach, Florida. The meeting was concerned with raising funds for the defense of JULIUS and ETHEL ROSENBERG.

On November 27, 1952, MM T-6 advised that a Reverend GRAHAM was urging the minister of a local Unitarian Church to have a "Save the ROSENBERGs" meeting at that church.

JULIUS and ETHEL ROSENBERG were executed by the United States in June of 1953, following their violation and conviction of the Espionage Statute of the United States.

EMMA LAZARUS FEDERATION OF JEWISH WOMEN'S CLUB
(ELF)
(MIAMI, FLORIDA)

A source in Miami, Florida, advised on May 21, 1964, that there are presently three Emma Lazarus Federation of Jewish Women's Clubs (ELF) in the Miami area with a total membership of approximately 120.

This source advised that the Town Club and Miami Beach Club were formed sometime prior to 1953, exact dates unknown.

The third and newest club, the English Speaking Club, which meets at Miami Beach, was formed on September 20, 1960.

This source also stated that the three clubs are presently affiliated with the national organization of the ELF.

EMMA LAZARUS FEDERATION OF JEWISH WOMEN'S CLUBS

"The Jewish Fraternalist" dated October, 1947, self-identified as the official publication of the Jewish People's Fraternal Order (JPFO) of the International Workers Order (IWO), on page 6, contained an article which disclosed that the Emma Lazarus Division (ELD) of the JPFO was to hold its first national convention in New York City on November 15 and 16, 1947, after having been first established at a National Women's Conference called three years previously by the JPFO.

The "Morning Freiheit" on January 25, 1951, contained a report of the National Convention of the ELD of the JPFO which took place in New York City on January 20 and 21, 1951. At this convention it was noted that the ELD changed its name to Emma Lazarus Federation of Jewish Women's Clubs (ELF) and adopted a new constitution.

On April 25, 1963, a source advised that the ELF is one of several mass organizations comprising the Jewish cultural progressive movement. June Gordon, ELF Executive Director, who is a member of the New York State Communist Party (CP) Board and Committee, is the leading force in the organization, whose leadership is largely made up of communists.

The source stated that the ELF claims to be for peace and interested in protecting the rights of the foreign born. It is against the Ben Gurion Government of Israel, bomb testing, anti-Semitism, Negro discrimination, and the rearmament of West Germany.

The source related that the ELF renders support to and receives support from the "Morning Freiheit" and other Jewish progressive organizations.

The source also stated that the ELF is recognized by the CP, USA, as an important progressive national organization of women.

The address of the national office of the ELF is 160 Fifth Avenue, Room 911, New York City.

The IWO and JPFO have been designated pursuant to Executive Order 10450.

The "Guide to Subversive Organizations and Publications," revised and published as of December 1, 1961, to supersede Guide published on January 2, 1957, prepared and released by the Committee on Un-American Activities, United States House of Representatives, Washington, D. C., contains the following concerning the "Morning Freiheit":

> "1. A 'Communist Yiddish daily' (Attorney General Francis Biddle, Congressional Record, September 24, 1942, p. 7686).
> "2. 'The Freiheit has been one of the rankest organs of Communist propaganda in this country for almost a quarter of a century.' (Special Committee on un-American Activities House Report 1311 on the CIO Political Action Committee, March 29, 1944, p. 75)."

JEWISH CULTURAL CENTER (JCC)

The records of the Circuit Court, Dade County, Miami, Florida, reflect that articles of corporation were filed by the Jewish Cultural Center (JCC) and on July 13, 1949, a charter was granted it. The JCC was established as a corporation "not for profit". The general nature of the object of the JCC is to preserve and extend Jewish culture, including, without limitations, educational, theatrical, musical, scientific and literary activities.

On July 27, 1953, a source advised it is his opinion that the JCC is a local "progressive" organization not directly connected with the Communist Party, USA (CP); that the JCC was started by some local members of the CP but not, in his opinion, at the orders of the CP; and that he believes the JCC was formed in order to provide a meeting place for "progressive Jewish groups".

The source advised on January 5, 1955, that the JCC continues to act as a meeting place for "progressive Jewish groups" in the Miami area, and to rent space to any group meeting that qualification. He further advised the JCC in itself is not a Communist front organization but does permit such organizations to hold meetings at the Center.

On May 21, 1964, another source advised that the JCC is dominated by Communist Party sympathizers, and it continues to permit Communist front organizations to hold meetings in the Center.

PROGRESSIVE LABOR MOVEMENT
Also known as Progressive Labor Party
"PROGRESSIVE LABOR"

A source advised on July 2, 1962, that Progressive Labor groups held a conference in New York City on July 1, 1962, where Milton Rosen acted as chairman. He read a statement at this conference setting forth their intention to form a new Marxist-Leninist party in the United States. Rosen stated that a more formal organization was necessary, one which would provide a framework for all who wanted to join in a united effort to build an American vanguard. The forces of this new organization are to consolidate all existing forces around Progressive Labor and organize additional forces, expand and improve political activities, win additional forces to an outlook of Marxism-Leninism and increase the open advocacy of socialism, develop a significant Marxist-Leninist program for the new party, and organize a collective organization of leaders and members.

"The Worker", an east coast communist newspaper, issue of January 7, 1962, page ten, column three, reported the expulsion of Milton Rosen, former Labor Secretary of the New York State Communist Party, United States of America.

A second and third source advised in February, 1963, that this new Marxist-Leninist party had not yet been organized on a formal basis, but that Progressive Labor groups had been formed in several localities in line with the proposals of Milton Rosen. The sources advised as of February, 1963, that the leaders of this group were referring to it as the Progressive Labor Movement.

A fourth source advised on March 15, 1964, that the Progressive Labor Movement follows, supports and is politically orientated toward the Communist Party line of Red China rather than that of the Soviet Union.

A fifth source advised on March 28, 1964, that at a Progressive Labor Movement meeting held in New York City on that date, it was announced that the Progressive Labor Movement would try to hold a national convention in New York City in September, 1964, to organize the Progressive Labor Movement on a more formal basis into a Progressive Labor Party.

The fifth source also advised that the Progressive Labor Movement publishes a monthly magazine called "Progressive Labor" and also a quarterly theoretical publication called the "Marxist-Leninist Quarterly". The source also advised that starting June 1, 1964, the Progressive Labor Movement would start publishing a weekly newspaper in New York City.

The March, 1964, issue of "Progressive Labor" sets forth that it is published monthly by the Progressive Labor Company, General Post Office Box 808, Brooklyn 1, New York.

APPENDIX

SOUTHERN CONFERENCE EDUCATIONAL FUND, INC. (SCEF)

"The Southern Patriot", a monthly publication, shows it is published by the Southern Conference Educational Fund, Inc. (SCEF).

"The Southern Patriot" was cited as an "organ of the Southern Conference for Human Welfare" (SCHW) by the Committee on Un-American Activities, House Report 592, on the SCHW, June 12, 1947.

The SCHW was cited as a communist front by the Committee on Un-American Activities, House Report 592, June 16, 1947.

An amendment to the charter of the SCHW changed the name of that organization to the SCEF, and listedits purpose as being to improve the educational and cultural standards of the southern people in accordance with the highest American democratic institutions, traditions, and ideals. The amendment was dated April 26, 1946.

A source advised on March 2, 1961, that CLAUDE LIGHTFOOT, a CP functionary, stated at a meeting of the CP in Baltimore, Maryland, on February 25, 1961, that the CP is not connected with any progressive movement but indirectly they do have some influence in the SCEF.

A second source, who is familiar with some phases of CP activity in the New Orleans area, advised on May 27, 1963, that during the time the SCHW was in existence, CP members have not been encouraged to work in the SCEF.

The source stated the SCEF is a progressive, liberal organization, which he considers a CP front organization because it has gone along with the CP on certain issues, particularly on the racial question.

SOUTHERN CONFERENCE FOR HUMAN WELFARE (SCHW)

The "Guide to Subversive Organizations and Publications", revised and published December 1, 1961, prepared and released by the Committee on Un-American Activities, United States House of Representatives, Washington, D. > "Cited as a Communist-front organization 'which seeks to attract southern liberals on the basis of its seeming interest in the problems of the South' although its 'professed interest in southern welfare is simply an expedient for larger aims serving the Soviet Union and its subservient Communist Party in the United States.'"

Character: INTERNAL SECURITY - C

Synopsis: On 4/20/63, members of the Young Socialist Alliance (YSA) of Boston, and the Boston Action Group (BAG) participated in the picket line when President KENNEDY spoke at Boston College, Newton, Mass. Participants in this picket line on 4/20/63 protested treatment of and the problems confronting the Negro at Greenwood, Mississippi. EDWARD TEIXEIRA, Chairman of Youth Organization, District Committee, Communist Party (CP), USA, New England District, who was identified in 1964 as a member of the CP National Negro Commission, along with others from the District Committee and CP clubs in the Boston area took an active part in arranging for a MEDGAR EVERS Memorial demonstration to be held on the Boston Common. At a District Committee meeting held on 6/23/63 in Chelsea, Mass. ARNOLD JOHNSON stated the Party was taking an active role in the struggle for Negro civil rights and that demonstrations would continue throughout the country until the Negro obtained equal civil rights. At a District Committee meeting on 7/28/63 at Chelsea, Mass. ARNOLD JOHNSON insisted that the CP must participate in the March on Washington. On 8/11/63 at an outing held for New England CP members, a collection was taken up, a portion of which was to be used for CP defense and a portion to go to the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People (NAACP) for the March on Washington. ANNE BURLAK TIMPSON, treasurer, District Committee, CPUSA, New England District, was included among those who went from the Boston area to the March on Washington. On 11/15/63 a picket line organized by the Socialist Workers Party (SWP), Boston in the name of and in support of the Committee to Aid the Monroe Defendants (CAMD), was held at Harvard University, Cambridge, Massachusetts when North Carolina

Governor TERRY SANFORD was the featured speaker. ANNE BURLAK TIMPSON announced at a meeting of the District Committee on 5/17/64 that a drive was being conducted to raise $10,000.00 to organize a "Freedom Newspaper" in Boston. She stated a corporation was being formed with several civil rights leaders as members and that the newspaper would go on sale during 10/64. On 6/10/63 ANNE BURLAK TIMPSON said the CP had one of its female members in the NAACP leadership in Boston. [redacted] b6 b7C is the New England representative of the Student Non-Violent Coordinating Committee (SNCC). I. COMMUNIST STRATEGY

A. COMMUNIST PARTY, USA (CPUSA)

An enlarged meeting of the District Committee, Communist Party (CP), USA, New England District, was held on March 10, 1963 at Chelsea, Massachusetts, and among those present were [redacted] and GUS HALL. The latter in speaking at this meeting stated that youth was the most important area the CP had to work in today. He told those present that unemployment in regard to youth, particularly among Negroes, was an important thing for them to be concerned with. b6 b7C

(BS T-1, March 13, 1963)

[redacted] of the CPUSA) b6 b7C

(BS T-2, August 2, 1962)

GUS HALL is General Secretary of the CPUSA.

(BS T-2, May 7, 1962)

A meeting of the North Shore Section, CPUSA, New England District, was held March 25, 1963 at Lynn, Massachusetts, and on that occasion JAMES BOLLEN gave a report on Negro housing. BOLLEN stated he tried to get some of the Negroes where he works interested in forming or participating in a fair housing committee, but they were afraid to associate with a communist, and he was finding it difficult to find people to work on this committee. BOLLEN also stated to those present at this meeting that their work with Negroes was one of the most important phases of their activity.

(BS T-1, April 19, 1963)

JAMES BOLLEN was identified on February 14, 1963 as a then member of the Executive Board, North Shore Section, CPUSA, New England District.

(BS T-3, February 14, 1963)

The North Shore Section, CPUSA, New England District in the Spring of 1963 was making plans to hold a meeting concerning the registration of Negro voters in Mississippi and Alabama with the speaker to be TRUMAN NELSON who had agreed to participate.

(BS T-3, May 11, 1963)

CP MEMBER

Upon interview on September 21, 1950 TRUMAN NELSON, an employee of the River Works Plant, General Electric Co., Lynn, Massachusetts, admitted membership in the CP from approximately 1935 to 1940. NELSON stated that he had been involved in no CP or front activity since that time and described himself as too rebellious to be acceptable to the CP.

[redacted] b6 b7C b7D

Spetember, 1950.)

At a meeting of the Executive Board of the North Shore Section, CPUSA, New England District, held May 9, 1963 at Lynn, Massachusetts, the possibility was discussed of holding a proposed meeting concerning the registration of Southern Negro voters at Lynn.

(BS T-3, May 21, 1963)

At a meeting of the District Committee, CPUSA, New England District, held on May 19, 1963 at Chelsea, Massachusetts, one item on the agenda concerned "Negro Liberation." At this meeting ANNE BURLAK TIMPSON gave a report on a mass meeting which took place at the Boston Common on May 12, 1963 in support of civil rights demonstration in Birmingham, Alabama. She said it was the largest demonstration she had seen in years. She related she had received 1000 copies of a pamphlet from New York which were given out to the marchers, and that many more could have been given out if they were available at that time. She said she met many Negro people who participated in the March prior to the meeting whom she had not seen for a number of years. None were reluctant to speak to her, but rather instead were very gracious.

She said she took particular notice to see whether the people threw the pamphlets away and noticed that they kept them and read them.

The pamphlet given out was a Party pamphlet believed to be a reprint of BENJAMIN DAVIS' story in the February issue of "Political Affairs" on the Negro issue in the South. At this meeting on May 19, 1963, plans were made to order copies of the pamphlet so that each section of the Party could mail out some to Negro people in its particular area.

Thereafter a discussion at this meeting on May 19, 1963 took place on the Nation of Islam (NOI). The consensus was that it could be very harmful and the CP should not favor the NOI. It was agreed that Rev. MARTIN LUTHER KING was correct in trying to advance the Negro people by means of peaceful resistance although violence may eventually come about. It was further agreed that the Muslims with their attitude could not win support from the white people.

(BS T-3, May 21, 1963)

"Political Affairs" is a self-described theoretical organ of the CPUSA.

A characterization of the NOI is contained in the appendix hereto.

ANNE BURLAK TIMPSON is a member of the District Committee, CPUSA and is serving as Treasurer of the District Committee, New England District, CPUSA.

(BS T-4, June 14, 1963)

BENJAMIN DAVIS on May 6, 1962 while addressing the Crown Heights Forum in Brooklyn, New York identified himself as the National Secretary of the CPUSA.

(BS T-5, May 7, 1963)

A meeting of the District Committee, CPUSA, was held on June 23, 1963 at Chelsea, Massachusetts, at which time the agenda included a discussion on the Negro struggle. At this meeting [redacted], who was present, in his report stated that the Black Muslims are creating serious damage to the Negro cause. No plan of action by the Party to solve the Negro problem was brought up at this meeting however. CP MEMBER

(BS T-4, June 28, 1963)

At the above mentioned meeting on June 23, 1963, EDWARD TEIXEIRA said that he along with some of other members of the District Committee and the CP groups in the Boston area were taking an active part in making arrangements for a MEDGAR EVERS Memorial demonstration scheduled to be held June 26, 1963 on the Boston Common.

TEIXEIRA also said that the CP membership as part of a general committee pushed for a 24 hour protest stoppage by all Negro workers in the Boston area. According to TEIXEIRA, the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People (NAACP) was against the 24 hour stoppage but went along with the idea of the demonstration on the way to the Boston Common for the EVERS Memorial.

TEIXEIRA stated that copies of "The Worker" editorial on the Negro rights issue and GUS HALL's article on Negro civil rights would be distributed at the EVERS service on the Boston Common.

ANNE BURLAK TIMPSON stated at this meeting on June 23, 1963 that she had been close to the Negro situation in Boston. She stated that at a recent Negro demonstration comrades from the various CP groups had handed out more than 250 copies of the editorial from "The Worker" concerning Negro rights. She mentioned that the EVERS Memorial demonstration had been well organized, and that the above mentioned editorial along with GUS HALL's article would be handed out to all attending the demonstration. She also stated that the EVERS demonstration was so important that ARNOLD JOHNSON should use his influence to send a reporter from "The Worker" to cover the demonstration. She also claimed that the Party is playing a very important part in the struggle for Negro rights and that these demonstrations must go on.

At the District Committee meeting on June 23, 1963, JOSEPH COSTA, who was also present, stated that he was part of a labor group in the Fall River, Massachusetts area who voted to allow equal opportunity for the Negro in being selected for trade apprentices, and being hired by local contractors on all levels.

TEIXEIRA said that he knew of no such action in Fall River and wondered why the same type of leadership could not be recruited in the Boston area.

[redacted] reported at this meeting on June 23, 1963, that at the recent National Committee meeting of the CP in New York it was voted to put top priority on the Negro struggle for civil rights. b6 b7C

[redacted] stated that the Party is taking an active role in the struggle for Negro civil rights and that demonstrations will continue throughout the country until Negro do obtain equal civil rights. He stated that President KENNEDY's recent talk on civil rights was encouraging, but that he would rather see Negro civil rights obtained under socialized government. He stated that if the Negroes obtained civil rights and integration under a capitalist system the Party will have gained very little. b6 b7C

[redacted] stated that inasmuch as the Party in New England is taking such an active part in the EVERS Memorial demonstration he was sure he could prevail on JAMES JACKSON of "The Worker" to send TED BASSETT, a top reporter for "The Worker" to cover the demonstration. b6 b7C

On August 11, 1963, an outing was held for New England CP members, their families and their friends at the home of OTIS HOOD in Holbrook, Massachusetts. At this affair ANNE BURLAK TIMPSON suggested to thos present that they should see her if they intended to participate in the March on Washington. She, however, urged all to make an effort to go to Washington through their own organizations rather than through the CP so as not to hinder the NAACP's chances for success. At this outing $460.00 was collected, a portion of which was to be used by the CP defense and a portion to go to the NAACP for the March on Washington fund - the exact apportionment being unknown.

A meeting of the District Committee, CPUSA, New England District was held September 8, 1963 at Chelsea, Massachusetts. ANNE BURLAK TIMPSON spoke about various recent events in the Boston area in which the CP had played a part. Among those she mentioned being concerned with the Negro people were a demonstration on the Boston Common and the march preceding it; the MEDGAR EVERS Memorial on the Boston Common; school boycott at which students stayed away from school for one day; efforts of Negroes to obtain work in various industries, and a meeting held on the North Shore attended by both Negro and white to enlighten people about the Negro struggle.

In speaking at this meeting on September 8, 1963, GUS HALL said that many of the leaders of the Negro movement are socialists and are accepted by the American people even though they are socialists.

(BS T-3, September 21, 1963)

A meeting of the North Shore Section, CPUSA, New England District, was held on September 26, 1963 in Lynn, Massachusetts. During the meeting a discussion was held on the Washington, D. C. Freedom March and also concerning the march and memorial demonstration for the victims on the Birmingham, Alabama church bombing. This latter mentioned march was held at Lynn, Massachusetts on September 22, 1963. Several of the North Shore Section members mentioned they attended the gathering in Lynn on September 22, 1963.

A discussion concerning housing for Negroes in Lynn, Massachusetts was also held at the meeting of September 26, 1963, but no decisions were made.

(BS T-1, October 10, 1963)

On October 3, 1963, a meeting of the Executive Board, North Shore Section, CPUSA, New England District, was held in Lynn, Massachusetts. At this meeting VIC PIEKARSKI spent some time in telling of a talk he had with ABNER DARBY, head of the Lynn Chapter of the NAACP. Their talk concerned Negro housing in the Lynn area. On October 20, 1963, a meeting of the District Committee, CPUSA, New England District, was held at Chelsea, Massachusetts. ANNE BURLAK TIMPSON spoke about the recent Boston Municipal Primary election in which MELVIN KING, a Negro, was a candidate for the Boston School Committee. She told those present that anything they could do in the way of funds for KING would be appreciated by him. TIMPSON said that they had plans for contacting a lot of people in the Boston district on behalf of KING. LEWIS MARTIN JOHNSON, who was present at this meeting of October 20, 1963, mentioned that he went out one evening and was able to obtain some funds for KING.

At the above meeting ARNOLD JOHNSON gave a report on a recent National Committee meeting of the CP. According to JOHNSON, GUS HALL in reporting at the National Committee meeting told about the Party work on youth, civil rights and the Negro. ARNOLD JOHNSON further mentioned that BENJAMIN DAVIS in speaking at the National Committee meeting talked entirely on civil rights and said that the CP in the south must be built up.

A meeting of the North Shore Section, CPUSA, New England District, was held on October 21, 1963 at Lynn, Massachusetts. VIC PIEKARSKI told about various conversations he had with ABNER DARBY concerning Negro matters.

ARNOLD JOHNSON, who was present at this meeting, said DARBY was the kind of man the CP wanted, but PIEKARSKI said he did not think there was any chance of getting him into the Party. JOHNSON suggested that DARBY be sent an invitation to the Boston Jewish People's Forum (BJPF) when BENJAMIN DAVIS is the speaker.

(BS T-3, October 25, 1963)

A characterization of the BJPF is contained in the appendix hereto.

On November 3, 1963, a meeting of the BJPF was held at Dorchester (Boston), Massachusetts and on this occasion ANNE BURLAK TIMPSON passed out campaign literature for MELVIN KING.

(BS T-7, November 5, 1963)

OTIS HOOD on January 11, 1964 said that BENJAMIN DAVIS was scheduled to speak on January 12, 1964 at the BJPF. At the forum DAVIS was going to discuss the course to be taken to organize anti-McCarran and Smith Act groups throughout the country to bring before the American public the dangers of these two acts to the freedom of American civil rights.

(BS T-6, January 24, 1964)

In speaking on January 12, 1964 at the meeting of the BJPF held at the Town and Country Club, Dorchester, Massachusetts, BENJAMIN DAVIS, a negro, during his talk declared himself as a communist, but was not going to register as such.

DAVIS further stated that the Negro people, labor and communist Russia want the same thing, namely, peaceful co-existence and peaceful competition.

(BS T-7, January 17, 1964)

On January 16, 1964 a social was held at 61 Ormond St., Mattapan (Boston), Massachusetts, and among those present were EDWARD TEIXEIRA and MELVIN KING, a Negro who had been defeated as a candidate for the Boston School Committee. Some of the talk at this affair concerned the recent unsuccessful campaign by KING, and also concerned so-called social injustices.

(BS T-7, January 17, 1964)

On February 6, 1964, during a meeting of the Executive Board, North Shore Section, CPUSA, New England District, held in Lynn, Massachusetts, VIC PIEKARSKI mentioned he talked to a minister of an Inter-Faith Committee concerning Negro work in Lynn. He further stated he would have to see ABNER DARBY, head of the Lynn Chapter, NAACP, and try to work out a program with him on housing for the Negro people.

(BS T-3, February 14, 1964)

On February 9, 1964, a Marxist School was held CPMEMBER at Chelsea, Massachusetts, under the direction of HYMAN LUMER. During the afternoon session LUMER lectured on the Negro question and at that time discussed what was termed exploitation, and a suppression of Negroes in the United States. He stated that the fight for peace, labor and the Negro freedom movement is all directed against anti-monoply capital. He further declared that the success of the Negro struggle depends on unifying it with the class struggle and on the sharpness of the contradictions within capitalism at any given time.

A two day meeting of the National Negro Commission, CPUSA, was held at Chicago, Illinois, February 22-23, 1964. Among those in attendance was an individual from Boston, Massachusetts named "TEX", and subsequently identified by the below mentioned source on March 18, 1964 as EDWARD TEIXEIRA.

The first session held on February 22, 1964 was opened by BENJAMIN DAVIS. DAVIS described the meeting as extremely important and said he hoped to have a frank, candid discussion on problems facing the CP in its work among the Negro people. He stated the agenda would consist of a report from him dealing with elections in the south, and that reports would be given from the various CP districts concerning civil rights, the Negro, youth and labor. DAVIS commented that the role of the CP is to cement Negro-white unity and that the whole democratic process is on trial. He stated that the CP is not in a position to solve the many organizational questions concerning the Negro movement, but that the CP can establish a secure base in this movement as it develops and demonstrates a sound line of policy.

BENJAMIN DAVIS again spoke at the second session of this meeting held on February 23, 1964, stating that the National Executive Committee, CPUSA, had discussed the work of the Negro Commission and that several problems had arisen. He stated it was agreed a Steering Committee should be established for the National Negro Commission to coordinate the work of the over-all Negro Commission. He said it was possible that he, DAVIS, would be Chairman of such a Steering Committee. He further stated that among the names of individuals stated for the over-all Negro Commission was "TEX" from Boston, but, however, said no action was taken on the matter at that time.

and March 18, 1964)

At the two day meeting of the National Negro Commission, CPUSA, held at Chicago, Illinois, February 22-23, 1964, those in attendance included BENJAMIN DAVIS, GUS HALL, ARNOLD JOHNSON, WILLIAM PATTERSON and an individual from Boston, Massachusetts named "TEX", subsequently identified by source referred to below on March 12, 1964 as EDWARD TEIXEIRA.

BENJAMIN DAVIS gave the main report at the session of February 22, 1964 based on the 1964 elections, the South and the current struggle and expansion of the National Negro Commission. It appeared from reports given at this session that the entire idea of the meeting was to expand the National Negro Commission and increase its activity in mass movements by attempting to influence more and more people.

(BS T-13, February 11, 1963)

The March 12, 1964 edition of the "Dorchester-Roxbury Record", a weekly newspaper published in the Dorchester-Roxbury section of Boston, Massachusetts, announced that WILLIAM L. PATTERSON on March 15, 1964 would speak at the BJPF on the topic of "The White Community's Role in the Struggle for Civil Rights."

On the morning of March 15, 1964 in speaking at the meeting of the BJPF held at the Town and Country Club, WILLIAM PATTERSON, a Negro, stated that he is a communist and has been for sometime.

(BS T-7, March 17, 1964)

During the afternoon of March 15, 1964, a meeting of the District Committee, CPUSA, New England District, was held at 61 Dartmouth St., Boston, Massachusetts which was attended by WILLIAM PATTERSON, among others. At this meeting PATTERSON urged all the District Committee members to make every effort to obtain new subscriptions for "The Worker."

EDWARD TEIXEIRA in speaking at this meeting stated that any activity such as a District Committee meeting could not be held at his home since he did not want to jeopardize his position in the NAACP by having a CP meeting at his home.

(BS T-6, March 18, 1964)

On Sunday morning, April 12, 1964, a meeting of the BJPF was held at Dorchester, Massachusetts during which HERBERT APTHEKER spoke on "Prospects for Socialism in America." The Chairman of the BJPF introduced APTHEKER prior to his talk stating that APTHEKER was a leading Marxist and a person who had written many Negro history books, some of which were used in "Freedom Schools" and colleges.

(BS T-1, April 17, 1964)

In speaking at the BJPF on April 12, 1964 HERBERT APTHEKER talked about civil rights and spoke of the importance of organizing "freedom groups" throughout the area.

(BS T-6, April 17, 1964)

The March 19, 1963 issue of "Political Affairs" listed HERBERT APTHEKER as its Editor.

On Sunday afternoon, April 12, 1964, a meeting of the District Committee, CPUSA, New England District, was held at 180 Seaver St., Roxbury (Boston), Massachusetts. At this meeting it was mentioned that HERBERT APTHEKER was to speak to a combined audience from the "Freedom Groups" at a church in Dorchester that afternoon.

ELIZABETH GURLEY FLYNN from New York who was present at the District Committee meeting gave a report on a National Executive meeting of the Party which was held recently. ANNE BURLAK TIMPSON at this District Committee meeting talked about how she, in an effort to obtain subscriptions to "The Worker", had visited several people. She further mentioned she did obtain subscriptions and most of the people she visited were Negroes active in the freedom movement.

TIMPSON also reported that a memorial meeting for WILLIAM HARRISON, a Negro, will not be held until next fall. She said that letters have been sent out to obtain sponsors in connection with the memorial and it is hoped a scholarship or scholarships will be given as a memorial. Plans are to have essay contests in public schools in Boston, according to TIMPSON.

(BS T-3, April 17, 1964)

ELIZABETH GURLEY FLYNN is National Chairman of the CPUSA.

(BS T-2, January 13, 1964)

ARMANDO PENHA, a former member of the CP, on December 14, 1955 identified WILLIAM HARRISON as a then member of the New England District Committee, CPUSA, District #1.

At the District Committee meeting held on April 12, 1964 it was mentioned that EDDIE TEIXEIRA was not present as he had made arrangements for HERBERT APTHEKER to speak to "Freedom Groups" at a church in Boston and he, TEIXEIRA, was going to be at the church.

(BS T-1, April 17, 1964)

At the District Committee meeting of April 12, 1964, during a discussion concerning "The Worker" Fund Drive. It was voted to send copies of "The Worker" to ten or twenty active civil rights members of the NAACP with a subscription card in the same envelope.

CP MEMBER

A meeting was held May 16, 1964 at the home of Vic Piekarski, Lynn, Massachusetts to discuss the role of the CP in the civil rights movement and the political situation in Massachusetts. After much discussion, those present decided that they of the North Shore should support all civil rights movements wherever they could. PIEKARSKI criticized "The Worker" on the Negro freedom role and said he did not agree with some of JAMES JACKSON's article.

ARNOLD JOHNSON was also present at this meeting on May 16, 1964. In discussing the political situation in Massachusetts he said he thought they should enlist all pressure possible to get Attorney General EDWARD BROOKE, a Negro, the nomination as Governor. Everyone present, however, felt BROOKE would seek the position of Attorney General again and was not interested in the Governor's office. JOHNSON thought BROOKE could still be swayed if enough pressure was put on him.

In commenting on the lack of action by unions ARNOLD JOHNSON said that because there is not militant leadership by the CP members in the unions there is no political action and a small role in the Negro struggle by the unions.

(BS T-3, May 28, 1964)

At the meeting of May 16, 1964, ARNOLD JOHNSON said he felt that if BROOKE ran for Governor in Massachusetts it would give impetus to the Negro struggle all over the country.

(BS T-1, May 28, 1964)

A two day meeting of the National Negro Commission, CPUSA, was held at New York, New York, May 16, 17, 1964. Included among those in attendance was EDWARD TEIXEIRA of Boston, Massachusetts.

(BS T-10, June 17, 1964)

At a meeting of the District Committee, CPUSA, New England District, held May 17, 1964 at Chelsea, Massachusetts, it was mentioned that EDWARD TEIXEIRA was unable to attend this meeting because he was in attendance in New York at a meeting of the Negro Commission, CPUSA.

(BS T-3, May 21, 1964)

MASS' CP MEMBER

At the District Committee meeting held on May 17, 1964, ANNE BURLAK TIMPSON brought up "The Worker" Fund Drive. She said she expected to raise more funds at an affair for HENRY WINSTON which was to be held on June 13, 1964 at the Community Church in Boston. She said WINSTON would arrive in Boston on June 12, 1964 and that arrangements were being made for leaders of civil rights groups and the NAACP to meet with WINSTON. She further related on Saturday morning, June 13, 1964, it was hoped that a press conference would be held for WINSTON and these arrangements were being made by OTIS HOOD and herself.

TIMPSON went on to say in Boston there are now no Negro newspapers and a drive was in progress to raise $10,000.00 in the Boston area to organize a "Freedom Newspaper." In this connection a corporation was being formed with several civil rights leaders as members of the corporation - the name of the corporation being "The Negro Freedom Newspaper Corp." According to her this newspaper would go on sale during October, 1964. TIMPSON further stated that the corporation has contacted a man in New York who is very close to JAMES JACKSON of "The Worker." TIMPSON said she had been in touch with this man and he told her the corporation will have to pay him $10,000.00 salary to secure his services as Editor, otherwise he will stay in New York.

(BS T-6, May 25, 1964)

At a meeting of the National Committee of the CPUSA, on August 12 and 13, 1961, HENRY WINSTON was elected a member of that Committee, the National Executive Committee and Vice Chairman of the Party.

(BS T-11, August 12, 13, 1961)

A leaflet was sent through the mail announcing that a reception for HENRY WINSTON would be held on Saturday evening, June 13, 1964 at the Community Church Center, 565 Boylston St., Boston, Massachusetts. In this leaflet WINSTON was described as a "dynamic communist spokesman" and it was mentioned he had just returned from an extended tour of the Soviet Union and other European Socialist countries. According to this leaflet this reception was for the benefit of "The Worker" which is celebrating its 40th anniversary this year.

(BS T-7, June 18, 1964)

At the reception held on June 13, 1964 at the Community Church Center in Boston, OTIS HOOD welcomed HENRY WINSTON and said that the latter had always been a leader in the struggle for civil liberties, Negro freedom and peace. WINSTON, a Negro, in speaking told about his arrest under the Smith Act and his subsequent imprisonment. He also mentioned how he had started to become blind while in prison. WINSTON further mentioned how he had fought the Smith Act and the McCarran Act, and that he considered them as being undemocratic.

At the reception ANNE BURLAK TIMPSON took up a collection for "The Worker", and her daughter and a young Negro man entertained those present with a variety of songs including "freedom songs."

(BS T-6, June 17, 1964)

At the reception on June 13, 1964, HENRY WINSTON spoke on the Negro liberation struggle, and mentioned that there are more whites joining the struggle to bring equality to the Negro people.

At this affair ANNE BURLAK TIMPSON gave a collection speech for "The Worker" and told how it was the 40th anniversary of the paper and funds were necessary.

(BS T-3, June 18, 1964)

At an enlarged meeting of the District Committee, CPUSA, New England District, held in Chelsea, Massachusetts on June 14, 1964, HENRY WINSTON, who was present at the meeting, mentioned that he had held a press conference on the previous day and TV Channel 2, Boston had covered it. WINSTON said that during this conference he was asked very polite questions and he also declared that the tendency of a nationalist movement is to create racism.

EDWARD W. BROOKE MASS.

NEGRO

ARNOLD JOHNSON who was present at this meeting of the District Committee brought up the issue of whether it would be a good idea to get EDWARD BROOKE to run for Governor of Massachusetts. EDDIE TEIXEIRA reported within the Negro community it was felt it would be putting BROOKE against another liberal, Governor ENDICOTT PEABODY and this would split the liberal vote. ANNE BURLAK TIMPSON mentioned that there were other Negro candidates running for office including NOEL DAY, an independent running for Congress against Speaker of the House JOHN McCORMACK.

(BS T-1, June 16, 1964)

EDWARD TEIXEIRA was currently serving as campaign manager for JOHN D. O'BRYANT, a Negro, who was running as a candidate for the Massachusetts House of Representatives from Ward 14, Boston, Massachusetts.

(BS T-7, July 14, 1964)

EDWARD TEIXEIRA is considered to be a member of the CP National Negro Commission because of his attendance at the National Negro Commission meetings held in Chicago, Illinois on February 22-23, 1964 and on May 16-17, 1964.

(BS T-10, July 28, 1964)

On August 30, 1964, a picnic was held at the home of LEWIS MARTIN JOHNSON, 66 Morse St., Sharon, Massachusetts. Some of those present included JOHNSON, OTIS HOOD and ANNE BURLAK TIMPSON. A young student who had spent the summer in the south spoke of his work and on the registration of Negro voters. He told of his work in Mississippi and the obstacles they met from some of the white people there. He said that they are now organized to keep people for the whole year round to work on this project.

(BS T-3, September 15, 1964)

At the picnic held on August 30, 1964 which was held to raise funds to fight the MaCarran Act, a white male speaker was present. This individual who had recently been in the south told of his experiences in Mississippi and the difficulty in helping Negrces to register to vote. A resolution was passed to give this speaker $25.00 for his expenses.

(BS T-1, September 15, 1964)

At the picnic on August 30, 1964, LEWIS MARTIN JOHNSON mentioned they had lost one of their beloved comrades, namely BENJAMIN DAVIS. ANNE BURLAK TIMPSON told how she had attended DAVIS' funeral. TIMPSON further mentioned she had met DAVIS in Georgia during the 1930s when he was her defense attorney at a time she was charged with Sedition under a Georgia state law. She said this set a precedent because it was the first time in the history of the State of Georgia that a Negro attorney had represented a white woman.

TIMPSON at the outing thereafter introduced a white male Student Non-Violent Coordinating Committee (SNCC) worker who talked about his participation in the recent voter registration in Mississippi.

The SNCC worker claimed that the Freedom Democratic Party had achieved a great victory at the recent Democratic National Convention because it forced President JOHNSON to get to the National Convention early.

(BS T-7, August 31, 1964)

On September 10, 1964, a meeting of the North Shore Section, CPUSA, New England District, was held at the home of LEWIS GORDON in Lynn, Massachusetts. JOE BRANDT from New York was also present. During a discussion concerning the coming election, VIC PIEKARSKI told those present that he thought they should do what they could to insure the re-election of Attorney General EDWARD BROOKE. BRANDT agreed that they should support BROOKE as he is a Negro and anti-Goldwater.

(BS T-1, September 21, 1964)

On September 13, 1964, a meeting of the District Committee, CPUSA, New England District, was held in Chelsea, Massachusetts, and among those present were ANNE BURLAK TIMPSON, LEWIS MARTIN JOHNSON and JOE BRANDT, from "The Worker."

The agenda included a discussion on the recent deaths of ELIZABETH GURLEY FLYNN and BENJAMIN DAVIS. BRANDT gave a speech in which he said he wanted to assure the people that even though they had lost two leaders within three weeks, namely, the Chairman and Secretary of the Party, they should not be pessimistic. BRANDT suggested to those present that they should have a memorial for ELIZABETH GURLEY FLYNN and said that she had dedicated her life for the past few years fighting the McCarran Act while DAVIS had identified himself with the Negro movement, and he felt that the memorial should just be for her.

ANNE BURLAK TIMPSON said that she felt very close to DAVIS because when she was eighteen years old in 1930 she was arrested in Atlanta, Georgia, as an insurrectionist. Subsequently, in 1932, they made history when he defended her, being the first time a Negro lawyer defended a white girl in the South. According to her, this was before DAVIS had joined the Party. TIMPSON also felt that the memorial should be for both DAVIS and FLYNN.

In discussing the coming election at this District Committee meeting, JOE BRANDT told those present they would have to act very carefully on EDWARD BROOKE's campaign. According to him, they would have to work in such a way as to assure BROOKE's election, and at the same time not support the Republican Party.

During this District Committee meeting it was mentioned that NOEL DAY was running against JOHN McCORMACK. It was further mentioned that he is a Negro and that sixty per cent of the Negroes in Massachusetts live in McCORMACK's district. ANNE BURLAK TIMPSON pointed out, however, that there are a lot of Negroes living in that area who are not against McCORMACK.

MASS.

TIMPSON further mentioned that she was disturbed about EDDIE TEIXEIRA since he feels he would be better off doing mass work and if he did not belong to the Party. He feels that belonging to the Party puts him in a strait jacket. TIMPSON said that TEIXEIRA has made the remark that JESSE GRAY became a leader of the Negro people in New York after he had left the Party. BRANDT in reply said it should be gotten through to TEIXEIRA that JESSE GRAY is not a mass leader for Negroes. BRANDT further stated that if he, TEIXEIRA, knew of some of the quotes that GRAY had made in his talks in New York, he would immediately see that GRAY is not the leader of the Negro people in New York.

A meeting of the SWP, Boston, was held on January 23, 1963, during which it was reported that the above mentioned "Folk Sing" had been held on January 19, 1963, as planned, and that it had been a success with an approximate net gain of $140.00.

(BS T-12, January 8, 1963)

JAMES CHRISTIANSON reported to the SWP, Boston members at a meeting of that group held on January 30, 1963, that he had attended an east coast conference of the CAMD in New York City the preceding weekend and that the important points at this conference were:

1. The CAMD should become a dues paying organization.

2. No new date has been set for the scheduled trial at Monroe, North Carolina.

3. CAMD will possibly take over the legal defense of other individuals in addition to the Monroe defendants.

4. A new booklet written by TRUMAN NELSON relating to the story of the Monroe, North Carolina case is being sold by the CAMD.

(BS T-12, February 1, 1963)

The current officers of the SWP, Boston, included LEONARD GOODMAN as Organizer, JAMES CHRISTIANSON as Secretary and LAWRENCE TRAINOR as Director. GOODMAN, CHRISTIANSON and LAWRENCE TRAINOR, plus one other member, LEE MAYFIELD, who was also Chairman of the Young Socialist Alliance (YSA) of Boston, comprised the Executive Committee of the SWP, Boston.

MASS' SOCIALIST WORKERS PARTY

At a meeting of the SWP, Boston, held on April 24, 1963, LEONARD GOODMAN reported that the SWP, Boston was desirous of arranging public meetings to give the local CAMD Chairman, TRUMAN NELSON, an opportunity to speak concerning the CAMD. LEONARD GOODMAN, the Organizer, also reported that six members of the SWP, Boston, had been appointed by the SWP, Boston Executive Committee to work with the CAMD, Boston.

(BS T-12, April 28, 1963)

At a meeting of the SWP, Boston, held on August 28, 1963, it was reported that a request had been received from the SWP National Headquarters to institute efforts to reactivate the CAMD, Boston, due to the rescheduling of the trial of the Monroe defendants for the fall of 1963. It was further reported that TRUMAN NELSON, Chairman of the CAMD, Boston, would be contacted in this regard.

(BS T-12, September 9, 1963)

At a meeting of the SWP, Boston, held September 4, 1963, it was reported that contact had been had with TRUMAN NELSON in an effort to formulate plans for public meeting for the CAMD with NELSON as one of the featured speakers. NELSON, however, was reported to have stated he was too busy with his writings to become involved in CAMD meetings.

(BS T-12, September 20, 1963)

MASS' SOCIALIST WORKERS PARTY

At a meeting of the SWP, Boston, held January 15, 1964, LAWRENCE TRAINOR stated that any plans to hold a CAMD sponsored public meeting locally had been scrapped. He stated, however, that one of the defendants had been invited to come to Boston and should he come, house parties would be arranged for him with the idea of raising money.

(BS T-12, January 23, 1964)

U.S.A. U.S.A.

At a meeting of the SWP, Boston, held February 26, 1964, LEONARD GOODMAN read a letter from two of the Monroe defendants, namely, HAROLD REAPE and RICHARD CROWDER, to the effect that these two defendants had disassociated themselves from the CAMD and associated with an organization which had been defending MAE MALLORY, another of the Monroe defendants.

GOODMAN stated that the statement from REAPE and CROWDER had been a "complete shock" to the SWP. He further stated that as a result any plans for future activities in support of the CAMD locally had been cancelled.

(BS T-12, March 10, 1964)

At a meeting of the SWP, Boston, held March 25, 1964, it was reported that the CAMD had ceased to function as a result of the above.

(2.) Young Socialist Alliance (YSA)

Unless otherwise indicated, meetings of the YSA of Boston mentioned hereafter were held at the Headquarters of the SWP, Boston, located in Room 200 of the Gainsboro Building, 295 Huntington Avenue, Boston.

A meeting of the YSA of Boston was held on December 18, 1962. During this meeting it was reported that the YSA was turning its forces toward work in civil liberties groups and away from peace groups for the immediate future.

(BS T-12, December 31, 1962)

At a meeting of the SWP, Boston, held January 2, 1963, it was reported that during a three-day meeting in New York City of YSA members from the east coast, it was stated that YSA activities in the Peace movement will slow down and more time would be spent working with Civil Liberties groups, such as SNCC.

(BS T-12, January 8, 1963)

At a meeting of the YSA of Boston held January 8, 1963, a discussion was held concerning the Boston Action Group (BAG), a local group interested in defending racial equality. It was reported that there were approximately forty individuals active in the BAG and a decision was reached to have certain of the YSA, Boston members work with the BAG on the possibility the group might offer potential recruits for the YSA of Boston.

On January 11, 1963, STEVE CHASE reported that the BAG, which he described as a militant civil rights defense group, was the most preferred source of new contacts for the YSA of Boston. He stated that the BAG has picketed several employers who have refused to hire Negroes and was currently waging a campaign against the Bond Bread Company in this regard. According to CHASE, there was a good possibility that the BAG would become a supporting group to SNCC. He noted that the National YSA orientation was to work with SNCC groups and supporter groups. YOUNG SOCIALIST ALLIANCE

At a meeting of the YSA of Boston held on October 5, 1963, BARRY SHEPPARD presented a report on his speaking tour of the Boston area. He stated he spoke on October 2, 1963, at Boston University; on October 3, 1963, at Tufts University, Medford, Massachusetts; and at Brandeis University, Waltham, Massachusetts, on October 4, 1963.

All of the above meetings featuring SHEPPARD were arranged by members of the YSA of Boston and SHEPPARD's talks at all meetings were entitled "Black Nationalism."

The October 9, 1963 edition of the "Boston University News," a weekly newspaper published at Boston University, contained an article entitled "Sheppard Upholds Black Muslim View," which reported that BARRY SHEPPARD, National Chairman of the YSA, spoke on the topic, "Black Nationalism" at Boston University on October 2, 1963.

"The Tufts Weekly," a weekly newspaper published by undergraduates at Tufts University, in its issue of October 11, 1963, carried an article entitled "Black Muslims Seek Socialism Next as Solution to United States Racial Equalities," which reported on a speaking appearance at Tufts University, date not mentioned, by BARRY SHEPPARD, National Chairman of the YSA, on the topic "Black Nationalist Movement."

II. COMMUNIST TACTICS

A. Picket Line
Boston, Massachusetts
January 15, 1963

Between 12:00 Noon and 2:00 p.m., on January 15, 1963, a total of eight individuals, all members of the YSA of Boston, marched in a picket line in front of the Anti-Defamation League (ADL) of the B'nai B'rith, Boston, Massachusetts, carrying signs reading, "ADL REMEMBER WILLIAM WORTHY'S INDICTMENT"; "KENNEDY SPEAKS OF FREEDOM WHILE WORTHY IS JAILED FOR REPORTING THE TRUTH"; "DOES AMERICA'S DEMOCRATIC LEGACY INCLUDE FREEDOM OF THE PRESS?" and "DOES THE DEMOCRATIC LEGACY APPLY TO NEGRO NEWSMEN?" A leaflet was also handed out during the presence of the picket line which in part stated:

"WE PROTEST --

"...the action of the Anti-Defamation League in granting to President Kennedy the American Democratic Legacy Award. We hold that the Prosecution of William Worthy by the Kennedy Administration is incompatible with our democratic legacy.

"Negro newsman, William Worthy, has been convicted of 'illegal re-entry' into his native country. Worthy has been sentenced to prison only because he is an outspoken negro reporter who will not concede that the government has the right to declare certain areas of the world off-limits to journalists. Richard Starnes, syndicated Scripps-Howard columnist, wrote on November 27, 1962 in the New York World-Telegram and Sun:

> "Worthy was indicted and subsequently convicted and sentenced to prison, because of what he wrote about Cuba, not because of any technical violation of the law.

"The prosecution of William Worthy is a blatant denial of the Bill of Rights. The defense of William Worthy, which is the defense of the freedom of the press, the freedom of the citizen to know the truth, and the right of the citizen to travel and to freely return, deserves the support of all groups interested in preserving America's democratic legacy."

The leaflet further mentioned that "The Boston Ad Hoc Committee to Defend William Worthy has answered this call and urges all liberty-loving Americans, colored and white, Jewish and Christian, to Join Our Line."

The above described picket line was peaceful with no incidents developing.

(BS T-12, January 17, 1963)

WILLIAM WORTHY, JR., a reporter for the Baltimore "Afro-American" newspaper, was convicted in the United States District Court, Miami, Florida, on August 8, 1962, for violation of Title 18, Section 1185b, USC, for having traveled from Cuba to Miami, Florida, without a valid passport. WORTHY was sentenced to serve three months in the custody of the United States Attorney General, but was free on bond pending an appeal, and this conviction was subsequently reversed by the United States Fifth Circuit Court of Appeals.

B. Picket Line
Harvard University
Cambridge, Massachusetts
February 4, 1963

On February 4, 1963, members of the SWP, Boston participated with members of the YSA of Boston, the NAACP and also the Young Republican Clubs in a picket line demonstration in front of the Sanders Theater at Harvard University, Cambridge, Massachusetts, against the appearance on that evening of Mississippi Governor ROSS BARNETT.

(BS T-12, February 13, 1963)

"The Militant," a weekly newspaper of the SWP, in its February 18, 1963 edition carried an article entitled, "Pickets at Harvard Tell Barnett Racist Go Home," which in part reported that Mississippi's Governor ROSS BARNETT on February 4, 1963, spoke at the Sanders Theater on the Harvard University campus to "a less than sympathetic audience." According to this article he was countered by a picket line called by the SWP and the YSA. The article further reported that a group of Negroes from the Roxbury section of Boston, and the Cambridge, Massachusetts Ward 4 Republican Club joined the picket line.

C. Picket Line
Newton, Massachusetts
April 20, 1963

Members of the YSA of Boston planned to form a picket line in the vicinity of Boston College, Newton, Massachusetts, on April 20, 1963, at the time of President KENNEDY's scheduled appearance to address a special convocation incidental to the centennial celebration of that school. The purpose of this picket line was to protest the racial problems taking place at Greenwood, Mississippi.

(BS T-12, April 18, 1963)

On the afternoon of April 20, 1963, between the approximate hours of 1:00 and 3:00 p.m., a group of about thirty-five to forty individuals marched in a picket line outside the campus area of Boston College, Newton, Massachusetts, where President KENNEDY was appearing on that date to address a special convocation incidental to the centennial week celebration of that school. Nine of the marchers were members of the YSA of Boston and for the most part, the remainder were affiliated with the BAG. The picket line was held to protest the treatment of and the problems concerning the Negroes at Greenwood, Mississippi.

The marchers handed out a leaflet explaining the plight of the SNCC workers in Greenwood and carried signs, some of which read: "SNCC Supports Greenwood"; "Send Federal Troops to Greenwood"; "Stop Racist Terror in Greenwood" and "Negroes Can't Vote in Mississippi."

During the demonstration for an approximate thirty minute period following the arrival of President KENNEDY at the college, the marchers also sang Negro spirituals and shouted such chants as: "Freedom now," "Let the Negro vote" and "Stop the racist terror."

Order during this demonstration was maintained by the local police department and no violence or incidents developed.

D. Mass Meeting
Boston, Massachusetts
May 12, 1963

As previously mentioned in this report, a meeting of the District Committee, CPUSA, New England District, was held on May 19, 1963, at Chelsea, Massachusetts. At this meeting ANNE BURLAK TIMPSON gave a report on a mass meeting which took place on the Boston Common, Boston, Massachusetts, on May 12, 1963, in support of the civil rights demonstrators in Birmingham, Alabama. She said it was the largest demonstration she had seen in years. She related that she had received one thousand copies of a pamphlet from New York which were given out to the marchers and that many more could have been given out if they were available at that time. She said that she met many Negro people who participated in the march prior to the mass meeting whom she had not seen for a number of years. None were reluctant to speak to her, but rather instead were very gracious.

She said she took particular notice to see whether the people threw away the leaflets and noticed that they kept them and read them.

The pamphlet given out was a Party pamphlet believed to be a reprint of BENJAMIN DAVIS' story in the February issue of "Political Affairs" on the Negro issue in the South.

May 23, 1963

A public meeting sponsored by the CAMD, Boston, Massachusetts, was held on May 23, 1963, at St. Mark's Church, 216 Townsend Street, Roxbury, Massachusetts. At this meeting about 180 people were present, one-third of whom were Negroes, and among those present was a total of sixteen members of either the SWP, Boston or the YSA of Boston. Originally, six speakers had been scheduled to speak, one of whom was LEROY McRAE, a national YSA leader. YOUNG SOCIALIST ALLIANCE MASS.

McRAE and two others were unable to appear, however. One of the speakers who did appear was CONRAD LYNN, counsel for the CAMD, who spoke on the topic, "How Should Negroes Defend Themselves?". Another one of the speakers who appeared MASS.

was NOEL DAY, who, during his talk, said that the Negro should be ready to fight but that the economic boycott and peaceful sit-ins are most effective.

At this meeting TRUMAN NELSON explained to the audience a little about the CAMD and then had a collection taken up for that organization.

F. Medgar Evers Memorial Meeting
Boston, Massachusetts
June 26, 1963

EDDIE TEIXEIRA N.Y.

As previously mentioned, a meeting of the District Committee, CPUSA, New England District, was held on June 23, 1963, at Chelsea, Massachusetts. EDWARD TEIXEIRA said that he, along with some of the Negro comrades from the District Committee and Communist Party clubs in the Boston area were taking an active part in making arrangements for the Medgar Evers memorial demonstration which was scheduled to be held on June 26, 1963, on the Boston Common.

CP MEMBER

TEIXEIRA also said that the CP members, as part of a General Committee, pushed for a twenty-four hour protest stoppage by all Negro workers in the Boston area. According to TEIXEIRA, the NAACP was against the twenty-four hour stoppage, but went along with the idea of street demonstrations on the way to the Boston Common for the Evers memorial meeting.

TEIXEIRA further stated that copies of "The Worker" editorial and GUS HALL's article on Negro civil rights would be distributed at the Evers Service on the Boston Common.

As previously mentioned in this report, ANNE BURLAK TIMPSON at the District Committee meeting on June 23, 1963, mentioned that the Evers memorial demonstration has been well organized and that an editorial from "The Worker" and GUS HALL article would be handed out to all attending the demonstration

She also stated that the Evers demonstration was so important that ARNOLD JOHNSON should use his influence to send a reporter from "The Worker" to cover the demonstration.

ARNOLD JOHNSON, at the District Committee meeting on June 23, 1963, stated that inasmuch as the Party in New England was taking such an active part in the Evers memorial demonstration he was sure he could prevail on JAMES JACKSON of "The Worker" to send TED BASSETT to cover the demonstration.

(BS T-6, July 12, 1963)

In a press release dated June 20, 1963, issued by the Boston Branch of the NAACP it was mentioned that the NAACP had issued a call for memorial services to be held on June 26, 1963, at the Boston Common. These services were to be held to honor MEDGAR EVERS, slain Mississippi NAACP field worker. According to the press release, other civil rights organizations had joined with the NAACP in this testament to EVERS.

It further mentioned that the NAACP did not advocate a proposed work stoppage on June 26, 1963, and urged that all efforts be turned toward that for which MEDGAR EVERS worked and died. Mobile voting booths would be available on the Boston Common for the first time in recent history to aid the people of the Greater Boston community in exercising the right to vote.

(BS T-15, June 26, 1963)

The Boston Branch of the NAACP received numerous telephone calls at its local headquarters, 451 Massachusetts Avenue, Boston, threatening the life of CHARLES EVERS, the brother of MEDGAR EVERS, who was to speak at the memorial services. NAACP officials believe this to be the work of a crank or a mentally deranged person. The Boston Police were alerted and were to afford police protection to CHARLES EVERS.

(BS T-15, June 25, 1963)

An Agent of the Federal Bureau of Investigation (FBI) on June 26, 1963, observed the memorial services conducted on the Boston Common for MEDGAR EVERS. The principal speakers at the services were CHARLES EVERS of Mississippi and EDWARD W. BROOKE, Attorney General of Massachusetts. The services were orderly and without incident.

In this article it was further mentioned that the demonstrators, conducting an "anti-Jim Crow" stoppage from work, joined to pay tribute to MEDGAR EVERS after marching to the Common.

G. Church Meeting
Lynn, Massachusetts
July 18, 1963

As previously mentioned in this report, at a meeting of the North Shore Section. CPUSA, New England District, held in Lynn, Massachusetts, on June 27, 1963, EDWARD TEIXEIRA gave a report on the happenings of the Negro liberation movement in the Boston area. At this meeting CHARLES PIPER told TEIXEIRA that the North Shore Section hoped to hold a meeting with a speaker who had experience in the liberation movement. PIPER asked TEIXEIRA if he knew such a speaker who would be available and TEIXEIRA in reply said he thought he could get MELVIN KING, whom he described as a Negro leader and social worker.

(BS T-3, July 3, 1963)

Some of the members of the North Shore Section, CPUSA, New England District, assisted in the preparation of a leaflet entitled, "Meet for Freedom." This leaflet announced that on July 18, 1963, the Congress on Racial Equality (CORE) and the Lynn Chapter, NAACP, would hold a meeting in Lynn to discuss freedom activities. The meeting was to be held at the Bethel A. M. E. Church on Shorey Avenue, Lynn, Massachusetts. The leaflet further mentioned that voter registration in Lynn, among other topics, would be discussed.

(BS T-3, July 20, 1963)

On July 18, 1963, CORE and the Lynn NAACP held a meeting at the Bethel A. M. E. Church in Lynn to discuss activities for the freedom of Negroes and among those in attendance were some of the members of the North Shore Section, CPUSA, New England District.

At this meeting MELVIN KING, the speaker, was introduced as a social worker and a candidate for the Boston School Committee. KING, in speaking, told of some of the freedom movements taking place in Boston such as the Medgar Evers memorial on the Boston Common and the push for registration for voters among Negroes.

(BS T-1, August 3, 1963)

At the meeting of the District Committee, CPUSA, New England District, held on July 28, 1963, at Chelsea, Massachusetts, CHARLES PIPER reported on the recent meeting held in Lynn at which MELVIN KING, a Negro, spoke. According to PIPER, EDWARD TEIXEIRA was the person responsible for getting KING to speak at this meeting, which was attended by many of the old-time members and ex-members of the Party.

H. March on Washington
August 28, 1963

As previously mentioned in this report, a District Committee meeting, CPUSA, New England District, was held on July 28, 1963, during which ARNOLD JOHNSON spoke. JOHNSON stated that the CP must participate in a March on Washington, not under a communist banner, but as an ally to the Negro cause.

(BS T-4, September 3, 1963)

At the meeting of the District Committee, CPUSA, New England District, held on July 28, 1963, at Chelsea, Massachusetts, ANNE BURLAK TIMPSON gave a report about the March on Washington. She reported that she recently talked with someone at the NAACP Headquarters in Boston about the Washington March. She also suggested that a tag day be held as a way in which funds could be raised to send people to

Washington and asked EDWARD TEIXEIRA if he could get this idea into the proper channels so that the NAACP would do this. TEIXEIRA said in reply that he would take care of it.

(BS T-3, August 5, 1963)

On August 11, 1963, at the outing held for New England CP members, their families and their friends, at the home of OTIS HOOD in Holbrook, Massachusetts, ANNE BURLAK TIMPSON suggested to those present that they should see her if they intended to participate in the March on Washington. She, however, urged all to go to Washington through their own organizations rather than the CP so as not to hinder the NAACP's chances for success.

At this outing $460.00 was collected, a portion of which was to be used for the CP defense and a portion to go to the NAACP for the March on Washington fund, the exact apportionment not being known.

(BS T-6, August 27, 1963)

The NAACP expected about 500 participants from the Boston area to join the March on Washington. A registration list of all persons who would travel by bus contained the names of 283 persons and a few more were expected to register later. The remainder were expected to travel independently by train, plane or personal cars, and would be unorganized in going to and returning from Washington, D.C. Governor SANFORD to come to the aid of the defendants awaiting trial at Monroe, North Carolina, on the charge of kidnaping in a racial incident on August 27, 1961, at Monroe, North Carolina.

The maximum number of marchers during any time of the picket line was approximately thirty-five, and included among this number was a total of seventeen members of the SWP, Boston and the YSA of Boston. The remainder appeared to be students of college age. The marchers carried signs prepared by members of the SWP, Boston and the YSA of Boston, some of which read: "Freedom in Monroe is a Farce"; "Governor Sanford - Stop that Persecution in Monroe"; "Stop the Frame-up in Monroe"; "Committee to Aid the Monroe Defendants."

A leaflet entitled, "Stop the Frame-up in North Carolina" prepared by the SWP, Boston, was handed out during the course of the picket line. The leaflet set forth background information concerning the August 27, 1961, "Kidnap Frame-Up" at Monroe, North Carolina, which had resulted in the indictment against the Monroe defendants.

The leaflet also requested that the recipients write to Governor SANFORD and/or appeal to him to quash the indictment. The picket line was orderly and no incidents developed.

The pickets sang freedom songs, such as "We Shall Overcome," and some wore buttons of the SNCC.

Some of the demonstrators gave out leaflets to the public which read as follows:

"PRESIDENT JOHNSON: PROTECT CIVIL RIGHTS WORKERS IN MISSISSIPPI

"Three young men--one Negro and two white--are missing in Mississippi.

"The recored of the State of Mississippi these past years--a record of intimidation, beating and even murder of civil rights workers--suggests that something terrible may have happened to them.

"The President of the United States and the Attorney General are responsible for protecting the constitutional rights of Americans. It is NOT enough to conduct an FBI investigation AFTER someone is murdered.

BS 100-35427
KPW:cm

"We, who are concerned with the rights of all people in Mississippi, are asking that President Johnson immediately assign one thousand federal marshals to Mississippi to protect--on the spot--the 800 or so civil rights workers who are on their way there.

"The law is clear on the power of the President to do this. Title 10, Section 333 of the U. S. Codes, asserts that whenever a state fails to protect the constitutional rights of persons in that state, the President may use 'any means' to protect these rights.

"Please join us in wiring President Johnson for immediate Presidential protection in Mississippi, before more of these young and dedicated people become victims of hate and prejudice.

"DISTRIBUTED BY BOSTON FRIENDS OF THE STUDENT NON-VIOLENT CO-ORDINATING COMMITTEE, 1555 Massachusetts Avenue, Cambridge, Mass. 868-0939"

The "Boston Traveler," a daily newspaper published in Boston, in its issue of June 24, 1964, carried an article entitled "Hub Pickets Urge Marshals for Miss." In this article it was mentioned that "fifty demonstrators demanded in Boston today that 1,000 U. S. marshals be sent to Mississippi immediately to protect civil rights workers there.

". . . At noon Rev. Virgil Wood of the Blue Hills Protestant Center in Roxbury and Massachusetts, Chairman of the Southern Christian Leadership Conference led a prayer service for the three missing youths.

". . . A spokesman for the demonstrators said 70 students from Boston area universities are among the 800 or so due to spend the summer in Mississippi working with civil rights groups there.

"Seven live in Greater Boston. The others are out-of-state residents studying here he said.

"The groups participating in the Boston demonstration were the Boston friends of the Student Non-Violent Co-Ordinating Committee, the Northern Student Movement, the Massachusetts Freedom Movement, the Congress of Racial Equality, the Boston Action Group, the Southern Christian Leadership Conference.

"The National Association for Advancement of Colored People was not listed among the groups. However, a spokesman for the local branch said NAACP would be among the demonstrators.

". . . The leaders of today's demonstration included Noel Day, director of St. Mark's Social Center, Prof. Howard Zinn of Boston University and Cannon James Breeden of the Massachusetts Freedom Movement.

"They hoped to have a meeting in the Federal Building with Justice Department officials. . . ."

The "Boston Traveler" on June 25, 1964, carried an article entitled, "Continuous Picketing Vowed Here."

In the latter article it was mentioned that "demonstrators picketed the Federal Building in Boston throughout the night and vowed to continue until something was done about protecting civil rights workers in Mississippi."

On June 25 and 26, 1964, a Special Agent of the FBI observed that the pickets were still demonstrating at the Federal Building, Boston, Massachusetts.

On June 26, 1964, [redacted] b6 b7C Massachusetts State Police, assigned to the Division of Subversive Activities, State House, Boston, advised that the number of pickets at the Federal Building had diminished considerably from the first day and the general public was not then paying too much attention to the pickets. He further advised that he had received no information as to when the picketing, which had been without incident thus far, would be terminated.

On July 2, 1964, [redacted] advised b6 b7C that the picketing had ended on the night of July 27, 1964, and no incidents were reported during the entire demonstration.

Included on the Executive Committee of SNCC, which was elected during a three-day conference on March 31, 1964, in Atlanta, Georgia, was HOWARD ZINN, Adult Member.

III. COMMUNIST PENETRATION AND INFLUENCE IN RACIAL AND OTHER ORGANIZATIONS

A. NAACP

On June 10, 1963, ANNE BURLAK TIMPSON said that the CP had one of its female members in the NAACP leadership in Boston but that she is not being used by the Party to speak at meetings. TIMPSON on that occasion did not give the name of this member.

(BS T-3, June 25, 1963)

The roster of the Executive Committee for the Boston Branch of the NAACP lists Mrs. VERNICE GABRIEL as one of its Board members.

VERNICE GABRIEL on February 13, 1963, paid her Party dues at a meeting of the Roxbury Club, CPUSA, New England District, held in Roxbury, Massachusetts.

(BS T-4, February 15, 1963)

During the afternoon of March 15, 1964, at a meeting of the District Committee, CPUSA, New England District, held at 61 Dartmouth Street, Boston, Massachusetts, EDWARD TEIXEIRA stated that any activity such as a District Committee meeting could not be held at his home since he did not want to jeopardize his position in the NAACP by having a CP meeting at his home.

(BS T-6, March 18, 1964)

B. SNCC

Special Agents [redacted] and [redacted] interviewed JOHN ZELLNER in 1963 in connection with four racial demonstrations at Danville, Virginia. At that time JOHN ZELLNER advised as follows: b6 b7C

He came to Danville, Virginia, from Atlanta, Georgia, with [redacted] on June 10, 1963, as a representative of the SNCC. ZELLNER said he was also in Danville as a photographer and reporter for the "Southern Patriot," a publication of the Southern Conference Educational Fund (SCEF). b6 b7C

ZELLNER exhibited a telegram dated June 10, 1963, from ANNE BRADEN, Editor of the "Southern Patriot," New Orleans, Louisiana, authorizing him to secure and provide photographs and articles on the situation in Danville, Virginia.

ZELLNER said he had both a professional and social relationship with CARL and ANNE BRADEN.

A characterization of the SCEF appears in the appendix hereto.

Mrs. ALBERTA AHEARN, 2311 Payne Street, Louisville, Kentucky, a self-admitted former member of the CP, Louisville, Kentucky, in testifying on December 11 and 13, 1954, in Jefferson County, Kentucky, Criminal Court in a State sedition prosecution against CARL JAMES BRADEN, identified BRADEN and his wife, ANNE BRADEN, as having been known to her as members of the CP, Louisville, Kentucky, from January, 1951, to shortly prior to the time of her testimony.

DOROTHY ROCHELLE MILLER, 2222 Telhurst Street, S.W., Atlanta, Georgia, advised SA [redacted] and SA [redacted] b6 b7C on June 11, 1963, at Danville, Virginia, that she was a full-time employee of SNCC, 6 Raymond Street, N.W., Atlanta, Georgia. Her position was that of Field Secretary, and accompanied by JOHN ROBERT ZELLNER she arrived in Danville, Virginia, on June 10, 1963, to assist in racial demonstrations.

A marriage license application at the Fulton County Ordinary's Office, Atlanta, Georgia, as furnished on August 13, 1963, by [redacted] shows that JOHN ROBERT ZELLNER and [redacted] made application for a license b6 b7C on August 7, 1963.

The above records further disclose that Marriage License Number 183853 was issued to ZELLNER and MILLER, who were married in Atlanta, Georgia, on August 9, 1963.

[redacted] Undergraduate School, b6 b7C Brandeis University, School of Arts and Sciences, Waltham, Massachusetts, advised on October 9, 1963, that JOHN ZELLNER was attending Brandeis University, Graduate School of Arts and Sciences for the school term of 1963-1964 on a scholarship. [redacted] also advised on August 27, 1964 that his records reflected that JOHN ZELLNER had changed his address from 71 Chestnut Street, Cambridge, Massachusetts, to 1555 Massachusetts Avenue, Cambridge.

The Cambridge, Massachusetts City Directory lists the occupant of 1555 Massachusetts Avenue as being the local office of the SNCC.

[redacted], Brandeis University School of Arts and Sciences, advised on September 25, 1964, that JOHN ZELLNER was attending the 1964-1965 session of that graduate school. b6 b7C

"The Harvard Crimson," a daily undergraduate Harvard University newspaper, in its issue of May 22, 1964, carried an article entitled "COFO, Miss. Draw Battle Lines."

According to the article, the Congress of Federated Organizations (COFO) and the State of Mississippi have begun to formulate their final plans for this year's Mississippi summer project. The article reads that COFO, the omnibus civil rights organization which is sponsoring a proposed two-month "invasion" of Mississippi by civil rights workers, has accepted about 800 volunteers, 38 from the University, for this project. According to the article, the deadline for applying for the COFO project was May 15, 1964, but [redacted], New England representative of the SNCC, pointed out that all applications have not yet been processed.

The article indicates that in all thirty students from the college and the Graduate School have been accepted already, along with six undergraduates and two students at the Law School will help out on the project's legal staff.

The article indicates seventy New England volunteers were accepted for the project and [redacted] said she expected New England, New York and California to provide the bulk of the volunteers. b6 b7C

C. BAG

The "YSA Builder," self-described as an internal organizational magazine for all YSA members, in Volume I, #2, dated February, 1963, contained a section headed "Area Reports" and in this section for Boston it was reported under "Civil Rights" that the YSA of Boston was working with the BAG, a group composed mainly of students from different local campuses, which is led by a "militant Negro worker"; that the BAG, whose main activity is a "selective patronage campaign," welcomes the support of the YSA of Boston and may become a SNCC supporter group.

BOSTON JEWISH PEOPLE'S FORUM, also known as PEOPLE'S VICTORY FORUM, JEWISH PEOPLE'S FORUM

On October 28, 1962, a source made available an announcement of the Boston Jewish People's Forum which indicated the organization was then in its twenty-fifth anniversary year. The announcement stated that meetings of the Forum would be held at the Town and Country Club, formerly Morton Plaza, Dorchester, Massachusetts, and that the Forum was "Dedicated to Bringing Fuller Understanding to the Community of Our World and Our Times."

A second source advised in February 1963 that leaders of the Communist Party, USA, New England District, had ordered support of functions of the Forum by Communist Party members.

This second source and a third source on June 25, 1963, both advised that the Forum's activities consist of the presentation of featured speakers at approximately twelve Sunday morning meetings throughout the fall and winter months. The sources stated that the Forum's speakers for the most part are Communist Party leaders or members or individuals affiliated with organizations sympathetic to the Communist Party point of view.

The first source on May 27, 1964, advised that the Boston Jewish People's Forum continues to hold its meetings Sundays in the morning throughout the year except for the summer at the Town and Country Club located at Morton and Wellington Hill Streets, Dorchester, Massachusetts. Frequently speakers at these meetings are nationally known officials of the Communist Party of the United States. These speakers in their talks put communism and Communist Party members in a favorable light.

COMMITTEE TO AID THE MONROE DEFENDANTS

A source advised on October 10, 1961, that the Committee to Aid the Monroe Defendants (CAMD) was formed during September, 1961, by the Socialist Workers Party (SWP) in New York City.

Source advised on May 6, 1963, that the aims of the CAMD are to afford financial support and counsel for ROBERT F. WILLIAMS and four other defendants who were involved in a racial incident on August 27, 1961, at Monroe, North Carolina. The SWP hopes to dramatize this incident nationally and internationally through the CAMD and thus attract individuals to the SWP aims and principles by playing a leading role in the integration struggle. The CAMD is also active in promoting the philosophy of utilizing counter-violence to achieve integration as espoused by WILLIAMS.

According to the source, the organization and impetus of CAMD activities throughout the various parts of the United States, such as obtaining sponsors and the raising of funds, are the results of the efforts of various SWP branches.

The above source advised on May 6, 1963, that the headquarters of the CAMD are located at 168 West 23rd Street, New York City.

The SWP has been designated pursuant to Executive Order 10450.

NATION OF ISLAM, formerly referred to as the Muslim Cult of Islam, also known as Muhammad's Temples of Islam

In January, 1957, a source advised Elijah Muhammad has described his organization on a nationwide basis as the "Nation of Islam," (NOI) and "Muhammad's Temples of Islam."

On May 8, 1964, a second source advised Elijah Muhammad is the national leader of the NOI; Muhammad's Temple of Islam No. 2, 5335 South Greenwood Avenue, Chicago, Illinois, is the national headquarters of the NOI; and in mid-1960, Muhammad and other NOI officials, when referring to Muhammad's organization on a nationwide basis, commenced using either "Mosque" or "Temple" when mentioning one of "Muhammad's Temples of Islam."

The NOI is an all-Negro organization which was originally organized in 1930 in Detroit, Michigan. Muhammad claims to have been selected by Allah, the Supreme Being, to lead the so-called Negro race out of slavery in the wilderness of North America by establishing an independent black nation in the United States. Members following Muhammad's teachings and his interpretation of the "Koran" believe there is no such thing as a Negro; that the so-called Negroes are slaves of the white race, referred to as "white devils," in the United States; and that the white race, because of its exploitation of the so-called Negroes, must and will be destroyed in the approaching "War of Armageddon."

In the past, officials and members of the NOI, including Muhammad, have refused to register under the provisions of the Selective Service Acts and have declared that members owe no allegiance to the United States.

APPENDIX

NATION OF ISLAM, formerly referred to as the Muslim Cult of Islam, also known as Muhammad's Temples of Islam (Cont.)

On May 5, 1958, the first source advised Muhammad had, upon advice of legal counsel, tempered his personal statements and instructions to his ministers concerning the principles of his organization in order to avoid possible prosecution by the United States Government; however, he did not indicate any fundamental changes in the teachings of his organization.

On May 7, 1964, a third source advised Muhammad had, early in July, 1958, decided to de-emphasize the religious aspects of the teachings of Islam and to stress the economic benefits to be derived by those Negroes who joined the NOI. This policy change, according to Muhammad, would help him acquire additional followers and create more interest in his programs.

SOCIALIST WORKERS PARTY,
BOSTON, MASSACHUSETTS

A source advised on March 13, 1961, that the Socialist Workers Party, Boston, Massachusetts, was formed in the latter part of the 1930's. This source stated that as of July, 1958 this group was the Boston local of the Socialist Workers Party.

A second source stated that as of May 20, 1964 the Socialist Workers Party, Boston, Massachusetts, is the local affiliate of and follows the aims and purposes of the national Socialist Workers Party.

The Socialist Workers Party has been designated by the Attorney General of the United States pursuant to Executive Order 10450.

SOUTHERN CONFERENCE EDUCATIONAL FUND, INC. (SCEF)

The "Southern Patriot," a monthly publication, shows that it is published by the SCEF. The "Southern Patriot" was cited as an "organ" of the Southern Conference for Human Welfare (SCHW) by the Committee on Un-American Activities, House Report 592, on the SCHW, June 12, 1947.

The SCHW was cited as a communist front by the Committee on Un-American Activities, House Report 592, June 16, 1947.

An amendment to the charter of the SCHW changed the name of that organization to the SCEF and listed its purpose as being to improve the educational and cultural standards of the southern people in accordance with the highest American democratic institutions, traditions and ideals. The amendment was dated April 26, 1946.

A source, who is familiar with some phases of Communist Party (CP) activity in the New Orleans, Louisiana area, advised on May 25, 1962, that during the time the SCHW was in existence, CP members were members of and worked actively in the SCHW, however, since formation of the SCEF, rank and file CP members have not been encouraged to work in the SCEF.

The source stated that SCEF is a progressive, liberal organization which he considers a CP front organization because it has gone along with the CP on certain issues, particularly on the racial question and through the years, certain CP members in the New Orleans area have been assigned to work in the organization to further CP principles.

YOUNG SOCIALIST ALLIANCE

The May, 1960, issue of the "Young Socialist" (YS), page 1, column 3, disclosed that during April 15-17, 1960, a national organization entitled "The Young Socialist Alliance" (YSA) was established at Philadelphia, Pennsylvania. This issue stated that this organization was formed by the nationwide supporter clubs of the publication YS.

The above issue, page 6, set forth the Founding Declaration of YSA. This declaration stated that the YSA recognizes the Socialist Workers Party (SWP) as the only existing political leadership on class struggle principles, and that the supporters of the YS have come into basic political solidarity with the SWP on the principles of revolutionary socialism.

A source advised on May 6, 1964, that the original YSA was an organization formed during October, 1957, in New York City by youth of various left socialist tendencies, particularly members and followers of the SWP. The leaders of this group were the guiding forces in the establishment of the national organization.

The source further advised on May 6, 1964, that the YSA is dominated and controlled on a national basis by the SWP through having SWP members comprise exclusively the National Executive Committee (NEC) and through an official SWP representative at all YSA NEC meetings. The YSA, in reality, is the youth and training section of the SWP and the main source of new SWP members.

The headquarters of the YSA are located in Room 631, 41 Union Square West, New York City.

The SWP has been designated pursuant to Executive Order 10450.

YOUNG SOCIALIST ALLIANCE OF BOSTON

A source advised on October 30, 1959, that at a closed Socialist Workers Party (SWP) meeting held on October 29, 1959, at SWP headquarters in New York, New York, it was stated that a youth organization named the Young Socialist Alliance (YSA) of Boston had just been officially formed.

The publication "Young Socialist" of May, 1960 reported during April 15-17, 1960, a national organization entitled YSA was established at Philadelphia, Pennsylvania. Boston was reported as one of the cities represented at this founding conference.

A second source advised on May 20, 1964, that the YSA of Boston continued to be active and that meetings of the YSA of Boston were regularly held at the headquarters of the SWP at Boston, Massachusetts. This second source further advised that the YSA of Boston is the Boston affiliate of the national YSA and follows the aims and purposes of that group.

The Socialist Workers Party has been designated by the Attorney General of the United States pursuant to Executive Order 10450.

Title: COMMUNIST INFLUENCE IN RACIAL MATTERS

Character: INTERNAL SECURITY - C

Synopsis:

A national leader of the CP in July, 1963, told CP leaders at Baltimore that the CP had to play a major role in the civil rights March on Washington, D. C. 8/28/63. In January, 1964, another national CP leader told Baltimore CP leaders that the CP must lead in civil rights demonstrations and civil rights organizations. At the Third Conference of the YSA in 1963, it was reported that the Baltimore local of YSA serves as a major link with Southern integrationist organizations. Baltimore YSA leaders were arrested in April, 1963, while participating in a demonstration in Cambridge, Maryland. Baltimore CP leaders and members made number of contacts with integrationists leaders in Cambridge, Maryland during the period of racial demonstrations in that city. A small number of CP members from Baltimore participated in civil rights demonstrations at Washington, D. C. 8/28/63, but there was no organized CP activity on the part of the local CP in connection with that demonstration.

2) At a meeting of the District Board and CP club chairman of the CP, Maryland-District of Columbia, held in Baltimore, Maryland on May 6, 1963, [redacted], who was then chairman of the District Board of the CP, after speaking of racial riots in Birmingham, Alabama, instructed [redacted] CP District Board member and the organizer and treasurer of the CP District, to get local Negro groups, such as the Congress on Racial Equality (CORE), the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People (NAACP), and the Urban League, to stage some sort of demonstrations protesting the segregation situation in Birmingham. b6 b7C

(BA T-1 on 5/8/63)

On May 14, 1963, [redacted] reported back to [redacted] that CORE was planning a mass prayer meeting regarding the Birmingham situation in the Baltimore area in the near future. [redacted] also stated that he had contacted various CP members and had them contact other Negro groups to stage demonstrations. b6 b7C

(BA T-1 on 5/27/63)

On July 11, 1963, [redacted] stated that he had received a letter from New York instructing him to go to Cambridge, Maryland and get a story for "The Worker." [redacted] said he felt it was not a good idea for him to go since he was a well known figure and requested that [redacted] a Negro CP member, go in his place. [redacted] agreed to do this. b6 b7C

(BA T-1 on 7/19/63)

"The Worker" is an East Coast Communist newspaper.

On July 16, 1963, GUS HALL, General Secretary, CP, USA, visited [redacted] in Baltimore. HALL stated that although the CP had given no organized help to Negroes in the Cambridge, Maryland and Danville, Virginia areas, Negro CP members in Baltimore should discuss ways and means of aiding the Negro struggles in those areas. b6 b7C

(BA T-2 on 7/19/63)

At the above meeting on July 16, 1963, GUS HALL stated that the CP had to play a major role in the August 28, 1963 demonstration at Washington, D. C.

(BA T-1 on 7/22/63)

On January 3, 1964, at a District Board meeting of the CP, held in Baltimore, Maryland, [redacted] gave a report on the Civil Rights bill proposed by the Mayor of Baltimore. The bill was at that time pending before the Baltimore City Council. [redacted] proposed that CP groups circularize petitions in an effort to get approximately 500 signatures per club. Letters were to be sent to labor unions and committees for jobs and freedom to exert pressure on unions. Mass rallys were suggested by [redacted] He suggested that the rallys be composed of prominent Negroes, churchmen and labor leaders. b6 b7C

(BA T-3 on 1/16/64)

On January 16, 1964, at a meeting of the Negro Commission of the CP of Maryland and the District of Columbia, held at Baltimore, Maryland, a report given stressed CP activities in relation to the March on Washington on August 28, 1963, and characterized this as the outstanding effort of the CP to date. The report also outlined problems of the future which would revolve around civil rights legislation, Negro registration and vote drive, job training for Negroes and the election of Negro congressmen. BEN DAVIS, National Secretary of the CP, USA, who was present at this meeting, announced the establishment of a National Negro Commission under his chairmanship located in New York City. He said that the Negro Commissions, both nationally and locally, must lead in civil rights demonstrations and in civil rights groups. He pointed out that there was much work to be done in that regard on the Eastern Shore of Maryland.

(B) The Young Socialist Alliance (YSA).

The characterizations of the YSA and the Baltimore Branch of the YSA are appended to this report.

1) During the Third National Conference of the YSA held August 31-September 2, 1963, at Chicago, Illinois, it was reported that the Baltimore local of the YSA serves as a major link between YSA work in the North and contact with Southern integrationist organizations. It was reported that recently the YSA local at Baltimore was mobilized to engage in civil rights demonstrations in Cambridge, Maryland and as a result of the fine work done by the YSA in these demonstrations, [redacted] a civil rights leader in Maryland, sent a representative from Cambridge to the YSA Conference to observe what the YSA was doing in the field of civil rights. b6 b7C

(BA T-4 on 9/10/63)

2) In a letter to FARRELL DOBBS, National Secretary of the Socialist Workers Party, [redacted] YSA organizer in Baltimore, Maryland, stated in part: "We serve to heighten the consciousness of Baltimore's 300,000 Negroes. It (Baltimore YSA) is also of strategic importance to the civil rights movement because of the promimity to Washington. Baltimore is important to our movement because it is our link with the South and this serves as a rallying point for Washington and Philadelphia." b6 b7C

(BA T-8 on 10/5/63)

The Socialist Workers Party has been designated pursuant to Executive Order 10450.

II COMMUNIST TACTICS

(A) Racial Situation at Cambridge, Maryland

Beginning in the latter part of March, 1963, there were a series of demonstrations by Negroes and integrationist groups at Cambridge, Maryland located on Maryland's Eastern Shore. In connection with some of these demonstrations there was considerable violence. On June 14, 1963, Governor MILLARD TAWES of the State of Maryland ordered units of the Maryland National Guard to Cambridge to maintain order. Units of the Maryland National Guard remained in Cambridge until July 11, 1964. During the period until July, 1964, a number of demonstrations took place.

1) Demonstration at Cambridge, Maryland April 6, 1963

On April 6, 1963, [redacted] Cambridge, Maryland Police Department, advised that approximately 100 persons demonstrated from approximately 3:00 P.M. until 9:30 P.M. in Cambridge, picketing. Of these demonstrators 47 were arrested and charged with various offenses. Among those arrested were: b6 b7C

[redacted] Baltimore, Maryland, (charged with disorderly conduct and assault on an officer) b6 b7C

[redacted] Baltimore, Maryland, (charged with disorderly conduct and assault on officer)

[redacted] Baltimore, Maryland (charged with disorderly conduct and assault on officer).

[redacted] Manhattan, New York (charged with disorderly conduct and resisting an officer.) b6 b7C

The April, 1963 edition of the "Young Socialist", self-described as the official organ of the Young Socialist Alliance (YSA), listed the YSA local at Baltimore, Maryland, as [redacted] Baltimore, Maryland" b6 b7C

BA T-4 on September 10, 1963, advised that [redacted] of Baltimore was elected to the National Ececutive Committee of the YSA and that his wife, [redacted] was elected as an alternate representative of the National Executive Committee of the YSA. b6 b7C

Young Socialist Alliance

On March 7, 1963, BA T-5 advised that in February, 1963 [redacted] told him that she had been a member of the YSA for three months and that she was treasurer of the Baltimore local of the YSA. b6 b7C

On October 19, 1961, BA T-6 advised that at a YSA business meeting held October 15, 1961 in Baltimore, Maryland, [redacted] a Johns Hopkins University student, was the secretary of the Baltimore Branch of the YSA. b6 b7C

2) CP Contacts with Integrationist Leaders At Cambridge, Maryland

[redacted] and [redacted] whom the informant identified as members of the CP of Baltimore, left Baltimore for Cambridge, Maryland. After arriving in Cambridge, Maryland, they went to the home of [redacted] a Negro leader in Cambridge. [redacted] told her that they were from the Negro American Labor Council and they discussed the situation in Cambridge, Maryland with her and ended up by asking her if she was in need of any assistance of any kind. She told them that she planned to renew demonstrations in about two weeks. She did not have enough money to print leaflets to distribute in the community. She also said that if local officials keep their threat to discontinue relief to the unemployed, she would have to obtain some surplus food.

b6 b7C b6 b7C

(BA T-7 on 10/17/63)

On October 30, 1963, [redacted] stated that on October 29, 1963, he had visited Cambridge, Maryland and had talked with [redacted] leader of the Cambridge Non-Violent Action Committee. [redacted] disclosed that he represented himself to [redacted] as a reporter from "The Worker" and reminded her that he had been sending her copies of "The Worker" during the past year. [redacted] stated that [redacted] spoke with him cordially and told him to continue sending copies of "The Worker" and commented that her uncle was interested in the paper.

b6 b7C b6 b7C

(BA T-1 on 10/31/63)

On March 4, 1964, [redacted] and [redacted] visited Cambridge, Maryland, where they attempted to contact [redacted] who was not at home, but they talked to a middle aged woman at the [redacted] residence and the woman identified herself as [redacted] After visiting with [redacted]

b6 b7C b6 b7C

and [redacted] contacted a [redacted] the brother of [redacted] introduced himself as a correspondent for "The Worker" and told him that he and [redacted] were CP members and said that they wanted to get material on the situation in Cambridge and Princess Anne, Maryland, so that they could write an article which would be printed in "The Worker". They also contacted [redacted] an official of the Student Non-Violent Coordinating Committee (SNCC) and gave him the same information that they had given ST. CLAIR. b6 b7C

(BA T-1 on 3/5/64)

On March 11, 1964, [redacted], CP District Chairman, and [redacted] Chairman of CP of Maryland, visited Cambridge, Maryland and attempted to contact [redacted] leader of the Cambridge Non-Violent Action Committee, at her home. They were unsuccessful because [redacted] was in New York on that date. They therefore contacted [redacted], another integrationist leader, and discussed the situation in Cambridge. [redacted] and [redacted] visited the headquarters of the Cambridge Non-Violent Action Committee, and gave some old clothes to that committee. b6 b7C

(BA T-1 on 3/13/64)

On April 23, 1964, [redacted] and [redacted] again journeyed to Cambridge, Maryland in an effort to see [redacted] but they did not because she was not at home. However, they did visit with [redacted] an uncle of [redacted] and they identified themselves as members of the CP National Committee. [redacted] gave to [redacted] a pamphlet written by [redacted] entitled "Appalachia" and a copy of a leaflet on Governor WALLACE of Alabama, which had been prepared by the CP of Maryland. They discussed the local Cambridge situation with [redacted] who pointed out to [redacted] and [redacted] that they should understand that [redacted] was in the public eye and at a meeting had to meet with everybody. He said that [redacted] did not agree with "bullets and guns" but he said that the capitalist press would like to identify [redacted] with certain elements who advocated violence and hurt her cause in Cambridge. b6 b7C

In this conversation [redacted] was critical of [redacted] and said that she seemed to be doing more harm than good to civil rights in Cambridge. He was critical of her absences from Cambridge and said that he felt that someone ought to be able to take over in her absence. [redacted] was also critical of the amount of travelling done by [redacted] and said that he felt that people in Cambridge were losing faith in her. [redacted] and [redacted] turned over some used clothing that they had brought with them to the Cambridge Non-Violent Action Committee and they contacted [redacted]. [redacted] gave to [redacted] a copy of the pamphlet "Appalachia and a copy of the WALLACE leaflet described above. [redacted] asked [redacted] if he could use some of the leaflets and [redacted] said that he could. [redacted] turned over to [redacted] 60 copies of the above mentioned pamphlet and 250 copies of the party leaflet. b6 b7C

(BA T-1 on 4/28/64.)

On July 28, 1964, [redacted] and [redacted] visited Cambridge, Maryland. They attempted to contact [redacted] at her home, but were unsuccessful. They then visited the Cambridge Non-Violent Action Committee headquarters and found no one there. They then contacted [redacted] and [redacted] discussed with him the dissemination of leaflets which had been given to him recently and [redacted] said that he had distributed the leaflets and could use more. [redacted] gave [redacted] 200 copies of a leaflet concerning the War on Proverty and four copies of a recent issue of "The Worker" as well as some other literature. They discussed the situation in Cambridge and [redacted] informed [redacted] that in view of the changes that had taken place in Cambridge, most people, Negro and white, seemed to be satisfied with the change in conditions. He said that most of the Negro people did not seem interested in demonstrations and he doubted whether demonstrations would be held. [redacted] then talked to [redacted] the uncle of [redacted] concerning the coming Presidential elections. He asked [redacted] if he would be interested in receiving some copies of the GUS HALL report on the political situation. [redacted] reluctantly agreed and [redacted] said he would mail them to him. b6 b7C Md Md

(BA T-1 on 8/3/64.)

(B) Civil Rights March on Washington, August 28, 1963

Eleven CP members from Baltimore, Maryland went to Washington, D. C. on August 28, 1963, in order to participate in the so called March on Washington. These CP members went to Washington in small groups and no effort was made to capitalize or exploit the march for their own purpose, except for the fact that one CP member passed out about 1000 copies of leaflets which advertised the New Era Book Shop, 408 Park Avenue, Baltimore, Maryland.

(BA T-1 on 9/18/63)

A characterization of the New Era Book Shop is appended hereto.

III COMMUNIST PENETRATION AND INFLUENCE IN RACIAL AND OTHER ORGANIZATIONS

No information has been developed indicating any substantial Communist penetration or influence in racial or other organizations except as it has been reported under I and II.

YOUNG SOCIALIST ALLIANCE

The May, 1960, issue of the "Young Socialist" (YS), page 1, column 3, disclosed that during April 15-17, 1960, a national organization entitled "The Young Socialist Alliance" (YSA) was established at Philadelphia, Pennsylvania. This issue stated that this organization was formed by the nationwide supporter clubs of the publication YS.

The above issue, page 6, set forth the Founding Declaration of YSA. This declaration stated that the YSA recognizes the Socialist Workers Party (SWP) as the only existing political leadership on class struggle principles, and that the supporters of the YS have come into basic political solidarity with the SWP on the principles of revolutionary socialism.

A source advised on May 6, 1964, that the original YSA was an organization formed during October, 1957, in New York City by youth of various left socialist tendencies, particularly members and followers of the SWP. The leaders of this group were the guiding forces in the establishment of the national organization.

The source further advised on May 6, 1964, that the YSA is dominated and controlled on a national basis by the SWP through having SWP members comprise exclusively the National Executive Committee (NEC) and through an official SWP representative at all YSA NEC meetings. The YSA, in reality, is the youth and training section of the SWP and the main source of new SWP members.

The headquarters of the YSA are located in Room 631, 41 Union Square West, New York City.

The SWP has been designated pursuant to Executive Order 10450.

YOUNG SOCIALIST ALLIANCE, BALTIMORE BRANCH

On July 16, 1962, a confidential source advised that the Baltimore Branch of the Young Socialist Alliance (YSA) was formed on August 23, 1960, and is affiliated with the national organization of the YSA to which it pays dues. The Baltimore Branch YSA adheres to the same aims and purposes as the national organization.

A second confidential source advised on February 20, 1964, that [redacted] Baltimore, Maryland, a member of the National Committee of the YSA, is the YSA organizer at Baltimore. b6 b7C

On May 25, 1964, a third confidential source advised that [redacted] still operates the Baltimore Branch of the YSA from his residence, [redacted] Baltimore, Maryland.

NEW ERA BOOK SHOP, INC.

On September 19, 1962, a source advised that the New Era Book Shop, Inc., 101 West 22nd Street, Baltimore, Maryland, was organized by the Communist Party, Maryland - D. C. District, on July 30, 1962, with the sanction and financial backing of the Communist Party, USA. Its purpose is to sell communist literature and serve as a place where new Communist Party members might be recruited. The Book Shop is completely controlled and dominated by the Communist Party, USA.

On May 26, 1964, a second source advised that since June, 1963, the New Era Book Shop, Inc. has been located at 408 Park Avenue, Baltimore, Maryland. It continues to be operated under the complete control and domination of the Communist Party, USA. [redacted] Communist Party member, is managing the Book Shop. b6 b7C

Synopsis:

Policy of Ohio CP is for CP members to stay in background and not take leading position in civil rights struggle, and Ohio CP reportedly has no influence in civil rights movement in Cleveland. CP members participating in demonstrations have done so on an individual basis. Local SWP members were active in Cleveland CORE and were running for office in CORE election, but local SWP instructed them to withdraw as candidates. Local CORE reportedly has freed itself of SWP influence. There is no evidence that subversives exercise any influence or control in racial demonstrations in Cleveland. United Freedom Movement is guiding racial organization in Cleveland and none of its leaders have subversive background. Of NAACP chapters in Cleveland Office territory, only two have officers with subversive background, being Youngstown and Cleveland, and policy of Cleveland NAACP chapter is to keep known subversives out of control. Approximately 10 of 250 members of Cleveland CORE have subversive background. Freedom Fighters, Inc., with approximately 20 participating members, has one officer with subversive background. (U) (C)

DETAILS:

I. COMMUNIST STRATEGY

A. Communist Party, USA (CP)

1. National Policy

CV T-1 advised on February 24, 1964, and February 25, 1964, that a meeting of the CPUSA National Negro Commission was held in Chicago, Illinois, on February 22, 1964. ANTHONY KRCHMAREK being present. (U)

ANTHONY KRCHMAREK

CV T-2 advised on March 15, 1963, that on (U) March 14, 1963, ANTHONY KRCHMAREK was identified by his wife as being Chairman of the Communist Party in Ohio.

CV T-20 advised on April 9, 1964, that (U) ANTHONY KRCHMAREK is currently a member from the Ohio District CP on the newly formed National Board of the CPUSA. (U)

CV T-2 advised on March 4, 1964, that on February 27, 1964, ANTHONY KRCHMAREK stated that he had been in Chicago the previous week attending a meeting. KRCHMAREK did not say what type of meeting it was, but from his conversation, it appears that it must have pertained to civil rights. KRCHMAREK stated that the Party wants to identify itself with the civil rights fight and wants to be one of the important cogs in bringing the fight to a successful conclusion. According to KRCHMAREK, the CP feels that it would then be in a position to bring the Negroes into the CP and bring back into the Party those that they have lost. KRCHMAREK stated that the CP people and sympathizers are to become active in the civil rights movement in a discreet manner, he pointing out that their activity must be done in such a way as to avoid public exposure. (U)

CV T-2 advised on May 28, 1964, that on May 27, 1964, ANTHONY KRCHMAREK stated that he had been in New York City for (U)

~~CONFIDENTIAL~~ (U)

the past weekend for a policy meeting and during the course of pointing out the Party line, KRCHMAREK stated that the Communist Party does not officially get into the civil rights movement on a policy making level. He stated that the Negroes are capable of handling the matter themselves, but that individual participation of Party people on a rank and file basis is encouraged. KRCHMAREK stated that the radical element that might try to influence policy in the civil rights movement, would be from the Trotskyite camp and not from the Communist Party. (U)

CV T-2 advised on June 29, 1964, that at a meeting held June 19, 1964, there was a short discussion of the CP position on integration, HYMAN LUMER stating that while the CP hopes that integration will be successful, it also believes that the Negro can best handle the question of integration by himself, and that it would be harmful for the CP to be associated in this integration movement. (U)

HYMAN LUMER

CV T-20 advised in June, 1964, HYMAN LUMER was then National Educational Secretary of the CPUSA. (U)

2. Local CP Policy

CV T-3 advised on May 27, 1963, that a group known as the Citizens for Constitutional Rights (CCR) would hold a meeting on June 5, 1963, in Cleveland. (U)

CITIZENS FOR CONSTITUTIONAL RIGHTS (CCR)

VIRGINIA HARDIN, who has furnished information to the U.S. Government, is a self-admitted former member of the Communist Party, whose cooperation with the government was publicly disclosed on June 5, 1962. She advised on September 5, 1961, that on September 1, 1961, a CCR meeting was held in Cleveland at which the name Citizens for Constitutional Rights was approved to replace the name Cleveland Committee to Abolish the House Committee on Un-American Activities, which had been the former name used by the group. EDNA KAUFMAN, as only officer and Chairman of the CCR, controls the operation of this group which has no formal membership requirements. The stated purposes of the CCR are to abolish the House Committee on Un-American Activities and to fight against the Smith Act and the Mc Carran Act.

CV T-5 advised on June 11, 1963, that a meeting was held on June 5, 1963, at the home of RUTH LENCL, chaired by EDNA KAUFMAN and at which one of the topics discussed was ways of being more active in the Negro fight for civil rights. Suggestions were made of getting as many names as possible on a letter which the group will send to President KENNEDY. (C) (U)

RUTH LENCL

CV T-21 advised on October 17, 1963, that a meeting of the Ohio CP State Committee was held in Cleveland, Ohio, on October 13, 1963, with GUS HALL being present. (C) (U)

CV T-2 stated on November 12, 1963, that on November 10, 1963, RUTH LENCL commented that GUS HALL had been in Cleveland in October, 1963, for a State CP Meeting and that she had been asked to attend this meeting, but was unable to be present. Source stated that GUS HALL was at this time General Secretary of the CPUSA. (C) (U)

EDNA KAUFMAN

CV T-21 advised on October 17, 1963, that a meeting of the Ohio CP State Committee was held in Cleveland, Ohio, on October 13, 1963, and EDNA KAUFMAN was present at this meeting. (C) (U)

CV T-2 advised on June 17, 1963, that during the course of discussing the current Negro demonstrations throughout the country, ANTHONY KRCHMAREK stated on June 13, 1963, that gradualism has lost out as a policy and the Negroes will not wait any longer to obtain their rights. He said that the peaceful demonstrations against segregation have demonstrated that it is very possible to go through a revolutionary change without using force. As far as CP participation is concerned, KRCHMAREK stated that the CP is not in the foreground. However, he stated that members of the Party are participating in helping bring about the full citizenship of the Negro. (C) (U)

CV T-2 stated on August 16, 1963, that it was very apparent from many statements made by ANTHONY KRCHMAREK, that he does not want the CP to take leading positions in the civil rights movement. Rather, they are to just be in the background and help carry out the program of the CP in relation to social justice. KRCHMAREK stated that the civil rights movement has enough force of its own and does not need any momentum from the CP. (U)

CV T-3 advised on September 17, 1963, that a CCR meeting was held September 16, 1963, in Cleveland, at which [redacted] brought up the Birmingham incident where a Negro church was bombed and four children killed, and he asked whether the CCR should not do something about this. After discussion, it was decided that EDNA KAUFMAN should send a night letter to President KENNEDY, this letter to urge the sending of troops to Birmingham. (U)

On November 2, 1961, CV T-8 identified a photograph of [redacted] as being identical with one of the persons who attended a meeting of the Ohio Communist Party State Committee, held February 19, 1961, in Cleveland, Ohio. (U)

CV T-2 advised on October 11, 1963, that during a discussion with ANTHONY KRCHMAREK on October 10, 1963, he spoke of the role of the Party in the civil rights movement, stating that the Negroes fully understand that the CP took a stand for integration many years ago. He stated that certain people who have been connected with the CP in the past continue to play a prominent role in Negro integration groups and are accepted by the Negroes, although these people have been publicly identified as having been with the CP. According to KRCHMAREK, the Negroes understand the role of the "progressive groups" in helping them accomplish their goals. KRCHMAREK claims that although the top leadership of the N.A.A.C.P. and similar groups may attempt to disassociate themselves from the "progressives," the rank and file Negro understands the position of the "progressives" and is willing to join forces with them. (U)

"The Cleveland Press," a daily newspaper of general circulation, issue of February 5, 1964, contained an article entitled "Communists Here Pledge Negro Aid." The article states:

"ANTON KRCHMAREK, spokesman for the Communist Party of Ohio, telephoned a statement on the school integration battle to the Press today.

CONFIDENTIAL (U)

CONFIDENTIAL (U)

"'The Communist Party', he said, 'proudly supports the courageous struggle of the Negro people for freedom and justice in Alabama, Georgia and Cleveland. We will do all we can to join all others who are now in the great struggle to make democracy work in our country and in Cleveland.'"

CV T-1 advised on February 24, 1964, and February 25, 1964, that at the February 22, 1964, meeting of the National Negro Commission of the CP, USA, ANTHONY KRCHMAREK reported that the Cleveland CP had not been involved in the recent "school fight" and that only recently had the CP started to become involved in it. (U)

CV T-2 advised on April 10, 1964, that on that day ANTHONY KRCHMAREK furnished him with a mimeographed "Statement of the Communist Party on the Killing of Reverend BRUCE KLUNDER", which statement bore the typed name at the bottom "ANTHONY KRCHMAREK." It states in part that, "The blood of Reverend BRUCE KLUNDER is on the hands of the Cleveland School Board, its president MC ALISTER and the City Administration ---," and it suggests, "Immediate removal of MC ALISTER from the School Board as well as others responsible for this tragedy; the closing down of all construction projects of this nature until the issues are settled; the immediate negotiation of an integration policy by the Cleveland Educational System that fits the times." (U)

CV T-2 stated that KRCHMAREK did not indicate whether this statement had been afforded any circulation. (U)

(Reverend BRUCE KLUNDER was killed on April , 1964, at a racial demonstration in Cleveland. He was lying behind the tracks of a bulldozer, to prevent its operation and was killed when the operator, who did not see him, backed over him.)

CV T-6 advised on April 15, 1964, that a meeting of a Marxist-Leninist youth discussion group was held in Cleveland on April 12, 1964, at which ANTHONY KRCHMAREK suggested that some of those present become involved with the Committee of Racial Equality (CORE), as it needs the leadership of people who have an understanding of the situation. KRCHMAREK inferred that anyone who has an understanding of Marxism-Leninism will be able to interpret the civil rights demonstrations in their true perspective. (U)

CONFIDENTIAL (U)

CV T-3, on April 16, 1964, furnished a letter dated April 13, 1964, from the Minister of the Unitarian Society of Cleveland, advising that "The Social Action Committee of my church is launching a campaigh in Greater Cleveland to get as many white residents as possible to sign the endorsed 'Statement of Principle' cards. The statement calls for a public affirmation and implementation of the Supreme Court ruling of 1954 ordering an end to segregated schools. We hope to have the statement and signatures published in a full page advertisement in Cleveland's major newspapers ---." (U)

CV T-3 further advised that at a Cleveland Jewish Folk Chorus rehearsal, held April 14, 1964, in Cleveland, [redacted] discussed this advertisement with some of those present and went about the rehearsal hall asking people to sign cards permitting their names to be used in this advertisement. (U) b6 b7C

A characterization of the Cleveland Jewish Folk Chorus appears in the Appendix hereto.

FRIEDA KATZ

CV T-21 advised on October 17, 1963, that a meeting of the Ohio CP State Committee was held in Cleveland, Ohio, on October 13, 1963, with FRIEDA KATZ being one of those present. (U)

CV T-2 advised on April 21, 1964, that on April 17, 1964, ANTHONY KRCHMAREK discussed a recent report indicating Communist influence in the civil rights movement in Cleveland. KRCHMAREK commented that CORE would accept anyone who subscribes to its policies, without regard to that person's political affiliations. He said that the Communist Party wants to be identified with the integration movement and would like to have some influence in the movement, particularly in CORE. KRCHMAREK stated that the Communist Party at this time has no influence in the civil rights movement. (U)

[redacted] b6 b7C

Cleveland Television Station WJW, advised on May 1, 1964, that on April 22, 1964, ANTHONY KRCHMAREK voluntarily came to that station, stating that there were allegations that the Communists were involved in the civil rights struggle in Cleveland and that as he was a representative of the CP of Ohio, he wanted to be heard.

CONFIDENTIAL (U)

[redacted] stated that on April 22, 1964, KRCHMAREK appeared on a television program and stated that "The civil rights movement in this country and in Cleveland is not the product and not the creation of the Communist Party ---" KRCHMAREK was asked, "Do you deny that any of the leaders of the civil rights movement in Cleveland are connected with your Party?", and he answered, "To the best of my knowledge they are not." b6 b7C

CV T-2 advised on May 1, 1964, that on April 30, 1964, KRCHMAREK commented that he had recently appeared on a television program where he was asked the question of whether there were any Communists in the civil rights movement and he answered that there were none he knew of. KRCHMAREK commented that he should have made the definite statement that there were none in the civil rights movement, for it is true that there are none, but he did not have time to think the answer out clearly, with the result that he made the ambiguous statement that there were none that he knew of. (U)

CV T-7 advised on April 23, 1964, that on April 19, 1964, EDNA KAUFMAN arranged to distribute 10 thousand copies of the booklet entitled "House Un-American Activities Committee; Bulwark of Segregation." This booklet is written by ANNE BRADEN and in commenting on the booklet, she stated that there was a great need for the people in the United States to know the truth about segregation. This, she said, was one of the purposes in writing the booklet and she hoped to get it into as many American hands as possible in order to inform the American public. (U)

ANNE BRADEN

Mrs. ALBERTA AHEARN, 2311 Payne Street, Louisville, Kentucky, is a self admitted former member of the Communist Party in Louisville, Kentucky. In testifying on December 11, and 13, 1954, in Jefferson County, Kentucky Criminal Court, in a state sedition prosecution against ANNE BRADEN, Mrs. AHEARN identified BRADEN as being a known CP member in Louisville, Kentucky, from January, 1951, to shortly prior to the time of her testimony.

CV T-8 advised on June 8, 1964, that he had learned on May 26, 1964, that GENNE KUHN, head of the CP in Wheeling, West Virginia, is staying in the background in racial activities in the Wheeling, West Virginia, area and is only attending meetings and giving advice when asked for it. Source stated that (U)

he gathered from talking to [redacted] that ANTHONY KRCHMAREK believes that "we" should stay out of racial activities and that he, KRCHMAREK, was displeased over GENNE's name appearing in the newspapers and the attack on her by the newspapers. KRCHMAREK feels that this activity on her part has done the Party harm. (U) b6 b7C

[redacted] b6 b7C

CV T-21 advised on October 31, 1964, that on October 25, 1963, ANTHONY KRCHMAREK stated that [redacted] was in New York working and receiving traning as it was the decision of the Party to go all out on youth. (U)

CV T-8 advised on December 2, 1963, that on November 20, 1963, [redacted] mother commented that she would like to have [redacted] subsidized by the Communist Party at a fair salary and perhaps have him return to West Virginia to work as an organizer or work among youth. (U)

CV T-8 advised on June 17, 1964, that GENNE KUHN is active in the Committee on Racial Equality (CORE) in the Wheeling, West Virginia, area. [redacted] advised on June 12, 1964, that the work his mother is doing in the civil rights movement is against the Party policy and that "they" disapprove of it in Cleveland. (U) b6 b7C

CV T-2 advised on July 30, 1964, that in talking about recent racial riots in New York City, ANTHONY KRCHMAREK, on July 29, 1964, discussed an alleged Communist, who was arrested for attempting to organize a demonstration despite a court order banning said demonstration. KRCHMAREK stated that this alleged Communist was thrown out of the CP two years ago. He stated that the CP is not in favor of violence and such activity as the riots in New York and Rochester could bring about the suicide of the Negro liberation movement and could destroy all the gains in civil rights that have been made. (U)

KRCHMAREK stated that the racial situation in Cleveland is getting worse and that there are irresponsible people in the local movement. He stated that he was particularly concerned about the activity of the Trotskyites in the local CORE. (U)

CV T-2 advised on August 26, 1964, that on that date, he discussed the civil rights movement with ANTHONY KRCHMAREK, (U) who again stated that the civil rights leaders are able to handle things themselves and do not need any help, especially from non-Party people. (C) (U)

B. Socialist Workers Party (SWP)

The Socialist Workers Party has been designated pursuant to Executive Order 10450.

1. The National Policy

CV T-5 advised on December 17, 1963, that the Cleveland Branch of the Socialist Workers Party (CBSWP) sponsored a forum which was held on December 14, 1963, at 5927 Euclid Avenue, Ohio. Source identified the principal speaker as CLIFTON DE BERRY, New York State Organizer for the SWP. Source related that DE BERRY's subject was, "Which Road to Freedom Now?" (C) (U)

Source related that DE BERRY stated that he did not agree with non-violence, that he feels everyone should protect themselves. DE BERRY stated that the Negroes in America will never obtain their civil rights and be accepted as first class citizens as long as capitalism exists. He stated that capitalism will have to be destroyed completely, but did not indicate how it should be done. (C) (U)

Source related that DE BERRY stated that the Communist Party has done more harm to the Negroes' struggle than any other radical organization, even though the Communist Party once claimed it had the solution to all of the Negroes' problems. DE BERRY stated that the SWP has never made such a claim, but it does promise to help Negroes and all minority peoples of the world in their fight for justice. He stated that no one can solve the Negroes' problems but they themselves, with the aid of the white liberals and radicals; that the white capitalistic leaders of the Democrat and Republican Parties have no intention of ever accepting the Negro as a first class citizen. (C) (U)

which was held on April 12, 1964, in Cleveland. DE BERRY stated that the Negro has been betrayed by the CP and that NORMAN THOMAS of the Socialist Party is too conservative toward capitalism. DE BERRY stated that he believes that the only way for the Negro in America to become a first class citizen is through working toward the SWP. (C) (U)

2. Local Policy

CV T-9 advised on July 31, 1964, that during a regular meeting of the Cleveland Branch of the Socialist Workers Party held at Cleveland, Ohio, on June 17, 1964, a discussion arose regarding the attempts of Cleveland Chapter of Congress of Racial Equality to get rid of or smear CBSWP members, namely [redacted] ERIC REINTHALER, [redacted] and [redacted] After the discussion it was decided that all of the above members with the exception of ERIC REINTHALER would withdraw from CORE, but that REINTHALER would remain active. Source related that it was a feeling of CORE leadership that Cleveland SWP members might gain enough strength to dictate policy of CORE and at the same time use CORE for recruiting members into the CBSWP. CV T-9 advised on June 2, 1964, that during a meeting of the Cleveland Branch of the Socialist Workers Party, held on May 28, 1964, [redacted] name was proposed for membership. He was voted on and accepted as a member. (C) (U) b6 b7C

ERIC JEROME REINTHALER

REINTHALER was convicted in United States District Court, Cleveland, Ohio, on January 29, 1958, on the charge of conspiring to violate the Labor Management Relations Act of 1947 through the filing of false non-Communist union officer affidavits. On February 19, 1958, he was sentenced to eighteen months in prison and fined $2,500.

CV T-10 advised on August 31, 1964, that ERIC REINTHALER and [redacted] both of whom are currently members of the SWP in Cleveland, reported at an SWP meeting held August 20, 1964, that without their knowledge they had been nominated to CORE leadership offices, ERIC as treasurer of finances and [redacted] as first vice president; further that they have been asked to run for these offices and probably will be elected. Further that at the recent CORE meeting a change in the CORE constitution had been approved to enlarge the CORE Executive Committee by four members. This expansion was said to be necessary in order to keep the local CORE chapter from falling into the controlling hands of the "right wing" leadership, which intends to tone down the local civil rights struggle. With this enlargement of the Executive Committee, the "left" leadership will remain in control. (C) (U)

the SWP, it is against SWP policy to hold office in any outside organization. (U)

CV T-10 advised on September 3, 1964, that an SWP meeting was held in Cleveland on August 27, 1964, at which there was further discussion concerning REINTHALER and [redacted] b6 b7C running for office in CORE. It was again pointed out that this was against the policy of the SWP; that without consultation with the SWP, they are participating in a power struggle for leadership in a civil rights organization which is pacifist, reformist and fraternal in nature, and which is predominantly Negro and should be run by Negroes; that REINTHALER's action is particularly objectionable since he is white. It was pointed out that this participation in a power struggle for the leadership in CORE is bad politically and reflects unfavorably upon the SWP, since the SWP has in the past been "red-baited" by CORE. REINTHALER was instructed at this SWP meeting that he must decline the nomination for chairman of the Finance Committee in CORE. (U)

CV T-10 advised on September 4, 1964, that by letter dated August 29, 1964, addressed to CORE members, REINTHALER asked them not to vote for him as treasurer of CORE. Source stated at an SWP meeting held on September 3, 1964, REINTHALER reported that even though not a candidate he had received 20 votes. Source pointed out that CORE has 220 members and that some of those in the slate opposed to REINTHALER obtained 129 votes. (U)

Source advised that it was evident from REINTHALER's report that he was glad he was not a candidate for he would have been ridiculed and defeated anyway, for it is evident that the composition of the CORE membership is "to the right." (U)

CV T-9 advised on October 18, 1964, that [redacted] and b6 b7C REINTHALER are the only active members of the Cleveland Branch of the SWP who are now members of CORE and further that these two men do not exert any influence in CORE nor have they been requested by the CBSWP to do so on its behalf. advised that she was surprised that the uprising of the Afro-American people in so many communities has not yet encouraged the Negroes in Youngstown, Ohio, to also stand up for their rights. She stated that it is difficult to organize the Negroes here to do anything to benefit their race; that on many different occasions she and her husband, [redacted] have tried to get the more militant Negroes to organize demonstrations in the Youngstown area, but in most cases this effort has met with little success. She commented that even the young Negroes have very little interest in demonstrations. She stated that one of the problems that she has is being white, for most of the Negro people automatically distrust white people; that what is needed is an Afro-American leader who is neither afraid of being hurt nor afraid of what the white man represents, but that at present there is not such a person in the community who is qualified for this work. II. COMMUNIST TACTICS

A. The March on Washington August 28, 1963

CONFIDENTIAL (U)

CONFIDENTIAL (U)

"The Cleveland Plain Dealer", a daily newspaper of general circulation, issue of August 15, 1963, contained headlines stating, "Two Freedom March Buses Booked by Admitted Red," and had the sub-heading "REINTHALER Acts Here for CORE." The article stated in part that, "ERIC REINTHALER, who admitted CP affiliation has been identified by Cleveland Police as the reservation agent for one of the Cleveland groups sending Freedom March buses to a mass Negro demonstration in Washington on August 28. --- In a 1958 trial REINTHALER admitted he had been a Communist up until 1954 ---".

CV T-2 advised on August 15, 1964, that on that morning, ANTHONY KRCHMAREK was busy running off a statement on his mimeograph machine concerning a front page article in the August 15, 1963, issue of "The Cleveland Plain Dealer" about ERIC REINTHALER having been the person who chartered the local buses for the local CORE group to use in traveling to Washington, D.C. on August 28, 1963, to attend the March on Washington. (C) (U)

CV T-2 stated that KRCHMAREK furnished copies of his statement to Cleveland newspapers, and had additional copies for distribution to other groups. He was very upset about REINTHALER's admissions, pointing out that here was a man (REINTHALER) just out of prison on a Taft-Hartley conviction, taking a leading position which could only result in scaring off people who might be hesitant about joining the March. KRCHMAREK said that REINTHALER had trouble when he was in the Party because he could not be told anything and was an anarchist. (C) (U)

CV T-2 stated that as a result of his talk with KRCHMAREK on August 15, 1963, and through talking with others in the CP movement, he had concluded that no efforts are being made in Cleveland to get Communists to participate in the March on Washington. In fact, it is preferred that known Communists not take part in this March, and that others, who do go to Washington, stay in the background. (C) (U)

Mr. TED PRINCIOTTO, writer for "The Cleveland Press," Cleveland daily newspaper, on August 16, 1963, furnished a copy of a statement entitled, "Communists and The Freedom March" - a statement which states in part, "The position of the Communist Party of the U.S. on the issue of Civil Rights is a matter of public record since its formation. It has consistently given full support to the struggle for equal rights for the Negro people in our country. --- At one time the Communists were almost alone in waging the fight for equal rights. Times have changed --- The position of the Communists, therefore, is no secret. Why then did the Cleveland Police Department at this time choose to publicize actions of individuals in supporting the historic Freedom March to Washington? Clearly, it can be only for one purpose - an effort to disrupt the Freedom March by the use of old red-baiting tactics.---" The statement bears the typed signature "A. KRCHMAREK, Spokesman, Communist Party of Ohio."

CV T-7 advised on August 29, 1963, that at a local "peace" group meeting held August 19, 1963, in Cleveland, there was discussion concerning the March on Washington, and it was decided that VIOLET and ELSIE TARCAI would drive to Washington and take FRIEDA HARRIS and RUTH LENCL with them. All others who could manage the trip were to board buses chartered by CORE. (U)

VIOLET JEAN TARCAI

On October 14, 1946, CV T-22 furnished a list of persons who were then members of the CP in Cleveland, Ohio. The name of VIOLET TARCAI, 2096 East 96th Street, was included in this list as a member of the Lawyers Club of the CP in Cleveland. (U)

On October 27, 1958, CV T-2 advised that at a CP meeting held on October 24, 1958, VIOLET TARCAI was mentioned as being one of three persons who were to submit articles to "The Worker" concerning the CP of Ohio. (U)

"The Worker" is an East Coast Communist newspaper.

On July 25, 1963, CV T-7 advised that TARCAI was a member of a delegation of American women who traveled to Moscow, USSR, on June 19, 1963, to attend a peace gathering being held there under the sponsorship of the Women's International Democratic Federation.

A characterization of the Women's International Democratic Federation is attached.

On July 17, 1963, CV T-23 advised that TARCAI attended the annual meeting of the National Committee to Abolish the House Un-American Activities Committee (NCAHUAC), which was held in Chicago, Illinois, on April 27 - 28, 1963. (U)

A characterization of the NCAHUAC is attached.

ELSIE TARCAI Ohio

[redacted] a former member of the Communist Party in Cleveland, and who testified on behalf of the U.S. Government, advised in November, 1950, that he knew ELSIE TARCAI was formerly active in the Communist Party. He stated that he was of the opinion that the fact that the CP has been in the national spotlight accounted for ELSIE TARCAI not openly being active in the CP at this time. b6 b7C

CV T-17 advised on March 11, 1964, ELSIE TARCAI was present on March 7, 1964, at a meeting of the Citizens for Constitutional Rights held in Cleveland at which the speaker related steps being taken in efforts to abolish the House Commitee on Un-American Activities. (U)

[redacted] who has furnished information to the U.S. Government, is a self-admitted former member of the Communist Party whose cooperation with the Government was publicly disclosed on June 5, 1962. She advised on October 20, 1960, that [redacted] was at that time a member of the CP in Cleveland.

With one exception, no source of the Cleveland Office has furnished any information to show or indicate that any subversive person or organization directed, controled or instigated any of the demonstrations hereafter set forth. To the contrary, as set forth in Section I of this report, the evidence indicates that the policy of the local CP and SWP prohibits their members from taking controling parts in any civil rights demonstrations. The one exception is the demonstration on June 11, 1964, protesting the arrest of Alabama Governor WALLACE in Cleveland, and in this instance the fact that placards of the Young Socialist Alliance were carried by pickets, indicates that they must have exercised some control in this demonstration.

B. Demonstration
Cleveland, Ohio
February 3, 1964

The United Freedom Movement (UFM) is a amalgamation of approximately 30 groups in the Cleveland area which are interested in civil rights. It includes the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People (NAACP), CORE and various other types of organizations such as church groups, civic groups, welfare groups and fraternal groups.

Negro discontent with the policy of the Cleveland Educational System became increasingly pronounced in early 1964. The UFM protested that although students from predominantly Negro areas were "bussed" to schools in predominantly white areas, they were not properly integrated into receiving schools.

CONFIDENTIAL (U)

The UFM also contended that the Cleveland Board of Education was promoting "defacto segregation" in the building of new schools in Negro neighborhoods.

Demonstration
February 3, 1964

Approximately 200 persons attempted to enter the Cleveland Board of Education Building during a meeting of the Cleveland School Board, called to discuss the issue of "bussed" students. The demonstration was sponsored by the UFM which had refused to accept the school board's proposal for the solution of this issue. UFM called for a sit-in demonstration in the Board of Education Building. Some 75 persons remained in the building during the night of February 3 - 4, 1964.

Identity of subversives at this demonstration, and their degree of participation, is as follows:

D. Picketing of Cleveland Police Department February 5, 1964

Cleveland CORE on this date sponsored a picket line at the Cleveland Police Department in protest of the arrests made on the previous day. Approximately 50 persons participated in the picketing, which was peaceful. The identity of subjects observed and their degree of participation is as follows:

WILLIAM CARL SANDBERG - marched as a picket.

WILLIAM CARL SANDBERG

Records of the Cuyahoga County Board of Elecctions, Cleveland, Ohio, reflect that SANDBERG was a CP candidate in Ohio for State Representative in 1932, for United States Senator in 1934, and for State Congressman in 1936.

HERMAN EDWARD WOLFROM, a self-admitted former member of the Ward 16 CP Club, Cleveland, Ohio, advised on November 19, 1956, that SANDBERG was a member of that club during the period of WOLFROM's membership, 1938 to 1948.

CARL SANDBERG, son of WILLIAM CARL SANDBERG, advised on June 20, 1960, that his father in the past was a dedicated Communist and that when he last saw his father in 1959, he continued to espouse the CP line and spoke in favor of Russia's foreign policy.

E. Demonstration at Cleveland, Ohio, School on April 6, 1964

Approximately 100 persons picketed the site in Cleveland where a new school is being constructed, construction being in a predominantly Negro neighborhood. The picketing was sponsored by UFM, and particularly CORE, in protest against the erection of a new school in a neighborhood, which in effect perpetuates "built in" or "defacto segregation." Twenty persons were arrested for interferring with construction work by throwing themselves in front of heavy construction machinery.

Identity of subversives observed at demonstration and their degree of participation is as follows:

F. Demonstration at Cleveland School
April 7, 1964

The demonstration, sponsored by the UFM continued this date at the school construction site with 70 to 100 persons being present. The Reverend BRUCE W. KLUNDER, a young Presbyterian Minister, was accidently killed when he laid down behind a bull-dozer and was crushed to death when the operator reversed his machine in order to avoid other demonstrators. Although organized picketing was discontinued after the accident, crowds estimated by police to include as many as 1,000 persons gathered in the area and vandalism and looting continued through the evening hours. Twenty-five persons were reported to have been arrested in connection with looting and vandalism.

Identity of subversives observed at the demonstration and their degree of participation is as follows:

KRCHMAREK stated that this demonstration is ill-advised because it might ignite the irresponsible element who would use the demonstration as an excuse for hoodlum activities, and pillage. One of the local CP members inquired of KRCHMAREK as to whether he (the local CP member) should attend the CORE demonstration on July 30, 1964. KRCHMAREK advised against it. (U)

O. Effort to Desegregate
South High School Assembly
Youngstown, Ohio
January, 1964

CV T-18 advised on February 5, 1964, that on January 18, 1964, a group of eleven students from South High School, Youngstown, Ohio, met in Youngstown. They ranged in age from sixteen to eighteen years old and of the eleven students, five were Negroes and six were Whites. [redacted] and [redacted] were in charge of this meeting and only the [redacted] knew the purpose of the meeting. [redacted] advised that no name would be given to this group, and that it would not be known as a club, but would be merely a discussion group concerned with the pending civil rights bill. (U) b6 b7C

In addition to a discussion on the civil rights bill, those present at this meeting made plans to desegregate the voluntarily segregated assembly at South High School. (U)

Also at this meeting, officers were designated for the group. However, before the next scheduled meeting was held, [redacted] advised that he had decided to abolish these offices, since the group was not organized as a club but was merely a discussion group. (U)

CONFIDENTIAL (U)

CV T-25 advised on January 6, 1964, that [redacted] and [redacted] are the teen-age sons of [redacted] and [redacted], both of whom are CP members in Youngstown, Ohio, and [redacted] being the leader of the Youngstown CP. b6 b7C

CV T-25 stated on December 30, 1961, that [redacted] visited the Soviet Union in the summer of 1961, as a guest of the son and wife of GUS HALL. (U)

CV t-20 advised on December 18, 1963, that GUSS HALL is General Secretary of the CPUSA. (U)

CV T-18 further stated on February 5, 1964, that at the first assembly at South High School following this meeting on January 18, 1964, a few of the persons who had attended this meeting made an effort to desegregate the South High School assembly, but their efforts were a failure. (U)

CV T-18 advised on February 5, 1964, that a second meeting of the South High School discussion group was held on February 2, 1964, at which the speaker reviewed activities that have occurred in the past in efforts to desegregate swimming pools in Youngstown, Ohio. Also discussed at this meeting were the adverse circumstances that exist at South High School and the question of how to desegregate the South High School assembly. (U)

P. Picketing of Stores in Youngstown, Ohio June 1, 1964

The "Youngstown Vindicator", daily Youngstown newspaper of general circulation, issue of June 1, 1964, stated that "Negroes Hit Two Stores - Picket Two Federal Street Markets on Hiring - Twelve pickets from the Youngstown Chapter of the NAACP appeared today at two markets on Federal Street to protest employment practicies. - Signs urged equal work for equal spending ---" b6 b7C

[redacted] Security Officer, Youngstown, Ohio, Police Department, advised on June 2, 1964, that NATHANIEL LEE, President of Local Chapter of NAACP, was one of the pickets.

NATHANIEL LEE

[CV T-38 advised on March 9, 1947, that] NATHANIEL LEE attended the National Convention of the Socialist Workers Party held in Cleveland, Ohio, that date and that he was appointed as a representative from the Youngstown Branch on the nominating committee of the convention. (U)

When interviewed by Special Agents of the FBI on February 1, 1962, LEE stated that he had attended many meetings of the SWP during the period 1941 to 1946 or 1947, but had not considered himself to be a member of the group. He stated that he discontinued attending meetings because he disagreed with certain economic beliefs of the SWP and that his main interest was in the SWP's program in connection with Negroes in this country.

[CV T-39 advised on April 28, 1954, that] NATHANIEL LEE had been present at a meeting of the Youngstown, Ohio, branch of the SWP, held on April 23, 1954, which meeting was open only to SWP members and sympathizers. (U)

III. COMMUNIST PENETRATION AND INFLUENCE IN RACIAL AND OTHER ORGANIZATIONS

A. UNITED FREEDOM MOVEMENT (UFM)

CV T-16 advised on October 7, 1964 that the UFM is ~~CV~~ (U) not a membership organization as such because the UFM is made up of individual organizations rather than individual persons. He stated that each of the approximately 30 member organizations is entitled to send two delegates to the UFM. He said that the organizations are free to change their delegates at their own discretion and therefore there is no set list of the delegates to the UFM because of the frequent changes.

The source stated that the organization is headed by four co-chairmen who alternate serving as head of the UFM. They are: of the United Freedom Movement

[redacted] of the Cleveland Chapter of the NAACP. b6 b7C

[redacted] Fidelity Baptist Church.

[redacted] St. Marks United Presbyterian Church.

[redacted] Manpower Retraining for the City of Cleveland.

In addition to the above, the source furnished the other UFM officers - [redacted] b6 b7C of the Cleveland Chapter of the NAACP, who serves as [redacted] of the UFM and [redacted] of the Cleveland Chapter of CORE, who serve as [redacted] serves as [redacted]

The source advised that the UFM is definitely anti-Communist and that none of the member organizations are known to have any subversive connections. He stated that the member organizations are primarily civil rights groups, churches, and civic and fraternal groups. He said that the UFM contains both

~~CONFIDENTIAL~~ (U)

Negro and white organizations, as well as Protestant, Catholic and Jewish organizations.

The source stated that the UFM is controlled primarily by local NAACP officials and their programs and policies are substantially the same as those of the NAACP.

The source further reported that he is aware that there have been some persons with subversive backgrounds who have participated in picket lines and other demonstrations sponsored by the UFM. Concerning this, he stated that the UFM has always publicly announced when a demonstration is planned, and as participation is open to any person in the member organizations, there is no way to effectively screen those who do participate. He stated that as a matter of actual practice, any person who agrees to abide by the UFM principle of nonviolence is given a placard to march in a demonstration. He said, however, that UFM is very careful in selecting the marshals who give instructions to the participants, and there have been no instances where any of the marshals or other leaders are persons with known subversive backgrounds.

The source stated that the UFM leaders have been able to effectively control the more militant groups who have advocated such measures as mass sit-ins, stall-ins and similar techniques. He stated that this is the real purpose of the UFM, to control those groups who might undertake policies or programs that would only serve to bring public sentiment against the civil rights movement.

The source stated that the UFM is a Cleveland organization and there are no chapters or affiliates in any other area.

Sources of the Cleveland Office have furnished no subversive information identifiable with any of the officers of the UFM.

In the following organizations, the identity of an officer, a person of influence or a member is only set forth where there is subversive information pertaining to that individual.

B. NATIONAL ASSOCIATION FOR THE ADVANCEMENT OF COLORED PEOPLE (NAACP)

Akron, Ohio NAACP

[CV T-55, on September 22, 1964,] furnished the identity of the officers of the Akron NAACP. He stated that it is his recollection that the Akron NAACP has a membership of 2,000 to 2,500, not all of whom are active.

Sources of the Cleveland Office have furnished no subversive information identifiable with any of the officers and/or known members of the Akron NAACP.

Ashtabula, Ohio NAACP

[redacted] Ashtabula, Ohio Police Department, furnished the identity of the officers of the Ashtabula NAACP on September 25, 1964. He stated that the Ashtabula NAACP has approximately 33 members and that they meet at the Peoples Baptist Church in Ashtabula, Ohio. b6 b7C

Sources of the Cleveland Office have furnished no subversive information identifiable with any of the officers and/or known members of the Ashtabula NAACP.

Allen County, Ohio NAACP

[redacted] Fourth Baptist Church and [redacted] Allen County Chapter of the NAACP, Lima, Ohio, on September 22, 1964 furnished the identity of the officers of that NAACP chapter. He stated that this is the only NAACP chapter in the surrounding counties and that it has approximately 200 paying members. He stated that the officers have all held their positions for the past seven years, that they all enjoy a good reputation in the community and that there had been no racial demonstrations and no known racial violence in the Lima, Ohio area. b6 b7C

Sources of the Cleveland Office have furnished no subversive information identifiable with any of the officers and/or known members of the Allen County NAACP.

Fostoria, Ohio NAACP

[redacted] Sandusky, Ohio, advised that he is [redacted] Ohio NAACP. On October 12, 1964, he furnished the identity of the officers of the Fostoria NAACP. b6 b7C

Sources of the Cleveland Office have furnished no subversive information identifiable with any of the officers of the Fremont NAACP. b6 b7C

Mansfield, Ohio NAACP

[redacted] of the Ohio State Reformatory at Mansfield, Ohio, advised on September 18, 1964 that the Mansfield Chapter of the NAACP was established in January, 1963, at which time officers were elected. He stated that this chapter now has approximately 300 members. He advised that he knew of no adverse or subversive information concerning any of the officers of this chapter, and pointed out that this is not a militant chapter.

Sources of the Cleveland Office have furnished no subversive information identifiable with any of the officers and/or known members of the Mansfield NAACP.

Marion, Ohio NAACP b6 b7C

[redacted] Marion, Ohio Police Department, furnished the identity of the officers of the Marion NAACP Chapter on October 6, 1964. He advised that while he did not know the number of members in this branch, he did know the officers whose names he had furnished and that to the best of his knowledge none of them have ever been connected with any subversive activity.

Sources of the Cleveland Office have furnished no subversive information identifiable with any of the officers and/or known members of the Marion NAACP.

Sandusky, Ohio NAACP

(U) ~~CONFIDENTIAL~~

[redacted] advised on October 12, 1964 that he has been an active officer in the Ohio State NAACP for the past eight years and personally knows the officers of the Sandusky NAACP, Fremont NAACP and Fostoria NAACP, all of whose identity he furnished. He advised that he would estimate the membership of the Sandusky Chapter as 100, but did not know the size of the other chapters.

Sources of the Cleveland Office have furnished no subversive information identifiable with any of the officers and/or known members of the Sandusky NAACP. b6 b7C

Stark County, Ohio NAACP

[redacted] of the Fair Employment Practices Commission, Canton, Ohio, advised on October 7, 1964 that the Stark County NAACP has about 200 members. He furnished the identity of the officers of the Stark County NAACP.

Sources of the Cleveland Office have furnished no subversive information identifiable with any of the officers and/or known members of the Stark County NAACP.

Toledo, Ohio NAACP

[redacted] of the Toledo Chapter of the NAACP, on September 28, 1964 furnished the identity of the officers of the Toledo Chapter and also advised that that organization currently has approximately 3,500 members. b6 b7C

Sources of the Cleveland Office have furnished no subversive information identifiable with any of the officers and/or known members of the Toledo NAACP.

Youngstown, Ohio NAACP

CV T-56 advised on October 8, 1964 that the Youngstown NAACP has approximately 25 to 30 members and that it does not have any regular election of officers. However, the chapter is run by NATHANIEL LEE, who is President of the chapter and who appoints members to positions on the Executive Board. CV T-56 stated that LEE is also the President of the NAACP for the State of Ohio. He stated that he has never heard any Communist aims or propaganda expounded at any of the NAACP meetings. Among the officers of the Youngstown NAACP, identified by CV T-56, are the following:

NATHANIEL LEE - President of local chapter and President of the NAACP for the State of Ohio.

LEE has previously been identified in this report.

[redacted] - Member of the NAACP Educational Committee. b6 b7C

[redacted]

CV T-57 advised on June 21, 1960 that [redacted] was in attendance at a Communist Party (CP) meeting held in Youngstown, Ohio, on June 18, 1960 at which there was discussion concerning dissension in the CP.

[redacted] - Member of the Educational Committee.

[redacted]

CV T-25 advised on June 21, 1960 that at a CP meeting held in Youngstown, Ohio, on June 18, 1960, at which [redacted] was present, the Chairman of the Ohio CP announced that [redacted] was Organizer of the CP in Youngstown. b6 b7C

CV T-12 advised on June 1, 1961 that according to a leader of the Workers World Party in Youngstown, Ohio, [redacted] had either quit the CP or was thrown out, and that while he associated with Workers World Party members, he was not a member of the Workers World Party.

CV T-12 advised on February 4, 1964 that this same Workers World Party leader in Youngstown stated on January 30, 1964 that [redacted] had just quit coming around and had not been seen in months, but that he has done this before and then all of a sudden would show up as though nothing had happened.

Cleveland, Ohio NAACP

[CV T-16 advised on September 25, 1964 that] the Cleveland NAACP is currently conducting its annual membership drive and hopes to enroll about 20,000 members, its current membership being about 17,000 persons.

Concerning possible Communist influence in the NAACP, [CV T-16 stated that] it is the policy of the Cleveland NAACP to make every effort to prevent any person with Communist affiliations from taking any active part in the NAACP. He advised that the only person he knows with Communist background who holds a position in the NAACP is MORRIS JAFFA, a member of the Executive Committee. He advised that JAFFA has served in this capacity for a number of years, and his activities have been observed because of his reputation as a Communist. [CV T-16 stated that] at no time has he observed JAFFA to take a position which might be considered as a part of the CP line. [CV T-16 advised that] about a year ago, ERIC REINTHALER tried to become active in the NAACP, but that the necessary steps were taken to see that REINTHALER did not receive notice of meetings, and to see that he was not appointed to any committee, with the result that REINTHALER dropped out of the NAACP and joined CORE. Also, about a year ago, [redacted] wanted to become active in the NAACP. [CV T-16 stated that] he had heard of [redacted] alleged Communist affiliations, and consequently did not give [redacted] any consideration for positions of responsibility, as a result of which [redacted] resigned from the NAACP.

JUDGE PERRY B. JACKSON

On October 21, 1943, CV T-48 advised that at a meeting of the Executive Committee of the Communist Party of Cuyahoga County, held that date, GUS HALL, Chairman of the Cuyahoga County CP, made the statement that PERRY B. JACKSON's campaign was of utmost importance and mentioned that JACKSON, in some of his recent speeches, had praised ARNOLD JOHNSON, State Secretary of the Ohio CP. CV T-48 stated that ARNOLD JOHNSON had been a candidate for membership on the Cleveland City Board of Education in the primary election of 1943.

The September 30, 1944 issue of the "Cleveland Gazette", former weekly newspaper in Cleveland, contained a news article under the headline "Ohio School of Social Sciences Will Hear Judge PERRY B. JACKSON lecture".

A news item in the May 7, 1945 issue of the "Cleveland Plain Dealer" shows that PERRY B. JACKSON spoke on May 6, 1945 before a "peace forum", which forum was publicly sponsored by the Glenville Club of the Communist Political Association.

The Communist Political Association has been cited by the Attorney General pursuant to Executive Order 10450.

In connection with the above item, CV T-51 advised on May 7, 1945 that he was in attendance at the above "peace forum", and at the beginning of his talk, Judge JACKSON made it clear that he was not a member of the CPA. (U)

On August 4, 1945, CV T-49 advised that on that date, YETTA LAND, a member of the Executive Board of the Glenville Club of the CPA came to CPA Headquarters in Cleveland and advised that PERRY B. JACKSON was then a candidate for Cleveland Municipal Judge and had asked her to serve on his nominating committee. YETTA LAND inquired of ARNOLD JOHNSON as to his opinion as to whether she should serve. JOHNSON told LAND that she should serve on the committee; that "we gave the okay to PERRY JACKSON at the previous county central meeting of the CPA. He knows who he is asking and he knows your sympathies. We've got to work with him on my campaign also". (U)

[redacted] stated that he vaguely recalled seeing newspaper articles of election "throwaways" stating that JACKSON had been endorsed by the local Communist group and that he had made an appearance at one or more Communist affairs. [redacted] stated that he feels certain that PERRY JACKSON was never a Communist, but that being a Negro campaigning for a judgeship, which position had traditionally been held by white judges, caused JACKSON to welcome all the support he could muster from whatever sources, including possible Communists. [redacted] stated that JACKSON is an intelligent, honest, reputable, civic-minded individual who is a credit to his race. [redacted] further observed that now that Judge JACKSON has gained the respect of the whole community he is in a position to be more independent and at this time would undoubtedly discourage or shun political support from any Communist group. b6 b7C

[redacted] CV T-48 and CV T-49 advised during the period January 14, 1947 through October 21, 1947 that [redacted] they knew of eleven occasions when CHARLES LUCAS was in contact with CP leaders in the Cleveland area during that time. It is noted that at this time LUCAS was Executive Secretary of the NAACP.

[redacted] CV T-47 advised on February 27, 1948 that [redacted] one CHARLES LUCAS, of Cleveland, was at that time a subscriber to the "Daily Worker".

CONFIDENTIAL (U)

WILLIAM GARFIELD CUMMINGS is a self-admitted former member of the CP who testified on behalf of the United States Government in 1949. He advised in February, 1949 that he attended an enlarged meeting of the CP Negro Commission in Cleveland on February 3, 1949. CUMMINGS stated that one of the leaders in the Negro Commission commented in his talk that the CP had made mistake after mistake in working with the NAACP and that was why the CP had no contacts in the leadership in the NAACP. This speaker stated that the CP should try to correct these mistakes and that they must and can get into the NAACP in order to build CP prestige. This speaker stated that the CP must learn to work with LUCAS even though the CP knows LUCAS to be a reactionary. According to CUMMINGS, this CP speaker stated that the CP knew that LUCAS would disagree with CP proposals but the CP must get to work to remove LUCAS from his state leadership in the NAACP. This speaker indicated that the CP would bring pressure to bear on LUCAS in an effort to have him removed from the NAACP.

CV T-52 advised on November 16, 1949 that a (U) meeting sponsored by the Socialist Workers Party (SWP) was held on November 11, 1949 in Cleveland, Ohio, and that a number of guest speakers were present including CHARLES LUCAS of the NAACP.

On June 10, 1953, CV T-53 advised that on that date FRIEDA KATZ was told that LUCAS was in favor of a suggestion that she be given three tickets to the National NAACP Convention, scheduled in the near future. On June 22, 1953, this same source stated that FRIEDA KATZ then inquired of LUCAS as to whether or not she could send someone to this NAACP Convention. According to CV T-53, LUCAS commented that he wished she had talked to him sooner as it was too late to do this now. (U)

and CV T-54 (U)

CV T-53 advised during the period April 8, 1952 to September 4, 1953 that FRIEDA KATZ, was in contact with CHARLES LUCAS of the NAACP on at least 22 occasions during that time. Sources stated that it was apparent that LUCAS and FRIEDA KATZ were on quite friendly terms, and on October 27, 1952 FRIEDA KATZ commented to LUCAS that she would try to get some NAACP members for him. Sources pointed out that (U)

during this time FRIEDA KATZ was active in the Civil Rights Congress, in addition to being a prominent CP member in Cleveland. (U)

The "Cleveland Press", issue of January 20, 1958, contained an article entitled "Subversive Link Denied By LUCAS". The article mentioned that CHARLES P. LUCAS had been nominated by Mayor ANTHONY CELEBREZZE of Cleveland to be the first Negro named to the Cleveland Transit Board. However, efforts were being made to block LUCAS' appointment because he was a "leftist". The article stated that LUCAS calmly denied accusations that he had a record of association with subversive and Communist front groups. LUCAS insisted he was a loyal American and his efforts in behalf of racial equality and nondiscrimination were by no means "subversive". In his former capacity as NAACP Executive Secretary, LUCAS said he may have had contacts with "leftists" but that did not make him a Communist sympathizer.

L. PEARL MITCHELL

ARTHUR OTTO HASSER, a member of the CP in the Cincinnati, Ohio area from 1929 to 1939, in 1940 furnished a pamphlet entitled "Call For The National Negro Congress". A notation on the front of this pamphlet stated "On To The National Negro Congress - Chicago, Illinois, February 14, 1936". The pamphlet listed the endorsers of the National Negro Congress residing in the United States, one being Miss L. PEARL MITCHELL of Cleveland.

In 1941, Mr. WILLIAM O. WALKER, editor of the "Cleveland Call and Post", a local Cleveland Negro newspaper, gave some information concerning some of the endorsers to the National Negro Congress. He stated that he knew "LILLIE" PEARL MITCHELL as one of the National Directors of the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People and considered her an excellent woman who was respected by both the white and Negroes alike in the Cleveland area.

The "Cleveland Plain Dealer", issue of February 3, 1941 carried an article listing Miss L. PEARL MITCHELL as one of the persons elected as a State Director of the Ohio Committee for the Protection of the Foreign Born.

A characterization of AIMS appears in the Appendix Section.

On September 17, 1964, CV T-41 advised that AIMS, which was set up to circumvent the McCarran Act, is not a membership type organization. He furnished the following information concerning persons who are termed Associates of AIMS: (S) (U)

Those persons, who are affiliated with AIMS, generally speaking, outside of the office staff and who are active in behalf of AIMS, are called Associates. (S) (U)

An Associate can be described as an individual usually of some prominence, or who has had some special training or education such as professors, scientists, economists, etc., who are willing to be of assistance to AIMS in some positive manner. (S) (U)

An example of an individual who would qualify as an Associate of AIMS would be a scientist or an (S) (U)

economist who would review, synopsize, and/or, in some cases, clip articles for AIMS from the various periodicals in his particular field. (U)

Another more obvious example of an individual who can be described as an Associate of AIMS would be a professor assigned to teach courses in the many colleges and universities, especially in such subjects as Marxism, History, Economics, etc., where the Communist line is easily adaptable to the course, in most cases, not openly, but rather discreetly.

For a person to be listed as an Associate of AIMS, it is reasonable to believe that HERBERT APTHEKER, Director of AIMS, has good reason to think that this individual, at least to some extent, is under his influence. This, of course, is the same as saying that the person has leanings toward Communism to some extent. This, however, would not mean that this individual is a CP member, but that he could be described as an individual sympathetic towards Communism to some degree. (U)

On October 2, 1964, CV T-42 advised that [redacted] (U) b6 b7C

The source stated that [redacted] has described himself as a "socialist" in that he believes in government ownership of the basic means of production and government welfare policies. The source further advised, however, that [redacted] has expressed strong opposition to socialistic groups which embody a revolutionary concept such as the CP and the SWP. The source stated that [redacted] was one of the CORE leaders who was most instrumental in removing SWP members and sympathizers from official positions in CORE during the election of officers on September 1, 1964. b6 b7C

On October 22, 1964, CV T-9 advised that he is well acquainted with [redacted] and that [redacted] is definitely opposed to the SWP and the CP. The source stated that because of his interest in socialism and in connection with his (U)

The source stated that it is his opinion that any study by [redacted] in the Marxist-Leninist field would be because of his intellectual curiosity and would not be for the purpose of furthering the CP or the SWP. (U) CONFIDENTIAL b6 b7C

CV T-34 advised on July 23, 1964 that the Cleveland Chapter of CORE was in the process of adopting a new constitution which would enable CORE to expel from membership any member who associates himself with any other group or organization which expounds a philosophy contradictory to the fundamental principles of CORE or attempts to subvert the CORE group through allegiance to other groups or organizations. The source advised that although this provision does not specifically mention the CP or the SWP, everyone in the organization realized that the purpose of the provision was to provide for the expulsion of persons affiliated with such organizations. The source subsequently advised that the new constitution was adopted by the Cleveland Chapter without any opposition concerning the above provision. (U)

On September 14, 1964, the same source advised that the following are among the persons who are currently members of CORE, but who hold no official positions and exert no influence in the programs or policies of the organization:

AMERICAN INSTITUTE FOR MARXIST STUDIES

A source advised on April 9, 1963, that on April 7, 1963, at a meeting of the District Committee of the Communist Party, United States of America (CP, USA), of New England, held in Boston, Massachusetts, Herbert Aptheker stated he was developing an organization called American Institute for Marxist Studies (AIMS), which would eventually legalize the CP. He stated AIMS would publish literature on history, science, physics, archeology and other subjects which would be put out quarterly with various supplements.

A second source advised in December, 1959, that Herbert Aptheker was elected to the National Committee, CP, USA, at the 17th National Convention of the CP, USA, held in December, 1959.

A third source advised on June 7, 1963, that on June 3, 1963, Herbert Aptheker spoke at the CP, USA, New York District Board meeting concerning AIMS. Aptheker stated that AIMS would unite and strengthen the CP although the CP would not be connected with it. He stated AIMS was being formed to operate within the scope of the McCarran and Smith Acts and would legally bring Marxist material and opinions to the attention of American scholars and the general public.

A fourth source advised on May 15, 1964, that as of that date AIMS was located on the fifth floor west at 20 East 30th Street, New York, New York.

CLEVELAND BRANCH
INDEPENDENT SOCIALIST LEAGUE (ISL)

On December 24, 1958, a source advised that he knew the Cleveland Branch of the ISL to have been a branch of the National Organization known as the ISL, which national organization maintained headquarters at 114 West 14th Street in New York City. He stated that he knew the Cleveland Branch ISL to have been in existence prior to 1952 and was quite sure it was established when the organization split from the Socialist Workers Party.

This source stated that it was his personal knowledge that at the Cleveland Branch ISL meeting in the latter part of September, 1958, a letter from the National Office of the ISL was read, stating that the ISL had been officially dissolved on September 18, 1958. Source stated that since that date, the Cleveland Branch met only informally until December 15, 1958, when former members of the Cleveland Branch ISL met with members of the Socialist Party - Social Democratic Federation in Cleveland and filled out formal individual applications for membership in that organization. Source advised that these former ISL members were voted into the Cleveland Chapter of the Socialist Party - Social Democratic Federation at this same meeting.

CLEVELAND JEWISH FOLK CHORUS (CJFC)

A source on September 23, 1955, reported that the CJFC in Cleveland was then a member of the Jewish Music Alliance (JMA), which had headquarters in New York City. The CJFC, which was formerly known as the Gesang Farein and the Jewish Peoples Singing Society, was formed about thirty years ago, and was sponsored by the Jewish Peoples Fraternal Order (JPFO) of the International Workers Order (IWO).

The JPFO and the IWO have been designated by the Attorney General of the United States pursuant to Executive Order 10450.

The Morning Freiheit (MF), issue of March 9, 1960, reflected that representatives of the CJFC participated in the plenum of the JMA on March 6, 1960, in New York City.

House Report, March 29, 1944, of the Special Committee on Un-American Activities, indicates that the MF "has been one of the rankest organs of Communist propaganda in this country for almost a quarter of a century."

A second source advised on May 27, 1964, that the CJFC continues active in the Cleveland area and some of the members support the Morning Freiheit. It is considered one of the progressive Jewish groups in Cleveland, along with the Yiddisher Kultur Farband (YKUF).

The YKUF is an organization designated by the Attorney General of the United States pursuant to Executive Order 10450.

COMMUNITY FORUM, aka

Progressive Community Forum

On July 26, 1960, a source advised that the Community Forum (CF) was organized in Cleveland, Ohio, about October, 1959, as the Social and Fraternal Cousins Community Forum and finally the present name Community Forum was adopted.

Source advised that the CF was formed by people who consider themselves "progressive" and who had formerly associated in various other organizations in Cleveland. Some CF members have been members of the Communist Party (CP) in the past, and some have been members of or active in various CP front groups.

At CF meetings the members participated in fraternal and cultural activities, including panel discussions, book reviews, lectures, and film showings. In discussion periods at CF meetings, some of the CF members present have taken the opportunity to espouse the CP "line" on the topics under discussion.

Source advised on October 21, 1963, that [redacted] was [redacted] of the CF for the 1963-64 season.

[redacted]

A second source advised on February 18, 1960, that [redacted] is an old-time Communist who was active in CP affairs in the past. [redacted] belonged to the old County Central CP Committee and although this source has not seen [redacted] at any CP affairs in recent years, source felt [redacted] still sympathized with the aims of the CP. b6 b7C

This second source also advised on August 21, 1961, that [redacted] attended a CP gathering at Cleveland, Ohio, on August 19, 1961, and source believed that all those in attendance at this affair were considered to be CP members, otherwise they would not have been invited to this affair.

A third source indicated on June 22, 1964, that the CF continued to function in the Cleveland, Ohio, area, and this group held its last meeting of the 1963-64 season at South Euclid, Ohio, on June 5, 1964.

FAIR PLAY FOR CUBA COMMITTEE

The April 6, 1960, edition of "The New York Times" newspaper contained a full-page advertisement captioned "What Is Really Happening In Cuba," placed by the Fair Play for Cuba Committee (FPCC). This advertisement announced the formation of the FPCC in New York City and declared the FPCC intended to promulgate "the truth about revolutionary Cuba" to neutralize the distorted American press.

"The New York Times" edition of January 11, 1961, reported that at a hearing conducted before the United States Senate Internal Security Subcommittee on January 10, 1961, [redacted] identified himself and [redacted] as organizers of the FPCC. He also testified he and [redacted] obtained funds from the Cuban Government which were applied toward the cost of the aforementioned advertisement. b6 b7C

On May 16, 1963, a source advised that during the first two years of the FPCC's existence there was a struggle between Communist Party (CP) and Socialist Workers Party (SWP) elements to exert their power within the FPCC and thereby influence FPCC policy. This source added that during the past year there had been a successful effort by FPCC leadership to minimize the role of these and other organizations in the FPCC so that their influence as of May, 1963, was negligible.

The SWP has been designated pursuant to Executive Order 10450.

On May 20, 1963, a second source advised that VINCENT "TED" LEE, FPCC National Office Director, was then formulating FPCC policy and had indicated that he had no intention of permitting FPCC policy to be determined by any other organization. This source stated that LEE believed that the FPCC should advocate resumption of diplomatic relations between Cuba and the United States and should support the right of Cubans to manage their revolution without interference from other nations. LEE did not advocate supporting the Cuban revolution per se.

The November 23, 1963, edition of "The New York Times" reported that Senator THOMAS J. DODD of Connecticut had called FPCC "the chief public relations instrument of the Castro network in the United States." It is to be noted that Senator DODD was a member of the Senate Internal Security Subcommittee which twice conducted hearings on the FPCC.

~~CONFIDENTIAL~~

CONFIDENTIAL (U)

The December 27, 1963, edition of "The New York World Telegram and Sun" newspaper stated that the pro-Castro FPCC was seeking to go out of business and that its prime activity during its lifetime had been sponsorship of pro-Castro street rallies and mass picket lines, and the direction of an active propaganda mill highlighting illegal travel-to-Cuba campaigns. Its comparatively brief span of life was attributed to mounting anti-Castro American public opinion, the 1962 Congressional hearings which disclosed FPCC financing by Castro's United Nations Delegation, and ultimately, the bad publicity which the FPCC received from disclosure of activities on its behalf by suspected presidential assassin Lee H. Oswald.

On February 6, 1964, the previously mentioned second source advised that V. T. LEE had recently remarked that the FPCC was dead and that there were no plans to organize another similar organization.

On April 13, 1964, a third source advised that there had not been any FPCC activity in many months and that the FPCC had been dissolved.

MONROE DEFENSE COMMITTEE

A source advised on February 16, 1962, that Gerald Quinn, a member of the Workers World Party (WWP) from New York, was sent to Cleveland, Ohio, in October, 1961, by the Monroe Defense Committee (MDC) of New York to organize an MDC in Cleveland, and that Quinn, with the aid of Ted and Frances Dostal, members of WWP, and Willie Mae Mallory, organized an MDC in Cleveland with headquarters at 1289 East 115th Street.

On March 3, 1964, this source related that the purpose of the MDC in Cleveland was to aid in the support of Willie Mae Mallory in her fight against extradition to Monroe, North Carolina. Following her extradition in January, 1964, headquarters of MDC was moved from Cleveland to Monroe, North Carolina.

A second source advised March 12, 1964, that the purpose of MDC is to obtain support and funds to aid in the continued defense of Willie Mae Mallory, Richard Crowder and Harold Reape who were convicted in Superior Court, Monroe, North Carolina, February 27, 1964, on charges of kidnapping Mr. and Mrs. G. Bruce Stegall in Monroe on August 27, 1961, following a race riot in that city.

This source stated on May 21, 1964, that Headquarters of MDC is located at 605 Brown Street, Monroe, North Carolina, with Clarence Seniors as Chairman.

A third source in September, 1963, identified Clarence Seniors as a member of WWP.

CLEVELAND COMMITTEE FOR PROTECTION OF FOREIGN BORN (CCPFB), aka OHIO COMMITTEE FOR PROTECTION OF FOREIGN BORN (OCPFB)

An informant in January, 1941, furnished an announcement stating, "Calling all Americans to an Ohio Conference, American Committee for Protection of Foreign Born (ACPFB), Cleveland City Club, February 2, 1941." The announcement states the "Conference called by" Ohio Provisional Committee," and lists the aims of the Conference as "Establish Ohio Chapter of American Committee for Protection of Foreign Born; Combat Discrimination on the Ground of Race, Nationality, or Non-Citizenship; Amend the Naturalization Laws by Reducing the Fees, Moderating the Educational Requirements and Abolishing Discrimination on the Ground of Race and Economic Viewpoint; Prevent Destruction of American families by Deportation; Maintain the Traditional Right of Asylum for Political and Religious Refugees in the United States."

This same informant, in February, 1941, reported that the conference on February 2, 1941, to establish the Ohio Chapter of the ACPFB, was dominated by the Communist Party, 63 of the 121 persons present being members of the Communist Party.

A second informant advised on April 15, 1963, that meetings held by the organization during the past recent years have been referred to as Cleveland Committee for Protection of Foreign Born (CCPFB) meetings and Cleveland ACPFB meetings. Prior to this the organization was referred to as the Ohio Committee for Protection of Foreign Born.

The CCPFB has held no meetings since June of 1961. It has no officers, bank account, or formal membership. All activities of the CCPFB, when active, had to be approved by the ACPFB. The CCPFB gave full support to any decisions made by the ACPFB.

The ACPFB has been cited pursuant to Executive Order 10450.

WORKERS WORLD PARTY

On April 17, 1959, a source advised that on February 12, 1959, a Socialist Workers Party (SWP) minority group, under the leadership of National Committee member [redacted] split from the SWP. b6 b7C

The source stated that this minority group, referred to as the Marcyites, after many years of program and policy differences on varied issues concerning tactics and interpretation of political events, split from the SWP on the grounds that the Party was liquidating itself by departing from the Marxist precepts of Leon Trotsky and retreating from the fight for the world socialist revolution. The final issue which ultimately forced the split was the minority's opposition to the SWP regroupment policy which involved cooperation with the Communist Party (CP) periphery individuals characterized by the minority as petty-bourgeois.

The minority program, according to the source, advocated unconditional defense of the Soviet Union and has as its goal the building of a revolutionary party with a complete proletarian orientation for the purpose of overthrowing capitalism in the United States and throughout the world.

On May 12, 1960, the source advised that this minority group had chosen the name Workers World Party.

On April 27, 1964, a second source advised that the Workers World Party, which maintains headquarters at 46 West 21st Street, New York, New York, supports the People's Republic of China in its ideological dispute with the Soviet Union.

The SWP and the CP have been designated pursuant to Executive Order 10450.

YOUNG SOCIALIST ALLIANCE

The May, 1960, issue of the "Young Socialist" (YS), page 1, column 3, disclosed that during April 15-17, 1960, a national organization entitled "The Young Socialist Alliance" (YSA) was established at Philadelphia, Pennsylvania. This issue stated that this organization was formed by the nationwide supporter clubs of the publication YS.

The above issue, page 6, set forth the Founding Declaration of YSA. This declaration stated that the YSA recognizes the Socialist Workers Party (SWP) as the only existing political leadership on class struggle principles, and that the supporters of the YS have come into basic political solidarity with the SWP on the principles of revolutionary socialism.

A source advised on May 6, 1964, that the original YSA was an organization formed during October, 1957, in New York City by youth of various left socialist tendencies, particularly members and followers of the SWP. The leaders of this group were the guiding forces in the establishment of the National organization.

The source further advised on May 6, 1964, that the YSA is dominated and controlled on a national basis by the SWP through having SWP members comprise exclusively the National Executive Committee (NEC) and through an official SWP representative at all YSA NEC meetings. The YSA, in reality, is the youth and training section of the SWP and the main source of new SWP members.

The headquarters of the YSA are located in Room 631, 41 Union Square West, New York City.

The SWP has been designated pursuant to Executive Order 10450.

Newark informants advised in August 1964 that [redacted] attended a meeting of the NJCP State Board held 8/2/64. [redacted] was congratulated at this meeting for his excellent work in the civil rights movement and it was announced that he had been elected a section leader in the NAACP.

It was subsequently determined from Detective [redacted] Hackensack, N. J., PD, that [redacted] cousin, [redacted] of the Bergen County (where [redacted] resides and is employed) Chapter of the NAACP, caused a check of all of the records of the Bergen County Chapter of the NAACP and that no information was available concerning [redacted] According to [redacted] is not a member of the Bergen County Chapter of the NAACP and does not hold any office therein. b6 b7C

In view of the conflicting nature of the above information, which impairs its creditability, the information concerning [redacted] being an officer in the NAACP is not being utilized in this report.

Whenever an organization is mentioned in this report, but no characterization appears in the appendix, it is because no approved characterization is available.

Characterization for the CHNC was approved in 1959, but is the most recent approved characterization available.

Title: COMMUNIST INFLUENCE IN RACIAL MATTERS

Character: INTERNAL SECURITY - C[redacted]

Synopsis:

Strategy: This report covers period of 1/1/63 - 9/30/64.

NJCP State Board on 3/1/63 considered means of supporting fight for integration of Englewood, N. J., public schools through petitions and by supporting a demonstration to be held in Trenton, N. J. Plan of work for 1963 in possession of JAMES LUSTIG, NJCP Chairman, stated that Negro workers constitute most exploited and discriminated group, and work amongst them is most important part of "our activity". Plan called for organizing of unemployed Negro workers in Newark through NALC in co-operation with Negro churches; special attention to building and printing trades unions concerning admission of Negro youth as apprentices and students in trade schools; exposure of housing conditions; and organization of people to fight for lower rent and more low cost housing. BEN DAVIS addressed expanded NJCP State Board meeting 8/11/63 on Negro problems. DAVIS described present revolutionary period as a peaceful revolution for status. LEW MOROZE reported to a CP unit on 8/21/63 on "Role of Party Members in Negro Struggle". MOROZE asked CP members to surround themselves with "grass roots" elements of the masses involved in the Negro struggle. NJ Chapter of WEB Du Bois Clubs of America decided its members should join such groups as CORE and NAACP. In May 1963, the Newark SWP distributed a leaflet which demanded that Negroes in Birmingham be armed. A member of the SWP has predicted that race riots will continue and that there will be a "blood bath" in what he termed self-defense of the Negroes. LNVC strategy has included picketing at civil rights demonstrations; appealing to political
